22. Determination of person to whom indemnity shall be paid. In any case where the insured has transferred his interest in all or a part of the corn crop on any insurance unit, or has ceased to act as a fiduciary, or has died, has been judicially declared incompetent or has disappeared, payment in accordance with the provisions of the contract will be made only after the facts have been established to the satisfaction of the Corporation. The determination of the Corporation as to the existence or nonexistence of a circumstance in the event of which payment may be made and of the person(s) to whom such payment will be made shall be final and conclusive. Payment of an indemnity under this section shall constitute a complete discharge of the Corporation's obligation with respect to the loss for which such indemnity is paid and settled and shall be a bar to recovery by any other person.

23. Other insurance. (a) If the insured has or acquires any other insurance against substantially all the risks that are insured against by the Corporation under the contract, regardless of whether such other insurance is valid or collectible, the liability of the Corporation shall not be greater than its share would be if the amount of its obligations were divided equally between the Corporation and such other insurer.

(b) In any case where an indemnity is paid to the insured by another Government agency because of damage to the corn crop, the Corporation reserves the right to determine its liability under the contract taking into consideration the amount paid by such other agency.

24. Subrogation. The Corporation may require from the insured an assignment of all rights of recovery against any person(s) for loss or damage to the extent that payment therefor is made by the Corporation, and the insured shall execute all papers required and shall do everything that may be necessary to secure such rights.

25. Collateral assignment. The original insured may assign his right to an indemnity under the contract by executing a form entitled "Collateral Assignment" and upon approval thereof by the Corporation the interest of the assignee will be recognized, including the right of the assignee to submit a form entitled "Statement in Proof of Loss" if the insured refuses to submit or disappears without having submitted such form.

26. Records and access to farm. For the purpose of enabling the Corporation to determine any loss that may have occurred under the contract, the insured shall keep, or cause to be kept, for one year after the time of loss, records of the harvesting, storage, shipment, sale, or other disposition, of all corn produced on each insurance unit covered by the contract, and on any uninsured acreage in the county in which he has an interest. Such records shall be made available for examination by the Corporation, and as often as may be reasonably required, any person(s) designated by the Corporation shall have access to the farm(s).

27. Voidance of contract. The contract may be voided and the premium forfeited to the Corporation without the Corporation waiving any right or remedy, including its right to collect the amount of the note executed by the insured, whether before or after maturity, if (a) at any time the insured has concealed any material fact or made any false or fraudulent statements relating to the contract, the subject thereof, or his interest in the corn crop covered thereby, or (b) the insured shall neglect to use all reasonable means to produce, care for or save the corn crop covered thereby, whether before or after damage has occurred, or (c) the insured fails to give any notice, or otherwise fails to comply with the terms of the contract, including the note, at the time and in the manner prescribed.

28. Modification of contract. No notice to any representative of the Corporation or the knowledge possessed by any such representative or by any other person shall be held to effect a waiver of or change in any part of the contract, or to estop the Corporation from asserting any right or power under such contract, nor shall the terms of such contract be waived or changed except as authorized in writing by a duly authorized officer or representative of the Corporation; nor shall any provision or condition of the contract or any forfeiture be held to be waived by any delay or omission by the Corporation in exercising its rights and powers thereunder or by any requirement, act, or proceeding on the part of the Corporation or of its representatives relating to appraisal or to any examination herein provided for.

29. General. (a) In addition to the terms and provisions in the application and policy, the Corn Crop Insurance Regulations for Continuous Contracts for the 1949 and Succeeding Crop Years (§§ 416.1 to 416.15) shall govern with respect to (1) death, incompetence, or disappearance of the insured, (2) fiduciaries, (3) prohibition against assignment or transfer of claims for refunds, (4) rounding of fractional units, (5) creditors, and (6) minimum participation requirements.

(b) Copies of the regulations and forms referred to in this policy are available at the county office.

30. Meaning of terms. For the purpose of the corn crop insurance program, the terms:

(a) "Contract" means the accepted application for insurance and this policy.

(b) "County Actuarial Table" means the form and related material (including the crop insurance maps) approved by the Corporation for listing the coverages per acre and the premium rates per acre applicable in the county.

(c) "County office" means the office of the county Agricultural Conservation Association in the county or other office specified by the Corporation.

(d) "Crop year" means the period from May 1 to December 10, inclusive, and for any year shall be designated by reference to the applicable calendar year.

(e) "Harvest" means picking the corn from the stalk either by hand or machine or cutting the corn for fodder or ensilage.

(f) "Person" means individual, partnership, association, corporation, estate, or trust or other business enterprise or other legal entity, and, wherever applicable, a state, a political subdivision of a state, or any agency thereof.

(g) "Substitute crop" means any crop other than corn planted on released acreage for harvest in the same crop year.

(h) "Tenant" means a person who rents land from another person for a share of the corn crop or proceeds therefrom produced on such land.

NOTE: The record keeping requirements of these regulations have been approved by, and subsequent requirements will be subject to the approval of, the Bureau of the Budget in accordance with the Federal Reports Act of 1942.

Adopted by the Board of Directors on October 26, 1948.

PART 419—COTTON CROP INSURANCE

SUBPART—REGULATIONS FOR CONTINUOUS CONTRACTS FOR THE 1949 AND SUCCEEDING CROP YEARS

The cotton crop insurance regulations for continuous contracts for the 1949 and succeeding crop years (13 F. R. 5261) are hereby amended as follows:

1. Section 419.16 is amended by adding to section 13 of the commodity coverage policy paragraph (e) as follows:

(e) In Madison and Limestone Counties, Alabama; Cleveland and Mecklenburg Counties, North Carolina; Anderson County, South Carolina; and Bell, Collin, Ellis, Fannin, Lubbock, McLennan, and Williamson Counties, Texas, a discount of 5 percent shall be allowed on any annual premium which is paid in full on or before the final date for that crop year for filing applications for cotton crop insurance in the county. The amount of premium on which the discount will be allowed shall be based upon a report submitted by the insured of the cotton acreage in the county in which he expects to have an interest and his interest therein.

2. Section 419.17 is amended by adding to section 13 of the monetary coverage policy paragraph (e) as follows:

(e) In Madison and Limestone Counties, Alabama; Cleveland and Mecklenburg Counties, North Carolina; Anderson County, South Carolina; and Bell, Collin, Ellis, Fannin, Lubbock, McLennan, and Williamson Counties, Texas, a discount of 5 percent shall be allowed on any annual premium which is paid in full on or before the final date for that crop year for filing applications for cotton crop insurance in the county. The amount of premium on which the discount will be allowed shall be based upon a report submitted by the insured of the cotton acreage in the county in which he expects to have an interest and his interest therein.

3. Section 419.17 is amended to change that portion of paragraph (a), section 19 of the monetary coverage policy which precedes Item (1) to read as follows:

19. Amount of loss. (a) The amount of loss with respect to any insurance unit shall be determined by (1) multiplying the planted acreage for such unit (exclusive of any acreage to which insurance did not attach) by the applicable coverage per acre, (2) subtracting therefrom the number of dollars ascertained by multiplying the total production for the planted acreage by the predetermined price, and (3) multiplying the remainder by the insured interest in such unit. However, if the planted acreage on the insurance unit exceeds the insured acreage on the insurance unit, the amount of loss so determined shall be reduced on the basis of the ratio of the insured acreage to the planted acreage, or if the premium computed for the acreage and interest shown on the acreage report is less than the premium computed for the planted acreage the amount of loss determined for the planted acreage may be reduced on the basis of the ratio of the premium computed for the acreage and interest shown on the acreage report to the premium computed for the planted acreage, if the Corporation so elects. The total production for an insurance unit shall include:

Adopted by the Board of Directors on October 26, 1948.

Chapter IX—Production and Marketing Administration (Marketing Agreements and Orders)

PART 993—ORANGES, GRAPEFRUIT, AND TANGERINES GROWN IN FLORIDA

DETERMINATION RELATIVE TO BUDGET OF EXPENSES AND FIXING OF RATE OF ASSESSMENT FOR 1948-1949 FISCAL PERIOD

On October 7, 1948, notice of proposed rule making was published in the FEDERAL REGISTER (13 F. R. 5862) regarding the budget of expenses and the fixing of the rate of assessment for the 1948-1949 fiscal period under Marketing Agreement No. 84, as amended, and Order No. 33, as amended (7 CFR and Supps., 933.1 et seq.), regulating the handling of oranges, grapefruit, and tangerines grown in the State of Florida. This regulatory program is effective pursuant to the Agricultural Marketing Agreement Act of 1937, as amended. After consideration of all relevant matters presented, including the proposals set forth in the aforesaid notice, which were submitted by the Growers Administrative Committee (established pursuant to the amended marketing agreement and order), it is hereby found and determined that:

§ 933.202 Budget of expenses and rate of assessment for the 1948-1949 fiscal period. (a) The expenses necessary to be incurred by the Growers Administrative Committee established pursuant to the provisions of the aforesaid amended marketing agreement and order, for the maintenance and functioning, during the fiscal period beginning August 1, 1948, and ending July 31, 1949, both dates inclusive, of the Growers Administrative Committee and the Shippers Advisory Committee, established under the aforesaid amended marketing agreement and order, will amount to $108,000, and the rate of assessment to be paid by each handler shall be three mills ($0.003) per standard packed box of fruit shipped by such handler during the said fiscal period; and such rate of assessment is hereby approved as each handler's pro rata share of the aforesaid expenses.

(b) It is hereby further found and determined that it is impracticable and contrary to the public interest to postpone the approval of the aforesaid rate of assessment until 30 days after publication thereof in the FEDERAL REGISTER (60 Stat. 237; Pub. Law 404, 79th Cong., 2d Sess.) in that: (1) the rate of assessment is applicable, pursuant to the amended marketing agreement and order, to all shipments of oranges, grapefruit, and tangerines made during the fiscal period beginning August 1, 1948, and ending July 31, 1949, both dates inclusive; (2) the expenses of operating this regulatory program since August 1, 1948, have been paid, in accordance with the applicable provisions of the amended marketing agreement and order, with funds representing advance credits on handlers' accounts against the operations of the 1948–1949 fiscal period; (3) all funds representing such advance credits have already been expended; (4) in order for the regulatory assessment to be collected, it is essential that the assessment rate be approved immediately so as to enable the Growers Administrative Committee and the Shippers Advisory Committee to perform their respective duties and functions under the aforesaid amended marketing agreement and order; and (5) a reasonable time is permitted, under the circumstances, for preparation for such effective date.

(c) As used in this section, the terms "standard packed box," "handler," "shipped," and "fruit" shall have the same meaning as is given to each such term in said amended marketing agreement and order. (48 Stat. 31, as amended; 7 U. S. C. 601 et seq.; 7 CFR and Supps., 933.1 et seq.)

[SEAL] A. J. LOVELAND,
Acting Secretary of Agriculture.

Chapter II—Federal Reserve System

Subchapter A—Board of Governors of the Federal Reserve System

PART 222—CONSUMER INSTALMENT CREDIT

DELIVERY IN ANTICIPATION OF INSTALMENT SALE

1. Section 222.6 (g) of this part is hereby amended, effective November 1, 1948, to read as follows:

§ 222.6 Certain technical provisions. * * *

(g) Delivery in anticipation of instalment sale. Except as provided in the following paragraph, in case a listed article is delivered in anticipation of an instalment sale of that article or a similar article (such as a delivery "on approval", "on trial," or as a "demonstrator"), the Registrant shall require, at or before the time of such delivery, a deposit equal to the down payment that would be required on such an instalment sale.

In order to qualify as an exception to the preceding paragraph, the article must be an article listed in Group B, the delivery must be exclusively for the purpose of a bona fide trial, approval, or demonstration, and the Registrant must, within ten days after such delivery, obtain the down payment referred to in the preceding paragraph or the return of the article. Every such case shall be evidenced by a written agreement signed by the respective parties, of which a copy shall be given the prospective purchaser at or before the delivery of the article, and such written agreement shall cleary and prominently state that (1) the delivery is exclusively for the purpose of a bona fide trial, approval, or demonstration, and (2) the prospective purchaser will make the required down payment (the amount of which shall be stated in the agreement) within ten days after delivery of the article for trial, approval, or demonstration or will return or release the article within such ten-day period.

In calculating the maximum maturity in connection with transactions under either of the two preceding paragraphs, the date of delivery of the article sold shall be considered the date of the sale.

2. (a) The purpose of the amendment is to permit the delivery of certain "listed articles" for a stated period "on approval," "on trial," or as a "demonstrator," without a prior down payment provided there is compliance with the specified conditions deemed necessary for the effective administration of this part.

(b) The notice, public participation, and deferred effective date described in section 4 of the Administrative Procedure Act are not followed in connection with this amendment for the reasons and good cause found, as stated in section 2 (e) of the Board's rules of procedure (12 CFR 262.2 (e)), and especially because in connection with this permissive amendment such procedures are unnecessary as they would not aid the persons affected and would serve no other useful purpose.

(Sec. 5 (b), 40 Stat. 415, as amended, Pub. Law 905, 80th Cong.; 12 U. S. C. 95 (a), 50 U. S. C. App. 616, 617; E. O. 8843, Aug. 9, 1941, 3 CFR Cum. Supp.)

TITLE 33—NAVIGATION AND NAVIGABLE WATERS

[CGFR 48-49]

MISCELLANEOUS AMENDMENTS

A notice regarding proposed changes in the inspection and navigation regulations was published in the FEDERAL REGISTER dated August 11, 1948 (13 F. R. 4638), and public hearings were held by the Merchant Marine Council on September 28, 1948, at Washington, D. C.

The purpose of the miscellaneous amendments is to delete from the Code of Federal Regulations those parts which paraphrase statutes and to bring other regulations regarding boundary lines of inland waters and pilot rules into agreement with Public Law 544, approved May 21, 1948, which statute becomes effective January 1, 1949. This law extended the application of the inland rules to waters which are now under the western rivers rules by providing that the inland rules of the road shall be followed by all vessels upon the harbors, rivers, and other inland waters of the United States except the Great Lakes as far east as Montreal and the waters of the Mississippi River between its source and the Huey P. Long Bridge, and all of its tributaries emptying therein and their tributaries and that part of the Atchafalaya River above its junction with the Plaquemine-Morgan City alternate waterway and the waters of the Mobile River above Choctaw Point and all of its tributaries and the Red River of the North. It is also necessary to change boundary lines of inland waters to bring certain waters within the application of the inland rules and to prescribe regulatory pilot rules which will implement the statutory rules of the road for the Mississippi River system which appear in Public Law 544.

By virtue of the authority vested in me as Commandant, United States Coast Guard, by R. S. 4405, as amended, 46 U. S. C. 375 and sec. 101 of Reorganization Plan No. 3 of 1946, 11 F. R. 7875, as well as the statutes cited with the regulations below, the following amendments to the regulations are prescribed, which shall become effective on and after January 1, 1949:

PART 301—INTERNATIONAL RULES FOR PREVENTING COLLISIONS AT SEA

PART 302—BOUNDARY LINES OF INLAND WATERS

GENERAL

1. Section 302.2 is amended to read as follows:

§ 302.2 General rules for inland waters. At all buoyed entrances from seaward to bays, sounds, rivers, or other estuaries for which specific lines are not described in this part, the waters inshore of a line approximately parallel with the general trend of the shore, drawn through the outermost buoy or other aid to navigation of any system of aids, are inland waters, and upon them the Inland Rules and pilot rules made in pursuance thereof apply, except that Pilot Rules for Western Rivers apply to the Mississippi River and its tributaries above Huey P. Long Bridge, the Mobile River and all of its tributaries above Choctaw Point, the Red River of the North, and that part of the Atchafalaya River above its junction with the Plaquemine-Morgan City alternate waterway. (Sec. 2, 28 Stat. 672, as amended, 33 U. S. C. 151)

GULF COAST

2. Section 302.65 is amended to read as follows:

(Sec. 2, 28 Stat. 672, as amended, 33 U. S. C. 151)

3. Section 302.75 Peace and Miakka Rivers is deleted.

4. Section 302.85 Manatee and Hillsboro Rivers is deleted.

5. Section 302.89 is amended to read as follows:

§ 302.89 Apalachee Bay, Fla. Those waters lying north of a line drawn from Lighthouse Point on St. James Island to Gamble Point on the east side of the entrance to the Aucilla River, Fla. (Sec. 2, 28 Stat. 672, as amended, 33 U. S. C. 151)

6. Section 302.90 Carrabelle River and Apalachicola River, Fla., is deleted.

7. Section 302.100 is amended to read as follows:

§ 302.100 Mobile and Mississippi Rivers. Pilots Rules for Western Rivers are to be followed in Mobile River and its tributaries above Choctaw Point; and also in Mississippi River and its tributaries above Huey P. Long Bridge. (Sec. 2, 28 Stat. 672, as amended, 33 U. S. C. 151)

PART 311—INLAND RULES OF THE ROAD

Part 311 is deleted. The text of the regulations in this part is statutory and is contained in 30 Stat. 96, as amended (33 U. S. C. 155, 156, 171–183, 191, 192, 201–213, 221, 222, 231, 232).

PART 312—PILOT RULES FOR INLAND WATERS

1. Section 312.01 is amended to read as follows:

§ 312.01 General instructions. The regulations in this part apply to vessels navigating the harbors, rivers, and inland waters of the United States, except the Great Lakes and their connecting and tributary waters as far east as Montreal, the Red River of the North, the Mississippi River and its tributaries above Huey P. Long Bridge, Mobile River and its tributaries above Choctaw Point, and that part of the Atchafalaya River above its junction with the Plaquemine-Morgan City alternate waterway. (Sec. 2, 30 Stat. 102, 38 Stat. 381, as amended, 33 U. S. C. 157, Pub. Law 544, 80th Cong., 2d sess.)

2. Section 312.13 (b) is amended to read as follows:

§ 312.13 Speed in fog; posting of rules; diagrams. * * *

(b) Posting of pilot rules. (1) On steam vessels of over 100 gross tons, two copies of the placard form of the rules (Form CG 803) in this part shall be kept posted up in conspicuous places in the vessel, one copy of which shall be kept posted up in the pilothouse.

(2) On steam vessels of over 25 gross tons and not over 100 gross tons, two copies of the placard form of the pilot rules shall be kept on board, one copy of which shall be kept posted up in the pilothouse.

(3) On steam vessels of 25 gross tons and under, and of more than 10 gross tons, two copies of the placard form of the pilot rules shall be kept on board, and, where practicable, one copy thereof shall be kept conspicuously posted up in the vessel.

(4) On steam vessels of not more than 10 gross tons, two copies of the pamphlet form of the pilot rules shall be kept on board, and, where practicable, one copy thereof shall be kept conspicuously posted up in the vessel.

(5) Nothing herein contained shall require copies of the pilot rules to be carried on board any motorboat as defined by section 1 of the act of April 25, 1940 (54 Stat. 163–167; 46 U. S. C. 526–526t).

(Sec. 2, 30 Stat. 102, 38 Stat. 381, as amended, 33 U. S. C. 157, Pub. Law 544, 80th Cong., 2d sess.)

3. The center heading immediately following § 312.13 is changed to read as follows: "Lights for Certain Classes of Vessels."

4. Section 312.15 is amended by changing the first paragraph to read as follows:

§ 312.15 Ferryboats. Ferryboats propelled by machinery and navigating the harbors, rivers, and other inland waters of the United States, except the Great Lakes and their connecting and tributary waters as far east as Montreal, the Red River of the North, the Mississippi River and its tributaries above Huey P. Long Bridge, the Mobile River and its tributaries above Choctaw Point, and that part of the Atchafalaya River above its junction with the Plaquemine-Morgan City alternate waterway, shall carry the range lights and the colored side lights required by law to be carried on steam vessels navigating those waters, except that double-end ferryboats shall carry a central range of clear, bright, white lights, showing all around the horizon, placed at equal altitudes forward and aft, also on the starboard side a green light, and on the port side a red light, of such a character as to be visible on a dark night with a clear atmosphere at a distance of at least 2 miles, and so constructed as to show a uniform and unbroken light over an arc of the horizon of 10 points of the compass, and so fixed as to throw the light from right ahead to 2 points abaft the beam on their respective sides.

(Sec. 2, 30 Stat. 102, 38 Stat. 381, as amended, 33 U. S. C. 157, Public Law 544, 80th Cong., 2d sess.)

5. Section 312.16 is amended by changing the first paragraph and the last paragraph to read as follows:

§ 312.16 Lights for barges, canal boats and scows in tow of steam vessels on certain inland waters on the seaboard, except the Hudson River and adjacent waters and Lake Champlain. On the harbors, rivers, and other inland waters of the United States, except the Great Lakes and their connecting and tributary waters as far east as Montreal, the Red River of the North, the Mississippi River and its tributaries above Huey P. Long Bridge, the Mobile River and its tributaries above Choctaw Point, and that part of the Atchafalaya River above its junction with the Plaquemine-Morgan City alternate waterway, and except on the waters of the Hudson River and its tributaries from Troy to the boundary lines of New York Harbor off Sandy Hook as defined pursuant to section 2 of the act of Congress of February 19, 1895, as amended (28 Stat. 672; 33 U. S. C. 151), the East River, and Long Island Sound (and the waters entering thereon, and to the Atlantic Ocean), to and including Narragansett Bay, R. I., and tributaries, and Lake Champlain, barges, canal boats and scows in tow of steam vessels shall carry lights as follows:

* * * * *

Provided, That nothing in this section shall be construed as compelling barges or canal boats in tow of steam vessels, when passing through any waters coming within the scope of any regulation where lights for barges or canal boats are different from those of the waters whereon such vessels are usually employed, to change their lights from those required on the waters from which their trip begins or terminates; but should such vessels engage in local employment on waters requiring different lights from those where they are customarily employed, they shall comply with the local rules where employed. (Sec. 2, 30 Stat. 102, 38 Stat. 381, as amended, 33 U. S. C. 157, Pub. Law 544, 80th Cong., 2d sess.)

PART 321—NAVIGATION RULES FOR THE GREAT LAKES

AUTHORITY: §§ 332.01 to 332.45 issued under R. S. 4233A, Public Law 544, 80th Congress, 2d session.

NOTE: The Pilot Rules in this part will be in effect on and after January 1, 1949, when the provisions of Public Law 544, 80th Congress, 2d Session, become effective. The provisions of the statute and these Pilot Rules are also published in a separate pamphlet entitled "Pilot Rules for Western Rivers" and may be obtained upon request from the Commandant (HA), U. S. Coast Guard, Washington 25, D. C., in December 1948.

GENERAL

§ 332.01 General instructions. The regulations in this part apply to vessels navigating the Red River of the North, the Mississippi River and its tributaries above Huey P. Long Bridge, the Mobile River and its tributaries above Choctaw Point, and that part of the Atchafalaya River above its junction with the Plaquemine-Morgan City alternate waterway.

§ 332.03 Definitions. (a) In this part the words "steam vessel" or "steamer" shall include any vessel propelled by machinery; and the word "barge" shall include barge, canal boat, scow, and any other vessel of nondescript type not otherwise provided for herein.

(b) The phrase "Western Rivers" shall include only the Red River of the North, the Mississippi River and its tributaries above Huey P. Long Bridge, the Mobile River and its tributaries above Choctaw Point, and that part of the Atchafalaya River above its junction with the Plaquemine-Morgan City alternate waterway.

§ 332.05 Risk of collision. Risk of collision can, when circumstances permit, be ascertained by carefully watching the bearing of an approaching vessel. If the bearing does not appreciably change, such risk should be deemed to exist.

§ 332.07 Vessels meeting at confluence of two rivers. When two steam vessels meet at the confluence of two rivers, the steam vessel which has the other to port shall give the first signal; but in no case shall pilots on steam vessels attempt to pass each other until there has been a thorough understanding as to the side each steam vessel shall take.

§ 332.09 Danger and cross signals. (a) The alarm or danger signal shall consist of four or more short and rapid blasts. Steam vessels are forbidden to use what has become technically known among pilots as "cross signals," that is, answering one whistle with two, and answering two whistles with one. In all cases and under all circumstances, a pilot receiving either of the whistle signals provided in the rules in this part with which, for any reason, he deems it injudicious to comply, instead of answering it with a cross signal, shall at once observe the provisions of this section.

(b) The pilot of any steam vessel shall sound the alarm or danger signal whenever required by the law, or any of the regulations hereinafter contained; that is to say, as follows:

(1) Whenever it is dangerous to take the side indicated by the passing signal of another vessel; or,

(2) Whenever any steam vessel does not understand or is in doubt regarding the signal of another steam vessel; or,

(3) Whenever, from any cause, one steam vessel is imperiled by another.

§ 332.11 Narrow channels. When two steam vessels are about to enter a narrow channel at the same time, the ascending steam vessel shall be stopped below such channel until the descending steam vessel shall have passed through it; but should two steam vessels unavoidably meet in such narrow channel, then it shall be the duty of the pilot of the ascending steam vessel to make the proper signals, and when answered, the ascending steam vessel shall lie as close as possible to the side of the channel and either stop the engines or move them so as to give the boat only steerageway; and the pilot of the descending steam vessel shall cause his steam vessel to be worked slowly until he has passed the ascending steam vessel.

§ 332.13 Approaching bridge span or draw. (a) When two steam vessels are approaching a bridge span or draw from opposite directions and the passing signals have been given and understood, should the pilot of the descending steam vessel deem it dangerous for the steam vessels to pass each other between the piers of such span or draw, he shall sound the alarm or danger signal, and it shall then be the duty of the pilot of the ascending steam vessel to answer with a similar alarm signal, and to slow or stop his engines below such span or draw until the descending steam vessel shall have passed.

(b) If the ascending steam vessel is already in the bridge span or draw, and the ascending steam vessel sounds the danger or alarm signal, it shall be the duty of the ascending steam vessel, if practicable, to drop below the bridge span or draw, and wait until the other steam vessel shall have passed.

§ 332.15 Ascending, descending steam vessels crossing river. The pilot of an ascending steam vessel shall in no case attempt to cross the river when an ascending or descending steam vessel shall be so near that it would be possible for a collision to ensue therefrom; and conversely, the pilot of a descending steam vessel shall in no case attempt to cross the river when an ascending or descending steam vessel shall be so near that it would be possible for a collision to ensue therefrom.

§ 332.17 Overtaking situation. When two steam vessels are in the overtaking situation, it is the duty of the steam vessel being overtaken to answer immediately a passing signal of the overtaking steam vessel, either by assenting with the same number of blasts or by dissenting with the danger signal.

§ 332.19 Passing signals. The passing signals, by the blowing of the whistle, shall be given and answered by pilots, in all weathers, when approaching each other; and, wherever possible, the signals shall be given and answered before the steam vessels, or if towboats pushing tows, the head of such tows, have arrived at a distance of half a mile of each other.

§ 332.21 Visual signal. All whistle signals shall be further indicated by a visual signal consisting of an amber colored light so located as to be visible all around the horizon for a distance of not less than one mile. This light shall be so devised that it will operate simultaneously and in conjunction with the whistle sounding mechanism, and remain ignited or visible during the same period as the sound signal: Provided, That the installation, use, or employment of the amber visual signal required by this section shall be optional in the case of (a) vessels operating upon the Gulf Intracoastal Waterway; (b) vessels operating on the Mississippi River below mile 237 AHP (Belmont Landing) as set forth in map No. 40, "Maps of the Mississippi River, Cairo, Illinois, to the Gulf of Mexico, Louisiana (1944 ed.)," published by the Mississippi River Commission; (c) newly constructed vessels while en route from point of construction to a point in waters where the aforementioned amber visual signal is not required; (d) motorboats of class A and class 1; and (e) motorboats of class 2 and class 3 not engaged in trade or commerce.

§ 332.23 Posting of pilot rules. (a) On steam vessels of over 100 gross tons two copies of the placard form of the rules in this part (Form CG 805) shall be kept posted up in conspicuous places in the vessel, one copy of which shall be kept posted up in the pilothouse.

(b) On steam vessels of over 25 gross tons and not over 100 gross tons, two copies of the placard form of pilot rules shall be kept on board, one copy of which shall be kept posted up in the pilothouse.

(c) On steam vessels of 25 gross tons and under, and of more than 10 gross tons, two copies of the placard form of the pilot rules shall be kept on board, and where practicable one copy thereof shall be kept conspicuously posted up in the vessel.

(d) On steam vessels of not more than 10 gross tons, two copies of the pamphlet form of the pilot rules shall be kept on board, and where practicable one copy thereof shall be kept conspicuously posted up in the vessel.

(e) Nothing herein contained shall require copies of the pilot rules to be carried on board any motorboat as defined by section 1 of the Act of April 25, 1940 (54 Stat. 163–167; 46 U. S. C. 526–526t).

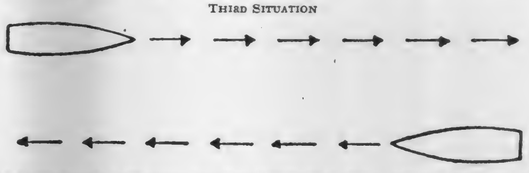
§ 332.25 Diagrams. The following diagrams are intended to illustrate the working of the system of colored lights and the pilot rules:

FIRST SITUATION

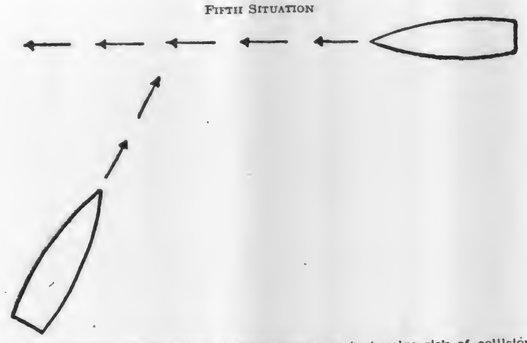


Here the two colored lights visible to each will indicate their meeting end on, or nearly end on, so as to involve risk of collision. In this situation it is a standing rule that both shall direct their courses to starboard and pass on the port side of each other, each having previously given one blast of the whistle, except that when an ascending steam vessel is approaching a descending steam vessel the descending steam vessel has the right-of-way and the vessels shall pass each other on the side determined by the descending steam vessel. The necessary signals for passing shall be given as provided in Rule 18.

SECOND SITUATION

In this situation the red light only will be visible to each. Both vessels are evidently passing to port of each other; however, the vessels shall pass each other on the side determined by the descending steam vessel.

THIRD SITUATION



In this situation the green light only will be visible to each. They are therefore passing to starboard of each other; however, the vessels shall pass each other on the side determined by the descending steam vessel.

FOURTH SITUATION

In this situation one steam vessel is overtaking another steam vessel from some point within the angle of two points abaft the beam of the overtaken steam vessel. The overtaking steam vessel may pass on the starboard or port side of the steam vessel ahead after the necessary signals for passing have been given, with assent of the overtaken steam vessel, as prescribed in Rule 22.

FIFTH SITUATION

In this situation two steam vessels are crossing so as to involve risk of collision, other than where one steam vessel is overtaking another. The steam vessel which has the other to starboard shall keep out of the way of the other. Either vessel shall give one distinct blast of her whistle, as a signal of her intention, which the other vessel shall answer with a similar blast. However, a steam vessel with tow descending a river shall be deemed to have the right-of-way over any steam vessel crossing the river.

LIGHTS FOR FERRYBOATS AND BARGES

§ 332.27 Lights for ferryboats. (a) The signal lights on ferryboats shall be the same as those of similar steamboats, except that double-end ferryboats shall carry a central range of clear, bright, white lights, showing all around the horizon, placed at equal altitudes forward and aft, also on the starboard side a green light, and on the port side a red light, of such character as to be visible on a dark night with a clear atmosphere at a distance of at least 3 miles, and so constructed as to show a uniform and unbroken light over an arc of the horizon of 10 points of the compass, and so fixed as to throw the light from right ahead to 2 points abaft the beam on their respective sides.

(b) The green and red lights shall be fitted with inboard screens projecting at least 3 feet forward from the lights, so as to prevent them from being seen more than half a point across the bow.

§ 332.29 Lights for barges towed ahead or alongside. (a) When one or more barges is towed by pushing ahead of a steam vessel such tow shall be lighted by an amber light at the extreme forward end of the tow and at the centerline of the tow, or as near the centerline as it is practicable to carry such light; a green light on the starboard side and a red light on the port side, so placed that they mark the tow at its maximum projection to starboard and port, respectively. When a barge is towed alongside a steam vessel on the starboard side, such barge shall have a green light on the starboard bow; if towed alongside on the port side, a red light on the port bow. When barges are towed on either side of a steam vessel two or more abreast, the outboard barges only shall carry the appropriate side light.

(b) The colored side lights referred to in paragraph (a) must be fitted with inboard screens so as to prevent them from being seen more than half-a-point across the bow, of such a character as to be visible on a dark night with a clear atmosphere at a distance of at least three miles; so constructed as to show a uniform and unbroken light over an arc of the horizon of ten points of the compass, and so fixed as to throw the light from right ahead to two points abaft the beam on either side. The amber light shall be screened so as not to be visible more than two points abaft the beam and shall likewise be visible at least three miles. All of these lights shall be carried at least eight feet above the surface of the water and at approximately the same height.

§ 332.31 Lights for barges towed astern. Barges being towed singly or in tandem on a hawser behind steam vessels shall carry a white light at each end of each barge. When barges are towed in tiers two or more abreast, each of the outside boats shall carry a white light on its outer bow, and the outside boats in the last tier shall each carry, in addition, a white light on the outer part of the stern. The lights shall be carried not less than eight feet above the surface of the water, and so as to show all around the horizon.

§ 332.33 Lights for barges temporarily operating within or without Western Rivers. Nothing in §§ 332.29 and 332.31 shall be construed as compelling barges being towed, when passing through any waters coming within the scope of any regulation where lights for barges are different from those of the waters whereon such barges are usually employed, to change their lights from those required on the waters from which their trip begins or terminates; but should such barges engage in local employment on waters requiring different lights from those where they are customarily employed, they shall comply with the local rules where employed. (Sec. 2, 30 Stat. 102, 38 Stat. 381, as amended, 33 U. S. C. 157)

§ 332.35 Lights for barges at bank. Barges moored to the bank or dock in or near a fairway shall carry two white lights not less than 4 feet above the surface of the water, as follows: on a single moored barge a light at each outboard or channelward corner; on barges moored in group formation, a light on the upstream outboard or channelward corner of the outer upstream barge, and a light on the downstream outboard or channelward corner of the outer downstream barge. In addition any barge projecting toward or into the channel from such group formation shall have two white lights similarly placed on the outboard or channelward corners of the barge.

LIGHTS FOR RAFTS AND OTHER CRAFT NOT PROVIDED FOR

§ 332.37 Lights for rafts and other craft. (a) All watercraft, except as herein otherwise provided, navigating any bay, harbor, or river, propelled by hand power, horsepower, or by the current of the river, or which shall be anchored or moored in or near the channel or fairway of any bay, harbor, or river, shall carry one white light forward, not less than 8 feet above the surface of the water.

(b) Rafts propelled by hand power or by the current of the river, or which shall be anchored or moored in or near a channel or fairway, shall carry white lights, as follows:

(1) Rafts of one crib and not more than two in length shall carry one white light. Rafts of three or more cribs in length and one crib in width shall carry one white light at each end of the raft.

(2) Rafts of more than one crib abreast shall carry one white light on each outside corner of the raft, making four lights in all.

(c) The white light required by this section for rafts and other watercraft shall be carried from sunset to sunrise, in a lantern so fixed and constructed as to show a clear, uniform, and unbroken light, visible all around the horizon, and of such intensity as to be visible on a dark night with a clear atmosphere at a distance of at least 1 mile. The lights for rafts shall be suspended from poles of such height that the light shall not be less than 8 feet above the surface of the water.

(d) Rowing boats under oars shall have ready at hand a lantern showing a white light which shall be temporarily exhibited in sufficient time to prevent collision.

DISTRESS SIGNALS

§ 332.39 Distress signals—(a) In the daytime. (1) A gun fired at intervals of about a minute.

(2) The International Code signal of distress indicated by N. C.

(3) The distant signal, consisting of a square flag, having either above or below it a ball or anything resembling a ball.

(4) Rockets or shells as prescribed below for use at night.

(5) A continuous sounding with a steam whistle or any fog-signal apparatus.

(b) At night. (1) A gun fired at intervals of about a minute.

(2) Flames on the vessel (as from a burning tar barrel, oil barrel, etc.).

(3) Rockets or shells, bursting in the air with a loud report and throwing stars of any color or description, fired one at a time at short intervals.

(4) A continuous sounding with a steam whistle or any fog-signal apparatus.

UNAUTHORIZED USE OF LIGHTS; UNNECESSARY WHISTLING

§ 332.41 Rule relating to the use of searchlights or other blinding lights. Flashing the rays of a searchlight or other blinding light onto the bridge or into the pilothouse of any vessel under way is prohibited. Any person who shall flash or cause to be flashed the rays of a blinding light in violation of the above may be proceeded against in accordance with the provisions of section 4450, R. S., as amended, looking to the revocation or suspension of his license or certificate.

§ 332.43 Rule prohibiting unnecessary sounding of the whistle. Unnecessary sounding of the whistle is prohibited within any harbor limits of the United States. Whenever any licensed officer in charge of any vessel shall authorize or permit such unnecessary whistling, such officer may be proceeded against in accordance with the provisions of section 4450, R. S., as amended, looking to a revocation or suspension of his license.

§ 332.45 Rule prohibiting the carrying of unauthorized lights on vessels. Any master or pilot of any vessel who shall authorize or permit the carrying of any light, electric or otherwise, not required by law, that in any way will interfere with distinguishing the signal lights, may be proceeded against in accordance with the provisions of section 4450, R. S., as amended, looking to a suspension or revocation of his license.

PROPOSED RULE MAKING

DEPARTMENT OF AGRICULTURE

Production and Marketing Administration

[7 CFR, Parts 57, 58, 59, 60, 62, 66, 68]

INSPECTION AND CERTIFICATION OF CERTAIN AGRICULTURAL COMMODITIES AND PRODUCTS THEREOF

NOTICE OF PROPOSED ISSUANCE OF NEW REGULATIONS

Notice is hereby given in accordance with section 4 of the Administrative Procedure Act (5 U. S. C. 1946 ed. 1003) that the Secretary of Agriculture proposes to issue new regulations for the inspection and certification of the class, quantity, quality, and condition of dry beans, grain, hay, hops, lentils, dry peas, split peas, oilseeds, rice, agricultural and vegetable seeds, straw, and other agricultural commodities and products of any of such commodities within the jurisdiction of the Grain Branch of the Department of Agriculture, under the Agricultural Marketing Act of 1946 (7 U. S. C. 1946 ed. 1621 et seq.) and the so-called Farm Products Inspection Act consisting of provisions in the Department of Agriculture Appropriation Act, 1949, for the market inspection of farm products (Public Law 712, 80th Congress; 7 U. S. C. 1946 ed. Supp., 414). The proposed regulations, if adopted, would supersede the presently effective regulations for inspection and certification of hay and straw (7 CFR, Part 57, as amended), beans and peas (7 CFR Cum. Supp., Part 58), rice (7 CFR Cum. Supp., Part 60, as amended), and hops (7 CFR 1944 Supp., Part 66), origin verification of alfalfa and red clover seed (7 CFR Cum. Supp., Part 59), and dockage inspection and certification of country-run forage seed (7 CFR Cum. Supp., Part 62). The proposed regulations would provide a permissive service, and inspection and certification would not be mandatory under the regulations in any respect. The regulations would not apply to inspection of grain as required by the United States Grain Standards Act (7 U. S. C. 1946 ed. 71 et seq.) nor to tests or inspections of seeds under the Federal Seed Act (7 U. S. C. 1946 ed. 1551 et seq.).

It is proposed to issue the new regulations, as Part 68 of Title 7, Code of Federal Regulations, to read as follows:

DEFINITIONS

§ 68.1 Meaning of words. Words used in the regulations in this part in the singular form shall be deemed to import the plural, and vice versa, as the case may demand.

§ 68.2 Terms defined. For the purpose of the regulations in this part unless the context otherwise requires, the following terms shall be construed, respectively, as follows:

(a) "Acts" means the Agricultural Marketing Act of 1946 (7 U. S. C. 1621 et seq.), and the following provisions of the Department of Agriculture Appropriation Act, 1949 (Pub. Law 712, 80th Cong., 7 U. S. C. Supp., 414), or similar provisions of any future act of Congress conferring like authority: "For the investigation and certification, in one or more jurisdictions, to shippers and other interested parties of the class, quality, and condition of any agricultural commodity or food product, whether raw, dried, canned, or otherwise processed, and any product containing an agricultural commodity or derivative thereof when offered for interstate shipment or when received at such important central markets as the Secretary may from time to time designate, or at points which may be conveniently reached therefrom under such rules and regulations as he may prescribe, including payment of such fees as will be reasonable and as nearly as may be to cover the cost for the service rendered.

(b) "Regulations" means the regulations in this part.

(c) "Department" means the United States Department of Agriculture.

(d) "Secretary" means the Secretary of the Department or any other officer or employee of the Department to whom authority has heretofore been delegated, or to whom authority may hereafter be delegated, to act in his stead.

(e) "Administrator" means the Administrator of the Production and Marketing Administration of the Department, or any other officer or employee of the Department to whom authority has heretofore been delegated, or to whom authority may hereafter be delegated, to act in his stead.

(f) "Branch" means the Grain Branch of the Production and Marketing Administration of the Department.

(g) "Director" means the Director of the Branch or any other officer or employee of the Branch to whom authority has heretofore been delegated, or to whom authority may hereafter be delegated, to set in his stead.

(h) "Person" means any individual, partnership, association, business trust, corporation, or any other organized group of persons, whether incorporated or not.

(i) "Interested party" means any person financially interested in a transaction involving a commodity.

(j) "Applicant" means an interested party who requests any inspection service with respect to a commodity.

(k) "Inspector" means any employee of the Department authorized by the Secretary, or any other person licensed by the Secretary, to inspect and certify the class, quality, quantity, or condition of specified commodities.

(l) "Supervising inspector" means any employee of the Department authorized by the Secretary to inspect and certify the class, quality, quantity, or condition of specified commodities and designated by the Director to supervise the work of inspectors and official samplers.

(m) "Official sampler" means any person licensed by the Secretary to draw samples of commodities for inspection or any employee of the Department authorized by the Director or by a supervising inspector to draw samples of commodities for inspection.

(n) "Commodity" means any one of the following agricultural commodities and products: dry beans, grain, hay, hops, lentils, oilseeds, dry peas, split peas, rice, agricultural and vegetable seeds, straw, and other agricultural commodities, and products of any of such commodities, assigned by the Administrator to the Branch for inspection.

(o) "Office of inspection" means the office of an inspector.

(p) "Inspection certificate" means a written or printed statement issued by an inspector pursuant to the acts and the regulations relative to the class, quality, quantity, or condition of commodities at the time and place stated therein.

(q) "Inspection" means (1) applying such tests and making such examinations of a commodity and records, according to the regulations, as may be necessary to determine the class, grade, other quality designation, quantity, or condition of such commodity, and (2) issuing an inspection certificate.

(r) "Grade" means a grade as defined in official standards for a commodity promulgated by the Secretary.

(s) "Origin" means the quality of a commodity as affected by the place where grown, e. g. the United States or any area therein.

(t) "Cooperative agreement" means a memorandum of agreement between the Department and other branches of the Federal Government, State agencies, and other agencies or persons, to conduct, cooperatively, commodity inspection services as authorized in the acts.

ADMINISTRATION

§ 68.3 Authority. The Director is charged with the administration of the provisions of the regulations and of the acts insofar as they relate to the subject matter of the regulations, under the supervision of the Secretary and the Administrator.

INSPECTION

§ 68.4 Kind and availability of service. (a) The inspection of commodities shall be (1) according to (i) standards of class, grade, other quality designation, quantity, or condition for such commodities promulgated by the Secretary; or (ii) specifications prescribed by Federal agencies; or (iii) specifications of trade associations or organizations approved by the Director; or (iv) instructions and procedures prescribed by the Director; and (2) for one or more factors of class, grade, other quality designation, quantity, or condition, as defined in such standards, specifications, or instructions and procedures.

(b) Inspection under the regulations shall be provided only for commodities offered for interstate shipment or received at important central markets designated by the Director or at points conveniently reached therefrom. Specific information as to the places where inspection is available may be obtained from the Director.

§ 68.5 Regulations not applicable to inspection of grain under U. S. Grain Standards Act or seeds under Federal Seed Act. The regulations do not apply to the inspection of grain as required by the United States Grain Standards Act (7 U. S. C. 1946 ed. 71 et seq.) or to the testing and inspection of seeds under the Federal Seed Act (7 U. S. C. 1946 ed. 1551 et seq.).

§ 68.6 Who may inspect commodities. The inspection of commodities shall be made only by a person who has been authorized or licensed by the Secretary to perform such functions.

§ 68.7 Who may obtain service. An application for inspection may be made by any interested party or his authorized agent.

§ 68.8 How to make application. An application for inspection may be made to any office of inspection. Such application may be made orally, in writing, or by telegraph. If made orally, the office of inspection may require that such application be confirmed in writing.

§ 68.9 Form of application. An application for inspection shall include the following information: (a) The date of the application; (b) the identification, quantity, and location of the commodity; (c) the name and post office address of the applicant and, if made by an authorized agent, the name and post office address of such agent; and (d) such other information relating to the inspection as may be required by the official with whom the application is filed.

§ 68.10 When application may be withdrawn. Upon payment by an applicant of the charges required by § 68.45, an application for inspection may be withdrawn at any time before the certificate has been issued or the results of the inspection have been furnished through other means.

§ 68.11 Accessibility of Commodities. Each lot of a commodity for which inspection is requested shall be so placed as to permit the entire lot to be examined or a representative sample thereof to be obtained as required by the kind of inspection to be performed: Provided, That if the entire lot is not accessible for examination or a representative sample cannot be obtained, the accessible portion of the lot may be examined or sampled and the inspection restricted to such portion, and the results certified as outlined in § 68.14.

§ 68.12 Lot inspection. A lot inspection shall be made by examining an identified lot of a commodity, by analyzing or testing a representative sample or samples of such commodity or by examining relevant records concerning a commodity, whichever may be required for the kind of service requested.

§ 68.13 Sample inspection. A sample inspection shall be made by examining, analyzing, or testing a sample of a commodity submitted by an applicant for inspection.

§ 68.14 Inspection certificate, issuance. Immediately after an inspection has been completed the inspector shall sign and issue an inspection certificate showing the results of the inspection, in accordance with paragraph (a) or (b) of this section.

(a) Lot inspection certificate. A lot inspection certificate shall be issued to show the results of the inspection of an identified lot of a commodity: Provided, That, when the entire lot is not accessible for examination or a representative sample thereof cannot be obtained, the certificate shall state the estimated quantity of the commodity in the accessible portion or in the portion for which a representative sample has been obtained, and that the inspection is restricted to such portion, and such certificate may have printed or stamped thereon the words "Partial inspection" or "Partial inspection certificate."

(b) Sample inspection certificate. A sample inspection certificate shall be issued to show the results of the inspection of a sample of a commodity submitted by an interested party. Each sample inspection certificate shall state that the results of the inspection set out therein apply only to the sample described in the certificate.

§ 68.15 Inspection certificate, form. Each inspection certificate shall be approved by the Director as to form, shall state the results of the inspection, and shall embody within its written or printed terms only such statements of fact as may be required or authorized by the Director.

§ 68.16 Inspection certificate, disposition of. Immediately upon issuance the original and one copy of each inspection certificate shall be delivered or mailed to the applicant or otherwise delivered or mailed in accordance with his instructions. One copy of each inspection certificate shall be filed in the office of inspection, and two copies shall be forwarded to the supervising inspector. Not to exceed three additional copies may be furnished, without extra charge, to the applicant if a request therefor is made prior to the issuance of such inspection certificate.

REINSPECTION

§ 68.17 How to obtain a reinspection; withdrawal of application therefor. (a) Any interested party who is dissatisfied with the results of an original inspection as stated in the inspection certificate issued as required by § 68.14 may make application for a reinspection of the commodity to the office of inspection where the original inspection was made: Provided, That, (a) the commodity has not left the place where the original inspection was made; (b) the identity of the commodity has not been lost; (c) an application for an appeal inspection has not been filed as provided in § 68.21; (d) the certificate issued as the result of the original inspection of the commodity is surrendered to the office of inspection; and (e) the application for reinspection is filed not later than the close of business on the second business day after the date of the original inspection.

(b) Upon payment by an applicant of the charges required by § 68.45 hereof, an application for reinspection may be withdrawn at any time before the certificate has been issued or the results of the reinspection furnished through other means.

§ 68.18 Manner of reinspection. A reinspection shall be made by an inspector of the office of inspection where the original inspection was made, shall be based upon an analysis or test of a representative sample or a reexamination of the commodity involved or the records thereof, and shall be for the determination of the same factors of class, grade, other quality designation, quantity, or condition as requested in connection with the original inspection.

§ 68.19 Reinspection certificates. After a reinspection has been completed, the inspector shall sign and issue a certificate showing the results of the reinspection, and such certificate shall supersede the original inspection certificate issued for the commodity involved. Each reinspection certificate shall bear conspicuously on its face the notation "Reinspection" and shall clearly identify by number and date, the inspection certificate which it supersedes. Such supersedure shall be effective as of the date of issuance of the reinspection certificate.

§ 68.20 Disposition of reinspection certificate. The original and one copy of each reinspection certificate shall be delivered or mailed to the applicant, and a copy shall be delivered or mailed to each known person who received a copy of the superseded certificate.

APPEAL INSPECTION

§ 68.21 How to obtain an appeal inspection. Any interested party who is dissatisfied with the results stated in an unsuperseded inspection certificate may make application for an appeal inspection: Provided, That (a) the commodity has not left the place where the inspection appealed from was made; (b) the identity of the commodity has not been lost; (c) the entire lot of the commodity is available and accessible for sampling and examination; and (d) the application is filed not later than the close of business on the second business day following the date of the inspection appealed from, which time of filing may be extended by the supervising inspector for good cause shown. The application for appeal inspection shall be made in writing or by telegraph, and shall be filed in the Office of a Supervising Inspector. Such application shall be accompanied or followed by the inspection certificate with respect to which the application for appeal inspection is made.

§ 68.22 Appeal application, form. An application for an appeal inspection shall be signed by the applicant or his duly authorized agent and shall state: (a) The identification, quantity, and location of the commodity at the time of making the appeal; (b) the names and post office addresses of all interested parties; and (c) such other information relevant thereto as may be required by the supervising inspector.

§ 68.23 Record of filing appeal application. A record showing the date and place of filing an application for appeal inspection and including any other available documents pertaining to such appeal inspection shall be made immediately upon receipt thereof at the office of the supervising inspector.

§ 68.24 When appeal application may be withdrawn. Upon payment by an appellant of the fees and charges required by § 68.45 of the regulations, an application for an appeal inspection may be withdrawn at any time before the Federal appeal certificate has been issued or the results of the inspection have been furnished through other means.

§ 68.25 Who shall make appeal inspections. An appeal inspection shall be made only by a supervising inspector authorized by the Director to make appeal inspections of the commodity involved.

§ 68.26 Appeal inspection certificate, issuance. Immediately after an appeal inspection has been completed, an inspection certificate designated as "Federal Appeal Inspection Certificate" shall be issued by the supervising inspector, showing the results of such appeal inspection, and such certificate shall identify by number and date, the certificate which it supersedes.

§ 68.27 Appeal inspection certificate, disposition. The original and one copy of each appeal inspection certificate shall be delivered or mailed to the appellant or person designated by such appellant. A copy shall also be furnished to each interested party of record, including the inspector who made the inspection appealed from, and a copy shall be filed in the office of the supervising inspector. Not to exceed three additional copies may be furnished, without extra charge, to the appellant if a request therefor is made prior to the issuance of the appeal inspection certificate.

§ 68.28 Appeal inspection certificate supersedes inspection certificate. An appeal inspection certificate shall supersede the inspection certificate with respect to which the appeal inspection is made; and such supersedure shall be effective as of the date of issuance of such appeal inspection certificate.

§ 68.29 New inspection. The provisions of § 68.4 to § 68.28, with respect to inspections, reinspections, and appeal inspections shall not be construed to prevent any interested party from obtaining a new inspection on any commodity when the circumstances are such as to preclude a reinspection or an appeal inspection under the regulations. A certificate issued as a result of such new inspection shall not supersede any inspection certificate previously issued. An application for a new inspection shall not be restricted to the scope of any previous inspection and the applicant may request any or all of the inspection services provided for by the regulations, with the privilege of reinspection and appeal inspection.

GENERAL PROVISIONS FOR INSPECTION, REINSPECTION, AND APPEAL INSPECTION

§ 68.30 Authority of applicant. Proof of the authority of the person applying for any inspection service may be required in the discretion of the official to whom application for inspection is made.

§ 68.31 Advance information. Upon the request of an applicant for inspection, all or any part of the contents of an inspection certificate issued to such applicant may be telegraphed or telephoned to him at his expense.

§ 68.32 Accessibility of records. In the case of inspection for origin, the records indicating the origin of the commodity to be inspected shall be made accessible for examination and verification by an inspector.

§ 68.33 Manner of sampling, examinations, analyses, etc. All samplings, examinations, analyses, and tests shall be made in accordance with instructions and procedures prescribed or approved by the Director.

§ 68.34 Conditions upon which inspection service furnished. Service under the regulations will be furnished only if the applicant therefor has complied with all relevant provisions of the acts and the regulations prescribing the conditions upon which such service is made available, and until the applicant does so comply such service will be refused by the official to whom, or the official in charge of the office at which, application for service is made.

§ 68.35 Denial of inspection service. (a) Any wilful misrepresentation or deceptive or fraudulent practice made or committed by any person in connection with the making or filing of an application for inspection service; (b) any fraudulent or unauthorized use, alteration, or imitation of any certificate issued pursuant to the regulations; (c) any interference with or obstruction of any inspector or official sampler in the performance of his duties, by intimidation, threat, assault or any other improper means; or (d) any wilful violation of the regulations may be deemed sufficient cause for debarring the person found guilty thereof from any or all benefits of the acts, after opportunity for hearing before a proper official in the Department has been accorded him: Provided, That pending investigation and hearing the Director may, without hearing, direct that such person shall be denied the benefits of the acts.

AUTHORIZED INSPECTORS

§ 68.36 Who may be authorized. Any employee of the Department who has demonstrated that he possesses a thorough knowledge of a commodity and the standards, and instructions and procedures under which it is inspected may be authorized by the Secretary to inspect such commodity. Each authorization which is issued by the Secretary shall be countersigned by the Director.

LICENSED INSPECTORS AND SAMPLERS

§ 68.37 Who may be licensed as inspectors. Any person who is employed under the terms of a cooperative agreement, who possesses proper qualifications, as determined by the Director, and who has no interest, financial or otherwise, direct or indirect, in merchandising, handling, storing, or processing any commodities of the kind to be inspected by him or related products, may be licensed by the Secretary to inspect such commodities. Each license which is issued by the Secretary shall be countersigned by the Director. Each person who applies for a license as an inspector shall, if so required by the Director, be examined for the purpose of determining his competency. Such examination shall be held at such time and place and in such manner as may be prescribed by the Director.

§ 68.38 Who may be licensed as samplers. Any person who possesses proper qualifications as determined by a supervising inspector, and has no interest, financial or otherwise, direct or indirect, in merchandising, handling, storing, or processing commodities of the kind to be sampled by him or related products may be licensed by the Secretary to draw samples of such commodities. Each license which is issued to samplers by the Secretary shall be countersigned by the supervising inspector under whose direction the licensee draws samples of commodities.

§ 68.39 Sampling procedure. Upon request of any inspector, a licensed sampler shall draw a sample or samples from a designated lot or lots of commodities in accordance with methods prescribed by the Director. Such sampler shall forward all samples of commodities thus drawn to a designated office of inspection in accordance with the instructions of a supervising inspector, and shall furnish, with each sample, the information which the supervising inspector may request.

§ 68.40 Samples to be identified. Each sample shall be accompanied by a sampling report signed by the licensed sampler, giving the identity, quantity, and location of the commodity sampled, the name and address of the applicant for inspection, and such other information regarding the lot of the commodity sampled as may be required by the supervising inspector.

§ 68.41 Suspension or revocation of licenses. (a) The license of any inspector or sampler licensed under the regulations may be suspended or revoked if the licensee, (1) through wilfulness, carelessness or incompetence fails to perform his duties in accordance with the regulations, and instructions and procedures prescribed by the Director; (2) becomes incapable of properly performing such duties; or (3) engages in any of the activities specified in § 68.35 or § 68.52.

(b) In cases of wilfulness, or those in which the public health, interest, or safety so requires, the license of any licensed inspector or sampler may be summarily suspended by the Director without hearing, pending investigation, but the licensee shall be advised of the facts or conduct which appear to warrant suspension or revocation of his license and shall be accorded an opportunity for a hearing before a proper official in the Department, before the license is finally suspended or revoked. In all other cases, prior to the institution of proceedings for the suspension or revocation of a license, the Director shall cause to be served upon the licensee, in person or by registered mail, a statement of the facts which appear to warrant such suspension or revocation, specifying a reasonable time, depending upon the circumstances in each case, within which the licensee may demonstrate or achieve compliance with the acts, the regulations and instructions and procedures prescribed by the Director. The licensee may demonstrate compliance by the presentation of evidence in writing or, in the discretion of the Director, at an oral hearing. At the end of the time allowed for the licensee to demonstrate or achieve compliance, if the Director finds he is in compliance, proceedings for the suspension or revocation of his license shall not be instituted, but if the Director finds the licensee is not in compliance, he may institute such proceedings and, after service upon the licensee, in person or by registered mail, of a notice that suspension or revocation of his license is under consideration for reasons set out in the statement previously served upon him, and after opportunity for hearing before a proper official in the Department, the license may be suspended or revoked.

FEES AND CHARGES FOR INSPECTION SERVICE

§ 68.42 Establishment of fees and charges for inspection service. Fees and charges for inspection service shall be established in accordance with § 68.43, § 68.44, and § 68.47, and shall be reasonable and as nearly as may be equal to the cost of the service for which such fees and charges are assessed. Specific information concerning the fees and charges for particular services under the regulations may be obtained from the Director.

§ 68.43 Fees and charges for inspection or reinspection. Except as provided in § 68.47, fees and charges for any inspection or reinspection shall be in accordance with the applicable provisions of (a) and (b) of this section.

(a) Inspection by a salaried employee of the Department. Unless otherwise required by the provisions of (b) of this section, fees and charges for inspections or reinspections by an authorized inspector who is a salaried employee of the Department shall be in accordance with such schedule of fees and charges as may be fixed and issued by the Director.

(b) Inspection under a cooperative agreement. Fees and charges for inspections or reinspections made pursuant to a cooperative agreement shall be in accordance with the terms and provisions of such agreement.

§ 68.44 Fees and charges for appeal inspection. Fees and charges for appeal inspections shall be in accordance with such schedule of fees and charges as may be fixed and issued by the Director: Provided, That, if the supervising inspector who makes an appeal inspection finds that there is a material error in the inspection from which an appeal is taken, no fees or charges shall be assessed.

§ 68.45 Fees and charges when an application for inspection or appeal inspection is withdrawn or any inspection service is refused. In the event an application for inspection, reinspection or appeal inspection is withdrawn or any inspection service (including original inspection, reinspection, or appeal inspection, is refused pursuant to the applicable provisions of the regulations, the interested party who made the application for the inspection service shall pay only such expenses as were incurred in connection with the service prior to the withdrawal or refusal.

§ 68.46 Payment of fees and charges— (a) Manner of payment. Except as provided in § 68.47 fees and charges for inspections, reinspections, and appeal inspections shall be paid by the interested party making application for such inspections in accordance with the provisions of paragraphs (b) and (c) of this section; and, if required by the inspector or supervising inspector who is to make such inspection, such fees and charges shall be paid in advance.

(b) Fees and charges for inspection by a salaried employee of the Department. Fees and charges for inspections, reinspections, or appeal inspections by an inspector or a supervising inspector who is a salaried employee of the Department shall, unless otherwise required by paragraph (c) of this section, be paid by the applicant by check, draft, or money order payable to the Treasurer of the United States and remitted promptly to the Director.

(c) Fees and charges for inspection under a cooperative agreement. Fees and charges for inspections or reinspections under a cooperative agreement shall be paid by the applicant in accordance with the terms of such agreement.

§ 68.47 Fees and charges for services by licensed samplers. Fees and charges for drawing samples of commodities by a licensed sampler shall be paid by the applicant, either direct to such licensed sampler or to the person, if any, by whom such licensed sampler is employed in such capacity. All fees and charges for drawing samples of commodities by a licensed sampler shall be in accordance with such schedule of fees and charges as may be fixed and issued by the Director: Provided, That if the licensed sampler is employed under a cooperative agreement, the fees and charges shall be in accordance with the terms of such agreement.

§ 68.48 Refunds. The Director will cause to be refunded to any State or person who is a party to a cooperative agreement with the United States for inspection services, and to any applicant for inspection service, any fees and charges remitted in excess of the amount due the United States.

MISCELLANEOUS

§ 68.49 Publications. Publications under the acts and the regulations may be made in the FEDERAL REGISTER, the Service and Regulatory Announcements of the Production and Marketing Administration, and such other media as the Administrator may approve for the purpose.

§ 68.50 Filing of final orders in proceedings to deny inspection service or to suspend or revoke licenses. All final orders in any proceeding to deny the benefits of the acts to any person or to suspend or revoke a license (except orders required for good cause to be held confidential and not cited as precedents) shall be filed with the Hearing Clerk of the Department and be available to public inspection.

§ 68.51 Inspection records confidential. Unless otherwise provided by the regulations in this part or, by other regulations of the Department, records of any inspections, including but not limited to, copies of any inspection, reinspection, or appeal inspection certificates issued, records of such certificates, applicant's accounts, or other information relating to the work of any office of inspection shall not be made available to, or be opened for examination by, any persons who is not connected with the inspection service provided by the regulations, and such records shall be held strictly confidential and for reference only by the Director, the inspector in charge of such office of inspection, his assistants, and such inspector's supervising inspector. Summarized reports which do not disclose the operations of any individual grower, shipper, or other interested party and which are identified clearly as to source and contents may be released to the public: Provided, That, when so released, they shall be published in such manner and in such media as will make the information available alike to all interested parties.

§ 68.52 Political activity. All inspectors are forbidden, during the period of their appointments or licenses to take an active part in political management or in political campaigns. Political activity in city, county, State, or national elections, whether primary or regular, or in behalf of any party or candidate, or any measure to be voted upon, is prohibited. In addition to licensees, this applies to all appointees, including, but not being limited to, temporary and cooperative employees, and employees on leave of absence with or without pay. Wilful violation of this section will constitute grounds for dismissal or other disciplinary action in the case of appointees, and suspension or revocation of licenses in the case of licensees.

§ 68.53 Identification. All inspectors and official samplers shall have in their possession and present upon request, while on duty, the means of identification furnished to them by the Department.

Any person who wishes to submit written data, views, or arguments concerning the foregoing proposed regulations may do so by filing them with the Director, Grain Branch, Production and Marketing Administration, United States Department of Agriculture, Washington 25, D. C., not later than November 23, 1948.

Witness my hand and the seal of the United States Department of Agriculture.

Done at Washington, D. C., this 28th day of October 1948.

[SEAL] A. J. LOVELAND,
Acting Secretary of Agriculture.

[7 CFR, Part 725]

BURLEY AND FLUE-CURED TOBACCO

NOTICE OF DETERMINATIONS TO BE MADE WITH RESPECT TO MARKETING QUOTAS FOR BURLEY TOBACCO FOR 1949-50 MARKETING YEAR

Pursuant to the authority contained in the Agricutural Adjustment Act of 1938, as amended, the Secretary of Agriculture is preparing to determine whether marketing quotas are required to be proclaimed for the 1949-50 marketing year on Burley tobacco and, if so, the amount of the national marketing quota.

The Agricultural Adjustment Act of 1938, as amended (7 U. S. C. 1301 (b), 1312 (a)), provides that whenever the Secretary finds that the total supply of tobacco as of the beginning of the marketing year then current exceeds the reserve supply level therefor, the Secretary shall proclaim the amount of such total supply, and, beginning on the first day of the marketing year next following and continuing throughout such year, a national marketing quota shall be in effect for the tobacco marketed during such marketing year. The act provides further that the Secretary shall also determine and specify in such proclamation the amount of the national marketing quota in terms of the total quantity of tobacco which may be marketed, which will make available during such marketing year a supply of tobacco equal to the reserve supply level.

In a referendum held on October 25, 1946, 129,734 of the 135,326 Burley tobacco growers voting favored marketing quotas for the marketing years 1947-48 through 1949-50 (11 F. R. 14509).

A public hearing will be held at the State PMA office, Maxwell and Mill Streets, Lexington, Kentucky, Tuesday, November 16, 1948, at 10:00 a. m. (c. s. t.) for the purpose of considering whether a national marketing quota should be proclaimed for Burley tobacco for the 1949-50 marketing year and, if so, the amount of such quota.

In making the determinations as to whether marketing quotas are required to be proclaimed on Burley tobacco for the 1949-50 marketing year and the amount of the national marketing quota, consideration will be given to any data, views, and recommendations pertaining thereto which are presented at the hearing or which are submitted in writing to the Director, Tobacco Branch, Production and Marketing Administration, U. S. Department of Agriculture, Washington 25, D. C. All written submissions must be postmarked not later than November 17, 1948.

[SEAL] RALPH S. TRIGG, Administrator.

NOTICES

NATIONAL MILITARY ESTABLISHMENT

Department of the Air Force

ORGANIZATION AND FUNCTIONS

(1) Creation and authority. (a) The Department of the Air Force and the United States Air Force were established and made a part of the National Military Establishment by the National Security Act of 1947 (61 Stat. 502, 503; 5 U. S. C. Sup. I, 626 c) and by the terms of the act came into legal being on September 18, 1947. Section 207 (c) and 208 (f) of this act generally define the organization as follows:

Section 207 (c) The term "Department of the Air Force" as used in this act shall be construed to mean the Department of the Air Force at the seat of government and all field headquarters, forces, reserve components, installations, activities and functions under the control or supervision of the Department of the Air Force.

Section 208 (f) In general the United States Air Force shall include aviation forces both combat and service not otherwise assigned. It shall be organized, trained and equipped primarily for prompt and sustained offensive and defensive air operations. The Air Force shall be responsible for the preparation of the air forces necessary for the effective prosecution of war except as otherwise assigned and in accordance with integrated joint mobilization plans, for the expansion of the peacetime components of the Air Force to meet the needs of war.

(b) In accordance with the policy declared by Congress and the provisions of the National Security Act of 1947 the Secretary of Defense, with the approval of the President promulgated agreements of the Joint Chiefs of Staff regarding the functions of the three services and the Joint Chief of Staff. (13 F. R. 2537). Functions of the United States Air Force were set forth as follows:

The United States Air Force includes air combat and service forces. It is organized, trained, and equipped primarily for prompt and sustained combat operations in the air. Of the three major Services, the Air Force has primary interest in all operations in the air, except in those operations otherwise assigned herein.

A. Primary functions. 1. To organize, train, and equip Air Force forces for the conduct of prompt and sustained combat operations in the air. Specifically:

a. To be responsible for defense of the United States against air attack in accordance with the policies and procedures of the Joint Chiefs of Staff.

b. To gain and maintain general air supremacy.

c. To defeat enemy air forces.

d. To control vital air areas.

e. To establish local air superiority except as otherwise assigned herein.

2. To formulate joint doctrines and procedures, in coordination with the other Services, for the defense of the United States against air attack and to provide the Air Force units, facilities, and equipment required therefor.

3. To be responsible for strategic air warfare.

4. To organize and equip Air Force forces for joint amphibious and airborne operations, in coordination with the other Services, and to provide for their training in accordance with policies and doctrines of the Joint Chiefs of Staff.

5. To furnish close combat and logistical air support to the Army, to include air lift, support, and resupply of airborne operations, aerial photography, tactical reconnaissance, and interdiction of enemy land power and communications.

6. To provide air transport for the Armed Forces except as otherwise assigned.

7. To provide Air Force forces for land-based air defense, coordinating with the other Services in matters of joint concern.

8. To develop, in coordination with the other Services, doctrines, procedures, and equipment for air defense from land areas, including the continental United States.

9. To provide an organization capable of furnishing adequate, timely, and reliable intelligence for the Air Force.

10. To furnish aerial photography for cartographic purposes.

11. To develop, in coordination with the other Services, tactics, techniques, and equipment of interest to the Air Force for amphibious operations and not provided for in (the section on the Functions of the United States Navy and Marine Corps).

12. To develop, in coordination with the other Services, doctrines, procedures, and equipment employed by Air Force forces in airborne operations.

B. Collateral functions. The forces developed and trained to perform the primary functions set forth above shall be employed to support and supplement the other Services in carrying out their primary functions, where and whenever such participation will result in increased effectiveness and will contribute to the accomplishment of the over-all military objectives. The Joint Chiefs of Staff member of the service having primary responsibility for a function shall be the agent of the Joint Chiefs of Staff to present to that body the requirements for and plans for the employment of all forces to carry out the function. He shall also be responsible for presenting to the Joint Chiefs of Staff for final decision any disagreement within the field of his primary responsibility which has not been resolved. This shall not be construed to prevent any member of the Joint Chiefs of Staff from presenting unilaterally any issue of disagreement with another Service. Certain specific collateral functions of the Air Force are listed below:

1. To interdict enemy sea power through air operations.

2. To conduct antisubmarine warfare and to protect shipping.

3. To conduct aerial mine-laying operations.

(2) Central organization—(a) General. The Department of the Air Force located at the seat of Government consists of the office of the Secretary of the Air Force, which includes the Secretary, the Under Secretary, the two Assistant Secretaries, the Director of Public Relations, the General Counsel, the Director of Legislation and Liaison and the Secretary of the Air Force Personnel Council; and Headquarters, United States Air Force which includes the Chief of Staff, United States Air Force, the Vice Chief of Staff, the Assistant Vice Chief of Staff, the Deputy Chiefs of Staff, the Comptroller, the Inspector General, the Secretary of the Air Staff, the Air Adjutant General, the Scientific Advisory Board and the Air Board. Their specific duties and functions are as follows:

(b) Secretary of the Air Force. The Secretary of the Air Force is the head of the Department of the Air Force and is responsible for the supervision of all matters pertaining to its operation, and for the performance of such duties as may be prescribed by law or enjoined upon him by the President and the Secretary of Defense.

(c) Under Secretary. The Under Secretary is responsible to the Secretary of the Air Force for the formulation and general supervision, within the Department of the Air Force, of policies relating to: Procurement, production and related industrial matters; supply, maintenance and transportation (including the establishment of matériel requirements); research and development; industrial mobilization and matters involving the aircraft industries. The Under Secretary represents the Department of the Air Force in a liaison capacity with the Atomic Energy Commission, Research and Development Board, and as a member of the Munitions Board. In the absence or disability of the Secretary of the Air Force, the Under Secretary acts as the Secretary of the Air Force.

(d) Assistant Secretary of the Air Force (Civil and Military-Diplomatic). The Assistant Secretary is responsible to the Secretary of the Air Force for the formulation and the general supervision, within the Department of the Air Force, of policies relating to: The role of air power as an instrument of National Policy, the coordination of civil and military air matters in the national interest, matters involving other countries, including the coordination of those matters with the State Department and other appropriate Government agencies; the United States Air Force Reserve, the Air National Guard, the Air Reserve Officers Training Corps, the Civil Air Patrol, and Air Force participation in Civil Defense activities. The Assistant Secretary represents the Department of the Air Force on the State-Army-Navy-Air Force Coordinating Committee and the Air Coordinating Committee and will represent the Department of the Air Force on such other boards and committees to which the Secretary of the Air Force may appoint him. In the absence or disability of both the Secretary and the Under Secretary of the Air Force, the Assistant Secretary acts as the Secretary of the Air Force.

(e) Assistant Secretary of the Air Force (Management). The Assistant Secretary is responsible to the Secretary of the Air Force for the formulation and general supervision, within the Department of the Air Force, of the policies relating to the business management of the Department, including those matters with respect to program control, management control through cost control, civilian personnel, organizational planning, mobilization, and the budget of the Department. In the absence or the disability of the Secretary, Under Secretary and the other Assistant Secretary, acts as the Secretary of the Air Force.

(f) Director of Public Relations. The Director of Public Relations is responsible to the Secretary of the Air Force for the dissemination of information concerning the Air Force to the public through all appropriate media, and for Air Force relations with civilians and civilian groups. He supervises the maintenance of liaison with the Executive Office of the President, the Office of the Secretary of Defense, and with other Governmental agencies, and advises and represents the Secretary of the Air Force and the Air Staff, United States Air Force, in connection with public relations matters.

(g) General Counsel. The General Counsel is the final authority on all legal questions arising within or referred to the Department of the Air Force. He reports directly to the Secretary of the Air Force. The General Counsel furnishes advice upon request to all levels on legal aspects of all procurement activities. The General Counsel furnishes advice upon request to the Secretary, Under Secretary and Assistant Secretaries of the Department of the Air Force on legal aspects of all other matters coming within their respective jurisdictions. He is not responsible for supervision of the administration of military justice

(h) The Secretary of the Air Force Personnel Council. The Secretary of the Air Force Personnel Council consists of the Air Force Personnel Board, the Air Force Disability Review Board, and the Air Force Board of Review. He is responsible for determining such military personnel actions as may be directed by the Secretary or enjoined by Public Law; such action being taken for and in the name of the Secretary of the Air Force.

(i) Director of Legislation and Liaison. The Director of Legislation and Liaison is responsible to the Secretary of the Air Force for the formulation, coordination, and general supervision of the Air Force Legislative program, with the exception of appropriation bills. He supervises the preparation of proposed legislation and executive orders affecting the Department of the Air Force, provides reports and studies, and conducts projects incident thereto. He monitors congressional inquiries, correspondence, and investigations. He maintains liaison with the Congress, the Executive Office of the President, the Secretary of Defense and other governmental agencies in connection with the aforementioned matters.

(j) Chief of Staff. The Chief of Staff, United States Air Force, under the direction of the Secretary of the Air Force, exercises command over the United States Air Force and assigned supporting forces and is charged with the duty of carrying into execution all lawful orders and directives of superior authority transmitted to him. He is responsible for the formulation and establishment of policies and plans to accomplish the Air Force mission and for their execution. He is the principal military adviser to the President, the Secretary of Defense and to the Secretary of the Air Force on the employment of the Air Force in war and the principal military advisor and executive to the Secretary of the Air Force on the activities of the United States Air Force. He further serves as a member of the War Council and the Joint Chiefs of Staff of the National Military Establishment.

(k) Vice Chief of Staff. The Vice Chief of Staff assists the Chief of Staff in the discharge of the latter's duties and in his absence performs his functions. He also serves as chairman of the United States Air Force Aircraft and Weapons Board and the Aeronautical Board.

(l) Assistant Vice Chief of Staff. The Assistant Vice Chief of Staff assists and advises the Chief of Staff and the Vice Chief of Staff and acts for them in matters delegated to his authority. He is responsible for administrative procedures and coordination within the Air Staff.

(m) Air Board. The Air Board assists the Chief of Staff in the formulation of over-all policies of the United States Air Force.

(n) Scientific Advisory Board. The Scientific Advisory Board advises the Chief of Staff of the latest developments in the various fields of science of interest to the Air Force. It studies scientific research problems affecting the future of the Air Force, with a specific view toward new development in aircraft, weapons, and equipment. The Board also reviews and evaluates long-range plans for research and development and advises the Chief of Staff as to the adequacy of the Air Force's program. The members of the Board serve as a pool of consultants from their respective fields of science to the various activities of the Air Force and present recommendations for the organization of research and development, with emphasis on the ways and means of obtaining close cooperation with the scientific world.

(o) The Inspector General. The Inspector General administers the inspection of the internal structure, the combat quality, the administrative efficiency, and the logistic capabilities of the Air Force. He conducts all investigations, within Air Force jurisdiction, concerning the integrity or security of the Air Force and the conduct of loyalty of its personnel; maintains close liaison and coordination with all civil law enforcement agencies—federal, state, and municipal; enforces security, including atomic energy security; supervises and inspects all Air Force police and has jurisdiction over all matters pertaining to their use and to military discipline, including the confinement and rehabilitation of prisoners of the United States Air Force.

(p) Secretary of the Air Staff. The Secretary of the Air Staff is the executive agent to the Assistant Vice Chief of Staff for matters pertaining to the internal administration of Headquarters United States Air Force. He is specifically responsible for the Executive, Administrative, Headquarters Civilian Personnel, and Headquarters Commandant Divisions, and is generally responsible for operating an administrative program for Headquarters United States Air Force.

(q) Air Adjutant General. The Air Adjutant General is responsible for the publication of the orders and instructions of Headquarters, United States Air Force; the administration within the Air Force of the postal service, the records administration program, the design and standardization of the Air Force forms, the personnel administration of officers assigned to Headquarters, United States Air Force; the providing of correspondence, mail, records, filing, references, reproduction, message centers, and messenger services for Headquarters, United States Air Force; the maintenance of photographic records and services; and the maintenance and servicing of current personnel records of all United States Air Force personnel.

(r) Comptroller. The Comptroller assembles and evaluates elements of information necessary for the efficient management of the United States Air Force; advises and assists the Chief of Staff and the Air Staff in the attainment of integrated programs for the accomplishment of the Air Force mission; defends the Air Force Budget; administers funds, including the disbursement, collection and accounting therefor; prescribes regulations governing the Air Force audit systems and the fixing of the responsibility therefor; takes final action for the secretary of the Air Force on statutory functions in connection with the administration of funds as might be delegated; provides for the measurement of progress toward program objectives; evaluates results in relation to costs, to the end that the Chief of Staff may efficiently and economically utilize the resources available to him. He also provides complete statistical services on all subjects for the Air Staff and higher authority and exercises technical supervision over the budget and fiscal, statistical control, and cost control system.

(s) Deputy Chief of Staff, Personnel. The Deputy Chief of Staff for Personnel is responsible for the administration and management of all military and civilian personnel in the Air Forces as individuals, including procurement, classification, assignment, reassignment, promotion, demotion, separation, retirement, efficiency ratings, personnel services, and the maintenance of pertinent records and administrative services. He is also responsible for such administrative services as are performed by the Judge Advocate General, United States Air Force, the Air Surgeon, and Chief of Air Force Chaplains.

(t) Deputy Chief of Staff, Operations. The Deputy Chief of Staff for Operations coordinates and directs the activities of the Directors of Intelligence, Training and Requirements, Plans and Operations, and Communications; Assistants for Atomic Energy and Programming and two special groups—The Guided Missile Group and the Civilian Components Group. He directs and is responsible for Air Force intelligence activities, organization, training and requirements, operations of the Air Force including joint operations, preparation of over-all plans and programs, development and review of broad Air Force policies, Air Force communications activities, guided missile activities, Air Force civilian components activities including Civil Air Patrol and Air Scout activities, the coordination of over-all Air Force programs, and atomic energy matters.

(u) Deputy Chief of Staff, Matériel. The Deputy Chief of Staff for Matériel is responsible for the planning, policy development, supervision, and administration of Air Force programs relating to the field of matériel and services. Included within the scope of his responsibilities are programs relating to research and development, armament, procurement, industrial planning, installations, maintenance, supply and services; and engineer, chemical, ordnance, and quartermaster activities affecting the Air Force.

(3) Field Organization—(a) General. The field activities of the United States Air Force are continuously subject to changing requirements and conditions. Accordingly, the organizational structure of these activities is designed so that it is capable of flexibility, growth, and constant progression toward the objective of providing the best possible control for the accomplishment of the Air Force Mission. The main structure of the field organization of the United States Air Force is divided into a series of functional Air Commands. Each of these commands in turn is subdivided into smaller structures, the number of which is dictated by the assigned mission of each particular command. Nine of these Air Commands, under control of Headquarters United States Air Force are located in the United States and with two exceptions, are organized on a functional basis without specific geographical area responsibility. Only administrative control is exercised by Headquarters, United States Air Force, over the five overseas commands, operational control of these commands being vested in the Commander in Chief of the Unified Commands established by the Joint Chiefs of Staff.

(b) Air Defense Command. The Air Defense Command with headquarters at Mitchel Air Force Base, New York, is organized primarily for the defense of the continental United States. It exercises direct control over all active measures and coordinates all passive means of Air Defense. It participates in joint training and joint maneuvers with the Army and Navy and formulates general plans for the participation of all Air Force Commands in domestic emergencies, including disaster relief, and directs Air Force operations in the execution of these plans as necessary to minimize or to end such emergencies. It is responsible for the activation, organization, maintenance, administration, and training of units and individuals of the Air Force Reserve, the Air Force Reserve Officer Training Corps, and the Air Force Organized Reserves. The Air Defense Command's mission is presently being accomplished through four subordinate "numbered" Air Force Headquarters. The subordinate Air Forces of the Air Defense Command are organized on a geographic basis with specific area responsibility.

(c) Strategic Air Command. The Strategic Air Command with headquarters at Andrews Air Force Base, Maryland, provides and operates long range bomber and fighter units maintained in the United States, or in such other areas as may be designated. It must be prepared to conduct long range offensive operations in any part of the world; to conduct maximum range reconnaissance over land or sea, either independently or in cooperation with other components of the Armed Forces; and to train units and personnel for the maintenance of the Strategic Forces in all parts of the world. It prepares plans for strategic reconnaissance to meet the requirements of the Armed Forces. It has primary interest in the development, training, tactics, and techniques of strategic bombardment aviation. In addition, it exercises command jurisdiction over and operates in accordance with policies established by the Chief of Staff, United States Air Force, a world-wide Air Force Aeronautical Chart Service. It is organized into two Air Forces and a Reconnaissance Division, with subordinate units based throughout the United States without regard to any established geographical boundaries.

(d) Tactical Air Command. The Tactical Air Command with headquarters at Langley Air Force Base, Virginia, has the primary mission of cooperation with and support of the operations of surface forces. It promotes progressive development of air ground cooperation techniques and doctrines. It cooperates with the Army in airborne and airlift training of Army troops and develops and tests organization, equipment and tactics of troop carrier aviation. Further, it cooperates with the Air Defense Command in the Air Defense mission, and trains units and personnel for maintenance of tactical forces in all parts of the world. The Tactical Air Command is composed of two Air Forces operating light bombardment, fighter, and troop carrier units.

(e) Air University. The Air University has its headquarters at Maxwell Air Force Base, Alabama. It is primarily concerned with the higher education of Air Force officers. The Air University supervises and operates the Air War College and the Air Command and Staff School at Maxwell Air Force Base, Alabama; the Air Tactical School at Tyndall Air Force Base, Florida; the School of Aviation Medicine at Randolph Air Force Base, Texas, and the Special Staff School with headquarters at Craig Air Force Base, Alabama. It supervises the curricula of the Air Force Institute of Technology at Wright-Patterson Air Force Base, Dayton, Ohio, and operates the Air Force Officer Education Program at civilian institutions. Through its school system, the Air University also conducts staff studies as required by the Chief of Staff, United States Air Force, on Air Force basic doctrine, tactics, and techniques.

(f) Air Training Command. The Air Training Command, with headquarters at Barksdale Air Force Base, Louisiana, is charged with individual training of Air Force officers and enlisted men. It aids in designing the Air Force training program, directs its operation and trains personnel for the integration into the proper Air Force team. Indoctrination of recruits is conducted by the Indoctrination Division at San Antonio, Texas. Flying Training is conducted under the supervision of the Flying Training Division with headquarters at Randolph Air Force Base, Texas. Technical Training is conducted under the supervision of the Technical Training Division with headquarters at Scott Air Force Base, Illinois.

(g) Air Matériel Command. The Air Matériel Command, with headquarters at Wright-Patterson Air Force Base, Ohio, procures, supplies, maintains and supervises the development of all matériel peculiar to the Air Force and required by the Air Force in the performance of its primary mission. It is responsible for the technical training of personnel peculiar to these requirements. It operates the Air Force Institute of Technology, and in its laboratories at Wright-Patterson Air Force Base, undertakes any research and development necessary to provide equipment to accomplish the Air Force mission. It conducts all experimental static and flight tests necessary in the development of such matériel. It is also charged with industrial planning for Air Force procured items. In addition, the Air Matériel Command is responsible for maintaining the Air Force Technical Museum, which collects and preserves for educational and historical purposes such foreign and domestic aeronautical articles as may be required for use by the Air Force or other governmental agencies. The Air Matériel Command is organized geographically into seven Air Matériel Areas within the continental United States.

(h) Air Proving Ground. The Air Proving Ground is located at Eglin Air Force Base, Florida. It develops improved operational techniques and performs tests on tactical matériel and equipment used or proposed for use by the United States Air Force, under simulated combat conditions, to determine its operational suitability. In its climatic hangar at Eglin Air Force Base, it performs additional proof tests on Air Force tactical matériel and equipment under various adverse climatic conditions.

(i) Military Air Transport Service. The Military Air Transport Service, recently created by the Secretary of Defense, has its headquarters at Gravelly Point, Virginia. It is charged with providing and operating air transport service for the Armed Forces and for other Governmental agencies as directed by the Chief of Staff, United States Air Force. It is responsible for the study, investigation, and development of all matters relating to military air transportation (excluding troop carrier and matters specifically assigned to Air Matériel Command) and presents appropriate findings to United States civil air agencies. It prepares and maintains in current status, plans for its expansion in time of war. In addition, the Military Air Transport Service exercises command jurisdiction over and operates in accordance with policies established by the Chief of Staff, the Air Weather Service, Air Communications Service, Air Rescue Service, and the Flight Service.

(j) Headquarters Command, United States Air Force. The Headquarters Command, United States Air Force, located at Bolling Air Force Base, Washington, D. C., controls and administers the 35th Air Force Base Unit which provides required air transportation not available through Military Air Transport Service. It provides miscellaneous services as directed by Headquarters, United States Air Force, to include photographic service by the 10th Photo Technical Squadron and administration of the Air Force Band and the Air Force Bandsman Training School. It is also charged with administration of a number of special mission personnel both in the Zone of Interior and overseas.

(k) Overseas Commands. Two of the five overseas Air Commands are occupational forces. These two are the United States Air Force in Europe, and the Far East Air Forces. The other three overseas commands are on the outer defense perimeter of the continental United States. The five overseas Air Commands and the respective unified commands controlling their operations are:

1. United States Air Force in Europe, Wiesbaden, Germany; Under operational control of European Command—Berlin, Germany.

2. Far East Air Forces, Tokyo, Japan; Under operational control of Far East Command, Tokyo, Japan.

3. Caribbean Air Command, Albrook Field, Canal Zone; Under operational control of Caribbean Command, Quarry Heights, Canal Zone.

4. Pacific Air Command, Hickam Field, Oahu, Territory of Hawaii; under operational control of Pacific Command—Pearl Harbor, Territory of Hawaii.

5. Alaskan Air Command, Ft. Richardson, Alaska; under operational control of Alaskan Command — Ft. Richardson, Alaska.

DEPARTMENT OF THE INTERIOR

Bureau of Land Management

[Misc. 21169 "LD"]

NEVADA

REVOKING IN PART DEPARTMENTAL ORDER OF DECEMBER 3, 1907, WITHDRAWING LANDS FOR TOWN SITE PURPOSES

The order of December 3, 1907, of the Secretary of the Interior, withdrawing certain lands in the State of Nevada for town site purposes, is hereby revoked so far as it affects the following-described land:

MOUNT DIABLO MERIDIAN

Sec. 16.

By the decision of October 5, 1948, the Assistant Director, Bureau of Land Management, canceled the plat of survey of the town site of Rhyolite, Nevada, approved June 19, 1908, affecting lands in the SE¼ sec. 9, SW¼ sec. 10, E½ and SW¼ sec. 16, T. 12 S., R. 46 E., Mount Diablo Meridian, Nevada.

The lands are desert range lands with a low carrying capacity for grazing livestock.

This order shall not otherwise become effective to change the status of such lands until 10:00 a. m. on December 28, 1948.

At that time the lands shall, subject to valid existing rights and the provisions of existing withdrawals, become subject to application, petition, location, or selection as follows:

recognition is granted by the act of September 27, 1944 (58 Stat. 747, 43 U. S. C. secs. 279–283), subject to the requirements of applicable law, and (2) application under any applicable public-land law, based on prior existing valid settlement rights and preference rights conferred by existing laws or equitable claims subject to allowance and confirmation. Applications by such veterans shall be subject to claims of the classes described in subdivision (2).

(b) Twenty-day advance period for simultaneous preference-right filings. For a period of 20 days from December 8, 1948, to December 27, 1948, inclusive, such veterans and persons claiming preference rights superior to those of such veterans, may present their applications, and all such applications, together with those presented at 10:00 a. m. on December 28, 1948, shall be treated as simultaneously filed.

(c) Date for non-preference-right filings authorized by the public-land laws. Commencing at 10:00 a. m. on March 30, 1949, any of the lands remaining unappropriated shall become subject to such application, petition, location, or selection by the public generally as may be authorized by the public-land laws.

(d) Twenty-day advance period for simultaneous non-preference-right filings. Applications by the general public may be presented during the 20-day period from March 10, 1949, to March 29, 1949, inclusive, and all such applications, together with those presented at 10:00 a. m. on March 30, 1949, shall be treated as simultaneously filed.

Veterans shall accompany their applications with certified copies of their certificates of discharge, or other satisfactory evidence of their military or naval service. Persons asserting preference rights, through settlement or otherwise, and those having equitable claims, shall accompany their applications by duly corroborated affidavits in support thereof, setting forth in detail all facts relevant to their claims.

Applications for these lands, which shall be filed in the District Land Office, Carson City, Nevada, shall be acted upon in accordance with the regulations contained in § 295.8 of Title 43 of the Code of Federal Regulations (Circular No. 324, May 22, 1914, 43 L. D. 254), and Part 296 of that title, to the extent that such regulations are applicable. Applications under the homestead laws shall be governed by the regulations contained in Parts 166 to 170, inclusive, of Title 43 of the Code of Federal Regulations and applications under the desert land laws and the small tract act of June 1, 1938, shall be governed by the regulations contained in Parts 232 and 257, respectively, of that title.

Inquiries concerning these lands shall be addressed to the Manager, District Land Office, Carson City, Nevada.

WILLIAM E. WARNE,

OCTOBER 26, 1948.

NOTICES

EAST ADDITION TO KODIAK TOWN SITE, ALASKA

SALE OF LOTS

1. Statutory authority. The lots in the East Addition to Kodiak Town Site, Alaska, will be disposed of under section 2381, United States Revised Statutes (43 U. S. C. sec. 712). The town site plat of survey No. 2538B for this addition was accepted on February 17, 1942, and officially filed on January 29, 1947.

2. Lots, areas, and minimum prices. The lots which will be offered for sale, and the areas and minimum prices thereof, are shown in the attached schedule.

3. Public sale. The lots will be offered for sale by the Regional Administrator or his representative at public outcry to the highest bidder at Kodiak, Alaska, on November 18, 1948, beginning at 10:00 a. m. The sale will be continued from day to day as long as may be necessary until all the lots have been offered.

4. Payments. No lot shall be sold for less than the minimum price. Full payment may be made in cash on the date of the sale, or one-fourth of the purchase price may be paid in cash at that time and the balance in not to exceed three equal annual installments, with interest at the rate of four percent per annum to the date of payment. Payment on the date of the sale must be made to the officer conducting the sale. The deferred installments, with the interest, must be paid to the Manager, District Land Office, Anchorage, Alaska.

5. Citizenship requirements. Every individual purchasing a lot will be required to furnish evidence that he is a citizen of the United States, or that he has declared his intention to become such a citizen, and every corporation purchasing a lot will be required to furnish evidence, including a certified copy of its articles of incorporation, showing that it was organized under the laws of the United States or of some State, Territory, or possession thereof, and that it is authorized to acquire and hold real estate in Alaska.

6. Manner of sale. Bids and payments may be made in person or by agent, but may not be made by mail nor at any time or place other than that fixed by these regulations. Any person may purchase any number of lots for which he is the successful bidder.

7. Authority of officer conducting the sale. The officer conducting the sale is hereby authorized to reject any and all bids for any lot, and to suspend, adjourn, or postpone the sale of any lot or lots. After all the lots have been offered, the sale will be adjourned or closed, as the officer in charge may deem proper.

8. Forfeitures for nonpayment. If any person who has made partial payment on a lot fails to make any succeeding payment required under these regulations, at the date such payment becomes due, the money theretofore paid and his right to the lot will be forfeited.

9. Removal of improvements. Owners of buildings who do not purchase the lots on which the buildings are located will be allowed three months from the date of the sale in which to remove their improvements.

10. Disposal of lots after sale has been closed. Lots remaining unsold at the close of the sale will be subject to private entry for cash at their minimum prices, and lots the rights to which have been declared forfeited for nonpayment of any installment of the purchase price will be subject to private entry for cash at such purchase price.

11. Reservations. Patents for the lots, when issued, will contain a reservation of fissionable materials and conditions and limitations as provided by the act of August 1, 1946 (60 Stat. 755). Patents will also contain the reservations of rights-of-way for ditches and canals in accordance with the act of August 30, 1890 (26 Stat. 391), and for the construction of railroads and telegraph and telephone lines as provided by the act of March 12, 1914 (38 Stat. 305).

12. Warning. All persons are warned against forming any combination or agreement which will prevent any lot from selling advantageously or which will, in any way, hinder or embarrass the sale. Any person so offending will be prosecuted under section 59 of the Criminal Code of the United States (18 U. S. C. sec. 113).

ROSCOE E. BELL,
Acting Director.

Approved: October 25, 1948.

WILLIAM E. WARNE,
Acting Secretary of the Interior.

TRANS-CONTINENTAL GAS PIPE LINE CO., INC., AND TRANS-CONTINENTAL GAS PIPE LINE CORP.

ORDER REOPENING AND CONSOLIDATING PROCEEDINGS AND FIXING DATE OF HEARING

OCTOBER 28, 1948.

It appears to the Commission that:

(a) Public hearings were held on October 15, through October 18, 1948, on the petition filed September 23, 1948, to amend the Commission's order of May 29, 1948, at Docket No. G-704, issuing a certificate of public convenience and necessity to Trans-Continental Gas Pipe Line Company, Inc. (Trans-Continental Company), and the Commission on October 19, 1948, adopted an order granting a motion to omit the intermediate decision procedure.

(b) The evidence presented at such hearing further indicates that Trans-Continental Company may not be able to construct its proposed project within the time limitations imposed by its gas purchase contracts and although there was some indication of willingness of some suppliers of natural gas of Trans-Continental Company to extend such time limitations until April 1, 1951, no executed amendments to the contracts were submitted.

(c) On October 19, 1948, Trans-Continental Gas Pipe Line Corporation (Trans-Continental Corporation), a Delaware Corporation with its principal office in Dallas, Texas, filed an application for a certificate of public convenience and necessity pursuant to section 7 of the Natural Gas Act, as amended, seeking authorization as follows:

(i) To acquire, construct and operate the facilities authorized to be constructed and operated by Trans-Continental Gas Pipe Line Company, Inc., a Texas corporation, pursuant to certificate of public convenience and necessity issued to it by the Commission on May 29, 1948.

(ii) To succeed to all other rights and obligations of the Trans-Continental Gas Pipe Line Company, Inc., over which the Commission has jurisdiction under authority of the Natural Gas Act, as amended.

(d) By the application referred to in paragraph (c) above, it is contemplated that the preferred stock to be issued by Trans-Continental Corporation would be cumulative preferred stock entitling the holders thereof to payments of dividends during the period of construction of the line, which dividends may be paid out of funds properly included in capital account.

Upon consideration of Trans-Continental Company's petition to amend the Commission's order of May 29, 1948, at Docket No. G-704, and the record thereon and the application of Trans-Continental Corporation pending at Docket No. G-1143, the Commission finds that:

(1) It is in the public interest as hereinafter ordered to reopen the above-entitled proceeding at Docket No. G-704 for the purpose of receiving evidence on the matters set forth above, and such other matters as bear upon such petition to amend the aforesaid order of May 29, 1948, and the plan proposed for financing the project.

(2) Good cause exists to consolidate for purposes of hearing the proceedings at Docket No. G-704 with those at Docket No. G-1143.

The Commission orders that:

(A) The proceeding at Docket No. G-704 be and the same is hereby reopened and said proceeding is hereby consolidated with the proceeding at Docket No. G-1143 for the purpose of hearing.

(B) Pursuant to authority contained in and subject to the jurisdiction conferred upon the Federal Power Commission by sections 7 and 15 of the Natural Gas Act, as amended, and the Commission's rules of practice and procedure a public hearing in the above-entitled consolidated proceedings be held commencing on November 8, 1948, at 10:00 a. m., e. s. t., in the Hearing Room of the Federal Power Commission, 1800 Pennsylvania Avenue NW., Washington, D. C., concerning the matters presented and the issues involved in the aforesaid petition to amend at Docket No. G-704 and the application at Docket No. G-1143 in these proceedings.

(C) Interested State commissions may participate as provided by §§ 1.8 and 1.37 (f) of the Commission's rules of practice and procedure.

Date of issuance: October 29, 1948.

By the Commission.

SECURITIES AND EXCHANGE COMMISSION

[File No. 70-1972]

CENTRAL MAINE POWER CO.

NOTICE OF FILING AND ORDER FOR HEARING

At a regular session of the Securities and Exchange Commission held at its office in the city of Washington, D. C., on the 27th day of October A. D. 1948.

Notice is hereby given that an application, and an amendment thereto, has been filed with this Commission, pursuant to the Public Utility Holding Company Act of 1935 ("the act"), by Central Maine Power Company, an operating public utility and a direct subsidiary of New England Public Service Company, a registered holding company, which in turn is a direct subsidiary of Northern New England Company, also a registered holding company. Applicant designates section 6 (b) of the act and Rule U-50 thereunder as applicable to the proposed transactions.

All interested persons are referred to said application on file in the office of the Commission for a statement of the transactions therein proposed, which may be summarized as follows:

Applicant proposes to issue and sell for cash 303,330 shares of its Common Stock, $10 par value, at a price per share not less than the par value thereof on the following basis:

To each holder of its Common Stock, the right to subscribe (Subscription Right) for shares of such stock on the basis of one-half share of such common stock for each full share so held;

To each holder of 6% Preferred Stock, the right to subscribe (Subscription Right) for shares of such stock on the basis of one share of such Common Stock for each full share so held;

To each holder of Preferred Stock 3.50% Series, the right to subscribe (Subscription Right) for shares of such stock on the basis of one-half share of such Common Stock for each full share so held; and

To each holder of Common Stock, to each holder of 6% Preferred Stock, and to each holder of Preferred Stock 3.50% Series, the privilege to subscribe ("Subscription Privilege"), subject to allocation, for any number of full shares of Common Stock offered under these provisions which such holder may desire to purchase.

It is stated that New England Public Service Company, which owns 77.8% of the presently outstanding Common Stock of applicant, will waive its preemptive rights with respect to the 303,330 shares of the Common Stock to be so offered, subject to the condition that warrants to subscribe to such stock are issued to all stockholders of applicant; and that applicant will therefore be able to make the offer to stockholders as above set out.

Applicant proposes to enter into a contract, the terms of which are to be negotiated, with Coffin & Burr, Incorporated, 60 State Street, Boston, Massachusetts, as representative of and acting on behalf of a group of underwriters, whereby the proposed issue of Common Stock will be underwritten. A copy of the proposed contract, which will, among other things, set forth the price at which the proposed issue will be offered to applicant's stockholders, as above set forth, and at which any shares not subscribed for by applicant's stockholders will be offered to the public, the amount of fees or commissions to be paid to the underwriters, the name or names of the underwriters, and other details will be supplied by amendment.

The net proceeds from the sale of the Common Stock are to be used by applicant to reduce its outstanding short-term notes payable to the order of the First National Bank of Boston, the proceeds of which, it is stated, were used for the acquisition of property, the construction, completion and extension of applicant's facilities, and other lawful purposes. As of October 25, 1948 said bank loans aggregated $7,500,000, and applicant's financial program for the remainder of the year 1948 requires additional bank borrowings in the amount of $2,000,000.

It appearing to the Commission that it is appropriate in the public interest and in the interest of investors and consumers that a hearing be held with respect to the proposed transactions and that said application should not be granted except pursuant to further order of this Commission:

It is ordered, Pursuant to the applicable provisions of the act and the rules and regulations promulgated thereunder, that a hearing with respect to the said application be held on Tuesday, November 9, 1948, at 10:00 a. m., e. s. t., at the office of this Commission, 425 Second Street NW., Washington 25, D. C. On such date the hearing room clerk in Room 101 will advise as to the room in which such hearing is to be held. Any person desiring to be heard or otherwise participate in this proceeding shall file with the Secretary of the Commission on or before November 8, 1948, a written request therefor as provided by Rule XVII of the Commission's rules of practice.

It is further ordered, That James G. Ewell, or any other officer or officers of this Commission designated by it for that purpose, shall preside at such hearing. The officer so designated to preside at such hearing is hereby authorized to exercise all powers granted to the Commission under section 18 (c) of the act and to a hearing officer under the Commission's rules of practice.

The Division of Public Utilities of the Commission having advised the Commission that it has made a preliminary examination of the application and that, upon the basis thereof and without prejudice to additional matters or questions being specified upon further examination, the following matters and questions are presented for consideration:

1. Whether the issue and sale of said securities is entitled to exemption as provided by the third sentence of section 6 (b) of the act.

2. Whether said transaction should be exempted from the requirements of competitive bidding as provided in Rule U-50, and if so, what conditions, if any, in the public interest or for the protection of investors and consumers should be imposed in connection with such exemption.

3. Whether it is necessary or appropriate in the public interest or for the protection of investors or consumers to impose other terms and conditions with reference to the proposed transactions, and if so, what such terms and conditions should be.

4. Whether the accounting entries to be recorded in connection with the proposed transactions are proper and conform to accepted accounting principles.

It is further ordered, That the Secretary of the Commission shall serve notice of the aforesaid hearing by mailing by registered mail a copy of this notice and order to Central Maine Power Company, New England Public Service Company, and the Public Utilities Commission of Maine; and that general notice shall be given to all persons by publication of this notice and order in the FEDERAL REGISTER; and that a copy of this notice and order through a general release of this Commission shall be distributed to the press and mailed to the mailing list for releases issued under the Public Utility Holding Company Act of 1935.

By the Commission.

BUFFALO INVESTORS, INC.

NOTICE OF MOTION

At a regular session of the Securities Exchange Commission held at its offices in the city of Washington, D. C., on the 28th day of October A. D. 1948.

Notice is hereby given that the Division of Corporation Finance has filed a motion for an order pursuant to section 8 (f) of the Investment Company Act of 1940 ("act") declaring that Buffalo Investors, Inc. has ceased to be an investment company.

The Division of Corporation Finance has been advised that a certificate of dissolution of Buffalo Investors, Inc., showing the consent of all stockholders to such dissolution, has been filed with the Secretary of State of the State of New York on October 5, 1948, and that such Secretary has issued his certificate of such filing. The Division of Corporation Finance has been further advised that the entire consideration, $112,500, paid by all purchasers of capital stock of Buffalo Investors, Inc., for such stock has been distributed to them.

All interested persons are referred to said motion which is on file at the office of this Commission in Washington, D. C. for a more detailed statement of the matters of fact and law therein asserted.

Notice is further given that an order granting the motion may be issued by the Commission at any time after November 10, 1948 unless prior thereto a hearing upon the motion is ordered by the Commission, as provided in Rule N-5 of the rules and regulations promulgated under the act. Any interested person may, not later than November 8, 1948 at 5:30 p. m., in writing submit to the Commission his views or any additional facts bearing upon this motion or the desirability of a hearing thereon, or request the Commission in writing that a hearing be held thereon. Any such communication or request should be addressed: Secretary, Securities and Exchange Commission, 525 Second Street NW., Washington 25, D. C., and should state briefly the nature of the interest of the person submitting such information or requesting a hearing, the reasons for such request, and the issues of fact or law raised by the motion which he desires to controvert.

UNITED LIGHT & RAILWAYS CO. ET AL.

NOTICE OF FILING

At a regular session of the Securities and Exchange Commission held at its office in the city of Washington, D. C., on the 28th day of October A. D. 1948.

In the matter of United Light and Railways Company, American Light & Traction Company, et al., File Nos. 59-11, 59-17, 54-25.

Notice is hereby given that American Light & Traction Company ("American Light") has filed an application-declaration with respect to the sale by American Light of 192,734 shares of common stock of the Detroit Edison Company ("Detroit Edison") in accordance with the applicable provisions of the Public Utility Holding Company Act of 1935 ("act") and the rules promulgated thereunder.

Notice is further given that any interested person may, not later than November 8, 1948, at 5:30 p. m., e. s. t., request the Commission in writing that a hearing be held on such matter, stating the nature of his interest, the reasons for such request and specifying in detail the issues, if any, of fact or law raised by said application-declaration proposed to be controverted, or may request that he be notified if the Commission should order a hearing thereon. Any such request should be addressed: Secretary, Securities and Exchange Commission, 425 Second Street NW., Washington 25, D. C. At any time after November 8, 1948, such application-declaration, as filed or as amended, may be granted and permitted to become effective as provided in Rule U-23 of the rules and regulations promulgated under said act or the Commission may exempt such transactions as provided in Rules U-20 (a) and U-100 thereof.

All interested persons are referred to said application-declaration which is on file in the offices of this Commission for a statement of the transactions therein proposed which are summarized below:

On December 30, 1947, the Commission entered an Order approving a plan filed pursuant to the provisions of section 11 (e) of the act by American Light and its parent, United Light and Railways Company, a registered holding company which provides, among other things, that during 1948 American Light will apply for permission to sell such shares of Detroit Edison as may be required from time to time in connection with its investment in Michigan-Wisconsin Pipe Line Company, a subsidiary, and to distribute shares of such stock as dividends on the common stock of American Light, and that during 1948 American Light will dispose of all of its interest in Detroit Edison. American Light previously has sold two blocks of 450,000 shares each of Detroit Edison common stock in January and April 1948, respectively, and a third block of 190,000 shares of such stock in September 1948. In addition, American Light has distributed 103,312 shares of the Detroit Edison common stock as dividends to its common stockholders. As a further step in the consummation of said plan, American Light now proposes to sell at competitive bidding, pursuant to the requirements of Rule U-50, 192,734 shares of the common stock of Detroit Edison. The shares proposed to be sold constitute all of the shares of Detroit Edison common stock which will be owned by American Light after giving effect to a further dividend distribution to common stockholders of American Light to be made on November 1, 1948, except for one-half share of such stock which will be disposed of as indicated hereinafter. The application-declaration requests that the period provided by Rule U-50 for invitation of bids be shortened from 10 to 6 days, and, according to a time schedule specified in said application-declaration, it is contemplated that invitation for bids will be published on or about November 10, 1948, and that bids will be opened on or about November 16, 1948.

The application-declaration also requests authority to purchase on the New York Stock Exchange and the Detroit Stock Exchange such numbers of shares of common stock of Detroit Edison as may be necessary or appropriate to stabilize the price of such stock in order to facilitate the distribution and offering of the 192,734 shares proposed to be sold. It is stated that such purchases by American Light may commence at 10:00 a. m. on the date set for opening of bids and continue until American Light has accepted a bid or, if no bid is accepted, until all bids are rejected, that all purchases will be made through a member or members of the stock exchanges named and that the commissions paid in connection with such purchases will not exceed those customarily charged by members of the exchanges under applicable rules. Promptly after acceptance of a bid, American Light proposes to sell any shares of Detroit Edison common stock purchased for stabilizing purposes, together with the one-half share referred to above, through ordinary brokerage channels.

The application-declaration requests that the Commission's order be entered herein on or before November 9, 1948, and become effective forthwith.

By the Commission.

Under the authority of the Trading With the Enemy Act, as amended, Executive Order 9193, as amended, and Executive Order 9788, and pursuant to law, after investigation, it is hereby found:

1. That Gustav Gross, whose last known address is Harra, Germany, Luise Hacker, whose last known address is Kiessling, Germany and Ida Schmidt, whose last known address is Saardorf/Thur, Germany, are residents of Germany and nationals of a designated enemy country (Germany);

2. That the property described as follows: a. Twenty-five (25) shares of 5% cumulative preferred capital stock of the J. H. Belz Provision Company, St. Louis, Missouri, evidenced by a certificate numbered 8, registered in the name of Henry Gross, deceased, and presently in the custody of Detjen & Detjen, 511 Locust Street, St. Louis, Missouri, together with all declared and unpaid dividends thereon,

b. One (1) share of capital stock of the German House Incorporated, St. Louis, Missouri, evidenced by a certificate numbered 376, registered in the name of Henry Gross, deceased, and presently in the custody of Detjen & Detjen, 511 Locust Street, St. Louis, Missouri, together with all declared and unpaid dividends thereon, and

c. One (1) Dictator Apartments Income Mortgage Bond, of $450.00 face value, bearing the number 49, and presently in the custody of Detjen & Detjen, 511 Locust Street, St. Louis, Missouri, together with any and all rights thereunder and thereto, subject, however, to any and all attorney's liens of Detjen & Detjen, 511 Locust Street, St. Louis, Missouri, arising out of accrued but unpaid fees for legal services, is property within the United States owned or controlled by, payable or deliverable to, held on behalf of or on account of, or owing to, or which is evidence of ownership or control by Gustav Gross, Luise Hacker and Ida Schmidt, the aforesaid nationals of a designated enemy country (Germany);

and it is hereby determined:

3. That to the extent that the persons named in subparagraph 1 hereof are not within a designated enemy country, the national interest of the United States requires that such persons be treated as nationals of a designated enemy country (Germany).

All determinations and all action required by law, including appropriate consultation and certification, having been made and taken, and, it being deemed necessary in the national interest,

There is hereby vested in the Attorney General of the United States the property described above, to be held, used, administered, liquidated, sold or otherwise dealt with in the interest of and for the benefit of the United States.

The terms "national" and "designated enemy country" as used herein shall have the meanings prescribed in section 10 of Executive Order 9193, as amended.

Executed at Washington, D. C., on October 5, 1948.

For the Attorney General.

TITLE 7—AGRICULTURE

Chapter I—Production and Marketing Administration (Standards, Inspections, Marketing Practices)

Subchapter C—Regulations Under the Farm Products Inspection Act

PART 55—SAMPLING, GRADING, GRADE LABELING, AND SUPERVISION OF PACKAGING OF BUTTER, CHEESE, EGGS, POULTRY, AND DRESSED DOMESTIC RABBITS

FORMS AND INSTRUCTIONS

On March 23, 1948, notice of proposed rule making was published in the FEDERAL REGISTER (13 F. R. 1508) proposing instructions governing plants operating as official plants processing and packaging dairy products, pursuant to the revised rules and regulations governing the sampling, grading, grade labeling, and supervision of packaging of butter, cheese, eggs, poultry, and dressed domestic rabbits (7 CFR, 1946 Supp., Part 55). After consideration of all relevant matters presented, including the proposals set forth in the aforesaid notice, the following instructions and requirements are hereby promulgated pursuant to the provisions of the Department of Agriculture Appropriation Act, 1949 (Pub. Law 712, 80th Cong., 2d Sess., approved June 19, 1948):

§ 55.103 Instructions governing plants operating as official plants processing and packaging dairy products—(a) Definitions. (1) "Rules and regulations in this part" means the rules and regulations governing the sampling, grading, grade labeling, and supervision of packaging of butter, cheese, eggs, poultry, and dressed domestic rabbits (7 CFR, 1946 Supp., Part 55).

(2) "Dairy products" means any one or more of the following products: Butter, cheese (whether natural or processed), milk, cream, and milk products (whether dry) evaporated, or condensed).

(3) "Milk" means cows' milk.

(4) "Regional supervisor" means the regional supervisor or assistant regional supervisor, Dairy Products Section, Dairy and Poultry Inspection and Grading Division of the Administration, in charge of the grading service in a designated geographical area.

(5) "Bactericidal treatment" means to subject to an acceptable germicidal agent.

(6) All other terms which are used herein shall have the meaning applicable to such terms when used in the rules and regulations in this part.

(b) Survey of plant and premises. Prior to the inauguration of continuous inspection in a plant, the regional supervisor serving the area in which the plant is located will make a survey and inspection of the plant and premises to determine whether the facilities and methods of operation therein are suitable and adequate for grading service in accordance with: (1) The rules and regulations in this part, (2) the instructions and requirements contained in this section, and (3) such further instructions and requirements, based upon the aforesaid instructions (i) which may hereafter be issued with respect to minimum requirements, facilities, operating methods and procedures, raw materials, and sanitation in official plants and (ii) which are in effect at the time of the aforesaid survey and inspection.

(c) Premises and plant—(1) Premises. The premises of an official plant shall be free from conditions (including, but not being limited to, strong offensive odors) objectionable to a food processing operation and there shall be an efficient drainage system for the premises.

(2) Building. Each official plant shall be maintained in a sanitary condition, including, but not being limited to, the following requirements:

(i) There shall be abundant light (whether natural or artificial, or both) which is well distributed, and sufficient ventilation for each room and compartment thereof to prevent excessive condensation of moisture, so as to insure sanitary and suitable processing and operating conditions.

(ii) There shall be an efficient waste disposal and plumbing system for each such plant. All drains and gutters shall be properly installed with approved traps and vents, and shall be maintained in good repair and in proper working order.

(iii) There shall be an ample supply of both hot and cold water; and the water shall be of safe and sanitary quality with adequate facilities for its (a) proper distribution throughout the plant and (b) protection against contamination and pollution.

(iv) The walls, ceilings, partitions, posts, doors, and other parts of all structures constituting the plant shall be of such materials, construction, and finish as to permit their efficient and thorough cleaning. The floors shall be constructed of tile, cement, or other equally impervious material and shall be free from openings or rough surfaces which would interfere with maintaining the floors in a clean condition.

(v) Each room and each compartment in which any dairy products are handled, processed, or stored (a) shall be so designed and constructed as to insure processing and operating conditions of a clean and orderly character, (b) shall be free from objectionable odors and vapors, (c) shall be maintained in a clean and sanitary condition, and (d) shall possess sufficient refrigerating capacity for the maintenance of proper storage temperatures to protect the quality and condition of the dairy products stored.

(vi) Every practicable precaution shall be taken to exclude dogs, cats, and vermin (including, but not being limited to, rodents and insects) from the official plant in which any dairy products are handled or stored. Screens or other devices adequate to prevent the passage of insects shall be provided for all outside doors and windows that may be opened from time to time. The use of poisons for any purpose in any official plant where any dairy products are processed, handled, or stored is forbidden except under such restrictions and precautions as the Chief, or Acting Chief, of the Dairy and Poultry Inspection and Grading Division of the Administration may prescribe.

(3) Facilities. Each official plant shall be equipped with adequate sanitary facilities and accommodations, including, but not being limited to, the following:

(i) There shall be a sufficient number of adequately lighted dressing rooms and toilet rooms, ample in size and conveniently located. Such rooms shall not open directly into rooms or compartments in which any dairy products are handled, processed, or stored. The doors on all toilet rooms shall be self-closing. The dressing rooms and toilet rooms shall be separately ventilated, and shall meet all requirements as to sanitary construction and equipment.

(ii) Lavatory accommodations (including, but not being limited to, hot and cold running water, soap, and single service towels) shall be placed at such locations in the processing and packaging rooms of the official plant as may be essential to assure cleanliness of each person handling any dairy products.

(iii) Clean, white or light-colored outer garments and caps shall be worn by all persons engaged in receiving, testing, processing, or packaging any dairy products, except that hair nets may be substituted for caps.

(iv) No product or material which creates an objectionable condition shall be processed, handled, or stored in any room, compartment, or place where any dairy products are processed, handled, or stored.

(v) Suitable facilities for cleaning and bactericidal treatment of utensils and equipment shall be provided at convenient locations throughout the official plant.

(4) Equipment and utensils. All equipment and utensils used for receiving, segregating, transporting, holding, processing, packaging, and storing any dairy products shall be of such design, material, and construction as will (i) enable the examination, segregation, and processing of such dairy products in an efficient, clean, and sanitary manner, and (ii) permit easy access to all parts to insure thorough cleansing and effective bactericidal treatment. Insofar as it is practicable, all such equipment and utensils shall be made of stainless steel or other equally corrosion-resistant and non-copper-bearing material that will not adversely affect the product by chemical action or physical contact. Such equipment and utensils shall be maintained in good repair and sanitary condition.

(d) Raw milk and farm-separated cream. The inspection of the raw milk and the farm-separated cream for manufacture or processing into dairy products shall be based, as hereinafter set forth, on the organoleptic examination of each can of raw material at the time of delivery thereof at the official plant, and on quality control measures to determine sediment and bacterial content.

(1) Organoleptic examination of raw milk: quality control measures for sediment and bacterial content—(i) Organoleptic examination of raw milk. All raw milk delivered at the official plant shall be identified as to the producers from whom received. The condition of the raw milk shall be wholesome and characteristic of normal milk. The flavor and odor of the raw milk shall be fresh and sweet; however, normal feed flavors may be present. The term "fresh and sweet" means free from "old milk" flavor and odor and odor of developed acidity. Any raw milk that shows an abnormal condition (e. g., curdled, ropy, clotted, or unwholesome) shall be kept apart from the raw milk which is permitted to be used for manufacture or processing into dairy products.

(ii) Quality control measures for sediment. (a) A sediment test shall be conducted not less than twice each month with respect to a single can of raw milk selected at random on the day of testing from each producer's raw milk delivered at the official plant. Each such test shall be in accordance with the "off-the-bottom" method of sediment testing and shall employ the following standard sediment discs:

Standard Disc No. 1 equivalent to 0 mg. sediment
Standard Disc No. 2 equivalent to 0.5 mg. sediment
Standard Disc No. 3 equivalent to 2.5 mg. sediment

(b) Unless disqualified pursuant to the other requirements of this paragraph, any producer's raw milk which is delivered at the official plant may be used for manufacturing or processing into dairy products so long as the aforesaid sediment tests yield sediment discs showing sediment not in excess of that shown on Standard Disc No. 2.

(c) In the event any sediment test, conducted as aforesaid on a random can of a producer's raw milk, yields a sediment disc in excess of Standard Disc No. 2, all cans of such producer's raw milk from which the random can was selected, shall be tested individually. However, only such cans of the raw milk which yield a sediment disc not in excess of Standard Disc No. 3 may be used as aforesaid. During the 10-day period immediately following the day of such testing, each can of such producer's raw milk delivered at the official plant shall be similarly tested for sediment; and each can of raw milk so tested during this period which does not yield a sediment disc in excess of Standard Disc No. 3 may be used for manufacture or processing as aforesaid.

(d) Daily sediment tests required to be conducted on all cans of a producer's raw milk may be discontinued if the tests of all cans of raw milk delivered on three consecutive days yield, with respect to each can so tested, a sediment disc not in excess of Standard Disc No. 2. At the end of the 10-day period, if the daily testing of all cans of the producer's raw milk delivered at the official plant during the period does not disclose that on three consecutive days each can of milk tested yielded a sediment disc not in excess of Standard Disc No. 2, then all of the raw milk thereafter delivered at such official plant by such producer shall be kept apart from the raw milk which is permitted to be used for manufacture or processing into dairy products. At any subsequent time, however, if the raw milk delivered at such plant by such producer discloses, upon daily testing for sediment, that on three consecutive days each can of the raw milk delivered on such days yielded a sediment disc not in excess of Standard Disc No. 2, the raw milk of such producer may thereafter be used for manufacture or processing, as aforesaid, subject to all of the requirements contained in this paragraph.

(e) Each can of raw milk which is tested and yields a sediment disc in excess of Standard Disc No. 3 shall be kept apart from the raw milk which is permitted to be used for manufacture or processing into dairy products.

(iii) Quality control measures for bacterial content. A test to determine the bacterial content of the raw milk shall be conducted not less than twice each month with respect to a mixed sample of every producer's milk delivered at the official plant on the day of testing. Each such test shall be the Methylene Blue Reduction Test or any other recognized test for determining bacterial content. The following classifications for raw milk are established on the basis of the Methylene Blue Reduction Test conducted on a mixed sample of such milk:

Class 1: The mixed sample tested is not decolorized in 3½ hours.
Class 2: The mixed sample tested is not decolorized in 2½ hours, but is decolorized in less than 3½ hours.
Class 3: The mixed sample tested is not decolorized in 1 hour, but is decolorized in less than 2½ hours.
Class 4: The mixed sample tested is decolorized in less than 1 hour.

(a) Unless disqualified pursuant to the other requirements of this paragraph, any producer's raw milk which is delivered at the official plant may be used for manufacturing or processing into dairy products so long as the test for bacterial content shows the milk to be either Class 1 or Class 2.

(b) In the event the test for bacterial content on a mixed sample of raw milk delivered by a producer discloses that the raw milk is Class 3, such milk may be used as aforesaid; however, during the 4-week period immediately following the day of such test, the raw milk delivered by such producer shall be similarly tested at least twice each week and such milk may also be used, as aforesaid, so long as the test for bacterial content does not show that the milk is Class 4.

(c) The tests for bacterial content required to be conducted during the 4-week period may be discontinued when the results of each of two consecutive tests for bacterial content show that the producer's raw milk was either Class 1 or Class 2. At the end of the 4-week period, if the tests conducted on mixed samples of the producer's raw milk delivered at the official plant do not disclose two consecutive tests with respect to which the raw milk represented by the samples was Class 1 or Class 2, then all of the raw milk thereafter delivered at such official plant by such producer shall be kept apart from the raw milk which is permitted to be used for manufacture or processing into dairy products. At any subsequent time, however, if the raw milk delivered at such official plant by such producer discloses, upon testing as aforesaid, that on two consecutive tests the raw milk represented by the respective mixed samples was Class 1 or Class 2, the raw milk of such producer may thereafter be used for manufacture or processing into dairy products, subject to all of the requirements contained in this paragraph.

(d) When a test for bacterial content on a mixed sample of a producer's raw milk discloses that the raw milk represented by the sample is Class 4, such milk shall be kept apart from the raw milk which is permitted to be used for manufacture or processing into dairy products.

(2) Organoleptic examination of farm-separated cream. The condition of farm-separated cream shall be wholesome and characteristic of normal cream. The grading and segregation of farm-separated cream shall be determined by the organoleptic examination of each can of such cream for condition, flavor, and odor; and, with respect to such cream that is to be used in the manufacture or processing into butter, the grading and segregation thereof shall be consistent with the applicable flavor classification for creamery butter as set forth in the United States Standards for Grades of Creamery Butter (7 CFR, Cum. Supp., Part 63). Any farm-separated cream that shows an abnormal or unwholesome condition shall be kept apart from the farm-separated cream which is permitted to be used for manufacture or processing into dairy products.

(3) Protection of raw material while in transit. All raw milk and farm-separated cream received at an official plant shall, while in transit from the farm where produced, be adequately protected from extreme temperatures, dust, and other adverse conditions.

(e) Operations and operating procedures. (1) All operations in the receiving, transporting, segregating, holding, processing, packaging, and storing of dairy products shall be strictly in accord with clean and sanitary methods and shall be conducted as rapidly as is practicable and at temperatures that will not tend to cause (i) any material increase in bacterial content, or (ii) any deterioration or contamination of such products.

(2) All dairy products shall be subjected to continuous inspection throughout each processing operation. All dairy products which are not processed in accordance with the instructions contained in this section or are not fit for human food shall be removed and segregated prior to any further processing operation in connection with the production of dairy products which are to be identified with official identification.

(3) All substances and ingredients used, or added, in the processing of any dairy products shall be clean and fit for human food.

(4) The methods and procedures employed in the receiving, segregating, and processing of raw materials in an official plant shall be adequate to result in a satisfactory finished product. If, to assure a satisfactory finished product, changes in methods and procedures are recommended by the regional supervisor serving the area in which the plant is located, such changes shall be effectuated as soon as practicable.

(5) Packages or containers for dairy products shall be clean when being filled with any such products; and all reasonable precautions shall be taken to avoid soiling or contaminating the surface of any package or container liner which is, or will be, in direct contact with such products.

(f) Personnel; health. (1) No person affected with any communicable disease (including, but not being limited to, tuberculosis) in a transmissible stage shall be permitted in any room or compartment where exposed or unpacked dairy products are prepared, processed, or otherwise handled.

(2) Spitting or smoking is prohibited in each room and in each compartment where any exposed or unpacked dairy products are prepared, processed, or otherwise handled.

(3) All necessary precautions shall be taken to prevent the contamination of dairy products with any foreign substance (including, but not being limited to, perspiration, hair, cosmetics, and medicaments).

(g) Final inspection of dairy products. (1) Representative samples from each lot of dairy products shall be inspected or caused to be inspected for class, quality, and condition by the official resident inspector. Where laboratory analysis is required to determine class, quality, and condition, the official resident inspector will select representative samples from each lot of dairy products for such analysis.

(h) Official identification. (1) Only dairy products manufactured or processed in accordance with the instructions and requirements in this section and the rules and regulations in this part may be identified with official identification.

(2) Sketches, proofs, or photostatic copies of all proposed packaging materials, grade labels, and inspection marks to be used as official identification should be submitted to the Chief of the Dairy and Poultry Inspection and Grading Division, PMA, U. S. Department of Agriculture, Washington 25, D. C., for tentative approval prior to acquisition of a supply of material bearing such identification.

(3) Finished copies, in triplicate, of the tentatively approved packaging materials, grade labels, and inspection marks shall be transmitted to the Chief of the Dairy and Poultry Inspection and Grading Division, PMA, U. S. Department of Agriculture, Washington 25, D. C., for final approval prior to their use as official identification. (Pub. Law 712, 80th Cong.)

These instructions and requirements shall become effective thirty days after publication in the FEDERAL REGISTER.

TITLE 14—CIVIL AVIATION

Chapter II—Civil Aeronautics Administration

PART 550—FEDERAL AID TO PUBLIC AGENCIES FOR DEVELOPMENT OF PUBLIC AIRPORTS

PROJECT COSTS; CLASS 3 OR SMALLER AIRPORTS

Acting pursuant to the authority vested in me by the Federal Airport Act (60 Stat. 170; Pub. Law 377, 79th Cong.), I hereby amend Part 550 of the regulations of the Administrator of Civil Aeronautics as follows:

By amending § 550.4 (c) (1) (i) to read as follows:

§ 550.4 Project costs. • • •

(c) United States' share of project costs. • • •

(1) Project costs other than land acquisition costs—(i) Class 3 or smaller airports. The United States' share of the project costs (other than costs of land acquisition) of an approved project for the development of a Class 3 or smaller airport, wherever located, shall be 50 per cent of the allowable project costs of the project (other than costs of land acquisition), except that this share, in the case of any State containing unappropriated and unreserved public lands and nontaxable Indian lands (individual and tribal) exceeding 5 per cent of the total area of all lands therein shall be increased as provided in section 10 (b) of the act, and except that the United States' share shall be 75 per cent in the case of the Territory of Alaska, all as set forth in the following table:

UNITED STATES' PERCENTAGE SHARE OF ALLOWABLE PROJECT COSTS IN STATES CONTAINING UNAPPROPRIATED AND UNRESERVED PUBLIC LANDS AND NONTAXABLE INDIAN LANDS

State	Percentage
Arizona	60.83
California	54.16
Colorado	53.33
Idaho	56.29
Montana	53.53
Nevada	62.50
New Mexico	56.90
Oklahoma	51.39
Oregon	56.02
South Dakota	53.09
Utah	61.88
Washington	51.78
Wyoming	57.49

NOTE: The percentages listed in this table will vary as changes occur with respect to the area of unappropriated and unreserved public lands and nontaxable Indian lands in the several States, in which event such changed percentages will be used by the Administrator in determining the United States' share of allowable project costs other than costs of land acquisition.

This amendment shall become effective upon publication in the FEDERAL REGISTER.

[3d Gen. Rev. of Export Regs., Amdt. 12]

PART 370—ORDERS AND DELEGATIONS OF AUTHORITY

VALIDITY OF EXPORT LICENSES

Section 370.2 Orders modifying validity of export licenses is amended by adding thereto a new paragraph (e) to read as follows:

(e) Export shipments of gasoline (including aviation gasoline), kerosene, gas oil, and distillate fuel oil from West Coast ports of the United States are prohibited; and no license authorizing the exportation of any of said commodities shall be valid for use in clearing such shipments for export from such West Coast ports. The provisions of this paragraph shall not apply to exportations to Canada, or to exportations of any of said commodities made in accordance with the provisions of the general license for shipments of limited value "GLV," as set forth in § 372.10.

This amendment shall become effective as of September 11, 1948, 12:01 a. m., P. d. s. t.

PART 374—PROVISIONS FOR INDIVIDUAL AND OTHER VALIDATED LICENSES

APPLICATIONS FOR EXPORT LICENSES TO SOUTH KOREA, JAPAN, MARCUS ISLAND AND GERMANY

Section 374.14 Applications for licenses to export to South Korea, Japan, Marcus Island and Germany is amended by revising paragraph (a) to read as follows:

(a) Except as noted below, applications for licenses to export commodities listed in § 399.1 of this chapter to South Korea, Japan, and Marcus Island must be accompanied by a true or photostat copy of such import permit document as may be required by the appropriate occupying government authorities having jurisdiction over approval of importations to those destinations.

Applications for licenses to export commodities to Japan and South Korea which are consigned to missionaries or their duly accredited agents need not be accompanied by import permits or photostat copies thereof: Provided, The commodities contained in such shipment are for the sole use and consumption of full-time church workers or their dependents in Japan or South Korea, as the case may be; And provided further, That the applicant makes the following certification on the export license application and on the outside of all packages contained in each such shipment:

This shipment of _____ is for the sole use and consumption of missionaries, full-time church workers, or their dependents, in _____ and will not be used for any other purpose.

This amendment shall become effective November 2, 1948, as to South Korea, and as of August 5, 1948, as to Japan.

PART 377—DENIAL OF LICENSING PRIVILEGES

PART 378—APPEALS

PROCEDURE FOR APPEALS

1. Section 377.11 Appeal is amended to read as follows:

§ 377.11 Appeal. A respondent may appeal in writing to the Appeals Board of the Office of International Trade (established by § 378.1 of this chapter), whose determination shall be final. Such appeal shall be taken within ten (10) days after receipt of a suspension order by the respondent. The appeal shall be considered on the basis of the order of the Director of the Commodities Division, the report of the Compliance Commissioner and the record made before the Commissioner, including the transcript of the hearing and any bill of exceptions filed by the respondent. Oral argument will be permitted only upon direction of the Appeals Board. The Appeals Board shall not consider facts or arguments affecting the merits of the policy embodied in the rules or regulations alleged to have been violated. An order denying the privilege to obtain or use an export license shall remain in effect pending disposition of the appeal, unless otherwise ordered by the Appeals Board.

Appeals shall be filed with and addressed to the Appeals Board, Bureau of Foreign and Domestic Commerce, Department of Commerce, Washington 25, D. C. The provisions of § 378.1 of this chapter concerning grounds for appeal, preparation of appeals in general, records and decisions shall be applicable to appeals provided for by this section.

2. Section 378.1 General procedure for appeals is amended in the following particulars:

Subparagraph (2) of paragraph (b) Appealability of regulations and administrative actions is amended to read as follows:

(2) Any administrative action of the Office of International Trade or duly authorized employees thereof, taken under the aforementioned authority, including appeals from compliance actions as provided for by § 377.11 of this chapter.

PART 15—INSIGNIA OF RANK

Under authority contained in R. S. 161 (5 U. S. C. 22), present Part 15 (old Part 21) of Title 22 of the Code of Federal Regulations is superseded by the following regulations.

Sec.
15.1 Office of the Secretary of State.
15.2 Office of the Under Secretary of State.

§ 15.1 Office of the Secretary of State. The official flag indicative of the office of Secretary of State shall be as follows: On a blue rectangular field a white disk bearing the official coat of arms of the United States adopted by the act of June 20, 1782, in proper colors. In each of the four corners a white five-pointed star with one point upward. The colors and automobile flag to be the same design, adding a white fringe. For the colors a cord and tassel of blue and white to be added. The sizes to be in accordance with military and naval customs. (R. S. 161, 5 U. S. C. 22)

Approved: November 1, 1948.

TITLE 25—INDIANS

Chapter I—Office of Indian Affairs, Department of the Interior

Subchapter L—Irrigation Projects: Operation and Maintenance

PART 130—OPERATION AND MAINTENANCE CHARGES

AHTANUM INDIAN IRRIGATION PROJECT, WASHINGTON

On June 25, 1948 notice of intention to amend § 130.1 was published in the daily issue of the FEDERAL REGISTER (13 F. R. 3485), said proposed amendment consisting of an increase of $1.00 in the annual operation and maintenance assessment against the lands of the Ahtanum Indian Irrigation Project. Interested persons were thereby given opportunity to participate in the preparing of the amendments by submitting data or arguments within 30 days from the date of publication of the notice.

Objections to the proposed increase in the rate of assessment were received from the Yakima Tribal Council of the Yakima Indian Reservation and the Yakima Reservation Irrigation District. The objections have been duly considered both by undersigned and the Commissioner of Indian Affairs. It has been decided that the increase in rate should be limited to 75¢ per acre. Accordingly and by virtue of the authority delegated to me by the Commissioner of Indian Affairs (25 CFR 02.8 (l)) the said § 130.1 is hereby amended to read as follows:

§ 130.1 Charges. Pursuant to the provisions of the Acts of August 1, 1914 and March 7, 1928 (38 Stat. 583 and 45 Stat. 210; 25 U. S. C. 385, 387), the operation and maintenance charges on lands of the Ahtanum Indian Irrigation Project, Yakima Indian Reservation, Washington, for the calendar year 1949 and subsequent years until further notice, are hereby fixed at $2.25 per acre per annum for each irrigable acre of land to which water can be delivered from the project works. (38 Stat. 583, 45 Stat. 210; 25 U. S. C. 385, 387; 25 CFR 02.8 (l))

DEPARTMENT OF THE TREASURY

[26 CFR, Parts 410, 411]

TAXES UNDER THE RAILROAD RETIREMENT TAX ACT

NOTICE OF PROPOSED RULE MAKING

Notice is hereby given, pursuant to the Administrative Procedure Act, approved June 11, 1946, that the regulations set forth in tentative form below are proposed to be prescribed by the Commissioner of Internal Revenue, with the approval of the Secretary of the Treasury. Prior to the final adoption of such regulations, consideration will be given to any data, views, or arguments pertaining thereto which are submitted in writing in duplicate to the Commissioner of Internal Revenue, Washington 25, D. C., within the period of 30 days from the date of publication of this notice in the FEDERAL REGISTER. The proposed regulations are to be issued under the authority contained in sections 1535 and 3791 of the Internal Revenue Code (53 Stat. 183, 467; 26 U. S. C. 1535, 3791) and other provisions of the internal revenue laws and in subchapter B of chapter 9 of the Internal Revenue Code (53 Stat. 179; 26 U. S. C., c. 9, subc. B), as last amended by sections 1 and 3 of the act approved July 31, 1946 (60 Stat. 722, 723).

AUTHORITY: §§ 411.101 to 411.906 issued under secs. 1535 and 3791 of the Internal Revenue Code (53 Stat. 183, 467; 26 U. S. C. 1535, 3791).

SUBPART A—INTRODUCTORY PROVISIONS

§ 411.101 Introduction. These regulations, which constitute Part 411 of Title 26 of the Code of Federal Regulations, are prescribed under the Railroad Retirement Tax Act (subchapter B, chapter 9, Internal Revenue Code). The applicable provisions of the act, as well as certain applicable provisions of internal-revenue laws of particular importance, will be found in the appropriate places in, and are to be read in connection with, the regulations in this part. References to sections of law are references to the Railroad Retirement Tax Act, unless otherwise expressly indicated. Inasmuch as these regulations constitute Part 411 of Title 26 of the Code of Federal Regulations, each section of the regulations bears a number commencing with 411 and a decimal point. References to sections not preceded by "411." are references to sections of law.

§ 411.102 Scope of regulations—(a) Taxes and related definitions. The regulations in this part relate to the employers' tax, the employees' tax, and the employee representatives' tax, imposed by the Railroad Retirement Tax Act, with respect to compensation paid after December 31, 1948, for services rendered after December 31, 1946. (As to when compensation is deemed to be paid, see § 411.208.) The definitions of the terms "employer", "employee", "employee representative", and "compensation" set forth in the regulations in this part are to be used only in connection with such regulations and are applicable only to services rendered after December 31, 1946.

For provisions relating to the respective taxes and definitions with respect to compensation paid prior to January 1, 1949, or earned prior to January 1, 1947, see Regulations 100 (26 CFR, Part 410) and such regulations as made applicable to the Internal Revenue Code by Treasury Decision 4885 (26 CFR, Cum. Supp., p. 5876).

(b) Additional subjects covered—(1) Returns and payment of tax. The regulations in this part relate to returns and payment of employers' tax, employees' tax, and employee representatives' tax, required to be reported on returns for periods beginning after December 31, 1948. (For provisions relating to the period for which compensation is required to be reported, see § 411.601.)

(2) Records. The regulations in this part relate to the records of employers and employees with respect to remuneration paid after December 31, 1948, for services rendered after December 31, 1936, and to the records of employee representatives with respect to remuneration paid after December 31, 1948, for services rendered after December 31, 1946.

(3) Adjustments, settlements, and claims. The regulations in this part relate to adjustments, settlements, and claims for refund, credit, or abatement, made after December 31, 1948, in connection with the employers' tax and the employees' tax under the Railroad Retirement Tax Act in force before, on, or after January 1, 1947, or under the Carriers Taxing Act of 1937, but not to any adjustment reported, or any credit taken, on any return for a tax-return period ended prior to January 1, 1949. However, § 410.707 (article 707 of Regulations 100) and of such regulations as made applicable to the Internal Revenue Code remains in full force and effect with respect to the treatment under section 4 (b) of the act approved August 13, 1940 (54 Stat. 786), of the employers' tax and the employees' tax with respect to certain coal mining services performed in the employ of a carrier by railroad subject to part I of the Interstate Commerce Act. The regulations in this part also relate to claims for refund, credit, or abatement made after December 31, 1948, in connection with the employee representatives' tax under the Railroad Retirement Tax Act in force before, on, or after January 1, 1947, or under the Carriers Taxing Act of 1937.

§ 411.103 Extent to which the regulations in this part supersede Part 410. The regulations in this part, with respect to the subject matter within the scope thereof, supersede Regulations 100, approved October 12, 1937 (26 CFR, Part 410), as amended, and such regulations as made applicable to subchapter B of chapter 9 and other provisions of the Internal Revenue Code by Treasury Decision 4885, approved February 11, 1939 (26 CFR, Cum. Supp., p. 5876), together with any amendments to such regulations as so made applicable to the Internal Revenue Code.

SUBPART B—DEFINITIONS

SECTION 3 (g) OF THE ACT OF JULY 31, 1946 (60 STAT. 725)

RAILROAD RETIREMENT TAX ACT

Subchapter B of Chapter 9 of the Internal Revenue Code is amended by adding at the end thereof the following new section:

SEC. 1539. Title of subchapter. This subchapter may be cited as the "Railroad Retirement Tax Act."

SECTION 2 OF THE ACT OF FEBRUARY 10, 1939 (53 STAT. 1)

INTERNAL REVENUE CODE

This act and the internal revenue title incorporated herein shall be known as the Internal Revenue Code and may be cited as "I. R. C.".

SECTION 1532 OF THE ACT

DEFINITIONS

As used in this subchapter:

(a) Employer. The term "employer" means any carrier (as defined in subsection (h) of this section), and any company which is directly or indirectly owned or controlled by one or more such carriers or under common control therewith, and which operates any equipment or facility or performs any service (except trucking service, casual service, and the casual operation of equipment or facilities) in connection with the transportation of passengers or property by railroad, or the receipt, delivery, elevation, transfer in transit, refrigeration or icing, storage, or handling of property transported by railroad, and any receiver, trustee, or other individual or body, judicial or otherwise, when in the possession of the property or operating all or any part of the business of any such employer: Provided, however, That the term "employer" shall not include any street, interurban, or suburban electric railway, unless such railway is operating as a part of a general steam-railroad system of transportation, but shall not exclude any part of the general steam-railroad system of transportation now or hereafter operated by any other motive power. The Interstate Commerce Commission is hereby authorized and directed upon request of the Commissioner of Internal Revenue, or upon complaint of any party interested, to determine after hearing whether any line operated by electric power falls within the terms of this proviso. The term "employer" shall also include railroad associations, traffic associations, tariff bureaus, demurrage bureaus, weighing and inspection bureaus, collection agencies and other associations, bureaus, agencies, or organizations controlled and maintained wholly or principally by two or more employers as hereinbefore defined and engaged in the performance of services in connection with or incidental to railroad transportation; and railway labor organizations, national in scope, which have been or may be organized in accordance with the provisions of the Railway Labor Act, as amended, and their State and National legislative committees and their general committees and their insurance departments and their local lodges and divisions, established pursuant to the constitution and bylaws of such organizations. The term "employer" shall not include any company by reason of its being engaged in the mining of coal, the supplying of coal to an employer where delivery is not beyond the mine tipple, and the operation of equipment or facilities therefor, or in any of such activities.

(b) Employee. The term "employee" means any individual in the service of one or more employers for compensation: Provided, however, That the term "employee" shall include an employee of a local lodge or division defined as an employer in subsection (a) only if he was in the service of or in the employment relation to a carrier on or after August 29, 1935. An individual shall be deemed to have been in the employment relation to a carrier on August 29, 1935, if (i) he was on that date on leave of absence from his employment, expressly granted to him by the carrier by whom he was employed, or by a duly authorized representative of such carrier, and the grant of such leave of absence will have been established to the satisfaction of the Railroad Retirement Board before July 1947; or (ii) he was in the service of a carrier after August 29, 1935, and before January 1946 in each of six calendar months, whether or not consecutive; or (iii) before August 29, 1935, he did not retire and was not retired or discharged from the service of the last carrier by whom he was employed or its corporate or operating successor, but (A) solely by reason of his physical or mental disability he ceased before August 29, 1935, to be in the service of such carrier and thereafter remained continuously disabled until he attained age sixty-five or until August 1945, or (B) solely for such last stated reason a carrier by whom he was employed before August 29, 1935, or a carrier who is its successor did not on or after August 29, 1935, and before August 1945 call him to return to service, or (C) if he was so called he was solely for such reason unable to render service in six calendar months as provided in clause (ii); or (iv) he was on August 29, 1935, absent from the service of a carrier by reason of a discharge which, within one year after the effective date thereof, was protested, to an appropriate labor representative or to the carrier, as wrongful, and which was followed within ten years of the effective date thereof by his reinstatement in good faith to his former service with all his seniority rights: Provided, That an individual shall not be deemed to have been on August 29, 1935, in the employment relation to a carrier if before that date he was granted a pension or gratuity on the basis of which a pension was awarded to him pursuant to section 6 of the Railroad Retirement Act of 1937, or if during the last pay-roll period before August 29, 1935, in which he rendered service to a carrier he was not in the service of an employer, in accordance with subsection (d), with respect to any service in such pay-roll period, or if he could have been in the employment relation to an employer only by reason of his having been, either before or after August 29, 1935, in the service of a local lodge or division defined as an employer in subsection (a).

The term "employee" includes an officer of an employer.

The term "employee" shall not include any individual while such individual is engaged in the physical operations consisting of the mining of coal, the preparation of coal, the handling (other than movement by rail with standard railroad locomotives) of coal not beyond the mine tipple, or the loading of coal at the tipple.

(c) Employee Representative. The term "employee representative" means any officer or official representative of a railway labor organization other than a labor organization included in the term "employer" as defined in subsection (a), who before or after June 29, 1937, was in the service of an employer as defined in subsection (a) and who is duly authorized and designated to represent employees in accordance with the Railway Labor Act, 44 Stat. 577 (U. S. C., Title 45, c. 18), as amended, and any individual who is regularly assigned to or regularly employed by such officer or official representative in connection with the duties of his office.

(d) Service. An individual is in the service of an employer whether his service is rendered within or without the United States if (i) he is subject to the continuing authority of the employer to supervise and direct the manner of rendition of his service, or he is rendering professional or technical services and is integrated into the staff of the employer, or he is rendering, on the property used in the employer's operations, other personal services the rendition of which is integrated into the employer's operations, and (ii) he renders such service for compensation: Provided, however, That an individual shall be deemed to be in the service of an employer, other than a local lodge or division or a general committee of a railway-labor-organization employer, not conducting the principal part of its business in the United States only when he is rendering service to it in the United States; and an individual shall be deemed to be in the service of such a local lodge or division only if (1) all, or substantially all, the individuals constituting its membership are employees of an employer conducting the principal part of its business in the United States; or (2) the headquarters of such local lodge or division is located in the United States; and an individual shall be deemed to be in the service of such a general committee only if (1) he is representing a local lodge or division described in clauses (1) or (2) immediately above; or (2) all, or substantially all, the individuals represented by it are employees of an employer conducting the principal part of its business in the United States; or (3) he acts in the capacity of a general chairman or an assistant general chairman of a general committee which represents individuals rendering service in the United States to an employer, but in such case if his office or headquarters is not located in the United States and the individuals represented by such general committee are employees of an employer not conducting the principal part of its business in the United States, only such proportion of the remuneration for such service shall be regarded as compensation as the proportion which the mileage in the United States under the jurisdiction of such general committee bears to the total mileage under its jurisdiction, unless such mileage formula is inapplicable, in which case such other formula as the Railroad Retirement Board may have prescribed pursuant to subsection (c) of section 1 of the Railroad Retirement Act of 1937 shall be applicable, and if the application of such mileage formula, or such other formula as the Board may prescribe, would result in the compensation of the individual being less than 10 per centum of his remuneration for such service no part of such remuneration shall be regarded as compensation: Provided further, That an individual not a citizen or resident of the United States shall not be deemed to be in the service of an employer when rendering service outside the United States to an employer who is required under the laws applicable in the place where the service is rendered to employ therein, in whole or in part, citizens or residents thereof; and the laws applicable on August 29, 1935, in the place where the service is rendered shall be deemed to have been applicable there at all times prior to that date.

(e) Compensation. The term "compensation" means any form of money remuneration earned by an individual for services rendered as an employee to one or more employers, or as an employee representative, including remuneration paid for time lost as an employee, but remuneration paid for time lost shall be deemed earned in the month in which such time is lost. Such term does not include tips, or the voluntary payment by an employer, without deduction from the remuneration of the employee, of the tax imposed on such employee by section 1500. Compensation which is earned during the period for which the Commissioner shall require a return of taxes under this subchapter to be made and which is payable during the calendar month following such period shall be deemed to have been paid during such period only. For the purpose of determining the amount of taxes under sections 1500 and 1520, compensation earned in the service of a local lodge or division of a railway-labor-organization employer shall be disregarded with respect to any calendar month if the amount thereof is less than $3 and (1) such compensation is earned before April 1, 1940, and the taxes thereon under such sections are not paid before July 1, 1940, or (2) such compensation is earned after March 31, 1940.

A payment made by an employer to an individual through the employer's pay roll shall be presumed, in the absence of evidence to the contrary, to be compensation for service rendered by such individual as an employee of the employer in the period with respect to which the payment is made. An employee shall be deemed to be paid, "for time lost" the amount he is paid by an employer with respect to an identifiable period of absence from the active service of the employer, including absence on account of personal injury, and the amount he is paid by the employer for loss of earnings resulting from his displacement to a less remunerative position or occupation. If a payment is made by an employer with respect to a personal injury and includes pay for time lost, the total payment shall be deemed to be paid for time lost unless, at the time of payment, a part of such payment is specifically apportioned to factors other than time lost, in which event only such part of the payment as is not so apportioned shall be deemed to be paid for time lost.

(f) United States. The term "United States" when used in a geographical sense means the States, Alaska, Hawaii, and the District of Columbia.

(g) Company. The term "company" includes corporations, associations, and joint-stock companies.

(h) Carriers. The term "carrier" means an express company, sleeping-car company, or carrier by railroad, subject to part I of the Interstate Commerce Act.

(i) Person. The term "person" means an individual, a partnership, an association, a joint-stock company, or a corporation. (Sec. 1532, I. R. C., as amended by sec. 3, Act of June 11, 1940, 54 Stat. 264; sec. 1, Act of Aug. 13, 1940, 54 Stat. 785; sec. 27 (a), Act of Oct. 10, 1940, 54 Stat. 1101; sec. 14, Act of Apr. 8, 1942, 56 Stat. 209; secs. 1, 3 (e), (f), Act of July 31, 1946, 60 Stat. 722, 724, 725)

Supp., p. 5876), together with any amendments to such regulations as so made applicable to the Internal Revenue Code.

(p) "Railroad Retirement Board" means the board established pursuant to section 10 of the Railroad Retirement Act of 1937.

(q) The cross-references in the regulations in this part to other portions of the regulations, when the word "see" is used, are made only for convenience, and shall be given no legal effect.

SECTION 1532 (a) OF THE ACT

EMPLOYER

The term "employer" means any carrier (as defined in subsection (h) of this section), and any company which is directly or indirectly owned or controlled by one or more such carriers or under common control therewith, and which operates any equipment or facility or performs any service (except trucking service, casual service, and the casual operation of equipment or facilities) in connection with the transportation of passengers or property by railroad, or the receipt, delivery, elevation, transfer in transit, refrigeration or icing, storage, or handling of property transported by railroad, and any receiver, trustee, or other individual or body, judicial or otherwise, when in the possession of the property or operating all or any part of the business of any such employer: Provided, however, That the term "employer" shall not include any street, interurban, or suburban electric railway, unless such railway is operating as a part of a general steam-railroad system of transportation, but shall not exclude any part of the general steam-railroad system of transportation now or hereafter operated by any other motive power. The Interstate Commerce Commission is hereby authorized and directed upon request of the Commissioner of Internal Revenue, or upon complaint of any party interested, to determine after hearing whether any line operated by electric power falls within the terms of this proviso. The term "employer" shall also include railroad associations, traffic associations, tariff bureaus, demurrage bureaus, weighing and inspection bureaus, collection agencies and other associations, bureaus, agencies or organizations controlled and maintained wholly or principally by two or more employers as hereinbefore defined and engaged in the performance of services in connection with or incidental to railroad transportation; and railway labor organizations, national in scope, which have been or may be organized in accordance with the provisions of the Railway Labor Act, as amended, and their State and National legislative committees and their general committees and their insurance departments and their local lodges and divisions, established pursuant to the constitution and bylaws of such organizations. The term "employer" shall not include any company by reason of its being engaged in the mining of coal, the supplying of coal to an employer where delivery is not beyond the mine tipple, and the operation of equipment or facilities therefor, or in any of such activities. (Sec. 1532 (a), I. R. C., as amended by sec. 1, Act of Aug. 13, 1940, 54 Stat. 785)

SECTION 1532 (h) OF THE ACT

CARRIER

The term "carrier" means an express company, sleeping-car company, or carrier by railroad, subject to part I of the Interstate Commerce Act.

§ 411.202 Who are employers. Each of the following persons is an employer within the meaning of the act:

(a) Any carrier, that is, any express company, sleeping-car company, or carrier by railroad, subject to part I of the Interstate Commerce Act;

(b) Any company:

(1) Which is directly or indirectly owned or controlled by one or more employers as defined in paragraph (a) of this section, or under common control therewith, and

(2) Which operates any equipment or facility or performs any service (except trucking service, casual service, and the casual operation of equipment or facilities) in connection with:

(i) The transportation of passengers or property by railroad, or

(ii) The receipt, delivery, elevation, transfer in transit, refrigeration or icing, storage, or handling of property transported by railroad;

(c) Any receiver, trustee, or other individual or body, judicial or otherwise, when in the possession of the property or operating all or any part of the business of any employer as defined in paragraph (a) or (b) of this section;

(d) Any railroad association, traffic association, tariff bureau, demurrage bureau, weighing and inspection bureau, collection agency, and any other association, bureau, agency, or organization controlled and maintained wholly or principally by two or more employers as defined in paragraph (a), (b), or (c) of this section and engaged in the performance of services in connection with or incidental to railroad transportation;

(e) Any railway labor organization, national in scope, which has been or may be organized in accordance with the provisions of the Railway Labor Act; and

(f) Any subordinate unit of a national railway - labor - organization employer, that is, any State or National legislative committee, general committee, insurance department, or local lodge or division, of an employer as defined in paragraph (e) of this section, established pursuant to the constitution and bylaws of such employer.

As used in paragraph (b) of this section, the term "controlled" includes direct or indirect control, whether legally enforceable and however exercisable or exercised. The control may be by means of stock ownership, or by agreements, licenses, or any other devices which insure that the operation of the company is in the interests of one or more carriers. It is the reality of the control, however, which is decisive, not its form nor the mode of its exercise.

The term "employer" does not include any street, interurban, or suburban electric railway, unless such railway is operating as a part of a general steam-railroad system of transportation, but shall not exclude any part of the general steam-railroad system of transportation which is operated by any other motive power.

The term "employer" does not include any company by reason of its being engaged in the mining of coal, the supplying of coal to an employer where delivery is not beyond the mine tipple, and the operation of equipment or facilities for such mining or supplying of coal, or in any of such activities.

SECTION 1532 (b) OF THE ACT

EMPLOYEE

The term "employee" means any individual in the service of one or more employers for compensation: Provided, however, That the term "employee" shall include an employee of a local lodge or division defined as an employer in subsection (a) only if he was in the service of or in the employment relation to a carrier on or after August 29, 1935. An individual shall be deemed to have been in the employment relation to a carrier on August 29, 1935, if (i) he was on that date on leave of absence from his employment, expressly granted to him by the carrier by whom he was employed, or by a duly authorized representative of such carrier, and the grant of such leave of absence will have been established to the satisfaction of the Railroad Retirement Board before July 1947; or (ii) he was in the service of a carrier after August 29, 1935, and before January 1946 in each of six calendar months, whether or not consecutive; or (iii) before August 29, 1935, he did not retire and was not retired or discharged from the service of the last carrier by whom he was employed or its corporate or operating successor, but (A) solely by reason of his physical or mental disability he ceased before August 29, 1935, to be in the service of such carrier and thereafter remained continuously disabled until he attained age sixty-five or until August 1945, or (B) solely for such last stated reason a carrier by whom he was employed before August 29, 1935, or a carrier who is its successor did not on or after August 29, 1935, and before August 1945 call him to return to service, or (C) if he was so called he was solely for such reason unable to render service in six calendar months as provided in clause (ii); or (iv) he was on August 29, 1935, absent from the service of a carrier by reason of a discharge which, within one year after the effective date thereof, was protested, to an appropriate labor representative or to the carrier, as wrongful, and which was followed within ten years of the effective date thereof by his reinstatement in good faith to his former service with all his seniority rights: Provided, That an individual shall not be deemed to have been on August 29, 1935, in the employment relation to a carrier if before that date he was granted a pension or gratuity on the basis of which a pension was awarded to him pursuant to section 6 of the Railroad Retirement Act of 1937, or if during the last pay-roll period before August 29, 1935, in which he rendered service to a carrier he was not in the service of an employer, in accordance with subsection (d), with respect to any service in such pay-roll period, or if he could have been in the employment relation to an employer only by reason of his having been, either before or after August 29, 1935, in the service of a local lodge or division defined as an employer in subsection (a).

The term "employee" includes an officer of an employer.

The term "employee" shall not include any individual while such individual is engaged in the physical operations consisting of the mining of coal, the preparation of coal, the handling (other than movement by rail with standard railroad locomotives) of coal not beyond the mine tipple, or the loading of coal at the tipple. (Sec. 1532 (b), I. R. C., as amended by sec. 3 (e), Act of July 31, 1946, 60 Stat. 724)

SECTION 1532 (d) OF THE ACT

SERVICE

An individual is in the service of an employer whether his service is rendered within or without the United States if (1) he is subject to the continuing authority of the employer to supervise and direct the manner of rendition of his service, or he is rendering professional or technical services and is integrated into the staff of the employer, or he is rendering, on the property used in the employer's operations, other personal services the rendition of which is integrated into the employer's operations, and (ii) he renders such service for compensation: Provided, however, That an individual shall be deemed to be in the service of an employer, other than a local lodge or division or a general committee of a railway-labor-organization employer, not conducting the principal part of its business in the United States only when he is rendering service to it in the United States; and an individual shall be deemed to be in the service of such a local lodge or division only if (1) all, or substantially all, the individuals constituting its membership are employees of an employer conducting the principal part of its business in the United States; or (2) the headquarters of such local lodge or division is located in the United States; and an individual shall be deemed to be in the service of such a general committee only if (1) he is representing a local lodge or division described in clauses (1) or (2) immediately above; or (2) all, or substantially all, the individuals represented by it are employees of an employer conducting the principal part of its business in the United States; or (3) he acts in the capacity of a general chairman or an assistant general chairman of a general committee which represents individuals rendering service in the United States to an employer, but in such case if his office or headquarters is not located in the United States and the individuals represented by such general committee are employees of an employer not conducting the principal part of its business in the United States, only such proportion of the remuneration for such service shall be regarded as compensation as the proportion which the mileage in the United States under the jurisdiction of such general committee bears to the total mileage under its jurisdiction, unless such mileage formula is inapplicable, in which case such other formula as the Railroad Retirement Board may have prescribed pursuant to subsection (c) of section 1 of the Railroad Retirement Act of 1937 shall be applicable, and if the application of such mileage formula, or such other formula as the Board may prescribe, would result in the compensation of the individual being less than 10 per centum of his remuneration for such service no part of such remuneration shall be regarded as compensation: Provided further, That an individual not a citizen or resident of the United States shall not be deemed to be in the service of an employer when rendering service outside the United States to an employer who is required under the laws applicable in the place where the service is rendered to employ therein, in whole or in part, citizens or residents thereof; and the laws applicable on August 29, 1935, in the place where the service is rendered shall be deemed to have been applicable there at all times prior to that date. (Sec. 1532 (d), I. R. C., as amended by sec. 3, Act of June 11, 1940, 54 Stat. 264; sec. 14, Act of Apr. 8, 1942, 56 Stat. 209; sec. 1, Act of July 31, 1946, 60 Stat. 722)

CARRIER

The term "carrier" means an express company, sleeping-car company, or carrier by railroad, subject to part I of the Interstate Commerce Act.

§ 411.203 Who are employees—(a) In general. Within the meaning of the act, any individual is an employee if he is in the service of one or more employers (as defined in section 1532 (a)) for compensation. An individual is in the service of an employer, with respect to services rendered for compensation, if:

(1) He is subject to the continuing authority of the employer to supervise and direct the manner in which he renders such services; or

(2) He is rendering professional or technical services and is integrated into the staff of the employer; or

(3) He is rendering, on the property used in the employer's operations, other personal services the rendition of which is integrated into the employer's operations.

In order that an individual may be in the service of an employer within the meaning of subparagraph (1) of this paragraph, it is not necessary that the employer actually direct or control the manner in which the services are rendered; it is sufficient if the employer has the right to do so. The right of an employer to discharge an individual is also an important factor indicating that the individual is subject to the continuing authority of the employer to supervise and direct the manner of rendition of the services. Other factors indicating that an individual is subject to the continuing authority of the employer to supervise and direct the manner of rendition of the services are the furnishing of tools and the furnishing of a place to work by the employer to the individual who renders the services.

In general, if an individual is subject to the control or direction of an employer merely as to the result to be accomplished by the work and not as to the means and methods for accomplishing the result, he is an independent contractor. An individual performing services as an independent contractor is not, as to such services, in the service of an employer within the meaning of subparagraph (1) of this paragraph. However, an individual performing services as an independent contractor may be, as to such services, in the service of an employer within the meaning of subparagraph (2) or (3) of this paragraph.

Whether or not an individual is an employee will be determined upon an examination of the particular facts of the case.

If an individual is an employee, it is of no consequence that he is designated as a partner, coadventurer, agent, independent contractor, or otherwise, or that he performs services on a part-time basis. The age of the individual, or the measurement, method, or designation of the remuneration, is immaterial, if he is in fact an employee.

The act makes no distinction between classes or grades of employees. Thus, superintendents, managers, and other superior employees are employees within the meaning of the act. An officer of an employer is an employee, but a director as such is not. A director may be an employee, however, if he performs services other than those required by attendance at and participation in meetings of the board of directors.

In determining whether an individual is an employee with respect to services rendered within the United States, the citizenship or residence of the individual, or the place where the contract of service was entered into, is immaterial.

If an individual performs services for an employer (other than a local lodge or division or a general committee of a railway-labor-organization employer) which does not conduct the principal part of its business within the United States, such individual shall be deemed to be in the service of such employer only to the extent that he performs services for it in the United States. Thus, with respect to services rendered for such employer outside the United States, such individual is not in the service of an employer.

If an individual performs services for an employer (other than a local lodge or division or a general committee of a railway-labor-organization employer) which conducts the principal part of its business within the United States, he is in the service of such employer whether his services are rendered within or without the United States. In the case of an individual, not a citizen or resident of the United States, rendering services in a place outside the United States to an employer which is required under the laws applicable in such place to employ, in whole or in part, citizens or residents thereof, such individual shall not be deemed to be in the service of an employer with respect to services so rendered.

The term "employee" does not include any individual while he is engaged in the physical operations consisting of the mining of coal, the preparation of coal, the handling (other than movement by rail with standard railroad locomotives) of coal not beyond the mine tipple, or the loading of coal at the tipple.

(b) Employees of local lodges or divisions of railway-labor-organization employers. (1) An individual is in the service of a local lodge or division of a railway-labor-organization employer (see § 411.202 (f)) only if:

(i) All, or substantially all, the individuals constituting the membership of such local lodge or division are employees of an employer conducting the principal part of its business in the United States; or

(ii) The headquarters of such local lodge or division is located in the United States.

(2) An individual in the service of a local lodge or division is not an employee within the meaning of the act unless he was, on or after August 29, 1935, in the service of a carrier (see paragraph (a) of this section) or he was, on August 29, 1935, in the "employment relation" to a carrier.

An individual shall be deemed to have been in the employment relation to a carrier on August 29, 1935, if (i) he was on that date on leave of absence from his employment, expressly granted to him by the carrier by whom he was employed, or by a duly authorized representative of such carrier, and the grant of such leave of absence will have been established to the satisfaction of the Railroad Retirement Board before July 1947; or (ii) he was in the service of a carrier after August 29, 1935, and before January 1946 in each of six calendar months, whether or not consecutive; or (iii) before August 29, 1935, he did not retire and was not retired or discharged from the service of the last carrier by whom he was employed or its corporate or operating successor, but (a) solely by reason of his physical or mental disability he ceased before August 29, 1935, to be in the service of such carrier and thereafter remained continuously disabled until he attained age sixty-five or until August 1945, or (b) solely for such last stated reason a carrier by whom he was employed before August 29, 1935, or a carrier who is its sucessor did not on or after August 29, 1935, and before August 1945 call him to return to service, or (c) if he was so called he was solely for such reason unable to render service in six calendar months as provided in subdivision (ii); or (iv) he was on August 29, 1935, absent from the service of a carrier by reason of a discharge which, within one year after the effective date thereof, was protested, to an appropriate labor representative or to the carrier, as wrongful, and which was followed within 10 years of the effective date thereof by his reinstatement in good faith to his former service with all his seniority rights. However, an individual shall not be deemed to have been in the employment relation to a carrier on August 29, 1935, if before that date he was granted a pension or gratuity on the basis of which a pension was awarded to him pursuant to section 6 of the Railroad Retirement Act of 1937, or if during the last pay-roll period before August 29, 1935, in which he rendered service to a carrier he was not, with respect to any service in such pay-roll period, in the service of an employer (see paragraph (a) of this section).

(c) Employees of general committees of railway-labor-organization employers. An individual is in the service of a general committee of a railway-labor-organization employer (see § 411.202 (f)) only if:

(1) He is representing a local lodge or division described in paragraph (b) (1) of this section; or

(2) All, or substantially all, the individuals represented by such general committee are employees of an employer conducting the principal part of its business in the United States; or

(3) He acts in the capacity of a general chairman or an assistant general chairman of a general committee which represents individuals rendering service in the United States to an employer. In such case, if his office or headquarters is not located in the United States and the individuals represented by such general committee are employees of an employer not conducting the principal part of its business in the United States, only a part of his remuneration for such service shall be regarded as compensation. The part of his remuneration regarded as compensation shall be in the same proportion to his total remuneration as the mileage in the United States under the jurisdiction of such general committee bears to the total mileage under its jurisdiction, unless such mileage formula is inapplicable, in which case such other formula as the Railroad Retirement Board may have prescribed pursuant to section 1 (c) of the Railroad Retirement Act of 1937 shall be applicable. However, no part of his remuneration for such service shall be regarded as compensation if the application of such mileage formula, or such other formula as the Railroad Retirement Board may have prescribed, would result in his compensation for the service being less than 10 percent of his remuneration for such service.

SECTION 1532 (c) OF THE ACT

EMPLOYEES REPRESENTATIVE

The term "employee representative" means any officer or official representative of a railway labor organization other than a labor organization included in the term "employer" as defined in subsection (a), who before or after June 29, 1937, was in the service of an employer as defined in subsection (a) and who is duly authorized and designated to represent employees in accordance with the Railway Labor Act, 44 Stat. 577 (U. S. C., Title 45, c. 18), as amended, and any individual who is regularly assigned to or regularly employed by such officer or official representative in connection with the duties of his office.

§ 411.204 Who are employee representatives. An employee representative within the meaning of the act is:

(a) Any officer or official representative of a railway labor organization which is not included as an employer under section 1532 (a) of the act who:

(1) Was in the service of an employer either before or after June 29, 1937, and

(2) Is duly authorized and designated to represent employees in accordance with the Railway Labor Act.

(For railway labor organizations which are employers under section 1532 (a) of the act, see § 411.202 (e) and (f).)

(b) Any individual who is regularly assigned to or regularly employed by an employee representative as defined in paragraph (a) of this section, in connection with the duties of such employee representative's office.

In determining whether an individual is an employee representative, his citizenship or residence is material only insofar as those factors may affect the determination of whether he was "in the service of an employer" (see § 411.203 (a)). The age of the individual is immaterial.

SECTION 1532 (e) OF THE ACT

COMPENSATION

The term "compensation" means any form of money remuneration earned by an individual for services rendered as an employee to one or more employers, or as an employee representative, including remuneration paid for time lost as an employee, but remuneration paid for time lost shall be deemed earned in the month in which such time is lost. Such term does not include tips, or the voluntary payment by an employer, without deduction from the remuneration of the employee, of the tax imposed on such employee by section 1500. Compensation which is earned during the period for which the Commissioner shall require a return of taxes under this subchapter to be made and which is payable during the calendar month following such period shall be deemed to have been paid during such period only. For the purpose of determining the amount of taxes under sections 1500 and 1520, compensation earned in the service of a local lodge or division of a railway-labor-organization employer shall be disregarded with respect to any calendar month if the amount thereof is less than $3 and • • • such compensation is earned after March 31, 1940.

A payment made by an employer to an individual through the employer's pay roll shall be presumed, in the absence of evidence to the contrary, to be compensation for service rendered by such individual as an employee of the employer in the period with respect to which the payment is made. An employee shall be deemed to be paid, "for time lost" the amount he is paid by an employer with respect to an identifiable period of absence from the active service of the employer, including absence on account of personal injury, and the amount he is paid by the employer for loss of earnings resulting from his displacement to a less remunerative position or occupation. If a payment is made by an employer with respect to a personal injury and includes pay for time lost, the total payment shall be deemed to be paid for time lost unless, at the time of payment, a part of such payment is specifically apportioned to factors other than time lost, in which event only such part of the payment as is not so apportioned shall be deemed to be paid for time lost. (Sec. 1532 (e), I. R. C., as amended by sec. 27 (a), Act of Oct. 10, 1940, 54 Stat. 1101; sec. 3 (f), Act of July 31, 1946, 60 Stat. 725)

DETERMINATION OF COMPENSATION

The compensation of an employee representative for the purpose of ascertaining the tax thereon shall be determined in the same manner and with the same effect as if the employee organization by which such employee representative is employed were an employer as defined in section 1532 (a).

§ 411.205 Definition of compensation. The term "compensation" means all remuneration in money, or in something which may be used in lieu of money (for example, scrip and merchandise orders), which is earned by an individual for services rendered as an employee to one or more employers or as an employee representative. A payment made by an employer to an individual through the employer's pay roll shall be presumed, in the absence of evidence to the contrary, to be compensation for services rendered by such individual as an employee of the employer. Likewise, a payment made by an employee organization to an employee representative through the organization's pay roll shall be presumed, in the absence of evidence to the contrary, to be compensation for services rendered by the employee representative as such.

The term "compensation" is not confined to amounts earned or paid for active service, but includes amounts earned or paid for an identifiable period during which the employee is absent from the active service of the employer and, in the case of an employee representative, amounts earned or paid for an identifiable period during which the employee representative is absent from the active service of the employee organization.

The term "compensation" does not include tips, or the voluntary payment by an employer of the employees' tax without the deduction of such tax from the remuneration of the employee.

(See § 411.207, relating to when compensation is earned. See also §§ 411.301, 411.401, and 411.501, relating to the amount of compensation included for the purpose of determining the employees' tax, the employers' tax, and the employee representatives' tax, respectively. For special provisions relating to the compensation of certain general chairmen or assistant general chairmen of a general committee of a railway-labor-organization employer, see § 411.203 (c).)

§ 411.206 Items included as compensation. The following items are included in compensation with respect to employees and in analogous situations with respect to employee representatives:

(a) Salaries, wages, commissions, fees, bonuses, and any other remuneration in money or in something which may be used in lieu of money. The name by which remuneration is designated, the amount, and the basis upon which it is paid are immaterial. It may be paid upon the basis of piece work, a percentage of profits, or on a daily, hourly, weekly, monthly, annual, or other basis.

(b) Sick pay, vacation allowances, or back pay upon reinstatement after wrongful discharge.

(c) Amounts paid to an employee for an identifiable period of absence from the active service of the employer on account of personal injury. If a payment is made to an employee with respect to a personal injury and includes pay for an identifiable period of absence from active service, the total payment shall be deemed to be paid for such period of absence from active service unless, at the time of payment, a part of such payment is specifically apportioned to factors other than absence from active service, in which event only such part of the payment as is not so apportioned shall be deemed to be paid for such period of absence from active service.

(d) Amounts paid to an employee for loss of earnings during an identifiable period as the result of the displacement of the employee to a less remunerative position or occupation.

(e) Amounts paid as allowance or reimbursement for traveling or other expenses incurred in the business of the employer to the extent of the excess of such amounts, if any, over such expenses actually incurred and accounted for by the employee to the employer.

(f) Generally, premiums paid by an employer on a policy of life insurance covering the life of an employee, if the employer is not a beneficiary under the policy. However, premiums paid by an employer on policies of group life insurance covering the lives of his employees are not compensation, if the employee has no option to take the amount of the premiums instead of accepting the insurance and has no equity in the policy (such as the right of assignment or the right to the surrender value on termination of his employment).

(g) Amounts deducted from the compensation of an employee, including the amount of the employees' tax deducted pursuant to section 1501, constitute compensation paid to the employee.

(h) Payments made by an employer into a stock bonus, pension, or profit-sharing fund, if such payments inure to the exclusive benefit of the employee and may be withdrawn by the employee at any time, or upon resignation or dismissal, or if the contract for services requires such payment as part of the remuneration. Whether or not under other circumstances such payments constitute compensation depends upon the particular facts of each case.

§ 411.207 Compensation; when earned. Compensation is earned when an employee, or employee representative, as such, performs services for which he is paid or for which there is a present or future obligation to pay, regardless of the time at which payment is made or is to be made. Remuneration paid for any period of absence from active service shall be deemed to have been earned in the month in which such absence from service occurred. A payment made by an employer or employee organization to an individual through the pay roll of the employer or employee organization for a period commencing after December 31, 1946, shall be presumed, in the absence of evidence to the contrary, to be for services rendered by such individual in the period covered by the pay roll and, thus, to have been earned in such period. (See §§ 411.205 and 411.206.)

§ 411.208 Compensation; when paid. Compensation is deemed to be paid:

(a) When it is actually paid; or

(b) When it is constructively paid, that is, credited to the account of or set apart for an employee without any substantial limitation or restriction as to the time or manner of payment or condition upon which payment is to be made, and made available to him so that it may be drawn upon at any time and its payment brought within his own control and disposition; or

(c) Within the period for which a return of tax is required to be made, if the compensation was earned during such period and is payable during the calendar month following such period. (See § 411.601, relating to periods for which a return of tax is required, and § 411.207, relating to when compensation is earned.)

Example (1). During September 1950 (which falls in a period for which a return of tax is required to be made), A is employed by employer X at a monthly salary of $200, one-half of which is payable on the 25th of the month in which the services are performed and the other half on the 10th of the following month. Thus on October 10, A is paid $100 which was earned during September. That $100 is deemed to have been paid to A in September and should be included in X's return for the quarter July, August, and September.

Example (2). During September 1949 (which falls in a period for which a return of tax is required to be made), A is employed by employer X on the basis of a 6-day week at a weekly salary of $60 payable on Saturday of each week. Thus on Saturday, October 1, 1949, A is paid $60 for services performed during the week September 26, 1949, to October 1, 1949, inclusive. In such case five-sixths of that amount or $50 is deemed to have been paid in September and should be included in X's return filed for the period in which September falls. The balance of A's salary for that week ($10) should be included in the return filed for the period in which October 1949 falls. (But see § 411.601 (b), relating to period covered by return where employer pays on a weekly basis.)

SUBPART C—EMPLOYEES' TAX

RATE OF TAX

In addition to other taxes, there shall be levied, collected, and paid upon the income of every employee a tax equal to the following percentages of so much of the compensation, paid to such employee after December 31, 1946, for services rendered by him after such date, as is not in excess of $300 for any calendar month:

1. With respect to compensation paid during the calendar years 1947 and 1948, the rate shall be 5¾ per centum;

2. With respect to compensation paid during the calendar years 1949, 1950, and 1951, the rate shall be 6 per centum;

3. With respect to compensation paid after December 31, 1951, the rate shall be 6¼ per centum. (Sec. 1500, I. R. C., as amended by sec. 3 (a), Act of July 31, 1946, 60 Stat. 723.)

COMPENSATION

• • • For the purpose of determining the amount of taxes under sections 1500 • • •, compensation earned in the service of a local lodge or division of a railway-labor-organization employer shall be disregarded with respect to any calendar month if the amount thereof is less than $3 and • • • such compensation is earned after March 31, 1940.

(Sec. 1532 (e), I. R. C., as amended by sec. 27 (a), Act of Oct. 10, 1940, 54 Stat. 1101)

§ 411.301 Measure of employees' tax—(a) General rule. Except as provided in paragraph (b) of this section, the employees' tax with respect to compensation paid after December 31, 1948, for services rendered after December 31, 1946, is measured by the amount of such compensation paid to an individual for services rendered as an employee to one or more employers, excluding, however, the amount of compensation in excess of $300 which is paid after December 31, 1946, to the employee for services rendered during any one calendar month after 1946. (See §§ 411.205 to 411.208, relating to compensation.)

(b) Exception; employee of local lodge or division of railway-labor-organization employer. If the amount of compensation earned in any calendar month by an individual as an employee in the service of a local lodge or division of a railway-labor-organization employer is less than $3, such amount shall be disregarded for the purpose of determining the employees' tax.

	Percent
Compensation paid during the calendar year 1952 and subsequent calendar years	6¼

The employees' tax is computed by applying to the amount of the employee's compensation with respect to which the employees' tax is imposed the rate for the calendar year in which the compensation is paid.

SECTION 1501 (a) OF THE ACT

DEDUCTION OF TAX FROM COMPENSATION

Requirement. The tax imposed by section 1500 shall be collected by the employer of the taxpayer by deducting the amount of the tax from the compensation of the employee as and when paid. If an employee is paid compensation after December 31, 1946, by more than one employer for services rendered during any calendar month after 1946 and the aggregate of such compensation is in excess of $300, the tax to be deducted by each employer other than a subordinate unit of a national railway-labor-organization employer from the compensation paid by him to the employee with respect to such month shall be that proportion of the tax with respect to such compensation paid by all such employers which the compensation paid by him after December 31, 1946, to the employee for services rendered during such month bears to the total compensation paid by all such employers after December 31, 1946, to such employee for services rendered during such month; and in the event that the compensation so paid by such employers to the employee for services rendered during such month is less than $300, each subordinate unit of a national railway-labor-organization employer shall deduct such proportion of any additional tax as the compensation paid by such employer after December 31, 1946, to such employee for services rendered during such month bears to the total compensation paid by all such employers after December 31, 1946, to such employee for services rendered during such month. (Sec. 1501 (a), I. R. C., as amended by sec. 3 (b), Act of July 31, 1946, 60 Stat. 723)

SECTION 3661 OF THE INTERNAL REVENUE CODE

ENFORCEMENT OF LIABILITY FOR TAXES COLLECTED

Whenever any person is required to collect or withhold any internal-revenue tax from any other person and to pay such tax over to the United States, the amount of tax so collected or withheld shall be held to be a special fund in trust for the United States. The amount of such fund shall be assessed, collected, and paid in the same manner and subject to the same provisions and limitations (including penalties) as are applicable with respect to the taxes from which such fund arose.

§ 411.303 Collection of, and liability for, employees' tax—(a) Collection; general rule. The employer shall collect from each of his employees the employees' tax imposed with respect to the compensation of the employee by deducting or causing to be deducted the amount of such tax from the compensation subject to the tax as and when such compensation is paid. (As to the measure of the employees' tax, see §411.301.)

(b) Collection; aggregate monthly compensation in excess of $300 paid by two or more employers. If an employee is paid compensation after December 31, 1946, by two or more employers for services rendered during any one calendar month after 1946, and if the aggregate compensation paid to such employee after December 31, 1946, by all employers for services rendered during such month is in excess of $300, the employees' tax to be deducted by each employer from the compensation as and when paid by him to the employee shall be determined as follows:

(1) If such compensation is paid by two or more employers, none of whom is a subordinate unit of a national railway-labor-organization employer (see § 411.202 (f)), each employer shall deduct the employees' tax with respect to that proportion of $300 of compensation which the compensation paid after December 31, 1946, by such employer to the employee for the month bears to the total compensation paid after December 31, 1946, to such employee by all employers for that month (see example (1), below);

(2) If such compensation is paid by two or more employers, each of which is a subordinate unit of a national railway-labor-organization employer, each subordinate unit shall deduct the employees' tax with respect to that proportion of $300 of compensation which the compensation paid after December 31, 1946, by such subordinate unit to the employee for the month bears to the total compensation paid after December 31, 1946, to such employee by all such subordinate units for that month;

(3) If such compensation is paid by two or more employers, only one of whom is an employer other than a subordinate unit of a national railway-labor-organization employer, and if the compensation paid after December 31, 1946, to the employee by the employer other than a subordinate unit equals or exceeds $300 for the month, then no employees' tax shall be deducted by any such subordinate unit from the compensation paid by it after December 31, 1946, to such employee for that month, and the employer other than a subordinate unit shall deduct the employees' tax with respect to $300 of compensation paid by him after December 31, 1946, to such employee for that month (see example (2), below);

(4) If such compensation is paid by two or more employers other than a subordinate unit of a national railway-labor-organization employer and by one or more subordinate units of a national railway - labor - organization employer, and if the total compensation paid after December 31, 1946, to the employee by the employers other than a subordinate unit equals or exceeds $300 for the month, then no employees' tax shall be deducted by any such subordinate unit from the compensation paid by it after December 31, 1946, to such employee for that month, and each employer other than a subordinate unit shall deduct the employees' tax with respect to that proportion of $300 of compensation which the compensation paid after December 31, 1946, by such employer to the employee for the month bears to the total compensation paid after December 31, 1946, to such employee by all such employers other than a subordinate unit for that month (see example (3), below);

(5) If such compensation is paid by two or more employers, only one of whom is a subordinate unit of a national railway-labor-organization employer, and if the total compensation paid after December 31, 1946, to the employee by all employers other than the subordinate unit is less than $300 for the month, then each employer other than the subordinate unit shall deduct the employees' tax with respect to the full amount of compensation paid by him after December 31, 1946, to such employee for that month, and the employer other than a subordinate unit of a national railway - labor - organization employer shall deduct the employees' tax with respect to the remainder of $300 of compensation less the total compensation paid after December 31, 1946, to such employee for that month by all other employers (see example (4), below); or

(6) If such compensation is paid by one or more employers other than a subordinate unit of a national railway-labor-organization employer and by two or more subordinate units of a national railway - labor - organization employer, and if the total compensation paid after December 31, 1946, to the employee by all employers other than the subordinate units is less than $300 for the month, then each employer other than the subordinate units shall deduct the employees' tax with respect to the full amount of compensation paid by him after December 31, 1946, to such employee for that month, and each subordinate unit of a national railway-labor-organization employer shall deduct the employees' tax with respect to that proportion of the remainder of $300 of compensation less the total compensation paid after December 31, 1946, to such employee for the month by all employers other than the subordinate units which the compensation paid after December 31, 1946, by such subordinate unit to the employee for that month bears to the total compensation paid after December 31, 1946, to such employee by all subordinate units for that month (see example (5), below).

(See § 411.301 (b), which provides that for the purpose of determining the employees' tax certain nominal compensation earned by an employee of a local lodge or division of a railway-labor-organization employer shall be disregarded.)

The application of certain of the foregoing principles may be illustrated by the following examples:

Example (1). A, an employee, renders services during January 1949 for employers X, Y, and Z, none of whom is a subordinate unit of a national railway-labor-organization employer. For such services A is paid in the month or thereafter compensation of $100 by X, $100 by Y, and $200 by Z, or an aggregate of $400 for the month. In such case X pays one-fourth of A's aggregate compensation for the month, Y pays one-fourth, and Z pays one-half. X and Y, therefore, are each required to deduct the employees' tax with respect to one-fourth of $300, or $75, and Z is required to deduct the employees' tax with respect to one-half of $300, or $150.

Example (2). A, an employee, renders services during January 1949 for employer X, an employer other than a subordinate unit of a national railway-labor-organization employer, and for employers Y and Z, each of which is a subordinate unit of a national railway-labor-organization employer. For such services A is paid in the month or thereafter compensation of $300 by X, $50 by Y, and $25 by Z. Since the compensation paid A for the month by X equals $300, neither Y nor Z is required to deduct any employees' tax from the compensation paid by them to A for the month; and X is required to deduct the employees' tax with respect to the full $300 paid by him to A for the month.

Example (3). A, an employee, renders services during January 1949 for employers W and X, each of whom is an employer other than a subordinate unit of a national railway-labor-organization employer, and for employers Y and Z, each of which is a subordinate unit of a national railway-labor-organization employer. For such services A is paid in the month or thereafter compensation of $200 by W and $200 by X, or an aggregate of $400 for the month, and compensation of $50 by Y and $50 by Z. Since the aggregate compensation paid A for the month by W and X is in excess of $300, neither Y nor Z is required to deduct any employees' tax from the compensation paid by them to A for the month. Of the aggregate compensation of $400 paid A for the month by W and X, W pays one-half and X pays one-half. W and X, therefore, are each required to deduct the employees' tax with respect to one-half of $300, or $150.

Example (4). A, an employee, renders services during January 1949 for employer X, an employer other than a subordinate unit of a national railway-labor-organization employer, and for employer Y, a subordinate unit of a national railway-labor-organization employer. For such services A is paid in the month or thereafter compensation of $250 by X and $100 by Y. In such case X is required to deduct the employees' tax with respect to the full $250 paid by him to A for the month; and Y is required to deduct the employees' tax only with respect to $50 ($300 minus $250 paid by X).

Example (5). A, an employee, renders services during January 1949 for employers W and X, each of whom is an employer other than a subordinate unit of a national railway-labor-organization employer, and for employers Y and Z, each of which is a subordinate unit of a national railway-labor-organization employer. For such services A is paid in the month or thereafter compensation of $140 by W, $100 by X, $50 by Y, and $100 by Z. In such case W and X are each required to deduct the employees' tax with respect to the full amount paid by them to A for the month, that is, W with respect to $140 and X with respect to $100; and Y and Z are each required to deduct the employees' tax with respect to their proportionate share of $60 ($300 minus $240 paid by W and X). Of the aggregate compensation of $150 paid by Y and Z, $50, or one-third, was paid by Y, and $100, or two-thirds, was paid by Z. In such case Y is required to deduct the employees' tax with respect to one-third of $60, or $20, and Z is required to deduct the employees' tax with respect to two-thirds of $60, or $40.

(c) Undercollections or overcollections. Any undercollection or overcollection of employees' tax resulting from the employer's inability to determine, at the time compensation is paid, the correct amount of compensation with respect to which the deduction should be made shall be corrected in accordance with the provisions of §§ 411.701 and 411.702, relating to adjustments of employees' tax, and Subpart H, relating to refunds, credits, and abatements.

(d) When fractional part of cent may be disregarded. In collecting the employees' tax, the employer shall disregard any fractional part of a cent of such tax unless it amounts to one-half cent or more, in which case it shall be increased to 1 cent.

(e) Employer's liability. The employer is liable for the employees' tax with respect to compensation paid by him, whether or not collected from the employee. If the employer deducts less than the correct amount of employees' tax or fails to deduct any part of the tax, he is nevertheless liable for the correct amount of the tax. Until collected from him, the employee is also liable for the employees' tax. Any employees' tax collected by or on behalf of an employer is a special fund in trust for the United States. An employer is not liable to any person for the amount of the employees' tax deducted by him and paid to the collector.

Section 2707 of the Internal Revenue Code, provides severe penalties for a willful failure to pay, collect, or truthfully account for and pay over, the employees' tax or for a willful attempt in any manner to evade or defeat the tax. Such penalties may be incurred by any person, including the employer, and any officer or employee of a corporate employer, or member or employee of any other employer, who as such employer, officer, employee, or member is under a duty to perform the act in respect of which the violation occurs.

SUBPART D—EMPLOYERS' TAX

RATE OF TAX

In addition to other taxes, every employer shall pay an excise tax, with respect to having individuals in his employ, equal to the following percentages of so much of the compensation, paid by such employer after December 31, 1946, for services rendered to him after December 31, 1936, as is, with respect to any employee for any calendar month, not in excess of $300: Provided, however, That if an employee is paid compensation after December 31, 1946, by more than one employer for services rendered during any calendar month after 1936, the tax imposed by this section shall apply to not more than $300 of the aggregate compensation paid to such employee by all such employers after December 31, 1946, for services rendered during such month, and each employer other than a subordinate unit of a national railway-labor-organization employer shall be liable for that proportion of the tax with respect to such compensation paid by all such employers which the compensation paid by him after December 31, 1946, to the employee for services rendered during such month bears to the total compensation paid by all such employers after December 31, 1946, to such employee for services rendered during such month; and in the event that the compensation so paid by such employers to the employee for services rendered during such month is less than $300, each subordinate unit of a national railway-labor-organization employer shall be liable for such proportion of any additional tax as the compensation paid by such employer after December 31, 1946, to such employee for services rendered during such month bears to the total compensation paid by all such employers after December 31, 1946, to such employee for services rendered during such month:

1. With respect to compensation paid during the calendar years 1947 and 1948, the rate shall be 5¾ per centum;

2. With respect to compensation paid during the calendar years 1949, 1950, and 1951, the rate shall be 6 per centum;

3. With respect to compensation paid after December 31, 1951, the rate shall be 6¼ per centum. (See 1520, I. R. C., as amended by sec. 3 (d), Act of July 31, 1946, 60 Stat. 724)

COMPENSATION

• • • For the purpose of determining the amount of taxes under sections • • • 1520, compensation earned in the service of a local lodge or division of a railway-labor-organization employer shall be disregarded with respect to any calendar month if the amount thereof is less than $3 and • • • such compensation is earned after March 31, 1940.

(Sec. 1532 (e), I. R. C., as amended by sec. 27 (a), Act of Oct. 10, 1940, 54 Stat. 1101)

§ 411.401 Measure of employers' tax—(a) General rule. Except as provided in paragraphs (b) and (c) of this section, the employers' tax with respect to compensation paid after December 31, 1946, for services rendered after December 31, 1946, is measured by the amount of such compensation paid by an employer to his employees, excluding, however, the amount of compensation in excess of $300 which is paid after December 31, 1946, by the employer to any employee for services rendered during any one calendar month after 1946. (See §§ 411.205 to 411.208, relating to compensation.)

(b) Aggregate monthly compensation in excess of $300 paid by two or more employers. If an employee is paid compensation after December 31, 1946, by two or more employers for services rendered during any one calendar month after 1946, and if the aggregate compensation paid to such employee after December 31, 1946, by all employers for services rendered during such month is in excess of $300, the measure of the employers' tax of each employer with respect to the compensation paid by him after December 31, 1946, to the employee for the month shall be determined as follows:

(1) If such compensation is paid by two or more employers, none of whom is a subordinate unit of a national railway-labor-organization employer (see § 411.202 (f)), the measure of the employers' tax of each employer shall be that proportion of $300 which the compensation paid after December 31, 1946, by such employer to the employee for the month bears to the total compensation paid after December 31, 1946, to such employee by all employers for that month;

(2) If such compensation is paid by two or more employers, each of which is a subordinate unit of a national railway-labor-organization employer, the measure of the employers' tax of each subordinate unit shall be that proportion of $300 which the compensation paid after December 31, 1946, by such subordinate unit to the employee for the month bears to the total compensation paid after December 31, 1946, to such employee by all such subordinate units for that month;

(3) If such compensation is paid by two or more employers, only one of whom is an employer other than a subordinate unit of a national railway-labor-organization employer, and if the compensation paid after December 31, 1946, to the employee by the employer other than a subordinate unit equals or exceeds $300 for the month, then no subordinate unit shall be liable for any employers' tax with respect to the compensation paid by it after December 31, 1946, to such employee for that month, and the measure of the employers' tax of the employer other than a subordinate unit with respect to the compensation paid by him after December 31, 1946, to such employee for that month shall be $300;

(4) If such compensation is paid by two or more employers other than a subordinate unit of a national railway-labor-organization employer and by one or more subordinate units of a national railway - labor-organization employer, and if the total compensation paid after December 31, 1946, to the employee by the employers other than a subordinate unit equals or exceeds $300 for the month, then no subordinate unit shall be liable for any employers' tax with respect to the compensation paid by it after December 31, 1946, to such employee for that month, and the measure of the employers' tax of each employer other than a subordinate unit shall be that proportion of $300 which the compensation paid after December 31, 1946, by such employer to the employee for the month bears to the total compensation paid after December 31, 1946, to such employee by all employers other than a subordinate unit for that month;

(5) If such compensation is paid by two or more employers, only one of whom is a subordinate unit of a national railway-labor-organization employer, and if the total compensation paid after December 31, 1946, to the employee by all employers other than the subordinate unit is less than $300 for the month, then the measure of the employers' tax of each employer other than the subordinate unit shall be the full amount of compensation paid by him after December 31, 1946, to such employee for that month, and the measure of the employers' tax of the subordinate unit of a national railway-labor-organization employer shall be the remainder of $300 less the total compensation paid after December 31, 1946, to such employee for that month by all other employers; or

(6) If such compensation is paid by one or more employers other than a subordinate unit of a national railway-labor-organization employer and by two or more subordinate units of a national railway-labor-organization employer, and if the total compensation paid after December 31, 1946, to the employee by all employers other than the subordinate units is less than $300 for the month, then the measure of the employers' tax of each employer other than the subordinate units shall be the full amount of compensation paid by him after December 31, 1946, to such employee for that month, and the measure of the employers' tax of each subordinate unit of a national railway-labor-organization employer, shall be that proportion of the remainder of $300 less the total compensation paid after December 31, 1946, to such employee for the month by all employers other than the subordinate units which the compensation paid after December 31, 1946, by such subordinate unit to the employee for that month bears to the total compensation paid after December 31, 1946, to such employee by all such subordinate units for that month.

(See paragraph (c) of this section, which provides that for the purpose of determining the employers' tax certain nominal compensation earned by an employee of a local lodge or division of a railway-labor-organization employer shall be disregarded.)

For illustrations of the application of certain of the foregoing principles, see the examples, illustrating the analogous principles with respect to the deduction of employees' tax, set forth in § 411.303 (b) of the regulations in this part.

(c) Nominal monthly compensation earned by employee of local lodge or division of railway-labor-organization employer. If the amount of compensation earned in any calendar month by an individual as an employee in the service of a local lodge or division of a railway-labor-organization employer is less than $3, such amount shall be disregarded for the purpose of determining the employers' tax.

(d) Underpayments or overpayments. Any underpayment or overpayment of employers' tax resulting from the employer's inability to determine, at the time such tax is paid, the correct amount of compensation with respect to which the tax should be paid shall be corrected in accordance with the provisions of §§ 411.701 and 411.703, relating to adjustments of employers' tax, and Subpart H, relating to refunds, credits, and abatements.

Compensation paid during the calendar year 1952 and subsequent calendar years	6¼

The employers' tax is computed by applying to the amount of compensation with respect to which the employers' tax is imposed the rate for the calendar year in which the compensation is paid.

SUBPART E—EMPLOYEE REPRESENTATIVES' TAX

RATE OF TAX

In addition to other taxes, there shall be levied, collected, and paid upon the income of each employee representative a tax equal to the following percentages of so much of the compensation, paid to such employee representative after December 31, 1946, for services rendered by him after such date, as is not in excess of $300 for any calendar month:

1. With respect to compensation paid during the calendar years 1947 and 1948, the rate shall be 11½ per centum;

2. With respect to compensation paid during the calendar years 1949, 1950, and 1951, the rate shall be 12 per centum;

3. With respect to compensation paid after December 31, 1951, the rate shall be 12½ per centum. (Sec. 1510, I. R. C., as amended by sec. 3 (c), Act of July 31, 1946, 60 Stat. 723)

§ 411.501 Measure of employee representatives' tax. The employee representatives' tax with respect to compensation paid after December 31, 1948, for services rendered after December 31, 1946, is measured by the amount of such compensation paid to an individual for services rendered as an employee representative, excluding, however, the amount of compensation in excess of $300 which is paid after December 31, 1946, to the employee representative for services rendered during any one calendar month after 1946. (See §§ 411.205 to 411.208, relating to compensation.)

Compensation paid during the calendar years 1949, 1950, 1951	12
Compensation paid during the calendar year 1952 and subsequent calendar years	12½

The employee representatives' tax is computed by applying to the amount of compensation with respect to which the employee representatives' tax is imposed the rate for the calendar year in which the compensation is paid.

SUBPART F—RETURNS, PAYMENT OF TAX, AND RECORDS

COLLECTION AND PAYMENT OF TAXES

(a) Administration. The taxes imposed by this subchapter shall be collected by the Bureau of Internal Revenue and shall be paid into the Treasury of the United States as internal-revenue collections.

(b) Time and Manner of Payment. The taxes imposed by this subchapter shall be collected and paid quarterly or at such other times and in such manner and under such conditions not inconsistent with this subchapter as may be prescribed by the Commissioner with the approval of the Secretary.

(d) Fractional Parts of a Cent. In the payment of any tax under this subchapter, a fractional part of a cent shall be disregarded unless it amounts to one-half cent or more, in which case it shall be increased to 1 cent.

OTHER LAWS APPLICABLE

All provisions of law, including penalties, applicable with respect to any tax imposed by section 2700 or section 1800, and the provisions of section 3661, insofar as applicable and not inconsistent with the provisions of this subchapter, shall be applicable with respect to the taxes imposed by this subchapter. (Sec. 1536, I. R. C., as amended by sec 1, Act of Mar. 17, 1941, 55 Stat. 44)

SECTION 2709 OF THE INTERNAL REVENUE CODE, MADE APPLICABLE BY SECTION 1536 OF THE ACT

RECORDS, STATEMENTS, AND RETURNS

Every person liable to any tax imposed by this subchapter, or for the collection thereof, shall keep such records, render under oath such statements, make such returns, and comply with such rules and regulations, as the Commissioner, with the approval of the Secretary, may from time to time prescribe.

RETURNS

Every person liable for the tax * * * shall make * * * returns under oath * * * to the collector for the district in which is located the principal place of business. Such returns shall contain such information and be made at such times and in such manner as the Commissioner, with the approval of the Secretary, may by regulations prescribe.

SECTION 3603 OF THE INTERNAL REVENUE CODE

NOTICE REQUIRING RECORDS, STATEMENTS, AND SPECIAL RETURNS

Whenever in the judgment of the Commissioner necessary he may require any person, by notice served upon him, to make a return, render under oath such statements, or keep such records as the Commissioner deems sufficient to show whether or not such person is liable to tax.

AUTHORITY TO ADMINISTER OATHS, TAKE TESTIMONY, AND CERTIFY

(a) Internal Revenue personnel—(1) Persons in charge of administration or internal revenue laws generally. Every collector, deputy collector, internal revenue agent, and internal revenue officer assigned to duty under an internal revenue agent, is authorized to administer oaths and to take evidence touching any part of the administration of the internal revenue laws with which he is charged, or where such oaths and evidence are authorized by law or regulation authorized by law to be taken.

(2) Persons in charge of exports and drawbacks. Every collector of internal revenue and every superintendent of exports and drawbacks is authorized to administer such oaths and to certify to such papers as may be necessary under any regulation prescribed under the authority of the internal revenue laws.

(b) Others. Any oath or affirmation required or authorized by any internal revenue law or by any regulations made under authority thereof may be administered by any person authorized to administer oaths for general purposes by the law of the United States, or of any State, Territory, or possession of the United States, or of the District of Columbia, wherein such oath or affirmation is administered, or by any consular officer of the United States. This subsection shall not be construed as an exclusive enumeration of the persons who may administer such oaths or affirmations.

SECTION 1630 (a) OF THE INTERNAL REVENUE CODE

VERIFICATION OF RETURNS, ETC.

Power of Commissioner to require. The Commissioner, under regulations prescribed by him with the approval of the Secretary, may require that any return, statement, or other document required to be filed under this chapter shall contain or be verified by a written declaration that it is made under the penalties of perjury, and such declaration shall be in lieu of any oath otherwise required. (Sec. 1630 (a), I. R. C., as added by sec. 2 (a), Current Tax Payment Act of 1943, 57 Stat. 126)

SECTION 3612 (a), (b), AND (c) OF THE INTERNAL REVENUE CODE

RETURNS EXECUTED BY COMMISSIONER OR COLLECTOR

(a) Authority of Collector. If any person fails to make and file a return or list at the time prescribed by law or by regulation made under authority of law, or makes, willfully or otherwise, a false or fraudulent return or list, the collector or deputy collector shall make the return or list from his own knowledge and from such information as he can obtain through testimony or otherwise.

(b) Authority of Commissioner. In any such case the Commissioner may, from his own knowledge and from such information as he can obtain through testimony or otherwise:

(1) To make return. Make a return, or

(2) To amend collector's return. Amend any return made by a collector or deputy collector.

(c) Legal status of returns. Any return or list so made and subscribed by the Commissioner, or by a collector or deputy collector and approved by the Commissioner, shall be prima facie good and sufficient for all legal purposes.

EXAMINATION OF BOOKS AND WITNESSES

To determine liability of the taxpayer. The Commissioner, for the purpose of ascertaining the correctness of any return or for the purpose of making a return where none has been made, is authorized, by any officer or employee of the Bureau of Internal Revenue, including the field service, designated by him for that purpose, to examine any books, papers, records, or memoranda bearing upon the matters required to be included in the return, and may require the attendance of the person rendering the return or of any officer or employee of such person, or the attendance of any other person having knowledge in the premises, and may take his testimony with reference to the matter required by law to be included in such return, with power to administer oaths to such person or persons.

SECTION 2702 (a) OF THE INTERNAL REVENUE CODE, MADE APPLICABLE BY SECTION 1536 OF THE ACT

PAYMENT OF TAX

Date of payment. The tax shall, without assessment by the Commissioner or notice from the collector, be due and payable to the collector for the district in which is located the principal place of business, at the time fixed * * * for filing the return.

§ 411.601 Quarterly returns of tax—(a) In general. Every employer shall make a tax return on Form CT–1 for the first quarter after December 31, 1948, within which taxable compensation is paid to his employee or employees for services rendered after December 31, 1936, and for each subsequent quarter (whether or not taxable compensation is paid therein) until he files a final return as required by the provisions of § 411.602. Every employee representative shall make a tax return on Form CT–2 for the first quarter after December 31, 1948, within which he is paid taxable compensation for services rendered after December 31, 1946, as an employee representative, and for each subsequent quarter (whether or not he is paid taxable compensation therein) until he files a final return as required by the provisions of § 411.602. One original and a duplicate of each return on Form CT–1 or CT–2 shall be filed with the collector. For purposes of returns under the act, the quarters shall each be three calendar months as follows: (1) From January 1 to March 31, both dates inclusive; (2) from April 1 to June 30, both dates inclusive: (3) from July 1 to September 30, both dates inclusive; and (4) from October 1 to December 31, both dates inclusive.

Except as provided in paragraph (b) of this section, taxable compensation shall be reported in the tax return for the period in which it is deemed under § 411.208 to be paid, unless under such section such compensation may be deemed to be paid in more than one tax-return period, in which case it shall be reported only in the return for the first period in which it is deemed to be paid.

(b) Returns of employers required by State law to pay compensation on weekly basis. If any employer is required by the laws of any State to pay compensation weekly, the return of tax with respect to such compensation may, at the election of such employer, cover all pay-roll weeks which, or the major part of which, fall within the period for which a return of tax is required by paragraph (a) of this section. This provision shall not apply, however, to any pay-roll week which falls in two calendar years. Any employer who elects to file a return as provided in this paragraph shall notify the Commissioner in writing of such election and shall include therein a statement setting forth the facts which entitle him to make the election. Such notice shall be in duplicate and shall be attached to the original and duplicate of the return for the first period to which such election applies. Any election so made shall be binding upon the taxpayer with respect to all returns subsequently made by him until the Commissioner authorizes or directs the taxpayer to make a return on a different basis. For the purpose of determining the time when compensation is deemed to be paid in accordance with § 411.208 (c), and of determining the due date of a return in accordance with § 411.605, the calendar month following the period covered by the return of an employer making such election is the same calendar month which would be determinative for such purposes if the employer had not made the election.

An election made by a taxpayer, pursuant to the provisions of § 410.501 (b) (article 501 (b) of Regulations 100), which is in force and effect at the time the taxpayer makes his first return under the regulations in this part shall satisfy the requirements of this paragraph with respect to the making of an election and shall be binding upon the taxpayer with respect to all returns made by him under the regulations in this part until the Commissioner authorizes or directs the taxpayer to make a return on a different basis.

Example. Employer X is required by State law to pay his employees within six days after the compensation is earned. In compliance with the State law, employer X, for services rendered to him for the period June 27 to July 2, 1949, pays his employees on the last-named date. June 1949 is the last month of a period for which a return of tax is required to be filed. Employer X may elect to include in the return required under paragraph (a) of this section for the period April 1 to June 30, 1949, the compensation paid to his employees for the week of June 27 to July 2, 1949, inclusive, although the compensation for July 1 and 2 falls within another period for which a return is required under paragraph (a) of this section. If, in this example, the pay-roll week ended on July 5, 1949, the compensation paid for the pay-roll week June 29 to July 5 would be included in the return period in which July falls although the compensation earned for June 29 and 30 fell in a prior return period under the general rule.

§ 411.602 Final returns. The last return on Form CT–1 for any employer who ceases to pay taxable compensation shall be marked "Final return" by the employer or the person filing the return. An employer who has only temporarily ceased to pay taxable compensation shall continue to file returns, but shall enter on the face of any return on which no compensation is required to be reported the date of the last payment of taxable compensation and the date when he expects to resume paying taxable compensation to one or more employees. The last return on Form CT–2 for any employee representative who ceases to be paid taxable compensation for services as an employee representative shall be marked "Final return" by the employee representative or the person filing the return. An employee representative who has only temporarily ceased to be paid taxable compensation for services as an employee representative shall continue to file returns, but shall enter on the face of any return on which no compensation is required to be reported the date of the last payment of taxable compensation and the date when he expects again to be paid taxable compensation for services as an employee representative. The final return on Form CT–1 or CT–2 shall be filed with the collector on or before the sixtieth day after the date of the final payment of compensation with respect to which the tax is imposed, and shall plainly show the period covered and also the date of the last payment of taxable compensation. There shall be executed as a part of each final return a statement, in duplicate, giving the address at which the records required by § 411.608 will be kept and the name of the person keeping such records.

§ 411.603 Execution of returns. Each return on Form CT–1 shall be signed by the employer and shall contain or be verified by a written declaration that it is made under the penalties of perjury. The return shall be signed and verified by (a) the individual, if the employer is an individual; (b) the president, vice president, or other principal officer, if the employer is a corporation; or (c) a responsible and duly authorized member or officer having knowledge of its affairs, if the employer is a partnership or other unincorporated organization. Each return on Form CT–2 shall be signed by the employee representative and shall contain or be verified by a written declaration that it is made under the penalties of perjury. The return may be executed by an agent in the name of the taxpayer if an acceptable power of attorney is filed with the collector and if, in the case of the employer's return, such return includes the taxable compensation paid to all employees of the employer for the period covered by the return.

§ 411.604 Use of prescribed forms. Copies of the prescribed return forms will so far as possible be regularly furnished taxpayers by collectors without application therefor. A taxpayer will not be excused from making a return, however, by the fact that no return form has been furnished to him. A taxpayer who has not been supplied with the proper form should make application therefor to the collector in ample time to have return prepared, verified, and filed with the collector on or before the due date. (See § 411.605, relating to the place and time for filing returns; see also § 411.602, relating to final returns.) If the prescribed form is not available, a statement made by the taxpayer disclosing for the period for which a return is required the amount of compensation with respect to which the tax is imposed and the amount of tax due may be accepted as a tentative return. If filed within the prescribed time the statement so made will relieve the taxpayer from liability for the addition to tax imposed for the delinquent filing of the return by section 3612 (d) (1) of the Internal Revenue Code (see § 411.905 (a)): Provided, That without unnecessary delay such tentative return is supplemented by a return made on the proper form.

Each return, together with any prescribed copies and supporting data, shall be filed in and disposed of in accordance with the instructions and regulations applicable thereto. (See § 411.605, relating to the place and time for filing returns, and § 411.608 (d) and (g), relating to copies of returns, schedules, and statements, and to the place and period for keeping records.) The return shall be carefully prepared so as fully and accurately to set forth the data called for therein. Returns which have not been so prepared will not be accepted as meeting the requirements of the act. Consolidated returns of parent and subsidiary corporations are not permitted.

§ 411.605 Place and time for filing returns. Each return on Form CT–1 shall be filed with the collector for the district in which is located the principal place of business of the employer. Each return on Form CT–2 shall be filed with the collector for the district in which is located the legal residence or principal place of business of the employee representative. If the employer has no principal place of business in the United States or if the employee representative has no legal residence or principal place of business in the United States, the return shall be filed with the collector at Baltimore, Md. Except as provided in § 411.602, each return shall be filed on or before the last day of the second calendar month following the period for which it is made. If the last day for filing any return falls on Sunday or a legal holiday, the return may be filed on the next following business day. If placed in the mails, the return shall be posted in ample time to reach the collector's office, under ordinary handling of the mails, on or before the due date. As to additions to tax for failure to file the return within the prescribed time, see § 411.905 (a). See also section 2707 of the Internal Revenue Code, relating to penalties.

§ 411.606 Payment of tax. The tax required to be reported on any return is due and payable to the collector, without assessment by the Commissioner or notice by the collector, at the time fixed for filing the return. For provisions relating to interest, additions to tax, and penalties, see §§ 411.903, 411.904, and 411.905 of the regulations in this part and section 2707 of the Internal Revenue Code.

§ 411.607 When fractional part of cent may be disregarded. In the payment of taxes to the collector a fractional part of a cent shall be disregarded unless it amounts to one-half cent or more, in which case it shall be increased to 1 cent. Fractional parts of a cent shall not be disregarded in the computation of taxes. See § 411.303 (d) for provisions relating to fractional parts of a cent in connection with the deduction of employees' tax from compensation.

§ 411.608 Records—(a) Records of employers. Every employer liable for tax shall keep accurate records of all remuneration (whether in money or in something which may be used in lieu of money) other than tips paid to his employees after December 31, 1948, for services rendered to him (including "time lost") after December 31, 1936. Such records shall show with respect to each employee:

(1) The name and address of the employee;

(2) The total amount and date of each payment of remuneration to the employee (including any sum withheld therefrom as tax or for any other reason) and the period of service (including any period of absence from active service) covered by such payment;

(3) The amount of such payment of remuneration with respect to which the tax is imposed; and

(4) The amount of employees' tax withheld or collected with respect to such payment, and, if collected at a time other than the time such payment was made, the date collected.

If the total payment of remuneration (subparagraph (2) of this paragraph) and the amount thereof with respect to which the tax is imposed (subparagraph (3) of this paragraph) are not equal, the reason therefor shall be made a matter of record. Accurate records of the details of each adjustment or settlement made pursuant to §§ 411.702 or 411.703, including the date and amount of each adjustment or settlement, shall also be kept.

(b) Records of employees. While not mandatory, it is advisable for each employee to keep permanent, accurate records showing the name and address of each employer for whom he renders services as an employee, the dates of beginning and termination of such services rendered to each employer, and the information with respect to himself which is required by paragraph (a) of this section to be kept by employers. (See, however, paragraph (e), relating to records of claimants.)

(c) Records of employee representatives. Every individual liable for employee representatives' tax shall keep accurate records of all remuneration (whether in money or in something which may be used in lieu of money) paid to him after December 31, 1948, for services rendered (including "time lost") by him as an employee representative after December 31, 1946. Such records shall show:

(1) The name and address of each employee organization employing him;

(2) The total amount and date of each payment of remuneration for services rendered as an employee representative (including any sum withheld therefrom) and the period of service (including any period of absence from active service) covered by such payment; and

(3) The amount of such payment of remuneration with respect to which the employee representatives' tax is imposed.

If the total payment of remuneration (subparagraph (2) of this paragraph) and the amount thereof with respect to which the employee representatives' tax is imposed (subparagraph (3) of this paragraph) are not equal, the reason therefor shall be made a matter of record.

(d) Copies of returns, schedules, and statements. Every taxpayer who is required, by the regulations in this part or by instructions applicable to any form prescribed under such regulations, to keep a copy of any return, schedule, statement, or other document shall keep such copy as a part of his records.

(e) Records of claimants. Every person (including an employee) claiming refund, credit, or abatement of any tax, penalty, or interest shall keep a complete and detailed record with respect to such tax, penalty, or interest.

(f) Form of records. No particular form is prescribed for keeping the records required by this section. Each person required to keep records shall use such forms and systems of accounting as will enable the Commissioner to ascertain whether the taxes for which such person is liable are correctly computed and paid.

(g) Place and period for keeping records. All records required by the regulations in this part shall be kept, by the person required to keep them, at one or more convenient and safe locations accessible to internal revenue officers. Such records shall at all times be open for inspection by such officers. If the employer has a principal place of business in the United States, the records required by paragraphs (d) and (e) of this section shall be kept at such place of business. If the employee representative has a principal place of business or legal residence in the United States, the records required by paragraphs (d) and (e) of this section shall be kept at such place of business or residence.

Records required by paragraphs (a), (c), and (d) of this section shall be maintained for a period of at least four years after the date the tax to which they relate becomes due, or the date the tax is paid, whichever is later. Records required by paragraph (e) of this section (including any record required by paragraph (a), (c), or (d) which relates to a claim) shall be maintained for a period of at least four years after the date the claim is filed.

SUBPART G—ADJUSTMENT OF EMPLOYEES' TAX AND EMPLOYERS' TAX

ADJUSTMENTS

If more or less than the correct amount of tax imposed by section 1500 is paid with respect to any compensation payment, then, under regulations made under this subchapter by the Commissioner, with the approval of the Secretary, proper adjustments, with respect both to the tax and the amount to be deducted, shall be made, without interest, in connection with subsequent compensation payments to the same employer by the same employer.

ADJUSTMENTS

If more or less than the correct amount of the tax imposed by section 1520 is paid with respect to any compensation payment, then, under regulations made by the Commissioner, with the approval of the Secretary, proper adjustments with respect to the tax shall be made, without interest, in connection with subsequent excise-tax payments made by the same employer.

§ 411.701 Adjustments in general. Errors in the payment of employees' tax and employers' tax must be adjusted in certain cases without interest. Not all corrections of erroneous collections or payments of tax, however, constitute adjustments within the meaning of the act and the regulations in this part. The various situations under which such adjustments shall be made are set forth in §§ 411.702 and 411.703, the provisions of which also relate to settlement other than by adjustment under certain circumstances set forth therein. No underpayment of employees' tax or employers' tax shall be reported pursuant to such sections after receipt from the collector of notice and demand for payment thereof based upon an assessment, but the amount shall be paid in accordance with such notice and demand. Every return on which an adjustment or settlement is reported pursuant to §§ 411.702 or 411.703 must have securely attached as a part thereof a statement, in duplicate, explaining the adjustment or settlement in detail and setting forth such other information as may be required by the regulations in this part and by the instructions relating to the return.

§ 411.702 Adjustment of employees' tax—(a) Undercollections—(1) Prior to filing of return. If no employees' tax or less than the correct amount of employees' tax is deducted from any payment of compensation to an employee and the error is ascertained prior to the time the return on Form CT–1 is filed with the collector for the period for which such compensation is required to be reported (see § 411.601), the employer shall nevertheless report on such return and pay to the collector the correct amount of employees' tax. However, the reporting and payment by the employer of the correct amount of such tax in accordance with this subparagraph do not constitute an adjustment, and the amount shall not be reported as an adjustment on the return. The obligation of the employee to the employer with respect to the undercollection of the employees' tax in such case is a matter for settlement between the employee and the employer.

(2) After return is filed. If no employees' tax or less than the correct amount of employees' tax is deducted from any payment of compensation to an employee and the correct amount of such tax is not reported on a return on Form CT–1 and paid to the collector pursuant to subparagraph (1) of this paragraph, the employer shall collect the amount of the undercollection by deducting such amount from the first payment of compensation subject to employees' tax made to such employee after the error is ascertained. Such deduction shall be made without interest. The amount so deducted shall be reported by the employer as an adjustment on the return on Form CT–1 for the tax-return period for which such first payment of compensation is required to be reported (see § 411.601). The undercollection shall be deducted from such first payment of compensation in addition to the employees' tax imposed with respect to such compensation and shall be paid to the collector at the time fixed for the payment of such employees' tax. If an adjustment is reported pursuant to this subparagraph and is paid when due, the amount of the adjustment is payable without interest. However, if the amount of the adjustment is not paid when due, interest thereafter accrues. If an employer makes an erroneous collection of employees' tax from two or more of his employees, a separate settlement must be made with respect to each employee. Thus, an overcollection of employees' tax from one employee may not be used to offset an undercollection of such tax from another.

If after the error is ascertained no further payment to the employee of compensation subject to employees' tax is made or contemplated by the employer who failed to deduct the correct amount of employees' tax, the undercollection is not adjustable under this section. In such case if the undercollection is not reported and paid pursuant to subparagraph (1) of this paragraph, the amount of such undercollection shall be reported on the employer's next return on Form CT–1. (For interest accruing on amounts so reported, see § 411.903.) The obligation of the employee to the employer with respect to the undercollection of the employees' tax in such case is a matter for settlement between the employee and the employer.

(b) Overcollections—(1) Prior to filing of return. If an employer (i) collects more than the correct amount of employees' tax from any employee with respect to the compensation required to be reported for any tax-return period, and (ii) reimburses the employee in the amount of the overcollection prior to the time the return on Form CT–1 for such period is filed with the collector, the employer shall not report on any return or pay to the collector the amount of the overcollection. However, every overcollection for which the employee is not reimbursed as provided in this subparagraph must be reported and paid to the collector with the return on Form CT–1 for the period with respect to which the overcollection was made.

(2) After return is filed. If an employer collects from any employee and pays to the collector more than the correct amount of employees' tax, the employer shall adjust the overcollection when the first payment of compensation subject to employees' tax is made to the employee after the error is ascertained. The adjustment shall be made by applying the overcollection against the employees' tax which is imposed with respect to such first payment of compensation, and by deducting the remainder, if any, of the tax from such compensation. In case the overcollection is greater in amount than the employees' tax imposed with respect to such first payment of compensation, the balance shall be applied against the employees' tax imposed with respect to the next consecutive payments of compensation subject to employees' tax until the adjustment is completed. An overcollection is adjustable under this subparagraph only to the extent that the adjustment of such overcollection is completed and reported on a return filed within the 4-year period after the date the overpayment was made to the collector. A claim for credit or refund (in accordance with § 411.801) may be filed within such 4-year period for such part of any overcollection paid to the collector as cannot be adjusted under this subparagraph. If after the error is ascertained no further payment to the employee of compensation subject to employees' tax is made or contemplated by the employer who made the overcollection, the overpayment is not adjustable under this section. In such case the employer may pay the amount of the overcollection, or such part thereof as remains unadjusted under this section, to the employee and file a claim for credit or refund in accordance with § 411.801. In lieu of paying such amount prior to filing a claim, the employer may obtain the employee's written consent to allowance of the claim.

ployers' tax or less than the correct amount of employers' tax with respect to any payment of compensation is reported on a return on Form CT–1 and paid to the collector, the employer shall adjust the underpayment by reporting the amount of the underpayment as additional tax on his next return on Form CT–1 filed after the error is ascertained. The amount of each underpayment adjusted in accordance with this paragraph shall be paid to the collector at the time fixed for filing such return. If an adjustment is reported pursuant to this paragraph and is paid when due, the amount of the adjustment is payable without interest. However, if the amount of the adjustment is not paid when due, interest thereafter accrues.

(b) Overpayments. If an employer pays more than the correct amount of employers' tax with respect to any payment of compensation, the employer shall adjust the overpayment by reporting the amount of the overpayment as a deduction from the amount of employers' tax reported on his next return on Form CT–1 filed after the error is ascertained. An overpayment is adjustable under this paragraph only to the extent that the overpayment is deducted from the employers' tax reported on a return filed within the 4-year period after the date the overpayment was made to the collector. A claim for credit or refund (in accordance with § 411.801) may be filed within such 4-year period for such part of any overpayment as cannot be adjusted under this paragraph. If after the error is ascertained no employers' tax is reported on a return on Form CT–1 and paid to the collector by the employer who made the overpayment, or such reporting and payment are not contemplated by the employer; the overpayment is not adjustable under this section. In such case the employer may file a claim for credit or refund in accordance with § 411.801.

SUBPART H—REFUNDS, CREDITS, AND ABATEMENTS

OVERPAYMENTS

If more • • • than the correct amount of the tax imposed by section 1500 is paid or deducted with respect to any compensation payment and the overpayment • • • of the tax cannot be adjusted under section 1501 (c), the amount of the overpayment shall be refunded • • • in such manner and at such times (subject to the statute of limitations properly applicable thereto) as may be prescribed by regulations under this subchapter as made by the Commissioner, with the approval of the Secretary.

OVERPAYMENTS

If more • • • that the correct amount of the tax imposed by section 1520 is paid or deducted with respect to any compensation payment and the overpayment • • • of the tax cannot be adjusted under section 1521, the amount of the overpayment shall be refunded • • • in such manner and at such times (subject to the statute of limitations properly applicable thereto) as may be prescribed by regulations under this subchapter as made by the Commissioner, with the approval of the Secretary.

ERRONEOUS PAYMENTS

In General. In the case of any overpayment or overcollection of the tax • • •, the person making such overpayment or overcollection may take credit therefor against taxes due upon any • • • return, and shall make refund of any excessive amount collected by him upon proper application by the person entitled thereto.

AUTHORITY TO MAKE ABATEMENTS, CREDITS, AND REFUNDS

To taxpayers—(1) Assessments and collections generally. Except as otherwise provided by law in the case of income, war-profits, excess-profits, estate, and gift taxes, the Commissioner, subject to regulations prescribed by the Secretary, is authorized to remit, refund, and pay back all taxes erroneously or illegally assessed or collected, all penalties collected without authority, and all taxes that appear to be unjustly assessed or excessive in amount, or in any manner wrongfully collected.

(2) Assessments and collections after limitation period. Any tax (or any interest, penalty, additional amount, or addition to such tax) assessed or paid after the expiration of the period of limitation properly applicable thereto shall be considered an overpayment and shall be credited or refunded to the taxpayer if claim therefor is filed within the period of limitation for filing such claim.

PERIOD OF LIMITATION UPON REFUNDS AND CREDITS

All claims for the refunding or crediting of any internal revenue tax alleged to have been erroneously or illegally assessed or collected, or of any penalty alleged to have been collected without authority, or of any sum alleged to have been excessive or in any manner wrongfully collected must • • • be presented to the Commissioner within four years next after the payment of such tax, penalty, or sum. The amount of the refund • • • shall not exceed the portion of the tax, penalty, or sum paid during the four years immediately preceding the filing of the claim, or if no claim was filed, then during the four years immediately preceding the allowance of the refund.

SECTION 3477 OF THE UNITED STATES REVISED STATUTES

WHEN ASSIGNMENTS OF CLAIM VOID

All transfers and assignments made of any claim upon the United States, or of any part or share thereof, or interest therein, whether absolute or conditional, and whatever may be the consideration therefor, and all powers of attorney, orders, or other authorities for receiving payment of any such claim, or of any part or share thereof, shall be absolutely null and void, unless they are freely made and executed in the presence of at least two attesting witnesses, after the allowance of such a claim, the ascertainment of the amount due, and the issuing of a warrant for the payment thereof. Such transfers, assignments, and powers of attorney, must recite the warrant for payment, and must be acknowledged by the person making them, before an officer having authority to take acknowledgments of deeds, and shall be certified by the officer; and it must appear by the certificate that the officer, at the time of the acknowledgment, read and fully explained the transfer, assignment, or warrant of attorney to the person acknowledging the same.

§ 411.801 Refund or credit of overpayments which are not adjustable; abatement of overassessments—(a) Who may make claims. If more than the correct amount of tax, penalty, or interest is paid to the collector, the person who paid such tax, penalty, or interest to the collector may file a claim for refund of such overpayment or such person may take credit for the overpayment on any return on Form CT–1 or Form CT–2 which he subsequently files. (See paragraph (a) of this section, relating in part to overpayments which are adjustable.) If more than the correct amount of tax, penalty, or interest is assessed but not paid to the collector, the person against whom the assessment is made may file a claim for abatement of such overassessment. (See also paragraph (c) of this section, relating to claims by employees.)

(b) Statements supporting employers' claims for employees' tax. Every claim filed by an employer for refund, credit, or abatement of employees' tax collected from an employee shall include a statement that the employer has repaid the tax to the employee or has secured the written consent of such employee to allowance of the refund, credit, or abatement. In every such case, the employer shall maintain as part of his records the written receipt of the employee, showing the date and amount of the repayment, or the written consent of the employee, whichever is used in support of the claim. (See paragraph (d) of this section, relating to form of claims.)

(c) Refund claims made by employees. If (1) more than the correct amount of employees' tax is collected by an employer from an employee and paid to the collector, and (2) such overcollection is not adjustable under § 411.702, and (3) the employee does not receive reimbursement in any manner from such employer and does not authorize the employer to file a claim and receive refund or credit, such employee may file a claim for refund of such overpayment. The employee shall submit with the claim a statement setting forth the extent, if any, to which the employer has reimbursed the employee in any manner for the overcollection, the amount, if any, of credit or refund of such overpayment claimed by the employer or authorized by the employee to be claimed by the employer, and such facts as will establish that the overpayment is not adjustable under § 411.702. The employee shall obtain such statement, if possible, from the employer, who should include in such statement the fact that it is made in support of a claim against the United States to be filed by the employee for refund of employees' tax paid by such employer to the collector of internal revenue. If the employer's statement is not submitted with the claim, the employee shall make the statement to the best of his knowledge and belief, and shall include therein an explanation of his inability to obtain the statement from the employer.

(e) Limitations on claims. No refund or credit will be allowed after the expiration of four years after the payment to the collector of the tax, penalty, or interest, except upon one or more of the grounds set forth in a claim filed prior to the expiration of such 4-year period. No refund or credit of an overpayment will be allowed if such overpayment is adjustable under §§ 411.702 or 411.703.

(f) Claims improperly made. Any claim which does not comply with the requirements of this section will not be considered for any purpose as a claim for refund, credit, or abatement.

(g) Proof of representative capacity. If a return is made by an individual who thereafter dies and a refund claim is made by a legal representative of the deceased, certified copies of the letters testamentary, letters of administration, or other similar evidence must be annexed to the claim, to show the authority of the executor, administrator, or other fiduciary by whom the claim is made. If an executor, administrator, guardian, trustee, receiver, or other fiduciary makes a return and thereafter a refund claim is made by the same fiduciary, documentary evidence to establish the legal authority of the fiduciary need not accompany the claim, provided a statement is made in the claim showing that the return was made by the fiduciary and that the latter is still acting. In such cases, if a refund or interest is to be paid, letters testamentary, letters of administration, or other evidence may be required, but should be submitted only upon the receipt of a specific request therefor. If a claim is made by a fiduciary other than the one by whom the return was made, the necessary documentary evidence should accompany the claim. The affidavit may be made by the agent of the person assessed, but in such case a power of attorney must accompany the claim.

SECTION 7 (e) OF THE CARRIERS TAXING ACT OF 1937

Any tax paid under this Act (Carriers Taxing Act of 1937) by a taxpayer with respect to any period with respect to which he is not liable to tax under this Act shall be credited against the tax, if any, imposed by title VIII of the Social Security Act upon such taxpayer, and the balance, if any, shall be refunded. • • •

ERRONEOUS PAYMENTS

Any tax paid under this subchapter by a taxpayer with respect to any period with respect to which he is not liable to tax under this subchapter shall be credited against the tax, if any, imposed by subchapter A upon such taxpayer, and the balance, if any, shall be refunded.

§ 411.802 Credit and refund of taxes paid under Railroad Retirement Tax Act or corresponding prior law for period during which liability existed under Federal Insurance Contributions Act or corresponding prior law—(a) Taxes paid under Carriers Taxing Act of 1937. If any person pays any amount as tax under the Carriers Taxing Act of 1937 with respect to any period for which he is not liable for such tax and such person is liable for a tax imposed by Title VIII of the Social Security Act, the amount paid as tax under the Carriers Taxing Act of 1937 shall be credited against the tax for which such person is liable under Title VIII of the Social Security Act and the balance, if any, shall be refunded. Each claim for refund under this paragraph shall be made in accordance with § 411.801. Each claim for credit under this paragraph shall be made on Form 843 in accordance with the instructions relating to such form and the applicable provisions of § 411.801. See article 703 of Regulations 100 for credit or refund of amounts paid as tax under Title VIII of the Social Security Act for any period during which liability existed under the Carriers Taxing Act of 1937.

(b) Taxes paid under Railroad Retirement Tax Act. If any person pays any amount as tax under the Railroad Retirement Tax Act (in force before, on, or after January 1, 1947) with respect to any period for which he is not liable for such tax and such person is liable for a tax imposed by the Federal Insurance Contributions Act (in force before, on, or after January 1, 1940), the amount paid as tax under the Railroad Retirement Tax Act shall be credited against the tax for which the person is liable under the Federal Insurance Contributions Act and the balance, if any, shall be refunded. Each claim for refund under this paragraph shall be made in accordance with § 411.801. Each claim for credit under this paragraph shall be made on Form 843 in accordance with the instructions relating to such form and the applicable provisions of § 411.801 of the regulations in this part. See section 1422 of the Federal Insurance Contributions Act for credit or refund of amounts paid as tax under such act for any period during which liability existed under the Railroad Retirement Tax Act.

SUBPART I—MISCELLANEOUS PROVISIONS

ASSESSMENT AND COLLECTION OF UNDERPAYMENTS

UNDERPAYMENTS

If • • • less than the correct amount of the tax imposed by section 1500 is paid or deducted with respect to any compensation payment and the • • • underpayment of the tax cannot be adjusted under section 1501 (c), • • • the amount of the underpayment shall be collected in such manner and at such times (subject to the statute of limitations properly applicable thereto) as may be prescribed by regulations under this subchapter as made by the Commissioner, with the approval of the Secretary.

UNDERPAYMENTS

If • • • less than the correct amount of the tax imposed by section 1520 is paid or deducted with respect to any compensation payment and the • • • underpayment of the tax cannot be adjusted under section 1521, • • • the amount of the underpayment shall be collected in such manner and at such times (subject to the statute of limitations properly applicable thereto) as may be prescribed by regulations under this subchapter as made by the Commissioner, with the approval of the Secretary.

§ 411.901 Assessment and collection of underpayments. If any employers' tax or employees' tax is not paid to the collector when due, the Commissioner may, as the circumstances warrant, assess the tax (whether or not the underpayment is otherwise adjustable) or afford the employer opportunity to adjust the underpayment pursuant to §§ 411.702 or 411.703. Unpaid employers' tax or employees' tax may be assessed against the employer. Employees tax not collected by the employer may also be assessed against the employee. If any employee representatives' tax is not paid when due, it shall be assessed against the employee representative. The unpaid amount, together with interest and penalty, if any, will be collected, pursuant to section 3655 of the Internal Revenue Code and other applicable provisions of law, from the person against whom the assessment is made. If an employer pays employees' tax pursuant to an assessment against him without an adjustment having been made pursuant to § 411.702, reimbursement is a matter to be settled between the employer and the employee. (See § 411.903, relating to interest, and § 411.904, relating to penalty for failure to pay an assessment after notice and demand. See also § 411.902, relating to jeopardy assessments.)

JEOPARDY ASSESSMENTS

JEOPARDY ASSESSMENT

(a) If the Commissioner believes that the collection of any tax (other than income tax, estate tax, and gift tax) under any provision of the internal-revenue laws will be jeopardized by delay, he shall, whether or not the time otherwise prescribed by law for making return and paying such tax has expired, immediately assess such tax (together with all interest and penalties the assessment of which is provided for by law). Such tax, penalties, and interest shall thereupon become immediately due and payable, and immediate notice and demand shall be made by the collector for the payment thereof. Upon failure or refusal to pay such tax, penalty, and interest, collection thereof by distraint shall be lawful without regard to the period prescribed in section 3690.

(b) The collection of the whole or any part of the amount of such assessment may be stayed by filing with the collector a bond in such amount, not exceeding double the amount as to which the stay is desired, and with such sureties, as the collector deems necessary, conditioned upon the payment of the amount collection of which is stayed, at the time at which, but for this section, such amount would be due.

AUTHORITY TO DISTRAIN

If any person liable to pay any taxes neglects or refuses to pay the same within ten days after notice and demand, it shall be lawful for the collector or his deputy to collect the said taxes, with such interest and other additional amounts as are required by law, by distraint and sale, in the manner provided in this subchapter, of the goods, chattels, or effects, including stocks, securities, bank accounts, and evidences of debt, of the person delinquent as aforesaid.

§ 411.902 Jeopardy assessments. Whenever, in the opinion of the collector, the collection of the tax will be jeopardized by delay, he should report the case promptly to the Commissioner by telegram or letter. The communication should recite the full name and address of the person involved, the tax-return period or periods involved, the amount of tax due for each period, the date any return was filed by or for the taxpayer for such period, a reference to any prior assessment made for such period against the taxpayer, and a statement as to the reason for the recommendation, which will enable the Commissioner to assess the tax, together with all penalties and interest due. Upon assessment such tax, penalty, and interest shall become immediately due and payable, whereupon the collector will issue immediately a notice and demand for payment of the tax, penalty, and interest.

The collection of the whole or any part of the amount of the jeopardy assessment may be stayed by filing with the collector a bond in such amount, not exceeding double the amount with respect to which the stay is desired, and with such sureties as the collector deems necessary. Such bond shall be conditioned upon the payment of the amount, collection of which is stayed, at the time at which, but for the jeopardy assessment, such amount would be due. In lieu of surety or sureties the taxpayer may deposit with the collector bonds or notes of the United States, or bonds or notes fully guaranteed by the United States, having a par value not less than the amount of the bond required to be furnished, together with an agreement authorizing the collector in case of default to collect or sell such bonds or notes so deposited.

Upon refusal to pay, or failure to pay or give bond, the collector will proceed immediately to collect the tax, penalty, and interest by distraint without regard to the period prescribed in section 3690 of the Internal Revenue Code.

INTEREST AND ADDITIONS TO TAX

ADDITIONS TO TAX IN CASE OF DELINQUENCY

If a tax imposed by this subchapter is not paid when due, there shall be added as part of the tax (except in the case of adjustments made in accordance with the provisions of this subchapter) interest at the rate of 6 per centum per annum from the date the tax became due until paid.

SECTION 3655 OF THE INTERNAL REVENUE CODE

NOTICE AND DEMAND FOR TAX

(a) Delivery. Where it is not otherwise provided, the collector shall in person or by deputy, within ten days after receiving any list of taxes from the Commissioner, give notice to each person liable to pay any taxes stated therein, to be left at his dwelling or usual place of business, or to be sent by mail, stating the amount of such taxes and demanding payment thereof.

(b) Addition to tax for nonpayment. If such person does not pay the taxes, within ten days after the service or the sending by mail of such notice, it shall be the duty of the collector or his deputy to collect the said taxes with a penalty of 5 per centum additional upon the amount of taxes, and interest at the rate of 6 per centum per annum from the date of such notice to the date of payment • • •.

§ 411.903 Interest. If the tax is not paid to the collector when due and is not adjusted under § 411.702 or 411.703, interest accrues at the rate of 6 percent per annum.

§ 411.904 Addition to tax for failure to pay an assessment after notice and demand. (a) If tax, penalty, or interest is assessed and the entire amount thereof is not paid within 10 days after the date of issuance of notice and demand for payment thereof, based on such assessment, there accrues under section 3655 of the Internal Revenue Code (except as provided in paragraph (b) of this section) a penalty of 5 percent of the assessment remaining unpaid at the expiration of such period.

(b) If, within 10 days after the date of issuance of notice and demand, a claim for abatement of any amount of the assessment is filed with the collector, the 5 percent penalty does not attach with respect to such amount. If the claim is rejected in whole or in part and the amount rejected is not paid, the collector shall issue notice and demand for such amount. If payment is not made within 10 days after the date the collector issues the notice and demand, the 5 percent penalty attaches with respect to the amount rejected. The filing of the claim does not stay the running of interest.

SECTION 3612 (d) AND (e) OF THE INTERNAL REVENUE CODE

(d) Additions to tax—(1) Failure to file return. In case of any failure to make and file a return or list within the time prescribed by law, or prescribed by the Commissioner or the collector in pursuance of law, the Commissioner shall add to the tax 25 per centum of its amount, except that when a return is filed after such time and it is shown that the failure to file it was due to a reasonable cause and not to willful neglect, no such addition shall be made to the tax: Provided, That in the case of a failure to make and file a return required by law, within the time prescribed by law or prescribed by the Commissioner in pursuance of law, if the last date so prescribed for filing the return is after August 30, 1935, then there shall be added to the tax, in lieu of such 25 per centum: 5 per centum if the failure is for not more than 30 days, with an additional 5 per centum for each additional 30 days or fraction thereof during which failure continues, not to exceed 25 per centum in the aggregate.

(2) Fraud. In case a false or fraudulent return or list is willfully made, the Commissioner shall add to the tax 50 per centum of its amount.

(e) Collection of additions to tax. The amount added to any tax under paragraphs (1) and (2) of subsection (d) shall be collected at the same time and in the same manner and as a part of the tax unless the tax has been paid before the discovery of the neglect, falsity, or fraud, in which case the amount so added shall be collected in the same manner as the tax.

§ 411.905 Additions to tax for delinquent or false returns—(a) Delinquent returns. If a person fails to make and file a return required by the regulations in this part within the prescribed time, a certain percent of the amount of the tax is added to the tax unless the return is later filed and failure to file the return within the prescribed time is shown to be due to reasonable cause and not to willful neglect. The amount to be added to the tax is 5 percent if the failure is for not more than 30 days, with an additional 5 percent for each additional 30 days or fraction thereof during which failure continues, not to exceed 25 percent in the aggregate. In computing the period of delinquency all Sundays and holidays after the due date are counted. Two classes of delinquents are subject to this addition to the tax:

(1) Those who do not file returns and for whom returns are made by a collector, a deputy collector, or the Commissioner; and

(2) Those who file tardy returns and are unable to show reasonable cause for the delay.

A person who files a tardy return and wishes to avoid the addition to the tax for delinquency must make an affirmative showing of all facts alleged as a reasonable cause for failure to file the return on time in the form of a statement which should be attached to the return as a part thereof.

(b) False returns. If a false or fraudulent return is willfully made, the addition to tax under section 3612 (d) (2) of the Internal Revenue Code is 50 percent of the total tax due for the entire period involved, including any tax previously paid.

PENALTIES

PENALTIES

(a) Any person who willfully fails to pay, collect, or truthfully account for and pay over the tax • • •, or willfully attempts in any manner to evade or defeat any such tax or the payment thereof, shall, in addition to other penalties provided by law, be liable to a penalty of the amount of the tax evaded, or not paid, collected, or accounted for and paid over, to be assessed and collected in the same manner as taxes are assessed and collected. No penalty shall be assessed under this subsection for any offense for which a penalty may be assessed under authority of section 3612.

(b) Any person required under this subchapter to pay any tax, or required by law or regulations made under authority thereof to make a return, keep any records, or supply any information, for the purposes of the computation, assessment, or collection of any tax imposed by this subchapter who willfully fails to pay such tax, make such returns, keep such records, or supply such information, at the time or times required by law or regulations, shall, in addition to other penalties provided by law, be guilty of a misdemeanor and, upon conviction thereof, be fined not more than $10,000, or imprisoned for not more than one year, or both, together with the costs of prosecution.

(c) Any person required under this subchapter to collect, account for and pay over any tax imposed by this subchapter, who willfully fails to collect or truthfully account for and pay over such tax, and any person who willfully attempts in any manner to evade or defeat any tax imposed by this subchapter or the payment thereof, shall, in addition to other penalties provided by law, be guilty of a felony and, upon conviction thereof, be fined not more than $10,000, or imprisoned for not more than five years, or both, together with the costs of prosecution.

(d) The term "person" as used in this section includes an officer or employee of a corporation, or a member or employee of a partnership, who as such officer, employee, or member is under a duty to perform the act in respect of which the violation occurs.

SECTION 3616 OF THE INTERNAL REVENUE CODE

PENALTIES

Whenever any person:

(a) False returns. Delivers or discloses to the collector or deputy any false or fraudulent list, return, account, or statement, with intent to defeat or evade the valuation, enumeration, or assessment intended to be made; or,

(b) Neglect to obey summons. Being duly summoned to appear to testify, or to appear and produce books as required under section 3615, neglects to appear or to produce said books:

He shall be fined not exceeding $1,000, or be imprisoned not exceeding one year, or both, at the discretion of the court, with costs of prosecution.

SECTION 286 OF TITLE 18 OF THE UNITED STATES CODE

CONSPIRACY TO DEFRAUD THE GOVERNMENT WITH RESPECT TO CLAIMS

Whoever enters into any agreement, combination, or conspiracy to defraud the United States, or any department or agency thereof, by obtaining or aiding to obtain the payment or allowance of any false, fictitious or fraudulent claim, shall be fined not more than $10,000 or imprisoned not more than ten years, or both.

SECTION 287 OF TITLE 18 OF THE UNITED STATES CODE

FALSE, FICTITIOUS OR FRAUDULENT CLAIMS

Whoever makes or presents to any person or officer in the civil, military, or naval service of the United States, or to any department or agency thereof, any claim upon or against the United States, or any department or agency thereof, knowing such claim to be false, fictitious, or fraudulent, shall be fined not more than $10,000 or imprisoned not more than five years, or both.

SECTION 1001 OF TITLE 18 OF THE UNITED STATES CODE

STATEMENTS OR ENTRIES GENERALLY

Whoever, in any matter within the jurisdiction of any department or agency of the United States knowingly and willfully falsifies, conceals or covers up by any trick, scheme, or device a material fact, or makes any false, fictitious or fraudulent statements or representations, or makes or uses any false writing or document knowing the same to contain any false, fictitious or fraudulent statement or entry, shall be fined not more than $10,000 or imprisoned not more than five years, or both.

SECTION 1630 (b) OF THE INTERNAL REVENUE CODE

PENALTIES

Every person who willfully makes and subscribes any return, statement, or other document, which contains or is verified by a written declaration that it is made under the penalties of perjury, and which he does not believe to be true and correct as to every material matter, shall be guilty of a felony, and, upon conviction thereof, shall be subject to the penalties prescribed for perjury in section 125 of the Criminal Code (Title 18, U. S. C., sec. 1621) (Sec. 1630 (b), I. R. C., as added by sec. 2 (a), Current Tax Payment Act of 1943, 57 Stat. 126)

SECTION 1621 OF TITLE 18 OF THE UNITED STATES CODE

PERJURY GENERALLY

Whoever, having taken an oath before a competent tribunal, officer, or person, in any case in which a law of the United States authorizes an oath to be administered, that he will testify, declare, depose, or certify truly, or that any written testimony, declaration, deposition, or certificate by him subscribed, is true, willfully and contrary to such oath states or subscribes any material matter which he does not believe to be true, is guilty of perjury, and shall, except as otherwise expressly provided by law, be fined not more than $2,000 or imprisoned not more than five years, or both.

FRAUDULENT RETURNS, AFFIDAVITS, AND CLAIMS

(1) Assistance in preparation or presentation. Any person who willfully aids or assists in, or procures, counsels, or advises the preparation or presentation under, or in connection with any matter arising under, the internal revenue laws, of a false or fraudulent return, affidavit, claim, or document, shall (whether or not such falsity or fraud is with the knowledge or consent of the person authorized or required to present such return, affidavit, claim, or document) be guilty of a felony, and, upon conviction thereof, be fined not more than $10,000, or imprisoned for not more than five years, or both, together with the costs of prosecution.

(2) Person defined. The term "person" as used in this subsection includes an officer or employee of a corporation or a member or employee of a partnership, who as such officer, employee, or member is under a duty to perform the act in respect of which the violation occurs.

OTHER LAWS APPLICABLE

All provisions of law, including penalties, applicable with respect to any tax imposed by section 2700 or section 1600, and the provisions of section 3661, insofar as applicable and not inconsistent with the provisions of this subchapter, shall be applicable with respect to the taxes imposed by this subchapter. (Sec. 1536, I. R. C., as amended by sec. 1, Act of Mar. 17, 1941, 55 Stat. 44)

RULES AND REGULATIONS

RULES AND REGULATIONS

The Commissioner, with the approval of the Secretary, shall make and publish such rules and regulations as may be necessary for the enforcement of this subchapter.

SECTION 3791 OF THE INTERNAL REVENUE CODE

RULES AND REGULATIONS

(a) Authorization—(1) In general. • • • the Commissioner, with the approval of the Secretary, shall prescribe and publish all needful rules and regulations for the enforcement of this title [Internal Revenue Code].

(2) In case of change in law. The Commissioner may make all such regulations, not otherwise provided for, as may have become necessary by reason of any alteration of law in relation to internal revenue.

(b) Retroactivity of regulations and rulings. The Secretary, or Commissioner with the approval of the Secretary, may prescribe the extent, if any, to which any ruling, regulation, or Treasury Decision, relating to the internal revenue laws, shall be applied without retroactive effect.

§ 411.906 Promulgation of regulations. In pursuance of section 1535 of the act, section 3791 of the Internal Revenue Code, and other provisions of the internal revenue laws, the foregoing regulations are to be prescribed. (See §§ 411.102 and 411.103, relating to the scope of the regulations in this part and the extent to which they supersede prior regulations.)

PEANUTS

NOTICE OF PROPOSED PROCLAMATION WITH RESPECT TO 1949 NATIONAL MARKETING QUOTA, APPORTIONMENT OF THE NATIONAL ACREAGE ALLOTMENT AND ESTABLISHMENT OF FARM ACREAGE ALLOTMENTS FOR 1949 CROP

Pursuant to Title III of the Agricultural Adjustment Act of 1938, as amended (7 U. S. C. and Sup. 1301–1393), the Secretary of Agriculture is required by section 358 (a) thereof to proclaim, between July 1 and December 1 of each calendar year, the amount of the national marketing quota for peanuts from the crop produced in the next succeeding calendar year. Pursuant to section 358 (c) of the said act, the Secretary is further required to apportion the national marketing quota so proclaimed, as converted into a national peanut acreage allotment, among the several peanut-producing States.

In addition to the foregoing proclamation and determination to be made with respect to the 1949 crop of peanuts, the Secretary has under consideration the formulation of regulations governing the apportionment of the State acreage allotments among farms pursuant to section 358 (d) of the said act.

Prior to proclaiming the national marketing quota, apportioning the national acreage allotment, and issuing the regulations providing for the establishment of farm acreage allotments and farm marketing quotas, consideration will be given to any data, views, and recommendations relating thereto which are submitted in writing to the Director, Fats and Oils Branch, Production and Marketing Administration, U. S. Department of Agriculture, Washington 25, D. C. All submissions must be postmarked not later than 10 days from the date of publication of this notice in the FEDERAL REGISTER.

HANDLING OF HOPS GROWN IN OREGON, CALIFORNIA, WASHINGTON, AND IDAHO, AND OF HOP PRODUCTS PRODUCED THEREFROM IN THESE STATES

NOTICE OF HEARING WITH RESPECT TO PROPOSED MARKETING AGREEMENT AND ORDER

Correction

In Federal Register Document 48–9630, appearing at page 6448 in the issue for Tuesday, November 2, 1948, the following corrections should be made:

1. In the eighth line of § 986.6 (d) (1), the word "certified" should be changed to "certificated". In the fourteenth line of paragraph (f) the word "years" should be changed to "year".

2. In the 37th line of § 986.7 (b) (2), the word "each" should be changed to "such".

3. Sections 986.19 to 986.21 and the undesignated paragraph following § 986.21 should be changed to read as follows:

•§ 986.19 Counterparts. This agreement may be executed in multiple counterparts, and, when one counterpart is signed by the Secretary, all such counterparts shall constitute when taken together one and the same instrument as if all such signatures were contained in one original.

•§ 986.20 Additional parties. After this agreement first takes effect, any handler or dealer may become a party to this agreement if a counterpart thereof is executed by him and delivered to the Secretary. This agreement shall take effect as to such new contracting party at the time such counterpart is delivered to the Secretary, and the benefits, privileges, and immunities conferred by this agreement shall then be effective as to such new contracting party.

•§ 986.21 Request for order. Each signatory handler and dealer hereto requests the Secretary to issue an order pursuant to the act regulating the handling of hops and hop products in the same manner as provided in this agreement.

•In witness hereof the contracting parties acting under the provisions of the act for the purposes and subject to the limitations herein contained and not otherwise have hereunto set their respective hands and seals.

4. Paragraph (e), appearing in the first column on page 6499, should be designated paragraph (c).

PIEDMONT BROADCASTING CO. AND BRUCE JOHNSON CO.

ORDER DESIGNATING APPLICATIONS FOR CONSOLIDATED HEARING ON STATED ISSUES

In re applications of Charles B. Britt, Joe H. Britt, Vardry D. Ramseur, and John Arthur Ramseur a partnership d/b as Piedmont Broadcasting Company, Docket No. 7924, File No. BP–5374, Greenville, South Carolina; James M. Bruce and C. R. Johnson, Sr. a partnership d/b as Bruce Johnson Company, Anderson, South Carolina, Docket No. 9180, File No. BP–6531: For construction permits.

At a session of the Federal Communications Commission, held at its offices in Washington, D. C., on the 27th day of October 1948;

The Commission having under consideration the above-entitled applications each requesting a permit to construct a new standard broadcast station to operate on the frequency 1490 kilocycles, with 250 watts power, unlimited time in the places specified above;

It is ordered, That, pursuant to section 309 (a) of the Communications Act of 1934, as amended, the said applications be, and they are hereby, designated for hearing in a consolidated proceeding, at a time and place to be designated by subsequent order of the Commission, upon the following issues:

1. To determine the legal, technical, financial, and other qualifications of the applicant partnerships and the partners to construct and operate the proposed stations.

2. To determine the areas and populations which may be expected to gain or lose primary service from the operation of the proposed stations and the character of other broadcast service available to those areas and populations.

3. To determine the type and character of program service proposed to be rendered and whether it would meet the requirements of the populations and areas proposed to be served.

4. To determine whether the operation of the proposed stations would involve objectionable interference with any existing broadcast stations and, if so, the nature and extent thereof, the areas and populations affected thereby, and the availability of other broadcast service to such areas and populations.

5. To determine whether the operation of the proposed stations would involve objectionable interference each with the other or with the services proposed in any other pending applications for broadcast facilities and, if so, the nature and extent thereof, the areas and populations affected thereby, and the availability of other broadcast service to such areas and populations.

6. To determine whether the installation and operation of the proposed stations would be in compliance with the Commission's rules and Standards of Good Engineering Practice Concerning Standard Broadcast Stations.

7. To determine on a comparative basis which, if either of the applications in this consolidated proceeding should be granted.

DR. FRANCISCO A. MARQUEZ

ORDER DESIGNATING APPLICATION FOR FURTHER HEARING ON STATED ISSUE

In re application of Dr. Francisco A. Marquez, Aguadilla, Puerto Rico, Docket No. 8138, File No. BP–5615, for construction permit.

At a session of the Federal Communications Commission, held at its offices in Washington, D. C., on the 27th day of October 1948;

The Commission having under consideration the above-entitled application of Dr. Francisco A. Marquez for a permit to construct a new standard broadcast station in Aguadilla, Puerto Rico, to operate on the frequency 550 kilocycles with 1 kilowatt power unlimited time; and the record made at the hearing in the above proceeding on March 30, 1948; and

It appearing, that, the above-entitled application and the application of Jacinto Sugranes (File No. BP–5725; Docket No. 8139) were designated for hearing in a consolidated proceeding on February 20, 1947, and hearing thereon finally scheduled for March 30, 1948; that on March 29, 1948, Jacinto Sugranes filed a petition requesting dismissal of his said application without prejudice; that at the hearing in the above-entitled proceeding on March 30, 1948, the applicant Jacinto Sugranes failed to make an appearance; and that on June 11, 1948, the said petition requesting dismissal without prejudice was denied and on the Commission's own motion his application was dismissed with prejudice for failure to file an affidavit of consideration as required by § 1.368 of the Commission's rules and regulations;

It further appearing, that, Dr. Francisco A. Marquez testified in the above-entitled proceeding that he did not pay or promise payment in money or any other thing of value to Jacinto Sugranes in consideration for his requesting dismissal of his aforesaid application (File No. BP–5725; Docket No. 8139); and that the Commission has in its possession new evidence which is contrary to the aforesaid testimony of Dr. Marquez;

It is ordered, on the Commission's own motion, that the record in the above-entitled proceeding heretofore closed on March 30, 1948, be, and it is hereby, reopened for further hearing to be held at a time and place to be determined by subsequent order of the Commission upon the following issue:

To determine whether Dr. Francisco A. Marquez or, with his knowledge and consent, his Agents or Representatives did pay or promise payment in money or any other thing of value to Jacinto Sugranes in consideration for requesting dismissal of his application (File No. BP–5725; Docket No. 8139).

CHICAGO FEDERATION OF LABOR (WCFL)

ORDER DESIGNATING APPLICATION FOR HEARING ON STATED ISSUES

In re application of Chicago Federation of Labor (WCFL), Chicago, Ill., Docket No. 8272, File No. BMP–2486, for modification of construction permit.

At a session of the Federal Communications Commission, held at its offices in Washington, D. C., on the 27th day of October 1948;

The Commission having under consideration a petition for reconsideration, filed on July 29, 1948, by Superior Broadcasting Service, Inc., licensee of Station W C A Z, Carthage, Illinois, directed against the Commission's action of July 12, 1948, in granting the above-entitled application of Chicago Federation of Labor for modification of its license for the operation of Station WCFL, Chicago, Illinois, by providing a different directional antenna for daytime use, DA–1; an opposition thereto filed by Chicago Federation of Labor and petitioner's reply to the opposition; and

It appearing, that the operation of Station WCFL as proposed in the above-entitled application would cause objectionable interference within the normally protected daytime service area of Station WCAZ as determined by applicable rules and regulations;

It is ordered, That pursuant to section 405 of the Communications Act of 1934, as amended, and § 1.390 (a) of the Commission's rules and regulations, the said petition for reconsideration filed by Superior Broadcasting Service, Inc. (WCAZ) be, and it is hereby, granted; that the action of the Commission of July 12, 1948, granting the above-entitled application of Chicago Federation of Labor be, and it is hereby, set aside; and that the said application be, and it is hereby, designated for hearing, at a time and place to be designated by subsequent order of the Commission, upon the following issues:

1. To determine the areas and populations which may be expected to gain or lose primary service from the operation of Station WCFL as proposed and the character of other broadcast service available to those areas and populations.

2. To determine whether the operation of Station WCFL as proposed would involve objectionable interference with Station WCAZ, Carthage, Illinois or with any other existing broadcast stations, or with the services proposed in any pending applications, and, if so, the nature and extent thereof, the areas and populations affected thereby, and the availability of other broadcast service to such areas and populations.

3. To determine whether the installation and operation of Station WCFL as proposed would be in compliance with the Commission's rules and Standards Concerning Standard Broadcasting Stations.

It is further ordered, That Superior Broadcasting Service, Inc., licensee of Station WCAZ, be, and it is hereby, made a party to this proceeding.

At a session of the Federal Communications Commission, held at its offices in Washington, D. C., on the 27th day of October 1948;

The Commission having under consideration the above-entitled application of Valley Broadcasting Corporation to construct a new standard broadcast station to operate on the frequency 930 kc with 500 w power, daytime only in Holyoke, Massachusetts.

It appearing, that the Commission on April 10, 1947, designated for hearing the above-entitled application of North Jersey Broadcasting Company Incorporated requesting a construction permit to authorize Station WPAT, Paterson, New Jersey, to operate unlimited time on the frequency 930 kc, with 5 kw power, using a directional antenna day and night; that on November 14, 1947, the above-entitled application of Monocacy Broadcasting Company for increase in power on the frequency 930 kilocycles was consolidated therewith for hearing; and that the hearing on the said applications is scheduled to commence on January 17, 1949, at Washington, D. C.

It is ordered, That, pursuant to section 309 (a) of the Communications Act of 1934, as amended, the said application of Valley Broadcasting Corporation be, and it is hereby, designated for hearing in the above-consolidated proceeding at the time and place aforesaid upon the following issues:

1. To determine the legal, technical, financial, and other qualifications of the applicant corporation, its officers, directors and stockholders to construct and operate the proposed station.

2. To determine the areas and populations which may be expected to gain or lose primary service from the operation of the proposed station and the character of other broadcast service available to those areas and populations.

3. To determine the type and character of program service proposed to be rendered and whether it would meet the requirements of the populations and areas proposed to be served.

4. To determine whether the operation of the proposed station would involve objectionable interference with Station WHAY, New Britain, Connecticut, or with any other existing broadcast stations and, if so, the nature and extent thereof, the areas and populations affected thereby, and the availability of other broadcast service to such areas and populations.

5. To determine whether the operation of the proposed station would involve objectionable interference with the services proposed in the pending application of North Jersey Broadcasting Company, Inc. (File No. BP–4613; Docket No. 8285) or in any other pending applications for broadcast facilities and, if so, the nature and extent thereof, the areas and populations affected thereby, and the availability of other broadcast service to such areas and populations.

6. To determine whether the installation and operation of the proposed station would be in compliance with the Commission's rules and Standards of Good Engineering Practice Concerning Standard Broadcast Stations.

7. To determine on a comparative basis which, if any of the applications in this consolidated proceeding should be granted.

It is further ordered, That the orders of the Commission of April 10, 1947, and of November 14, 1947, designating for hearing the said applications of North Jersey Broadcasting Company, Inc., and of The Monocacy Broadcasting Company be, and they are hereby, amended to include the said application of Valley Broadcasting Corporation.

It is further ordered, That The Central Connecticut Broadcasting Company, licensee of Station WHAY, New Britain, Connecticut, be, and it is hereby, made a party to this proceeding.

GLENNS FALLS PUBLICITY CORP. (WGLN) AND RICHARD O'CONNOR

ORDER DESIGNATING APPLICATIONS FOR CONSOLIDATED HEARING ON STATED ISSUES

In re applications of Glenns Falls Publicity Corporation (WGLN), Glenns Falls, New York, Docket No. 8404, File No. BML-1247 (CP); Richard O'Connor, Saratoga Springs, New York, Docket No. 9179, File No. BP-6808; for construction permits.

At a session of the Federal Communications Commission, held at its offices in Washington, D. C., on the 27th day of October 1948;

The Commission having under consideration the above-entitled application of Glenns Falls Publicity Corporation to change the facilities of Station WGLN, Glenns Falls, New York, so as to specify the frequency 1280 kc, with 1 kw power, DA-2, unlimited time, in lieu of 1230 kc, with 100 watts power, unlimited time; and that of Richard O'Connor for a permit to construct a new standard broadcast station in Saratoga Springs, New York, to operate daytime only on the frequency 1280 kc, with 1 kw power;

It is ordered, That, pursuant to section 309 (a) of the Communications Act of 1934, as amended, the said applications be, and they are hereby, designated for hearing in a consolidated proceeding at a time and place to be designated by subsequent order of the Commission upon the following issues:

1. To determine the legal, technical, financial and other qualifications of Richard O'Connor to construct and operate his proposed station and the technical, financial and other qualifications of the corporate applicant Glenns Falls Publicity Corporation, its officers, directors and stockholders to construct and operate Station WGLN as proposed.

2. To determine the areas and populations which may be expected to gain or lose primary service from the proposed operations and the character of other broadcast service available to those areas and populations.

3. To determine the type and character of program service proposed to be rendered and whether it would meet the requirements of the populations and areas proposed to be served.

4. To determine whether the proposed operations would involve objectionable interference with any existing broadcast stations and in particular whether the nighttime operation of Station WGLN as proposed would result in a clipping of the service area of Station WOV, New York, N. Y., and, if so, the nature and extent thereof, the areas and populations affected thereby, and the availability of other broadcast service to such areas and populations.

5. To determine whether the proposed operations would involve objectionable interference with the services proposed in any other pending applications for broadcast facilities and, if so, the nature and extent thereof, the areas and populations affected thereby, and the availability of other broadcast service to such areas and populations.

6. To determine whether the installation and operation of the proposals would be in compliance with the Commission's rules and Standards of Good Engineering Practice Concerning Standard Broadcast Stations.

7. To determine on a comparative basis which, if either, of the applications in this consolidated proceeding should be granted.

[Docket No. G-1148]

PHILLIPS PETROLEUM CO.

ORDER INSTITUTING INVESTIGATION

OCTOBER 28, 1948.

Upon consideration of the Commission's official files and the public records of other federal agencies pertaining to Phillips Petroleum Company (hereinafter referred to as "Respondent"), a Delaware corporation with principal executive offices at 80 Broadway, New York 5, New York, and Phillips Building, Bartlesville, Oklahoma;

It appears to the Commission that:

(a) Respondent is engaged, among other things, in the production, purchase, gathering, transportation and sale of natural gas in the States of Arkansas, Kansas, New Mexico, Oklahoma, and Texas;

(b) Respondent reports that it owns and operates approximately 3,800 miles of gathering, residue, and other gas lines located in the States designated above, together with various compressor or booster stations and appurtenant facilities;

(c) In this Commission's opinion "In the Matter of Michigan-Wisconsin Pipe Line Company," January 17, 1947, 6 F. P. C. —, 67 P. U. R. (N. S.) 427, we stated therein with respect to the motion filed by the City of Detroit on October 11, 1946, for an order requiring respondent herein to be made a party to the proceeding in Docket No. G-669:

> We believe that whether Phillips is or is not a natural gas company cannot properly be determined in this proceeding. If such determination is required it should be made a separate case after a thorough investigation of Phillips' operations and we therefore find that the motion of the City of Detroit should be dismissed.

(d) By its letters of June 19, August 15, September 6, 1940, April 3, 1941, and August 3, 1943, to this Commission, respondent has disclaimed that it is or will be a natural-gas company within the meaning of that term as used in the Natural Gas Act;

(e) In 1947, respondent reported to the Securities and Exchange Commission, with respect to its sale of natural gas to purchasers which transport and sell the gas in interstate commerce, that "Although such sales and the transportation of natural gas antecedent thereto constitute operations by the Company as a 'natural gas company' under the Natural Gas Act, and, as such, are subject to the Federal Power Commission's jurisdiction, unless the exercise of such jurisdiction constitutes an interference with state regulation of production and gathering, the Commission with Commissioner Draper dissenting in a declaration made on the 15th day of August 1947, disclaimed the intention to exercise jurisdiction over such sales if made at arm's length, that is, sales made as an incident to the producing or gathering operation by a producer or gatherer of gas to a nonaffiliate (Order No. 139, Docket No. R-106)";

(f) By reason of its operations, facilities, and sales of natural gas to purchasers which transport and resell such gas in interstate commerce for ultimate public consumption, respondent may be a natural-gas company subject to the jurisdiction of the Commission;

The Commission finds that: It is necessary and proper, in the public interest, that an investigation be instituted by the Commission, upon its own motion:

(1) To determine whether respondent is a natural-gas company within the meaning of the Natural Gas Act; and

(2) Into and concerning all rates, charges, or classifications demanded, observed, charged or collected by respondent in connection with any transportation or sale of natural gas, subject to the jurisdiction of the Commission, and any rules, regulations, practices, or contracts affecting such rates, charges, or classifications;

The Commission, upon its own motion, orders that: An investigation of respondent, Phillips Petroleum Company, be and hereby is instituted for the purpose of enabling the Commission:

(A) To determine with respect to the respondent:

(i) Whether it is a natural-gas company within the meaning of the Natural Gas Act; and

(ii) Whether, in connection with any transportation or sale of natural gas, subject to the jurisdiction of the Commission, any rates, charges, or classifications demanded, observed, charged, or collected, or any rules, regulations, practices or contracts affecting such rates, charges, or classifications are unjust, unreasonable, unduly discriminatory, or preferential; and

(B) If it shall find, after hearing, that the respondent is a natural-gas company within the meaning of the Natural Gas Act, and that any of respondent's rates, charges, classifications, rules, regulations, practices, or contracts, subject to the jurisdiction of the Commission, are unjust, unreasonable, unduly discriminatory, or preferential, to determine and fix by order or orders just and reasonable, nondiscriminatory or nonpreferential rates, charges, classifications, rules, regulations, practices, or contracts to be thereafter observed and in force.

Date of issuance: October 29, 1948.

By the Commission.

Secretary.

[Project No. 346]

MINNESOTA POWER & LIGHT CO.

ORDER GRANTING IN PART AND DENYING IN PART APPLICATION FOR REHEARING, FIXING DATE FOR REHEARING, AND STAYING PRIOR ORDER

OCTOBER 28, 1948.

On October 4, 1948, Minnesota Power & Light Company (Licensee) filed an application for rehearing with respect to certain dispositions made in the Commission's opinion and order issued on September 2, 1948, determining the actual legitimate original cost of Project No. 346 and prescribing the accounting therefor.

Except as to two amounts, i. e., $201,883.64,[1] claimed as part of the cost of the so-called de Buys land and disallowed in the opinion and order under Item No. 6, and $41,539.69, comprising Item No. 9 and representing costs incurred in reinforcing the piers of the Minneapolis, St. Paul and Sault Ste. Marie Railway bridge, no new issues of fact or law have been presented or alleged in said application for rehearing which would justify a reversal or revision of the dispositions made in said opinion and order.

[1] Rehearing is granted on $201,883.64 of the $204,122.85 disallowed under Item No. 6. The difference of $2,239.21, on which rehearing is denied, was conceded by Licensee's counsel to be an improper project cost, being made up almost entirely of an interest claim in addition to the allowance made under Item No. 3 for interest during construction.

The objections to March 1, 1925, as the date on which commercial operation of the project began, rather than July 1, 1925, are clearly negatived by the substantial project generation[2] during the intervening four-month period. Furthermore, the objections, for the most part, have been considered and disposed of in the opinion issued on September 2, 1948. The additional objection that certain construction activities continued after March 1, 1925, is insufficient to warrant reconsideration of the date on which the project began commercial operation, for as pointed out "In the Matter of Chelan Electric Company, Licensee," 1 F. P. C. 102, 106, "expenditures for construction activities may be proper charges to capital accounts after the beginning of operation, but interest upon such expenditures must of necessity cease when the facilities become available for operation."

The contention that the Commission should allow an amount of $170,349.87 not previously claimed is without merit since it represents an alleged cost not to the original licensee, the Pike Rapids Power Company (Pike Rapids), but to American Power & Light Company (American) in acquiring the stock of Pike Rapids. An allowance of $181,235.93 has been made under Item No. 1 of the opinion and order as representing the cost of the project lands, etc., to Pike Rapids as of December 29, 1923, as of which date American is alleged to have invested $351,585.80, or $170,349.87 in excess of our allowance, in acquiring the stock of Pike Rapids. What American paid for the stock of Pike Rapids is immaterial in determining the actual legitimate original cost of this project. The license was issued to and the project was constructed by Pike Rapids, and only the cost incurred by it in connection therewith may be allowed ("Alabama Power Co. v. Federal Power Commission," 134 F. 2d 602, 606; "Northwestern Electric Company v. Federal Power Commission," 321 U. S. 119; Cf. "Niagara Falls Power Co. v. Federal Power Commission," 137 F. 2d 787, 794). In disposing of the issue in the "Alabama Power Company" case the Court stated:

> The dam site was acquired by Alabama from Interstate in connection with the assignment of the latter's license, the two companies having originally been strangers. What Alabama Power Company paid Interstate is not the point, for the project had already been undertaken by Interstate and defined by the license to Interstate. Interstate was the licensee. The assignment of the license to Alabama Power Company operated to place Alabama in the shoes of Interstate, to complete the project under the license in accordance with its terms. The price that Interstate had paid for the dam site and other land interests, as well as the construction costs expended by it go into the original cost account, but the price Alabama may have paid Interstate for them is immaterial, as the Commission rightly held (p. 606).

In the case at bar, it should be noted that the license was never assigned to American.

The objection in the application for rehearing that the Commission erred in failing to make clear in its order that its determination is without prejudice to the rights of the Licensee, when the occasion for their exercise may arise, to a judicial determination of net investment in accordance with the provisions of section 14 of the Federal Water Power Act of June 10, 1920, unaffected by the amendment thereof by the Public Utility Act of 1935, was also raised and rejected in ("Pennsylvania Power & Light Company v. Federal Power Commission," 139 F. 2d 445, 453, cert. den. 321 U. S. 798) where it was held that a licensee has no "vested right to have its investment determined by one procedure rather than by another at least so long as it was accorded a right to be heard and an ultimate judicial review. Accordingly the change of procedure which the 1935 amendment brought about did not, as applied to the present proceeding, violate the Fifth Amendment." For the same reasons, the objection is here rejected.

Because we are granting rehearing on two items of claimed cost, it is desirable to stay paragraphs (A), (B), (C) and (E) of the Commission's order of September 2, 1948, as hereinafter provided in paragraph (C), for if there is a court review, this stay will have the effect of permitting one review proceeding to be initiated as to any or all aspects of the Commission's order on which rehearing has been requested.

Wherefore, the Commission orders that:

(A) A rehearing on the amounts of $201,883.64 and $41,539.69 be and the same is hereby granted, such rehearing to begin at 10 a. m. on the 17th day of January, 1949, in the hearing room of the Commission, Hurley-Wright Building, 1800 Pennsylvania Avenue, N. W., Washington, D. C.

(B) The Licensee's application for rehearing as to all matters other than those on which a rehearing is granted in paragraph (A) above be and the same is hereby denied.

(C) Paragraphs (A), (B), (C) and (E) of the Commission's order of September 2, 1948, be and they hereby are stayed until further order of the Commission.

Date of issuance: October 29, 1948.

By the Commission.

[S. O. 836]

UNLOADING OF COAL AT CLARKSBURG, W. VA.

At a session of the Interstate Commerce Commission, Division 3, held at its office in Washington, D. C., on the 29th day of October A. D. 1948.

It appearing, that 4 cars of bituminous coal at Clarksburg, W. Va., are on hand on the Baltimore and Ohio Railroad Company, for an unreasonable length of time and that this delay in unloading such cars impedes their use; in the opinion of the Commission an emergency exists requiring immediate action: It is ordered, that:

(a) Bituminous coal at Clarksburg, W. Va., be unloaded. The Baltimore and Ohio Railroad Company, its agents or employees, shall unload immediately B & O 225016, B & O 420071, B & O 726323 and B & O 321561, loaded with coal now on hand at Clarksburg, W. Va., by the Flemington Coal Company.

(b) Demurrage. No common carrier by railroad subject to the Interstate Commerce Act shall charge or demand or collect or receive any demurrage or storage charges for the detention under load of any car specified in paragraph (a) of this order, for the detention period commencing at 7:00 a. m., November 1, 1948, and continuing until the actual unloading of said car or cars is completed.

(c) Provisions suspended. The operation of any or all rules, regulations, or practices, insofar as they conflict with the provisions of this order, is hereby suspended.

(d) Notice and expiration. Said carrier shall notify the Director, Bureau of Service, Interstate Commerce Commission, Washington, D. C., when it has completed the unloading required by paragraph (a) hereof, and such notice shall specify when, where, and by whom such unloading was performed. Upon receipt of that notice this order shall expire.

It is further ordered, that this order shall become effective immediately; that a copy of this order and direction be served upon the Association of American Railroads, Car Service Division, as agent of the railroads subscribing to the car service and per diem agreement under the terms of that agreement; and that notice of this order be given to the general public by depositing a copy in the office of the Secretary of the Commission, at Washington, D. C., and by filing it with the Director, Division of the Federal Register.

ENGINEERS PUBLIC SERVICE CO.

ORDER GRANTING APPLICATION TO STRIKE FROM LISTING AND REGISTRATION

At a regular session of the Securities and Exchange Commission, held at its office in the city of Washington, D. C., on the 29th day of October A. D. 1948.

The New York Stock Exchange, pursuant to section 12 (d) of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934 and Rule X-12D2-1 (b) promulgated thereunder, has made application to strike from listing and registration the Common Stock, $1.00 Par Value, of Engineers Public Service Company.

The reasons for striking this security from registration and listing on this exchange that are stated in the application are: (1) Engineers Public Service Company (hereinafter called the issuer) was dissolved on June 30, 1947; (2) distribution of the assets of the issuer to its preferred and common stockholders was made on July 21, 1947, with the exception of $350,000 in cash, 162,612 shares of common stock of Virginia Electric and Power Company, and a claim upon $4,000,000 deposited in escrow for preferred shareholders' claims now in the process of litigation; (3) the security which is the subject of this application was suspended from trading on the applicant exchange as of July 22, 1947; (4) the issuer terminated the appointment of the transfer agent and registrar for this security in the City of New York.

Appropriate notice and opportunity for hearing have been given to interested persons and the public generally. No request has been received from any interested person for a hearing in this matter. The rules of the New York Stock Exchange with respect to striking a security from registration and listing have been complied with.

The Commission having considered the facts stated in the application, and having due regard for the public interest and the protection of investors;

It is ordered, That the application of the New York Stock Exchange to strike the Common Stock, $1.00 Par Value, of Engineers Public Service Company from registration and listing be, and the same is, hereby granted, effective at the close of the trading session on November 10, 1948.

ALASKA PACKERS ASSN.

ORDER GRANTING APPLICATION TO WITHDRAW FROM LISTING AND REGISTRATION

At a regular session of the Securities and Exchange Commission, held at its office in the city of Washington, D. C., on the 29th day of October A. D. 1948.

Alaska Packers Association, pursuant to section 12 (d) of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934 and Rule X-12D2-1 (b) promulgated thereunder, has made application to withdraw its $100 Par Value Common Stock from listing and registration on the San Francisco Stock Exchange.

The reasons for withdrawing this security from registration and listing on this exchange that are stated in the application are: (1) Of the 57,508 outstanding shares of applicant's common stock, 48,763 are owned by California Packing Corporation, 149 shares are owned by executives of applicant, and there are a very small number of shares outstanding in the hands of the public; (2) there is very little trading in shares of applicant's stock, as the only transactions in this security on the San Francisco Stock Exchange from October 1947 to March 1948 were purchases by applicant of shares now held in its treasury, all such purchases aggregating 330 shares during such period; (3) the expenses of maintaining registration and listing of this security on the San Francisco Stock Exchange are disproportionate, in view of the small number of shares traded on the Exchange, to the advantages accruing to applicant and its stockholders from listing and registration of this security.

Appropriate notice and opportunity for hearing have been given to interested persons and the public generally. No request has been received from any interested person for a hearing in this matter. The rules of the San Francisco Stock Exchange with respect to withdrawal of a security from registration and listing have been complied with.

The Commission having considered the facts stated in the application, and having due regard for the public interest and the protection of investors;

It is ordered, That said application be, and the same is, hereby granted, effective at the close of the trading session on December 15, 1948.

IRON FIREMAN MFG. CO.

ORDER DETERMINING VALUE OF STOCK

At a regular session of the Securities and Exchange Commission, held at its office in the city of Washington, D. C., on the 29th day of October A. D. 1948.

The New York Curb Exchange has made application under Rule X-12F-2 (b) for a determination that the Voting Trust Certificates for Common Capital Stock, Without Par Value, of Iron Fireman Manufacturing Company issued under Voting Trust Agreement dated November 15, 1928, as extended until December 1, 1958, are substantially equivalent to the Voting Trust Certificates for Common Capital Stock, Without Par Value, of Iron Fireman Manufacturing Company issued under Voting Trust Agreement dated November 15, 1928, expiring December 1, 1948. The latter Voting Trust Certificates have heretofore been admitted to unlisted trading privileges on the applicant exchange.

The Commission having duly considered the matter, and having due regard for the public interest and the protection of investors;

It is ordered, Pursuant to sections 12 (f) and 23 (a) of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934 and Rule X-12F-2(b) thereunder, that the Voting Trust Certificates for Common Capital Stock, Without Par Value, of Iron Fireman Manufacturing Company issued under Voting Trust Agreement dated November 15, 1928, as extended to December 1, 1958, are substantially equivalent to the Voting Trust Certificates for Common Capital Stock, Without Par Value, of Iron Fireman Manufacturing Company, issued under Voting Trust Agreement dated November 15, 1928 (as amended) expiring December 1, 1948, which latter Voting Trust Certificates have heretofore been admitted to unlisted trading privileges on the applicant exchange.

NEW JERSEY POWER & LIGHT CO.

ORDER RELEASING JURISDICTION OVER LEGAL FEES AND EXPENSES

At a regular session of the Securities and Exchange Commission, held at its office in the city of Washington, D. C., on the 28th day of October 1948.

The Commission having by orders dated June 28, 1948 and July 8, 1948, granted an application of New Jersey Power & Light Company ("New Jersey"), a public utility subsidiary of General Public Utilities Corporation, a registered holding company, relating principally to the issuance and sale by New Jersey, pursuant to the competitive bidding requirements of Rule U-50, of $6,000,000 principal amount of First Mortgage Bonds due 1978; and

The Commission in said orders having reserved jurisdiction over all legal fees and expenses to be paid by New Jersey in connection with the proposed transactions; and

The record having been supplemented with statements setting forth the amounts, nature and extent of the legal services rendered by Autenrieth & Wortendyke and Harold J. Ryan as attorneys for New Jersey, for which requests for payment in the amounts of $7,500 and $5,000 have been made, respectively; and

The Commission having considered the record and it appearing to the Commission that the above legal fees are not unreasonable and that jurisdiction over such fees should be released;

It is ordered, That the jurisdiction heretofore reserved over the payment of legal fees and expenses to be paid by New Jersey in connection with the proposed transactions be, and the same hereby is, released.

MICHIGAN-WISCONSIN PIPE LINE CO.

ORDER GRANTING APPLICATION

At a regular session of the Securities and Exchange Commission held at its office in the city of Washington, D. C., on the 27th day of October A. D. 1948.

Michigan-Wisconsin Pipe Line Company ("Michigan-Wisconsin"), a subsidiary of American Light & Traction Company ("American Light"), a registered holding company, having filed an application pursuant to section 6 (b) of the Public Utility Holding Company Act of 1935 ("act") for an exemption from the provisions of sections 6 (a) and 7 of said act, with respect to the issue and sale by Michigan-Wisconsin of $66,000,000 principal amount of 3⅝% First Mortgage Pipe Line Bonds due 1968 to Metropolitan Life Insurance Company and the Mutual Life Insurance Company of New York, to be issued under and secured by a Mortgage and Deed of Trust, and the application of the proceeds to finance in part the construction of an interstate natural gas transmission line in accordance with the provisions of a section 11 (e) plan heretofore approved by order of the Commission entered December 30, 1947; and said application having also requested an exemption from the competitive bidding requirements of Rule U-50 promulgated under said act; and

Motions having been filed by Otis & Co., an investment banking firm, moving summary dismissal of the application for exemption from the requirements of Rule U-50 and, in the alternative, moving that Michigan-Wisconsin be required to file a Registration Statement with respect to the issue and sale of the proposed bonds and to offer said bonds for sale pursuant to the competitive bidding requirements of Rule U-50; and certain common stockholders of American Light having filed a Motion to incorporate by reference into the record of these proceedings certain designated portions of the record of the proceedings on the heretofore mentioned plan of American Light and United Light and Railways Company; and

Otis & Co., having requested, in the event an order is entered approving the application, that the effectiveness of said order be delayed for a period of 48 hours to permit Otis & Co., to seek a stay of said order; and

Public hearings having been held after appropriate notice, in which all interested persons were given opportunity to be heard, and an oral argument having been heard and the Commission having considered the record and having made and filed its findings and opinion herein granting the application and denying the motions of Otis & Co., and of certain common stockholders of American Light and the Commission further deeming it appropriate to grant the request of Otis & Co., for a delay in the effectiveness of our order:

It is ordered, That said application be, and the same hereby is, granted subject, however, to the terms and conditions in Rule U-24 and to a reservation of jurisdiction with respect to fees and expenses in connection with said application.

It is further ordered, That the motions of Otis & Co., and certain stockholders of American Light be, and the same hereby are, denied.

It is further ordered, That the effectiveness of this order be delayed for a period of two business days from the date hereof and that such order shall be effective October 29, 1948 at 5:30 p. m., e. s. t.

AMERICAN GAS AND ELECTRIC CO. AND AMERICAN GAS AND ELECTRIC SERVICE CORP.

NOTICE OF FILING

At a regular session of the Securities and Exchange Commission, held at its office in the city of Washington, D. C., on the 29th day of October A. D. 1948.

Notice is hereby given that American Gas and Electric Company ("American Gas"), a registered holding company, and American Gas and Electric Service Corporation ("Service Corporation"), a wholly owned service company subsidiary of American Gas, have filed a joint application-declaration pursuant to the Public Utility Holding Company Act of 1935, and have designated sections 7 and 10 as applicable to the transactions proposed therein which may be summarized as follows:

For the stated purpose of supplying Service Corporation with adequate capital for its operations it is proposed to finance Service Corporation by increasing its authorized capital stock from 1,000 shares of the par value of $100 per share, of which 100 shares are issued and outstanding and owned by American Gas, to 10,000 shares of the par value of $100 per share and by issuing 7,750 shares of said stock to American Gas against payment therefor of $200,000 in cash and the surrender and cancellation of $575,000 principal amount of open account indebtedness owed by Service Corporation to American Gas for cash in that amount heretofore advanced by American Gas to Service Corporation without interest.

The applicants-declarants request that the Commission issue an order at the earliest practicable date granting the application and permitting the declaration to become effective and that such order become effective upon issuance.

Notice is further given that any interested person may not later than November 12, 1948 at 11:30 a. m., e. s. t., request the Commission in writing that a hearing be held on such matter stating the nature of his interest, the reasons for such request and the issues, if any, of fact or law raised by said application-declaration which he desires to controvert, or may request that he be notified if the Commission should order a hearing thereon. Any such request should be addressed: Secretary, Securities and Exchange Commission, 425 Second Street NW., Washington 25, D. C. At any time after 11:30 a. m., e. s. t., November 12, 1948 said application-declaration as filed, or as amended, may be granted and permitted to become effective as provided in Rule U-23 of the rules and regulations promulgated under said act, or the Commission may exempt such transactions as provided in Rule U-20 (a) and Rule U-100 thereof. All interested persons are referred to said application-declaration which is on file with this Commission for a statement of the transactions therein proposed.

FRED D. ELLIS AND EDMUND J. HAUGH

NOTICE OF FILING

At a regular session of the Securities and Exchange Commission, held at its office in the city of Washington, D. C., on the 29th day of October A. D. 1948.

Notice is hereby given that Fred D. Ellis and Edmund J. Haugh, ("Applicants"), have filed an application pursuant to the Public Utility Holding Company Act of 1935. Sections 9 (a) (2) and 10 of the act are designated as applicable to the proposed transaction.

Notice is further given that any interested person may, not later than November 8, 1948, at 5:30 p. m., e. s. t., request in writing that a hearing be held with respect to said application, stating the nature of his interest, the reasons for such request and the issues of fact or law raised by the application which he desires to controvert, or may request in writing that he be notified if the Commission should order a hearing thereon. Any such request should be addressed: Secretary, Securities and Exchange Commission, 425 Second Street NW., Washington 25, D. C. At any time after said date, the application, as filed or as amended, may be granted as provided in Rule U-23 of the rules and regulations promulgated under the act, or the Commission may exempt such transactions as provided in Rule U-20 (a) and Rule U-100 thereof.

All interested persons are referred to said application which is on file in the office of the Commission for a statement of the proposed transaction which may be summarized as follows:

Applicants own all of the outstanding capital stock and $122,500 principal amount of open account indebtedness of Northwestern Illinois Gas & Electric Company ("Northwestern"), an exempt holding company which owns all of the outstanding capital stock and $50,000 principal amount of 4% note indebtedness of Illinois Gas & Electric Company ("Illinois"). Both companies are public utility companies organized in and operating within the State of Illinois. The capital stock of Illinois consists of 2,500 shares of common stock of no par value with an aggregate book value of $75,000, which amount also represents the carrying value of such stock on the books of Northwestern. The $50,000 note of Illinois is carried at par on Northwestern's books.

Applicants propose to acquire from Northwestern all of its interest in Illinois, surrendering in exchange therefor $100,000 principal amount of open account indebtedness owed by Northwestern to Applicants, and all of Northwestern's outstanding 5% cumulative preferred stock, consisting of 1,000 shares with an aggregate par value of $100,000. The application recites that Northwestern plans to credit its capital stock account in the amount of $75,000, representing the amount by which the principal and par amount of Northwestern preferred stock and indebtedness being surrendered by Applicants (aggregating $200,000) exceeds the carrying value on the books of Northwestern of the securities of Illinois being conveyed (aggregating $125,000).

Applicants request the Commission's order to be issued as soon as practicable and become effective immediately upon issuance thereof.

By the Commission.

(b) In all counties where insurance is provided on more than one type of tobacco a producer must insure all of the types specified in which he has an insurable interest, except that in Graves and Simpson Counties, Kentucky, Montgomery County, Tennessee, and Appomattox County, Virginia, a producer may insure any one or more of the types specified. In any county where both the yield-quality and the investment plans of insurance are provided a producer may insure his interest under only one plan.

(c) Insurance will not be provided with respect to applications for tobacco insurance filed in a county in accordance with this subpart unless such written applications, together with tobacco crop insurance contracts in force for the ensuing crop year, cover at least 200 farms in the county or one-third of the farms normally producing tobacco. For this purpose an insurance unit shall be counted as one farm.

§ 417.2 Coverages per acre. The Corporation shall establish coverages per acre which shall not be in excess of the maximum limitations prescribed in the Federal Crop Insurance Act. Coverages so established shall be shown on the county actuarial table and shall be on file in the county office and may be revised from year to year as the Corporation may elect.

§ 417.4 Application for insurance. Application for insurance, on a form entitled, "Application for Tobacco Crop Insurance", may be made by any person to cover his interest as landlord, owner-operator, tenant, or sharecropper in a tobacco crop. For any crop year applications shall be submitted to the county office on or before the following applicable closing date preceding such crop year.

§ 417.5 The contract. Upon acceptance of an application for insurance by a duly authorized representative of the Corporation, the contract shall be in effect and will consist of the application and the policy issued by the Corporation. The provisions of the policy are shown in § 417.14.

§ 417.6 Person to whom indemnity shall be paid. (a) Any indemnity payable under a contract shall be paid to the insured or such other person as may be entitled to the benefits of the contract under the provisions of this subpart, notwithstanding any attachment, garnishment, receivership, trustee process, judgment, levy, equity, or bankruptcy directed against the insured or such other person, or against any indemnity alleged to be due to such person; nor shall the Corporation or any officer, employee, or representative thereof, be a proper party to any suit or action with reference to such indemnity, nor be bound by any judgment, order, or decree rendered, or entered therein. No officer, agent, or employee of the Corporation shall, because of any such process, order, or decree, pay or cause to be paid to any person other than the insured or other person entitled to the benefits of the contract, any indemnity payable in accordance with the provisions of the contract. Nothing herein contained shall excuse any person entitled to the benefits of the contract from full compliance with, or performance of, any lawful judgment, order, or decree with respect to the disposition of any sums paid thereunder as an indemnity.

(b) The determination of the Corporation as to the existence or nonexistence of a circumstance in the event of which indemnity payment may be made and of the person(s) to whom such payment will be made shall be final and conclusive and payment of an indemnity to such person(s) shall constitute a complete discharge of the Corporation's obligation with respect to the loss for which such indemnity is paid and settled and shall be a bar to recovery by any other person.

§ 417.7 Public notice of indemnities paid. The Corporation shall provide for the posting annually in each county at the county courthouse of a list of indemnities paid for losses on farms in such county.

§ 417.8 Death, incompetence, or disappearance of insured. (a) If the insured dies, is judicially declared incompetent, or disappears after planting the tobacco crop in any year but before the time of loss or the time of harvest is commenced, whichever occurs first, and his insured interest in the tobacco crop is a part of his estate at such time, or if the insured dies, is judicially declared incompetent, or disappears subsequent to such time, the indemnity, if any, shall be paid to the legal representative of his estate, if one is appointed or is duly qualified. If no such representative is or will be so qualified, the indemnity shall be paid to the persons beneficially entitled to share in the insured's interest in the crop or to any one or more of such persons on behalf of all such persons: Provided, however, That, if the amount of the indemnity exceeds $500, the Corporation may withhold the payment of the indemnity until a legal representative of the insured's estate is duly qualified to receive such payment.

(b) If the insured dies, is judicially declared incompetent, or disappears after planting the tobacco crop in any year but before the time of loss or the time harvest is commenced, whichever occurs first, and his interest in the crop is not a part of his estate at such time, the indemnity, if any, shall be paid to the person(s) who succeeded to his interest in the crop in the manner provided for in section 19 of the policy.

(c) If an applicant for insurance or the insured, as the case may be, dies or is judicially declared incompetent less than fifteen days before the applicable calendar closing date for the filing of applications for insurance in any year and before the beginning of planting of the tobacco crop intended to be covered by insurance whoever succeeds him on the farm with the right to produce the tobacco crop as his heir or heirs, administrator, executor, guardian, committee, or conservator shall be substituted for the original applicant upon filing with the county office, within fifteen days (unless such period is extended by the Corporation) after the date of such death or judicial declaration, or before the date of the beginning of planting, whichever is the earlier, a statement in writing, in the form and manner prescribed by the Corporation, requesting such substitution and agreeing to assume the obligations of the original applicant or the insured arising out of such application or the contract: Provided, however, That, any substitution made pursuant to this paragraph shall be effective only with respect to the tobacco crop to be planted in the ensuing crop year, and the contract shall terminate at the end of such year. If no such statement is filed, as required by this paragraph, the original application or contract shall terminate.

(d) In case of death of the insured after the planting of the tobacco crop is begun for any crop year, any additional acreage of tobacco which is planted for the insured's estate for that crop year shall be covered by the contract.

(e) Subject to the provisions of paragraph (c) of this section, the contract shall terminate upon death, judicial declaration of incompetence, or disappearance of the insured, except that if such death, judicial declaration of incompetence, or disappearance occurs after the planting of the tobacco crop in any crop year but before the end of the insurance period for such year, the contract shall terminate at the end of such insurance period.

(f) The insured shall be deemed to have disappeared within the meaning of this subpart if he fails to file with the county office written notice of his new mailing address within 180 calendar days after any communication by or on behalf of the Corporation is returned undeliverable at the last known address of the insured.

§ 417.9 Fiduciaries. Any indemnity payable under a contract entered into in the name of a fiduciary who is no longer acting in such capacity at the time for the payment of indemnity will be made to the succeeding fiduciary upon appropriate application and proof satisfactory to the Corporation of his incumbency. If there is no succeeding fiduciary, payment of the indemnity shall be made to the persons beneficially entitled under this subpart to the insured interest in the crop, to the extent of their respective interest, upon proper application and proof of the facts: Provided, however, That the settlement may be made with any one or more of the persons in behalf of all the persons so entitled, whether or not the person to whom payment is made has been authorized by the other interested persons to receive such payment.

§ 417.10 Assignment or transfer of claim for refunds of excess note payments not permitted. No claim for refund of an excess note payment or any part thereof, or any interest therein, shall be assignable or transferable, notwithstanding any assignment of the contract or any transfer of interest in any tobacco crop covered by the contract. Refund of any excess note payment will be made only to the person who made such payment except as provided in § 417.11.

§ 417.11 Refund of excess note payments in case of death, incompetence, or disappearance. In any case where a person who is entitled to a refund of an excess note payment has died, has been judicially declared incompetent, or has disappeared, the provisions of § 417.8 with reference to the payment of indemnities in any such case shall be applicable.

§ 417.13 Rounding of fractional units. Amounts of insurance, premiums, and the value of production shall be rounded to the nearest cent. Fractions of acres shall be rounded to hundredths of acres. Computations shall be carried one digit beyond the digit that is to be rounded. If the last digit is 1, 2, 3, or 4, the rounding shall be downward. If the last digit is 5, 6, 7, 8, or 9, the rounding shall be upward.

§ 417.14 The policy. The provisions of the policy are as follows:

In consideration of the representations and provisions in the application upon which this policy is issued, which application is made a part of the contract, and subject to the terms and conditions set forth or referred to herein, the Federal Crop Insurance Corporation (hereinafter designated as the Corporation) does hereby insure

---------- ---------- ----------

(Address) (County) (State)

(hereinafter designated as the insured) against loss of his tobacco crop while in the field, due to unavoidable causes including drought, flood, hail, wind, frost, freeze, lightning, excessive rain, snow, wildlife, hurricane, tornado, insect infestation, plant disease and such other unavoidable causes as may be determined by the Board of Directors of the Corporation. In witness whereof, the Federal Crop Insurance Corporation has caused this policy to be issued this ---------- day of ----------, 19---.

FEDERAL CROP INSURANCE CORPORATION

By---------- (State Crop Insurance Director)

TERMS AND CONDITIONS

1. Insurable acreage. For each crop year of the contract, any acreage is insurable only if a coverage is shown therefor on the county actuarial table (including maps and related forms) for that crop year.

2. Responsibility of insured to report acreage and interest. (a) Promptly after planting the tobacco crop each year, the insured shall submit to the Corporation, on a form entitled "Tobacco Crop Insurance Acreage Report", a report over his signature of all acreage in the county planted to each insured type of tobacco in which he has an interest at the time of planting. This report shall show the acreage of tobacco for each insurance unit and his interest in each at the time of planting. If the insured does not have an insurable interest in tobacco planted in any year, the acreage report shall nevertheless be submitted promptly after the planting of tobacco is generally completed in the county. Any acreage report submitted by the insured shall be considered final and not subject to change by the insured.

(b) The Corporation may elect to determine that the insured acreage for any insured type of tobacco is "zero" if the insured fails to file an acreage report within 30 days after planting of tobacco is generally completed in the county, as determined by the Corporation.

(c) Failure of the county office to request submission of such report or to send a personal representative to obtain the report shall not relieve the insured of the responsibility to make such report.

3. Insured acreage. In any year the insured acreage with respect to each insurance unit shall be the acreage of tobacco planted as reported by the insured or as determined by the Corporation, whichever the Corporation shall elect, except that insurance shall not attach with respect to (a) any acreage planted to tobacco which is destroyed or substantially destroyed (as defined in Section 13) and on which it is practical to replant to tobacco, as determined by the Corporation, and such acreage is not replanted to tobacco, (b) any acreage initially planted to tobacco too late to expect a normal crop to be produced, as determined by the Corporation, and (c) any acreage which is destroyed for the purpose of conforming with any other program administered by the United States Department of Agriculture. Also, if the acreage of any type of tobacco on a farm exceeds the applicable tobacco acreage allotment, if any, established for that type of tobacco on the farm under the Agricultural Adjustment Act of 1938, as amended, the Corporation may elect to determine that the maximum insured acreage for that type of tobacco for each insurance unit on the farm shall be the same proportion of the planted acreage on that unit that the allotment for the farm is of the total planted acreage on the farm.

4. Insured interest. The insured interest in the tobacco crop covered by the contract shall be the interest of the insured at the time of planting as reported by the insured or as determined by the Corporation, whichever the Corporation shall elect. For the purpose of determining the amount of loss the insured interest shall not exceed the insured's actual interest at the time of loss or the beginning of harvest whichever occurs first.

5. Coverage per acre. (a) The coverage per acre for yield-quality insurance shall be the product of the market price (as determined by the Corporation in accordance with Section 23) and the applicable number of pounds of tobacco shown on the approved county actuarial table for (1) the area in which the insured acreage is located or (2) the coverage group assigned to the person who owns the land at the time of planting the tobacco crop. (For this purpose, land rented for cash or a fixed commodity rent shall be considered as owned by the lessee.) The coverage per acre for investment insurance shall be the applicable number of dollars shown on the approved county actuarial table for the area in which the insured acreage is located.

(b) The coverage per acre for both yield-quality insurance and investment insurance is progressive depending upon (1) whether the acreage is harvested or unharvested in the case of types 41, 51, 52, 54, and 55, or (2) whether harvest has begun on the insurance unit or the acreage is destroyed or substantially destroyed before the beginning of harvest in the case of types 11, 12, 13, 14, 21, 22, 23, 51, and 35.

6. Insurance period. Insurance with respect to any insured acreage shall attach at the time the tobacco is planted. Insurance shall cease with respect to any portion of the tobacco crop covered by the contract upon removal from the field or upon being housed, but in no event shall the insurance remain in effect later than the following applicable date of each year, unless such time is extended in writing by the Corporation.

7. Life of contract, cancelation thereof. (a) Subject to the provisions of paragraph (d) of this section, the contract shall be in effect for the 1949 crop year and shall continue in effect for each succeeding crop year until either party gives to the other party, on or before the cancelation date of any year, written notice of cancelation effective beginning with the next succeeding crop year after the cancelation date. Any notice of cancelation given by the insured to the Corporation shall be submitted in writing to the county office.

(b) If the insured cancels the contract, he shall not be eligible for crop insurance on tobacco planted in the next succeeding crop year in the county unless he subsequently files an application for insurance on or before the cancelation date preceding such year.

(c) If for two consecutive crop years no tobacco in which the insured has an insurable interest is planted in the county, the contract shall terminate.

(d) If the minimum participation requirement as established by the Corporation is not met for any year the contract shall continue in force only to the end of the crop year for which such requirement is not met, except that if the minimum participation requirement is met on or before the next succeeding applicable closing date the contract shall continue to be in force.

8. Changes in contract. The Corporation reserves the right to change the premium rate(s), insurance coverage(s), and other terms and provisions of the contract from year to year. Notice of such changes shall be mailed to the insured at least 15 days prior to the applicable cancelation date shown herein. Failure of the insured to cancel the contract as provided in Section 7, shall constitute his acceptance of any such changes. If no notice is mailed to the insured, the terms and provisions of the contract for the prior year shall continue in force.

9. Causes of loss not insured against. The contract shall not cover loss caused by: (a) Failure to follow recognized good farming practices; (b) poor farming practices, including but not limited to the use of unadapted varieties, failure properly to prepare the land for planting, or properly to plant, care for or harvest (including unreasonable delay thereof) the insured crop; (c) following different fertilizer or farming practices than those considered in establishing the coverage; (d) planting tobacco on land which is generally considered incapable of producing a tobacco crop comparable to that produced on the acreage considered in establishing the coverage; (e) planting tobacco under conditions of immediate hazard; (f) inability to obtain labor, fertilizer, machinery, repairs or insect poison; (g) breakdown of machinery or failure of equipment due to mechanical defect; (h) neglect or malfeasance of the insured or of any person in his household or employment or connected with the farm as tenant, sharecropper, or wage hand; (i) domestic animals; (j) action of any person, or state, county, or municipal government in the use of chemicals for the control of noxious weeds; or (k) theft.

10. Amount of annual premium. The premium rate per acre for any acreage will be the amount shown on the county actuarial table for the area in which the acreage is located. The annual premium for each insurance unit under the contract shall be based upon (a) the insured acreage of tobacco for the insurance unit, (b) the premium rate, and (c) the insured interest in the crop at the time of planting. The annual premium for the contract shall be the total of the premium computed for the insured for all insurance units covered by the contract. The premium with respect to any insured acreage shall be regarded as earned when the tobacco crop on such acreage is planted.

(b) Any premium note not paid at maturity shall bear interest computed not on a per annum basis but as follows: Three percent on the principal amount not paid on or before (1) December 31 following the maturity date for all counties for which the note maturity date is on or before September 30 of the year in which the premium is earned, or (2) June 30 following the maturity date for all other counties, and an additional three percent on the principal amount owing at the end of each six-month period thereafter.

(c) Payment of any annual premium shall be made by means of cash or by check, money order, postal note, or bank draft payable to the order of the Treasurer of the United States. All checks and drafts will be accepted subject to collection, and payments tendered shall not be regarded as paid unless collection is made.

(d) Any unpaid amount of any annual premium plus any interest due may be deducted (either before or after the date of maturity) from any indemnity payable by the Corporation, from the proceeds of any commodity loan to the insured, and from any payment made to the insured under the Soil Conservation and Domestic Allotment Act, as amended, or any other act of Congress or program administered by the United States Department of Agriculture. There shall be no refund of any annual premium overpayment of less than $1.00 unless written request for such refund is received by the Corporation within one year after the payment thereof.

12. Notice of loss or damage. (a) Unless otherwise provided by the Corporation if a loss under the contract is probable, notice in writing shall be given the Corporation at the county office, immediately after any material damage to the insured crop.

(b) In counties where tobacco is not sold through auction warehouses, if after curing the tobacco it appears that a loss under the contract was sustained, notice in writing (unless otherwise provided by the Corporation) shall be given immediately to the Corporation at the county office to allow the Corporation a reasonable time to make an appropriate inspection before the crop is either (1) sold or otherwise disposed of or (2) contracted to be sold or otherwise disposed of.

(c) In any case, if, at the completion of selling or otherwise disposing of the insured tobacco crop, a loss under the contract has been sustained, notice in writing (unless otherwise provided by the Corporation) shall be given immediately to the Corporation at the county office.

(d) The notices required by paragraphs (b) and (c) are in addition to any notice required by paragraph (a) of this section. If notice is not given as required by this section, the Corporation reserves the right to reject any claim for indemnity.

13. Released acreage. Any insured acreage on which the tobacco crop has been destroyed or substantially destroyed may be released by the Corporation to be put to another use. The tobacco crop shall be deemed to have been substantially destroyed if the Corporation determines that it has been so badly damaged that farmers generally in the area where the farm is located and on whose farms similar damage occurred would not further care for the crop or harvest any portion thereof. No insured acreage may be put to another use until the Corporation releases such acreage. On any acreage where the tobacco has been partially destroyed but not released by the Corporation, proper measures shall be taken to protect the crop from further damage. There shall be no abandonment of any crop or portion thereof to the Corporation.

14. Time of loss. Any loss shall be deemed to have occurred at the end of the insurance period as set forth in Section 6, unless the Corporation determines that the entire tobacco crop on the insurance unit was destroyed or substantially destroyed earlier, in which event the loss shall be deemed to have occurred on the date of such damage, as determined by the Corporation.

15. Proof of loss. If a loss is claimed, the insured shall submit to the Corporation a form entitled "Statement in Proof of Loss", containing such information regarding the manner and extent of the loss as may be required by the Corporation. The statement in proof of loss shall be submitted promptly after the amount of loss can be determined, but for any year not later than the applicable date specified below following the normal time of harvest of the crop unless the time for submitting the claim is extended in writing by the Corporation.

It shall be a condition precedent to any liability under the contract that the insured establish the amount of any loss for which claim is made, and that such loss has been directly caused by one or more of the hazards insured against by the contract during the insurance period for the crop year for which the loss is claimed, and that the insured further establish that the loss has not arisen from or been caused by, either directly or indirectly, any of the causes of loss not insured against by the contract. If a loss is claimed, any tobacco acreage which is not to be harvested shall be left intact until the Corporation makes an inspection.

16. Insurance unit. The amount of loss shall be determined separately for each insurance unit except as provided in Section 17 (c). An insurance unit consists of all insurable acreage, considered for crop insurance purposes to be located in the county, of an insurable type of tobacco in which one person has the entire interest or in which two or more persons have the entire interest, excluding any other acreage of tobacco in the county in which such persons together do not have the entire interest.

17. Amount of loss. (a) The amount of loss with respect to any insurance unit shall be determined by multiplying the planted acreage (exclusive of any acreage to which insurance did not attach) by the applicable coverage per acre and substracting therefrom the value of the total production for the planted acreage and multiplying the remainder by the insured interest. However, if the planted acreage on the insurance unit exceeds the insured acreage on the insurance unit, the amount of loss so determined shall be reduced on the basis of the ratio of the insured acreage to the planted acreage, or if the premium computed for the insured acreage is less than the premium computed for the planted acreage, the amount of loss determined for the planted acreage may be reduced on the basis of the ratio of the premium computed for the insured acreage to the premium computed for the planted acreage, if the Corporation so elects. The value of the total production for an insurance unit shall include: (1) the gross returns (less warehouse charges) from the tobacco harvested from the insurance unit and sold on the warehouse floor, (2) the fair market value, as determined by the Corporation, of the tobacco harvested from the insurance unit and not sold on the warehouse floor, (3) the appraised cash value, as determined by the Corporation, of the unharvested tobacco on the insurance unit, (4) the appraised cash value, as determined by the Corporation, of the tobacco on any portion of the insured tobacco acreage on the insurance unit that is put to another use without the consent of the Corporation, but the amount shall not be less than the total coverage applicable to such acreage on a harvested acreage basis, and (5) the appraised cash value, as determined by the Corporation, of any loss in production due to any cause(s) not insured against.

(b) In determining the fair market value of tobacco not sold through auction warehouses, the Corporation reserves the right to inspect such tobacco pursuant to section 12 (b) before it is sold or contracted to be sold or otherwise disposed of by the insured, and, if the best offer received by the insured for any such tobacco is considered by the Corporation to be inadequate, to obtain additional offers therefor on behalf of the insured. If the best offer obtained for any tobacco is not satisfactory to the Corporation and the Corporation so elects, the insured shall (1) release all right, title, and interest in each tobacco to the Corporation, whereupon the value of such tobacco so released to the Corporation shall not be considered in determining any indemnity due under the contract, and (2) properly store and protect such tobacco from unreasonable damage (until not later than the end of the marketing season) on the farm or elsewhere at no cost to the Corporation.

(c) If the production from two or more insurance units is commingled and the insured fails to establish and maintain records satisfactory to the Corporation of acreage or the production from each, the insurance with respect to such units may be voided by the Corporation for the crop year and the premium forfeited by the insured. However, if all the component parts are insured the total coverage for the component parts may be considered as the total coverage for the combination, if the Corporation so elects, in which case any loss for such combination shall be determined as outlined in paragraph (a) of this section. Where the insured fails to establish and maintain separate records, satisfactory to the Corporation, of uninsured acreage and production therefrom and for one or more insurance units or portions thereof, any production from such acreage which is commingled with production from the insured acreage shall be considered to have been produced on the insured acreage, or the insurance with respect to such unit(s) under the contract may be voided by the Corporation for the crop year and the premium forfeited by the insured.

18. Payment of indemnity. (a) Indemnities shall be paid only by check. The amount of indemnity for which the Corporation may be liable will be payable within thirty days after satisfactory proof of loss is approved by the Corporation, but if payment is delayed for any reason, the Corporation shall not be liable for interest or damages on account of such delay.

(b) Indemnities shall be subject to all provisions of the contract, including the right of the Corporation to deduct from any indemnity the unpaid amount of any earned premium plus any interest due or any other obligation of the insured to the Corporation.

(c) Any indemnity payable under a contract shall be paid to the insured or such other person as may be entitled to the benefits under the provisions of the contract, notwithstanding any attachment, garnishment, receivership, trustee process, judgment, levy, equity, or bankruptcy, directed against the insured or such other person, or against any indemnity alleged to be due to such person; nor shall the Corporation or any officer, employee, or representative thereof, be a proper party to any suit or action with reference to such indemnity, nor be bound by any judgment, order, or decree rendered or entered therein. Nothing herein contained shall excuse any person entitled to the benefits of the contract from full compliance with, or performance of, any lawful judgment, order, or decree with respect to the disposition of any sums paid thereunder as an indemnity.

(d) If a check issued in payment of an indemnity is returned undeliverable at the last known address of the payee, and if such payee or other person entitled to the indemnity makes no claim for payment within two years after the issuance of the check, such claim shall not thereafter be payable, except with the consent of the Corporation.

19. Payment to transferee. (a) If the insured transfers all or a part of his insured interest in a tobacco crop before the beginning of harvest or the time of loss, whichever occurs first, he shall immediately notify the Corporation thereof in writing at the county office. The transferee under such a transfer will be entitled to the benefits of the contract with respect to the interest so transferred, provided the transferee immediately following the transfer makes suitable arrangements with the Corporation for the payment of any premium with respect to the interest so transferred, whereupon the transferee and the transferor shall be jointly and severally liable for the amount of such premium. Any transfer shall be subject to any collateral assignment made by the original insured in accordance with section 23. However, the Corporation shall not be liable for a greater amount of indemnity in connection with the insured crop than would have been paid if the transfer had not taken place.

(b) An involuntary transfer of an insured interest in a tobacco crop solely because of the existence of a debt, lien, mortgage, garnishment, levy, execution, bankruptcy, or other process shall not entitled any holder of any such interest to any benefits under the contract.

(c) Any deduction to be made from an indemnity payable to the transferee shall not exceed the annual premium, plus any interest due, on the land involved in the transfer for the crop year in which the transfer is made, plus the unpaid amount of any other obligation of the transferee to the Corporation.

(d) If, as a result of any transfer, diverse interests appear with respect to any insurance unit, any indemnity payable with respect to such unit may be paid jointly to all persons having the insured interest in the crop at the time harvest is commenced or the time of loss, whichever occurs first, or to one of such persons on behalf of all such persons, and payment in any such manner shall constitute a complete discharge of the Corporation's liability with respect to such unit under the contract.

20. Determination of person to whom indemnity shall be paid. In any case where the insured has transferred his interest in all or a portion of the tobacco crop on any insurance unit, or has ceased to act as fiduciary, or has died, has been judicially declared incompetent or has disappeared, payment in accordance with the provision of the contract will be made only after the facts have been established to the satisfaction of the Corporation. The determination of the Corporation as to the existence or nonexistence of a circumstance in the event of which payment may be made and of the person(s) to whom such payment will be made shall be final and conclusive. Payment of any indemnity under this section shall constitute a complete discharge of the Corporation's obligation with respect to the loss for which such indemnity is paid and settled and shall be a bar to recovery by any other person.

21. Other insurance. (a) If the insured has or acquires any other insurance against substantially all the risks that are insured against by the Corporation under the contract, regardless of whether such other insurance is valid or collectible, the liability of the Corporation shall not be greater than its share would be if the amount of its obligations were divided equally between the Corporation and such other insurer.

(b) In any case where an indemnity is paid to the insured by another Government agency because of damage to the tobacco crop, the Corporation reserves the right to determine its liability under the contract, taking into consideration the amount paid by such other agency.

22. Subrogation. The Corporation may require from the insured an assignment of all rights of recovery against any person(s) for loss or damage to the extent that payment therefor is made by the Corporation, and the insured shall execute all papers required and shall do everything that may be necessary to secure such rights.

23. Collateral assignment. The original insured may assign his right to an indemnity under the contract by executing a form entitled "Collateral Assignment" and upon approval thereof by the Corporation the interest of the assignee will be recognized, including the right of the assignee to submit a form entitled "Statement in Proof of Loss" if the insured refuses to submit or disappears without having submitted such statement.

24. Records and access to farm. For the purpose of enabling the Corporation to determine any loss that may have occurred under the contract, the insured shall keep or cause to be kept for one year after the time of loss, records of the harvesting, sale or other disposition of all tobacco produced on each insurance unit covered by the contract and on any uninsured acreage in the county in which he has an interest, and such records shall be made available for examination by the Corporation. As often as may be reasonably required, any person(s) designated by the Corporation shall have access to the farm(s) for purposes related to the contract.

25. Voidance of contract. The contract may be voided and the premium forfeited to the Corporation without the Corporation waiving any right or remedy, including its right to collect the amount of the note executed by the insured, whether before or after maturity, if (a) at any time the insured has concealed any material fact or made any false or fraudulent statements relating to the contract, the subject thereof, or his interest in the tobacco crop covered thereby, or (b) the insured shall neglect to use all reasonable means to produce, care for or save the tobacco crop covered thereby whether before or after damage has occurred, or (c) the insured fails to give any notice, or otherwise fails to comply with the terms of the contract, including the note, at the time and in the manner prescribed.

26. Modification of contract. No notice to any representative of the Corporation or knowledge possessed by any such representative or by any other person shall be held to effect a waiver of or change in any part of the contract or to estop the Corporation from asserting any right or power under such contract, nor shall the terms of such contract be waived or changed except as authorized in writing by a duly authorized officer or representative of the Corporation; nor shall any provisions or condition of the contract or any forfeiture be held to be waived by any delay or omission by the Corporation in exercising its rights and powers thereunder or by any requirement, act, or proceeding, on the part of the Corporation or of its representatives, relating to appraisal or to any examination herein provided for.

27. General. (a) In addition to the terms and provisions in the application and policy, the Tobacco Crop Insurance Regulations for Continuous Contracts Covering 1949 and Succeeding Crop Years (7 CFR, Part 417, § 417.1–417.14) shall govern with respect to (1) death, incompetence, or disappearance of the insured, (2) fiduciaries, (3) prohibition against assignment or transfer of claims for refunds, (4) rounding of fractional units, (5) creditors and (6) minimum participation requirements.

(b) Copies of the regulations and forms referred to in this policy are available at the county office.

28. Meaning of terms. For the purpose of the tobacco crop insurance program the term:

(a) "Contract" means the accepted application for insurance and this policy.

(b) "County Actuarial Table" means the form(s) and related material (including the crop insurance maps) approved by the Corporation for listing the coverages per acre and the premium rates per acre applicable in the county, and shall be on file in the county office.

(c) "County office" means the office of the county agricultural conservation association in the county or other office specified by the Corporation.

(d) "Crop year" means the period beginning with the day following the applicable closing date for the filing of applications for insurance for any year and within which the tobacco crop is planted and normally harvested and shall be designated by reference to the calendar year in which the crop is harvested.

(e) "Harvest" means any severance of the tobacco plant from the land, except that with respect to types 11, 12, 13, and 14, "harvest" means the first priming.

(f) "Market price" in the case of tobacco of types 11, 12, 13, 14, 21, 22, 23, 31, and 35 means the average auction price of the applicable type (less warehouse charges), as determined by the Corporation, during the first twenty-five market days of auction sales for the belt or area, adjusted where applicable for normal trend, except that a shorter period may be used if the Corporation determines that approximately 80 percent of the tobacco crop is sold in such period. In the case of tobacco of types 41, 51, 52, 54, and 55, the "market price" shall be that price determined by the Corporation.

(g) "Person" means an individual, partnership, association, corporation, estate, or trust, or other business enterprise or other legal entity and, wherever applicable, a State, a political subdivision of a State, or any agency thereof.

(h) "Planting" means transplanting the tobacco plant from the plant bed to the field.

(i) "Sharecropper" means a person who works a farm in whole or in part under the supervision of the operator and is entitled to receive a share of the tobacco crop thereon or of the proceeds therefrom.

(j) "State Director" means the representative of the Corporation responsible for the executive direction of the Federal crop insurance program in the State.

(k) "Tenant" means a person other than a sharecropper who rents land from another person for a share of the tobacco crop or proceeds therefrom produced on such land.

29. Date table. For each year of the contract the maturity date of the note and the contract cancellation date are as follows:

State and county [1]	Maturity date [2]	Cancellation date [3]
Connecticut	Oct. 31	Apr. 30.
Florida	July 31	Feb. 28.

Chapter IX—Production and Marketing Administration (Marketing Agreements and Orders)

EXEMPTION CERTIFICATES

The North Central Potato Committee established under Order No. 60 (7 F. R. 370), regulating the handling of Irish potatoes grown in the States of Michigan, Wisconsin, Minnesota, and North Dakota, is the agency authorized to administer the terms and provisions of said order. Among the provisions of said marketing order § 960.5 (d) requires said committee to adopt, prior to the institution of any limitation of shipments pursuant thereto, procedural rules pursuant to which certificates of exemption will be issued to producers, which procedural rules shall be subject to the approval of the Secretary. Said North Central Potato Committee, at a duly held meeting, adopted the following rules and regulations pursuant to said order, and recommended that they be approved.

§ 960.101 Definitions. Order means Order No. 60 (7 F. R. 370) regulating the handling of Irish potatoes grown in the States of Michigan, Wisconsin, Minnesota, and North Dakota. Terms defined in the order shall, when used herein, have the same meaning as set forth in Order No. 60.

§ 960.102 Exemption certificates—(a) Application. Any producer applying hereunder for exemption from grade, size, or quality regulation issued pursuant to § 960.5 of Order No. 60 shall make application for such exemption to the North Central Potato Committee on forms to be furnished by the committee. Such application shall state:

(1) The location of his farm;

(2) The number of acres of Irish potatoes on said farm and location thereon of the applicant's potato field or fields or storage;

(3) The total estimated production of potatoes by the applicant for the current season, stated in terms of varieties, hundredweights, grades, sizes, and quality, not including culls;

(4) An estimate of the percentage of such producer's crop which cannot be shipped because of grade, size, and quality regulation then in effect, stated in terms of varieties, hundredweights, grades, sizes, and quality, not including culls;

(5) A statement of the amount, if any, of potatoes, not including culls, which have already been sold from said farm, or by said applicant, during the current marketing season;

(6) Certification that the statement is true and correct;

(7) Signature and address of the producer.

(b) Federal-State Inspector's report. (1) Each application for exemption filed by a producer with the North Central Potato Committee shall be accompanied by a report of a Federal-State Inspector, which shall contain the following:

(i) A statement by the inspector that he personally visited the field or fields or storage with respect to which exemption is requested, and that a representative sample of the potato crop in such field or fields or storage was taken by him;

(ii) A statement of the percentage of such crop which meets the required grade, size, and quality regulation then in effect;

(iii) A statement of the defects or damage causing such crop to fail to meet such grade, size, and quality requirements.

(2) In determining percentages, the Federal-State Inspector shall not include culls. In the event that more than one variety of potatoes is involved in the regulation, the inspector shall determine the above percentages for each variety separately. The cost of the above inspection shall be borne by the applicant for exemption.

The North Central Potato Committee, or the manager thereof, or any specifically authorized representative thereof, may make such investigations as is deemed necessary to determine whether the exemption requested should be granted.

(c) Issuance of certificate. (1) When the North Central Potato Committee, or its duly authorized representative, finds and determines from proof satisfactory to said committee that the applicant is entitled to an exemption certificate hereunder, said committee shall issue or authorize the issuance of an exemption certificate which shall permit the applicant to ship, or cause to be shipped, that quantity of the restricted or prohibited grades, sizes, and qualities, or combinations thereof, of potatoes sufficient to permit such applicant to ship, or cause to be shipped, as large a proportion of his crop of each such variety of potatoes, grown in such area, as the average for all producers of the particular variety in the area or portion thereof included in the aforesaid regulation issued pursuant to § 960.5 of Order No. 60.

(2) The North Central Potato Committee, or its duly authorized representative, may issue exemption certificates if the proof submitted by the applicant qualifies said applicant therefor: Provided, That determinations pursuant to § 960.5 (d) (2) have been made in accordance therewith.

(3) If the committee, or its duly authorized representative, determines that the applicant is not entitled to an exemption certificate he shall be so advised in writing and given the reasons therefor.

(4) Each certificate of exemption issued as provided herein shall contain the producer's name and address; the location of his farm; the location of the field or storage with respect to which the exemption is granted; the particular grade, size, and quality regulations from which exempted; the amount of potatoes which may be shipped by virtue of such exemption; and such other information as may be necessary to evidence the rights of the producer to ship Irish potatoes which do not meet the requirements of the particular grade, size, and quality regulations.

(5) Each certificate of exemption shall be transferable, in whole or in part, with the Irish potatoes in accordance with the amount of Irish potatoes transferred.

(d) Reports and records. (1) For the purpose of enabling the North Central Potato Committee to perform its functions pursuant to the provisions hereof, each handler shall report shipments under exemption certificates to said committee, in such form and at such times and substantiated in such manner as shall be prescribed by the committee. All forms, reports, correspondence and documents used, pursuant to these rules and regulations, shall be kept on file by the committee and records thereof shall be maintained by the manager of said committee.

(2) A record of all applications received for exemptions, exemption certificates issued, applications denied, and shipments made under exemption shall be kept by the committee pursuant to the provisions of § 960.5 (d) (1) and a record of all such transactions, if any, shall be reported from time to time by the North Central Potato Committee to the Secretary.

(e) Appeal procedure. If any producer is dissatisfied with the determination regarding his application for an exemption certificate, or any duly issued exemption certificate, an appeal by said producer may be filed pursuant to the provisions of § 960.5 (d) (3).

Each and all of the foregoing rules and regulations set forth in §§ 960.101 and 960.102 under the aforesaid order have my approval.

It is found and determined that it is impracticable and contrary to the public interest to give preliminary notice, engage in public rule-making procedure, and postpone the effective date requirements of this order for 30 days after publication hereof in the FEDERAL REGISTER (5 U. S. C. 1001 et seq.) because:

(1) Issuance of the foregoing procedural rules and regulations is, by the provision of Order No. 60, a condition precedent to the issuance of regulations pursuant to § 960.5 of said order, but said rules and regulations will not, at this time create any rights, duties, or obligations;

(2) Harvesting and shipping of potatoes grown in the production area covered by Order No. 60, has already begun, and the committee established under said order has indicated that it desires immediate issuance of the aforesaid rules and regulations, so that said committee may recommend the issuance of regulations under § 960.5 of said order which, according to recommendations of the committee, are urgently needed.

It is essential that the aforesaid rules and regulations should be approved without delay, because of the aforementioned findings, if the committee is to perform its duties and functions under said order.

Done at Washington, D. C. this 2d day of November 1948, to be effective on and after November 5, 1948.

Secretary of Agriculture.

MODIFICATION OF GENERAL CULL REGULATION

§ 960.305 Modification of general cull regulation—(a) Findings. It is hereby found that:

(1) The order modifying the general cull regulations, issued on October 1, 1947 (12 F. R. 6523), pursuant to the provisions of § 960.4 of Marketing Order No. 60 (7 CFR Cum. Supp. 960.2 et seq.), which was based upon conditions and factors relating to the 1947 crop, no longer tends to effectuate the declared policy of the Agricultural Marketing Agreement Act of 1937, as amended (7 U. S. C. 601 et seq.);

(2) A modification of the aforesaid general cull regulation, hereinafter set forth, recommended by the North Central Potato Committee for the 1948 potato crop, pursuant to the aforesaid provisions of § 960.4, will tend to effectuate the declared policy of the act; and

(3) It is impracticable and contrary to public interest to give preliminary notice, engage in public rule-making procedure, and postpone the effective date of this order until thirty days after publication thereof in the FEDERAL REGISTER (5 U. S. C. 1101 et seq.) in that (i) the time intervening between the date when information upon which this section is based became available and the time when this section must become effective in order to effectuate the declared policy of the act is insufficient, (ii) shipments of potatoes from this production area have already begun, (iii) compliance with this section will not require any special preparation on the part of handlers which cannot be completed by the effective date hereof, and (iv) a reasonable time is permitted, under the circumstances, for such preparation.

(b) Order. (1) During the period beginning on November 5, 1948, and ending June 30, 1949, both dates inclusive, potatoes of the Irish Cobbler variety grown in the area defined in Order No. 60, which do not meet the requirements of U. S. No. 2 or better grade, as such grades are defined in the U. S. Standards for Potatoes, only because of serious damage due to hollow heart, shall not be prohibited from shipment under the terms and provisions of § 960.301 (12 F. R. 6256).

(2) The order issued on October 1, 1947 (12 F. R. 6523), modifying the general cull regulation is hereby terminated.

(3) The terms used in this section shall have the same meanings as set forth in Marketing Order No. 60, and in the U. S. Standards for Potatoes (12 F. R. 3651). (48 Stat. 31, as amended; 7 U. S. C. 601 et seq.)

Done at Washington, D. C., this 2d day of November 1948.

LIMITATION OF SHIPMENTS

§ 960.306 Limitation of shipments—(a) Findings. (1) Pursuant to Marketing Order No. 60 (7 CFR Cum. Supp. 960.2 et seq.) regulating the handling of Irish potatoes grown in the States of Michigan, Wisconsin, Minnesota, and North Dakota, effective under the applicable provisions of the Agricultural Marketing Agreement Act of 1937, as amended (7 U. S. C. 601 et seq.), and upon the basis of the recommendation and information submitted by the North Central Potato Committee established under said marketing order, pursuant to § 960.5 of said order, and other available information, it is hereby found that such limitation of shipments of potatoes as hereinafter provided will tend to effectuate the declared policy of the act.

(2) It is hereby further found that it is impracticable and contrary to the public interest to give preliminary notice, engage in public rule-making procedure, and postpone the effective date of this section until 30 days after publication thereof in the FEDERAL REGISTER (5 U. S. C. 1001 et seq.) in that (i) the time intervening between the date when information upon which this regulation is based became available and the time when this section must become effective in order to effectuate the declared policy of the act is insufficient, (ii) shipments of potatoes from the production area have already begun, (iii) compliance with this section will not require any special preparation on the part of handlers which cannot be completed by the effective date hereof, and (iv) a reasonable time is permitted, under the circumstances, for such preparation.

(b) Order. (1) During the period beginning on November 8, 1948, and ending June 30, 1949, both dates inclusive, no handler shall ship any potatoes grown in the area subject to Order No. 60, unless such potatoes are not less than 1⅞ inches in diameter and meet the requirements of U. S. Commercial or better grade, as such grades are defined in the U. S. Standards for Potatoes, except that potatoes of the Irish Cobbler variety which do not meet the requirements of the aforesaid U. S. Commercial or better grade only because of serious damage due to hollow heart shall not be prohibited from shipment under the terms and provisions hereof;

(2) The terms used in this section shall have the same meaning as when used in Marketing Order No. 60, and in the U. S. Standards for Potatoes (12 F. R. 3651). (48 Stat. 31, as amended; 7 U. S. C. 601 et seq.)

PART 984—HANDLING OF WALNUTS GROWN IN CALIFORNIA, OREGON, AND WASHINGTON

SALABLE, SURPLUS, AND WITHHOLDING PERCENTAGES

Pursuant to the requirements in section 4 of the Administrative Procedure Act, approved June 11, 1946, (60 Stat. 237; 5 U. S. C. 1001 et seq.), notice of proposed salable, surplus, and withholding percentages of merchantable walnuts for the marketing year beginning August 1, 1948, was published in the FEDERAL REGISTER (13 F. R. 5532) issue of September 23, 1948. Such percentages are fixed by the Secretary of Agriculture pursuant to the authority vested in him by § 984.4 of the marketing agreement and order (13 F. R. 4344) regulating the handling of walnuts grown in California, Oregon, and Washington, which program is effective under the Agricultural Marketing Agreement Act of 1937, as amended (7 U. S. C. 601 et seq.; 61 Stat. 208, 707), hereinafter referred to as the "act." In said notice, opportunity was afforded interested parties to submit to the Hearing Clerk, United States Department of Agriculture, Room 1844, South Building, Washington, D. C., written data, views, or arguments for consideration prior to the final issuance of such salable, surplus, and withholding percentages. The time for filing such written data, views, or arguments has now expired.

In the aforementioned notice, economic data and estimations were set forth which were believed to support the then proposed salable, surplus, and withholding percentages of 75, 25, and 33, respectively. However, information has since been received from the Walnut Control Board, the administrative agency for operations under this program, to the effect that adverse weather and other conditions not contemplated when such Board made its original recommendations on August 25, 1948, has resulted in a reduction of the estimated quantity of merchantable walnuts which will be produced in 1948. Also, the trade demand for merchantable walnuts has exceeded the estimations in that respect on that date. Accordingly, the Board submitted on October 20, 1948, revised estimates as to the pertinent factors for the fixing of the indicated percentages as follows:

Merchantable production estimate	966,500
Carryover, subject to surplus	7,900
Subtotal	974,400
Less: Oregon intrastate estimate	6,000
Total subject to surplus	968,400
10 percent surplus (96,840 bags) 90 percent salable	871,560
Carryover not subject to surplus	18,166
Oregon intrastate not subject to surplus	6,000
Total available to trade	895,726
Less: Trade demand estimate	850,000
Computed handler carryover, Aug. 1, 1949	45,726

On the basis of these revised estimates, the Board has recommended that the salable and surplus percentages be fixed at 90 and 10, respectively. Consideration has been given to such revised estimates and recommendation and other pertinent data, and it is concluded that such revised estimates and recommendation should be adopted. On the aforementioned basis, the withholding percentage, which is the ratio of the surplus percentage to the salable percentage, adjusted to the nearest whole number, is 11 percent.

Wherefore, the salable, surplus, and withholding percentages for merchantable walnuts during the marketing year beginning August 1, 1948 are hereby fixed as follows:

It is necessary to make effective not later than five days after the publication of this document in the FEDERAL REGISTER these salable, surplus, and withholding percentages with respect to merchantable walnuts for the reason that shipment of the current crop of such walnuts has already begun, and it is necessary to have regulations of this nature in effect as near the beginning of the particular marketing season as is practicable in order to effectuate the declared policy of the act. No preparation for this regulation is required which cannot be completed prior to this effective date. Therefore, good cause exists for not delaying the effective date of these regulatory requirements beyond five days after the publication of this document in the FEDERAL REGISTER. (See section 4 (c) of the Administrative Procedure Act, Pub. Law 404, 79th Cong., 60 Stat. 237).

These regulatory requirements shall become effective at 12:01 a. m., P. s. t., on the fifth day after the publication of this document in the FEDERAL REGISTER.

Issued this 2d day of November 1948.

TITLE 14—CIVIL AVIATION

Chapter I—Civil Aeronautics Board

[Regs., Serial No. SR-329]

PART 41—CERTIFICATION AND OPERATION RULES FOR SCHEDULED AIR CARRIER OPERATIONS OUTSIDE CONTINENTAL LIMITS OF THE UNITED STATES

PART 42—NONSCHEDULED AIR CARRIER CERTIFICATION AND OPERATION RULES

PART 61—SCHEDULED AIR CARRIER RULES

COMPLIANCE WITH AIR CARRIER FIRE PREVENTION REGULATIONS

Adopted by the Civil Aeronautics Board at its office in Washington, D. C., on the 27th day of October 1948.

On March 31, 1948, the Board adopted certain amendments to Parts 41, 42, and 61 that extend the date for compliance with the fire prevention requirements until November 1, 1948. The delay in obtaining the necessary engineering knowledge and the time required to purchase and install the equipment in the large number of aircraft involved were responsible for the inability of certain air carriers to comply with the requirements.

In a few instances these critical parts procurement and modification problems are still preventing full compliance with these regulations. To alleviate undue hardship on any carrier who has diligently sought to comply with these requirements, the Board hereby adopts a thirty-day extension of the effective date to allow those carriers to submit individually to the Administrator a request for a further extension of the compliance date. The request shall show proof of their attempted compliance prior to November 1, 1948, and shall be accompanied by a statement indicating a reasonable justification for not so complying. It will be further required that the air carriers fix a specific date on which completion of the required work will be accomplished. In the case of smoke or fire detectors, other than heat detectors, the compliance date is indefinitely extended pending completion of a joint testing program by government and industry.

In consideration of the above, notice and public procedures hereon are impracticable. Since this regulation imposes no additional burden on any person, it may be made effective without prior notice.

In consideration of the foregoing the Civil Aeronautics Board hereby makes and promulgates the following Special Civil Air Regulation effective November 1, 1948:

Notwithstanding the provisions of §§ 41.20, 42.10, and 61.30 of the Civil Air Regulations establishing certain fire prevention standards requiring compliance on or before November 1, 1948, no air carrier shall be held in violation of these requirements prior to December 1, 1948. Upon application by the air carrier prior to December 1, 1948, the Administrator may further authorize an air carrier to operate without full compliance with these requirements where the Administrator finds that the air carrier has made a diligent effort to meet these requirements by November 1, 1948, and that the air carrier has shown that it will comply with these requirements by a date certain: Provided, That no air carrier shall be required to install or maintain smoke or fire detectors, other than heat detectors, unless otherwise directed by the Administrator.

Secretary.

TITLE 46—SHIPPING

Chapter II—United States Maritime Commission

Subchapter B—Regulations Affecting Maritime Carriers

[General Order 69]

PART 226—FREE TIME AND DEMURRAGE CHARGES ON IMPORT PROPERTY APPLICABLE TO ALL COMMON CARRIERS BY WATER PORT OF NEW YORK

At a session of the United States Maritime Commission held at its office in Washington, D. C., on the 19th day of October 1948.

By order dated May 29, 1947 and published in the FEDERAL REGISTER on June 7, 1947 (12 F. R. 3754), the Commission ordered that public hearings be held with respect to free time and demurrage charges on import property at the port of New York.

Hearings were held accordingly and the Commission on the above date made and filed a report incorporating its findings, which report is incorporated herein by reference.[1] The findings of the Commission, as therein set forth, are as follows:

§ 226.1 Free time and demurrage charges at the Port of New York. (a) (1) Free time of five days (exclusive of Saturdays, Sundays, and legal holidays), computed from the start of business on the first day after complete discharge of the vessel, is adequate free time on import property at New York under present conditions.

(2) Free time on import property at New York shall not be less than five days, except as the Commission may hereafter direct.

(3) Where a carrier is for any reason unable, or refuses, to tender cargo for delivery, free time must be extended for a period equal to the duration of the carrier's disability or refusal.

(4) Where a consignee is prevented from removing his cargo by factors beyond his control (such as, but not limited to, trucking strikes or weather conditions) which affect an entire port area or a substantial portion thereof, carriers shall (after expiration of free time) assess demurrage against imports at the rate applicable to the first demurrage period, for such time as the inability to remove the cargo may continue. Every departure from the regular demurrage charges shall be reported to the Commission.

(5) The Commission makes no finding approving or disapproving demurrage rates presently effective as to import property at the port of New York.

(b) It is hereby ordered, That the foregoing findings be and hereby are adopted as rules of the Commission; and

(c) It is further ordered, That such rules shall be binding upon all common carriers by water in foreign commerce with respect to regulations and practices affecting free time and demurrage on import property at the port of New York;

(d) It is further ordered, That on or before the effective date of this order, all tariffs of such carriers relative to free time and demurrage on import property at the port of New York be conformed to the findings and rules herein set forth;

(e) It is further ordered, That this order become effective December 15, 1948.

It is further ordered, That this order be published in the FEDERAL REGISTER.

(Secs. 17, 22-24, 39 Stat. 734, 736; 46 U. S. C. 816, 821-823)

By the Commission.

A. J. WILLIAMS,
Secretary.

PROPOSED CONTINUATION OF VOLUNTARY PLAN FOR ALLOCATION OF STEEL PRODUCTS FOR REQUIREMENTS OF THE ARMED FORCES

NOTICE OF PUBLIC HEARING

Notice is hereby given that a public hearing will be held on Monday, November 15, 1948, at 10:00 a. m., e. s. t., in the Auditorium on the street floor of the Department of Commerce Building, Fourteenth Street, between E Street and Constitution Avenue, Washington, D. C., for the purpose of affording to industry, labor and the public generally an opportunity to present their views with respect to the proposed continuation, beyond February 28, 1949, of the voluntary plan, under Public Law 395, 80th Congress, for the allocation of steel products for requirements of the Armed Forces, approved by the Attorney General on August 24, 1948 and by the Secretary of Commerce on August 25, 1948 and subsequently published in the FEDERAL REGISTER (13 F. R. 5665).

The proposed continuation involves two procedures. One would remain effective if the present authority contained in Public Law 395 is not extended. The other would become effective if the present authority contained in Public Law 395 is appropriately extended. The two procedures are represented by documents attached hereto as Exhibits A and B. They are in draft form and are subject to revision at or after the public hearing.

Under the first procedure (Exhibit A), it is proposed that the Secretary of Commerce will make a request, with the approval of the Attorney General, for unilateral action by steel producers in continuing deliveries for the program during the six-month period March 1, 1949 through August 31, 1949, in accordance with section 2 (f) of Public Law 395.

Under the second procedure (Exhibit B), it is proposed to amend the existing plan to provide that, in the event of statutory extension, the plan itself will automatically continue in effect during the seven-month period March 1, 1949 through September 30, 1949, which would round out the full third calendar quarter.

The proposed continuation has been formulated after consulting with representatives of the steel producing industry, the Armed Forces, and the Department of Justice.

Any person desiring to participate in the public hearing should file a written notice of appearance with the Director of the Office of Industry Cooperation, Room 5847, Department of Commerce Building, Washington 25, D. C., not later than 5 p. m., e. s. t., on Wednesday, November 10, 1948. Persons desiring to present written statements or memoranda should submit them, in triplicate, at the hearing.

[SEAL] CHARLES SAWYER,
Secretary of Comerce.

EXHIBIT A—PROPOSED REQUEST UNDER PUBLIC LAW 395, 80TH CONGRESS, FOR ALLOCATION OF STEEL PRODUCTS FOR REQUIREMENTS OF THE ARMED FORCES

The Secretary of Commerce, pursuant to the authority vested in him by Public Law 395, 80th Congress, and Executive Order 9919, after consultation with representatives of the steel producing industry and with officials of the Armed Forces, and after expression of the views of industry, labor and the public generally at an open public hearing held on November 15, 1948 has determined that in order to carry out the program begun under the voluntary plan entered into by steel producers to furnish certain steel products for requirements of the Armed Forces, it will be necessary, and is practicable and appropriate to the successful carrying out of the policies set forth in said Public Law 395, that steel producers make further deliveries of steel products for such requirements after the expiration of the plan on February 28, 1949.

Therefore, the Secretary of Commerce, in accordance with subsections 2 (c) and 2 (f) of Public Law 395, 80th Congress, and with the approval of the Attorney General, hereby requests:

1. That steel producers participating in the above-mentioned voluntary plan continue to make approximately 102,505 net tons of steel products available monthly, during the period March 1, 1949 through August 31, 1949, for requirements of the Armed Forces in connection with contracts placed by them before July 1, 1949, and specifically designated as being entitled to the benefits of the voluntary plan or of this request; and that such products be made available in accordance with delivery procedures established under the said plan.

2. That Armed Forces procurement agencies and steel consumers put identifying certifications on any purchase orders placed hereunder; and that steel consumers use all steel products obtained hereunder solely as production material for physical incorporation in the end products or in part of the end products to be delivered to the Armed Forces in connection with contracts as described in paragraph 1 above.

In the event that an amendment to the above-mentioned voluntary plan extending its effectiveness beyond February 28, 1949 takes effect pursuant to appropriate legislation, this request will be superseded by the extended plan.

[1] Filed as part of original document. Copies may be obtained upon request to Secretary, United States Maritime Commission, Washington 25, D. C.

EXHIBIT B—PROPOSED AMENDMENT TO VOLUNTARY PLAN UNDER PUBLIC LAW 395, 80TH CONGRESS, FOR ALLOCATION OF STEEL PRODUCTS FOR REQUIREMENTS OF THE ARMED FORCES

The Secretary of Commerce, pursuant to the authority vested in him by Public Law 395, 80th Congress, and Executive Order 9919, after consultation with representatives of the steel producing industry and with officials of the Armed Forces, and after expression of the views of industry, labor and the public generally at an open public hearing held on November 15, 1948, has determined that, in order to carry out the program begun under the voluntary plan entered into by steel producers to furnish certain steel products for requirements of the Armed Forces, it will be necessary, and is practicable and appropriate to the successful carrying out of the policies set forth in the said Public Law 395, that steel producers make further deliveries of steel products for such requirements beyond February 28, 1949.

Therefore, paragraph 11 of the above-mentioned voluntary plan is amended by the addition of the following provision:

However, if the time limitation of March 1, 1949 now specified in subsection 2 (c) of Public Law 395 is extended or otherwise changed by legislative action in a form which permits the continuation of this plan, the plan shall thereupon automatically continue in effect until September 30, 1949 (or to the date specified in such legislative action if a date earlier than September 30, 1949 is so specified), subject to other applicable provisions in this plan regarding earlier termination by the Secretary of Commerce and withdrawal by individual participants. During the continuation period, steel products will be made available, at the rate of approximately 102,505 net tons per month for requirements of the Armed Forces in connection with contracts placed by them before July 1, 1949 in accordance with the provisions of this plan.

After approval of this amendment by the Attorney General and by the Secretary of Commerce, and after any steel producer's written acceptance of a request by the Secretary of Commerce for compliance herewith, this amendment shall become effective as to such steel producer and shall be subject to the terms and conditions set forth in the original voluntary plan.

[To be signed by the Attorney General and the Secretary of Commerce upon approval.]

PROPOSED CONTINUATION OF VOLUNTARY PLAN FOR ALLOCATION OF STEEL PRODUCTS FOR UNITED STATES ATOMIC ENERGY COMMISSION PROJECTS

NOTICE OF PUBLIC HEARING

Notice is hereby given that a public hearing will be held on Monday, November 15, 1948, at 2:00 p. m., e. s. t., in the Auditorium on the street floor of the Department of Commerce Building, Fourteenth Street, between E Street and Constitution Avenue, Washington, D. C., for the purpose of affording to industry, labor and the public generally an opportunity to present their views with respect to the proposed continuation, beyond February 28, 1949, of the voluntary plan, under Public Law 395, 80th Congress, for the allocation of steel products for United States Atomic Energy Commission projects, approved by the Attorney General on June 21, 1948 and by the Secretary of Commerce on June 22, 1948 and subsequently published in the FEDERAL REGISTER (13 F. R. 3792).

The proposed continuation involves two procedures. One would remain effective if the present authority contained in Public Law 395 is not extended. The other would become effective if the present authority contained in Public Law 395 is appropriately exteneded. The two procedures are represented by documents attached hereto as Exhibits A and B. They are in draft form and are subject to revision at or after the public hearing.

Under the first procedure (Exhibit A), it is proposed that the Secretary of Commerce will make a request, with the approval of the Attorney General, for unilateral action by steel producers in continuing deliveries for the program during the six-month period March 1, 1949 through August 31, 1949, in accordance with section 2 (f) of Public Law 395.

Under the second procedure (Exhibit B), it is proposed to amend the existing plan to provide that, in the event of statutory extension, the plan itself will automatically continue in effect during the seven-month period March 1, 1949, through September 30, 1949, which would round out the full third calendar quarter.

The proposed continuation has been formulated after consulting with representatives of the steel producing industry, and of the interested government agencies, including the Department of Justice.

Any person desiring to participate in the public hearing should file a written notice of appearance with the Director of the Office of Industry Cooperation, Room 5847, Department of Commerce Building, Washington 25, D. C., not later than 5 p. m., e. s. t., on Wednesday, November 10, 1948. Persons desiring to present written statements or memoranda should submit them, in triplicate, at the hearing.

[SEAL] CHARLES SAWYER,
Secretary of Commerce.

EXHIBIT A—PROPOSED REQUEST UNDER PUBLIC LAW 395, 80TH CONGRESS, FOR ALLOCATIONS OF STEEL PRODUCTS FOR UNITED STATES ATOMIC ENERGY COMMISSION PROJECTS

The Secretary of Commerce, pursuant to the authority vested in him by Public Law 395, 80th Congress, and Executive Order 9919, after consultation with representatives of the steel producing industry and with officials of the United States Atomic Energy Commission, and after expression of the views of industry, labor and the public generally at an open public hearing held on November 15, 1948 has determined that in order to carry out the program begun under the voluntary plan entered into by steel producers to furnish certain steel products for United States Atomic Energy Commission Projects, it will be necessary, and is practicable and appropriate to the successful carrying out of the policies set forth in said Public Law 395, that steel producers make further deliveries of steel products for such projects after the expiration of the plan on February 28, 1949.

Therefore, the Secretary of Commerce, in accordance with subsections 2 (c) and 2 (f) of Public Law 395, 80th Congress, and with the approval of the Attorney General, hereby requests:

1. That steel producers participating in the above-mentioned voluntary plan continue to make approximately 16,244 net tons of steel products available monthly, during the period March 1, 1949 through August 31, 1949, for United States Atomic Energy Commission projects; and that such products be made available in accordance with delivery procedures established under the said plan.

2. That prime contractors for the Commission, their subcontractors, and steel fabricators supplying such contractors and subcontractors put identifying certifications on any purchase orders placed hereunder; and that such contractors, subcontractors, and fabricators use all steel products obtained hereunder solely for filling contracts for United States Atomic Energy Commission projects.

In the event that an amendment to the above mentioned voluntary plan extending its effectiveness beyond February 28, 1949 takes effect pursuant to appropriate legislation, this request will be superseded by the extended plan.

[To be signed by the Attorney General and the Secretary of Commerce upon approval.]

EXHIBIT B—PROPOSED AMENDMENT TO VOLUNTARY PLAN UNDER PUBLIC LAW 395, 80TH CONGRESS, FOR ALLOCATION OF STEEL PRODUCTS FOR UNITED STATES ATOMIC ENERGY COMMISSION PROJECTS

The Secretary of Commerce, pursuant to the authority vested in him by Public Law 395, 80th Congress, and Executive Order 9919, after consultation with representatives of the steel producing industry and with officials of the United States Atomic Energy Commission, and after expression of the views of industry, labor and the public generally at an open public hearing held on November 15, 1948, has determined that, in order to carry out the program begun under the voluntary plan entered into by steel producers to furnish certain steel products for United States Atomic Energy Commission projects, it will be necessary, and is practicable and appropriate to the successful carrying out of the policies set forth in the said Public Law 395, that steel prdoucers make further deliveries of steel products for such requirements beyond February 28, 1949

Therefore, paragraph 7 of the above mentioned voluntary plan is amended by the addition of the following provision:

However, if the time limitation of March 1, 1949 now specified in subsection 2 (c) of Public Law 395 is extended or otherwise changed by legislative action in a form which permits the continuation of this Plan, the Plan shall thereupon automatically continue in effect until September 30, 1949 (or to the date specified in such legislative action if a date earlier than September 30, 1949 is so specified), subject to other applicable provisions in this Plan regarding earlier termination by the Secretary of Commerce and withdrawal by individual participants. During the continuation period, steel products will be made available, at the rate of approximately 16,244 net tons per month.

After approval of this amendment by the Attorney General and by the Secretary of Commerce, and after any steel producer's written acceptance of a request by the Secretary of Commerce for compliance herewith, this amendment shall become effective as to such steel producer and shall be subject to the terms and conditions set forth in the original voluntary plan.

[To be signed by the Attorney General and the Secretary of Commerce upon approval.]

PROPOSED CONTINUATION OF VOLUNTARY PLAN FOR ALLOCATION OF STEEL PRODUCTS FOR REQUIREMENTS OF THE NATIONAL ADVISORY COMMITTEE FOR AERONAUTICS

NOTICE OF PUBLIC HEARING

Notice is hereby given that a public hearing will be held on Monday, November 15, 1948, at 4:00 p. m., e. s. t., in the Auditorium on the street floor of the Department of Commerce Building, Fourteenth Street, between E Street and Constitution Avenue, Washington, D. C., for the purpose of affording to industry, labor and the public generally an opportunity to present their views with respect to the proposed continuation, beyond February 28, 1949, of the voluntary plan, under Public Law 395, 80th Congress, for the allocation of steel products for requirements of the National Advisory Committee for Aeronautics, approved by the Attorney General and by the Secretary of Commerce on September 17, 1948 and subsequently published in the FEDERAL REGISTER (13 F. R. 5870).

The proposed continuation involves two procedures. One would remain effective if the present authority contained in Public Law 395 is not extended. The other would become effective if the present authority contained in Public Law 395 is appropriately extended. The two procedures are represented by documents attached hereto as Exhibits A and B. They are in draft form and are subject to revision at or after the public hearing.

Under the first procedure (Exhibit A), it is proposed that the Secretary of Commerce will make a request, with the approval of the Attorney General, for unilateral action by steel producers in continuing deliveries for the program during the six-month period March 1, 1949 through August 31, 1949, in accordance with section 2 (f) of Public Law 395.

Under the second procedure (Exhibit B), it is proposed to amend the existing plan to provide that, in the event of statutory extension, the plan itself will automatically continue in effect during the seven-month period March 1, 1949 through September 30, 1949, which would round out the full third calendar quarter.

The proposed continuation has been formulated after consulting with representatives of the steel producing industry, the National Advisory Committee for Aeronautics, and the Department of Justice.

Any person desiring to participate in the public hearing should file a written notice of appearance with the Director of the Office of Industry Corporation, Room 5847, Department of Commerce Building, Washington 25, D. C., not later than 5 p. m., e. s. t., on Wednesday, November 10, 1948. Persons desiring to present written statements or memoranda should submit them, in triplicate, at the hearing.

[SEAL] CHARLES SAWYER,

EXHIBIT A—PROPOSED REQUEST UNDER PUBLIC LAW 395, 80TH CONGRESS, FOR ALLOCATION OF STEEL PRODUCTS FOR REQUIREMENTS OF THE NATIONAL ADVISORY COMMITTEE FOR AERONAUTICS

The Secretary of Commerce, pursuant to the authority vested in him by Public Law 395, 80th Congress, and Executive Order 9919, after consultation with representatives of the steel producing industry and with officials of the National Advisory Committee for Aeronautics (hereinafter called the NACA), and after expression of the views of industry, labor and the public generally at an open public hearing held on November 15, 1948, has determined that in order to carry out the program begun under the voluntary plan entered into by steel producers to furnish certain steel products for requirements of the NACA, it will be necessary, and is practicable and appropriate to the successful carrying out of the policies set forth in said Public Law 395, that steel producers make further deliveries of steel products for such requirements after the expiration of the plan on February 28, 1949.

Therefore, the Secretary of Commerce, in accordance with subsections 2 (c) and 2 (f) of Public Law 395, 80th Congress, and with the approval of the Attorney General, hereby requests:

1. That steel producers participating in the above-mentioned voluntary plan continue to make approximately 1,926 net tons of steel products available monthly, during the period March 1, 1949, through August 31, 1949, for requirements of the NACA in connection with contracts specifically designated by NACA as being placed under the voluntary plan or under this request; and that such products be made available in accordance with delivery procedures established under the said plan.

2. That the NACA and NACA Contractors (as defined in the plan) put identifying certifications on any purchase orders placed hereunder; and that NACA Contractors use all steel products obtained hereunder solely for filling contracts with or for the NACA.

In the event that an amendment to the above-mentioned voluntary plan extending its effectiveness beyond February 28, 1949 takes effect pursuant to appropriate legislation, this request will be superseded by the extended plan.

[To be signed by the Attorney General and the Secretary of Commerce upon approval.]

EXHIBIT B—PROPOSED AMENDMENT TO VOLUNTARY PLAN UNDER PUBLIC LAW 395, 80TH CONGRESS, FOR ALLOCATION OF STEEL PRODUCTS FOR REQUIREMENTS OF THE NATIONAL ADVISORY COMMITTEE FOR AERONAUTICS

The Secretary of Commerce, pursuant to the authority vested in him by Public Law 395, 80th Congress, and Executive Order 9919, after consultation with representatives of the steel producing industry and with officials of the National Advisory Committee for Aeronautics (hereinafter called NACA), and after expression of the views of industry, labor and the public generally at an open public hearing held on November 15, 1948, has determined that, in order to carry out the program begun under the voluntary plan entered into by steel producers to furnish certain steel products for requirements of the NACA, it will be necessary, and is practicable and appropriate to the successful carrying out of the policies set forth in the said Public Law 395, that steel producers make further deliveries of steel products for such requirements beyond February 28, 1949.

Therefore, paragraph 11 of the above-mentioned voluntary plan is amended by the addition of the following provision:

However, if the time limitation of March 1, 1949, now specified in subsection 2 (c) of Public Law 395 is extended or otherwise changed by legislative action in a form which permits the continuation of this Plan, the Plan shall thereupon automatically continue in effect until September 30, 1949 (or to the date specified in such legislative action if a date earlier than September 30, 1949 is so specified), subject to other applicable provisions in this Plan regarding earlier termination by the Secretary of Commerce and withdrawal by individual participants. During the continuation period, steel products will be made available, at the rate of approximately 1,926 net tons per month, distributed by types as specified in paragraph 2 of this Plan.

After approval of this amendment by the Attorney General and by the Secretary of Commerce, and after any steel producer's written acceptance of a request by the Secretary of Commerce for compliance herewith, this amendment shall become effective as to such steel producer and shall be subject to the terms and conditions set forth in the original voluntary plan.

[S. O. 837]

UNLOADING OF COAL AT ANNANDALE, PA.

At a session of the Interstate Commerce Commission, Division 3, held at its office in Washington, D. C., on the 1st day of November A. D. 1948.

It appearing, that 15 cars of coal at Annandale, Pa., are on hand on Bessemer and Lake Erie Railroad Company, for an unreasonable length of time and that this delay in unloading such cars impedes their use; in the opinion of the Commission an emergency exists requiring immediate action. It is ordered, that:

(a) Coal at Annandale, Pa., be unloaded. The Bessemer and Lake Erie Railroad Company, its agents or employees, shall unload immediately B&LE 60712, and 14 other cars loaded with coal now on hand at Annandale, Pa., loaded by the M&L Coal Company without billing.

(b) Demurrage. No common carrier by railroad subject to the Interstate Commerce Act shall charge or demand or collect or receive any demurrage or storage charges for the detention under load of any car specified in paragraph (a) of this order, for the detention period commencing at 7:00 a. m., November 3, 1948, and continuing until the actual unloading of said car or cars is completed.

(c) Provisions suspended. The operation of any or all rules, regulations or practices, insofar as they conflict with the provisions of this order, is hereby suspended.

(d) Notice and expiration. Said carrier shall notify the Director, Bureau of Service, Interstate Commerce Commission, Washington, D. C., when it has completed the unloading required by paragraph (a) hereof and such notice shall specify when, where, and by whom such unloading was performed. Upon receipt of that notice this order shall expire.

It is further ordered, that this order shall become effective immediately; that a copy of this order and direction be served upon the Association of American Railroads, Car Service Division, as agent of the railroads subscribing to the car service and per diem agreement under the terms of that agreement; and that notice of this order be given to the general public by depositing a copy in the office of the Secretary of the Commission, at Washington, D. C., and by filing it with the Director, Division of the Federal Register.

[File No. 70-1909]

NEW ENGLAND ELECTRIC SYSTEM ET AL.

ORDER GRANTING APPLICATION AND PERMITTING DECLARATION TO BECOME EFFECTIVE

At a regular session of the Securities and Exchange Commission held at its office in the city of Washington, D. C., on the 22d day of October 1948.

In the matter of New England Electric System, New England Power Company, Beverly Gas and Electric Company, Gloucester Electric Company, Haverhill Electric Company, Malden Electric Company, Malden and Melrose Gas Light Company, Salem Electric Lighting Company, Salem Gas Light Company, Suburban Gas and Electric Company.

New England Electric System, a registered holding company, and its subsidiary companies, New England Power Company, Beverly Gas and Electric Company, Gloucester Electric Company, Haverhill Electric Company, Malden Electric Company, Malden and Melrose Gas Light Company, Salem Electric Lighting Company, Salem Gas Light Company, and Suburban Gas and Electric Company, having filed a joint application-declaration, and amendments thereto, pursuant to sections 10 and 12 (f) of the Public Utility Holding Company Act of 1935 and Rule U-43 promulgated thereunder with respect to the following transaction:

New England Power Company proposes to acquire, and the other nine Applicants-Declarants propose to sell all of the outstanding capital stock and notes of Salem Terminal Corporation for a cash consideration of $1,700,000 plus accrued interest, being equivalent to the par value of its common stock ($500,000) and the face value of its notes ($1,200,000) and accrued interest thereon. The cash required by New England Power Company to acquire the securities of Salem Terminal Corporation will be borrowed through the issuance of unsecured bank notes, for which authority has heretofore been granted. The cash received by the selling companies will be used to retire presently outstanding notes payable to banks or for construction or other corporate purposes.

Public hearings with respect to said application-declaration, as amended, having been held after appropriate notice and the Commission having considered the record of the proceedings and making no adverse findings under sections 10 and 12 (f) of the act or Rule U-43 promulgated thereunder, and the Commission deeming it appropriate in the public interest and the interest of investors and consumers to issue its order granting said application and permitting said declaration to become effective in advance of the issuance and release of its definitive findings and opinion which are now in the process of completion:

It is ordered, That the aforesaid application-declaration, as amended, be, and the same hereby is, granted and permitted to become effective forthwith, subject, however, to the terms and conditions prescribed in Rule U-24.

By the Commission.

MIDDLE WEST CORP. ET AL.

NOTICE OF FILING

In the matter of The Middle West Corporation, Wisconsin Power and Light Corporation, File No. 70-1976; Public Service Company of Indiana, Inc., File No. 70-1981.

At a regular session of the Securities and Exchange Commission held at its office in the city of Washington, D. C., on the 29th day of October A. D. 1948.

Notice is hereby given that a joint application-declaration, and amendments thereto, have been filed with this Commission, pursuant to the Public Utility Holding Company Act of 1935, by The Middle West Corporation ("Middle West"), a registered holding company, and its subsidiary, Wisconsin Power and Light Company ("Wisconsin"), a public utility company, and that in connection therewith a separate declaration has been filed by Public Service Company of Indiana, Inc. ("Indiana"), also a public utility subsidiary of Middle West. Middle West and Wisconsin have designated sections 6 (a), 7, 9 (a), 10, 11, 12 (c), 12 (d) and 12 (f) of the act and Rules U-42, U-43, U-44, U-46 and U-50 promulgated thereunder as applicable to their proposed transactions. Indiana has designated sections 6 (a), 7 and 12 (f) of the act and Rule U-43 promulgated thereunder as applicable to its proposed transactions.

Notice is further given that any interested person may, not later than November 10, 1948 at 5:30 p. m., e. s. t., request the Commission in writing that a hearing be held on such matters, stating the reasons for such request, the nature of his interest and the issues, if any, of law or fact raised by said application-declaration or declaration proposed to be controverted, or may request that he be notified if the Commission should order a hearing thereon. Any such request should be addressed: Secretary, Securities and Exchange Commission, 425 Second Street NW., Washington 25, D. C. At any time after November 10, 1948 said application-declaration, as amended, and said declaration, as filed or as amended, may be granted and permitted to become effective as provided in Rule U-23 of the rules and regulations promulgated under the Act or the Commission may exempt such transactions as provided in Rules U-20 (a) and U-100 thereof.

All interested persons are referred to said application-declaration and said declaration, which are on file in the offices of this Commission for a statement of the transactions therein proposed, which are summarized as follows:

Middle West owns 847,292½ shares of common stock, $10 par value, of Wisconsin and 224,586 shares of common stock, no par value, of Indiana. It proposes to distribute on November 29, 1948 these securities, in partial liquidation, to its stockholders of record on October 29, 1948 on the basis of one share of Wisconsin's common stock for each four shares of Middle West common stock held, and one share of Indiana's common stock for each 15 shares of Middle West common stock held: Provided, however, That if each of said shares of Indiana is split into two shares as proposed (see Holding Company Act Release No. 8541), such distribution would be two shares of Indiana's common stock for each 15 shares of Middle West common stock held.

No fractional shares of common stock of Wisconsin and Indiana will be issued. In lieu thereof, Middle West proposes to distribute to its stockholders non-dividend and non-voting scrip certificates, in bearer form, which are proposed to be issued by Wisconsin and Indiana. By their terms the scrip certificates will become void after December 31, 1953, but prior to said time, when combined in amounts equal to full shares of common stock, may be surrendered to the companies for full shares of common stock. Middle West further proposes to deliver to Wisconsin and Indiana a number of full shares of common stock of Wisconsin and Indiana equal to the number of shares represented in the aggregate by the scrip certificates to be issued by said companies and to acquire in exchange therefor the scrip certificates to be issued by Wisconsin and Indiana. It is stated that the exact number of full shares to be delivered to Wisconsin and Indiana and to be represented by scrip certificates to be issued by them cannot be determined until after October 29, 1948 (the record date for the proposed distribution), but is estimated to be about 7,100 shares of Wisconsin and 7,500 shares (9,000 if the shares are split) of Indiana.

Middle West further proposes to reserve 3,280 shares of Wisconsin's common stock and 875 shares of Indiana's common stock for distribution in respect of the 13,119.23 shares of Middle West stock reserved under the Plan of Reorganization of Middle West Utilities Company for issue upon conversion of scrip and/or certificates of deposit.

Subject to the approval of the Commission, Middle West further proposes that all rights of holders of scrip certificates distributed by it shall be void after December 31, 1953 and that all rights of Middle West stockholders with respect to such certificates who cannot be located in such period and on behalf of whom no valid claim is made during such period, shall cease and determine at such date, and the stock shall revert to the issuing companies.

Middle West further proposes, after the distribution of the common stocks of Wisconsin and Indiana, to sell in separate blocks, at competitive bidding pursuant to Rule U-50 if applicable, its then holdings of common stock and scrip of Indiana Gas & Water Company, Inc., ("Gas Water") estimated to be 43,853 shares, and its remaining holdings of shares of common stock and scrip of Wisconsin and Indiana not required or reserved for distribution, estimated to be 20,467 shares of Wisconsin and 4,099 shares (or 8,198 if the shares are split) of Indiana. Middle West requests that the ten-day notice period for inviting bids as provided in Rule U-50 be shortened to a period of not less than six days if the proposed sales are found not to be excepted transactions under paragraph (a) (4) of said Rule. It is stated that Middle West will use the proceeds from the sales of the common stocks of Gas Water, Wisconsin and Indiana to purchase 125,000 shares of common stock, $10 par value, of its subsidiary, Kentucky Utilities Company, the acquisition of which has heretofore been approved by order of this Commission dated September 29, 1948 (Holding Company Act Release No. 8540).

Middle West's expenses in connection with the proposed distribution and/or sales of the common stocks of Gas Water, Wisconsin and Indiana are estimated at $17,500.

Middle West represents that the Transactions proposed herein will effectuate a partial liquidation of the company as authorized by its stockholders and will tend to effectuate the provisions of section 11 (b) of the act.

Middle West requests that the Commission enter an appropriate order approving and permitting to become effective the application-declaration, as amended, and that said order conform to the requirements of sections 371, 372, 373 and 1808 (f) of the Internal Revenue Code, as amended.

Applicants and declarants represent that no Federal Commission, other than this Commission, and no State commission has jurisdiction over the transactions proposed herein. However, in the opinion of counsel for Indiana, the question of the jurisdiction of the Public Service Commission of Indiana over the issue and delivery of scrip certificates by Indiana, has not been directly passed upon by that Commission or the courts. Therefore, Indiana proposes to file a petition with the Indiana Commission requesting dismissal of its petition for want of jurisdiction or an order approving the issue and use of scrip certificates.

Middle West and Wisconsin request that the Commission's order granting and permitting to become effective their application-declaration, as amended, be issued as soon as practicable and become effective forthwith. Indiana requests that the Commission's order permitting its declaration to become effective be issued by November 15, 1948 and become effective forthwith.

By the Commission.

Assistant Secretary.

NORTHERN NATURAL GAS CO.

NOTICE OF FILING

At a regular session of the Securities and Exchange Commission held at its office in the city of Washington, D. C., on the 28th day of October 1948.

Notice is hereby given that a declaration has been filed with this Commission pursuant to the Public Utility Holding Company Act of 1935 ("act") by Northern Natural Gas Company ("Northern Natural"), a registered holding company. The declarant designates sections 6 (a) and 7 of the act and Rule U-50 promulgated thereunder as applicable to the proposed transactions.

Notice is further given that any interested person may, not later than November 17, 1948, at 5:30 p. m., e. s. t., request the Commission in writing that a hearing be held on such matter, stating the nature of his interest, the reasons for such request and the issues, if any, of fact or law raised by said declaration proposed to be controverted or may request that he be notified if the Commission should order a hearing thereon. Any such request should be addressed: Secretary, Securities and Exchange Commission, 425 Second Street, Washington 25, D. C. At any time thereafter such declaration, as filed or as amended, may be permitted to become effective as provided in Rule U-23 of the rules and regulations promulgated pursuant to said act, or the Commission may exempt such transactions as provided in Rules U-20 (a) and U-100 thereof.

All interested persons are referred to said declaration which is on file in the office of this Commission, for a statement of the transactions therein proposed, which are summarized below:

Northern Natural proposes to issue and sell, pursuant to the competitive bidding requirements of Rule U-50 promulgated under the Act, $6,000,000 principal amount ____% Serial Debentures, dated November 1, 1948, due 1966–1969, to be issued under an Indenture, dated November 1, 1948, between Northern Natural and the Harris Trust and Savings Bank, as Trustee. The interest rate on said Debentures (to be a multiple of ⅛ of 1%) and the price (exclusive of interest) to be received by Northern Natural (to be not less than 99% and not more than 102¾% of the principal amount of said Debentures) are to be determined by competitive bidding.

The declarant states that the net proceeds from such sale will be used in part to replenish working capital and, in part, for the payment of 1949 construction costs, estimated in the amount of $12,940,000. Declarant further states that it intends, at a later date, to finance the balance of its 1949 construction costs and to retire its outstanding 2% bank loans ($2,500,000) with funds derived from the issue and sale of additional common stock and from general funds of the Company.

Declarant has filed applications with the State Corporation Commission of Kansas and the Nebraska State Railway Commission for authorization with respect to the issuance of said Debentures.

Declarant requests that the Commission issue its order herein on or before November 19, 1948.

By the Commission.

CENTRAL AND SOUTH WEST CORP. ET AL.

NOTICE OF FILING

At a regular session of the Securities and Exchange Commission held at its office in the city of Washington, D. C. on the 29th day of October A. D. 1948.

In the matters of Central and South West Corporation, File No. 70-1989; Central and South West Corporation, Central Power and Light Company, Southwestern Gas and Electric Company, File No. 70-1990.

Notice is hereby given that a declaration has been filed with this Commission pursuant to the Public Utility Holding Company Act of 1935 by Central and South West Corporation ("Central and South West"), a registered holding company, and that in connection therewith a separate joint application-declaration has been filed by Central and South West and its subsidiaries, Central Power and Light Company ("Central Power"), and Southwestern Gas and Electric Company ("Southwestern"). Applicants-declarants have designated section 6 (a), 7, 9 (a), 10, and 12 (f) of the act and Rules U-43 and U-50 as applicable to the proposed transactions.

Notice is further given that any interested person may, not later than November 10, 1948 at 5:30 p. m., e. s. t., request the Commission in writing that a hearing be held on such matters, stating the reasons for such request, the nature of his interest and the issues, if any, of law or fact raised by said application-declaration proposed to be controverted, or may request that he be notified if the Commission should order a hearing thereon. Any such request should be addressed: Secretary, Securities and Exchange Commission, 425 Second Street NW., Washington 25, D. C. At any time after November 10, 1948 said application-declaration, as filed or as amended, may be granted and permitted to become effective as provided in Rule U-23 of the rules and regulations promulgated under the act, or the Commission may exempt such transactions as provided in Rules U-20 (a) and U-100 thereof.

All interested persons are referred to said declaration and application-declaration which are on file in the offices of this Commission for a statement of the transactions therein proposed which are summarized as follows:

Central and South West proposes to issue and sell 659,606 shares of additional common stock, $5 par value. The shares of common stock are to be offered first to the holders of the company's presently outstanding common stock of record at the close of business on November 18, 1948, in accordance with their preemptive rights, for subscription in the ratio of one share of additional common stock of each ten shares of common stock held. The subscription price will be the same price per share as specified in the bid of the successful bidder for the unsubscribed shares. The rights to subscribe will be evidenced by full share and fractional share subscription warrants in transferable form. As fractional shares will not be issued, fractional share subscription warrants will be exercisable only when combined with other warrants evidencing the right to subscribe for one or more full shares. The subscription period will be approximately 15 days.

It is proposed that all shares of additional common stock not subscribed for by the common stockholders will be sold by the company to underwriters at competitive bidding pursuant to Rule U-50. It is stated that the bids shall specify the price per share to be paid to the company for such shares and the compensation to be paid by the company to the underwriters for their commitments and obligations in respect of the purchase of the unsubscribed shares.

Central and South West requests that the ten-day notice period for inviting bids as provided by Rule U-50 be shortened to a period of not less than six days.

The net proceeds to be received by Central and South West from the issue and sale of the additional shares of common stock will be invested in common stocks of Central Power and Southwestern as described below.

Central Power proposes to amend its Articles of Incorporation so as to increase its authorized stock from 1,072,100 shares of common stock, $10 par value, to such number of authorized shares as will equal the sum of (a) 1,072,100 shares now authorized and outstanding, (b) 350,000 shares, and (c) such number of shares as may be purchased by South West, at par, with approximately 60% of the net proceeds, in excess of $6,000,000 to be received by Central and South West from the proposed sale of its additional shares of common stock. After the adoption of the amendment, Central Power proposes to issue and sell to Central and South West, owner of all of Central Power's outstanding common stock, 350,000 shares of common stock, $10 par value, for cash, at par, and such additional number of shares of common stock as will be authorized by said amendment under clause (c) above.

Southwestern proposes to increase the stated value of the 500,000 outstanding shares, no par value, of its common stock from $6,800,000 as shown on its books, to $9,500,000 by transferring on its books the sum of $2,700,000 from earned surplus to common stock capital account, and thereafter, to amend its Certificate of Incorporation, as amended, so as to increase its total authorized common stock from 500,000 shares, no par value, to 1,500,000 shares, $10 par value, and to change the 500,000 shares, no par value, of its common stock now outstanding into 950,000 shares, $10 par value. After the adoption of the proposed amendment, Southwestern proposes (a) to issue and deliver to Central and South West certificates for 950,000 shares of common stock, $10 par value, of Southwestern upon the surrender for cancellation by Central and South West of certificates representing the outstanding 500,000 shares of common stock, no par value, of Southwestern, and (b) to issue and sell to Central and South West, for cash, at par, 250,000 shares of common stock, $10 par value, of Southwestern and such additional number of shares of its common stock, $10 par value, as may be purchased by Central and South West, at par, with approximately 40% of the net proceeds, in excess of $6,000,000, to be received by Central and South West from the proposed sale of its common stock.

The net proceeds to be received by Central Power and Southwestern from the sales of their common stock will be used by them to finance their construction programs.

Central Power and Southwestern estimate that their expenses in connection with the issue and sale of common stock will aggregate $12,000. It is stated that the expenses with respect to the acquisition of the common stocks of Central Power and Southwestern by Central and South West are estimated to be nominal.

Central and South West represents that no State commission has jurisdiction over its proposed transactions. Central Power and Southwestern represent that no State commission has jurisdiction over their proposed transactions except that Arkansas Public Service Commission has or claims to have jurisdiction with respect to the issue by Southwestern of its shares of common stock. It is stated that Southwestern will make application to said Commission for authority to issue the proposed shares of common stock.

It is requested that the Commission's order granting and permitting to become effective the declaration and the application-declaration be issued by November 12, 1948, and become effective forthwith.

By the Commission.

KURT KRAUSE ET AL.

In re: Kurt Krause et al v. State of California. File D–66–2049; E. T. sec. 12353.

Under the authority of the Trading With the Enemy Act, as amended, Executive Order 9193, as amended, and Executive Order 9788, and pursuant to law, after investigation, it is hereby found:

1. That Kurt Krause, Walther Krause, Alma Dorges, nee Hering, Ernst Hering and Frieda Lindermann, nee Hering, whose last known addresses are Germany, are residents of Germany and nationals of a designated enemy country (Germany);

2. That all right, title, interest and claim of any kind or character whatsoever of the persons named in subparagraph 1 hereof, and each of them, in and to the sum of $8,927.81 paid to the State of California on or about January 17, 1947 by Patrick J. Freeman, as administrator of the Estate of Max Otto Bartel, also known as Max Otto Bartels, deceased, which was probated in the Superior Court of the State of California, in and for the County of Santa Cruz designated Probate No. 9471,

is property within the United States owned or controlled by, payable or deliverable to, held on behalf of or on account of, or owing to, or which is evidence of ownership or control by, the aforesaid nationals of a designated enemy country (Germany);

and it is hereby determined:

3. That to the extent that the persons named in subparagraph 1 hereof are not within a designated enemy country, the national interest of the United States requires that such persons be treated as nationals of a designated enemy country (Germany).

All determinations and all action required by law, including appropriate consultation and certification, having been made and taken, and it being deemed necessary in the national interest,

There is hereby vested in the Attorney General of the United States the property described above, to be held, used, administered, liquidated, sold or otherwise dealt with in the interest of and for the benefit of the United States.

The terms "national" and "designated enemy country" as used herein shall have the meanings prescribed in section 10 of Executive Order 9193, as amended.

FEDERAL REGISTER
VOLUME 13 NUMBER 218
Washington, Saturday, November 6, 1948

TITLE 3—THE PRESIDENT

PROCLAMATION 2822

AMENDMENT OF REGULATIONS RELATING TO MIGRATORY BIRDS AND GAME MAMMALS

BY THE PRESIDENT OF THE UNITED STATES OF AMERICA

A PROCLAMATION

WHEREAS the Acting Secretary of the Interior has adopted and has submitted to me for approval the following amendment of the regulations relating to migratory birds and game mammals included in the terms of the Convention between the United States and Great Britain for the protection of migratory birds concluded August 16, 1916, and the Convention between the United States and the United Mexican States for the protection of migratory birds and certain game mammals concluded February 7, 1936:

AMENDMENT OF MIGRATORY BIRD TREATY ACT REGULATIONS ADOPTED BY THE ACTING SECRETARY OF THE INTERIOR

By virtue of and pursuant to the Migratory Bird Treaty Act of July 3, 1918 (40 Stat. 755), and Reorganization Plan II (53 Stat. 1431), I, OSCAR L. CHAPMAN, Acting Secretary of the Interior, having due regard to the zones of temperature and to the distribution, abundance, economic value, breeding habits, and times and lines of migratory flight of migratory birds designated in the Convention between the United States and Great Britain for the protection of migratory birds, concluded August 16, 1916, and the Convention between the United States and the United Mexican States for the protection of migratory birds and game mammals concluded February 7, 1936, have determined when, to what extent, and by what means it is compatible with the terms of the said Act and conventions to allow the hunting, taking, capture, killing, possession, sale, purchase, shipment, transportation, carriage, exportation, and importation of such birds and parts thereof, and in accordance with such determination, do hereby amend the regulations approved by Proclamation 2801 of July 29, 1948 (13 F. R. 4414), as amended by Proclamation 2821 of October 30, 1948 (13 F. R. 6465), by adding at the end of § 1.4 thereof the following:

"Provided, however, (1) that in the area of Minnesota in which hunting has been prohibited by State action by reason of emergency fire-hazard conditions, subject to all other provisions of this subchapter, the open season specified in this section for migratory waterfowl in that State is hereby extended for such area and for a period not to exceed the number of days during which hunting has been prohibited by State action but in no case beyond November 14, 1948; and (2) that whenever the Director of the Fish and Wildlife Service shall find that emergency State action to prevent forest fires has resulted in the shortening of the season during which the hunting of any migratory game bird is permitted in any extensive area and that a compensatory extension or reopening of the hunting season for such birds will not result in a diminution of the abundance of birds to any greater extent than that contemplated for the original hunting season, the hunting season for the birds so affected may, subject to all other provisions of this subchapter, be extended or reopened by the Director upon request of the chief officer of the agency of the State exercising administration over wildlife resources. The Director of the Fish and Wildlife Service shall fix the length of the extended or reopened season, which in no event shall exceed the number of days during which hunting has been so prohibited, and he shall publicly announce the extended or reopened season."

This amendment shall become effective upon its publication in the FEDERAL REGISTER as a part of the proclamation of the President by which the amendment is approved and proclaimed. Compliance with the provisions of section 4 of the Administrative Procedure Act (60 Stat. 238; 5 U. S. C. 1003) with respect to notice and effective date is found to be contrary to the public interest because of the emergency conditions which the proposed amendment is designed to correct.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, I have hereunto subscribed my name and caused the seal of the Department of the Interior to be affixed, this 4th day of November, 1948.

[SEAL] OSCAR L. CHAPMAN,
Acting Secretary of the Interior.

RULES AND REGULATIONS

TITLE 7—AGRICULTURE

Chapter IX—Production and Marketing Administration (Marketing Agreements and Orders)

[Lemon Reg. 298, Amdt. 1]

PART 953—LEMONS GROWN IN CALIFORNIA AND ARIZONA

LIMITATION OF SHIPMENTS

Findings. 1. Pursuant to the marketing agreement, as amended, and Order No. 53, as amended (7 CFR, Cum. Supp., 953.1 et seq.; 13 F. R. 766), regulating the handling of lemons grown in the State of California or in the State of Arizona, effective under the applicable provisions of the Agricultural Marketing Agreement Act of 1937, as amended, and upon the basis of the recommendation and information submitted by the Lemon Administrative Committee, established under the said amended marketing agreement and order, and upon other available information, it is hereby found that the limitation of the quantity of such lemons which may be handled, as hereinafter provided, will tend to effectuate the declared policy of the act.

2. It is hereby further found that it is impracticable and contrary to the public interest to give preliminary notice and engage in public rule-making procedure (60 Stat. 237; 5 U. S. C. 1001 et seq.) because the time intervening between the date when information upon which this amendment is based became available and the time when this amendment must become effective in order to effectuate the declared policy of the Agricultural Marketing Agreement Act of 1937, as amended, is insufficient, and this amendment relieves restrictions on the handling of lemons grown in the State of California or in the State of Arizona.

Order, as amended. The provisions in paragraph (b) (1) of § 953.405 (Lemon Regulation 298, 13 F. R. 6370), are hereby amended to read as follows:

(1) The quantity of lemons grown in the State of California or in the State of Arizona which may be handled during the period beginning at 12:01 a. m., P. s. t., October 31, 1948, and ending at 12:01 a. m., P. s. t., November 7, 1948, is hereby fixed as follows:

(i) District 1: 260 carloads;

Done at Washington, D. C., this 4th day of November 1948.

Acting Director, Fruit and Vegetable Branch, Production and Marketing Administration.

[Lemon Reg. 299]

PART 953—LEMONS GROWN IN CALIFORNIA AND ARIZONA

LIMITATION OF SHIPMENTS

§ 953.406 Lemon Regulation 299—(a) Findings. (1) Pursuant to the marketing agreement, as amended, and Order No. 53, as amended (7 CFR, Cum. Supp., 953.1 et seq.; 13 F. R. 766), regulating the handling of lemons grown in the State of California or in the State of Arizona, effective under the applicable provisions of the Agricultural Marketing Agreement Act of 1937, as amended, and upon the basis of the recommendation and information submitted by the Lemon Administrative Committee, established under the said amended marketing agreement and order, and upon other available information, it is hereby found that the limitation of the quantity of such lemons which may be handled, as hereinafter provided, will tend to effectuate the declared policy of the act.

(2) It is hereby further found that it is impracticable and contrary to the public interest to give preliminary notice, engage in public rule-making procedure, and postpone the effective date of this section until 30 days after publication thereof in the FEDERAL REGISTER (60 Stat. 237; 5 U. S. C. 1946 ed. 1001 et seq.) because the time intervening between the date when information upon which this section is based became available and the time when this section must become effective in order to effectuate the declared policy of the Agricultural Marketing Agreement Act of 1937, as amended, is insufficient, and a reasonable time is permitted, under the circumstances, for preparation for such effective date.

(b) Order. (1) The quantity of lemons grown in the State of California or in the State of Arizona which may be handled during the period beginning at 12:01 a. m., P. s. t., November 7, 1948 and ending at 12:01 a. m., P. s. t., November 14, 1948 is hereby fixed as follows:

(i) District 1: 245 carloads;

(ii) District 2: 5 carloads.

(2) The prorate base of each handler who has made application therefor, as provided in the said amended marketing agreement and order, is hereby fixed in accordance with the prorate base schedule which is attached hereto and made a part hereof by this reference.

(3) As used in this section, "handled," "handler," "carloads," "prorate base," "District 1," and "District 2" shall have the same meaning as is given to each such term in the said amended marketing agreement and order. (48 Stat. 31, as amended; 7 U. S. C. 601 et seq.)

Done at Washington, D. C., this 4th day of November 1948.

TITLE 8—ALIENS AND NATIONALITY

Chapter I—Immigration and Naturalization Service, Department of Justice

Subchapter B—Immigration Regulations

PART 110—PRIMARY INSPECTION AND DETENTION

PART 121—TREATY TRADERS

ALIENS COMING TO THE UNITED STATES AS TREATY TRADERS

OCTOBER 19, 1948.

Reference is made to the notice of proposed rule making which was published in the FEDERAL REGISTER dated August 21, 1948 (13 F. R. 4875), pursuant to section 4 of the Administrative Procedure Act (60 Stat. 238; 5 U. S. C. 1003) and in which there were stated in full the terms of proposed rules (8 CFR, Parts 110 and 121) relating to aliens coming to the United States as treaty traders. Representations which have been received concerning the proposal have been considered.

The rules as stated in the said notice of proposed rule making are hereby adopted without change and shall become effective on the thirty-first day after their publication with this order in the FEDERAL REGISTER.

The basis for the issuance of these rules is a determination that it will be advantageous to the Government and to persons concerned to define fully the conditions under which treaty traders may enter, and remain temporarily in, the United States. The general purpose of these rules is to make available to interested persons a comprehensive statement of the requirements for temporary admission to the United States of treaty traders.

CROSS REFERENCE: For consular procedure with respect to traders, see 22 CFR Part 61, particularly §§ 61.140–61.144.

SUBPART A—SUBSTANTIVE PROVISIONS

§ 121.1 Definitions. As used in this part, the term:

(a) "Trader" means an alien who is admitted to the United States under the provisions of section 3 (6) of the Immigration Act of 1924, as amended, solely to carry on trade, in his own behalf or as an agent of a foreign firm or corporation engaged in trade, which is principally between the United States and the foreign state of which he is a citizen or subject under and in pursuance of an existing treaty of commerce and navigation between the United States and the country of which he is a citizen or subject.

(b) "Dependent" means the alien wife of a trader or his alien unmarried child under 21 years of age, who is admitted to the United States under the provisions of the said section 3 (6) and who is accompanying the trader to the United States or is following to join him in the United States. A dependent need not be of the same nationality as the trader whose dependent he is.

(c) "District director" includes officers and employees who are under the supervision of the district director and whom he may direct to assist him in performing his duties and exercising his authority under this part.

§ 121.2 Time for which admitted. The time for which a trader or dependent may be admitted to the United States shall be fixed by date and shall be whatever period is appropriate to accomplish the purpose of his temporary stay in the United States: Provided:

(a) That the period shall not in any case exceed one year; and

(b) That the period shall not extend beyond the date 60 days prior to the end of the period during which the trader or dependent will be eligible for readmission to the country whence he came or for admission to some other foreign country; and

(c) That the period shall be deemed not to exceed the time during which the trader or dependent continues to fulfill all of the conditions of admission prescribed in § 121.3.

§ 121.3 Conditions of admission. The conditions under which an alien may be admitted to the United States as a trader or dependent shall be that he:

(a) Agrees that while in the United States he will not pursue any business or employment inconsistent with or unnecessary to the carrying on of business as a trader not specifically authorized by immigration officials.

(b) Agrees to leave the United States within the period of his admission or any authorized extension thereof and establishes that he has the ability to leave.

(c) Establishes that he is not subject to exclusion from the United States under any of the applicable provisions of the immigration laws or regulations. (A trader shall not be subject to the contract labor provisions of section 3 of the Immigration Act of 1917 (39 Stat. 875; 8 U. S. C. 136 (h)).)

(d) Presents whatever document or documents are required by the applicable Executive order or orders, or by Part 176 of this chapter or any other applicable regulations prescribing the documents to be presented by aliens entering the United States as traders or dependents, such document or documents to include, where required, evidence of compliance with all applicable provisions of Title III of the Alien Registration Act, 1940 (54 Stat. 673; 8 U. S. C. 451), relating to registration and fingerprinting. Where a passport is required, it must be valid for at least 60 days longer than the period of admission, as prescribed in § 176.500 of this chapter.

(e) Furnishes bond on Form I–338 or Form 638 in a sum of not less than $500 to insure that he will depart from the United States at the expiration of his specific period of authorized stay or upon failure to comply with the conditions under which admitted, whichever occurs first, if such bond is required by an officer in charge or by a board of special inquiry or pursuant to an order entered on appeal from the decision of such board.

(f) Agrees that if he does not depart from the United States within three months after admission he will report his address to the Commissioner and will make similar reports at the expiration of each following three months' period for as long as he remains in the United States, such reports to be made by filing out and mailing post card Form AR–11, which is obtainable without cost at United States immigration offices and post offices. In the cases of children, such reports shall be made by parents or guardians in accordance with the applicable provisions of Title III of the Alien Registration Act, 1940.

§ 121.4 Extension of stay; period of time; conditions. After an alien is admitted to the United States as a trader or dependent, he may upon proper showing be granted an extension or extensions of the period of his admission, subject to all of the following conditions:

(a) All extensions shall be subject to the same time limitations as are placed on original admissions by § 121.2; and

(b) The alien shall establish that he has fulfilled, and agree that he will continue to fulfill, all applicable conditions of admission prescribed by § 121.3; and

(c) The district director having jurisdiction may in his discretion require, as a condition precedent to the granting of an extension, the trader or dependent to furnish bond or to continue to furnish bond or to furnish bond in greater sum, on the form and containing the conditions stated in § 121.3 (e).

CROSS REFERENCE: For procedure for extensions of stay, including authority to make decisions on applications therefor, see § 121.12.

§ 121.5 Arrest and deportation. (a) An alien admitted as a trader or dependent shall be deemed to have remained in the United States for a longer time than permitted under law and regulations within the meaning of section 14 of the Immigration Act of 1924 if:

(1) He remains in the United States after the expiration of the time for which he was temporarily admitted or the expiration of any authorized extension of such period; or

(2) He violates, or fails or ceases to fulfill, any of the other conditions of his admission to or extended stay in the United States.

(b) Paragraph (a) of this section shall include, but not be limited to, cases:

(1) In which the treaty on which the admission was based is terminated.

(2) In which any dependent who is not a trader in his or her own right remains in the United States after the trader father or husband has remained in the United States for a longer time than permitted under this part.

(3) In which the dependent is a wife who is not a trader in her own right and her marriage to her trader husband is terminated by his death or by divorce.

(4) In which the dependent is a child who is not a trader in his own right and he becomes married or reaches or passes the age of 21 years.

(c) An alien admitted as a trader or as a dependent shall be subject to being taken into custody and made the subject of further proceedings under Part 150, Arrest and Deportation, of this chapter if:

(1) He remains in the United States for a longer time than permitted, as defined in paragraphs (a) and (b) of this section; or

(2) He is found to have been at the time of his entry as a trader or dependent not entitled under the Immigration Act of 1924 to enter the United States under such status.

(d) Notwithstanding the provisions of paragraph (c) of this section, any alien who is subject to being taken into custody under that paragraph but who is about to depart from the United States may, in the discretion of the district director having jurisdiction, be permitted to proceed from the United States.

§ 121.6 Effect of prior regulations. (a) The provisions of this part shall supersede the provisions of §§ 110.27, 110.28, and 110.29 of this chapter insofar as they relate to aliens who enter or apply to enter the United States as traders or dependents after this part becomes effective. Section 110.34 of this chapter is revoked.

(b) The provisions of this part shall not be applied in the cases of aliens who are in the United States in the status of traders or dependents at the time this part becomes effective. Regulations in effect at the time of the admission of such aliens shall continue to be applicable to their cases.

SUBPART B—PROCEDURAL AND OTHER NONSUBSTANTIVE PROVISIONS

§ 121.11 Authority to admit. If the examining immigrant inspector is satisfied beyond a doubt that an alien is admissible as a trader or dependent, he may admit him as such. If the examining immigrant inspector is satisfied that an alien would be admissible as a trader or dependent provided a bond should be furnished in accordance with the provisions of § 121.3 (e), the examining immigrant inspector may refer the case to the officer in charge of the port. If the officer in charge concludes that the alien would be admissible provided such bond should be furnished, the officer in charge may admit the alien as a trader or dependent upon the furnishing of such bond. If the examining immigrant inspector—or the officer in charge, in any bond case referred to him—is not satisfied that the alien applying for admission to the United States as a trader or dependent is admissible, he shall hold the alien for examination, and for decision in the case, by a board of special inquiry. The bond prescribed in § 121.3 (e) may be exacted by the board of special inquiry as a condition of admission.

§ 121.12 Extension of stay; procedure. (a) A trader or dependent may apply for an extension of the period of his temporary admission. Such application shall be submitted on Form I–539 approximately 30 days before the expiration of the period of admission or previously authorized extension thereof, to the district director of the district in which the applicant is engaged in trade or staying at the time the application is submitted. All available data specified in Form I–539 shall be furnished by the applicant. The application shall be accompanied by the applicant's passport, by any visitor's permit (Form 257a or I–94) issued to him, and, if a departure bond is outstanding in his case, by the consent of the obligors on the bond agreeing to the proposed extension of stay.

(b) After making such inquiry as may be necessary, the district director shall make a decision on the application and such decision shall be final, (1) except that the Commissioner may from time to time require certain classes of cases or individual cases to be submitted to him for review or for decision; and (2) except that, if the applicant has gone to another district and further information from him is needed, the district director may send the application to the other district for final action. The district director shall send to the applicant written notice of the decision, accompanied by any passport and Form 257a or I–94 submitted with the application. If one of those forms was submitted with the application and if the application is granted, such notice may be given by placing on the form a signed endorsement, which shall include the date through which the stay is extended. If the application is denied, the district director making the decision shall take appropriate action with a view to enforcing the alien's departure or removal from the United States, and the notice to the alien of the denial shall include advice as to such intended action.

(c) As soon as the district director notifies a trader or dependent of the decision on an application for extension of stay, the district director shall notify the officer in charge at the port where the trader or dependent was admitted of the terms of the decision.

(d) If the period of admission of a trader or dependent or any authorized extension of that period expires and the officer in charge at the port of entry has not received a notice under paragraph (c) of this section or under § 121.13 (b) or has not ascertained and cannot ascertain that the trader or dependent has departed from the United States, such officer shall report the facts to the district director of the district in which the alien is believed to be engaged in trade or staying or shall take any other action necessary to insure that the trader or dependent either departs or is removed from the United States.

§ 121.13 Investigation. (a) The district director of the district in which traders or dependents are engaged in trade or are staying shall investigate their cases to ascertain whether they are complying with the conditions of their admission.

(b) Any action which is taken in a district other than the one where the admission occurred and which has for its purpose the effecting of the departure or the removal of the alien from the United States shall be promptly reported to the officer in charge of the port where the alien was admitted.

JOHN P. BOYD,
Acting Commissioner of Immigration and Naturalization.

Approved: October 30, 1948.

TITLE 14—CIVIL AVIATION

Chapter I—Civil Aeronautics Board

[Civil Air Reg., Amdt. 41-2]

PART 41—CERTIFICATION AND OPERATION RULES FOR SCHEDULED AIR CARRIER OPERATIONS OUTSIDE CONTINENTAL LIMITS OF THE UNITED STATES

EXTENSION OF TERMINATION DATE OF ALASKAN AIR CARRIER OPERATING CERTIFICATES

Adopted by the Civil Aeronautics Board at its office in Washington, D. C., on the 29th day of October 1948.

The provisions of § 41.000, which authorize the Administrator to deviate from any specific requirement of Part 41 for a particular operation or class of operations within the Territory of Alaska, expire October 31, 1948.

Considerable study has been given to alleviating scheduled air carrier operational problems for those operations conducted wholly within the Territory of Alaska. The Board has considered promulgating a new part of the Civil Air Regulations solely for such operations. It has also considered authorizing such operations to be conducted under the provisions of Part 42, in view of the fact that many certificated air carrier operations wholly within Alaska are of an irregular nature, and the conditions under which these operations are carried on are such that the carriers cannot comply with all of the requirements of Part 41.

Acting under the provisions of § 41.000, with the concurrence of the Board, the Administrator has authorized the air carriers presently unable to comply fully with the requirements of Part 41 to conduct their operations under standards of safety comparable to those now required of carriers operating under present Part 42. In view of this fact, until such time as new requirements for irregular air carriers are promulgated, the Board believes that an indefinite extension of the authority contained in § 41.000 will result in a level of safety suitable for these operations.

Interested persons have been afforded an opportunity to participate in the making of this amendment, and due consideration has been given to all relevant matters presented. Since this amendment imposes no additional burden on any person, it may be made effective without prior notice.

In consideration of the foregoing the Civil Aeronautics Board hereby amends Part 41 of the Civil Air Regulations (14 CFR, Part 41, as amended) effective November 1, 1948:

By amending § 41.000 by striking the last sentence thereof, to wit:

All certificates issued under the authority of this section shall terminate not later than October 31, 1948.

(Sec. 205 (a), 52 Stat. 984; 49 U. S. C. 425 (a))

By the Civil Aeronautics Board.

Secretary.

TITLE 21—FOOD AND DRUGS

Chapter I—Food and Drug Administration, Federal Security Agency

PART 2—ENFORCEMENT OF THE FEDERAL FOOD, DRUG, AND COSMETIC ACT

EXEMPTION OF NEW DRUGS FOR INVESTIGATIONAL USE

Upon notice of proposed rule making given by the Federal Security Administrator in the FEDERAL REGISTER on July 14, 1948 (13 F. R. 3972), and after consideration of all written comments submitted by interested parties in accordance with said notice, it is, by virtue of the authority vested in the Federal Security Administrator by the provisions of section 505 (i) of the Federal Food, Drug, and Cosmetic Act (52 Stat. 1052; 21 U. S. C. 355 (i)): It is ordered, That the regulations (21 CFR, Cum. Supp., 2.114) exempting certain new drugs intended solely for investigational use from the provisions of section 505 (a) of the Federal Food, Drug, and Cosmetic Act (21 U. S. C. 355 (a)) be amended to read as follows:

§ 2.114 New drugs; exemptions from section 505 (a). (a) Except as provided by paragraph (b) of this section a shipment or other delivery of a new drug shall be exempt from the operation of section 505 (a) of the act if all of the following conditions are complied with:

(1) The label of such drugs bears the statement "Caution: New drug—Limited by Federal law to investigational use."

(2) Such shipment or delivery is made only to, and solely for investigational use by or under the direction of, an expert qualified by scientific training and experience to investigate the safety of such drug.

(3) The person who introduced such shipment or delivery into interstate commerce obtains, prior to the introduction, a statement signed by such expert showing that he has adequate facilities for the investigation to be conducted by him, and that such drug will be used solely by him or under his direction for the investigation, unless and until an application becomes effective with respect to such drug under section 505 of the act. This subparagraph shall not apply when such shipment or delivery is made to an agency of the Government of the United States (including the National Research Council), or of any State or municipality, whose official functions involve investigations of new drugs by such experts.

(4) Such person keeps the statement referred to in subparagraph (3) of this paragraph, and complete records showing the date, quantity, and batch or code mark (if any), of each such shipment and delivery.

(5) Such person makes all records and statements referred to in subparagraphs (3) and (4) of this paragraph available for inspection upon the request of any officer or employee of the Agency at any reasonable hour until 3 years after the introduction of such shipment or delivery into interstate commerce.

(b) A shipment or other delivery of a new drug which is being imported or offered for import into the United States shall be exempt from the operation of section 505 (a) of the act if all of the following conditions are complied with:

(1) The label of such drug bears the statement "Caution: New Drug—Limited by United States law to investigational use."

(2) The importer of all such shipments or deliveries is an agent of the foreign exporter, residing in the United States, or the operator of an establishment in the United States which has facilities for regularly investigating the safety of such drugs, which facilities are manned by experts qualified by scientific training and experience to conduct such investigation.

(3) Such operator uses such drug solely for such investigation in such establishment, or such operator or agent otherwise disposes of such drug only to, and solely for investigational use by or under the direction of, such an expert other than one in such establishment.

(4) Such importer, prior to disposing of any of such drug to such an expert, obtains a statement signed by such expert showing that he has adequate facilities for the investigation to be conducted by him, and that such drug will be used solely by him or under his direction for the investigation, unless and until an application becomes effective with respect to such drug under section 505 of the act. This subparagraph shall not apply to any shipment or delivery or part thereof disposed of by such importer to an agency of the Government of the United States (including the National Research Council) or of any State or municipality whose official functions involve investigations of new drugs by such experts.

(5) Such importer keeps the statement referred to in subparagraph (4) of this paragraph and complete records showing the date, quantity, and batch or code marks (if any), of each such shipment and delivery and the disposition thereof.

(6) Such importer makes all statements and records referred to in subparagraphs (4) and (5) of this paragraph available for inspection upon the request of any officer or employee of the Agency at any reasonable hour until 3

[1] 46 Stat. 694, 19 U. S. C. 1313. "Upon the exportation of merchandise not conforming to sample or specifications upon which duties have been paid and which have been entered or withdrawn for consumption and, within thirty days after release from customs custody, returned to customs custody for exportation, the full amount of the duties paid upon such merchandise shall be refunded as drawback, less one per centum of such duties."

years after disposition by such importer of the lot of such drug to which such statement and records relate.

(c) An exemption under paragraph (a) or (b) of this section shall become void ab initio if any record or statement required by such paragraph to be kept and made available for inspection is not kept or made available as so required.

(d) An exemption under paragraph (a) or (b) of this section shall expire with respect to any exempted shipment or delivery or part thereof which has been supplied to an expert who has signed the statement referred to in paragraph (a) (3) or (b) (4), of this section and which is used otherwise than in accordance with such signed statement.

(e) An exemption under paragraph (b) of this section shall become void ab initio if the exempted shipment or delivery or any part thereof is disposed of otherwise than as provided by subparagraph (3) of such paragraph.

(f) No exemption under paragraph (b) of this section shall apply to any shipment or delivery to such importer if such importer, within 3 years prior to the offering of such shipment or delivery for import, has caused an exemption to become void as provided by paragraph (c) or (e) of this section. (52 Stat. 1052; 21 U. S. C. 355 (i))

This order shall become effective 30 days after publication in the FEDERAL REGISTER.

Dated: October 29, 1948.

TITLE 26—INTERNAL REVENUE

Chapter I—Bureau of Internal Revenue, Department of the Treasury

Subchapter A—Income and Excess Profits Taxes

PART 29—INCOME TAX; TAXABLE YEARS BEGINNING AFTER DECEMBER 31, 1941

CONTRIBUTIONS OF EMPLOYER TO EMPLOYEES' TRUST OR ANNUITY PLAN AND COMPENSATION UNDER A DEFERRED PAYMENT PLAN

On November 14, 1947 notice of proposed rule making relating to contributions of an employer to an employees' trust or annuity plan and compensation under a deferred payment plan was published in the FEDERAL REGISTER (12 F. R. 7596). After consideration of all such relevant matter as was presented by interested persons regarding the proposal, the following amendments to Regulations 111 (26 CFR, Part 29) are hereby adopted.

PARAGRAPH 1. Section 29.23 (p)–1 is amended as follows:

(A) The third and following sentences of the first paragraph thereof are stricken out and there is inserted in lieu thereof the following: "Section 23 (p) does not apply to a plan which does not defer the receipt of compensation. Neither does section 23 (p) apply to deductions for contributions under a plan which is primarily a dismissal wage, or unemployment benefit plan or a sickness, accident, hospitalization, medical expense, recreational, welfare, or similar benefit plan, or a combination thereof. Section 23 (p) is, however, applicable to all contributions (including contributions to provide incidental benefits such as life insurance protection) under a stock bonus, pension, profit-sharing, or annuity plan, whether or not the employees' rights in such contributions are nonforfeitable, but deductions under this section are subject to conditions and limitations under section 23 (a) as well as those particularly provided in section 23 (p)."

(B) The second paragraph thereof is amended to read as follows:

In order to be deductible under section 23 (p), contributions must be expenses which would be deductible under section 23 (a) if it were not for the provision in section 23 (p) (1) that they are deductible, if at all, only under section 23 (p). Contributions may therefore be deducted under section 23 (p) only to the extent that they are ordinary and necessary expenses during the taxable year in carrying on trade or business and are, compensation for personal services actually rendered. In no case is a deduction allowable under section 23 (p) for the amount of any contribution for the benefit of an employee in excess of the amount which, together with other deductions allowed for compensation for such employee's services, constitutes a reasonable allowance for compensation for the services actually rendered. What constitutes a reasonable allowance depends upon the facts in the particular case. Among the elements to be considered in determining this are the personal services actually rendered in prior years as well as the current year and all compensation and contributions paid to or for such employee in prior years as well as in the current year. Thus, a contribution which is in the nature of additional compensation for services performed in prior years may be deductible, even if the total of such contributions and other compensation for the current year would be in excess of reasonable compensation for services performed in the current year, provided that such total plus all compensation and contributions paid to or for such employee in prior years represents a reasonable allowance for all services rendered by the employee by the end of the current year. A contribution under a plan which is primarily for the benefit of shareholders of the employer is not deductible. Such a contribution may constitute a dividend within the meaning of section 115 (a). See also §§ 29.23 (a)–6 and 29.23 (a)–8. In addition to the limitations referred to above, deductions under section 23 (p) are also subject to further conditions and limitations particularly provided therein.

(C) The second sentence of the third paragraph thereof is amended to read as follows: "Thus, where a corporation pays pensions to such of its retired employees and in such amounts as may be determined from time to time by the board of directors or responsible officers of the company, or where a corporation is under an obligation, whether funded or unfunded, to pay a pension or other deferred compensation to an employee, there is a method having the effect of a plan deferring the receipt of compensation for which deductions are governed by section 23 (p)."

PAR. 2. Section 29.23 (p)–2 is amended to read as follows:

§ 29.23 (p)–2 Information to be furnished by employer claiming deductions. If a deduction from gross income is claimed under section 23 (p) (1) (A), (B), (C), or (F), the employer, except as otherwise provided in paragraph (j) of this section, must file the following information for each plan involved to establish that it meets the requirements of section 165 (a) or 23 (p) (1) (B), and that the deductions claimed do not exceed the amount allowable under subparagraphs (A), (B), (C), or (F) of section 23 (p) (1), as the case may be:

(a) Verified copies of all the instruments constituting or evidencing the plan, including trust indentures, group annuity contracts, specimen copy of each type of individual contract, and specimen copy of formal announcement and comprehensive detailed description to employees, with all amendments to any such instruments.

(b) A statement describing the plan which identifies it and which sets forth the name or names of the employers, the effective date of the plan and of any amendments thereto, the method of distribution or of disbursing benefits (whether by trustee, insurance company, or otherwise), the dates when the instruments or amendments were executed, the date of formal announcement and the dates when comprehensive detailed description of the plan and of each amendment thereto were made available to employees generally, the dates when the plan and when the trust or the contract evidencing the plan and of any amendments thereto were put into effect so that contributions thereunder were irrevocable, and a summary of the provisions and rules relating to:

(1) Employee eligibility requirements for participation in the plan,

(2) Employee contributions,

(3) Employer contributions,

(4) The basis or formula for determining the amount of each type of benefit and the requirements for obtaining such benefits and the vesting conditions,

(5) The medium of funding (e. g., self-insured, unit purchase group annuity contract, individual level annual premium retirement endowment insurance contracts, etc.) and, if not wholly insured, the medium of contributions and the kind of investments, and

(6) The discontinuance or modification of the plan and distributions or benefit payments upon liquidation or termination.

(1) Name.

(2) Whether an officer.

(3) Percentage of each class of stock owned directly or indirectly by the employee or members of his family.

(4) Whether the principal duties consist in supervising the work of other employees.

(5) Year of birth.

(6) Length of service for employer to the close of the year.

(7) Total nondeferred compensation paid or accrued during the taxable year with a breakdown of such compensation into the following components: (i) Basic compensation and overtime pay, (ii) other direct payments, such as bonuses and commissions, (iii) compensation paid other than in cash, such as goods, services, insurance not directly related to the benefits or provided from funds under the plan, etc.

(9) Amount allocated during the year for the benefit of the employee or his beneficiary (including any insurance provided thereby or directly related thereto), less the employee's contributions during the year, under the plan. If a profit-sharing or stock bonus plan, also a breakdown of such amounts into the following components: (i) Amounts originally allocated in the year, and (ii) amounts reallocated in the year.

(10) Amount of employee contributions during the year under the plan.

(11) If a pension or annuity plan, (i) the retirement age and date and the form of the retirement benefit, (ii) the annual rate or amount of the retirement benefit, and (iii) the aggregate of all of the employee's contributions under the plan, all based, in the case of an employee who is not on retirement benefit under the plan, upon the assumption of his continued employment at his current rate of compensation until his normal retirement age (or the end of the current year if later) and retirement on such date with the normal form of retirement benefit under the plan.

(d) The following totals:

(1) Total non-deferred compensation paid or accrued during the taxable year for all employees covered under the plan and also for all employees of the employer.

(2) Total amount allocated during the year for the benefit of employees, former or retired employees, or their beneficiaries (including any insurance provided thereby or directly related thereto), less employees contributions during the year under the plan and, if a profit-sharing or stock bonus plan, also a breakdown of such total into the following components: (i) Amount originally allocated in the year, and (ii) amount reallocated in the year.

(e) A schedule showing the total number of employees as of the close of the year for each of the following groups, based on reasonable estimates:

(1) All employees ineligible for coverage under the plan because of requirements as to employment classification, specifying the reasons applicable to the group (as, for example, temporary, seasonal, part time, hourly pay basis, etc.).

(2) All employees ineligible for coverage under the plan because of requirements as to length of service and not included in subparagraph (1) of this paragraph.

(3) All employees ineligible for coverage under the plan because of requirements as to minimum age and not included in subparagraphs (1) or (2) of this paragraph.

(4) All employees ineligible for coverage under the plan solely because of requirements as to minimum rate of compensation.

(5) All employees ineligible for coverage under the plan other than those employees included in subparagraphs (1), (2), (3), or (4) of this paragraph, specifying the reasons applicable to the group.

(6) All employees ineligible for coverage under the plan for any reasons, which should be the sum of subparagraphs (1) to (5), of this paragraph.

(7) All employees eligible for coverage but not covered under the plan.

(8) All employees covered under the plan.

(9) All employees of the employer, which should be the sum of subparagraphs (6), (7), and (8) of this paragraph.

If it is claimed that the requirements of section 165 (a) (3) (A) are satisfied, also the data and computations necessary to show that such requirements are satisfied.

(f) In the case of a trust, a detailed balance sheet and a detailed statement of receipts and disbursements during the year; in the case of a nontrusteed annuity plan, a detailed statement of the names of the insurers, the contributions paid by the employer and by the employees, and a statement as to the amounts and kinds of premium refunds or similar credits made available and the disposition of such credits in the year.

(g) If a pension or annuity plan, a detailed description of all the methods, factors, and assumptions used in determining costs and in adjusting the costs for actual experience under the plan (including any loadings, contingency reserves, or special factors and the basis of any insured costs or liabilities involved therein) explaining their source and application in sufficient detail to permit ready analysis and verification thereof, and, in the case of a trust, a detailed description of the basis used in valuing the investments held. Also a summary of the resulting costs or liabilities and adjustments for the year under the pension or annuity plan in sufficient detail to permit ready verification of the reasonableness thereof.

(h) A statement of the applicable limitations under section 23 (p) (1) (A), (B), (C), or (F) and an explanation of the method of determining such limitations and a summary of the data and computations necessary to determine the allowable deductions for the taxable year.

(j) If there is any change in the plan, instruments, methods, factors, or assumptions upon which the data and information specified in paragraph (a), (b), or (g) of this section are based, a detailed statement explaining the change and its effect must be filed with the information otherwise required for the taxable year in which the change is put into effect and, insofar as there is no such change, after the data and information specified in those paragraphs has been filed in connection with a tax return, unless otherwise requested by the Commissioner, a statement that there is no such change may be filed in lieu of repeated filing of the information. After the information specified in paragraph (c) of this section has been filed for two consecutive years, unless otherwise requested by the Commissioner, so long as the plan and the method and basis of allocations are not changed, the tabulation need show such information only with respect to employees who, at any time in the taxable year, own, directly or indirectly, more than 5 percent of the voting stock, considering stock so owned by an individual's spouse or minor lineal descendant as owned by the individual for this purpose.

If a deduction is claimed under section 23 (p) (1) (D) for the taxable year, the taxpayer shall furnish such information as is necessary to show that the deduction is not allowable under the other subparagraphs of section 23 (p) (1), that the amount paid is an ordinary and necessary expense, and that the employees' rights to or derived from such employer's contribution or such compensation were nonforfeitable at the time the contribution or compensation was paid.

For the purpose of the above information, contributions paid in a taxable year should include those deemed to be so paid in accordance with the provisions of section 23 (p) (1) (E) and exclude those deemed to be paid in the prior taxable year in accordance with such provisions. As used in this section "taxable year" refers to the taxable year of the employer and, unless otherwise requested by the Commissioner, a "year" which is not specified as a "taxable year" may be taken as the taxable year of the employer or as the plan, trust, valuation, or group contract year beginning in the taxable year of the employer provided the same rule is followed consistently so that there is no gap or overlap in the information furnished for each item. In any case the date or period to which each item of information furnished relates should be clearly shown. All the information required by this section should be filed with the tax return for the taxable year in which the deduction is claimed except that, unless sooner requested by the Commissioner, such information, other than that specified in subparagraph (1) of paragraph (d) of this section and in paragraph (i), of this section may be filed within 12 months after the close of the taxable year provided there is filed with the tax return a statement that the information cannot reasonably be filed therewith, setting forth the reasons therefor.

In any case all the information and data required by this section must be filed in the collector's office in which the employer files his tax returns and identified for association with the appropriate returns and must be filed independently of any information and data otherwise submitted in connection with a determination of the qualification of the trust or plan under section 165 (a). The Commissioner may, in addition, require any further information that he considers necessary to determine allowable deductions under section 23 (p) or qualification under section 165 (a) and may waive the filing of such information required herein which he finds unnecessary in a particular case. Unless requested by the Commissioner, the information specified above need not be filed for any taxable year ending prior to January 1, 1949 if the information specified in this section prior to its amendment by Treasury Decision 5666 is filed for such year.

Records substantiating all data and information required by this section to be filed must be kept at all times available for inspection by internal revenue officers at the main office or place of business of the employer.

PAR. 3. Section 29.23 (p)–3 is amended as follows:

(A) The words "allows additional deductions" in the first sentence thereof are stricken out and there is inserted in lieu thereof the words "provides alternative limitations".

(B) The following paragraph is inserted at the end thereof:

If contributions are paid to or under more than one plan in the taxable year beginning in 1942 and prior to September 1, 1942, the alternative limitations provided in section 162 (d) (1) (C) of the Revenue Act of 1942 are determined by applying the provisions of this section severally to the several plans and respective contributions. See also § 29.23 (p)–12.

PAR. 4. Section 29.23 (p)–4 is amended to read as follows:

§ 29.23 (p)–4 Contributions of an employer to or under an employees' pension trust or annuity plan that meets the requirements of section 165 (a); application of section 23 (p) (1) (A); in general. If contributions are paid by an employer in a taxable year beginning after December 31, 1941 to or under a pension trust or annuity plan for employees and the general conditions and limitations applicable to deductions for such contributions are satisfied (see § 29.23 (p)–1), the contributions are deductible under section 23 (p) (1) (A) or (B) if the further conditions provided therein are also satisfied. As used here, a "pension trust" means a trust forming part of a pension plan and an "annuity plan" means a pension plan under which retirement benefits are provided under annuity or insurance contracts without a trust. For the meaning of "pension plan" as used here, see § 29.165–1 (a). Where disability, withdrawal, insurance, or survivorship benefits incidental and directly related to the retirement benefits under a pension or annuity plan are provided for the employees or their beneficiaries by contributions under the plan, deductions on account of such incidental benefits are also covered under section 23 (p) (1) (A) or (B). See § 29.165–6 as to taxability to employees of cost of incidental insurance protection. In order to be deductible under section 23 (p) (1) (A), contributions to a pension trust must be paid in a taxable year of the employer which ends with or within a year of the trust for which it is exempt under section 165 (a). In order that contributions carried over may be deducted in a succeeding taxable year of the employer in accordance with section 23 (p) (1) (A) (iv), the succeeding year also must end with or within a taxable year of the trust for which it is exempt under section 165 (a). See § 29.23 (p)–9 as to conditions for deductions under section 23 (p) (1) (B) in the case of an annuity plan. In either case the deductions are also subject to further limitations provided in section 23 (p) (1) (A). The limitations provided in section 23 (p) (1) (A), with an exception provided for certain years under clause (i) thereof (see §29.23 (p)–5), are based on the actuarial costs of the plan and section 23 (p) (1) (A) requires that the costs and the limitations based on costs under that section shall be determined under regulations prescribed by the Commissioner with the approval of the Secretary (or, in certain cases under section 23 (p) (1) (A) (i), in accordance with a finding of the Commissioner).

In determining costs for the purpose of limitations under section 23 (p) (1) (A), the effects of expected mortality and interest must be discounted and the effects of expected withdrawals, changes in compensation, retirements at various ages, and other pertinent factors may be discounted or otherwise reasonably recognized. A properly weighted retirement age based on adequate analyses of representative experience may be used as an assumed retirement age. Different basic assumptions or rates may be used for different classes of risks or different groups where justified by conditions or required by contract. In no event shall costs for the purpose of section 23 (p) (1) (A) exceed costs based on assumptions and methods all of which are reasonable in view of the provisions and coverage of the plan, funding medium, reasonable expectations as to the effects of mortality and interest, reasonable and adequate regard for other factors such as withdrawal and deferred retirement, whether or not discounted, which can be expected to reduce costs materially, reasonable expenses of operation, and all other relevant conditions and circumstances. In any case, in determining the costs and limitations an adjustment shall be made on account of any experience more favorable than that assumed in the basis of limitations for prior years, and, unless such adjustments are consistently made every year by reducing the limitations otherwise determined by any decrease in liability or cost arising from experience in the next preceding taxable year more favorable than the assumed experience on which the costs and limitations were based, the adjustment shall be made by some other method approved by the Commissioner.

Any expenses incurred by the employer in connection with the plan, such as trustee's and actuary's fees, which are not provided for by contributions under it are deductible under section 23 (a) to the extent that they are ordinary and necessary.

In case contributions are paid in the employer's taxable year beginning in 1942 and prior to September 1, 1942, the limitation on deductions for such taxable year is subject to an exception provided in section 162 (d) (1) (C) of the Revenue Act of 1942 (see § 29.23 (p)–3).

In case deductions are allowable under section 23 (p) (1) (C) as well as under section 23 (p) (1) (A) or (B), the limitations under section 23 (p) (1) (A) and (C) are determined and applied without giving effect to the provisions of section 23 (p) (1) (F) but the amounts allowable as deductions are subject to the further limitations provided in section 23 (p) (1) (F) (see § 29.23 (p)–12).

PAR. 5. Section 29.23 (p)–5 is amended to read as follows:

§ 29.23 (p)–5 Pension and annuity plans; limitations under section 23 (p) (1) (A) (i). Subject to the applicable general conditions and limitations (see § 29.23 (p)–4), the initial limitation under section 23 (p) (1) (A) (i) is 5 percent of the compensation otherwise paid or accrued during the taxable year to all employees under the pension or annuity plan. This initial 5 percent limitation applies to the first taxable year beginning after December 31, 1941 for which a deduction is allowed for contributions to or under such a plan and also applies to any subsequent year for which the 5 percent figure is not reduced by the Commissioner as provided below. For years to which the initial 5 percent limitation applies no adjustment on account of prior experience is required. If the contributions do not exceed the initial 5 percent limitation in the first taxable year to which this limitation applies, the taxpayer need not submit actuarial data for such year.

For the first taxable year following the first year to which the initial 5 percent limitation applies, and for every fifth year thereafter, or more frequently where preferable to the taxpayer, the taxpayer shall submit with his return a certification by a qualified actuary or by the company underwriting a nontrusteed annuity plan of the amount reasonably necessary to provide the remaining unfunded cost of past and current service credits of all employees under the plan with a statement explaining all the methods, factors, and assumptions used in determining such amount. This amount may be determined as the sum of (a) the unfunded past service cost as of the beginning of the year, and (b) the normal cost for the year, all determined by methods, factors, and assumptions appropriate as a basis of limitations under clause (iii). Whenever requested by the Commissioner a similar certification and statement shall be submitted for the year or years specified in such request. The Commissioner will make periodical examinations of such data at not less than 5-year intervals and will reduce the limitation under clause (i) below the 5 percent limitation for the years with respect to which he finds that the 5 percent limitation exceeds the amount reasonably necessary to provide the remaining unfunded cost of past and current service credits of all employees under the plan. Where the limitation is so reduced, the reduced limitation shall apply until the Commissioner finds that a subsequent actuarial valuation shows a change to be necessary. Such subsequent valuation may be made by the taxpayer at any time and submitted to the Commissioner with a request for a change in the limitation.

For the purpose of limitations under clause (i), "compensation otherwise paid or accrued" means all of the compensation paid or accrued except that for which a deduction is allowable under a plan that qualifies under section 165 (a), including a plan that qualifies under section 23 (p) (1) (B). Where two or more pension or annuity plans cover the same employee, under clause (i) the deductions with respect to each such plan are subject to the limitations applicable to the particular plan and the total deductions for all such plans are also subject to the limitations which would be applicable thereto if they constituted a single plan. Where, because of the particular provisions applicable to a large class of employees under a plan, the costs with respect to such employees are nominal in comparison with their compensation, after the first year to which the initial 5 percent limitation applies, deductions under clause (i) are subject to limitations determined by considering the plan applicable to such class as if it were a separate plan. Deductions are allowable to the extent of the applicable limitations under clause (i) even where these are greater than the applicable limitations under clause (ii) or clause (iii).

PAR. 6. Section 29.23 (p)–6 is amended to read as follows:

§ 29.23 (p)–6 Pension and annuity plans; limitations under section 23 (p) (1) (A) (ii). Subject to the applicable general conditions and limitations (see § 29.23 (p)–4), under section 23 (p) (1) (A) (ii) deductions may be allowed to the extent of limitations based on costs determined by distributing the remaining unfunded cost of the past and current service credits with respect to all employees covered under the trust or plan as a level amount or level percentage of compensation over the remaining service of each such employee except that, as to any three individuals with respect to whom more than 50 percent of such remaining unfunded cost is attributable, the remaining unfunded cost attributable to such individuals shall be distributed over a period of at least five taxable years.

The determination of costs as a basis of deductions under clause (ii) of section 23 (p) (1) (A) may be illustrated by a case where it is estimated actuarially as of the beginning of the plan on the basis of appropriate assumptions and factors that employer contributions of 4 percent of compensation of each covered employee during his remaining service will be sufficient to provide the current service credits of all employees under the plan and employer contributions of 3 percent of compensation of each covered employee during his remaining service will be sufficient to provide the past service credits of all employees under the plan, so that the estimated cost for the first year is 7 percent of compensation of covered employees.

The statutory limitation for any taxable year under clause (ii) is any excess of the amount necessary for the year on the basis of the costs over the amount allowable as a deduction under clause (i), all determined under regulations prescribed by the Commissioner with the approval of the Secretary.

For this purpose such excess, adjusted for prior experience, may be computed for each year as follows, all determinations being made as of the beginning of the year:

(a) Determine the value of all benefits expected to be paid after the beginning of the year for all employees, any former employees, and any other beneficiaries, then covered under the plan.

(b) If employees contribute under the plan, determine the value of all contributions expected to be made after the beginning of the year by employees then covered under the plan.

(c) Determine the value of all funds of the plan as of the beginning of the year.

(d) Determine the amount remaining to be distributed as a level amount or as a level percentage of compensation over the remaining future service of each employee by subtracting from paragraph (a) of this section the sum of paragraphs (b) and (c) of this section.

(e) Determine the value of all compensation expected to be paid after the beginning of the year to all employees then covered under the plan.

(f) Determine an accrual rate for each employee by dividing paragraph (e) of this section into paragraph (d) of this section.

(g) Compute the excess under clause (ii) for the year by multiplying the compensation paid to all employees covered under the plan during the year by any excess of paragraph (f) of this section over 5 percent. In general, where this method is used, the limitation under clause (ii) will be equal to the excess so computed without further adjustment on account of prior favorable experience, provided all the factors and assumptions used are reasonable in view of all applicable considerations (see § 29.23 (p)–4 and provided paragraph (e) of this section is not less than five times the annual rate of compensation in effect at the beginning of the year.

Instead of determining the excess deductible under clause (ii) by the above method, such excess may be based upon costs determined by some other method which is reasonable and appropriate under the circumstances. Thus, such excess may be based on the amounts necessary with respect to each individual covered employee to provide the remaining unfunded cost of all his benefits under the plan distributed as a level amount over the period remaining until the normal commencement of his retirement benefits, in accordance with other generally accepted actuarial methods which are reasonable and appropriate in view of the provisions of the plan and the funding medium. In view of the relationship of clause (ii) to clauses (i) and (iii), however, if the excess is determined by a method other than that set forth in the preceding paragraph the total limitations under clauses (i) and (ii) combined must be determined by a method approved by the Commissioner, except where they do not exceed the limitations under clause (iii), adjusted for prior favorable experience.

PAR. 7. Section 29.23 (p)–7 is amended to read as follows:

§ 29.23 (p)–7 Pension and annuity plans; limitations under section 23 (p) (1) (A) (iii). Subject to the applicable general conditions and limitations (see § 29.23 (p)–4), under section 23 (p) (1) (A) (iii), in lieu of amounts deductible under the limitations of clause (i) and clause (ii), deductions may be allowed to the extent of limitations based on normal and past service or supplementary costs of providing benefits under the plan. "Normal cost" for any year is the amount actuarially determined which would be required as a contribution by the employer in such year to maintain the plan if the plan had been in effect from the beginning of service of each then included employee and if such costs for prior years had been paid and all assumptions as to interest, mortality, time of payment, etc., had been fulfilled. Past service or supplementary cost at any time is the amount actuarially determined which would be required at such time to meet all the future benefits provided under the plan which would not be met by future normal costs and employee contributions with respect to the employees covered under the plan at such time.

The limitation under clause (iii) for any taxable year is the sum of normal cost for the year plus an amount not in excess of one-tenth of the past service or supplementary cost as of the date the past service or supplementary credits are provided under the plan, all determined under regulations prescribed by the Commissioner with the approval of the Secretary. For this purpose the normal costs may be determined by any generally accepted actuarial method and may be expressed either as (a) the aggregate of level amounts with respect to each employee covered under the plan, (b) a level percentage of payroll with respect to each employee covered under the plan, or (c) the aggregate of the single premium or unit costs for the unit credits accruing during the year with respect to each employee covered under the plan, provided, in any case, that the method is reasonable in view of the provisions and coverage of the plan, funding medium, and other applicable considerations. The limitation may include one-tenth of the past service or supplementary cost as of the date the provisions resulting in such cost were put into effect, but is subject to adjustments for prior favorable experience. See § 29.23 (p)–4. In any case past service or supplementary costs shall not be included in the limitation for any year when the amount required to fully fund or purchase such past service or supplementary credits has been deducted and no deduction is allowable for any amount (other than the normal cost) which is paid in after such credits are fully funded or purchased.

PAR. 8. Section 29.23 (p)–8 is amended to read as follows:

§ 29.23 (p)–8 Pension and annuity plans; contributions in excess of limitations under section 23 (p) (1) (A); application of section 23 (p) (1) (A) (iv). Where contributions paid by an employer in a taxable year beginning after December 31, 1941 to or under a pension or annuity plan exceed the limitations applicable to such year under section 23 (p) (1) (A) but otherwise satisfy the conditions for deduction under section 23 (p) (1) (A) or (B), in accordance with clause (iv) of section 23 (p) (1) (A) the excess contributions are carried over and deductible in succeeding taxable years in order of time to the extent of the difference between the amount paid and deductible in each such succeeding year and the limitation applicable to such year under clause (i), (ii), or (iii). Such excess contributions are deductible under clause (iv) of section 23 (p) (1) (A) in succeeding taxable years in order of time to the extent of the difference between the amount paid and deductible in each such succeeding year and the limitation applicable to such year under clause (i), (ii), or (iii). The provisions of clause (iv) are to be applied after giving effect to the exception provided in section 162 (d) (1) (C) of the Revenue Act of 1942 for a taxable year beginning in 1942 (see § 29.23 (p)–3) but before giving effect to the provisions of section 23 (p) (1) (F) for any year. The carry-over provisions of section 23 (p) (1) (A) (iv), after effect has been given to section 162 (d) (1) (C) of the Revenue Act of 1942, but before effect has been given to section 23 (p) (1) (F) may be illustrated by the following example:

Taxable year ending December 31, 1942:
Amount of contributions paid in year	$100,000
Limitation applicable to year	60,000
Amount deductible for year	60,000
Excess carried over to succeeding years	40,000
Taxable year ending December 31, 1943:
Amount of contributions paid in year	25,000
Carried over from previous years	40,000
Total deductible subject to limitation	65,000
Limitation applicable to year	50,000
Amount deductible for year	50,000
Excess carried over to succeeding years	15,000
Taxable year ending December 31, 1944:
Amount of contributions paid in year	10,000
Carried over from previous years	15,000
Total deductible subject to limitation	25,000
Limitation applicable to year	45,000
Amount deductible for year	25,000
Excess carried over to succeeding years	None

PAR. 9. Section 29.23 (p)–9, as amended by Treasury Decision 5436, approved February 3, 1945, is further amended to read as follows:

§ 29.23 (p)–9 Contributions of an employer under an employees' annuity plan that meets the requirements of section 165 (a); application of section 23 (p) (1) (B). If contributions are paid by an employer in a taxable year beginning after December 31, 1941 under an annuity plan for employees and the general conditions and limitations applicable to deductions for such contributions are satisfied (see § 29.23 (p)–1), the contributions are deductible under section 23 (p) (1) (B) if the further conditions provided therein are satisfied. For the meaning of "annuity plan" as used here, see § 29.23 (p)–4. In order that contributions by the employer may be deducted under section 23 (p) (1) (B) all of the following conditions must be satisfied:

(a) The contributions must be paid toward the purchase of retirement annuities (or for disability, severance, insurance, or survivorship benefits incidental and directly related to such annuities) under an annuity plan for the exclusive benefit of the employer's employees or their beneficiaries. See § 29.165–1 (a).

(b) The contributions must be paid in a taxable year of the employer which ends with or within a year of the plan for which it meets the applicable requirements with respect to discrimination set out in paragraphs (3), (4), (5), and (6) of section 165 (a). In order that contributions carried over may be deducted in a succeeding taxable year of the employer in accordance with section 23 (p) (1) (A) (iv), the succeeding year also must end with or within a taxable year of the plan for which it meets such requirements. See §§ 29.165–3 and 29.-

165–4. In the case of an annuity plan in effect on or before September 1, 1942, the requirements of these paragraphs do not apply to any period of the plan within the taxable year of the employer beginning in 1942 and are considered to be satisfied for the period beginning with the beginning of the first taxable year of the employer following December 31, 1942, and ending June 30, 1945, if the provisions thereof satisfy such requirements by June 30, 1945, and if by that time all provisions of such plan which are necessary to satisfy such requirements are in effect and have been made effective for all purposes with respect to the portion of such period after December 31, 1943. In the case of an annuity plan put into effect after September 1, 1942, and prior to January 1, 1945, these requirements are considered to be satisfied for the period beginning with the date on which it was put into effect and ending with June 30, 1945, if all provisions of the plan which are necessary to satisfy such requirements are in effect by the end of such period and have been made effective for all purposes with respect to the portion of such period after December 31, 1943. In the case of an annuity plan put into effect after December 31, 1944, these requirements are considered to be satisfied for the period beginning with the date on which it was put into effect and ending with the 15th day of the third month following the close of the taxable year of the employer in which the plan was put into effect, if all provisions of the plan which are necessary to satisfy such requirements are in effect by the end of such period and have been made effective for all purposes with respect to the whole of such period. See section 162 (d) of the Revenue Act of 1942, as amended by Public Law 511 (78th Congress), approved December 20, 1944, and § 29.165–5.

(c) There must be a definite written arrangement between the employer and the insurer that refunds of premiums, if any, shall be applied within the taxable year of the employer in which received or within the next succeeding taxable year toward the purchase of retirement annuities (or for disability, severance, insurance, or survivorship benefits incidental and directly related to such annuities) under the plan. For the purpose of this condition, "refunds of premiums" means payments by the insurer on account of credits such as dividends, experience rating credits, or surrender or cancellation credits. The arrangement may be in the form of contract provisions or written directions of the employer or partly in one form and partly in another. This condition will be considered satisfied where (1) all credits are applied regularly as they are determined toward the premiums next due under the contracts before any further employer contributions are so applied, and (2) under the arrangement (i) no refund of premiums may be made during continuance of the plan unless applied as aforesaid and (ii) if refunds of premiums may be made after discontinuance of the plan on account of surrenders or cancellations before all retirement annuities provided under the plan with respect to service prior to its discontinuance have been purchased, such refunds will be applied in the taxable year of the employer in which received or in the next succeeding taxable year to purchase retirement annuities for employees by a procedure which does not contravene the conditions of section 165 (a) (4).

Where the above conditions are satisfied, the amounts of deductions are under section 23 (p) (1) (B) are governed by the limitations provided in section 23 (p) (1) (A). See §§ 29.23 (p)–4 to 29.23 (p)–8, inclusive.

PAR. 10. Section 29.23 (p)–10 is amended to read as follows:

§ 29.23 (p)–10 Contributions of an employer to an employees' profit-sharing or stock bonus trust that meets the requirements of section 165 (a); application of section 23 (p) (1) (C). If contributions are paid by an employer in a taxable year beginning after December 31, 1941 to a profit-sharing or stock bonus trust for employees and the general conditions and limitations applicable to deductions for such contributions are satisfied (see § 29.23 (p–1), the contributions are deductible under section 23 (p) (1) (C) if the further conditions provided therein are also satisfied. In order to be deductible under section 23 (p) (1) (C) the contributions must be paid in a taxable year of the employer which ends with or winthin a taxable year of the trust for which it is exempt under section 165 (a) and the trust must not be designed to provide retirement benefits for which the contributions can be determined actuarially. In order that contributions carried over may be deducted in a succeeding taxable year of the employer in accordance with the third sentence of section 23 (p) (1) (C), the succeeding year also must end with or within a taxable year of the trust for which it is exempt under section 165 (a).

The amount of deductions under section 23 (p) (1) (C) for any taxable year is subject to limitations based on the compensation otherwise paid or accrued during such taxable year to the employees who, in such year, are beneficiaries of the trust funds accumulated under the plan. For this purpose "compensation otherwise paid or accrued" means all of the compensation paid or accrued except that for which a deduction is allowable under a plan that qualifies under section 165 (a), including a plan that qualifies under section 23 (p) (1) (B). The limitations under section 23 (p) (1) (C) apply to the total amount deductible for contributions to the trust regardless of how the funds of the trust are invested, applied, or distributed, and no other deduction is allowable on account of any benefits provided by contributions to the trust or by the funds thereof. Where contributions are paid to two or more profit-sharing or stock bonus trusts satisfying the conditions for deduction under section 23 (p) (1) (C), such trusts are considered as a single trust in applying these limitations.

The primary limitation on deductions for a taxable year is 15 percent of the compensation otherwise paid or accrued during such taxable year to the employees who, in such year, are beneficiaries of the trust funds accumulated under the plan. So long as the contributions do not in any year exceed the primary limitation, this is the only limitation under section 23 (p) (1) (C) which has any effect.

In order that the deductions may average 15 percent of compensation otherwise paid or accrued over a period of years where contributions in some taxable year beginning after December 31, 1941 are less than the primary limitation but contributions in some succeeding taxable year exceed the primary limitation, deductions in each succeeding year are subject to a secondary limitation instead of to the primary limitation. The secondary limitation for any year is equal to the lesser of (a) twice the primary limitation for the year, or (b) any excess of (1) the aggregate of the primary limitations for the year and for all prior years beginning after December 31, 1941 over (2) the aggregate of the deductions allowed or allowable under the limitations provided in section 23 (p) (1) (C) for all prior years beginning after December 31, 1941, after giving effect to the provisions of section 162 (d) (1) (C) of the Revenue Act of 1942 in computing both items (1) and (2).

In any case where the contributions in a taxable year beginning after December 31, 1941 exceed the amount allowable as a deduction for the year under section 23 (p) (1) (C) after giving effect to section 162 (d) (1) (C) of the Revenue Act of 1942, the excess is deductible in succeeding taxable years, in order of time, in which the contributions are less than the primary limitations, so that the total deduction for any such succeeding year is equal to the primary limitation for such year but not more than the sum of the contributions in such year and the excess contributions not deducted under the limitations of section 23 (p) (1) (C) for prior years beginning after December 31, 1941.

In case contributions are paid in the employer's taxable year beginning in 1942 and prior to September 1, 1942, the limitation on deductions for such taxable year is subject to an exception provided in section 162 (d) (1) (C) of the Revenue Act of 1942 (see § 29.23 (p)–3).

In case deductions are allowable under section 23 (p) (1) (A) or (B), as well as under section 23 (p) (1) (C), the limitations under section 23 (p) (1) (A) and (C) are determined and applied without giving effect to the provisions of section 23 (p) (1) (F) but the amounts allowable as deductions are subject to the further limitations provided in section 23 (p) (1) (F) (see § 29.23 (p)–12).

The provisions of section 23 (p) (1) (C), after effect has been given to section 162 (d) (1) (C) of the Revenue Act of 1942 but without giving effect to section 23 (p) (1) (F), may be illustrated as follows:

5. Excess contributions carried over to succeeding years	8	0	0	4	5	3	0

[1] Compensation otherwise paid or accrued during the year to the employees who are beneficiaries of trust funds accumulated under the plan in the year.

PAR. 11. Section 29.23 (p)–11 is amended by striking out the last sentence thereof and inserting in lieu thereof the following two sentences: "If an amount is accrued but not paid during the taxable year, no deduction is allowable for such amount for such year. If an amount is paid during the taxable year but the rights of the employee therein are forfeitable at the time the amount is paid, no deduction is allowable for such amount for any taxable year."

PAR. 12. Section 29.23 (p)–12 is amended to read as follows:

§ 29.23 (p)–12 Contributions of an employer where deductions are allowable under section 23 (p) (1) (A) or (B) and also under section 23 (p) (1) (C); application of section 23 (p) (1) (F). Where deductions are allowable under section 23 (p) (1) (A) or (B) for any taxable year beginning after December 31, 1941 on account of contributions under a pension or annuity plan and deductions are also allowable under section 23 (p) (1) (C) for the same year, on account of contributions to a profit-sharing or stock bonus trust, the total deductions under these sections are subject to the provisions of section 23 (p) (1) (F) unless no employee who is a beneficiary under the trusts or plans for which deductions are allowable under section 23 (p) (1) (A) or (B) is also a beneficiary under the trusts for which deductions are allowable under section 23 (p) (1) (A), (B), or (C) for a prior taxable year beginning after December 31, 1941 but not deducted for a prior taxable year because of the limitations under section 23 (p) (1) (F).

The limitations under section 23 (p) (1) (F) are determined and applied after all the limitations, deductions otherwise allowable, and carry-overs under section 23 (p) (1) (A), (B), and (C) have been determined and applied, and, in particular, after effect has been given to the carry-over provision in clause (iv) under section 23 (p) (1) (A) and in the second and third sentences of section 23 (p) (1) (C). Where the limitations under section 23 (p) (1) (F) reduce the total amount deductible, the excess deductible in succeeding years is treated as a carry-over which is distinct from and additional to any excess contributions carried over and deductible in succeeding years under the provisions in clause (iv) of section 23 (p) (1) (A) or in the third sentence of section 23 (p) (1) (C). The application of the provisions of section 23 (p) (1) (F) and the treatment of carry-overs for a case where the taxable years are calendar years and the overlapping trusts or plans consist of a pension trust and a profit-sharing trust put into effect in 1943 and covering the same employees may be illustrated as follows:

[2] 30% limitation not applicable to first year of plan.

In case contributions are paid in the employer's taxable year beginning in 1942 and prior to September 1, 1942, and the deduction allowable for such year is increased by the effect of section 162 (d) (1) (C) of the Revenue Act of 1942 (see § 29.23 (p)–3), the deductions otherwise allowable for such year under section 23 (p) (1) (A), (B) or (C) are considered to be those allowable after giving effect to the provisions of section 162 (d) (1) (C) of the Revenue Act of 1942 severally for the several overlapping trusts or plans in such year and the limitation applicable to such year under section 23 (p) (1) (F) is not less than the sum of (a) the amounts paid in such taxable year prior to September 1, 1942 to or under the overlapping trusts or plans and deductible under section 23 (a) or 23 (p) prior to amendment by section 162 (d) of the Revenue Act of 1942, and (b) so much of the amounts paid in such taxable year on or after September 1, 1942, to or under such trusts or plans as does not exceed that proportion of 25 percent of the compensation otherwise paid or accrued during such taxable year to all employees who are beneficiaries under such trusts or plans in the year, which the number of months in such taxable year after August 31, 1942 bears to twelve.

PAR. 13. This Treasury decision shall be effective on the 31st day after the date of its publication in the FEDERAL REGISTER.

PROPOSED RULE MAKING

DEPARTMENT OF THE TREASURY

Bureau of Internal Revenue

[26 CFR, Part 81]

ESTATE TAX; ESTATE OF HUSBAND OR WIFE UNDER REVENUE ACT OF 1948

NOTICE OF PROPOSED RULE MAKING

Notice is hereby given, pursuant to the Administrative Procedure Act, approved June 11, 1946, that the regulations set forth in tentative form below are proposed to be prescribed by the Commissioner of Internal Revenue, with the approval of the Secretary of the Treasury. Prior to the final adoption of such regulations, consideration will be given to any data, views, or arguments pertaining thereto which are submitted in writing in duplicate to the Commissioner of Internal Revenue, Washington 25, D. C., within the period of 30 days from the date of publication of this notice in the FEDERAL REGISTER. The proposed regulations are to be issued under the authority contained in section 3791 of the Internal Revenue Code (53 Stat. 467; 26 U. S. C. 3791) and pursuant to the provisions of the Revenue Act of 1948 (Public Law 471, 80th Congress), enacted April 2, 1948, and of Public Law 869, 80th Congress, approved July 1, 1948.

[SEAL] FRED S. MARTIN,
Acting Commissioner of Internal Revenue.

In order to conform Regulations 105 (26 CFR, Part 81) to certain sections of the Revenue Act of 1948 (Public Law 471, 80th Congress), enacted April 2, 1948, and to Public Law 869, 80th Congress, approved July 1, 1948, such regulations are amended as follows:

PARAGRAPH 1. Section 81.2, as amended by Treasury Decision 5239, approved March 10, 1943, is further amended by striking out the next to the last sentence.

PAR. 2. There is inserted immediately preceding § 81.8 the following:

SEC. 363. (REVENUE ACT OF 1948) CREDIT FOR GIFT TAX

(a) Section 813 (a) (2) (A) of the Internal Revenue Code (relating to credit for gift tax) is hereby amended by inserting before the period at the end thereof the following: "reduced by the aggregate amount of the deductions allowed under subsections (d) and (e) of section 812."

(b) Subparagraph (B) of section 813 (a) (2) of the Internal Revenue Code (relating to credit for gift tax) is hereby amended to read as follows:

(B) In applying, with respect to any gift, the ratio stated in subparagraph (A), the value at the time of the gift or at the time of the death, referred to in such ratio, shall be reduced:

(i) By such amount as will properly reflect the amount of such gift which was excluded in determining (for the purposes of section 1003 (a), or of section 504 (a) of the Revenue Act of 1932) the total amount of gifts made during the year in which the gift was made;

(ii) If a deduction with respect to such gift is allowed under section 812 (e) (the so-called "marital deduction")—then by an amount which bears the same ratio to such value (reduced as provided in clause (i) of this subparagraph) as the aggregate amount of the marital deductions allowed under section 812 (e) bears to the aggregate amount of such marital deductions computed without regard to subparagraph (H) of section 812 (e) (1); and

(iii) If a deduction with respect to such gift is allowed under section 812 (d) (the so-called "charitable deduction")—then by the amount of such value, reduced as provided in clause (i) of this subparagraph.

(C) Where the decedent was the donor of the gift but, under the provisions of section 1000 (f), the gift was considered as made one-half by his spouse:

(i) The term "the amount of the tax paid under chapter 4," as used in subparagraph (A) of this paragraph, includes the amounts paid with respect to each half of such gift, the amount paid with respect to each being computed in the manner provided in subparagraph (D); and

(ii) In applying, with respect to such gift, the ratio stated in subparagraph (A) of this paragraph, the value at the time of the gift or at the time of the death, referred to in such ratio, includes such value with respect to each half of such gift, each such value being reduced as provided in clause (i) of subparagraph (B) of this paragraph.

(D) (i) For the purposes of subparagraph (A), the amount of tax paid under chapter 4, or under Title III of the Revenue Act of 1932, with respect to any gift shall be an amount which bears the same ratio to the total tax paid for the year in which the gift was made as the amount of such gift bears to the total amount of net gifts (computed without deduction of the specific exemption) for such year.

(ii) For the purposes of clause (i) the "amount of such gift" shall be the amount included with respect to such gift in determining (for the purposes of section 1003 (a), or of section 504 (a) of the Revenue Act of 1932) the total amount of gifts made during such year, reduced by the amount of any deduction allowed with respect to such gift under section 1004 (a) (2), or under section 505 (a) (2) of the Revenue Act of 1932 (the so-called "charitable deduction"), or under section 1004 (a) (3) (the so-called "marital deduction").

(c) Section 936 (b) (1) of the Internal Revenue Code (relating to credit for gift tax) is hereby amended by inserting after the words "entire gross estate" in clause (A) thereof the following: "reduced by the aggregate amount of the deductions allowed under subsections (d) and (e) of section 812".

(d) Paragraph (2) of section 936 (b) of the Internal Revenue Code (relating to credit for gift tax) is hereby amended to read as follows:

(2) In applying, with respect to any gift, the ratio stated in clause (A) of paragraph (1), the value at the time of the gift or at the time of the death, referred to in such ratio, shall be reduced:

(A) By such amount as will properly reflect the amount of such gift which was excluded in determining (for the purposes of section 1003 (a), or of section 504 (a) of the Revenue Act of 1932) the total amount of gifts made during the year in which the gift was made;

"(B) If a deduction with respect to such gift is allowed under section 812 (e) (the so-called "marital deduction")—then by an amount which bears the same ratio to such value (reduced as provided in subparagraph (A) of this paragraph) as the aggregate amount of the marital deductions allowed under section 812 (e) bears to the aggregate amount of such marital deductions computed without regard to subparagraph (H) of section 812 (e) (1); and

(C) If a deduction with respect to such gift is allowed under section 812 (d) (the so-called "charitable deduction")—then by the amount of such value, reduced as provided in subparagraph (A) of this paragraph.

(3) Where the decedent was the donor of the gift but, under the provisions of section 1000 (f), the gift was considered as made one-half by his spouse:

(A) The term "the amount of the tax paid under chapter 4", as used in paragraph (1) of this subsection, includes the amounts paid with respect to each half of such gift, the amount paid with respect to each being computed in the manner provided in paragraph (4); and

(B) In applying, with respect to such gift, the ratio stated in clause (A) of paragraph (1), the value at the time of the gift or at the time of the death, referred to in such ratio, includes such value with respect to each half of such gift, each such value being reduced as provided in subparagraph (A) of paragraph (2).

(4) (A) For the purposes of paragraph (1), the amount of tax paid under chapter 4, or under Title III of the Revenue Act of 1932, with respect to any gift shall be an amount which bears the same ratio to the total tax paid for the year in which the gift was made as the amount of such gift bears to the total amount of net gifts (computed without deduction of the specific exemption) for such year.

(B) For the purposes of subparagraph (A) the "amount of such gift" shall be the amount included with respect to such gift in determining (for the purposes of section 1003 (a), or of section 504 (a) of the Revenue Act of 1932) the total amount of gifts made during such year, reduced by the amount of any deduction allowed with respect to such gift under section 1004 (a) (2), or under section 505 (a) (2) of the Revenue Act of 1932 (the so-called "charitable deduction"), or under section 1004 (a) (3) (the so-called "marital deduction").

(e) The amendments made by this section shall be applicable only with respect to the estates of decedents dying after December 31, 1947.

PAR. 3. Section 81.8, as amended by Treasury Decision 5239, is further amended to read as follows:

§ 81.8 Credit for gift tax—(a) Priority of credits. If the decedent died after, October 21, 1942, the credits authorized against the basic estate tax imposed by section 810 or section 860 are to be deducted in the following order: (1) The credit for estate, inheritance, legacy, or succession taxes under § 81.9, (2) the credit for gift tax under paragraph (b) of this section, and (3) the credit for gift tax under paragraph (c) of this section. If the decedent died on or before October 21, 1942, such credits are to be deducted in the following order: (1) The credit for gift tax under paragraph (b) of this section, (2) the credit for gift tax under paragraph (c) of this section, and, (3) the credit for estate, inheritance, legacy, or succession taxes under § 81.9.

(b) Credit for gift tax paid under Revenue Act of 1924. Credit against the basic estate tax imposed by section 810 or section 860 is authorized by section 813 (a) (1) for gift tax paid under the Revenue Act of 1924 in respect of property included in the gross estate. If the decedent died on or before October 21, 1942, such credit may not exceed the total amount of the basic estate tax; if the decedent died after such date, such credit may not exceed the amount of such estate tax after deduction of the credit allowed, if any, for estate, inheritance, legacy, or succession taxes paid to any State or Territory, possession of the United States, or the District of Columbia. (See § 81.9.) No credit for gift tax paid under the Revenue Act of 1924 is allowable against the additional estate tax imposed by section 935.

If only a part of the property included for the purpose of the gift tax imposed for a certain calendar year under the Revenue Act of 1924 is also included in the decedent's gross estate for the purpose of the estate tax, the gift tax paid in respect of such part of the property is an amount which bears the same ratio to the total gift tax paid for such calendar year as the value of such part of the property bears to the total amount of gifts included for the purpose of the gift tax imposed for such year. For the purpose of computing this proportion, the values finally determined for the purpose of the gift tax will control.

(c) Credit for gift tax paid under chapter 4 of the Internal Revenue Code or under the Revenue Act of 1932—(1) In general. Credit against both the basic estate tax imposed by section 810 or section 860 and the additional estate tax imposed by section 935 is authorized by sections 813 (a) (2) and 936 (b) for gift tax paid under chapter 4 of the Code or under the Revenue Act of 1932 in respect of property included in the gross estate.

The credit is allowable even though the gift tax is paid by the executor after the decedent's death and the amount of the gift tax is deductible from the gross estate as a debt of the decedent.

The credit under this paragraph in respect of any gift included in the gross estate is limited to the smaller of the following amounts:

(i) The amount of gift tax paid in respect of such gift, computed as set forth under subparagraph (2) of this paragraph.

(ii) The amount of the basic and additional estate taxes attributable to such gift, computed as set forth under subparagraph (3) of this paragraph.

Where more than one gift is included in the gross estate of a decedent dying after December 31, 1947, a separate computation of the two limitations on the credit is to be made with respect to each gift.

(2) First limitation. If only one gift was made during a certain calendar year, and such gift is wholly included in the decedent's gross estate for the purpose of the estate tax, the credit with respect to such gift is limited to the amount of the gift tax paid for such calendar year. If more than one gift was made during a certain calendar year, the credit with respect to any such gift which is included in the decedent's gross estate for the purpose of the estate tax is limited to an amount A, which bears the same ratio to B (the total gift tax paid for such calendar year) as C (the amount of such gift, reduced by any portion of such amount excluded under section 1003 (b) of the Code or section 504 (b) of the Revenue Act of 1932 or deducted under section 1004 (a) (2) or (3) of the Code or section 505 (a) (2) of the Revenue Act of 1932) bears to D (the total amount of net gifts for such year, computed without deduction of the included in computing the "second limitation" is an amount, I, which bears the same ratio to J (the amount of such gift not excluded in determining the gift tax, and for which a marital deduction would be allowed except for the limitation stated in § 81.47d) as K (the aggregate marital deduction allowed) bears to L (the aggregate marital deduction computed without regard to the limitation stated in § 81.47d).

Example. The facts are the same as in the example in subparagraph (2) of this paragraph of the computation of the "first limitation" with the following additions. The donor was survived by his wife. The value of the donor's gross estate is $350,000. Assume that a marital deduction of $150,000 is actually allowed in determining the net estate, and that the amount of such deduction computed without regard to the limitation under section 81.47d is $200,000. There is no charitable deduction allowed in this example for the purpose of the estate tax. The total basic and additional estate taxes less the credit allowed under § 81.9 amount to $17,500. No credit under paragraph (b) of this section is allowed in this example. The property given by the donor to his wife is included in the gross estate as a value of $90,000, and is property for which a marital deduction may be taken. The value of $86,000 determined for the purpose of the gift tax is lower than such value determined for the purpose of the estate tax and is, therefore, to be used in computing the "second limitation", as shown below:

Portion of gift included for the purpose of the gift tax ($86,000 less $3,000 exclusion)--	$83,000
Portion of gift so included and for which a marital deduction is allowed in determining the estate tax—
$150,000 (marital deduction allowed for purpose of estate tax)
$250,000 (marital deduction computed without regard to limitation under § 81.47d)	×$83,000 (portion of gift so included and for which a marital deduction would be allowed in full except for limitation under § 81.47d)----------=40,800
$49,800)----------	33,200
"Second limitation" upon the credit with respect to such gift—
$200,000 (gross estate less marital and charitable deductions)	$83,200
	×$17,500 (total basic and additional taxes less credit under § 81.9)-------= 2,905
Since the amount of the "first limitation" upon the credit ($2,880) is lower, such amount is the allowable credit.

(4) Credit for "split gifts". Where the decedent made a gift of property which is thereafter included in his gross estate, and, under the provisions of section 1000 (f), such gift was considered for the purpose of the gift tax as made one-half by the decedent and one-half by his spouse, credit against the estate tax is authorized for the gift tax paid with respect to both halves of the gift. The "first limitation" is to be separately computed with respect to each half of the gift. For example: A donor, in contemplation of death, transferred property valued at $106,000 to his son on June 1, 1948, and he and his wife consented that the gift should be considered as made one-half by him and one-half by his wife. Assume that the property is thereafter included in the donor's gross estate for the purpose of the estate tax. Under the "first limitation" the amount of the gift tax of the donor paid with respect to the half of the gift considered as made by him is determined to be $11,250, and the amount of the gift tax of his wife paid with respect to the half of the gift considered as made by her is determined to be $1,200. Under the "second limitation" the amount of estate tax attributable to the property is determined ($11,250 plus $1,200). The credit allowed ($12,450).

(5) Allocation of credit. The amount computed under the lower of the two limitations is the total credit authorized with respect to the gift against both the basic and additional estate taxes. The amount of such credit authorized against the basic estate tax is the lower of (i) the amount computed under the "first limitation" and (ii) the amount of the basic estate tax attributable to the gift, computed in the manner described under the "second limitation". The amount of such credit authorized against the additional estate tax is the lower of (a) the amount computed under the "first limitation" less the credit allowed against the basic estate tax and (b) the amount of the additional estate tax attributable to the gift, computed in the manner described under the "second limitation".

Gross estate	$9,000
Less exclusions ($3,000 for each gift)----------
Total included amount of gifts----------	100,000
Marital deduction (for gift to wife)----------	$43,000
Charitable deduction------	7,000
Specific exemption-------	10,000
Total deductions----------	60,000
Net gifts----------	40,000
Total gift tax paid for calendar year 1948----------	3,600

The donor's gift to his wife was made in contemplation of death and is thereafter included in his gross estate for the purpose of the estate tax. Under the "first limitation" the credit with respect to such gift cannot exceed $40,000 (gift to wife, less $3,000 exclusion and $43,000 marital deduction)

$50,000 (total amount of net gifts increased by specific exemption allowed)	×$3,600 (gift tax paid)=$2,880.

(3) Second limitation. The credit with respect to any gift of property included in the gross estate for the purpose of the estate tax is also limited to an amount, E, which bears the same ratio to F (the total gross basic and additional estate taxes, reduced by any credit under paragraph (b) of this section, and, in case the decedent died after October 21, 1942, by any credit under § 81.9) as G (the value, adjusted as hereinafter indicated, of such property transferred by gift and included in the gross estate) bears to H (the value of the entire gross estate, reduced, in case the decedent died after December 31, 1947, by the total deductions allowed under section 812 (d) and (e)). In computing this ratio, the value of the property transferred by gift and included in the gross estate (amount G of the ratio) is the value determined for the purpose of the gift tax or the value determined for the purpose of the estate tax, whichever is lower. Such value (amount G of the ratio) does not include the portion, if any, of the gift excluded, under section 1003 (b) of the Code or section 504 (b) of the Revenue Act of 1932, in determining the gift tax. For example: A donor, in contemplation of death, transferred property valued at $100,000 to his five children in 1941 and paid the resulting gift tax. The amount of $20,000 was excluded under the provisions of section 1003 (b) (2), and the amount of $80,000 was included for the purpose of the gift tax. The property is thereafter included in his gross estate for the purpose of the estate tax at a value of $90,000. The lower of the two values ($90,000) is to be used in computing the second limitation. Amount G of the ratio is $72,000, the value of the portion of the gift included for the purpose of the gift tax.

If in determining the estate tax in the case of a decedent who died after December 31, 1947, a "marital deduction" under section 812 (e) or a "charitable deduction" under section 812 (d) is allowable for a portion of a particular gift, then in computing the "second limitation" such portion of the gift is not to be included in amount G of the ratio. See §§ 81.47a to 81.47c, relating to the marital deduction, and §§ 81.44 to 81.47, relating to the charitable deduction.) Therefore, if a particular gift is made solely to the decedent's surviving spouse or solely to a charitable, etc., organization, and a deduction under section 812 (d) or (e) is allowed for the full value of the gift, no credit with respect to such gift may be taken. If the gift was (in whole or in part) to the decedent's surviving spouse, and if the aggregate marital deduction allowed is less than the amount of such deduction computed without regard to the limitation stated in § 81.47d, then the portion of the gift which is not to be

PAR. 4. There is inserted immediately preceding § 81.11 the following:

SEC. 364. (REVENUE ACT OF 1948) OPTIONAL VALUATION

(a) The last sentence of section 811 (j) of the Internal Revenue Code (relating to optional valuation) is hereby amended to read as follows: "In case of an election made by the executor under this subsection, then:

(A) for the purposes of the deduction under section 812 (d) or section 861 (a) (3), any bequest, legacy, devise, or transfer enumerated therein, and

(B) for the purposes of the deduction under section 812 (e), any interest in property passing to the surviving spouse, shall be valued as of the date of the decedent's death with adjustment for any difference in value (not due to mere lapse of time or the occurrence or nonoccurrence of a contingency) of the property as of the date one year after the decedent's death (substituting, in the case of property distributed by the executor or trustee, or sold, exchanged, or otherwise disposed of, during such one-year period, the date thereof)."

(b) The amendment made by this section shall be applicable only with respect to estates of decedents dying after December 31, 1947.

PAR. 5. Section 81.11 is amended by changing the second sentence of the third paragraph from the end to read as follows: "The amount of any deduction under section 812 (d) or section 861 (a) (3) with respect to property passing to or for public, charitable, religious, etc., uses, or any deduction under section 812 (e) with respect to property passing to the decedent's surviving spouse, shall be determined by the value of such property as of the date of the decedent's death, subject, however, to adjustment for any difference in its value as of the date one year after such death, or as of the date of its distribution, sale, exchange, or other disposition, whichever date first occurs."

PAR. 6. There is inserted immediately after section 401 of the Revenue Act of 1942 (inserted by Treasury Decision 5239), and preceding section 302 (c) of the Revenue Act of 1926 (as originally enacted), which precede § 81.15, the following:

SEC. 351. [REVENUE ACT OF 1948.] REPEAL OF COMMUNITY PROPERTY ESTATE TAX AMENDMENTS

(a) Effective with respect to estates of decedents dying after December 31, 1947, sections 811 (d) (5), 811 (e) (2) and 811 (g) (4) of the Internal Revenue Code (relating to community property) are hereby repealed.

• • • • •

(c) Notwithstanding the repeal of sections 811 (d) (5), 811 (e) (2), and 811 (g) (4) provided in subsection (a), the taxes imposed under chapter 3 of the Internal Revenue Code upon the transfer of the net estate of any decedent dying after December 31, 1947, and on or before the date of the enactment of this Act shall not exceed the taxes which would have been imposed under such chapter 3 upon such transfer if this section had not been enacted.

PAR. 7. Section 81.15, as amended by Treasury Decision 5239, is further amended as follows:

(A) By inserting immediately after "October 21, 1942," each time it appears in the second paragraph thereof the following: "and on or before December 31, 1947,".

(B) By inserting at the end of such second paragraph the following sentence: "(With respect to estates of decedents dying after December 31, 1947, and on or before April 2, 1948, involving transfers of community property, see § 81.23.)"

PAR. 8. There is inserted immediately preceding § 81.22 the following:

SEC. 351. (REVENUE ACT OF 1948) REPEAL OF COMMUNITY PROPERTY ESTATE TAX AMENDMENTS

(a) Effective with respect to estates of decedents dying after December 31, 1947, sections 811 (d) (5), 811 (e) (2) and 811 (g) (4) of the Internal Revenue Code (relating to community property) are hereby repealed.

(b) Such section 811 (e) is further amended:

(1) by striking out of the heading of such subsection the words "and community"; and

(2) by striking out of paragraph (1) the following: "Joint interests.—".

(c) Notwithstanding the repeal of sections 811 (d) (5), 811 (e) (2), and 811 (g) (4) provided in subsection (a), the taxes imposed under chapter 3 of the Internal Revenue Code upon the transfer of the net estate of any decedent dying after December 31, 1947, and on or before the date of the enactment of this Act shall not exceed the taxes which would have been imposed under such chapter 3 upon such transfer if this section had not been enacted.

PAR. 9. Section 81.22, as amended by Treasury Decision 5239, is further amended as follows:

(A) By inserting immediately after "October 21, 1942," each time it appears in the last paragraph thereof the following: "and on or before December 31, 1947,".

(B) By inserting at the end of such last paragraph the following sentence: "(With respect to estates of decedents dying after December 31, 1947, and on or before April 2, 1948, involving joint tenancies or tenancies by the entirety created by the transfer of community property, see § 81.23.)"

PAR. 10. Section 81.23, as amended by Treasury Decision 5239, is further amended as follows:

(A) By inserting immediately after "October 21, 1942," in the first sentence thereof the following: "and on or before December 31, 1947,".

(B) By striking out the last paragraph and by inserting in lieu thereof the following paragraphs:

§ 81.23 Community property. • • •

With respect to estates of decedents dying after October 21, 1942, and on or before December 31, 1947, see the provisions of §§ 81.15, 81.22, and 81.27, relating, respectively, to the inclusion of transfers of community property during life, the treatment of joint tenancies and tenancies by the entirety created by the transfer of community property, and the treatment of insurance upon the decedent's life held as, or acquired with, community property.

In the case of a decedent who died after December 31, 1947, and on or before April 2, 1948, the provisions contained in the first two paragraphs of this section and those provisions of §§ 81.15, 81.22, and 81.27 referred to in the preceding paragraph may have a limited effect. Although such provisions are not applicable for the purpose of determining the value of the decedent's gross estate, the estate tax payable is, nevertheless, not to exceed the estate tax which would be imposed if such provisions were applicable.

PAR. 11. There is inserted immediately preceding § 81.25 the following:

SEC. 351. (REVENUE ACT OF 1948) REPEAL OF COMMUNITY PROPERTY ESTATE TAX AMENDMENTS.

(a) Effective with respect to estates of decedents dying after December 31, 1947, sections 811 (d) (5), 811 (e) (2) and 811 (g) (4) of the Internal Revenue Code (relating to community property) are hereby repealed.

• • • • •

(c) Notwithstanding the repeal of sections 811 (d) (5), 811 (e) (2), and 811 (g) (4) provided in subsection (a), the taxes imposed under chapter 3 of the Internal Revenue Code upon the transfer of the net estate of any decedent dying after December 31, 1947, and on or before the date of the enactment of this Act shall not exceed the taxes which would have been imposed under such chapter 3 upon such transfer if this section had not been enacted.

PAR. 12. Section 81.26 is amended by inserting at the end thereof the following:

§ 81.26 Insurance in favor of the estate. • • •

Where the proceeds of insurance made payable to the decedent's estate are community assets under the local community property law, as a result of which one-half of such proceeds belongs to the decedent's spouse and are not subject to the payment of the estate tax or other separate debts or expenses of the decedent or his estate, then only one-half of such insurance is considered to be receivable by the executor within the meaning of section 811 (g) (1).

PAR. 13. Section 81.27, as amended by Treasury Decision 5239, is further amended as follows:

(A) By striking out "this subsection" and "subsection (a)" wherever they appear in such section and by inserting in lieu thereof "this paragraph" and "paragraph (a)".

(B) By changing the heading and first sentence of paragraph (a) to read as follows:

§ 81.27 Insurance receivable by other beneficiaries—(a) In case of decedent dying after December 31, 1947. The regulations prescribed under this paragraph (except as otherwise indicated in this section) are applicable only in the case of decedents who died after December 31, 1947.

(C) By changing the third undesignated paragraph of paragraph (a) (which undesignated paragraph, prior to the amendment made by (A), began with the words "For the purposes of this paragraph") to read as follows:

For the purposes of this paragraph, where premiums or other consideration are paid with property held as community property by the decedent and his spouse, the decedent shall (in the absence of additional circumstances showing payment indirectly by the decedent) be deemed to have paid only one-half of such premiums or other consideration. The general rule stated in the preceding sentence is not applicable unless the decedent and his spouse had equal and existing interests in the community property used in the payment of the premiums or other consideration. An example of additional circumstances showing payment indirectly by the decedent which will render inapplicable the general rule is a transfer of property by the decedent to the community for the purpose of purchasing the insurance.

(D) By striking from paragraph (a) the last sentence of the sixth undesignated paragraph (which paragraph begins with the words "For the purposes of (1)").

(E) By changing the third sentence of the last undesignated paragraph of paragraph (a) to read as follows: "For examples of 'incidents of ownership' see paragraph (c) of this section."

(F) By inserting at the end of paragraph (a) the following:

In determining whether the decedent possessed an incident of ownership in a policy, regard must be given to the effect of the State or other applicable law upon the terms of the policy. If the decedent possessed incidents of ownership with respect to insurance solely as manager of the community under the local community property law, and the transfer by his spouse of one-half the amount of the proceeds is not considered absolute prior to the decedent's death, and in the event of the prior death of such spouse one-half of the value of the policy would have been includible in her gross estate, then for the purposes of this paragraph the decedent is considered to have possessed incidents of ownership with respect to only one-half of such insurance.

With respect to estates of decedents dying after December 31, 1947, and on or before April 2, 1948, involving insurance held as community property by the decedent and spouse, or acquired with property so held, see § 81.23.

(b) In case of decedent dying after October 21, 1942, and on or before December 31, 1947. The regulations prescribed under this paragraph (except as otherwise indicated in this section) are applicable only in the case of decedents who died after October 21, 1942, and on or before December 31, 1947. In such cases, the regulations prescribed under paragraph (a) of this section with respect to estates of decedents dying after December 31, 1947, are also applicable (except to the extent inconsistent with this paragraph). For the purposes of this paragraph, premiums or other consideration paid with property held as community property by the insured and spouse under the law of any State, Territory, or possession of the United States, or any foreign country, shall be considered to have been paid by the insured, except such part thereof as may be shown to have been received as compensation for personal services actually rendered by the decedent's spouse or derived originally from such compensation or from separate property of such spouse. With respect to the meaning of property derived originally from such compensation or from separate property of the decedent's spouse, see § 81.23. Section 811 (g) (4) provides that the term "incidents of ownership" includes incidents of ownership possessed by the decedent as manager of the community where the insurance policy is property held as community property by the decedent and spouse.

(G) By striking out the heading and first sentence of the original paragraph (b) and by inserting in lieu thereof the following:

(c) In case of decedent dying on or before October 21, 1942. The regulations prescribed under this paragraph (except as otherwise indicated in this section) are applicable only in the case of decedents who died on or before October 21, 1942.

PAR. 14. There is inserted immediately preceding § 81.41 the following:

SEC. 362. (REVENUE ACT OF 1948.) PROPERTY PREVIOUSLY TAXED

(a) Section 812 (c) of the Internal Revenue Code (relating to the deduction for property previously taxed) is hereby amended by adding after the first paragraph two new paragraphs to read as follows:

The following property shall not, for the purposes of this subsection, be considered as property with respect to which a deduction may be allowed: (A) Property received from a prior decedent who died after December 31, 1947, and was at the time of such death the decedent's spouse, (B) property received by gift after the date of the enactment of the Revenue Act of 1948 from a donor who at the time of the gift was the decedent's spouse, and (C) property acquired in exchange for property described in clause (A) or (B).

Where, under the provisions of section 1000 (f), a gift received by the decedent was considered as made one-half by the donor and one-half by the donor's spouse, one-half of the gift shall be considered as received by the decedent from each such spouse.

(b) Section 812 (c) is further amended by striking out "subsections (a) and (d)" and inserting in lieu thereof "subsections (a), (d), and (e)".

PAR. 15. Section 81.41, as amended by Treasury Decision 5239, and by Treasury Decision 5408, approved October 14, 1944, is further amended as follows:

(A) By inserting at the end of paragraph (a) (4) the following sentence: "Where, under the provisions of section 1000 (f), a gift received by the decedent was considered as made one-half by the donor and one-half by the donor's spouse, the deduction may not be taken in respect of the half of the gift considered as made by the donor unless a gift tax was paid by or on behalf of the donor, or in respect of the half of the gift considered as made by the donor's spouse unless a gift tax was paid by or on behalf of such spouse."

(B) By inserting immediately after paragraph (a) (5) the following:

(6) The property (or property given in exchange therefor) must not have been received (by gift or otherwise) from a prior decedent who died after December 31, 1947, and was at the time of such death the decedent's spouse, and must not have been received by gift after April 2, 1948, from a donor who at the time of the gift was the decedent's spouse. This rule, added by section 362 of the Revenue Act of 1948, is effective even though the decedent (surviving spouse) died after December 31, 1947, and on or before April 2, 1948; but the estate tax payable by the estate of such spouse is nevertheless, not to exceed the estate tax which would have been imposed if the Revenue Act of 1948 had not been enacted.

(C) By striking from the second sentence of paragraph (b) (3) "subsections (a) and (d)" and by inserting in lieu thereof the following: "subsections (a), (d), and (e)".

(D) By inserting in the next to the last paragraph, immediately after that sentence thereof which reads in part "Second: The balance of $12,800", the following sentence: "(The deduction under section 812 (e) is not involved in this example.)"

PAR. 16. There is inserted immediately after § 81.47 the following:

DEDUCTIONS—BEQUESTS, ETC., TO SURVIVING SPOUSE

SEC. 812. (Part II, Subchapter A.) NET ESTATE.

For the purpose of the tax the value of the net estate shall be determined, in the case of a citizen or resident of the United States by deducting from the value of the gross estate:

* * * * *

(e) (As added by section 361 (a), of the Revenue Act of 1948, enacted April 2, 1948, and amended by Public Law 869, 80th Congress, approved July 1, 1948) Bequests, etc., to surviving spouse:

(1) Allowance of marital deduction—(A) In general. An amount equal to the value of any interest in property which passes or has passed from the decedent to his surviving spouse, but only to the extent that such interest is included in determining the value of the gross estate.

(B) Life estate or other terminable interest. Where, upon the lapse of time, upon the occurrence of an event or contingency, or upon the failure of an event or contingency to occur, such interest passing to the surviving spouse will terminate or fail, no deduction shall be allowed with respect to such interest:

(i) If an interest in such property passes or has passed (for less than an adequate and full consideration in money or money's worth) from the decedent to any person other than such surviving spouse (or the estate of such spouse); and

(ii) If by reason of such passing such person (or his heirs or assigns) may possess or enjoy any part of such property after such termination or failure of the interest so passing to the surviving spouse; and no deduction shall be allowed with respect to such interest (even if such deduction is not disallowed under clauses (i) and (ii))—

(iii) If such interest is to be acquired for the surviving spouse, pursuant to directions of the decedent, by his executor or by the trustee of a trust.

For the purposes of this subparagraph, an interest shall not be considered as an interest which will terminate or fail merely because it is the ownership of a bond, note, or similar contractual obligation, the discharge of which would not have the effect of an annuity for life or for a term.

(C) Interest in unidentified assets. Where the assets (included in the decedent's gross estate) out of which, or the proceeds of which, an interest passing to the surviving spouse may be satisfied include a particular asset or assets with respect to which no deduction would be allowed if such asset or assets passed from the decedent to such spouse, then the value of such interest passing to such spouse shall, for the purposes of subparagraph (A), be reduced by the aggregate value of such particular assets.

(D) Interest of spouse conditional on survival for limited period. For the purposes of subparagraph (B) an interest passing to the surviving spouse shall not be considered as an interest which will terminate or fail upon the death of such spouse if:

(i) Such death will cause a termination or failure of such interest only if it occurs within a period not exceeding six months after the decedent's death, or only if it occurs as a result of a common disaster resulting in the death of the decedent and the surviving spouse, or only if it occurs in the case of either such event; and

(ii) Such termination or failure does not in fact occur.

(E) Valuation of interest passing to surviving spouse. In determining for the purposes of subparagraph (A) the value of any interest in property passing to the surviving spouse for which a deduction is allowed by this subsection:

(i) There shall be taken into account the effect which a tax imposed by this chapter, or any estate, succession, legacy, or inheritance tax, has upon the net value to the surviving spouse of such interest; and

(ii) Where such interest or property is incumbered in any manner, or where the surviving spouse incurs any obligation imposed by the decedent with respect to the passing of such interest, such incumbrance or obligation shall be taken into account in the same manner as if the amount of a gift to such spouse of such interest were being determined.

(F) Trust with power of appointment in surviving spouse. In the case of an interest in property passing from the decedent in trust, if under the terms of the trust this surviving spouse is entitled for life to all the income from the corpus of the trust, payable annually or at more frequent intervals, with power in the surviving spouse to appoint the entire corpus free of the trust (exercisable in favor of such surviving spouse, or of the estate of such surviving spouse, or in favor of either, whether or not in each case the power is exercisable in favor of others), and with no power in any other person to appoint any part of the corpus to any person other than the surviving spouse:

(i) The interest so passing shall, for the purposes of subparagraph (A), be considered as passing to the surviving spouse, and

(ii) No part of the interest so passing shall, for the purposes of subparagraph (B) (i), be considered as passing to any person other than the surviving spouse.

This subparagraph shall be applicable only if, under the terms of the trust, such power in the surviving spouse to appoint, whether exercisable by will or during life, is exercisable by such spouse alone and in all events.

(G) Life insurance or annuity payments with power of appointment in surviving spouse. In the case of an interest in property passing from the decedent consisting of proceeds under a life insurance, endowment, or annuity contract, if under the terms of the contract such proceeds are payable in installments or are held by the insurer subject to an agreement to pay interest thereon (whether the proceeds, upon the termination of any interest payments, are payable in a lump sum or in annual or more frequent installments), and such installment or interest payments are payable annually or at more frequent intervals, commencing not later than thirteen months after the decedent's death, and all amounts payable during the life of the surviving spouse are payable only to such spouse, and such spouse has the power to appoint all amounts payable under such contract (exercisable in favor of such surviving spouse, or of the estate of such surviving spouse, or in favor of either, whether or not in each case the power is exercisable in favor of others), with no power in any other person to appoint to any person other than the surviving spouse any part of the amounts payable under such contract:

(i) Such proceeds shall, for the purposes of subparagraph (A), be considered as passing to the surviving spouse, and

(ii) No part of such proceeds shall, for the purposes of subparagraph (B) (i), be considered as passing to any person other than the surviving spouse.

This subparagraph shall be applicable only if, under the terms of the contract, such power in the surviving spouse to appoint, whether exercisable by will or during life, is exercisable by such spouse alone and in all events.

(H) Limitation on aggregate of deductions. The aggregate amount of the deductions allowed under this paragraph (computed without regard to this subparagraph) shall not exceed 50 per centum of the value of the adjusted gross estate, as defined in paragraph (2).

(2) Computation of adjusted gross estate—(A) General rule. Except as provided in subparagraph (B) of this paragraph the adjusted gross estate shall, for the purposes of paragraph (1) (H), be computed by subtracting from the entire value of the gross estate the aggregate amount of the deductions allowed by subsection (b) of this section.

(B) Special rule in cases involving community property. If the decedent and his surviving spouse at any time held property as community property under the law of any State, Territory, or possession of the United States, or of any foreign country, then the adjusted gross estate shall, for the purposes of paragraph (1) (H), be determined by subtracting from the entire value of the gross estate the sum of:

(i) The value of property which is at the time of the death of the decedent held as such community property; and

(ii) The value of property transferred by the decedent during his life, if at the time of such transfer the property was held as such community property; and

(iii) The amount receivable as insurance under policies upon the life of the decedent to the extent purchased with premiums or other consideration paid out of property held as such community property; and

(iv) An amount which bears the same ratio to the aggregate of the deductions allowed under subsection (b) of this section which the value of the property included in the gross estate, diminished by the amount subtracted under clauses (i), (ii), and (iii) of this subparagraph, bears to the entire value of the gross estate.

For the purposes of clauses (i), (ii), and (iii) community property (except property which is considered as community property solely by reason of the provisions of subparagraph (C) of this paragraph) shall be considered as not "held as such community property" as of any moment of time, if, in case of the death of the decedent at such moment, such property (and not merely one-half thereof) would be or would have been includible in determining the value of his gross estate without regard to the provisions of section 811 (e) (2). The amount to be subtracted under clause (i), (ii), or (iii) shall not exceed the value of the interest in the property described therein which is included in determining the value of the gross estate.

(C) Same; conversion into separate property. (i) If during the calendar year 1942 or after the date of the enactment of the Revenue Act of 1948, property held as such community property (unless considered by reason of subparagraph (B) of this paragraph as not so held) was by the decedent and the surviving spouse converted, by one transaction or a series of transactions, into separate property of the decedent and his spouse (including any form of co-ownership by them), the separate property so acquired by the decedent and any property acquired at any time by the decedent in exchange therefor (by one exchange or a series of exchanges) shall, for the purposes of clauses (i), (ii), and (iii) of subparagraph (B), be considered as "held as such community property".

(ii) Where the value (at the time of such conversion) of the separate property so acquired by the decedent exceeded the value (at such time) of the separate property so acquired by the decedent's spouse, the rule in clause (i) shall be applied only with respect to the same portion of such separate property of the decedent as the portion which the value (as of such time) of such separate property so acquired by the decedent's spouse is of the value (as of such time) of the separate property so acquired by the decedent.

(3) Definition. For the purposes of this subsection an interest in property shall be considered as passing from the decedent to any person if and only if:

(A) Such interest is bequeathed or devised to such person by the decedent; or

(B) Such interest is inherited by such person from the decedent; or

(C) Such interest is the dower or curtesy interest (or statutory interest in lieu thereof) of such person as surviving spouse of the decedent; or

(D) Such interest has been transferred to such person by the decedent at any time; or

(E) Such interest was, at the time of the decedent's death, held by such person and the decedent (or by them and any other person) in joint ownership with right of survivorship; or

(F) The decedent had a power (either alone or in conjunction with any person) to appoint such interest and if he appoints or has appointed such interest to such person, or if such person takes such interest in default upon the release or nonexercise of such power; or

(G) Such interest consists of proceeds of insurance upon the life of the decedent receivable by such person.

Except as provided in subparagraph (F) or (G) of paragraph (1), where at the time of the decedent's death it is not possible to ascertain the particular person or persons to whom an interest in property may pass from the decedent, such interest shall, for the purposes of clauses (i) and (ii) of subparagraph (B) of paragraph (1), be considered as passing from the decedent to a person other than the surviving spouse.

(4) Disclaimers—(A) By surviving spouse. If under this subsection an interest would, in the absence of a disclaimer by the surviving spouse, be considered as passing from the decedent to such spouse, and if a disclaimer of such interest is made by such spouse, then such interest shall, for the purposes of this subsection, be considered as passing to the person or persons entitled to receive such interest as a result of the disclaimer.

(B) Disclaimer by any other person. If under this subsection an interest would, in the absence of a disclaimer by any person other than the surviving spouse, be considered as passing from the decedent to such person, and if a disclaimer of such interest is made by such person and as a result of such disclaimer the surviving spouse is entitled to receive such interest, then such interest shall, for the purposes of this subsection, be considered as passing, not to the surviving spouse, but to the person who made the disclaimer, in the same manner as if the disclaimer had not been made.

(b) The amendment made by subsection (a) of this section shall be applicable only with respect to estates of decedents dying after December 31, 1947.

JOINT RESOLUTION. (PUBLIC LAW 869, EIGHTIETH CONGRESS, SECOND SESSION, APPROVED JULY 1, 1948)

SEC. 2. The amendment made by this joint resolution shall be applicable with respect to estates of decedents dying after December 31, 1947.

§ 81.47a Bequests, etc., to surviving spouse—(a) Allowance of marital deduction. In the case of the estate of a citizen or resident of the United States dying after December 31, 1947, there may be deducted the value of any property interest (except as otherwise provided in §§ 81.47b and 81.47d) which passed from the decedent to his surviving spouse. Such deduction is hereinafter referred to as the "marital deduction." The marital deduction is generally not available in case the decedent's gross estate consists exclusively of property held by him and his surviving spouse as community property under the law of any State, Territory, or possession of the United States, or any foreign country. (See § 81.47d.) The Internal Revenue Code does not authorize a marital deduction in the case of the estate of a nonresident not a citizen of the United States. However, if the decedent was a citizen or resident, his estate is not deprived of the right to the marital deduction by reason of the fact that his surviving spouse was a nonresident not a citizen.

If the order of deaths of the decedent and his spouse cannot be established by proof and the effect of the applicable presumption of survivorship is to give to such spouse an interest in property within the meaning of section 811 (a) such interest will also be considered as having passed to the decedent's surviving spouse for the purpose of the marital deduction.

For convenience the surviving spouse is generally referred to in the feminine gender, but the application of the statute is not so limited.

(b) Definitions—(1) Passed from the decedent. As used in this and the three succeeding sections, the expressions "passed from the decedent", "passed from the decedent to his surviving spouse", and "passed from the decedent to a person other than his surviving spouse", have the meanings stated in this paragraph. Except as otherwise indicated in subparagraphs (2) and (3) of this paragraph, the following rules are applicable in determining the person to whom any property interest "passed from the decedent":

(i) Property interests devolving upon any person (or persons) as surviving coowner with the decedent under any joint ownership wherein the right of survivorship existed are considered as having passed from the decedent to such person (or persons).

(ii) Property interests at any time subject to decedent's power to appoint (whether alone or in conjunction with any person) are considered as having passed from the decedent to the appointee under his exercise of the power, or, in case of release or nonexercise, as having passed from the decedent to the taker in default of exercise.

(iii) The dower or curtesy interest (or statutory interest in lieu thereof) of the decedent's surviving spouse is considered as having passed from the decedent to such spouse.

(iv) In the case of insurance upon the life of the decedent, the proceeds are considered as having passed from the decedent to the person who, at the time of the decedent's death, was entitled to receive such proceeds.

It is comprehended by the foregoing definition that a property interest held by or devolving upon the surviving spouse under community property laws is considered as having passed from the decedent to such spouse to the extent that such interest was, immediately prior to the decedent's death, a mere expectancy. As to the circumstances under which the interest of the surviving spouse under community property laws is regarded as merely expectant, see paragraph (b) of § 81.47d.

(2) Passed from the decedent to his surviving spouse. In general, the definition stated in subparagraph (1) of this paragraph is applicable in determining the property interests which "passed from the decedent to his surviving spouse". Special rules are provided, however, in the case of certain trusts with power of appointment in the surviving spouse and in the case of proceeds held by the insurer under a life insurance, endowment, or annuity contract, with power of appointment in the surviving spouse. (As to such rules, see paragraphs (c) and (d) of this section.) As to the rules applicable in case of disclaimer by the surviving spouse or by any other person, in case of election by the surviving spouse, and in case of a controversy involving the decedent's will, see paragraphs (e) to (g), of this section.

Except to the extent otherwise provided in paragraphs (c) and (d) of this section, the marital deduction may be taken with respect to a property interest only if it passed to the surviving spouse as beneficial owner. For this purpose, where a property interest passed from the decedent in trust, such interest is considered to have passed from him to his surviving spouse to the extent of her beneficial interest therein. The deduction may not be taken with respect to a property interest which passed to such spouse merely as trustee, or subject to an agreement by such spouse to dispose of such interest in favor of a third person.

Where the decedent provided that, following the death of his surviving spouse, a certain property interest was to go to her estate, or to her executors or administrators, and the effect of the local law is that such property interest may be bequeathed or devised by such spouse in favor of whomsoever she pleases, and, in the event of her intestacy, will pass to her heirs or next of kin, such property interest is to be considered as having "passed from the decedent to his surviving spouse". But such property interest is not to be considered as having so passed in case the surviving spouse entered into an agreement with the decedent to dispose of it in favor of particular objects.

(3) Passed from the decedent to a person other than his surviving spouse. The expression "passed from the decedent to a person other than his surviving spouse" refers to any property interest which, under the definition stated in subparagraph (1) of this paragraph, is considered as having "passed from the decedent" and which, under the rules referred to in subparagraph (2) of this paragraph, is not considered as having "passed from the decedent to his surviving spouse".

(c) Trust with power of appointment in surviving spouse. In the case of property interests which passed from the decedent to a trust, the terms of which satisfy the five conditions stated in this paragraph, the expression "passed from the decedent to his surviving spouse" embraces not only the beneficial interest therein of such spouse but also the interest therein subject to her power to appoint. (As to the treatment of trusts not meeting such conditions, see paragraph (b) (2) of this section.) The five conditions which must be satisfied by the terms of the trust are as follows:

(1) The surviving spouse must be entitled for life to all the income from the corpus of the trust.

(2) Such income must be payable annually or at more frequent intervals.

(3) The surviving spouse must have the power, exercisable in favor of herself or of her estate, to appoint the entire corpus free of the trust.

(4) Such power in the surviving spouse must be exercisable by such spouse alone and (whether exercisable by will or during life) must be exercisable in all events.

(5) The corpus of the trust must not be subject to a power in any other person to appoint any part thereof to any person other than the surviving spouse.

In determining whether the above-stated conditions (1) to (5), are satisfied by the terms of the trust, regard is to be had to the applicable provisions of the law of the jurisdiction governing the administration of the trust. For example, silence of the trust as to the frequency of payment will not be regarded as a failure to satisfy condition (2) in case the applicable law requires payment to be made annually or more frequently.

The surviving spouse is "entitled for life to all the income from the corpus of the trust", within the meaning of section 812 (e) (1) (F), if the effect of the trust is to give her substantially that degree of beneficial enjoyment of the trust property during her life which the principles of the law of trusts accord to a person who is unqualifiedly designated as the life beneficiary of a trust. Such degree of enjoyment is given only if it was the decedent's intention, as manifested by the terms of the trust instrument and the surrounding circumstances, that the trust should produce for the surviving spouse during her life such a periodically distributable income, or that the spouse should have such use of the trust property, as is consistent with the value of the trust corpus and with its preservation. The designation of the spouse as sole income beneficiary for life will be sufficient to qualify the trust unless the terms of the trust considered as a whole evidence an intention to deprive the spouse of the requisite degree of enjoyment. In determining whether a trust evidences such intention the treatment required or permitted with respect to individual items must be considered in relation to the entire system provided for the administration of the trust.

If the over-all effect of the trust is to give to the surviving spouse such enforceable rights as will preserve to her the requisite degree of enjoyment, it is immaterial whether such result is effected by rules specifically stated in the trust instrument, or in their absence, by the rules for the management of the trust property and the allocation of receipts and expenditures supplied by the State law. For example, where the State law does not provide for amortization of bond premium, a provision in the trust instrument for such amortization by appropriate periodic charges to interest will not disqualify the trust.

Provisions granting administrative powers to the trustee will not have the effect of disqualifying the trust unless the grant of such powers evidences the intention to deprive the surviving spouse of the beneficial enjoyment required by the statute. Such intention will not be considered to exist if the entire terms of the instrument are such that the local courts will impose reasonable limitations upon the exercise of such powers. Among the powers which if subject to such limitations will not disqualify the trust are the power to allocate receipts between income and corpus, the power to determine the charges which shall be made against income and corpus, and the power to apply the income for the benefit of the surviving spouse.

The rules to be applied by the trustee in allocation of receipts and expenses between income and corpus must be considered in relation to the nature and expected productivity of the trust assets, the nature and frequency of occurrence of the expected receipts, and any provisions as to change in the form of investments. Where it is evident from the nature of the trust assets and the rules provided for management of the trust that the allocation to income of such receipts as rents, cash dividends and interest will give to the spouse the substantial enjoyment during life required by the statute, provisions that such receipts as stock dividends and proceeds from the conversion of trust assets shall be treated as corpus will not disqualify the trust. Similarly, provision for a depletion charge against income in the case of trust assets which are subject to depletion will not disqualify the trust, unless the effect is to deprive the spouse of the requisite beneficial enjoyment. A power in the trustee to retain unproductive property will not disqualify if the applicable rules for the administration of the trust require that the property be converted within a reasonable time and that income be given the spouse to compensate for undue delay in such conversion. A power to retain a residence for the spouse or other property for her personal use will not disqualify the trust.

A trust will not qualify if its primary purpose is to safeguard property without providing the spouse with the required beneficial enjoyment. An example is a trust the corpus of which consists substantially of unproductive property which the trustee is required to retain without furnishing a reasonable compensation to the spouse on account of the nonconversion of such property.

If the surviving spouse is entitled to only a portion of the trust income, or has power to appoint only a portion of the corpus, the trust fails to satisfy conditions (1) and (3), respectively. However, such conditions may be satisfied by one or more of several separate trusts created by the decedent. An undivided interest in property may constitute the corpus of a trust, and the will or a single trust instrument may create more than one trust.

In the case of a trust created during the decedent's life, it is sufficient if the trust satisfies conditions (1) to (5), as of the time of the decedent's death, irrespective of whether the surviving spouse was entitled to the trust income, or was able to exercise a power of appointment over the corpus, during the decedent's life. In the case of a trust which may be terminated during the life of the surviving spouse, under her exercise of a power of appointment or by distribution of the corpus to her, the trust satisfies condition (1) if such spouse is entitled to the income until the trust terminates.

A trust fails to satisfy condition (1) if the income is required to be accumulated in whole or in part or may be accumulated in the discretion of any person other than the surviving spouse, if the consent of any person other than the surviving spouse is required as a condition precedent to distribution of the income, if any person other than the surviving spouse has the power to alter the terms of the trust so as to deprive such spouse of her right to the income, or if any person other than the surviving spouse is entitled to any part of the income during the life of such spouse. A trust will not fail to satisfy condition (1) merely because its terms provide that the right of the surviving spouse to the income shall not be subject to assignment, alienation, pledge, attachment or claims of creditors.

The terms "entitled for life" and "payable annually or more frequently", as used in conditions (1) and (2), require that under the terms of the trust the income referred to must be currently (at least annually) distributable to the spouse or that she must have such command over the income that it is virtually hers. Thus, conditions (1) and (2) are satisfied in this respect if, under the terms of the trust instrument, the spouse has the right exercisable annually (or more frequently) to require distribution to herself of the trust income, and otherwise the trust income is to be accumulated and added to corpus. Similarly, as respects the income for the period between the last distribution date and the date of the spouse's death, it is sufficient if such income is subject to the spouse's power to appoint.

A trust created under the decedent's will is not to be regarded as failing to satisfy conditions (1) and (2) merely because income payments to the surviving spouse are not to commence in advance of the distribution of the trust property to the trustee by the executor, unless the executor is authorized or directed to delay distribution to the trustee beyond the period reasonably required for administration of the estate.

In order to satisfy condition in (3), the power of the surviving spouse to appoint the entire corpus free of the trust must fall within one of the following categories:

(i) A power so to appoint exercisable in her own favor at any time during life (as, for example, on unlimited power to invade).

(ii) A power so to appoint exercisable in favor of her estate.

(iii) A combination of the powers described under subdivisions (i) and (ii). For example, the surviving spouse may until she attains the age of 50 years have a power to appoint to herself and thereafter have a power to appoint to her estate. However, condition (4) is not satisfied unless irrespective of when the surviving spouse may die any amounts remaining unpaid will at the time of her death be subject to one or the other such power.

The power in the surviving spouse must be a power to appoint the corpus to herself as unqualified owner or to appoint the corpus as a part of her estate, that is, to dispose of it to whomsoever she pleases. Thus, if the surviving spouse entered into an agreement with the decedent to exercise the power only in favor of their issue, condition (3) is not met. The trust will not be regarded as failing to satisfy condition (3) merely because takers in default of the surviving spouse's exercise of the power are designated by the decedent. The decedent may provide that, in default of exercise of the power, the trust shall continue for an additional period.

In order for condition (4) to be satisfied, the power in the surviving spouse to appoint the corpus to herself or to her estate must be exercisable without the joinder or consent of any other person. In addition, such power, if exercisable during her life, must be fully exercisable at any time during life, or, if exercisable by will, must be fully exercisable irrespective of the time of her death. An example of a power which will not satisfy condition (4) is a power exercisable by the spouse unless she shall remarry.

The trust will fail to satisfy condition (5) if the decedent created a power in the trustee, or in another person, to invade the corpus of the trust for the benefit of any person other than the surviving spouse. However, only powers in other persons which are in opposition to that of the surviving spouse will cause the trust to fail to satisfy condition (5). For example, assume that a decedent created a trust, designating his surviving spouse as income beneficiary for life and as donee of a power to appoint the corpus. The decedent further provided that in the event the surviving spouse should die without having exercised the power, the trust should continue for the life of his son with power in such son to appoint the corpus. Since the power in the son could become exercisable only after the death of the surviving spouse, the trust is not regarded as failing to satisfy condition (5).

(d) Proceeds held by the insurer under a life insurance, endowment, or annuity contract, with power of appointment in surviving spouse. Section 812 (e) (1) (G), as amended by Public Law 869, 80th Congress, provides a special rule in the case of a property interest which passed from the decedent in the form of proceeds held by the insurer under a life insurance, endowment, or annuity contract, the terms of which satisfy the five conditions hereinafter stated. With respect to such proceeds, the expression "passed from the decedent to his surviving spouse" embraces not only the interest of such spouse under the contract but also the interest thereunder subject to her power to appoint. The five conditions which must be satisfied by the terms of the contract are as follows:

(1) The surviving spouse must be entitled to all amounts payable under such contract during her life.

(2) The proceeds must be held by the insurer subject to an agreement either to pay the proceeds in installments, or to pay interest thereon, annually, or more frequently, commencing not later than 13 months after the decedent's death.

(3) The surviving spouse must have the power, exercisable in favor of herself or of her estate, to appoint all amounts held by the insurer under such contract.

(4) Such power in the surviving spouse must be exercisable by such spouse alone and (whether exercisable by will or during life) must be exercisable in all events.

(5) The amounts payable under such contract must not be subject to a power in any other person to appoint any part thereof to any person other than the surviving spouse.

The provisions of section 812 (e) (1) (G), as amended, are applicable with respect to a property interest which passed from the decedent to his surviving spouse, in the form of proceeds of a policy of insurance upon the decedent's life, a policy of insurance upon the life of a person who predeceased the decedent, a matured endowment policy, or an annuity contract, but only in case such proceeds are to be held by the insurer. With respect to proceeds under any such contract which are to be held by a trustee, see paragraphs (b) and (c) of this section. As to the treatment of proceeds of contracts not meeting the above five conditions, see paragraph (b) (1) (iv) of this section.

In the case of a life insurance, endowment, or annuity contract, under which payments by the insurer did not commence until after the decedent's death, the above-stated conditions (1) to (5), are not satisfied unless all amounts payable under the contract are either payable to the surviving spouse or subject to her power to appoint. However, in the case of a contract under which payments by the insurer commenced prior to the decedent's death, it is sufficient if conditions (1) to (5), became effective upon the decedent's death, with respect to the entire amount of proceeds then remaining in the hands of the insurer.

Conditions (1) and (2) are satisfied if, under the terms of the contract, the spouse has the right exercisable annually (or more frequently) to require distribution to herself of installments of the proceeds, or interest on the proceeds, as the case may be, and otherwise such installments or interest is to be accumulated and held by the insurer pursuant to the terms of the contract. The requirement that payment must commence "not later than thirteen months after the decedent's death" will not be considered as violated solely by reason of a provision that proof of death must be submitted before the first payment is made, except in cases involving unreasonable delay in submission of such proof. Condition (2) is satisfied where interest on the proceeds is payable, annually or more frequently, for a term, or until the occurrence of a specified event, following which the proceeds are to be paid in annual or more frequent installments.

In determining whether the terms of the contract satisfy conditions (3), (4), and (5), the principles stated in paragraph (c) of this section are applicable.

It is sufficient for the purposes of condition (3) if the surviving spouse has the unqualified power, exercisable in favor of herself or her estate, to appoint all amounts held by the insurer which are payable after her death. Such power to appoint need not extend to installments or interest which will be paid to such spouse during her life. An example of a power which is not exercisable by the surviving spouse in all events, as required under condition (4), is a power under a policy of insurance on the decedent's life which may not be effectively exercised by such spouse unless she is living at the time the insurer receives proof of the death of the insured.

(e) Effect of disclaimer. Section 812 (e) (4) (A) provides that where the surviving spouse makes a disclaimer of any property interest which would otherwise be considered as having passed from the decedent to such spouse, such disclaimed interest is to be considered as having passed from the decedent to the person or persons entitled to receive such interest as a result of the disclaimer. A disclaimer is a complete and unqualified refusal to accept the rights to which one is entitled. It is, therefore, necessary, for the purpose of section 812 (e) (4) (A), to distinguish between the surviving spouse's disclaimer of a property interest and her acceptance and subsequent disposal of a property interest. For example, if proceeds of insurance are payable to the surviving spouse and she refuses such proceeds which consequently pass to an alternative beneficiary designated by the decedent, the provisions of section 812 (c) (4) (A) are applicable and the proceeds are considered as having passed from the decedent to the alternative beneficiary. On the other hand, if the surviving spouse directs the insurance company to hold the proceeds at interest during her life and, upon her death, to pay the principal sum to another person designated by her, thus effecting a transfer of a remainder interest therein, such proceeds are considered as having passed from the decedent to such spouse.

However, under the provisions of section 812 (e) (4) (B), it is unnecessary to distinguish, for the purposes of this section, between a disclaimer by a person other than the surviving spouse and a transfer by such person. Such section provides that where the surviving spouse becomes entitled to receive an interest in property from the decedent as a result of a disclaimer made by some other person, such interest is, nevertheless, considered as having passed from the decedent, not to the surviving spouse, but to the person who made the disclaimer, as though the disclaimer had not been made. Where, as a result of a disclaimer made by a person other than the surviving spouse, a property interest passes to a trust which meets the conditions set forth in paragraph (c) of this section, the rule stated in the preceding sentence applies, not only with respect to the portion of such interest which beneficially vests in the surviving spouse, but also with respect to the portion over which such spouse acquires a power to appoint. Such rule applies also in the case of proceeds under a life insurance endowment, or annuity contract, which, as a result of a disclaimer made by a person other than the surviving spouse, are held by the insurer subject to the conditions set forth in paragraph (d) of this section.

(f) Effect of election by surviving spouse. Where the surviving spouse is obliged to elect between a property interest offered to her under the decedent's will or other instrument and a property interest to which she is entitled (such as dower or a right in the decedent's estate) of which adverse disposition was attempted under such will or other instrument, the property interest which such spouse elects to renounce or relinquish is not considered as having "passed from the decedent to his surviving spouse". As to the valuation of the property interest taken under such an election, see paragraph (b) of § 81.47c.

(g) Will contests. If as a result of a controversy involving the decedent's will, or involving a bequest or devise to his surviving spouse, such spouse assigns or surrenders a property interest in settlement of such controversy, the interest so assigned or surrendered is not considered as having "passed from the decedent to his surviving spouse."

If as a result of a controversy involving the will, or involving a bequest or devise to a person other than the surviving spouse, a property interest is assigned or surrendered to such spouse, the interest so acquired will be regarded as having "passed from the decedent to his surviving spouse" only if such assignment or surrender was a bona fide recognition of enforceable rights of the surviving spouse in the decedent's estate. Such a bona fide recognition will be presumed where such assignment or surrender was pursuant to a decision of a local court upon the merits of the case following a genuine and active contest. However, if such assignment or surrender was pursuant to a decree rendered by consent, or pursuant to an agreement not to contest the will or not to probate the will, it will not necessarily be accepted as a bona fide evaluation of the rights of the spouse.

§ 81.47b Nondeductible interests—(a) General. The property interests which passed from the decedent to his surviving spouse (as set forth in § 81.47a) fall within two general categories: (1) Those with respect to which the marital deduction is authorized, and (2) those with respect to which the marital deduction is not authorized. Such categories are hereinafter referred to as "deductible interests" and "nondeductible interests," respectively. As to the several classes of "nondeductible interests," see paragraphs (b) to (f), of this section. Subject to the limitation set forth in § 81.47d, the marital deduction is equal in amount to the aggregate value of the "deductible interest," that is, the property interests which passed from the decedent to his surviving spouse and do not fall within any of the classes described in such paragraphs (b) to (f) of this section.

(b) Interests not included in gross estate. Any property interest which passed from the decedent to his surviving spouse is a "nondeductible interest" to the extent it is not included in the decedent's gross estate.

(c) Interests with respect to which a deduction is taken under section 812 (b). Where a deduction is taken under section 812 (b) with respect to any property interest which passed from the decedent to his surviving spouse, such interest is a "nondeductible interest". Thus, a property interest which passed from the decedent to his surviving spouse in satisfaction of a deductible claim of such spouse against the estate is a "nondeductible interest". (See paragraph (b) of § 81.47c.) Or, if a deduction is taken for losses during the settlement of the estate, in respect of any property interest which passed from the decedent to his surviving spouse, such interest is (to the extent of the deductible loss) a "nondeductible interest". Amounts deducted under section 812 (b) (5) for any allowance for the support of the surviving spouse during the settlement of the estate, or under section 812 (b) (2) for commissions allowed to the surviving spouse as executor do not come within the definition of interests which "passed from the decedent to his surviving spouse". As to the valuation, for the purpose of the marital deduction, of any property interest which passed from the decedent to his surviving spouse subject to a mortgage or other incumbrance, see paragraph (b) of § 81.47c.

(d) Interest in property which another person may possess or enjoy. Section 812 (e) (1) (B) provides that no marital deduction shall be allowed with respect to certain property interests (referred to generally as "terminable interests") which passed from the decedent to his surviving spouse, in case:

(1) An interest in the same property passed at any time (for less than an adequate and full consideration in money or money's worth) from the decedent to any person other than such spouse (or the estate of such spouse), and

(2) By reason thereof, such person (or his heirs or assigns) may possess or enjoy any part of such property after the termination or failure of the interest therein which passed from the decedent to his surviving spouse.

The foregoing provision is applicable only where interests in the same property passed from the decedent both to his surviving spouse, and to some other person (for less than an adequate and full consideration in money or money's worth), and is applicable irrespective of whether both such interests passed from the decedent at the same time or under the same instrument. Under such circumstances, if the other person to whom an interest passed may, by reason thereof, possess or enjoy any part of the property after the termination or failure of the interest therein which passed from the decedent to his surviving spouse, the latter interest is a "nondeductible interest". As to the meaning of the term "passed from the decedent to a person other than his surviving spouse", see paragraph (b) of § 81.47a.

In determining whether an interest in the same property passed from the decedent both to his surviving spouse and to some other person, a distinction is to be drawn between "property", as such term is used in section 812 (e), and an "interest in property". The term "property" refers to the underlying property in which various interests exist; each such interest is not for this purpose to be considered as "property".

Interests which passed to a person other than the surviving spouse include interests so passing under the decedent's exercise, release, or nonexercise of a nontaxable power to appoint. It is immaterial whether the property interest which passed from the decedent to a person other than his surviving spouse is included in the decedent's gross estate.

The term "person other than his surviving spouse" includes the possible unascertained takers of a property interest, as, for example, the members of a class to be ascertained in the future. As another example, assume that the decedent created a power of appointment over a property interest, which does not come within the purview of paragraph (c) or (d) of § 81.47a. In such a case, the term "person other than his surviving spouse" refers to the possible appointees and possible takers in default (other than the spouse) of such property interest. Whether there is a possibility that the "person other than his surviving spouse" (or the heirs or assigns of such person) may possess or enjoy the property following termination or failure of the interest therein which passed from the decedent to his surviving spouse is to be determined as of the time of the decedent's death.

In the following examples it is assumed that the property interest which passed from the decedent to a person other than his surviving spouse was not for an adequate and full consideration in money or money's worth:

(i) H (the decedent) devised real property to W (his surviving wife) for life, with remainder to A and his heirs. The interest which passed from H to W is a "nondeductible interest" since it will terminate upon her death and A (or his heirs or assigns) will thereafter possess or enjoy the property.

(ii) H devised real property to W for life, and created in W a power, exercisable by will, to appoint the remainder interest to any person. In default of appointment by W, the remainder interest was to go to A and his heirs. Assuming that under the local law W did not take the real property as absolute owner, the interest which passed from H to W is a "nondeductible interest" since such interest will terminate upon her death and A (or his heirs or assigns) may thereafter possess or enjoy the property. (As to cases in which a "deductible interest" may exist where a life interest is coupled with a power to appoint under a trust or insurance contract, see paragraph (c) and (d) of § 81.47a.)

(iii) H bequeathed the residue of his estate in trust for the benefit of W and A. The trust income is to be paid to W for life, and upon her death the corpus is to be distributed to A or his issue. However, if A should die without issue, leaving W surviving, the corpus is then to be distributed to W. The interest which passed from H to W is a "nondeductible interest" since it will terminate in the event of her death if A or his issue survive, and A or his issue will thereafter possess or enjoy the property.

(iv) H, in contemplation of death, purchased for $100,000 a life annuity for W. If the annuity payments made during the life of W should be less than $100,000, further payments were to be made to A. The interest which passed from H to W is a "nondeductible interest" since A may possess or enjoy a part of the property following the termination of the interest of W.

(v) H devised property to W and A as joint tenants with right of survivorship. The interest which passed from H to W is a "nondeductible interest" since, if the tenancy is not severed and A survives W, the interest of W will terminate and A will continue to possess or enjoy the property.

(vi) H, in contemplation of death, transferred a residence to A for life with remainder to W provided W survives A, but if W predeceases A, the property is to pass to B and his heirs. If it is assumed that H died during A's lifetime, and the value of the residence was included in determining the value of his gross estate, the interest which passed from H to W is a "nondeductible interest" since such interest will terminate if W predeceases A and the property will thereafter be possessed or enjoyed by B (or his heirs or assigns). This result is not affected by B's assignment of his interest during H's lifetime, whether made in favor of W or another person, since the term "assigns" (as used in section 812 (e) (1) (B)) includes such assignee. However, if it is assumed that A predeceased H, the interest of B in the property was extinguished, and, viewed as of the time of the subsequent death of H, the interest which passed from him to W is the entire interest in the property and, therefore, a "deductible interest".

(vii) H transferred real property to A, reserving the right to the rentals of the property for a term of 20 years. H died within such 20-year term, bequeathing the right to the remaining rentals to a trust. The terms of the trust satisfy the five conditions stated in paragraph (c) of § 81.47a, so that the property interest which passed in trust is considered to have passed from H to W. Such interest is a "nondeductible interest" since it will terminate upon the expiration of the term and A will thereafter possess or enjoy the property.

(viii) H bequeathed a patent to W and A as tenants in common. In this case, the interest of W will terminate upon the expiration of the term of the patent, but possession or enjoyment of the property by A must necessarily cease at the same time. Therefore, since A's possession or enjoyment cannot outlast the termination of W's interest, the latter is a "deductible interest".

The above-stated provision is to be applied with respect to the property interests which actually passed from the decedent. Subsequent conversions of the property are immaterial for this purpose. Thus, where a decedent bequeathed his estate to his wife for life with remainder to his children, the interest which passed to his wife is a "nondeductible interest," even though the wife agrees with the children to take a fractional share of the estate in lieu thereof, or sells the life estate for cash, or acquires the remainder interest of the children either by purchase or gift.

Section 812 (e) (1) (D) provides an exception to the general rule stated in this paragraph. In general, the object of section 812 (e) (1) (D) is to prevent a property interest from being classified as "nondeductible" where (a) the only condition under which it will terminate is the death of the surviving spouse within 6 months after the decedent's death, or the death of such spouse as a result of a common disaster which also resulted in the decedent's death, and (b) such condition does not in fact occur. The following examples illustrate the application of the exception provided by section 812 (e) (1) (D):

Example (1). A decedent bequeathed his entire estate to his spouse on condition that she survive him by 6 months. In the event his spouse failed to survive him by 6 months, his estate was to go to his niece and her heirs. The decedent was survived by his spouse. It will be observed that, as of the time of the decedent's death, it was possible that the niece would, by reason of the interest which passed to her from the decedent, possess or enjoy the estate after the termination of the interest therein which passed to the spouse. Hence, under the general rule set forth in this section, the interest which passed to the spouse would be regarded as a "nondeductible interest". If the surviving spouse in fact died within 6 months after the decedent's death, such general rule is to be applied, and the interest which passed to such spouse is a "nondeductible interest". However, if such spouse in fact survived the decedent by 6 months, thus extinguishing the interest of the niece, the case comes within the exception provided by section 812 (e) (1) (D), and the interest which passed to such spouse is a "deductible interest". (It is assumed for the purpose of this example that no other factor which would cause such interest to be "nondeductible" is present.)

Example (2). The facts are the same as in example (1) except that the will provided that the estate was to go to the niece either in case the decedent and his spouse should both die as a result of a common disaster, or in case the spouse should fail to survive the decedent by 3 months. It is assumed that the decedent was survived by his spouse. In this example, the interest which passed from the decedent to his surviving spouse is to be regarded as a "nondeductible interest" in case the surviving spouse in fact died either within 3 months after the decedent's death or as a result of a common disaster which also resulted in the decedent's death. However, if such spouse in fact survived the decedent by 3 months, and did not thereafter die as a result of a common disaster which also resulted in the decedent's death, the exception provided under section 812 (e) (1) (D) will apply.

Where the only condition which will cause the interest taken by the surviving spouse to terminate is of such nature that it can occur only within 6 months following the decedent's death, the exception provided under section 812 (e) (1) (D) will apply, provided the condition does not in fact occur. However, where such condition (unless it relates to death as a result of a common disaster) is one which may occur either within such 6-month period or thereafter, the exception provided under section 812 (e) (1) (D) will not apply.

Where a property interest passed from the decedent to his surviving spouse subject to the condition that she does not die as a result of a common disaster which also resulted in the decedent's death, the exception provided under section 812 (e) (1) (D) will not be applied in the final audit of the return if there is still a possibility that the surviving spouse may be deprived of such property interest by operation of the common disaster provision as given effect by the local law.

(c) Terminable interest to be acquired by executor or trustee. Section 812 (e) (1) (B) also provides that no marital deduction may be taken with respect to a life estate or other "terminable interest" which is to be acquired for the surviving spouse, pursuant to directions of the decedent, by his executor or by a trustee. Other examples of "terminable interests" are an annuity, an estate for years, a patent, and a copyright. Section 812 (e) (1) (B) provides that a property interest shall not be considered a "terminable interest" merely because it is the ownership of a bond, note, or similar contractual obligation, the discharge of which would not have the effect of an annuity for life or for a term.

The foregoing provision is applicable only with respect to any property interest which the decedent directed his executor or a trustee to expend, subsequently to his death, in the acquisition of a life estate, annuity, or other "terminable interest" for his surviving spouse. In such a case the property interest which is to be so expended is a "nondeductible interest." The foregoing provision is not applicable, however, in the case of a general authorization to reinvest property, whereunder the executor or trustee may acquire either "terminable interests" or other property interests.

Example. A decedent bequeathed $100,000 to his wife, subject to a direction to his executor to use such bequest for the purchase of an annuity for the wife. The bequest is of a "nondeductible interest."

(f) Interest payable out of a group of assets. Section 812 (e) (1) (C) provides that where the assets (included in the decedent's gross estate) out of which, or the proceeds of which, an interest passing to the surviving spouse may be satisfied include a particular asset or assets with respect to which no deduction would be allowed if such asset or assets passed from the decedent to such spouse, then the value of such interest passing to such spouse shall, for the purpose of the marital deduction, be reduced by the aggregate value of such particular assets.

In order for the foregoing provision to apply, two circumstances must coexist, as follows:

(1) The property interest which passed from the decedent to his surviving spouse must be payable out of a group of assets included in the gross estate. Examples of property interests payable out of a group of assets are a general legacy, a bequest of the residue of the decedent's estate or of a portion of the residue, and a right to a share of the corpus of a trust upon its termination.

(2) The group of assets out of which the property interest is payable must include one or more particular assets which, if passing specifically to the surviving spouse, would be "nondeductible interests".

If the above circumstances are both present, the property interest payable out of the group of assets is (except as to any excess of its value over the aggregate value of the particular asset or assets which would not be deductible if passing specifically to the surviving spouse) a "nondeductible interest".

Example. A decedent bequeathed one-third of the residue of his estate to his wife. The property passing under the decedent's will included a right to the rentals of an office building for a term of years, reserved by the decedent under a deed of the building by way of gift to his son. The decedent did not make a specific bequest of the right to such rentals. Such right, if passing specifically to the wife, would be a "nondeductible interest". (See paragraph (d) of this section.) If it is assumed that the value of the bequest of one-third of the residue of the estate to the wife was $85,000, and that the right to the rentals was included in the gross estate at a value of $60,000, then the bequest is, to the extent of $60,000, a "nondeductible interest".

§ 81.47c Valuation of property interest passing to surviving spouse—(a) In general. The value, for the purpose of the marital deduction, of any "deductible interest" which passed from the decedent to his surviving spouse is to be determined as of the date of the decedent's death, unless the executor elects the optional valuation method in accordance with the provisions of § 81.11, in which case the value of any such interest is to be determined as of such date with adjustment as explained in § 81.11.

(b) Property interest subject to an incumbrance or obligation. The marital deduction may be taken only with respect to the net value of any "deductible interest" which passed from the decedent to his surviving spouse, the same principles being applicable as if the amount of a gift to such spouse were being determined. Section 812 (e) (1) (E) provides that where a property interest passed from the decedent to his surviving spouse subject to a mortgage or other incumbrance, or where an obligation is imposed upon the surviving spouse by the decedent in connection with the passing of a property interest, the value of such property interest is to be reduced by the amount of such mortgage, other incumbrance, or obligation. The passing of a property interest subject to the imposition of an obligation by the decedent does not include a bequest, devise, or transfer in lieu of dower, curtesy, or of a statutory estate created in lieu of dower or curtesy, or of other marital rights in the decedent's property or estate. The passing of a property interest subject to the imposition of an obligation by the decedent does, however, include a bequest, etc., in lieu of the interest of his surviving spouse under community property laws unless such interest was, immediately prior to the decendent's death, a mere expectancy. (See par. (b) of § 81.47d.)

The following are illustrative of property interests which passed from the decedent to his surviving spouse subject to the imposition of an obligation by the decedent:

(1) A decedent devised a residence valued at $25,000 to his wife, with a direction that she pay $5,000 to his sister. For the purpose of the marital deduction, the value of the property interest passing to the wife is only $20,000.

(2) A decedent devised real property to his wife in satisfaction of a debt owing to her. The debt is a deductible claim under section 812 (b) (3). Since the wife is obliged to relinquish such claim as a condition to acceptance of the devise, the value of the devise is, for the purpose of the marital deduction, to be reduced by the amount of such claim.

(3) A decedent bequeathed certain securities to his wife in lieu of her interest in property held by them as community property under the law of the State of their residence. The wife elected to relinquish her community property interest and to take the bequest. For the purpose of the marital deduction, the value of the bequest is to be reduced by the value of the community property interest relinquished by the wife.

(c) Effect of death taxes. Section 812 (e) (1) (E) provides that in the determination of the value of any property interest which passed from the decedent to his surviving spouse, there shall be taken into account the effect which the Federal estate tax, or any estate, succession, legacy, or inheritance tax, has upon the net value to the surviving spouse of such property interest.

For example, assume that the only bequest to the surviving spouse is of $100,000 and such spouse is required to pay State inheritance tax in the amount of $1,500. If no other death taxes affect the net value of the bequest, such value, for the purpose of the marital deduction, is $98,500.

To take another example, assume that a decedent devised to his wife real property having a value for Federal estate tax purposes of $100,000, and also bequeathed to her a "nondeductible" interest for life under a trust. The State of residence values the real property at $90,000 and the life interest at $30,000, and imposes an inheritance tax (at graduated rates) of $4,800 with respect to the two interests. If it is assumed that such inheritance tax is required to be paid by the wife, the amount thereof to be ascribed to the devise is:

Accordingly, if no other death taxes affect the net value of the bequest, such value, for the purpose of the marital deduction, is $100,000 less $3,600, or $96,400.

If the decedent bequeaths his residuary estate, or a portion thereof, to his surviving spouse, and his will contains a direction that all death taxes shall be payable out of such residuary estate, the value of the bequest, for the purpose of the marital deduction, is based upon the amount of the residue as reduced pursuant to such direction. If the residuary estate, or a portion thereof, is bequeathed to the surviving spouse, and by the local law the Federal estate tax is payable out of the residuary estate, the value of the bequest, for the purpose of the marital deduction, may not exceed the amount thereof as reduced by the Federal estate tax.

(d) Remainder interests. Where the income from property is made payable to another individual for life, or for a term of years, with remainder absolutely to the surviving spouse or to her estate, the marital deduction is based upon the present value of the remainder. The present value of the remainder is to be determined in accordance with the rules stated in § 81.10 (i). For example, if the surviving spouse is to receive $50,000 upon the death of a person aged 31 years, the present value of the remainder is $15,631. (See example in § 81.10 (i) (4).) If the remainder is such that its value is to be determined by a special computation (see § 81.10 (i) (3)), a request for a specific factor accompanied by a statement of the date of birth of each person, the duration of whose life may affect the value of the remainder, and by copies of the relevant instruments may be submitted to the Commissioner who in his discretion may supply the factor requested. If the Commissioner does not furnish the factor, the claim for deduction must be supported by a full statement of the computation of the present worth made, in accordance with the principles set forth in § 81.10 (i), by one skilled in actuarial computations.

§ 81.47d Limitation on amount of marital deduction—(a) In general. The allowable marital deduction is limited to the smaller of the following amounts:

(1) The aggregate value of the "deductible interests" which passed from the decedent to his surviving spouse, as determined under §§ 81.47a to 81.47c.

(2) Fifty per cent of the value of the "adjusted gross estate", as determined under this section. Except as provided in paragraph (b) of this section (relating to community property), the "adjusted gross estate" is to be determined by substracting from the entire value of the gross estate the aggregate amount of the deductions allowed under section 812 (b). (See § 81.29 to 81.40.)

Example. The value of a decedent's gross estate is $200,000 and the aggregate amount of the deductions allowed by section 812 (b) is $30,000. The value of the "adjusted gross estate" is, therefore, $200,000 less $30,000, which is $170,000. It is assumed that the aggregate value of the "deductible interests" which passed from the decedent to his surviving spouse is $100,000. The allowable marital deduction is limited to $85,000 (50 per cent of the value of the "adjusted gross estate").

(b) Special rule in case involving community property. If the decedent and his surviving spouse at any time held property as "community property", as hereinafter defined, the "adjusted gross estate" referred to in paragraph (a) of this section is to be determined by subtracting from the entire value of the gross estate the sum of the following values and amounts:

(1) The value of any property included in the gross estate which was at the time of the decedent's death held by him and his surviving spouse as "community property", as hereinafter defined.

(2) The value of property (to the extent included in the gross estate) transferred by the decedent during his life, if at the time of such transfer the property was held by him and his surviving spouse as "community property", as hereinafter defined.

(3) The amount (to the extent included in the gross estate) receivable as insurance under policies upon the life of the decedent to the extent purchased with premiums or other consideration paid out of property then held by him and his surviving spouse as "community property", as hereinafter defined.

(4) An amount, A, which bears the same ratio to B (the aggregate amount of the deductions allowed by section 812 (b)) as C (the value of the gross estate, diminished by the aggregate amount subtracted under subparagraphs (1), (2), and (3) of this paragraph) bears to D (the entire value of the gross estate).

Where a policy of insurance upon the life of the decedent was purchased partly with property held by him and his surviving spouse as "community property," as hereinafter defined, and partly with other property, the amount receivable under such policy is considered, for the purpose of subparagraph (3) of this paragraph, to have been purchased with such "community property" in the proportion that the payments made with such "community property" bear to the total amount paid. If only a portion of the proceeds of a policy is included in the gross estate, only such portion of the proceeds, and only the premiums or other consideration paid for such portion, are to be included in the computation stated in the preceding sentence. (See § 81.27.)

In determining the "adjusted gross estate" under this paragraph, property held by the decedent and his surviving spouse as "community property", at the time of the death of the decedent (for the purpose of subparagraph (1) of this paragraph), at the time of the transfer (for the purpose of subparagraph (2) of this paragraph), or at the time of the payment of insurance premiums or other consideration (for the purpose of subparagraph (3) of this paragraph), is considered to include:

(i) Any property held by them at such time as community property under the law of any State, Territory, or possession of the United States, or of any foreign country, except such property in which the surviving spouse had at such time merely an expectant interest.

(ii) Separate property acquired by the decedent as a result of a "conversion" (during the calendar year 1942 or after April 2, 1948) of property held by him and his surviving spouse as community property under the law of any State, Territory, or possession of the United States, or of any foreign country, (except such property in which the surviving spouse had at the time of the "conversion" merely an expectant interest) into their separate property.

(iii) Property acquired by the decedent in exchange (by one exchange or a series of exchanges) for separate property acquired as set forth under subdivision (ii) of this subparagraph.

The surviving spouse is regarded as having merely an expectant interest in property held as community property under the law of any State, Territory, or possession of the United States, or of any foreign country, (a) at the time of the decedent's death if the entire value of such property (and not merely one-half thereof) is includible in the decedent's gross estate, and (b) at the time of any transfer, payment of insurance premiums or other consideration, or "conversion" if, in case of the death of the decedent at such time, the entire value of the property involved in such transfer, payment, or "conversion" (and not merely one-half thereof) would, without regard to the provisions of section 811 (e) (2), have been so includible.

The term "conversion" refers to any transfer of property from the marital community, whereby each spouse acquired separate property. Such term thus includes a partition of community property between the decedent and his surviving spouse or a transfer of community property to themselves in joint tenancy, tenancy by the entirety, tenancy in common, or other form of coownership, whether such partition or other conversion was effected by a single transaction or a series of transactions. Where the value of the separate property acquired by the decedent as a result of a conversion did not exceed the value of the separate property thus acquired by the surviving spouse, the entire separate property thus acquired by the decedent is to be considered, for the purposes of this paragraph, as held by him and his surviving spouse as community property. Where the value (at the time of the conversion) of the separate property so acquired by the decedent exceeded the value (at such time) of the separate property so acquired by the spouse, only a part of the separate property so acquired by the decedent (and only the same fractional part of property acquired by him in exchange for such separate property) is to be considered, for the purposes of this paragraph, as held by him and his surviving spouse as community property. The part of such separate property (or property acquired in exchange therefor) which is considered as so held is the same proportion thereof which the value (at the time of the conversion) of the separate property so acquired by the spouse is of the value (at such time) of the separate property so acquired by the decedent.

Example (1). The value of a decedent's gross estate is $300,000, of which $200,000 represents his separate property and $100,000 represents his one-half interest in community property. The decedent's separate property was inherited from his father. The deductions allowed under section 812 (b) total $45,000. In this example, the "adjusted gross estate" is computed as follows:

Value of gross estate		$300,000
Reduction under subparagraph (1)	$100,000
Reduction under subparagraph (4) ($200,000/300,000 of $45,000)	30,000
Total reduction		130,000
Adjusted gross estate		170,000

In this example the marital deduction will be $85,000 (one-half the value of the "adjusted gross estate") in case the aggregate value of the "deductible interests" which passed from the decedent to his surviving spouse equals or exceeds such amount.

Example (2). The facts are the same as in example (1) except that the decedent's separate property was not inherited from his father, but was acquired under the following transaction: On November 1, 1942, the decedent and his surviving spouse partitioned certain community property then having a value of $224,000. A portion of such property then having a value of $160,000, was converted into the decedent's separate property, and the remaining portion, then having a value of $64,000, was converted into his spouse's separate property. The portion of the separate property so acquired by the decedent which is considered as held as community property at the time of his death is represented by that proportion of $200,000 (the value, at the time of death, of such separate property) which $64,000 (the value, at the time of the conversion, of the separate property so acquired by his spouse) bears to $160,000 (the value, at the time of the conversion, of the separate property so acquired by the decedent), which proportion equals $80,000. The "adjusted gross estate" is computed as follows:

Value of gross estate		$300,000
Reduction under subparagraph (1) ($100,000 plus $80,000)	$180,000
Reduction under subparagraph (4) ($120,000/300,000 of $45,000)	18,000
Total reduction		198,000
Adjusted gross estate		102,000

The burden of establishing the extent to which separate property of the decedent was acquired other than as described in subdivisions (i) and (iii) of this subparagraph rests upon the executor:

§ 81.47e Proof required. The executor must submit such proof as is necessary to establish the right of the estate to the marital deduction, including any evidence requested by the Commissioner.

PAR. 17. Section 81.53, as amended by Treasury Decision 5239, is further amended as follows:

(A) By striking out "the three following exceptions" and by inserting in lieu thereof the following: "the four following exceptions."

(B) By inserting at the end thereof the following subparagraph:

§ 81.53 Deduction of the value of property previously taxed. • • •

(4) The condition set forth under § 81.41 (a) (6) should be disregarded in determining whether the deduction is available.

PAR. 18. There is inserted immediately preceding § 81.83 the following:

SEC. 365. (REVENUE ACT OF 1948) LIABILITY OF LIFE INSURANCE BENEFICIARIES, ETC.

(a) Section 826 (c) of the Internal Revenue Code (relating to liability of life insurance beneficiaries) is hereby amended by adding at the end thereof the following new sentence: "In the case of such proceeds receivable by the surviving spouse of the decedent for which a deduction is allowed under section 812 (e) (the so-called 'marital deduction'), this subsection shall not apply to such proceeds except as to the amount thereof in excess of the aggregate amount of the marital deductions allowed under such subsections."

(b) Section 826 (d) of the Internal Revenue Code (relating to liability of recipient of property over which decedent had power of appointment) is hereby amended by adding at the end thereof the following new sentence: "In the case of such property received by the surviving spouse of the decedent for which a deduction is allowed under section 812 (e) (the so-called 'marital deduction'), this subsection shall not apply to such property except as to the value thereof reduced by an amount equal to the excess of the aggregate amount of the marital deductions allowed under section 812 (e) over the amount of proceeds of insurance upon the life of the decedent receivable by the surviving spouse for which proceeds a marital deduction is allowed under such subsection."

(c) The amendments made by this section shall be applicable only with respect to estates of decedents dying after December 31, 1947.

PAR. 19. Section 81.79 (b) is amended by inserting immediately preceding the period at the end of the first sentence of the fourth undesignated paragraph thereof the following: "; the portion of the marital deduction allowed under the provisions of section 812 (e) on account of bequests, etc., of such interests to the decedent's surviving spouse".

GIFT TAX; GIFTS OF HUSBAND AND WIFE UNDER REVENUE ACT OF 1948

NOTICE OF PROPOSED RULE MAKING

Notice is hereby given, pursuant to the Administrative Procedure Act, approved June 11, 1946, that the regulations set forth in tentative form below are proposed to be prescribed by the Commissioner of Internal Revenue, with the approval of the Secretary of the Treasury. Prior to the final adoption of such regulations, consideration will be given to any data, views, or arguments pertaining thereto which are submitted in writing in duplicate to the Commissioner of Internal Revenue, Washington 25, D. C., within the period of 30 days from the date of publication of this notice in the FEDERAL REGISTER. The proposed regulations are to be issued under the authority contained in sections 1029 and 3791 of the Internal Revenue Code (53 Stat. 157, 467; 26 U. S. C. 1029, 3791) and pursuant to the provisions of the Revenue Act of 1948 (Public Law 471, 80th Congress), enacted April 2, 1948.

[SEAL] FRED S. MARTIN,
Acting Commissioner of Internal Revenue.

In order to conform Regulations 108 (26 CFR, Part 86) to certain sections of the Revenue Act of 1948 (Pub. Law 471, 80th Cong.), enacted April 2, 1948, such regulations are amended as follows:

PARAGRAPH 1. There is inserted immediately preceding § 86.1 the following:

SEC. 371. GIFTS OF COMMUNITY PROPERTY. (Revenue Act of 1948; enacted April 2, 1948.)

Section 1000 (d) of the Internal Revenue Code (relating to gifts of property held as community property) is amended by adding at the end thereof a new sentence to read as follows: "This subsection shall be applicable only to gifts made after the calendar year 1942 and on or before the date of the enactment of the Revenue Act of 1948."

SEC. 374. GIFT OF HUSBAND OR WIFE TO THIRD PARTY. (Revenue Act of 1948; enacted April 2, 1948.)

Section 1000 of the Internal Revenue Code (relating to imposition of gift tax) is hereby amended by adding at the end thereof a new subsection to read as follows:

(f) Gift of husband or wife to third party—(1) Considered as made one-half by each—(A) In general. A gift made after the date of the enactment of the Revenue Act of 1948 by one spouse to any person other than his spouse shall, for the purposes of this chapter, be considered as made one-half by him and one-half by his spouse, but only if at the time of the gift each spouse is a citizen or resident of the United States. This subparagraph shall not apply with respect to a gift by a spouse of an interest in property if he creates in his spouse a power of appointment, as defined in subsection (c) of this section, over such interest. For the purposes of this subsection an individual shall be considered as the spouse of another individual only if he is married to such individual at the time of the gift and does not remarry during the remainder of the calendar year.

(B) Consent of both spouses. Subparagraph (A) shall be applicable only if both spouses have signified (in accordance with the regulations provided for in paragraph (2)) their consent to the application of subparagraph (A) in the case of all such gifts made during the calendar year by either while married to the other.

(2) Manner and time of signifying consent—(A) Manner. A consent under this subsection shall be signified in such manner as is provided under regulations prescribed by the Commissioner with the approval of the Secretary.

(B) Time. Such consent may be so signified at any time after the close of the calendar year in which the gift was made, subject to the following limitations:

(i) The consent may not be signified after the 15th day of March following the close of such year, unless before such 15th day no return has been filed for such year by either spouse, in which case the consent may not be signified after a return for such year is filed by either spouse;

(ii) The consent may not be signified after a notice of deficiency with respect to the tax for such year has been sent to either spouse in accordance with section 1012 (a).

(3) Revocation of consent. Revocation of a consent previously signified shall be made in such manner as is provided under regulations prescribed by the Commissioner with the approval of the Secretary, but the right to revoke a consent previously signified with respect to a calendar year:

(A) Shall not exist after the 15th day of March following the close of such year if the consent was signified on or before such 15th day; and

(B) Shall not exist if the consent was not signified until after such 15th day.

(4) Joint and several liability for tax. If the consent required by paragraph (1) (B) is signified with respect to a gift made in any calendar year the liability with respect to the entire tax imposed by this chapter of each spouse for such year shall be joint and several.

PAR. 2. Section 86.2 (a) is amended as follows:

(A) By inserting immediately after the seventh sentence (in parentheses), the following: "Where a joint income tax return is filed under chapter 1 by husband and wife for a taxable year the payment by one spouse of all or part of the income tax liability for such year is not treated as resulting in a transfer which is subject to gift tax. The same rule is applicable to the payment of gift tax for a calendar year in the case of husband and wife who have consented to the application of section 1000 (f) for such year."

(B) By inserting at the end thereof the following:

(9) Where property held by a husband and wife as community property is used to purchase insurance upon the husband's life and a third person is revocably designated as beneficiary and under the State law the husband's death is considered to make absolute the transfer by the wife, there is a gift by the wife at the time of such death of one-half the amount of the proceeds of such insurance. (For special provisions with respect to transfers of community property after 1942 and on or before April 2, 1948, see paragraph (c) of this section.)

PAR. 3. Section 86.2 (c) is amended as follows:

(A) By inserting in the heading immediately following "1942" and preceding the period the following: "and on or before April 2, 1948".

(B) By striking from the first sentence "During the calendar year 1943 and any calendar year thereafter any gift" and by inserting in lieu thereof the following: "Any gift after December 31, 1942, and on or before April 2, 1948,".

(C) By striking from the last sentence of the second undesignated paragraph "on or after January 1, 1943" and by inserting in lieu thereof the following: "after December 31, 1942, and on or before April 2, 1948".

PAR. 4. There is inserted immediately following § 86.3 the following.

§ 86.3a Gift of husband or wife to third party after April 2, 1948—(a) In general. Section 1000 (f), as added by section 374 of the Revenue Act of 1948, makes provision whereby a gift made after April 2, 1948, by one spouse to a person other than his spouse may, for the purpose of the gift tax, be considered as made one-half by him and one-half by his spouse, but only if at the time of the gift each spouse was a citizen or resident of the United States. For the purposes of section 1000 (f) an individual is to be considered as the spouse of another individual only if he is married to such individual at the time of the gift and does not remarry during the remainder of the calendar year.

The provisions of section 1000 (f) will apply only if both spouses consent. As to the manner and time of signifying such consent, see paragraph (b) of this section. Such consent, if signified, is effective with respect to all gifts made to third parties during the calendar year to which the consent applies, except as follows:

(1) If the consenting spouses were not married to each other during any portion of the calendar year, the consent is not effective with respect to any gift made during such portion of the calendar year.

(2) If either spouse was a nonresident not a citizen of the United States during any portion of the calendar year, the consent is not effective with respect to any gift made during such portion of the calendar year.

(3) The consent is not effective with respect to a gift by one spouse of a property interest if he created in his spouse a power of appointment (as defined in section 1000 (c)) over such property interest.

(4) If one spouse transferred property in part to his spouse and in part to third parties, the consent is effective with respect to the interest transferred to third parties only insofar as such interest is ascertainable at the time of the gift, and hence severable from the interest transferred to his spouse. Section 86.19 (f) indicates the principles to be applied in the valuation of annuities, life estates, terms for years, remainders and reversions.

The consent applies alike to gifts made by one spouse alone and to gifts made partly by each spouse, provided such gifts were to third parties and do not fall within any of the foregoing exceptions. The consent may not be applied only to a portion of the property interests constituting such gifts.

If consent to the application of the provisions of section 1000 (f) is signified as provided in paragraph (b) of this section for any calendar year and not revoked as provided in paragraph (c) of this section, the liability with respect to the entire gift tax of each spouse for such calendar year shall be joint and several.

(b) Manner and time of signifying consent. Consent to the application of the provisions of section 1000 (f) with respect to a calendar year shall, in order to be effective, be signified by both spouses. If both spouses file gift tax returns, Form 709, within the time for signifying consent it is sufficient if (1) the consent of both spouses is signified on one of such returns or (2) the consent of one spouse is signified on one such return and the consent of the other spouse is signified on the other return. If only one spouse files a gift tax return within the time provided for signifying consent, the consent of both spouses shall be signified on such return. However, wherever possible notice of the consent is to be shown on both returns. The consent may be revoked only as provided in paragraph (c) of this section. (As to whether one or both spouses are required to file returns, see § 86.20.) Where one spouse files more than one Form 709 for a calendar year on or before the 15th day of March following the close of such year, the last Form 709 so filed will, for the purpose of determining whether a consent has been signified, be considered as the return.

The consent may be so signified at any time after the close of the calendar year, subject to the following limitations:

(1) The consent may not be signified after the 15th day of March following the close of such year, unless before such 15th day no return has been filed for such year by either spouse, in which case the consent may not be signified after a return for such year is filed by either spouse; and

(2) The consent may not be signified after a notice of deficiency with respect to the tax for such year has been sent to either spouse in accordance with section 1012 (a).

If one spouse dies or becomes legally incompetent within the period during which the consent for any calendar year may be signified, his executor, administrator, guardian, or committee, as the case may be, may signify such consent.

As to the preparation of the return in case consent is signified, see § 86.23.

(c) Revocation of consent. If the consent to the application of the provisions of section 1000 (f) with respect to a calendar year was effectively signified or before the 15th day of March following the close of such year, either spouse may revoke such consent by filing in duplicate with the collector of internal revenue a signed statement of revocation; but the right to revoke shall not exist after such 15th day. A consent which was not effectively signified until after the 15th day of March following the close of the calendar year to which it applies may not be revoked.

PAR. 5. Section 86.7 is amended by inserting immediately after the sixth sentence thereof the following: "Where a consent under section 1000 (f) was effectively signified with respect to any preceding calendar year, the aggregate sum of the net gifts for such preceding calendar year is to be determined pursuant to the provisions of such section."

PAR. 6. Section 86.9 is amended by changing the last sentence thereof to read as follows: "(See §§ 86.12 to 86.16d."

PAR. 7. There is inserted immediately preceding § 86.12 the following:

SEC. 372. MARITAL DEDUCTION. (Revenue Act of 1948; enacted April 2, 1948.)

Section 1004 (a) of the Internal Revenue Code (relating to deductions in computing net gifts in the case of a citizen or resident of the United States) is hereby amended by adding at the end thereof a new paragraph to read as follows:

(3) Gift to spouse—(A) In general. Where the donor transfers during the calendar year (and after the date of the enactment of the Revenue Act of 1948) by gift an interest in property to a donee who at the time of the gift is the donor's spouse—an amount with respect to such interest equal to one-half of its value.

(B) Life estate or other terminable interest. Where, upon the lapse of time, upon the occurrence of an event or contingency, or upon the failure of an event or contingency to occur, such interest transferred to the spouse will terminate or fail, no deduction shall be allowed with respect to such interest:

(i) If the donor retains in himself, or transfers or has transferred (for less than an adequate and full consideration in money or money's worth) to any person other than such donee spouse (or the estate of such spouse), an interest in such property, and if by reason of such retention or transfer the donor (or his heirs or assigns) or such person (or his heirs or assigns) may possess or enjoy any part of such property after such termination or failure of the interest transferred to the donee spouse; or

(ii) If the donor immediately after the transfer to the donee spouse has a power to appoint an interest in such property which he can exercise (either alone or in conjunction with any person) in such manner that the appointee may possess or enjoy any part of such property after such termination or failure of the interest transferred to the donee spouse. For the purposes of this clause the donor shall be considered as having immediately after the transfer to the donee spouse such power to appoint even though such power cannot be exercised until after the lapse of time, upon the occurrence of an event or contingency, or upon the failure of an event or contingency to occur.

An exercise or release at any time by the donor, either alone or in conjunction with any person, of a power to appoint an interest in property, even though not otherwise a transfer, shall, for the purposes of clause (i) of this subparagraph, be considered as a transfer by him. Except as provided in subparagraph (E), where at the time of the transfer it is impossible to ascertain the particular person or persons who may receive from the donor an interest in property so transferred by him, such interest shall, for the purposes of clause (i) of this subparagraph, be considered as transferred to a person other than the donee spouse.

(C) Where the assets out of which, or the proceeds of which, the interest transferred to the donee spouse may be satisfied include a particular asset or assets with respect to which no deduction would be allowed if such asset or assets were transferred from the donor to such spouse, then the value of the interest transferred to such spouse shall, for the purposes of subparagraph (A), be reduced by the aggregate value of such particular assets.

(D) Joint interests. If the interest is transferred to the donee spouse as sole joint tenant with the donor or as tenant by the entirety, the interest of the donor in the property which exists solely by reason of the possibility that the donor may survive the donee spouse, or that there may occur a severance of the tenancy, shall not be considered for the purposes of subparagraph (B) as an interest retained by the donor in himself.

(E) Trust with power of appointment in donee spouse. Where the donor transfers in trust an interest in property, if under the terms of the trust his spouse is entitled for life to all the income from the corpus of the trust, payable annually or at more frequent intervals, with power in the donee spouse to appoint the entire corpus free of the trust (exercisable in favor of such donee spouse, or of the estate of such donee spouse, or in favor of either, whether or not in each case the power is exercisable in favor of others), and with no power in any other person to appoint any part of the corpus to any person other than the donee spouse:

(i) The interest so transferred in trust shall, for the purposes of subparagraph (A), be considered as transferred to the donee spouse, and

(ii) No part of the interest so transferred in trust shall, for the purposes of subparagraph (B) (i), be considered as retained in the donor or transferred to any person other than the donee spouse.

This subparagraph shall be applicable only if, under the terms of the trust, such power in the donee spouse to appoint the corpus, whether exercisable by will or during life, is exercisable by such spouse alone and in all events.

(F) Community property. (i) A deduction otherwise allowable under this paragraph shall be allowed only to the extent that the transfer can be shown to represent a gift of property which is not, at the time of the gift, held as community property under the law of any State, Territory, or possession of the United States, or of any foreign country.

(ii) For the purposes of clause (i), community property (except property which is considered as community property solely by reason of the provisions of clause (iii)) shall not be considered as "held as community property" if the entire value of such property (and not merely one-half thereof) is treated as the amount of the gift.

(iii) If during the calendar year 1942 or after the date of the enactment of the Revenue Act of 1948, property held as such community property (unless considered by reason of clause (ii) as not so held) was by the donor and the donee spouse converted, by one transaction or a series of transactions, into separate property of the donor and such spouse (including any form of co-ownership by them), the separate property so acquired by the donor and any property acquired at any time by the donor in exchange therefor (by one exchange or a series of exchanges) shall, for the purposes of clause (i), be considered as "held as community property."

(iv) Where the value (at the time of such conversion) of the separate property so acquired by the donor exceeded the value (at conversion) of the separate property so acquired by such spouse, the rule in clause (iii) shall be applied only with respect to the same portion of such separate property of the donor as the portion which the value the same portion of such separate property so acquired by such spouse is of the value (as of such time) of the separate property so acquired by the donor.

SEC. 373. TECHNICAL AMENDMENT. (Revenue Act of 1948.)

Section 1004 (c) of the Internal Revenue Code is hereby amended to read as follows:

(c) Extent of deductions. The deductions provided in subsection (a) (2) or (3) or in subsection (b) shall be allowed only to the extent that the gifts therein specified are included in the amount of gifts against which such deductions are applied.

PAR. 8. There is inserted immediately following § 86.16 the following:

§ 86.16a Gifts to spouse after April 2, 1948—(a) Allowance of marital deduction. In determining the amount of net gifts for the calendar year 1949 or for any calendar year thereafter, in the case of a donor who was a citizen or resident of the United States at the time the gift was made, there may be deducted an amount equal to one-half the value of any property interest (except as otherwise provided herein or in §§ 86.16b and 86.16c) transferred by gift to a donee who at the time of the gift was the donor's spouse. Such deduction is also authorized for the calendar year 1948, except with respect to gifts made on or before April 2, 1948. Such deduction is hereinafter referred to as the "marital deduction".

No marital deduction is authorized with respect to a gift in case the donor was, at the time of the gift, a nonresident not a citizen of the United States. However, if the donor was, at the time of the gift, a citizen or resident, he is not deprived of the right to the marital deduction by reason of the fact that his spouse was a nonresident not a citizen.

For convenience the donor's spouse is generally referred to in the feminine gender, but the application of the statute is not so limited.

(b) Trust with power of appointment in donee spouse. In the case of property interests transferred by the donor in trust, if the terms of the trust satisfy the five conditions stated in the next sentence, the donor's spouse is (for the purpose of determining the marital deduction) considered as the donee, not only of her beneficial interest therein, but also of the interest therein subject to her power to appoint. The five conditions which must be satisfied by the terms of the trust are as follows:

(1) The donee spouse must be entitled for life to all the income from the corpus of the trust.

(2) Such income must be payable annually or at more frequent intervals.

(3) The donee spouse must have the power, exercisable in favor of herself or of her estate, to appoint the entire corpus free of the trust.

(4) Such power in the donee spouse must be exercisable by such spouse alone and (whether exercisable by will or during life) must be exercisable in all events.

(5) The corpus of the trust must not be subject to a power in any other person to appoint any part thereof to any person other than the donee spouse.

In determining whether the above-stated conditions (1) to (5), are satisfied by the terms of the trust, regard is to be had to the applicable provisions of the law of the jurisdiction governing the administration of the trust. For example, silence of the trust as to the frequency of payment will not be regarded as a failure to satisfy condition (2) in case the applicable law requires payment to be made annually or more frequently.

The donor's spouse is "entitled for life to all the income from the corpus of the trust", within the meaning of section 1004 (a) (3) (E), if the effect of the trust is to give her substantially that degree of beneficial enjoyment of the trust property during her life which the principles of the law of trusts accord to a person who is unqualifiedly designated as the life beneficiary of a trust. Such degree of enjoyment is given only if it was the donor's intention, as manifested by the terms of the trust instrument and the surrounding circumstances, that the trust should produce for the spouse during her life such a periodically distributable income, or that the spouse should have such use of the trust property, as is consistent with the value of the trust corpus and with its preservation. The designation of the spouse as sole income beneficiary for life will be sufficient to qualify the trust unless the terms of the trust considered as a whole evidence an intention to deprive the spouse of the requisite degree of enjoyment. In determining whether a trust evidences such intention the treatment required or permitted with respect to individual items must be considered in relation to the entire system provided for the administration of the trust.

If the over-all effect of the trust is to give to the donor's spouse such enforceable rights as will preserve to her the requisite degree of enjoyment, it is immaterial whether such result is effected by rules specifically stated in the trust instrument, or, in their absence, by the rules for the management of the trust property and the allocation of receipts and expenditures supplied by the State law. For example, where the State law does not provide for amortization of bond premium, a provision in the trust instrument for such amortization by appropriate periodic charges to interest will not disqualify the trust.

Provisions granting administrative powers to the trustee will not have the effect of disqualifying the trust unless the grant of such powers evidences the intention to deprive the spouse of the beneficial enjoyment required by the statute. Such intention will not be considered to exist if the entire terms of the instrument are such that the local courts will impose reasonable limitations upon the exercise of such powers. Among the powers which if subject to such limitations will not disqualify the trust are the power to allocate receipts between income and corpus, the power to determine the charges which shall be made against income and corpus, and the power to apply the income for the benefit of the spouse.

The rules to be applied by the trustee in allocation of receipts and expenses between income and corpus must be considered in relation to the nature and expected productivity of the trust assets, the nature and frequency of occurrence of the expected receipts, and any provisions as to change in the form of investments. Where it is evident from the nature of the trust assets and the rules provided for management of the trust that the allocation to income of such receipts as rents, cash dividends and interest will give to the spouse the substantial enjoyment during life required by the statute, provisions that such receipts as stock dividends and proceeds from the conversion of trust assets shall be treated as corpus will not disqualify the trust. Similarly, provision for a depletion charge against income in the case of trust assets which are subject to depletion will not disqualify the trust, unless the effect is to deprive the spouse of the requisite beneficial enjoyment. A power in the trustee to retain unproductive property will not disqualify if the applicable rules for the administration of the trust require that the property be converted within a reasonable time and that income be given the spouse to compensate for undue delay in such conversion. A power to retain a residence for the spouse or other property for her personal use will not disqualify the trust.

A trust will not qualify if its primary purpose is to safeguard property without providing the spouse with the required beneficial enjoyment. An example is a trust the corpus of which consists substantially of unproductive property which the trustee is required to retain without furnishing a reasonable compensation to the spouse on account of the non-conversion of such property.

If the donee spouse is entitled to only a portion of the trust income, or has power to appoint only a portion of the corpus, the trust fails to satisfy conditions (1) and (3), respectively. However, such conditions may be satisfied by one or more of several separate trusts created by the donor. An undivided interest in property may constitute the corpus of a trust, and a single trust instrument may create more than one trust.

A trust fails to satisfy condition (1) if the income is required to be accumulated in whole or in part, or may be accumulated in the discretion of any person other than the donee spouse, if the consent of any person other than the donee spouse is required as a condition precedent to distribution of the income, if any person other than the donee spouse has the power to alter the terms of the trust so as to deprive such spouse of her right to the income, or if any person other than the donee spouse is entitled to any part of the income during the life of such spouse. A trust will not fail to satisfy condition (1) merely because its terms provide that the right of the spouse to the income shall not be subject to assignment, alienation, pledge, attachment or claims of creditors.

The terms "entitled for life" and "payable annually or more frequently", as used in conditions (1) and (2), require that under the terms of the trust the income referred to must be currently (at least annually) distributable to the spouse or that she must have such command over the income that it is virtually hers. Thus, conditions (1) and (2) are satisfied in this respect if, under the terms of the trust instrument, the spouse has the unfettered right exercisable annually (or more frequently) to require distribution to herself of the trust income, and otherwise the trust income is to be accumulated and added to corpus. Similarly, as respects the income for the period between the last distribution date and the date of the spouse's death, it is sufficient if such income is subject to the spouse's power to appoint. In the case of a trust which may be terminated during the life of the donee spouse, under her exercise of a power of appointment or by distribution of the corpus to her, the trust satisfies condition (1) if such spouse is entitled to the income until the trust terminates.

In order to satisfy condition (3), the power of the donor's spouse to appoint the entire corpus free of the trust must fall within one of the following categories:

(i) A power so to appoint exercisable in her own favor at any time during life

(as for example, an unlimited power to invade).

(ii) A power so to appoint exercisable in favor of her estate.

(iii) A combination of the powers described under (i) and (ii). For example, the donor's spouse may until she attains the age of 50 years have a power to appoint to herself and thereafter have a power to appoint to her estate. However, condition (4) is not satisfied unless irrespective of when the spouse may die any amounts remaining unpaid will at the time of her death be subject to one or the other such power.

The power in the donee spouse must be a power to appoint the corpus to herself as unqualified owner or to appoint the corpus as a part of her estate, that is, to dispose of it to whomsoever she pleases. Thus, if the donee spouse entered into an agreement with the donor to exercise the power only in favor of their issue, condition (3) is not met. The trust will not be regarded as failing to satisfy condition (3) merely because takers in default of the donee spouse's exercise of the power are designated by the donor. The donor may provide that, in default of exercise of the power, the trust shall continue for an additional period.

In order for condition (4) to be satisfied, the power in the donee spouse to appoint the corpus to herself or to her estate must be exercisable without the joinder or consent of any other person. In addition, such power, if exercisable during her life, must be fully exercisable at any time during life, or, if exercisable by will, must be fully exercisable irrespective of the time of her death. An example of a power which will not satisfy condition (4) is a power exercisable by the spouse unless she shall remarry.

The trust will fail to satisfy condition (5) if the donor created a power in the trustee, or in another person, to invade the corpus of the trust for the benefit of any person other than the donee spouse. However, only powers in other persons which are in opposition to that of the donee spouse will cause the trust to fail to satisfy condition (5). For example, assume that a donor created a trust designating his donee spouse as income beneficiary for life and as donee of a power to appoint the corpus. The donor further provided that in the event the donee spouse should die without having exercised the power, the trust should continue for the life of his son with power in such son to appoint the corpus. Since the power in the son could become exercisable only after the death of the donee spouse, the trust is not regarded as failing to satisfy condition (5).

(c) Remainder interests. Where the income from property is made payable to the donor or another individual for life, or for a term of years, with remainder absolutely to the donor's spouse or to her estate, the marital deduction is equal to one-half the present value of the remainder. The present value of the remainder (that is, its value as of the date of the gift) is to be determined in accordance with the rules stated in § 86.19 (f). For example, if the donor's spouse is to receive $50,000 upon the death of a person aged 31 years, the present value of the remainder is $15,631. (See example in § 86.19 (f) (6).) If the remainder is such that its value is to be determined by a special computation (see § 86.19 (f) (4)), a request for a specific factor accompanied by a statement of the date of birth of each person, the duration of whose life may affect the value of the remainder, and by copies of the relevant instruments may be submitted to the Commissioner who in his discretion may supply the factor requested. If the Commissioner does not furnish the factor, the claim for deduction must be supported by a full statement of the computation of the present worth made, in accordance with the principles set forth in § 86.19 (f), by one skilled in actuarial computations.

(d) Limitation on deduction. Under the provisions of section 1004 (c), as amended by section 373 of the Revenue Act of 1948, the marital deduction is allowable only to the extent that the gifts with respect to which such deduction is authorized are included in the "total amount of gifts made during the calendar year" computed as provided in section 1003. (See § 86.10.) The limitation under section 1004 (c) is effective where less than one-half of the gifts with respect to which the deduction is authorized is included in such "total amount of gifts".

Example. The only gifts made by a donor to his spouse during the calendar year 1948 were a gift of $3,000 in May and a gift of $2,000 in August. The first $3,000 of such gifts is excluded under the provisions of section 1003 in determining the "total amount of gifts made during the calendar year". The marital deduction of $2,500 (one-half of $3,000 plus one-half of $2,000) otherwise allowable is limited by section 1004 (c) to $2,000.

§ 86.16b Gift of life estate or other terminable interest—(a) In general. The provisions of section 1004 (a) (3) (B) generally prevent the allowance of the marital deduction with respect to certain property interests (referred to generally as "terminable interests") transferred to the donee spouse, in case the transfer was upon the terms described in paragraphs (b), (c), or (d) of this section. In general, the provisions of section 1004 (a) (3) (B) are applicable in the case the donor transferred an interest in property to the donee spouse and also (1) transferred an interest in the same property to another donee, or (2) retained an interest in the same property in himself, or (3) retained a power to appoint an interest in the same property. Under such circumstances, if the other donee, the donor, or the possible appointee, may, by reason of such transfer or retention, possess or enjoy any part of the property after the termination or failure of the interest therein transferred to the donee spouse, no marital deduction may be taken with respect to such transfer to the donee spouse.

For the purposes of this section, a distinction is to be drawn between "property", as such term is used in section 1004 (a) (3), and an "interest in property". The "property" referred to is the underlying property in which various interests exist; each such interest is not, for this purpose, to be considered as "property".

The expression "terminable interest" refers to a life estate, an estate for years, or any other property interest which, upon the lapse of time, upon the occurrence of an event or contingency, or upon the failure of an event or contingency to occur, will terminate or fail.

(b) Interest in property which another donee may possess or enjoy. Section 1004 (a) (3) (B) provides that no marital deduction shall be allowed with respect to the transfer to the donee spouse of a "terminable interest" in property, in case:

(1) The donor transferred (for less than an adequate and full consideration in money or money's worth) an interest in the same property to any person other than the donee spouse (or the estate of such spouse), and

(2) By reason of such transfer, such person (or his heirs or assigns) may possess or enjoy any part of such property after the termination or failure of the interest therein transferred to the donee spouse.

The above-stated provision is applicable whether the transfer to the person other than the donee spouse was made at the same time as the transfer to such spouse, or at any earlier time.

Except as provided in paragraph (b) of § 86.16a, where at the time of the transfer it is impossible to ascertain the particular person or persons who may receive a property interest transferred by the donor, such interest shall, for the purpose of section 1004 (a) (3) (B), be considered as transferred to a person other than the donee spouse. This rule is particularly applicable in the case of the transfer of a property interest by the donor subject to a reserved power. (See section 86.3.) Under this rule, any property interest over which the donor reserved a power to revest the beneficial title in himself, or over which the donor reserved the power to name new beneficiaries or to change the interests of the beneficiaries as between themselves, is, for the purpose of section 1004 (a) (3) (B), considered as transferred to a "person other than the donee spouse". Thus, if a donor transferred property in trust, naming his wife as income beneficiary for 10 years, and providing that, upon the expiration of such term, the corpus should be distributed among his wife and children in such proportions as he should determine, the right to the corpus is, for the purpose of the marital deduction, considered as transferred to a "person other than the donee spouse". Or, if the donor had provided that, upon the expiration of the 10-year term, the corpus was to be paid to his wife, but had reserved the power to revest such corpus in himself instead, the right to the corpus is, for the purpose of the marital deduction, considered as transferred to a "person other than the donee spouse".

Under the above-stated rule, the term "person other than the donee spouse" includes the possible unascertained takers of a property interest, as, for example, the members of a class to be ascertained in the future. As another example, assume that the donor created a power of appointment over a property interest, which does not come within the purview of paragraph (b) of § 86.16a. In such a case, the term "person other than the donee spouse" refers to the possible appointees and possible takers in default (other than the spouse) of such property interest.

An exercise or release at any time by the donor (either alone or in conjunction with any person) of a power to appoint an interest in property, even though not otherwise a transfer by him, shall, in determining for the purpose of section 1004 (a) (3) (B) whether he transferred an interest in such property to a person other than the donee spouse, be considered as a transfer by him.

In the following examples it is assumed that the property interest which the donor transferred to a person other than the donee spouse was not for an adequate and full consideration in money or money's worth:

(i) H (the donor) transferred real property to W (his wife) for life, with remainder to A and his heirs. No marital deduction may be taken with respect to the interest transferred to W, since it will terminate upon her death and A (or his heirs or assigns) will thereafter possess or enjoy the property.

(ii) H transferred real property to W for life, and created in W a power, exercisable by will, to appoint the remainder interest to any person. In default of appointment by W, the remainder interest was to go to A and his heirs. Assuming that under the local law W did not take the real property as absolute owner, no marital deduction may be taken with respect to the interest which passed from H to W, since such interest will terminate upon her death and A (or his heirs or assigns) may thereafter possess or enjoy the property. (As to cases in which a marital deduction may be taken where a life interest is coupled with a power to appoint under a trust, see paragraph (b) of § 86.16a.)

(iii) H transferred property in trust for the benefit of W and A. The trust income was payable to W for life, and upon her death the corpus was to be distributed to A or his issue. However, if A should die without issue, leaving W surviving, the corpus was then to be distributed to W. No marital deduction may be taken with respect to the interest transferred to W, since it will terminate in the event of her death if A or his issue survive, and A or his issue will thereafter possess or enjoy the property.

(iv) H purchased for $100,000 a life annuity for W. If the annuity payments made during the life of W should be less than $100,000, further payments were to be made to A. No marital deduction may be taken with respect to the interest transferred to W, since A may possess or enjoy a part of the property following the termination of such interest.

(v) H transferred property to W and A as joint tenants with right of survivorship. No marital deduction may be taken with respect to the interest transferred to W, since, if the tenancy is not severed and A survives W, the interest of W will terminate and A will continue to possess or enjoy the property.

(vi) H transferred property to A for life with remainder to W provided W survives A, but if W predeceases A, the property is to pass to B and his heirs. No marital deduction may be taken with respect to the interest transferred to W.

(vii) H transferred real property to A, reserving the right to the rentals of the property for a term of 20 years. H later transferred the right to the remaining rentals to a trust. The terms of the trust satisfy the five conditions stated in paragraph (b) of § 86.16a, so that the interest transferred in trust is considered as transferred solely to W. No marital deduction may be taken with respect to such interest, since it will terminate upon the expiration of the balance of the 20-year term and A will thereafter possess or enjoy the property.

(viii) H transferred a patent to W and A as tenants in common. In this case, the interest of W will terminate upon the expiration of the term of the patent, but possession and enjoyment of the property by A must necessarily cease at the same time. Therefore, since A's possession or enjoyment cannot outlast the termination of W's interest, the provisions of section 1004 (a) (3) (B) do not disallow the marital deduction with respect to such interest.

(c) Interest in property which the donor may possess or enjoy. Section 1004 (a) (3) (B) also provides that no marital deduction shall be allowed with respect to the transfer to the donee spouse of a "terminable interest" in property, in case:

(1) The donor retained in himself an interest in the same property, and

(2) By reason of such retention, the donor (or his heirs or assigns) may possess or enjoy any part of such property after the termination or failure of the interest therein transferred to the donee spouse.

However, section 1004 (a) (3) (D) provides that if a property interest is transferred to the donee spouse as sole joint tenant with the donor or as tenant by the entirety, the interest of the donor in the property which exists solely by reason of the possibility that the donor may survive the donee spouse, or that there may occur a severance of the tenancy, is not for the purposes of section 1004 (a) (3) (B), to be considered as an interest retained by the donor in himself.

Under this provision, the fact that the donor may, as surviving tenant, possess or enjoy the property after the termination of the interest therein transferred to the donee spouse does not preclude the allowance of the marital deduction with respect to the latter interest.

In general, the principles illustrated by the examples under paragraph (b) of this section are applicable in determining whether the marital deduction may be taken with respect to a property interest transferred to the donee spouse subject to the retention by the donor of an interest in the same property.

Example. The donor purchased three annuity contracts for the benefit of his wife and himself. The first contract provided for payments to the wife for life, with refund to the donor in case the aggregate payments made to the wife were less than the cost of the contract. The second contract provided for payments to the donor for life, and then to the wife for life if she survived the donor. The third contract provided for payments to the donor and his wife for their joint lives, and then to the survivor of them for life. No marital deduction may be taken with respect to the gifts consummated by the purchases of the contracts since, in the case of each contract, the donor may possess or enjoy a part of the property after the termination or failure of the interest therein transferred to the wife.

(d) Interest in property over which the donor retained a power to appoint. Section 1004 (a) (3) (B) also provides that no marital deduction shall be allowed with respect to the transfer to the donee spouse of a "terminable interest" in property, in case:

(1) The donor had, immediately after such transfer, a power to appoint an interest in the same property, and

(2) Such power was exercisable (either alone or in conjunction with any person) in such manner that the appointee may possess or enjoy any part of such property after the termination or failure of the interest therein transferred to the donee spouse.

For the purposes of section 1004 (a) (3) (B), the donor is to be considered as having, immediately after the transfer to the donee spouse, such a power to appoint even though such power cannot be exercised until after the lapse of time, upon the occurrence of an event or contingency, or upon the failure of an event or contingency to occur. It is immaterial whether the power retained by the donor was a taxable power of appointment under section 1000 (c).

In general, the principles illustrated by the examples under paragraph (b) of this section are applicable in determining whether the marital deduction may be taken with respect to a property interest transferred to the donee spouse subject to retention by the donor of a power to appoint an interest in the same property.

Example. The donor, having a power of appointment over certain property, appointed a life estate therein to his spouse. No marital deduction may be taken with respect to such transfer, since, if the retained power is exercised, the appointee thereunder may possess or enjoy the property after the termination or failure of the interest taken by the donee spouse.

(e) Interest payable out of a group of assets. Section 1004 (a) (3) (C) provides that where the assets out of which, or the proceeds of which, an interest transferred to the donee spouse may be satisfied include a particular asset or assets with respect to which no deduction would be allowed if such asset or assets were transferred from the donor to such spouse, then the value of the interest transferred to such spouse shall, for the purpose of the marital deduction, be reduced by the aggregate value of such particular assets.

In order for the foregoing provision to apply, two circumstances must coexist, as follows:

(1) The property interest transferred to the donee spouse must be payable out of a group of assets. An example of a property interest payable out of a group of assets is a right to a share of the corpus of a trust upon its termination.

(2) The group of assets out of which the property interest is payable must include one or more particular assets which, if transferred by the donor to the donee spouse, would not qualify for the marital deduction.

If the above circumstances are both present, the marital deduction with respect to such property interest may not exceed one-half of the excess, if any, of its value over the aggregate value of the particular asset or assets which, if transferred to the donee spouse, would not qualify for the marital deduction.

§ 86.16c Gift of community property—(a) General. The marital deduction is allowable with respect to any transfer by a donor to his spouse only to the extent that such transfer can be shown to represent a gift of property which was not, at the time of the gift, held as "community property", as defined in paragraph (b) of this section. The burden of establishing the extent to which a transfer represents a gift of property not so held rests upon the donor.

(b) Definition of "community property". For the purpose of paragraph (a) of this section, the term "community property" is considered to include:

(1) Any property held by the donor and his spouse as community property under the law of any State, Territory, or possession of the United States, or of any foreign country, except such property in which the donee spouse had at the time of the gift merely an expectant interest. The donee spouse is regarded as having, at any particular time, merely an expectant interest in property held at such time by the donor and herself as community property under the law of any State, Territory, or possession of the United States, or of any foreign country, if, in case such property were transferred by gift into the separate property of the donee spouse, the entire value of such property (and not merely one-half thereof) would be treated as the amount of the gift.

(2) Separate property acquired by the donor as a result of a "conversion" (during the calendar year 1942 or after April 2, 1948) of property held by him and the donee spouse as community property under the law of any State, Territory, or possession of the United States, or of any foreign country, (except such property in which the donee spouse had at the time of the "conversion" merely an expectant interest) into their separate property.

(3) Property acquired by the donor in exchange (by one exchange or a series of exchanges) for separate property resulting from such a "conversion".

A "conversion" of community property is any transfer of property from the marital community, whereby each spouse acquired separate property. A conversion includes a partition of community property between the donor and the donee spouse or a transfer of community property to themselves in joint tenancy, tenancy by the entirety, or other form of co-ownership, whether such partition or other conversion was effected by a single transaction or a series of transactions. Where each spouse acquired separate property of equal value as a result of a conversion, the entire separate property thus acquired by the donor is to be considered, for the purposes of this section, as held by him and the donee spouse as community property. Where the value (at the time of the conversion) of the separate property so acquired by the donor exceeded the value (at such time) of the separate property so acquired by the donee spouse, only a part of the separate property so acquired by the donor (and only the same fractional part of property acquired by him in exchange for such separate property) is to be considered, for the purposes of this section, as held by him and the donee spouse as community property. The part of such separate property (or property acquired in exchange therefor) which is considered as so held is the same proportion thereof which the value (at the time of the conversion) of the separate property so acquired by the donee spouse is of the value (at such time) of the separate property so acquired by the donor.

Example. On November 1, 1942, the donor and his spouse partitioned certain real property held by them under community property laws. The real property then had a value of $224,000. A portion of such property, then having a value of $160,000, was converted into the donor's separate property, and the remaining portion, then having a value of $64,000, was converted into his spouse's separate property. On August 1, 1948, the donor made a gift to his spouse of the property acquired by him as a result of the partition, which property then had a value of $200,000. The portion of the property transferred by gift which is considered as "community property" is:

The marital deduction with respect to the gift is, therefore, limited to one-half of the difference between $200,000 (the value of the gift) and $80,000 (the portion of the gift considered to have been of "community property"). The marital deduction with respect to the gift is, therefore, $60,000.

§ 86.16d Proof required. The donor must submit such proof as is necessary to establish the right to the marital deduction, including any evidence requested by the Commissioner.

PAR. 9. Section 86.20 is amended as follows:

(A) By striking the heading and by inserting in lieu thereof the following: "Persons required to file return—(a) In general."

(B) By inserting at the end thereof the following paragraph:

(b) In case of consent under section 1000 (f). Except as otherwise provided herein, the provisions of paragraph (a) of this section are applicable with respect to the filing of a gift tax return or returns for the calendar year 1948 or any subsequent calendar year in the case of a husband and wife who consent (see § 86.3a) to the application of the provisions of section 1000 (f) for such year. In such cases, if both of the consenting spouses are (without regard to the provisions of section 1000 (f)) required under the provisions of paragraph (a) of this section to file returns for such year, returns must be filed by both spouses. If only one of the consenting spouses is (without regard to the provisions of section 1000 (f)) required under the provisions of such paragraph (a) to file a return for such year, a return must be filed by such spouse. In the latter case, if after giving effect to the provisions of section 1000 (f) the other spouse is considered to have made any gift (regardless of value) of a future interest in property or any gift or gifts to any one third-party donee exceeding $3,000 in value then a return for such year must also be filed by such other spouse. Thus, if during any such calendar year the husband made a gift of $5,000 to a son and the wife made no gifts, only the husband is required to file a return for such year. However, if the wife had made a gift of $2,000 to the same son, or if the gift made by the husband had amounted to $7,000, each spouse would be required to file a return in the event consent is signified as provided under section 1000 (f).

PAR. 10. Section 86.21, as amended by Treasury Decision 5608, approved March 19, 1948, is further amended by inserting immediately preceding the last sentence thereof the following sentence: "Where a husband and wife consent (or contemplate consenting) that gifts made by either of them to third-party donees during the calendar year 1948 or any subsequent calendar year shall be considered as made one-half by each spouse, as provided by section 1000 (f), the notice on Form 710 shall, nevertheless, identify the actual donor."

PAR. 11. Section 86.23 is amended by inserting immediately after the sixth sentence thereof the following: "If the return is filed for the calendar year 1948 or for any calendar year thereafter and the donor and his spouse consent (see § 86.3a) to the application of the provisions of section 1000 (f) for such year the return must set forth, to the extent provided thereon, information with respect to transfers made by each spouse."

PAR. 12. Section 86.34 is amended by inserting immediately after the third sentence thereof the following: "If a husband and wife effectively signify consent (see section 86.3a) to the application of the provisions of section 1000 (f) for any calendar year, the liability with respect to the entire gift tax of each spouse for such calendar year shall be joint and several."

CIVIL AERONAUTICS BOARD

[14 CFR, Part 49]

TRANSPORTATION OF EXPLOSIVES AND OTHER DANGEROUS ARTICLES

NOTICE OF PROPOSED RULE MAKING

Pursuant to authority delegated by the Civil Aeronautics Board to the Bureau of Safety Regulation, notice is hereby given that the Bureau will propose to the Board a revision of Part 49 of the Civil Air Regulations as hereinafter set forth.

Interested persons may participate in the making of the proposed rules by submitting such written data, views, or arguments as they may desire. Communications should be submitted to the Civil Aeronautics Board, attention Bureau of Safety Regulation, Washington 25, D. C. All communications received by December 15, 1948, will be considered by the Board before taking further action on the proposed rule.

The principal reasons for proposing a revision of Part 49 are explained in the explanatory statement.

The proposed revision of Part 49 is set forth below in the proposed rule.

This revision is proposed under the authority of Title VI of the Civil Aeronautics Act of 1938, as amended.

(Secs. 205 (a), 601–610, 52 Stat. 984, 1007–1012; 49 U. S. C. 425 (a), 551–560)

Dated: October 23, 1948 at Washington, D. C.

By the Bureau of Safety Regulation.

Explanatory statement of Part 49. Present Part 49 provides for the transportation by air of certain articles commonly classified as explosives or dangerous articles. Since the carriage of explosives and other dangerous articles is seldom accomplished entirely by air transportation, but generally is combined with some form of surface transportation to bring the items to the aircraft and to take them away after the air lift, it was necessary that applicable Civil Air Regulations governing the transportation of such cargo be coordinated with the Interstate Commerce Commission Regulations which regulate the carriage of such articles by the principal surface carriers. Thus, in promulgating Part 49 in 1945, the Board adopted the various classifications of dangerous articles and the packaging and labeling requirements of the pertinent Interstate Commerce Commission Regulations as effective January 7, 1941.

Part 49 permitted the transportation by air of only a limited number of these articles acceptable for surface transportation. This limitation was due to the fact that in 1945 cargo-only operations had not been developed and, therefore, the additional factor of passenger as well as plane and crew safety had to be considered for each article for which carriage was authorized. It also was believed that a service experience period with a limited number of acceptable articles would be desirable. This service experience indicates that air cargo is seldom, if ever, exposed to more extreme conditions than surface transported cargo. Therefore, in view of the rapid growth of air cargo operations, particularly in aircraft carrying cargo only, and the scientific progress made in the development of new materials within the scope of this part which require rapid transportation and which can be adequately packed for safe transportation by air, the desirability for revising present Part 49 is evident.

In determining what additional items may be safely transported by air the Bureau of Safety Regulation has consulted with the Bureau of Explosives, a nonprofit private organization devoted to establishing safe transportation practices for explosives and other dangerous articles, and transportation experts of the Air Transport Association. On the basis of the known reactions of explosives and other dangerous articles to variations and extremes of temperature, pressure, and shock experienced in transit, certain articles have been selected as safe for carriage by air. With few exceptions these articles include all those which may be shipped by rail express or rail freight, although there are certain limitations prescribed on the amounts of some of these substances which may be shipped in cargo aircraft and additional limitations for aircraft carrying passengers.

While it is believed that the items deemed acceptable in the attached proposed rule are those which may be safely carried, further laboratory tests are being conducted by responsible industry and government agencies, and as results of these tests are made known some additional items may be added to those which may be carried. It will be noted that this procedure is similar to the one followed by the Interstate Commerce Commission. On behalf of the Commission, the Bureau of Explosives analyzes new products and new packaging methods as they are developed in order to permit new items to be shipped by surface transportation and to improve the safety with which existing items are carried. The conditions presently prescribed by the Bureau of Explosives for rail express safely meet actual conditions encountered in air transportation with the possible exception of certain pressure tolerances. With respect to the effect of reduced pressure encountered at high altitudes or rapid changes of pressure on articles the pressure tolerances of which may be critical, the Air Forces are doing further scientific testing at Wright Field. Until these experiments are completed such articles will not be listed as acceptable for air transportation. The conclusions of these tests will be reflected in proposed regulations as soon as the results are made known. The Bureau of Explosives and the Air Transport Association have agreed to furnish the Bureau of Safety Regulation with such information as they may obtain from time to time with respect to the handling of explosives or other dangerous cargo, and the Bureau intends to recommend to the Board appropriate changes in the lists of acceptable articles for air transportation on the basis of this information and such other data as is available to it. In this manner it is believed that lists of acceptable articles may be kept current.

Generally the proposed new part differs from present Part 49 in the following manner. The part will base Civil Air Regulations on the provisions of current ICC Regulations rather than those in effect on a particular date. It will distinguish between articles acceptable on aircraft carrying passengers and articles which may be carried on cargo-only operations. The revised part also will not only permit a proportionately larger number of articles to be carried in cargo-passenger operations but will greatly increase the articles acceptable in cargo-only operations, permitting in the latter case the carriage of practically all articles acceptable for rail express.

For passenger-carrying aircraft, only those items specifically listed in § 49.4 of the proposed rule may be carried. The part specifies the packaging and labeling requirements for each of these items since many of these articles are exempt from the usual ICC Regulations packaging and labeling requirements. New articles to be carried in passenger aircraft would have to be added by amendment of the part.

For cargo-only aircraft, in addition to articles which may be carried in passenger aircraft, any article may be carried which is listed as acceptable for rail express in Part 2 of the ICC Regulations provided that its carriage is not prohibited by § 49.6. From time to time as new articles are added to this list in the ICC Regulations, they may be carried in cargo aircraft: Provided, That Part 49 is not amended to prohibit such carriage. In all operations, the revised part would require explosives and other dangerous articles to be packed, labeled, and loaded as specifically provided therein or in accordance with the requirements of the ICC Regulations for rail express. We have proposed that the packing requirements for rail express be used because they are considered more appropriate for air transportation than those applicable to rail freight, as they provide a higher margin of safety against changes in temperature, pressure, and inadvertent damage and shock while in transit.

It is believed that the safety standards established by this proposed revision are adequate for all known extremes of temperature, pressure, and shock encountered in normal flight by United States operated aircraft throughout the world. However, some special operations may require additional safeguards. When such conditions exist, it would be the responsibility of the operator of the aircraft to evaluate these conditions for a particular operation and to require such special packaging and handling as may be necessary to insure safety.

The proposed rule is as follows:

PART 49—TRANSPORTATION OF EXPLOSIVES AND OTHER DANGEROUS ARTICLES

§ 49.0 Applicability of part. Explosives or other dangerous articles, including inflammable liquids, inflammable solids, oxidizing materials, corrosive liquids, compressed gases, and poisonous substances, shall not be loaded in or transported by aircraft in the United States, or transported anywhere in aircraft of United States registry except as hereinafter provided.

§ 49.1 Definitions. (a) As used in this part the words listed below shall be defined as follows:

(1) Explosives. Those liquids, gases, or solids specified as forbidden, Class A, Class B, or Class C explosives by the ICC Regulations.

(2) Inflammable liquid. An inflammable liquid is any liquid which gives off inflammable vapors (as determined by flash point from Tagliabue's open-cup tester, as used for test of burning oils) at or below a temperature of 80° F.

(3) Inyammable solid. An inflammable solid is a solid substance, other than one classified as an explosive, which is liable, under conditions incident to transportation, to cause fires through friction, through absorption of moisture, through spontaneous chemical changes, or as a result of retained heat from the manufacturing or processing.

(4) Oxidizing material. An oxidizing material is a substance, such as a chlorate, permanganate, peroxide, or a nitrate, that yields oxygen readily to stimulate the combustion of organic matter.

(5) Corrosive liquids. Corrosive liquids are those acids, alkaline caustic liquids, and other corrosive liquids, which, when in contact with living tissue, will cause severe damage of such tissue by chemical action; or which, in case of leakage, will materially damage the aircraft structure or cargo; or which are liable to cause fire when in contact with organic matter or with certain chemicals.

(6) Compressed gas. A compressed gas is defined as any material with a gauge pressure exceeding 40 pounds per square inch absolute at 70° F. or any liquid inflammable material having a Reid[1] vapor pressure exceeding 40 pounds per square inch at 100° F.

(7) Poisonous articles. Poisonous articles for the purpose of these regulations are divided into four classes defined as follows:

(i) Extremely dangerous poisons. Class A. Poisonous gases or liquids of such nature that a very small amount of gas, or vapor of the liquid, mixed with air is dangerous to life. This class includes: Acrolein, chlorpicrin, cyanogen, diphosgene, ethyldichlorarsine, hydrocyanic acid, lewisite, methyldichlorarsine, mustard gas, nitrogen peroxide (tetroxide), phenylcarbylamine chloride, phosgene (diphosgene). (Dilute solutions of hydrocyanic acid of not exceeding 5% strength are classed as poisonous articles, Class B).

(ii) Less dangerous poisons; Class B. Poisonous liquids and solids, including pastes and semi-solids, are substances of such nature that they are chiefly dangerous by external contact with the body or by their being taken internally as in contaminated food or feeds.

(iii) Tear gas or irritating substances; Class C. Tear gases are liquid or solid substances which upon contact with fire or when exposed to air give off dangerous or intensely irritating fumes, such as brombenzylcyanide, chloracetophenone, diphenylaminechlorarsine, and diphenylchlorarsine, but not including any poisonous article, Class A.

(iv) Radioactive materials; Class D. A radioactive material is any material or combination of materials which spontaneously emits ionizing radiation. For the purposes of these rules, radioactive materials are divided into three groups, according to the type of radiation emitted at any time during transportation, as follows:

(a) Group I radioactive materials are those materials which emit gamma radiation alone, or both gamma radiation and radiation of electrically charged material particles or corpuscles.

(b) Group II radioactive materials are those materials which emit neutrons and either or both of the types of radiation characteristic of Group I radioactive materials.

(c) Group III radioactive materials are those materials which emit only electrically charged material particles or corpuscles (i. e., alpha and/or beta radiation).

(8) "Unit" of gamma radiation. Unit of gamma radiation is one milliroentgen per hour at a meter for hard gamma radiation, or that amount of gamma radiation which will have the same effect on sensitive photographic film as one milliroentgen per hour at a meter of hard gamma radiation of radium filtered through ½ inch of lead.

(9) Passenger-carrying aircraft. Passenger-carrying aircraft are aircraft carrying any individuals who are not assigned to duty on the aircraft.

(10) Marking. Marking is the display on the container of the name of the articles inside, as listed in the commodity list of the ICC Regulations.

(11) Labeling. Labeling is the display on the container of an appropriate label as specified for a particular class of articles by the ICC Regulations.

(12) ICC Regulations. ICC Regulations shall mean the "Interstate Commerce Commission's Regulations for Transportation of Explosives and Other Dangerous Articles by Land and Water in Rail Freight, Express, and Baggage Services, and by Motor Vehicles (Highway), and Water," effective January 7, 1941, as amended from time to time.

§ 49.3 Packing, marking, and labeling requirements. (a) Unless otherwise specifically provided in this part explosives or other dangerous articles shipped by air shall be packed, marked, and labeled, as required by Part 2[2] of the ICC Regulations for transportation by rail express: Provided, That liquids shall be packed only in inside containers which are securely closed, sufficient in strength to prevent any leakage or distortion of the containers caused by change in temperature or altitude during transit, and so filled as to provide adequate outage. All explosives or other dangerous articles shipped by air shall show the proper shipping name as shown in the commodity list of Part 2 of the ICC Regulations and any instructions that are necessary for safe handling.

(b) Shipper statement. No shipper shall offer and no air carrier or other operator of aircraft shall knowingly accept explosives or dangerous articles for carriage by air unless the shipper or his authorized agent has certified that the shipment complies with the requirements of this part. Any operator of aircraft may rely on such a certificate as prima facie evidence that the shipment so certified complies with the requirements of this part.

§ 49.4 Acceptable explosives and other dangerous articles on aircraft carrying passengers. No explosives or other dangerous articles shall be carried in passenger-carrying aircraft except as provided below:

(a) Explosives Class C may be carried: Provided, That blasting caps, electric blasting caps, and blasting caps with safety fuse shall not be carried. The maximum quantity that may be packed in one outside container is 50 pounds. The maximum quantity which may be packed in one cargo location is 50 pounds. Marking required.

(b) Explosives Class B may be carried if they are intended for use as safety equipment in the operations of the air carrier. Marking required.

(c) Inflammable liquids may be carried: Provided, That carbon bisulfide, ethyl chloride, ethylene oxide, nickel carbonyl, spirits of nitroglycerine in excess of 1% by weight, and zinc ethyl shall not be carried.

(1) Inflammable liquids may be carried in quantities of not more than one quart when packed in inside metal containers, or in quantities of not more than one pint or 16 ounces by weight when packed in inside glass or earthernware containers: Provided, That each such container shall be packed in a strong outside container with cushioning and absorbent material where necessary to prevent breakage and leakage. The maximum quantity that may be carried in any one cargo location is 3 gallons. Marking and red label required.

(2) Viscous inflammable liquids, such as cements, mastics, sealers, etc., may be carried in collapsible tubes not exceeding 8 ounces each, packed in strong outside containers with not more than 16 ounces net weight of such liquids in any one outside container. The maximum quantity which may be carried in any one cargo location is 25 pounds. Marking and red label required.

(d) Inflammable solids and oxidizing materials may be carried in accordance with the following requirements, provided that the items listed in subparagraphs (1) through (6) of this paragraph shall be specially handled as provided therein. They shall be packed in quantities of not more than 16 oz. net weight in inside metal or glass containers, suitably cushioned with noninflammable cushioning material where necessary to prevent breakage. The maximum quantity that may be packed in any outside container is 25 lbs. The maximum quantity that may be carried in one cargo location is 25 lbs. Marking and yellow label required.

(1) Liquid or solid organic peroxides may be carried only when packed in inside containers not over one lb. or one pint in capacity, and not more than one such container securely packed with incombustible cushioning in a strong outside container. Acetyl benzoyl peroxide solid and benzoyl peroxide shall not be carried. Not more than 10 such packages may be placed in any one cargo location. (See corrosive liquids for hydrogen peroxide.)

(2) Calcium hypochlorite, dry, containing more than 8.80% available oxygen (39% available chlorine) may be carried only when packed in inside glass or metal containers of not over 5 lb. capacity, each such container shall be packed in strong outside containers of 75 lbs. maximum gross weight. The maximum quantity that may be carried in any one cargo location is 150 lbs.

(3) Matches, stroke-on-box, book, or card in outside fiberboard or wooden boxes, may be carried when marked with name of contents, labeled, and enclosed in tightly closed metal inside containers. The maximum quantity that may be packed in any outside container is 25 lbs. The maximum quantity that may be carried in any one cargo location is 25 lbs.

(4) Picrate of ammonia, picric acid, urea, nitrate, trinitrobenzene, and trinitrotoluene, wet with not less than 10% water, may be carried only in quantities not exceeding 16 oz. in any one outside package when shipped as drugs, medicines, or chemicals and when enclosed in a strong fibre carton properly cushioned in an outside shipping case. Not more than 10 such containers may be placed in any one cargo location.

(5) Pyroxylin plastics may be carried only when securely enclosed in air-tight metal cans or boxes. The maximum quantity that may be carried in any outside containers, 25 lbs. Not more than 100 lbs. may be placed in any one cargo location.

(6) Motion picture film may be carried when packed, marked, and labeled in accordance with ICC Regulations.

(e) Poisonous liquids, Class B, may be carried: Provided, That hydrocyanic acid, methyl bromide (motor fuel antiknock compound), phenyldichlorarsine and tetraethyl lead shall not be carried. Quantities of not more than one pint may be packed in glass containers, or not more than one quart in metal containers: Provided, That each such container shall be packed in strong outside wooden or fibre board containers. The maximum quantity that may be carried in any cargo location is 10 packages. Marking and poison label required.

(f) Poisonous solids, Class B, Cyamides may be carried only when packed in inside glass, earthenware, or metal containers, or lock-corner sliding lid wooden boxes lined to prevent sifting, of not more than 5 lbs. capacity each; or in chipboard, pasteboard, or fibre cartons, cans, or boxes of not over one pound capacity each when packed in outside containers. The maximum quantity that may be carried in one cargo location is 30 lbs.

(g) Radioactive materials, Class D: Groups I, II and III (liquid, solid, or gaseous) may be carried when packed, marked, and labeled in accordance with ICC Regulations Secs. 366–369. (Also see § 49.7 where certain other types of radioactive materials are exempted from the requirements of this part.)

(h) Acids and other corrosive liquids may be carried provided that bromine, dimethyl sulfate, electrolyte acid or alkaline battery fluid packed with storage batteries, battery chargers, or radio current supply devices, hydrogen peroxide over 5% strength by weight, nitric acid, phosphorous tribromide, phosphorous trichloride, and sulfur chloride shall not be carried. Quantities of not more than one lb. or one pint may be carried in bottles which are enclosed in a metal can in a strong outside package securely packed and padded, with noninflammable absorbent material, where necessary to prevent breakage. Not more than 10 such packages may be carried in any one cargo location. Marking and white label required.

(i) Electric storage batteries, containing electrolyte or corrosive battery fluid, of the nonspillable type, protected against short circuits and completely and securely boxed, may be carried. Marking and labeling required.

(j) Noninflammable compressed gases may be carried: Provided, That anhydrous ammonia, chlorine, boron trifluoride, hydrogen bromide, hydrogen chloride, nitrosyl chloride, and sulfur dioxide shall not be carried. Maximum cylinder pressure permited is 1800 psi in ICC-approved cylinders not exceeding 12 inches in diameter by 51 inches long. The maximum quantity that may be carried on one cargo location is 150 lbs. Marking and green label required.

§ 49.5 Articles which may be carried in all-cargo operations. In addition to the articles acceptable for transportation under § 49.4, any article packed, marked, and labeled in accordance with the ICC Regulations for transportation by rail express may be carried in quantities not exceeding those prescribed in the commodity list of Part 2 of the ICC Regulations.

§ 49.6 Prohibited articles. No explosive or dangerous article listed in Part 2 of the ICC Regulations as an Explosive A, a Poison A, a forbidden article, or an article not acceptable for rail express, nor any item listed in Appendix A of this part shall be carried on aircraft subject to the provisions of this part.

§ 49.7 Exempted articles. (a) The articles listed below shall be exempted from the provisions of this part:

(1) Signalling devices,

(2) Equipment necessary for the safe operation of the aircraft,

(3) Small arms ammunition in moderate quantities for personal use of crew members.

(b) Radioactive materials which meet all of the following conditions are exempt from packing, marking, and labeling requirements required by this part:

(1) The package must be such that there can be no leakage of radioactive material under conditions normally incident to transportation.

(2) The package must contain not more than 0.1 millicuries of radium, or polonium, or that amount of strontium 89, strontium 90, or barium 140 which disintegrates at a rate of more than 5 million atoms per second; or not more than that amount of any other radioactive substance which disintegrates at a rate of more than 50 million atoms per second.

(3) The package must be such that no significant alpha, beta, or neutron radiation is emitted from the exterior of the package and the gamma radiation at any surface of the package must be less than 10 milliroentgens for 24 hours.

(c) Manufactured articles other than liquids, such as instrument or clock dials of which radioactive materials are a component part, and luminous compounds, when securely packed in strong outside containers are exempt from packing, marking, and labeling requirements provided the gamma radiation at any surface of the package is less than 10 milliroentgens in 24 hours.

(d) Radioactive materials, such as ores, residues, etc., of low activity, packed in strong, tight containers are exempt from packing and labeling requirements when shipped in planeload lots: Provided, The per-package surface intensity of radiation does not exceed 200 milliroentgens per hour or equivalent: And provided, The per planeload radiation intensity at one meter from any outside surface of the load does not exceed 10 milliroentgens per hour of gamma radiation or equivalent. There shall be no loose radioactive material in the airplane and the shipment must be braced and lashed so as to prevent leakage or shift of lading under normal conditions of flight.

§ 49.8 Loading requirements—(a) General. Two or more shipments of explosives or other dangerous articles shall not be carried together in the same cargo location if they are of such a nature that their admixture in the event of spillage of one or more of the shipments could present a substantially more hazardous condition than the spillage of either or both of the shipments without mixing. Articles shall be loaded in accordance with the provisions of the loading chart set forth in section 533 of the ICC Regulations.

(b) Special requirements for radioactive materials. (1) Whenever any shipment of materials appears damaged, or is damaged, it will be removed from transportation and segregated as far as possible from human contact. The shipper will immediately be contacted for disposal instructions.

(2) Whenever there is any actual spillage of the contents of any shipment of radioactive materials, there will be no attempt to clean it up. The shipper will immediately be contacted for disposal instructions. If the spillage has occurred in an aircraft, the aircraft will be isolated, the nearest representative of the Administrator or the Board, and the shipper will immediately be contacted, and no one other than properly authorized personnel of the shipper and/or the CAA or CAB will be allowed within the aircraft until it has been decontaminated and made fit for occupancy.

(3) In case of fire, wreck, or other unusual delay, the carrier must notify the shipper and the Administrator or the Board that radioactive material, Class D Poison, was on board.

(4) Radioactive materials Groups I and II (Red label) shall be loaded in the aircraft in accordance with the table set forth below provided that not more than 40 units thereof may be carried:

[1] American Society for Testing Materials tentative method of test for vapor pressure of petroleum products (Reid Method) (D-323-38 T).

[2] Part 2 of the ICC Regulations incorporates the packaging specifications of Part 3 thereof.

31–40	6

[1] Total number of units refers to the number found on the red label of a single package entered on the line reading "Radiation Units from Package: No. —." For two or more packages stored together, the total of the numbers of all such packages is meant.

[2] Distance means the number of feet from the center of the nearest radioactive container.

§ 49.9 Special authority. In emergency situations or where other forms of transportation are impracticable, deviations from the provisions of this part for a particular flight may be authorized by the Administrator where he finds that the conditions under which the articles are to be carried are such as to permit the safe carriage of persons and cargo.

INTERDEPARTMENTAL COMMITTEE ON TRADE AGREEMENTS

TRADE-AGREEMENT NEGOTIATIONS WITH DENMARK, DOMINICAN REPUBLIC, EL SALVADOR, FINLAND, GREECE, HAITI, ITALY, NICARAGUA, PERU, SWEDEN, AND URUGUAY; POSSIBLE ADJUSTMENTS IN PREFERENTIAL RATES ON CUBAN PRODUCTS

Pursuant to section 4 of the Trade Agreements Act approved June 12, 1934, (48 Stat. (pt. 1) 945, ch. 474) as extended and amended by the Trade Agreements Extension Act of 1948 (Pub. Law 792—80th Cong.) and to paragraph 4 of Executive Order 10004 of October 5, 1948 (13 F. R. 5853), notice is hereby given by the Interdepartmental Committee on Trade Agreements of intention to conduct trade-agreement negotiations with each of the following countries, including in each case areas in respect of which the country has authority to conduct trade-agreement negotiations: Denmark, Dominican Republic, El Salvador, Finland, Greece, Haiti, Italy, Nicaragua, Peru, Sweden, and Uruguay. It is proposed to enter into negotiations with these countries with a view to their accession as contracting parties to the General Agreement on Tariffs and Trade.

There is annexed hereto a list of articles imported into the United States to be considered for possible modification of duties and other import restrictions, imposition of additional import restrictions, or specific continuance of existing customs or excise treatment in the proposed trade-agreement negotiations with each of the above countries, each of which lists has been approved by the President and transmitted to the United States Tariff Commission, pursuant to paragraph 4 of Executive Order 10004. In the case of an article in one or more of these lists with respect to which the corresponding product of Cuba is now entitled to preferential treatment, a modification of the rate in the negotiations referred to will involve the elimination, reduction, or continuation of the preference, perhaps in some cases with an adjustment or specification of the rate applicable to the product of Cuba.

No tariff concession will be considered in the negotiations with any country on any article which is not included in the annexed list relative to such country unless it is subsequently included in a supplementary public list approved by the President and transmitted to the Tariff Commission. No duty or import tax imposed under a paragraph or section of the Tariff Act or Internal Revenue Code other than the tariff paragraph listed with respect to such article will be considered for a possible decrease, although an additional or separate duty on an article included in an annexed list, which is imposed under a paragraph or section other than that listed, may be bound against increase as an assurance that the concession under the listed paragraph or section will not be nullified.

Pursuant to section 3 of the Trade Agreements Extension Act of 1948, information and views as to the matters specified in that section may be submitted to the United States Tariff Commission in accordance with the announcement of this date issued by the Commission.[1] Pursuant to section 4 of the Trade Agreements Act, as amended, and paragraph 6 of Executive Order 10004 of October 5, 1948, information and views as to any aspect of the proposals announced in this notice may be submitted to the Committee for Reciprocity Information in accordance with the announcement of this date issued by that Committee.[2] Arrangements are being made to coordinate the hearings to be held by the Tariff Commission and the Committee for Reciprocity Information in order to facilitate the convenience of persons desiring to appear at both hearings. Information and views submitted to the Tariff Commission, except those accepted by the Commission as confidential, will be made available to the Committee for Reciprocity Information although, on account of the statutory requirement as to the investigation by the Tariff Commission, persons and groups who wish to be assured that their information and views will be considered by the Tariff Commission should present them directly to the Commission.

By direction of the Interdepartmental Committee on Trade Agreements this 5th day of November 1948.

WOODBURY WILLOUGHBY, Chairman.

LISTS OF ARTICLES IMPORTED INTO THE UNITED STATES WHICH IT IS PROPOSED SHOULD BE CONSIDERED IN TRADE AGREEMENT NEGOTIATIONS WITH THE COUNTRIES SPECIFIED THEREIN

Each of the following lists contains descriptions of articles imported into the United States which it is proposed should be considered for possible modification of duties and other import restrictions, imposition of additional import restrictions, or specific continuance of existing customs or excise treatment in the trade agreement negotiations which are proposed with the country specified at the beginning of such list.

For the purpose of facilitating identification of the articles listed, reference is made in each list to the paragraph numbers of the tariff schedules in the Tariff Act of 1930. The descriptive phraseology is frequently limited to a narrower scope than that covered by the numbered tariff paragraph. In such cases only the articles covered by the descriptive phraseology of the list will come under consideration for the granting of concessions.

In the event that an article which as of September 1, 1948 was regarded as classifiable under a description included in one or more of the lists is excluded therefrom by judicial decision or otherwise prior to the inclusion of such description in a trade agreement, the list or lists will nevertheless be considered as including such article.

710	Cheese (except cheese having the eye formation characteristic of the Swiss or Emmenthaler type; Gruyere process-cheese; Roquefort and other blue-mold cheeses, in original loaves; Romano, Pecorino, Reggiano, Parmesano, Provolone, Provolette, Sbrinz, and Goya cheeses, in original loaves; Cheddar cheese, not processed otherwise than by division into pieces; Bryndza cheese, in casks, barrels, or hogsheads, weighing with their contents more than 200 pounds each; and Edam and Gouda cheeses)
1670	Dyeing or tanning materials whether crude or advanced in value or condition by shredding, grinding, chipping, crushing, or any similar process, not containing alcohol, and not specially provided for: All articles of vegetable origin used for dyeing, coloring, or staining (except Brazil wood, madder, and saffron, and not including any article specifically mentioned by name in paragraph 1670, Tariff Act of 1930).

EL SALVADOR

10	Balsams, natural and uncompounded, not containing alcohol: Peru. All other (not including copaiba, fir or Canada, tolu, and styrax).
28 (a)	Natural alizarin and natural indigo.
1654	Coffee, except coffee imported into Puerto Rico and upon which a duty is imposed under the authority of section 319.

FINLAND

234 (a)	Granite suitable for use as monumental, paving, or building stone, not specially provided for:
	Hewn, dressed, pointed, pitched, lined, or polished, or otherwise manufactured.
	Unmanufactured, or not dressed, pointed, pitched, lined, hewn, or polished.
355	Knives, forks, steels, and cleavers, of a class or kind provided for in paragraph 355, Tariff Act of 1930:
	With handles or hard rubber, solid bone, celluloid, or any pyroxylin, casein, or similar material (except table, carving, cake, pie, butter, fruit, cheese, and fish knives, forks, steels, and cleavers).
	With handles of materials other than those specifically mentioned in paragraph 355, Tariff Act of 1930, if specially designed for other than household, kitchen, or butchers' use (except hay forks and 4-tined manure forks, 4 inches in length or over, exclusive of handle):
	With handles of wood or wood and steel, or of nickel silver, or of steel other than austenitic.
	Other, if 4 inches in length or over, exclusive of handle.
405	Birch plywood.
412	Manufactures of wood or bark, or of which wood or bark is the component material of chief value, not specially provided for:
	Spools wholly of wood, suitable for thread (not including bobbins).
704	Reindeer meat, fresh, chilled, or frozen, not specially provided for.
710	Cheese:
	Having the eye formation characteristic of the Swiss or Emmenthaler type.
	Gruyere process-cheese.
1402	Paperboard, and pulpboard, including cardboard, not plate finished, supercalendered or friction calendered, laminated by means of an adhesive substance, coated, surface stained or dyed, lined or vat-lined, embossed, printed, decorated, or ornamented in any manner, nor cut into shapes for boxes or other articles and not specially provided for (except pulpboard in rolls for use in the manufacture of wallboard: wallboard: insulating board: fiberboard; leather board or compress leather; and strawboard).
1405	Grease-proof and imitation parchment papers which have been supercalendered and rendered transparent or partially so, by whatever name known.
1409	Wrapping paper not specially provided for (except strawboard and straw paper known as wrapping paper, less than 0.012 but not less than 0.008 inch in thickness).

such cases only the articles covered by the descriptive phraseology of the list will come under consideration for the granting of concessions.

In the event that an article which as of September 1, 1948 was regarded as classifiable under a description included in one or more of the lists is excluded therefrom by judicial decision or otherwise prior to the inclusion of such description in a trade agreement, the list or lists will nevertheless be considered as including such article.

DENMARK

Tariff Act of 1930 Par.	Item
353	Articles having as an essential feature an electrical element or device, and parts thereof, finished or unfinished, wholly or in chief value of metal, and not specially provided for:
	Internal combustion engines, other than carburetor type, if of the horizontal type and weighing over 5,000 pounds each, and parts thereof.
	Internal combustion engines, other than carburetor type, and not of the horizontal type, weighing over 2,500 pounds each, and parts thereof.
355	Knives, forks, steels, and cleavers, of a class or kind provided for in paragraph 355, Tariff Act of 1930, with handles of silver (other than plated with silver) or other metal than aluminum, nickel silver, iron or steel, all the foregoing not specially designed for other than household, kitchen, or butchers' use.
372	All other machines, finished or unfinished, not specially provided for, and parts thereof wholly or in chief value of metal or porcelain, not specially provided for:
	Internal combustion engines, other than carburetor type, if of the horizontal type and weighing over 5,000 pounds each, and parts thereof.
	Internal combustion engines, other than carburetor type, and not of the horizontal type, weighing over 2,500 pounds each, and parts thereof.
397	Articles or wares not specially provided for, whether partly or wholly manufactured:
	Composed wholly or in chief value of silver.
412	Spring clothespins.
710	Cheese:
	Having the eye formation characteristic of the Swiss or Emmenthaler type.
	Blue-mold, in original loaves (not including Roquefort cheese).
763	Grass seeds and other forage crop seeds: Orchard grass.
764	Other garden and field seeds:
	Cabbage.
	Cauliflower.
802	Compounds and preparations of which distilled spirits are the component material of chief value and not specially provided for.
1405	Gummed papers, not specially provided for.
1511	Cork, commonly or commercially known as artificial, composition, or compressed cork, in the rough and not further advanced than slabs, blocks, planks, rods, sticks, or similar forms.
1527 (a)	Jewelry, commonly or commercially so known, finished or unfinished (including parts thereof): (2) all other, of whatever material composed, valued above $5 per dozen pieces.
1547 (a)	Works of art: (2) Statuary, sculptures, or copies, replicas, or reproductions thereof, valued at not less than $2.50, and not specially provided for.
1558	Articles manufactured, in whole or in part, not specially provided for: Brewers' yeast, not containing alcohol.
1679	Natural flint, natural flints, and natural flint stones, unground.
1751	Rennet, raw or prepared.

DOMINICAN REPUBLIC

501	Sugars, tank bottoms, sirups of cane juice, melada, concentrated melada, crete and concentrated molasses, and all mixtures containing sugar and w
502	Molasses and sugar sirups, not specially provided for (except molasses sugar sirups containing soluble nonsugar solids, excluding any foreign stance that may have been added or developed in the product, equal to than 6 per centum of the total soluble solids).
502	Molasses not imported to be commercially used for the extraction of s or for human consumption.

Tariff Act of 1930 Par.	Item
1516	Matches, friction or lucifer, of all descriptions, in boxes containing not more than 100 matches per box.
1536	Manufactures of wax, or of which wax is the component material of chief value, not specially provided for: Ski wax.
1716	Mechanically ground wood pulp, chemical wood pulp, unbleached or bleached.
1772	Standard newsprint paper.

GREECE

38	Extracts, dyeing and tanning, not containing alcohol: Valonia.
53	Oils, vegetable: Olive, not specially provided for.
328	Cylindrical and tubular tanks or vessels, for holding gas, liquids, or other material, whether full or empty.
601	Filler tobacco not specially provided for, if unstemmed: Cigarette leaf tobacco (except smoke-cured, having the flavor and aroma characteristics of smoke-cured Latakia leaf tobacco).
742	Currants, Zante or other.
744	Olives of a class or kind of which Greece is a major supplier.
781	Mixed spices, and spices and spice seeds not specially provided for, including all herbs or herb leaves in glass or other small packages, for culinary use: Bay leaves.
1519 (b)	Manufactures of fur (except silver or black fox), further advanced than dressing, prepared for use as material (whether or not joined or sewed together), including plates, mats, linings, strips, and crosses (except plates, mats, linings, strips, and crosses of dog, goat, kid, squirrel, hare, and lamb and sheep other than caracul and Persian lamb): Plates, mats, linings, strips, and crosses, if dyed.
1545	Sponges, not specially provided for (except hardhead or reef and not including sponges commercially known as sheepswool, yellow, grass, or velvet).
1545	Manufactures of sponges, or of which sponge is the component material of chief value, not specially provided for.
1686	Natural gums, natural gum resins, and natural resins, not specially provided for: Mastic.
1732	Oils, expressed or extracted: Olive, rendered unfit for use as food or for any but mechanical or manufacturing purposes.

HAITI

58	Essential and distilled oils, not specially provided for, not mixed or compounded with or containing alcohol: Vetivert oil.
412	Manufactures of wood or bark, or of which wood or bark is the component material of chief value, not specially provided for: Trays, bowls, platters, lamp bases, book-ends, and similar household wares, of which mahogany is the component material of chief value.
739	Orange peel, crude, dried, or in brine.
1529 (a)	Articles (except hats and other wearing apparel) wholly or in part of braids.
1530 (e)	Boots, shoes, or other footwear (including athletic or sporting boots and shoes), the uppers of which are composed wholly or in chief value of wool, cotton, ramie, animal hair, fiber, rayon or other synthetic textile, silk, or substitutes for any of the foregoing, whether or not the soles are composed of wood or other materials (except such boots, shoes, or other footwear with soles composed wholly or in chief value of leather or with soles composed wholly or in chief value of india rubber or substitutes for rubber).
1537 (a)	Manufactures of raffia-palm leaf or of which this substance is the component material of chief value, not specially provided for.
1670	Dyeing or tanning materials, whether crude or advanced in value or condition by shredding, grinding, chipping, crushing, or any similar process, not containing alcohol, and not specially provided for: Logwood.

COMMITTEE FOR RECIPROCITY INFORMATION

TRADE-AGREEMENT NEGOTIATIONS WITH DENMARK, DOMINION REPUBLIC, EL SALVADOR, FINLAND, GREECE, HAITI, ITALY, NICARAGUA, PERU, SWEDEN, AND URUGUAY; POSSIBLE ADJUSTMENTS IN PREFERENTIAL RATES ON CUBAN PRODUCTS

SUBMISSION OF INFORMATION TO THE COMMITTEE FOR RECIPROCITY INFORMATION

Closing date for application to be heard, November 29, 1948.

Public hearings open, December 7, 1948.

Closing date for submission of briefs, December 7, 1948.

The Interdepartmental Committee on Trade Agreements has issued on this day a notice[1] of intention to conduct trade-agreement negotiations with each of the following countries: Denmark, Dominican Republic, El Salvador, Finland, Greece, Haiti, Italy, Nicaragua, Peru, Sweden, and Uruguay. Annexed to this public notice are lists of articles imported into the United States to be considered for possible concessions in the negotiations with each of the above countries.

It is stated by the Trade Agreements Committee that it is proposed to enter into these negotiations with a view to the accession of the countries named above as contracting parties to the General Agreement on Tariffs and Trade. The Trade Agreements Committee has also announced in such notice that, in the case of an article in one or more of these lists with respect to which the corresponding product of Cuba is now entitled to preferential treatment, a modification of the rate in the negotiations referred to will involve the elimination, reduction, or continuation of the preference, perhaps in some cases with an adjustment or specification of the rate applicable to the product of Cuba.

The Committee for Reciprocity Information hereby gives notice that information and views in writing in regard to the foregoing proposals with respect to any of the named countries (including areas for which any of these countries has authority to conduct trade-agreement negotiations) shall be submitted to the Committee for Reciprocity Information not later than 12:00 noon, December 7, 1948, and all applications for oral presentation of views in regard thereto, including a statement as to the import product or products, if any, on which the applicant wishes to be heard, shall be submitted to the Committee for Reciprocity Information not later than 12:00 noon, November 29, 1948.

Such communications shall be addressed to "The Chairman, Committee for Reciprocity Information, Department of Commerce, Washington 25, D. C.". Ten copies of written statements, either typewritten or printed, shall be submitted, of which one copy shall be sworn to.

Public hearings will be held before the Committee for Reciprocity Information, at which oral statements will be heard. The first hearing will be at 10:00 a. m. on December 7, 1948, in the auditorium of Department of Commerce Building at 14th and E Streets, N. W., Washington, D. C. Witnesses who make application to be heard will be advised regarding the time and place of their individual appearances. Appearances at hearings before the Committee may be made by or on behalf of those persons who have within the time prescribed made written application for oral presentation of views. Statements made at the public hearings shall be under oath.

Persons or groups interested in import products may present to the Committee their views concerning possible tariff concessions by the United States on any product, whether or not included in any of the lists annexed to the notice of intention to negotiate which has been issued by the Trade Agreements Committee, and concerning any other matters relating to the proposed negotiations. Copies of these lists may be obtained from the Committee for Reciprocity Information at the address designated above and may be inspected at the field offices of the Department of Commerce.

[1] See F. R. Doc. 48-9749, Interdepartmental Committee on Trade Agreements, supra.

As indicated in the notice of intention to negotiate, no tariff concession will be considered on any product which is not included in a list annexed thereto unless it is subsequently included in a supplementary public list.

Persons or groups interested in export products may present their views regarding any tariff or other concessions that might be requested of any of the foreign governments with which it is proposed to undertake trade-agreement negotiations.

A written statement submitted to the Committee for Reciprocity Information may relate to articles contained in one or more of such lists or to other matters relating to the proposed trade-agreement negotiations with one or more of the countries listed above, and oral statements may also relate to one or more such lists or negotiations, subject to any scheduling that may be made by the Committee in advising as to the time and place of individual appearances.

By direction of the Committee for Reciprocity Information this 5th day of November 1948.

EDWARD YARDLEY,
Secretary.

UNITED STATES TARRIF COMMISSION

[Investigation No. 1 Under Section 3 of the Trade Agreements Extension Act of 1948]

FOREIGN TRADE AGREEMENTS

PUBLIC NOTICE OF INVESTIGATION AND PUBLIC HEARING

Final date for filing request to testify: November 29, 1948. Date of start of hearing: December 7, 1948.

The United States Tariff Commission on this 5th day of November, 1948, under and by virtue of section 3 of the Trade Agreements Extension Act of 1948 and pursuant to the Commission's rules of practice and procedure, hereby announces an investigation, including a public hearing, with respect to each import article included in the list of articles received by the Commission from the President on November 5, 1948, in connection with proposed negotiations for trade agreements with Denmark.	Italy.

Dominican Republic.	Nicaragua.
El Salvador.	Peru.
Finland.	Sweden.
Greece.	Uruguay.
Haiti.

for the purpose of determining for each said import article (a) the limit to which modification of duties and other import restrictions or imposition of additional import restrictions, or continuance of existing customs or excise treatment may be extended in order to carry out the purpose of the Trade Agreements Act of 1934, as amended, without causing or threatening serious injury to the domestic industry producing like or similar articles; and (b) the minimum increases in duties or additional import restrictions required in cases where increases in duties or additional import restrictions are required to avoid serious injury to the domestic industry producing like or similar articles.

The purpose of the investigation and hearing is to assist the Tariff Commission in the preparation of its report to the President on the question of what concessions may be made in the proposed trade agreements without causing or threatening serious injury to domestic industry. Since the statute specifically imposes on the Tariff Commission the obligation of holding its own hearing, persons who wish to be assured that their information will be considered by the Tariff Commission must present it directly to the Commission either at the hearing or in writing before the close of the hearing, in accordance with § 206.4 of the Commission's rules.

List of articles. A copy of the list of articles to be considered in this investigation may be obtained from the United States Tariff Commission, Washington 25, D. C. or from the Commission's office in Room 437, Custom House, New York 4, N. Y. The list is being published in the FEREDAL REGISTER[1] and is also available for reference in the field offices of the Department of Commerce. The investigation will be limited to articles included in the published list.

Hearing. All parties interested will be given opportunity to be present to produce evidence, and to be heard at a public hearing to commence at the office of the Commission in Washington, D. C., at 10 a. m. on the 7th day of December 1948.

Request to testify. For the convenience of parties interested and the orderly presentation of evidence it will be necessary to schedule hearings on the various articles at different times. Accordingly, parties desiring to testify must file a request to that effect and indicate the articles on which they desire to be heard on or before November 29, 1948. The Commission will then notify the parties of the date for presentation of their evidence.

Written statements. Persons unable to attend the public hearings may file written statements of relevant information at any time before the close of the hearings. These statements must be under oath and will be considered the same as oral testimony and, except for confidential data, will be open for inspection.

Rules. Copies of the Commission's rules of procedure are available upon request from the United States Tariff Commission, Washington 25, D. C.

By order of the United States Tariff Commission this 5th day of November 1948.

SIDNEY MORGAN,
Secretary.

FEDERAL COMMUNICATIONS COMMISSION

[Docket No. 9157]

NORTHEASTERN INDIANA BROADCASTING CO., INC. (WKJG)

ORDER DESIGNATING APPLICATION FOR HEARING ON STATED ISSUE

In re application of Northeastern Indiana Broadcasting Company, Inc. (WKJG), Fort Wayne, Indiana, Docket No. 9157, File No. BMP-3332; for modification of construction permit.

At a session of the Federal Communications Commission held at its offices in Washington, D. C., on the 27th day of October 1948;

The Commission having under consideration a petition (styled Petition for Reconsideration of Grant of Construction Permit) filed February 4, 1948, by the Fort Industry Company, licensee of Station WSPD, operating on 1370 kilocycles in Toledo, Ohio, requesting that the Commission reconsider and set aside its action of January 16, 1948, granting without hearing the above-entitled application of Northeastern Indiana Broadcasting Company, Inc. to modify its construction permit (File No. BP-4063) so as to operate Station WKJG at Fort Wayne, Indiana, daytime with a directional pattern other than the one specified in said original construction permit, and the Commission also having under consideration an answer to said petition filed by Northeastern Indiana Broadcasting Company, Inc. (WKJG);

It appearing, that on December 5, 1946, the Commission granted an application of Northeastern Indiana Broadcasting Company, Inc. to construct a new standard broadcast station (WKJG) at Fort Wayne, Indiana, to operate on 1380 kilocycles with 5 kilowatt power, unlimited time using a directional antenna day and night (File No. BP-4063), that the Fort Industry Company (WSPD) had requested reconsideration of said grant because of interference to its normally protected contour but that the request for reconsideration was subsequently withdrawn; and

It further appearing, that upon completion of the construction of Station WKJG and the making of the required proof of performance it was found that the actual antenna efficiency was higher than had been calculated and that thereupon the above-entitled application for modification of construction permit requesting authorization to operate with a higher antenna efficiency was filed; and

It further appearing, that upon the basis of measurements submitted by the Fort Industry Company (WSPD) in connection with its aforesaid petition for reconsideration filed February 4, 1948, and of proofs of performance filed in July and August, 1948, for Stations WSPD and WKJG respectively, questions of fact are presented upon which the petitioner should be afforded an opportunity to be heard;

It is ordered, That pursuant to section 405 of the Communications Act of 1934, as amended, the aforesaid petition of the Fort Industry Company (WSPD) be, and it is hereby, designated for hearing at 10 a. m. on December 2, 1948 at Washington, D. C., upon the following issue:

To determine whether the operation of the proposed station at Fort Wayne, Indiana (WKJG) under the original construction permit would involve objectionable interference with Station WSPD, Toledo, Ohio, and whether the operation of Station WKJG under the modification application would involve an increase of interference, if any, with Station WSPD, Toledo, Ohio, and, if so, the nature and extent thereof, the areas and populations affected thereby, and the availability of other broadcast service to such areas and populations.

It is further ordered, That the Fort Industry Company, licensee of Station WSPD in Toledo, Ohio, and Northeastern Indiana Broadcasting Company, Inc., licensee of Station WKJG, Fort Wayne, Indiana, be, and they are hereby, made parties to this proceeding.

FEDERAL POWER COMMISSION

[Docket No. G-1131]

NORTHERN NATURAL GAS CO.

ORDER FIXING DATE OF HEARING

NOVEMBER 2, 1948.

Upon consideration of the application filed September 24, 1948, by Northern Natural Gas Company (Applicant), a Delaware Corporation having its principal office at Omaha, Nebraska, for a certificate of public convenience and necessity pursuant to section 7 of the Natural Gas Act, as amended, authorizing the construction and operation of certain natural gas facilities, subject to the jurisdiction of the Commission, as fully described in such application on file with the Commission, and open to public inspection;

It appears to the Commission that: Applicant has requested that its application be heard under the shortened procedure provided by § 1.32 (b) of the Commission's rules of practice and procedure for noncontested proceedings, and that this proceeding is a proper one for disposition under the provisions of the aforesaid rule, provided no request to be heard, protest or petition raising an issue of substance is filed subsequent to the giving of due notice of the filing of the application, including publication in the FEDERAL REGISTER on October 7, 1948 (13 F. R. 5872).

The Commission, therefore, orders that:

(A) Pursuant to the authority contained in and subject to the jurisdiction conferred upon the Federal Power Commission by sections 7 and 15 of the National Gas Act, as amended, and the Commission's rules of practice and procedure, a hearing be held on November 23, 1948, at 9:30 a. m. (e. s. t.), in the Hearing Room of the Federal Power Commission, 1800 Pennsylvania Avenue NW., Washington, D. C., concerning the matters involved and the issues presented by such application: Provided however, That the Commission may after a non-contested hearing, forthwith dispose of the proceeding pursuant to the provisions of § 1.32 (b) of the Commission's rules of practice and procedure.

(B) Interested State commissions may participate as provided by §§ 1.8 and 1.37 (f) of the said rules of practice and procedure.

Date of issuance: November 2, 1948.

By the Commission.

[Docket No. G-1134]

LONE STAR GAS CO.

ORDER FIXING DATE OF HEARING

NOVEMBER 2, 1948.

Upon consideration of the application filed October 1, 1948, by Lone Star Gas Company (Applicant), a Texas corporation having its principal place of business at Dallas, Texas, for a certificate of public convenience and necessity pursuant to section 7 of the Natural Gas Act, as amended, authorizing the construction and operation of certain natural gas facilities, subject to the jurisdiction of the Commission, as fully described in such application on file with the Commission and open to public inspection;

It appears to the Commission that: This proceeding is a proper one for disposition under the provisions of § 1.32 (b) of the Commission's rules of practice and procedure, Applicant having requested that its application be heard under the shortened procedure provided for by the aforesaid rule for non-contested proceedings, and no request to be heard, protest or petition having been filed subsequent to the giving of due notice of the filing of the application, including publication in the FEDERAL REGISTER on October 14, 1948 (13 F. R. 6032).

The Commission, therefore, orders that:

(A) Pursuant to the authority contained in and subject to the jurisdiction conferred upon the Federal Power Commission sections 7 and 15 of the Natural Gas Act, as amended, and the Commission's rules of practice and procedure, a hearing will be held on November 16, 1948, at 9:30 a. m., e. s. t., in the Hearing Room of the Federal Power Commission, 1800 Pennsylvania Avenue, N. W., Washington, D. C., concerning the matters involved and the issues presented by such application: Provided however, That the Commission may, after a non-contested hearing, forthwith dispose of the proceeding pursuant to the provisions of § 1.32 (b) of the Commission's rules of practice and procedure.

(B) Interested State commissions may participte as provided by §§ 1.8 and 1.37 (f) of the said rules of practice and procedure.

[Docket No. G-1145]

NATURAL GAS PIPELINE CO. OF AMERICA

NOTICE OF APPLICATION

NOVEMBER 1, 1948.

Notice is hereby given that on October 19, 1948, Natural Gas Pipeline Company of America (Applicant), a Delaware corporation, with its principal place of business at Chicago, Illinois, filed an application with the Federal Power Commission for a certificate of public convenience and necessity pursuant to section 7 of the Natural Gas Act, as amended, authorizing (1) the continued operation of certain facilities in the State of Illinois, and (2) the continued transportation, delivery, and sale of natural gas to Illinois Northern Utilities Company for resale in DeKalb and Sycamore, Illinois, to Central Illinois Electric and Gas Company for resale in the City of Rockford, Illinois, and to Illinois Power Company for resale in LaSalle, Peru, Spring Valley, Oglesby, Jonesville and environs, in Illinois, subject to the jurisdiction of the Commission.

Applicant states it has been operating facilities temporarily authorized "In the Matters of Natural Gas Pipeline Company of America" and "Texoma Natural Gas Company," Docket Nos. G-235-B, 235-C, and 235-D, by Commission orders issued on March 21, 1942, April 17, 1942 and June 23, 1942, respectively, transporting, selling and delivering to Illinois Northern Utilities Company, Central Illinois Electric and Gas Company and Illinois Power Company (formerly Illinois Iowa Power Company), the natural gas requirements of their distribution systems; that it proposes and desires to continue the operation of the said facilities and the transportation, delivery and sale of natural gas to said Companies in accordance with applicable rate schedules on file with the Commission; and that natural gas reserves therefor are adequate.

Any interested State commission is requested to notify the Federal Power Commission whether the application should be considered under the cooperative provisions of § 1.37 of the Commission's rules of practice and procedure and, if so, to advise the Federal Power Commission as to the nature of its interest in the matter and whether it desires a conference, the creating of a board, or a joint or concurrent hearing, together with reasons for such request.

The application of Natural Gas Pipeline Company of America is on file with the Commission and is open to public inspection. Any person desiring to be heard or to protest with reference to the application shall file with the Federal Power Commission, Washington, D. C., not later than 15 days from the date of publication of this notice in the FEDERAL REGISTER, a petition to intervene or protest. Such petition or protest shall conform to the requirements of §§ 1.8 and 1.10, whichever is applicable, of the rules of practice and procedure.

UNITED LIGHT & RAILWAYS CO. ET AL.

ORDER GRANTING APPLICATION

At a regular session of the Securities and Exchange Commission, held at its office in the city of Washington, D. C., on the 2d day of November A. D. 1948.

In the matter of the United Light and Railways Company, American Light & Traction Company, et al., File Nos. 59-11, 59-17, and 54-25.

American Light & Traction Company ("American Light"), a registered holding company and a subsidiary of the United Light and Railways Company ("Railways"), also a registered holding company, having filed an application and amendments thereto pursuant to the Public Utility Holding Company Act of 1935 ("act") with respect to the following transactions:

American Light has entered into credit agreements with certain banks and insurance companies under which, prior to November 17, 1948, American Light proposes to issue and sell $15,000,000 aggregate principal amount of serial Collateral Trust Notes to certain banks and insurance companies and in the amounts shown below:

Name of purchaser	Principal amount of notes to be purchased
Central Hanover Bank & Trust Co	$1,500,000.00
Mellon National Bank & Trust Co	1,500,000.00
The National City Bank of New York	1,500,000.00
New England Mutual Life Insurance Co	2,500,000.00
Massachusetts Mutual Life Insurance Co	3,000,000.00
John Hancock Mutual Life Insurance Co	5,000,000.00
	15,000,000.00

The application states that the proceeds from the sale of said notes are to be used in accordance with the provisions of the section 11 (e) plan filed by American Light and its parent, Railways, approved by order of the Commission dated December 30, 1947, in connection with the offer to purchase at $33 per share, during a 30-day period following a date fixed by American Light, all shares of its outstanding preferred stock tendered pursuant to an offer to be made by American Light for that purpose.

Notice of said filing having been duly given in the form prescribed by Rule U-23 promulgated under the act and the Commission not having received a request for a hearing with respect to said application within the period specified in said notice or otherwise, and not having ordered a hearing thereon; and

The applicant having requested that the Commission enter an order herein approving the proposed transactions, that said order become effective forthwith, and contain appropriate recitations to the effect that the proposed issuance of Collateral Trust Notes is necessary or appropriate to effectuate the provisions of section 11 (b) of the act, and

The Commission finding with respect to said application that the requirements of the applicable provisions of the act and rules thereunder are satisfied and that no adverse findings are necessary, and deeming it appropriate in the public interest and in the interests of investors and consumers that said application be granted and that the order granting the same contain the recitals requested and become effective forthwith:

It is ordered, Pursuant to Rule U-23 and the applicable provisions of the act, and subject to the terms and provisions prescribed in Rule U-24, that said application be, and the same hereby is, granted, that the issuance of the Collateral Trust Notes is necessary or appropriate to effectuate the provisions of section 11 (b) of the Public Utility Holding Company Act of 1935 and that this order become effective forthwith.

It is further ordered, That the jurisdiction reserved in the Commission's order of December 30, 1947 with respect to the accounting treatment of the proposed transactions be, and it hereby is, continued.

By the Commission.

[File No. 68-105]

LONG ISLAND LIGHTING CO.

NOTICE OF AND ORDER FOR HEARING

At a regular session of the Securities and Exchange Commission, held at its office in the city of Washington, D. C., on the 1st day of November 1948.

In the matter of J. Donald Halsted, E. M. Nichols and B. F. Grizzle, as a protective committee for the holders of the common stock of Long Island Lighting Company. File No. 68-105.

Notice is hereby given that J. Donald Halsted, E. M. Nichols and B. F. Grizzle, as a protective committee for the holders of the common stock of Long Island Lighting Company, have filed a post-effective amendment to a declaration pursuant to Rule U-62 promulgated under the Public Utility Holding Company Act of 1935 ("act").

All interested persons are referred to said post-effective amendment to the declaration which is on file in the offices of this Commission for a statement of the proposal contained therein which is summarized as follows:

As members of a protective committee for the holders of the common stock of Long Island Lighting Company, declarants were permitted to solicit authorizations from such holders in connection with certain proceedings relating to (a) an amended plan of consolidation and recapitalization jointly filed, pursuant to section 11 (e) of the act, by Long Island Lighting Company, a registered holding company, and two of its public-utility subsidiary companies, Queens Borough Gas and Electric Company and Nassau & Suffolk Lighting Company (designated as File No. 54-136), and (b) a proceeding instituted by the Commission pursuant to section 11 (b) (2) of the act directed to Long Island Lighting Company, Queens Borough Gas and Electric Company, Nassau & Suffolk Lighting Company, and Long Beach Gas Company, Inc. (designated as File No. 59-83), which proceedings were consolidated for hearing.

The post-effective amendment to the declaration states that declarants will request each holder of the common stock to remit to the committee as a voluntary contribution 5 cents per share as a "defense fund" to help defray the past and future expenditures of the committee. Such expenditures include proposed payments as retainers of $7,500 to Harold G. Aron and $7,500 to Warren & McGroddy, the committee's counsel, and the cost of soliciting proxies and calling and holding a special stockholders' meeting for the election of a board of directors if the Committee decides to attempt to have such a meeting held.

It appearing to the Commission that it is appropriate in the public interest and in the interest of investors and consumers that a hearing be held with respect to said post-effective amendment to the declaration, that said post-effective amendment shall not become effective except pursuant to further order of this Commission, and that record in the consolidated proceedings relating to the amended plan of consolidation and recapitalization filed pursuant to section 11 (e) of the act (File No. 54-136) and the proceeding instituted by the Commission pursuant to section 11 (b) (2) of the act (File No. 59-83) has a bearing on the matters and questions presented for consideration by the said post-effective amendment to the declaration:

It is hereby ordered, Pursuant to sections 11 (b) (2), 11 (e), 11 (g), 12 (e), and 18 of the act and the rules and regulations promulgated thereunder, that a hearing be held upon said matter on November 12, 1948 at 10:00 a. m., e. s. t., at the offices of the Securities and Exchange Commission, 425 Second Street NW., Washington 25, D. C. On such day the hearing room clerk will advise as to the room where such hearing will be held. Any person desiring to be heard or otherwise wishing to participate therein shall notify the Commission to that effect in the manner provided in Rule XVII of the Commission's rules of practice on or before November 10, 1948.

It is further ordered, That James G. Ewell, or any other officer or officers of the Commission designated by it for that purpose, shall preside at the hearing in such matters. The officer so designated to preside at the hearing is hereby authorized to exercise all powers granted to the Commission under section 18 (c) of the act, and to a hearing officer under the Commission's rules of practice.

The Division of Public Utilities of the Commission having advised the Commission that it has made a preliminary examination of the said post-effective amendment to the declaration, and that on the basis thereof the following matters and questions are presented for consideration without prejudice, however, to the presentation of additional matters and questions upon further examination:

(1) Whether the proposed solicitation material contains any untrue statement of a material fact or omits to state a material fact required to be stated therein or necessary to make the statements therein not misleading.

(2) Whether the proposed solicitation of the common stockholders of Long Island of 5 cents per share of common stock is in the public interest and in the interest of investors and for proper purposes and whether the proposed solicitation and proposed expenditures are in circumvention of any of the provisions of the Act or any rule, regulation, or order promulgated thereunder.

(3) Whether the proposed solicitation is consistent with the applicable standards of the act and rules thereunder, and whether, if such solicitation be permitted, the interest of the public or of investors or consumers requires the imposition of terms and conditions with respect thereto.

It is further ordered, That at said hearing evidence shall be adduced with respect to the foregoing matters and questions.

It is further ordered, That the record in the consolidated proceedings in File Nos. 54-136 and 59-83 may be received in evidence at said hearing.

By the Commission.

TITLE 3—THE PRESIDENT

EXECUTIVE ORDER 10014

DIRECTING FEDERAL AGENCIES TO COOPERATE WITH STATE AND LOCAL AUTHORITIES IN PREVENTING POLLUTION OF SURFACE AND UNDERGROUND WATERS

By virtue of the authority vested in me as President of the United States, and pursuant to the policy expressed in section 1 of the Water Pollution Control Act approved June 30, 1948 (Public Law 845, 80th Congress), of recognizing, preserving, and protecting the primary responsibilities and rights of the States in controlling water pollution, I hereby direct the heads of the departments, agencies, and independent establishments of the executive branch of the Government to take such action as may be practicable, in cooperation with State and local authorities concerned with control of water pollution, to insure the disposal of sewage, garbage, refuse, and other wastes accumulated in the course or as a result of Federal activities, and industrial or manufactured foodstuffs and other products destroyed by order or under the supervision of Federal regulatory authorities, in such manner as will conform with programs formulated under State law and applicable to Stat agencies and the public generally for the preservation and improvement of the quality of surface and underground waters.

TITLE 26—INTERNAL REVENUE

Chapter I—Bureau of Internal Revenue, Department of the Treasury

Subchapter D—Employment Taxes

[T. D. 5665]

PART 402—EMPLOYEES' TAX AND EMPLOYERS' TAX UNDER THE FEDERAL INSURANCE CONTRIBUTIONS ACT

PART 403—EXCISE TAX ON EMPLOYERS UNDER THE FEDERAL UNEMPLOYMENT TAX ACT

VENDORS OF NEWSPAPERS AND MAGAZINES

On July 22, 1948, notice of proposed rule making, regarding amendments to the employment tax regulations with respect to certain services performed by vendors of newspapers and magazines, made necessary by Public Law 492, 80th Congress, enacted April 20, 1948, was published in the FEDERAL REGISTER (13 F. R. 4191). No objection to the rules proposed having been received, the amendments set forth below are hereby adopted. The amendments are made in order to conform Regulations 106 (26 CFR, Part 402), relating to the employees' tax and the employers' tax under the Federal Insurance Contributions Act (subchapter A, chapter 9, Internal Revenue Code), to sections 1 and 3 of Public Law 492, 80th Congress, and Regulations 107 (26 CFR, Part 403), relating to the excise tax on employers under the Federal Unemployment Tax Act (subchapter C, chapter 9, Internal Revenue Code), to sections 2 and 3 of such Public Law 492. Such regulations are amended as follows:

PARAGRAPH 1. Immediately preceding the caption "Section 3797 (a) and (b) of the Internal Revenue Code" as set forth preceding § 402.201, the following is inserted:

SECTION 1 OF PUBLIC LAW 492 (80TH CONGRESS), ENACTED APRIL 20, 1948

That (a) • • • section 1426 (b) (15) of the Internal Revenue Code, as amended, • • • [is] hereby amended to read as follows:

(15) (A) Service performed by an individual under the age of eighteen in the delivery or distribution of newspapers or shopping news, not including delivery or distribution to any point for subsequent delivery or distribution;

(B) Service performed by an individual in, and at the time of, the sale of newspapers or magazines to ultimate consumers, under an arrangement under which the newspapers or magazines are to be sold by him at a fixed price his compensation being based on the retention of the excess of such price over the amount at which the newspapers or magazines are charged to him, whether or not he is guaranteed a minimum amount of compensation for such service, or is entitled to be credited with the unsold newspapers or magazines turned back; or.

(b) The amendment made by subsection (a) • • • to section 1426 (b) (15) of the Internal Revenue Code shall be applicable with respect to services performed after December 31, 1939.

PAR. 2. Section 402.203, as amended by Treasury Decision 5519, approved June 14, 1946, is further amended by striking out the period at the end of the first sentence thereof and inserting in lieu thereof a comma and the following: "and as further amended, effective January 1, 1940, by section 1 of Public Law 492, 80th Congress, relating to certain vendors of newspapers and magazines."

PAR. 3. Section 402.206, as amended by Treasury Decision 5519, is further amended by striking out the period at the end of the first sentence thereof and inserting in lieu thereof a comma and the following: "and as further amended, effective January 1, 1940, by section 1 of Public Law 492, 80th Congress, relating to certain vendors of newspapers and magazines."

PAR. 4. Immediately preceding § 402.226, the following is inserted:

SECTION 1 OF PUBLIC LAW 492 (80TH CONGRESS), ENACTED APRIL 20, 1948

That (a) • • • section 1426 (b) (15) of the Internal Revenue Code, as amended, • • • [is] hereby amended to read as follows:

(15) (A) Service performed by an individual under the age of eighteen in the delivery or distribution of newspapers or shopping news, not including delivery or distribution to any point for subsequent delivery or distribution;

(B) Service performed by an individual in, and at the time of, the sale of newspapers or magazines to ultimate consumers, under an arrangement under which the newspapers or magazines are to be sold by him at a fixed price his compensation being based on the retention of the excess of such price over the amount at which the newspapers or magazines are charged to him, whether or not he is guaranteed a minimum amount of compensation for such service, or is entitled to be credited with the unsold newspapers or magazines turned back; or.

(b) The amendment made by subsection (a) • • • to section 1426 (b) (15) of the Internal Revenue Code shall be applicable with respect to services performed after December 31, 1939.

PAR. 5. Section 402.226 is amended to read as follows:

§ 402.226 Delivery and distribution of newspapers, shopping news, and magazines—(a) In general. Subparagraph

(A) of section 1426 (b) (15) of the act, as amended by section 1 of Public Law 492, 80th Congress, enacted April 20, 1948, excepts certain services performed by an employee under the age of 18 in the delivery or distribution of newspapers or shopping news. This exception, which is dealt with in paragraph (b) of this section, continues without change the exception contained in section 1426 (b) (15), as added by section 606 of the Social Security Act Amendments of 1939. Subparagraph (B) of section 1426 (b) (15), added by section 1 of Public Law 492, excepts certain services in the sale of newspapers and magazines without regard to the age of the individual performing the services. Such exception is dealt with in paragraph (c) of this section. The exceptions in subparagraph (A) and subparagraph (B) are both applicable with respect to services performed after December 31, 1939.

(b) Services of individuals under age 18. Services performed by an employee under the age of 18 in the delivery or distribution of newspapers or shopping news, not including delivery or distribution (as, for example, by a regional distributor) to any point for subsequent delivery or distribution, are excepted. Thus, the services performed by an employee under the age of 18 in making house-to-house delivery or sale of newspapers or shopping news, including handbills and other similar types of advertising material, are excepted. The services are excepted irrespective of the form or method of compensation. Incidental services by the employee who makes the house-to-house delivery, such as services in assembling newspapers, are considered to be within the exception. The exception continues only during the time that the employee is under the age of 18.

(c) Services of individuals of any age. Services performed by an employee in, and at the time of, the sale of newspapers or magazines to ultimate consumers under an arrangement under which the newspapers or magazines are to be sold by him at a fixed price, his compensation being based on the retention of the excess of such price over the amount at which the newspapers or magazines are charged to him, are excepted. The services are excepted whether or not the employee is guaranteed a minimum amount of compensation for such services, or is entitled to be credited with the unsold newspapers or magazines turned back. Moreover, the services are excepted without regard to the age of the employee. Services performed other than at the time of sale to the ultimate consumer are not within the exception. Thus, the services of a regional distributor which are antecedent to but not immediately part of the sale to the ultimate consumer are not within the exception. However, incidental services by the employee who makes the sale to the ultimate consumer, such as services in assembling newspapers or in taking newspapers or magazines to the place of sale, are considered to be within the exception.

PAR. 6. Immediately preceding § 402.704, the following is inserted:

SECTION 3 OF PUBLIC LAW 492 (80TH CONG.), ENACTED APRIL 20, 1948

If any amount paid prior to the date of the enactment of this Act constitutes an overpayment of tax solely by reason of an amendment made by this Act, no refund or credit shall be made or allowed with respect to the amount of such overpayment.

PAR. 7. Section 402.704, as amended by Treasury Decision 5519, is further amended by inserting at the end of such section the following:

(i) Prohibition of refund or credit. No refund or credit is allowable with respect to any amount paid prior to April 20, 1948, the date of the enactment of Public Law 492, 80th Congress (relating to the exception of certain services performed by vendors of newspapers and magazines), which constitutes an overpayment of tax solely by reason of an amendment made by such law. (For provisions relating to services excepted from employment by Public Law 492, 80th Congress, see § 402.226 (c).

PAR. 8. Immediately preceding the caption "Section 3797 (a) and (b) of the Internal Revenue Code" as set forth preceding § 403.201, the following is inserted:

SECTION 2 OF PUBLIC LAW 492 (80TH CONGRESS), ENACTED APRIL 20, 1948

(a) Section 1607 (c) (15) of the Internal Revenue Code, as amended, is hereby amended to read as follows:

(15) (A) Service performed by an individual under the age of eighteen in the delivery or distribution of newspapers or shopping news, not including delivery or distribution to any point for subsequent delivery or distribution;

(B) Service performed by an individual in, and at the time of, the sale of newspapers or magazines to ultimate consumers, under an arrangement under which the newspapers or magazines are to be sold by him at a fixed price, his compensation being based on the retention of the excess of such price over the amount at which the newspapers or magazines are charged to him, whether or not he is guaranteed a minimum amount of compensation for such service, or is entitled to be credited with the unsold newspapers or magazines turned back.

(b) The amendment made by subsection (a) shall be applicable with respect to services performed after December 31, 1939, and, as to services performed before July 1, 1946, shall be applied as if such amendment had been a part of section 1607 (c) (15) of the Internal Revenue Code as added to such code by section 614 of the Social Security Act Amendments of 1939.

PAR. 9. Section 403.203, as amended by Treasury Decision 5566, approved June 23, 1947, is further amended as follows:

(A) By striking out in the first sentence thereof the words "and as further amended" and inserting in lieu thereof "and as amended".

(B) By striking out the period at the end of the first sentence thereof and inserting in lieu thereof a comma and the following: "and as further amended, effective January 1, 1940, by section 2 of Public Law 492, 80th Congress, relating to certain vendors of newspapers and magazines."

PAR. 10. Section 403.206, as amended by Treasury Decision 5566, is further amended as follows:

(A) By striking out in the first sentence thereof the words "and as further amended" and inserting in lieu thereof "and as amended".

(B) By striking out the period at the end of the first sentence thereof and inserting in lieu thereof a comma and the following: "and as further amended, effective January 1, 1940, by section 2 of Public Law 492, 80th Congress, relating to certain vendors of newspapers and magazines."

PAR. 11. Immediately preceding § 403.226, the following is inserted:

SECTION 2 OF PUBLIC LAW 492 (80TH CONGRESS), ENACTED APRIL 20, 1948

(a) Section 1607 (c) (15) of the Internal Revenue Code, as amended, is hereby amended to read as follows:

(15) (A) Service performed by an individual under the age of eighteen in the delivery or distribution of newspapers or shopping news, not including delivery or distribution to any point for subsequent delivery or distribution;

(B) Service performed by an individual in, and at the time of, the sale of newspapers or magazines to ultimate consumers, under an arrangement under which the newspapers or magazines are to be sold by him at a fixed price, his compensation being based on the retention of the excess of such price over the amount at which the newspapers or magazines are charged to him, whether or not he is guaranteed a minimum amount of compensation for such service, or is entitled to be credited with the unsold newspapers or magazines turned back;

(b) The amendment made by subsection (a) shall be applicable with respect to services performed after December 31, 1939, and, as to services performed before July 1, 1946, shall be applied as if such amendment had been a part of section 1607 (c) (15) of the Internal Revenue Code as added to such code by section 614 of the Social Security Act Amendments of 1939.

PAR. 12. Section 403.226 is amended to read as follows:

§ 403.226 Delivery and distribution of newspapers, shopping news, and magazines—(a) In general. Subparagraph (A) of section 1607 (c) (15) of the act, as amended by section 2 of Public Law 492, 80th Congress, enacted April 20, 1948, excepts certain services performed by an employee under the age of 18 in the delivery or distribution of newspapers or shopping news. This exception, which is dealt with in paragraph (b) of this section, continues without change the exception contained in section 1607 (c) (15), as added by section 614 of the Social Security Act Amendments of 1939. Subparagraph (B) of section 1607 (c) (15), added by section 2 of Public Law 492, excepts certain services in the sale of newspapers and magazines without regard to the age of the individual performing the services. Such exception is dealt with in paragraph (c) of this section. The exceptions in subparagraph (A) and subparagraph (B) are both applicable with respect to services performed after December 31, 1939.

(b) Services of individuals under age 18. Services performed by an employee under the age of 18 in the delivery or distribution of newspapers or shopping news, not including delivery or distribution (as, for example, by a regional distributor) to any point for subsequent delivery or distribution, are excepted. Thus, the services performed by an employee under the age of 18 in making house-to-house delivery or sale of newspapers or shopping news, including handbills and other similar types of advertising material, are excepted. The services are excepted irrespective of the form or method of compensation. Incidental services by the employee who makes the house-to-house delivery, such as services in assembling newspapers, are considered to be within the exception. The exception continues only during the time that the employee is under the age of 18.

(c) Services of individuals of any age. Services performed by an employee in, and at the time of, the sale of newspapers or magazines to ultimate consumers under an arrangement under which the newspapers or magazines are to be sold by him at a fixed price, his compensation being based on the retention of the excess of such price over the amount at which the newspapers or magazines are charged to him, are excepted. The services are excepted whether or not the employee is guaranteed a minimum amount of compensation for such services, or is entitled to be credited with the unsold newspapers or magazines turned back. Moreover, the services are excepted without regard to the age of the employee. Services performed other than at the time of sale to the ultimate consumer are not within the exception. Thus, the services of a regional distributor which are antecedent to but not immediately part of the sale to the ultimate consumer are not within the exception. However, incidental services by the employee who makes the sale to the ultimate consumer, such as services in assembling newspapers or in taking newspapers or magazines to the place of sale, are considered to be within the exception. (For provisions relating to services excepted from employment by Public Law 492, 80th Congress, see § 408.226 (c).)

TITLE 34—NATIONAL MILITARY ESTABLISHMENT

Chapter VII—Department of the Air Force

Subchapter D—Military Education

PART 845—AVIATION INSTRUCTION AT NON-FEDERAL ESTABLISHMENTS

TRANSFER AND REVISION OF REGULATIONS

The material contained in §§ 405.1 to 405.8, Chapter IV of Title 10 is hereby revised and transferred to Chapter VII, Title 34 and is redesignated Subchapter D, §§ 845.1 to 845.7 as follows:

Sec.
845.1 Specific application of the regulations in this part.
845.2 Selection of institutions.
845.3 Responsibilities of institutions.
845.4 Agreements with institutions for instruction.
845.5 Military organization.
845.6 Duties of Air Forces supervisor.
845.7 Termination of status as student.

AUTHORITY: §§ 845.1 to 845.7 issued under sec. 2, 53 Stat. 556, 55 Stat. 577; secs. 207 (f), 208 (e), Pub. Law 253, 80th Cong., 61 Stat. 502, 503; 10 U. S. C. 298a; 5 U. S. C. Supp. 626c; Transfer Order 21, Sept. 4, 1948, 13 F. R. 5383.

§ 845.1 Specific Application of the regulations in this part. The regulations in this part apply specifically to aviation instruction given military personnel in regularly established civil flying schools and in civil technical schools.

§ 845.2 Selection of institutions. The primary requirement for selection will be the suitability of an institution to accomplish satisfactorily the training projected by the United States Air Force. The following factors when applicable will have special importance:

(a) Geographical location as it influences the cost of Government transportation or other expense and the functioning of the system of supply and repair of Government property.

(b) Capacity for instruction of military personnel insofar as it warrants the maintenance of the requisite governmental supervisory and administrative establishment thereat.

(c) Ability to maintain output of trained military personnel at a uniform rate.

(d) Ability to conduct the desired training without undue hazard to personnel or property.

(e) Conditions affecting health and safety of military personnel, and the preservation and maintenance of Government property.

(f) Availability of suitable housing and messing facilities adjacent to place of instruction.

(g) Adequacy of instructional facilities and methods, and quality of instruction.

(h) Adequacy of facilities for maintenance and preservation of Government property.

(i) Provisions for maintaining the governmental supervisory and administrative establishment.

§ 845.3 Responsibilities of institutions. In addition to functions provided for elsewhere in these regulations in this part, institutions will be required to agree to the following prior to the assignment of military personnel thereat for instruction:

(a) To provide adequate and satisfactory housing and messing facilities or make arrangements therefor at a reasonable cost to personnel concerned, for all military students assigned for instruction.

(b) To provide adequate and satisfactory office and other space required by Government administrative personnel in the performance of their assigned duties.

(c) To comply with regulations prescribed by proper civil authorities to insure safety and with such supplementary instructions issued by the Chief of Staff, United States Air Force, or his representatives, in regard thereto and not in conflict therewith as may be deemed necessary in the premises.

(d) To provide that the Government shall not be liable for any injury or damage to persons and property, except Government personnel.

(e) To keep in the office of the school registrar and available to the Chief of Staff, United States Air Force, or his representatives, complete records, pertaining to the training and progress of each military student. Records should be kept as prescribed by the Chief of Staff, United States Air Force.

(f) To give representatives of the Government access to books of account and records at such time as it may be necessary for the Government to determine actual cost of instruction.

(g) To open to inspection by Government representatives, at any time, all facilities employed for the training of military personnel.

§ 845.4 Agreements with institutions for instruction. Services of schools will be procured by a contract in writing, made pursuant to the Armed Services Procurement Act of 1947 (Pub. Law 413, 80th Cong. 62 Stat. 21), which will embody the terms and conditions governing the furnishing of the instruction contemplated herein. The cost of tuition for courses of instruction as authorized in the regulations in this part will be established by negotiation.

§ 845.5 Military organization. A military detachment will ordinarily be formed at institutions operating under the provisions of the regulations in this part. All administrative and supervisory personnel (commissioned and enlisted), will be assigned to this detachment and all students will be attached. The senior Air Force officer on duty with the detachment will be designated the Air Force supervisor and will command unless otherwise provided by regulation.

§ 845.6 Duties of Air Force Supervisor. (a) The Air Force supervisor will be an intermediary in all relations between the Department of the Air Force and the institution at which he is assigned in matters pertaining to the instruction of military students thereat.

(b) In addition to his duties as commander of his detachment and such other duties as may be assigned by proper authority he will:

(1) Determine the continued adequacy and suitability of contractors' facilities and methods as they apply to the instruction of military students.

(2) Maintain contact with progress of military students and pass upon the eligibility of any student to receive a certificate of graduation.

(3) Determine the proficiency of students in their assignments at any time during the course of instruction.

(4) Be responsible for the discipline of military students at all times.

(5) Suspend the instruction of any military student when such action is necessary.

(6) Insure that no officer or enlisted man is conducting or pursuing any course of instruction at the school without proper authority of the Department of the Air Force.

§ 845.7 Termination of status as student. An academic board composed of officers will be appointed as directed by the Chief of Staff, United States Air Force, at each institution which has been designated to give aviation instruction to military personnel. This board will consider all cases that are referred to it by the Air Force supervisor which involve the fitness of a student to continue instruction for any reason whatsoever and will make appropriate recommendations relating to the disqualification, discharge, or reinstatement of any student.

PART 66—HOMESTEADS ON COAL, OIL AND GAS LANDS

ACTION BY REGISTER ON APPLICATIONS

The first paragraph of § 66.2 as amended by Circular No. 1675 of March 18, 1948, is further amended to read as follows:

§ 66.2 Action by register on applications. An application to make homestead entry for lands embraced in an oil and gas lease, or a coal permit or lease, or an application for such a lease, or permit, should be suspended and forwarded to the regional administrators for consideration and instructions.

The last paragraph of the section mentioned is amended to read as follows:

Like notations will be made by the managers on the face of the notices of allowance issued on applications filed under this act. If, prior to the date of the filing of the homestead applications, the land was embraced in an oil and gas lease, or a coal permit or lease, or an application for such a lease, or permit, the notice of allowance should contain substantially the following:

This land is subject to the right of any prior mineral permittee or lessee, or of any prior applicant for a mineral permit or lease, to occupy and use so much of the surface of the lands as may be reasonably required for mineral leasing operations, without liability to the nonmineral entryman or patentee for crop and improvement damages resulting from such mineral activity.

TITLE 47—TELECOMMUNICATION

Chapter I—Federal Communications Commission

[Docket No. 7858]

PART 18—INDUSTRIAL, SCIENTIFIC AND MEDICAL SERVICE

ELECTRIC WELDING DEVICES USING RADIO FREQUENCY ENERGY

At a meeting of the Federal Communications Commission held at its offices in Washington, D. C., on the 26th day of October 1948;

The Commission having under consideration petitions proposing that it suspend the effective date of Part 18 of the Commission's rules and regulations as it applies to electric welding devices using radio frequency energy; and

It appearing, that said petitions allege that extensive research has been undertaken designed to bring such welding equipment into conformity with the provisions of Part 18; that such equipment is of strategic importance in welding processes utilized for material manufactured and developed for the national defense; and that such research has not as yet proved wholly successful; and

It further appearing, that additional experimentation looking toward the solution of engineering problems involved in bringing such equipment into conformity with the said rules is now being undertaken and expedited on an industry-wide cooperative basis and that such experimentation may result in the solution of such problems and in the disclosure of valuable engineering data; and

It further appearing, that Part 18 of the Commission's rules and regulations with respect to electrical welding devices using radio frequency energy becomes effective October 30, 1948; that for the reasons set forth above the suspension of Part 18 for a limited period with respect to such devices is warranted; and that because of the imminent effective date of Part 18 for such welding devices, it is impracticable to give notice and invoke the procedure set forth in section 4 of the Administrative Procedure Act; and

It further appearing, that authority for the proposed amendment is contained in sections 301, 303 (f) and (r) of the Communications Act of 1934, as amended:

It is ordered, That effective immediately, Part 18 of the Commission's rules and regulations is amended so that an asterisk footnote is added to § 18.1 (a) as amended to read as follows:

* The effective date of Part 18, with respect to electrical welding devices using radio frequency energy, is April 30, 1949.

TITLE 50—WILDLIFE

Chapter I—Fish and Wildlife Service, Department of the Interior

Subchapter C—National Wildlife Refuges; Individual Regulations

PART 29—PLAINS REGION NATIONAL WILDLIFE REFUGES

HUNTING IN LOSTWOOD NATIONAL WILDLIFE REFUGE, NORTH DAKOTA

Basis and purposes. On the basis of observations and reports of field representatives of the Fish and Wildlife Service and of Conservation Agents of the North Dakota Game and Fish Department, it has been determined there is a general surplus of deer in much of North Dakota and that the reduction of the population can be facilitated by opening certain National Wildlife Refuges in the State to the public hunting of deer.

Section 29.572 is amended to read:

§ 29.572 Lostwood National Wildlife Refuge, North Dakota; hunting. Deer, coyotes, and fox may be taken during the open season prescribed by the Game and Fish Department of the State of North Dakota for the hunting of deer during the calendar year 1948 on certain lands, hereinafter specified, of the United States within the Lostwood National Wildlife Refuge, North Dakota.

(a) Area open to hunting. All the lands of the United States except the area within one-half mile of the headquarters and subheadquarters of the Lostwood Refuge shall be open to such hunting.

(b) Entry. Entry on and use of the Refuge are governed by Part 12 of this chapter, and strict compliance therewith is required. Hunters must follow such routes of travel within the Refuge as are designated by posting.

(c) State laws. Strict compliance with all State laws and regulations is required, and any person who hunts on the Refuge must have in his possession and exhibit at the request of any authorized Federal or State officer a valid State hunting license and permit for the taking of deer if such is required by the State laws and regulations. The license and permit will serve as a Federal permit for entry on the Refuge for the purpose of hunting deer.

[29 CFR, Part 545]

HOME WORKERS IN NEEDLEWORK INDUSTRIES IN PUERTO RICO

NOTICE OF PROPOSED RULE MAKING

Notice is hereby given, pursuant to the Administrative Procedure Act (60 Stat. 237; 5 U. S. C., Supp., 1001), that the Administrator of the Wage and Hour Division, U. S. Department of Labor, proposes to establish the following minimum piece rates for the performance of the following operations by homeworkers:

Hand-crocheting shade pulls, cotton thread, not over 30 stitches per ring—48 cents per gross.

Hand-crocheting shade pulls, rayon thread, not over 30 stitches per ring—49 cents per gross.

Prior to the final adoption of such minimum piece rates, consideration will be given to any data, views, or arguments pertaining thereto which are submitted in writing to the Administrator of the Wage and Hour Division, United States Department of Labor, Washington 25, D. C., within 15 days from publication of this notice in the FEDERAL REGISTER.

The proposed rates are to be established under the authority contained in section 6 (a) (5) of the Fair Labor Standards Act of 1938 (52 Stat. 1060; 29 U. S. C. 201).

Signed at Washington, D. C., this 29th day of October 1948.

ALLOCATING OF FUNDS FOR LOANS

CHANGE IN ALLOCATION DESIGNATION

SEPTEMBER 24, 1948.

Norris Rural Public Power District has transferred certain of its properties and assets to Eastern Nebraska Public Power District, and Eastern Nebraska Public Power District has assumed in part the indebtedness to United States of America of Norris Rural Public Power District, arising out of an allocation made by Executive order pursuant to the Emergency Relief Appropriation Act of 1935. Inasmuch as Executive orders cannot be changed by administrative order, for purposes of our records the following changes in the allocation designation shall be made:

(a) Allocation designation in Executive order, dated September 24, 1935, as changed by General Memorandum No. 46, dated June 6, 1940, General Memorandum No. 50, dated December 10, 1940 and General Memorandum No. 51, dated March 21, 1941, is further changed by changing the designation appearing therein as "Nebraska 6077A1 Norris District Public" in the amount of $374,261.61 to read "Nebraska 6077A1 Norris District Public" in the amount of $341,232.31 and "Nebraska 44 Eastern Nebraska District Public (Nebraska 6077A1 Norris District Public)" in the amount of $33,029.30.

FOREIGN-TRADE ZONES BOARD

[Public Notice 6]

APPLICATION FOR GRANT TO ESTABLISH, OPERATE AND MAINTAIN FOREIGN-TRADE ZONE AT LOS ANGELES, CALIF.

NOTICE OF HEARING

NOVEMBER 1, 1948.

Pursuant to the provisions of the act of June 18, 1934 (48 Stat. 998–1003; 19 U. S. C. 81a–81u), and the regulations governing the establishment, operation, maintenance and administration of foreign-trade zones in the United States, promulgated in pursuance of said act, a public hearing will be held by an Examiners' Committee, beginning at 9:30 a. m., California daylight time, on November 30, 1948, in the Assembly Hall, Room 150 California State Building, First and Spring Streets, Los Angeles, Calif.

The subject of the hearing is an application by the Board of Harbor Commissioners for the City of Los Angeles for a grant to establish, operate and maintain a foreign-trade zone at Los Angeles. General plans showing the location of the project, may be examined at the office of the Examiners' Committee, 1546 U. S. Post Office and Court House Building, 312 North Spring Street, Los Angeles, Calif., or at the office of the Executive Secretary of the Foreign-Trade Zones Board, Room 2036, Commerce Building, Washington, D. C. In brief, these plans contemplate the utilization of a portion of Municipal Pier No. 1 of the Board of Harbor Commissioners for the City of Los Angeles, located between the Main Channel and the East Channel in the Los Angeles Harbor, said portion being designated Berth 60, and having a wharf frontage of 600 feet covered by a shed of 100 feet by 600 feet with approximately 68,000 square feet of floor area, equipped with cargo masts; adjacent to which is a six-story warehouse of which 20,284 square feet and an adjoining administration building of 11,250 square feet has been designated as the initial zone area; with additional covered and uncovered areas available for future expansion.

This public hearing is solely for the purpose of obtaining in the most direct manner the facts useful to the Foreign-Trade Zones Board. The immediate concern of the Examiners' Committee is to determine whether or not the facilities and appurtenances which it is proposed to provide are sufficient. Particular attention is called to the fact that the instant application is the only one to be considered at this time. The question of its suitability is up for discussion, not the suitability of some other zone site.

All interested parties are invited to be present or represented at the hearing: particularly those who may be affected by the proposed grant. An opportunity to be heard (either in person or by duly appointed representatives; either by appearance or by sending a written or telegraphic statement) will be given to persons or groups who have manifested their interest in this application by complying with the following simple requirements:

1. A written or telegraphic request for an opportunity to be heard shall be filed before noon on November 26, 1948, at the office of the Examiners' Committee, Room 1546, U. S. Post Office and Court House Building, 312 North Spring Street, Los Angeles, Calif., or at the office of the Executive Secretary of the Foreign-Trade Zones Board, Room 2036, Commerce Building, Washington, D. C., and shall indicate the number of witnesses, the general character of evidence and the approximate amount of time required.

2. Such request shall include (a) the name of any persons seeking to speak at the hearing, and (b) the persons or groups he represents.

In the discretion of the Examiners' Committee, persons who have not complied with the foregoing may be permitted, at any time prior to the closing of the hearing, to file written statements in quadruplicate regarding the application under consideration. Such written statements should be condensed as much as possible.

Representation of interested parties by attorneys or others is permissible, but is not to be regarded as necessary. For accuracy of record, and for file with the report and recommendations of the Examiners' Committee, all important facts and arguments should be submitted in writing; as these, together with the record, will be forwarded for consideration by the Foreign-Trade Zones Board in Washington.

You are requested to communicate the foregoing to any persons known by you to be interested in the matter who, not being known to this Committee, do not receive a copy of this notice.

Chairman Ex Officio, Associate Director, Office of International Trade, Department of Commerce.
THOMAS E. LYONS,
Examiner, Department of Commerce.

SECURITIES AND EXCHANGE COMMISSION

[File No. 54–51]

NATIONAL POWER & LIGHT CO. ET AL.

SUPPLEMENTAL ORDER APPROVING BASIS FOR EXCHANGE OF SECURITIES UNDER PLAN

At a regular session of the Securities and Exchange Commission, held at its office in the city of Washington, D. C., on the 1st day of November A. D. 1948.

In the matter of National Power & Light Company, and Lehigh Valley Transit Company, et al.; File No. 54–51 (Application No. 10, Part B).

The Commission having by order dated August 25, 1948 approved an amended plan for the reorganization of Lehigh Valley Transit Company, subject to certain reservations of jurisdiction as more fully set forth in said order; said amended plan having thereafter been approved by the District Court of the United States for the Eastern District of Pennsylvania by order entered September 28, 1948; and

The proponents of said plan having filed Supplemental Application No. 2 fixing the price for the 4½% Preferred Stock of Pennsylvania Power & Light Company, to be offered on an optional exchange basis to holders of Refunding & Improvement Mortgage 5% Bonds of Lehigh Valley Transit Company pursuant to said plan, at $100 per share, and having requested the Commission pursuant to the reservation of jurisdiction contained in the aforesaid order dated August 25, 1948 to approve said optional exchange price for said 4½% Preferred Stock of Pennsylvania Power & Light Company, and it appearing to the Commission that, on the basis of the facts submitted, said optional exchange price provides a fair and equitable basis of exchange and that such approval should be given;

It is ordered, Pursuant to the aforesaid reservation of jurisdiction, that the said optional exchange price of $100 per share for said Preferred Stock of Pennsylvania Power & Light Company be and is hereby approved, and the jurisdiction heretofore reserved with respect thereto is hereby released.

By the Commission.

GENERAL COAL INVESTMENTS CORP.

NOTICE OF APPLICATION

At a regular session of the Securities and Exchange Commission, held at its office in the city of Washington, D. C., on the 3d day of November A. D. 1948.

Notice is hereby given that General Coal Investments Corporation has filed an application pursuant to section 8 (f) of the Investment Company Act of 1940 for an order of the Commission declaring that it has ceased to be an investment company within the meaning of the act.

It appears from the application that pursuant to the General Corporation Law of the State of Delaware the stockholders of General Coal Investments Corporation have duly voted to dissolve the applicant and the said dissolution became effective March 11, 1948, when the corporate existence of General Coal Investments Corporation ceased.

For a more detailed statement of the matters of fact and law asserted, all persons are referred to said application which is on file in the offices of the Commission in Washington, D. C.

Notice is further given that an order granting the application, in whole or in part and upon such conditions as the Commission may see fit to impose, may be issued by the Commission at any time after November 19, 1948, unless prior thereto a hearing upon the application is ordered by the Commission, as provided in Rule N-5 of the rules and regulations promulgated under the act. Any interested persons may, not later than November 15, 1948, at 5:30 p. m., in writing submit to the Commission his views or any additional facts bearing upon this application or the desirability of a hearing thereon, or request the Commission in writing that a hearing be held thereon. Any such communication or request should be addressed: Secretary, Securities and Exchange Commission, 425 Second Street NW., Washington 25, D. C., and should state briefly the nature of the interest of the person submitting such information or requesting a hearing, the reasons for such request, and the issues of fact or law raised by the application which he desires to controvert.

By the Commission.

KYA ET AL.

PUBLIC NOTICE CONCERNING THE PROPOSED TRANSFER OF CONTROL[1]

The Commission hereby gives notice that on July 21, 1948 there was filed with it applications (BTC-694 and BTC-693) for its consent under section 310 (b) of the Communications Act to the proposed transfer of control of Palo Alto Radio Station, Incorporated, licensee of station KYA, San Francisco, California, and KMTR Radio Corporation, licensee of station KLAC, permittee for 5 kw for KLAC, and permittee of KLAC-TV, from Dorothy S. Thackrey to Warner Bros. Pictures, Inc. The proposal to transfer control arises out of a contract of May 19, 1948 pursuant to which Dorothy S. Thackrey will sell all of the issued and outstanding stock of the above two corporations to Warner Bros. Pictures, Inc. for a consideration of $1,045,000, subject to adjustments. Further information as to the arrangements may be found with the applications and associated papers which are on file at the offices of the Commission in Washington, D. C.

Pursuant to § 1.321 which sets out the procedure to be followed in such cases including the requirement for public notice concerning the filing of the applications, the Commission has been advised that starting on July 23, 1948, notice of the filing of the application was inserted in the San Francisco Chronicle, a newspaper of general circulation at San Francisco, California in conformity with the above section.

In accordance with the procedure set out in said section, and in accordance with the Commission's memorandum opinion and order in this matter adopted October 28, 1948, no action will be had upon the applications until November 29, 1948. Other persons desiring to apply for the facilities involved may do so until November 29, 1948 upon the same terms and conditions as set forth in the above desired contract.

EDITORIAL CHANGES INCIDENT TO PREPARATION OF CODE OF FEDERAL REGULATIONS, 1949 EDITION

In order to conform Chapter VI of Title 15 to the scope and style of the Code of Federal Regulations, 1949 Edition, authorized and directed by Executive Order 9930 of February 4, 1948 (13 F. R. 519), the following editorial changes are made, effective upon publication in the FEDERAL REGISTER:

1. The codification of Part 600, "General Organization and Functions," Part 601, "Functions of the Organization Units," and Part 602, "Information and Services Available to the Public," is hereby discontinued. Future amendments to these parts will appear in the Notices section of the FEDERAL REGISTER.

2. Part 603 "Issuance of Licenses Under Foreign Patents Owned by the United States," is redesignated Part 601 and §§ 603.1 to 603.5 thereunder are redesignated §§ 601.1 to 601.5, respectively.

3. As so redesignated, the headnote of § 601.1 is changed from "Authority" to "Scope."

PART 6—AIR COMMERCE REGULATIONS

AIRPORTS OF ENTRY; C. A. A. FIELD, JUNEAU, ALASKA, AND SKY HARBOR SEAPLANE BASE, DULUTH, MINN.

NOVEMBER 3, 1948.

The C. A. A. Field, Juneau, Alaska, and the Sky Harbor Seaplane Base, Duluth, Minnesota, are hereby redesignated as airports of entry for civil aircraft and merchandise carried thereon arriving from places outside the United States, as defined in section 9 (b) of the Air Commerce Act of 1926 (U. S. C. Title 49, sec. 179 (b)), effective November 1, 1948, without time limit.

The list of airports of entry in § 6.12, Customs Regulations of 1943 (19 CFR, Cum. Supp., 6.12) as amended, is hereby further amended to include the locations and names of these airports. The list of temporary airports of entry in § 6.13, Customs Regulations of 1943 (19 CFR, Cum. Supp. 6.13) as amended, is hereby further amended by deleting the locations, names, and dates and periods of designations of the airports involved.

Notice of the proposed redesignations of these airports as airports of entry without time limit was published in the FEDERAL REGISTER on October 12, 1948 (13 F. R. 5952), pursuant to the provisions of section 4 of the Administrative Procedure Act (5 U. S. C. 1003). The redesignations of these airports shall be effective on November 1, 1948, the delayed effective date requirements of section 4 (c) of the Administrative Procedure Act being dispensed with because of the expiration of the previous designations prior to the expiration of 30 days after the publication hereof. The redesignations of these airports are based on a determination that a sufficient need exists to justify such redesignations and the redesignations are made for the purpose of providing for convenient compliance with customs requirements.

REPUBLICATION FOR CODIFICATION PURPOSES; MISCELLANEOUS AMENDMENTS

In compliance with Executive Order 9930 of February 4, 1948 (13 F. R. 519), which authorizes and directs the publication of the 1949 edition of the Code of Federal Regulations, Part 155 is hereby republished in codified form.

Notices of proposed rule making embodying amendments to §§ 155.2, 155.5, 155.8, 155.12, 155.30, 155.35, and 155.42 of this part was published in the FEDERAL REGISTER of June 4, 1948 (13 F. R. 2994). No objection having been received to the proposed amendments, they shall become effective on the date of publication of this order in the FEDERAL REGISTER.

Paragraph (b) (4) of § 155.12, Inspection fees, and paragraph (b) (4) of § 155.42, Inspection fees, are hereby amended to provide a different method of handling advance deposits where service is withdrawn. These amendments shall also become effective on the date of publication in the FEDERAL REGISTER.

The republication of the regulations contains no substantive revisions and is merely to conform to the FEDERAL REGISTER requirements that all regulations which will be in effect on December 31, 1948, be codified in accordance with FEDERAL REGISTER rules.

INSPECTION OF CANNED SHRIMP

§ 155.0 Application for inspection service. (a) Applications for inspection service on canned shrimp under the provisions of section 702A of the Federal Food, Drug, and Cosmetic Act shall be on forms supplied by the Food and Drug Administration. No application for an initial inspection period filed with the Food and Drug Administration after June 1, preceding such period in any year, shall be considered unless the applicant shows substantial cause for failure to file such application on or before June 1 of such year. A separate application shall be made for each inspection period in each establishment in which the service is applied for. Each application for an initial inspection period shall be accompanied by an advance deposit of $600 as prescribed by § 155.12 (b). Such deposit shall be paid in the manner prescribed by § 155.12 (e).

(b) An application by two or more packers for inspection service in one establishment to be jointly or severally operated by them shall be accompanied by an agreement signed by such packers binding each to be jointly and severally liable for the payment of all fees and deposits required for such establishment by § 155.12.

§ 155.1 Granting or refusing inspection service; cancellation of application. (a) The Federal Security Administrator may grant the inspection service applied for when he determines that the establishment covered by such application complies with the requirements of § 155.5.

(b) The Administrator may refuse to grant the inspection service at any establishment for cause. In case of refusal he shall notify the applicant of the reason therefor and shall return to such applicant the payment which accompanied the application, less any expenses incurred by the Administration for preliminary inspection of the establishment, or for other purposes incident to such application.

(c) The applicant, by giving written notice to the Administrator, may withdraw his application for inspection service before July 1 preceding the inspection period covered by the application. In case of such withdrawal, the Administrator shall return to such applicant the payment which accompanied the application, less any salary and other expense incurred by the Administration incident to such application.

§ 155.2 Inspection periods. (a) The initial inspection period in each establishment in which inspection service under these regulations is granted shall be 9 months. Extension inspection periods, each of which shall begin at the close of the preceding inspection period, may be granted in such establishment if application therefor, accompanied by a deposit of $500 as prescribed by § 155.12, is made at least two weeks in advance of the close of such preceding inspection period: Provided, That upon request of the packer and with the approval of the Administration, such service during any inspection period may be transferred from one establishment to another to be operated by the same packer; but such transfer shall not serve to lengthen any inspection period or to take the place of an extension inspection period. In case of such transfer the packer shall furnish all necessary transportation of inspectors.

(b) Each initial inspection period shall begin on or after July 1, but not later than September 15, of each year. No initial or extension inspection period shall extend beyond June 30 of any year.

(c) The date of the beginning of each initial inspection period shall be regarded as the date specified for the beginning of the service in the application therefor, or such other date as may be specified by amendment to such application and approved by the Administration; but if the Administrator is not prepared to begin the service on the specified date, the date of the beginning of such period shall be regarded as the date on which the service is begun.

(d) Inspection service shall be continuous throughout the inspection periods, except that, where the canning of shrimp is suspended as a result of the enforcement of State conservation laws, the inspection service may be withdrawn for the period of suspension or any part thereof: Provided, That written application for such suspension is made at least 2 weeks prior to the beginning of the closed season. An inspection period in which such a withdrawal occurs shall be lengthened to compensate for the time of withdrawal.

§ 155.3 Assignment of inspectors. (a) An initial assignment of at least one inspector shall be made to each establishment in which inspection service under §§ 155.0 to 155.13 is granted. Thereafter the Administration shall adjust the number of inspectors assigned to each establishment to the number required for continuous and efficient inspection.

(b) Any inspector of the Administration shall have free access at all times to all parts of the establishment and to all fishing and freight boats and other conveyances catching shrimp for, or transporting shrimp to, such establishment.

§ 155.4 Uninspected shrimp excluded from inspected establishments. (a) No establishment to which inspection service on canned shrimp has been granted shall at any time thereafter can shrimp which has not been inspected under §§ 155.0 to 155.13, or handle or store in such establishment any canned shrimp which has not been so inspected; but this paragraph shall not apply to an establishment after termination of inspection service therein as authorized by § 155.13.

(b) All shrimp delivered to or held in an establishment shall be subject to inspection, but certificates of inspection shall be issued under §§ 155.0 to 155.13 only on canned shrimp.

§ 155.5 General requirements for plant and equipment. (a) All exterior openings of the cannery shall be adequately screened, and roofs and exterior walls shall be tight. When necessary, fly traps or other approved insect-control devices shall be installed.

(b) Picking and packing rooms shall be separate, and fixtures and equipment thereof shall be so constructed and arranged as to permit thorough cleaning. Such rooms shall be adequately lighted and ventilated, and the floors thereof shall be tight and arranged for thorough cleaning and proper drainage. Blanching tanks shall not be located in picking room. Open drains from picking room shall not enter packing or blanching room. If picking and packing rooms are in separate buildings, such buildings shall not be more than 100 yards apart unless adequate provisions are made to enable efficient inspection.

(c) All surfaces of tanks, belts, tables, flumes, utensils, and other equipment with which either picked or unpicked shrimp come in contact after delivery to the establishment, shall be of metal other than lead, or of other nonporous and easily cleanable materials. Metal seams shall be smoothly soldered.

(d) Adequate supplies of steam and of clean, unpolluted running water shall be provided for washing, cleaning, and otherwise maintaining the establishment in a sanitary condition.

(e) Adequate toilet facilities of sanitary type shall be provided.

(f) An adequate number of sanitary wash basins, with liquid or powdered soap, shall be provided in both the picking and packing rooms. Paper towels shall be provided in the packing room.

(g) Signs requiring employees handling shrimp to wash their hands after each absence from post of duty shall be conspicuously posted in the picking and packing rooms and elsewhere about the cannery as conditions require.

(h) Suitable space and facilities shall be provided for the inspector to prepare records and examine samples, and for the safekeeping of records and equipment.

(i) One or more suitable washing devices and one or more suitable inspection belts shall be installed for the washing and subsequent inspection of the shrimp before delivery to the picking tables.

(j) Suitable containers, flumes, chutes, or conveyors shall be provided for removal of offal from picking room.

(k) Picking tables shall be equipped with flumes supplied with clean, unpolluted water for removing the picked shrimp.

(l) Equipment shall be provided for code marking cans or other immediate containers.

(m) An automatic container-counting device shall be installed in each cannery line.

(n) Each processing retort shall be fitted with at least the following equipment:

(1) An automatic control for regulating temperatures.

(2) An indicating mercury thermometer of a range from 170° F. to 270° F. with scale divisions not greater than 2°. For steam cook such thermometers shall be installed either within a fitting attached to the shell of the retort or within the door or shell of the retort. For water cook such thermometers shall be installed in the door or shell of the retort below the water level. If the thermometer is installed within a fitting such fitting shall communicate with the chamber of the retort through an opening at least 1 inch in diameter. Such fitting shall be equipped with a bleeder at least ⅛ inch in diameter. If the thermometer is installed within the door or shell of the retort the bulb shall project at least two-thirds of its length into the principal chamber thereof.

(3) A recording thermometer of a range from 170° F. to 270° F. with scale divisions not greater than 2°. The bulb of such thermometer shall be installed as prescribed for the indicating mercury thermometer. The case which houses the charts and recording mechanism shall be provided with an approved lock, all keys to which shall be in the sole custody of the inspector.

(4) A pressure gauge of a range from 0 to 30 pounds with scale divisions not greater than 1 pound. Such gauge shall be connected to the chamber of the retort by a short gooseneck tube. The gauge shall be not more than 4 inches higher than the gooseneck.

(5) For steam cook, a blow-off vent of at least ¾-inch inside diameter in the top of the retort.

(6) For steam cook, a ⅛-inch bleeder in top of retort.

§ 155.6 General operating conditions. (a) The decks and holds of boats catching shrimp for, or transporting shrimp to, an inspected establishment, and the bodies of other conveyances so transporting shrimp shall be kept in a sanitary condition. When necessary the shrimp shall be iced down immediately after they are caught and shall be kept adequately refrigerated until delivery to cannery.

(b) Canneries, cannery freight boats, and other cannery conveyances shall accept only fresh, clean, sound shrimp.

(c) After delivery of each load of shrimp to the cannery, decks and holds of each boat and the body of each other conveyance making such delivery shall be washed down with clean, unpolluted water and all debris shall be cleaned therefrom before such boat or other conveyance leaves the cannery premises.

(d) Before picking the shrimp shall be washed with clean, unpolluted water and then passed over the inspection belt and culled to remove all shrimp that are filthy, decomposed, putrid, or otherwise unfit for food, and all extraneous material.

(e) Offal from picking tables shall not be piled on the floor, but shall be placed in suitable containers for frequent removal, or shall be removed by flumes, conveyors, or chutes.

(f) Shrimp shall not be picked into cups but shall be picked into flumes which immediately remove the picked meats from the picking tables.

(g) Picked shrimp being transported from one building to another before enclosure in the can or other immediate container shall be properly covered and protected against contamination.

(h) From the time of delivery to the cannery up to the time of final processing, shrimp shall be handled expeditiously and under such conditions as to prevent contamination or spoilage.

(i) The packer shall immediately destroy for food purposes all shrimp in his possession condemned by the inspector as filthy, decomposed, putrid, or otherwise unfit for food. Shrimp condemned on boat or unloading platform shall not be taken into the ice box or picking room.

(j) All portions of the establishment shall be adequately lighted to enable the inspector to perform his duties properly.

(k) All floors and other parts of the establishment, including unloading platforms, and all fixtures, equipment, and utensils shall be cleaned as often as may be necessary to maintain them in sanitary condition.

(l) The packer shall require all employees handling shrimp to wash their hands after each absence from post of duty.

(m) The packer shall require all employees to observe proper habits of cleanliness, and shall not knowingly employ in or about the establishment any person afflicted with infectious or contagious disease.

(n) Offal, debris, or refuse from any source whatever shall not be allowed to accumulate in or about the establishment.

§ 155.7 Code marking. (a) Code marks shall be affixed to all cans and other immediate containers before they are placed in the processing retorts. Such marks shall show at least (1) the date of packing, (2) the establishment where packed, and (3) the size of the shrimp when such shrimp were graded for size and are not in containers through which they are clearly visible.

(b) Keys to all code marks shall be given to the inspector.

(c) Each lot shall be stored separately pending final inspection. For the purposes of the regulations in this part all cans or other immediate containers bearing the same code mark shall be regarded as comprising a lot.

§ 155.8 Processing. (a) The closure of the can or other immediate container and the time and temperature of processing the canned shrimp shall be adequate to prevent bacterial spoilage.

(b) Keys to all code marks shall be the minimum employed for the containers indicated:

(c) For steam cook, blow-off vent shall be open during the coming-up period until the mercury thermometer registers at least 215° F. Bleeders shall emit steam during the entire processing period.

(d) The inspector shall identify each record on the thermometer chart with the code mark of the lot to which such record relates and the date of such record. The Administration shall keep such charts for at least 5 years, and upon request shall make them available to the packer.

(e) The packer shall keep for at least one year all shipping records covering shipments from each lot, and upon request shall furnish such records to any inspector of the Administration.

§ 155.9 Examination after canning. (a) Adequate samples shall be drawn by the inspector from each lot of canned shrimp and shall be examined to determine whether or not such canned shrimp conforms to all requirements of the Federal Food, Drug, and Cosmetic Act, amendments thereto, and regulations thereunder.

(b) The packer shall destroy for food purposes, under the immediate supervision of the inspector, all canned shrimp condemned by the inspector as not complying with § 155.8 (a), or as filthy, decomposed, putrid, or otherwise unfit for food.

§ 155.10 Labeling. (a) Labels on canned shrimp packed and certified under §§ 155.0 to 155.13 shall bear the mark "Production Supervised by U. S. Food and Drug Administration," with or without the official establishment number. Such mark shall be plainly and conspicuously displayed in type of uniform size and style on a strongly contrasting uniform background; and shall appear on the principal panel or panels of the label so as to be easily observable in connection with the name of the article.

(b) Two proofs, or one proof and one photostat thereof, or eight specimens of all labeling intended for use on inspected canned shrimp or on or within the cases therefor, shall be submitted to the Administration for approval. If proofs or photostat and proof are submitted, eight specimens of the labeling shall be sent to the Administration after printing. The Administration is hereby authorized to approve labeling for use on or with canned shrimp inspected under §§ 155.0 to 155.13; approval shall be subject to the condition that such labeling shall be so used as to comply with the provisions of the Federal Food, Drug, and Cosmetic Act, amendments thereto, and regulations thereunder. The Administration is also hereby authorized to revoke any such approval for cause. The Administration shall not approve labeling for canned shrimp intended for export under the provisions of § 155.11 (e).

(c) No commercial brand or brand name appearing on labeling approved as authorized under paragraph (b) of this section, and no labeling simulating any such approved labeling, shall be used after such approval on canned shrimp other than that which has been handled, prepared, and packed in compliance with all provisions of §§ 155.0 to 155.13; but this section shall not apply to any packer's labeling after termination of inspection as authorized by § 155.13, or to any distributor's labeling after 3 months' written notice by the owner thereof to the Administration that the use of such labeling on inspected canned shrimp has been discontinued and will not be resumed.

§ 155.11 Certificates of inspection, warehousing and export permits. (a) After finding that the canned shrimp comprising any parcel (1) has been handled, prepared, and packed in compliance with all provisions of §§ 155.0 to 155.13, (2) bears labeling approved as authorized under § 155.10 (b), and (3) complies with all the provisions of the Federal Food, Drug, and Cosmetic Act, amendments thereto, and regulations thereunder, the inspector shall issue a certificate showing that such canned shrimp so complies. The certificate shall specify the code marks to which it applies, the quantity of the parcel so marked, the place where such parcel is stored, the size of the shrimp, the size and kind of containers, the type of pack, the commercial brand name on the labels, the quality grade of the shrimp if it is fancy, and the condition of the shrimp if it is broken. Such certificate shall become void if such labeling is removed, altered, obliterated, or replaced; but such canned shrimp may be relabeled under the supervision of an inspector and recertified if the inspector finds that, after being relabeled, it complies with the requirements laid down by this paragraph for the issuance of a certificate.

(b) Unless covered by certificate, canned shrimp shall be moved from an inspected establishment only for storage authorized under paragraph (c) of this section, or export authorized under paragraph (e) of this section, or for destruction as provided by § 155.9 (b).

(c) Applications to move unlabeled canned shrimp from storage in a warehouse elsewhere than in the establishment where such shrimp was packed shall be on forms supplied by the Administration. The application shall give the name and location of the warehouse in which such canned shrimp is to be stored, and shall be accompanied by an agreement signed by the operator of such warehouse that inspectors shall have free access at all times to all canned shrimp so stored, and that conditions which will preserve the identity of each parcel of such canned shrimp shall be continuously maintained pending issuance of a certificate thereon or removal as authorized by paragraph (d) of this section. If such application is approved and it appears to the inspector that the canned shrimp comprising any parcel (1) has been packed in compliance with §§ 155.0 to 155.13, (2) is not slack-filled, and (3) conforms, except for the absence of labeling, to all requirements of the Federal Food, Drug, and Cosmetic Act, amendments thereto, and regulations thereunder, the inspector shall issue to the applicant, on his request, a warehousing permit covering such canned shrimp. Such permit shall specify the code marks to which it applies, the quantity of the parcel so marked, the places from and to which such parcel is to be moved, the size of the shrimp, the size and kind of containers, the type of pack, and the quality grade of the shrimp if it is fancy, and the condition of the shrimp, if it is broken. When any provision of the agreement is violated the Administration may revoke any permit issued pursuant to such agreement, and may also revoke its approval of the application for warehousing which accompanied such agreement.

(d) Unless covered by certificate, canned shrimp stored under the authority of paragraph (c) of this section shall be moved from the warehouse where stored only for restorage under such authority, or for return upon written permission of the inspector to the establishment where packed, or for export authorized under paragraph (e) of this section, or for destruction as provided by § 155.9 (b).

(e) Section 801 (d) of the Federal Food, Drug, and Cosmetic Act provides that a food intended for export shall not be deemed to be adulterated or misbranded under the act if it (1) accords to the specifications of the foreign purchaser, (2) is not in conflict with the laws of the country to which it is intended for export, and (3) is labeled on the outside of the shipping package to show that it is intended for export. An application to export canned shrimp under the provisions of section 801 (d) of the act shall be accompanied by the original or a verified copy of the specifications of the foreign purchaser; if so required by the Administration, evidence showing that such canned shrimp is not in conflict with the laws of the country to which it is intended for export; and, if shipment of labeled canned shrimp is specified or directed, eight specimens of the labeling therefor. If canned shrimp prepared or packed according to such specifications is not in conflict with the laws of such country, the Administration shall direct the inspector to issue to the applicant an export permit covering such canned shrimp comprising any parcel ordered by such purchaser under such specifications, when the inspector finds that such canned shrimp was packed in compliance with the requirements of §§ 155.0 to 155.13 regarding sanitary conditions and processing; is not filthy, decomposed, putrid, or otherwise unfit for food; accords to such specifications, and is labeled on the outside of the shipping package to show that it is intended for export. Such permit shall specify the code marks to which it applies and the quantity of the parcel so marked, and shall show that such canned shrimp was packed under sanitary conditions, is wholesome, and accords to such specifications. The applicant shall furnish to the inspector documentary evidence showing the exportation of all such canned shrimp. Canned shrimp intended for export under this section shall not be stored in any warehouse in the United States elsewhere than in the establishment where such canned shrimp was prepared or packed, except on written permission of the inspector, or of the chief of the Food and Drug Administration Station within whose territory such warehouse is located.

§ 155.12 Inspection fees. (a) Except as otherwise provided by the regulations in this part, the fee prescribed for inspection service shall be fifteen (15) cents for each case of canned shrimp packed under such service in excess of the first 1,000 cases. For the purpose of this section a case of canned shrimp shall be 48 No. 1 cans (211 x 400) or the equivalent thereof. Advance deposits of not less than $300 shall be made whenever necessary to prevent arrears in the payment of fees, unless the Administration on an estimate of output authorizes payment in other amounts. Any excess advance deposits so made for the fiscal year shall be returned to the packer by the Administration after the inspection service is closed in the establishment.

(b) (1) In addition to the fee prescribed by paragraph (a) of this section, an initial advance deposit of $600 (which includes a minimum case fee of $200 for inspection service for the first 1,000 cases of canned shrimp packed under the regulations in this part) shall accompany each application for an initial inspection period; thereafter, seven advance monthly deposits of $600 each shall be made on or before the first day of each month, commencing July 1 and continuing through January 1, except that the Commissioner of Food and Drugs may require the full amount of advance deposits prescribed for an initial inspection period by this paragraph to accompany the application of an applicant who has defaulted in payment of any advance deposit due in a prior packing season.

(2) Whenever it is determined, without hearing, by the Commissioner of Food and Drugs that an establishment having the inspection service has been damaged by wind, fire, flood, or other calamity, to such an extent that packing operations cannot be resumed before the end of the fiscal year then current, no advance monthly deposits falling due after such calamity will be required from the operator of such establishment for that fiscal year; but whenever it is determined, without hearing, by the Commissioner of Food and Drugs that an establishment having the inspection service has been so damaged by any such calamity that packing operations must be suspended temporarily, and can be resumed before the end of the fiscal year then current, payment of the advance monthly deposits falling due after such calamity and before the month of resumption of operations shall be postponed until operations are resumed and thereupon shall be paid in equal monthly installments during the period between the time of resumption of operations and June 1 of the fiscal year then current: Provided, That in the event of a determination described in this subparagraph the total deposits made by the operator involved shall be charged with the cost of the service made available for the establishment, without regard to the method provided hereinafter for computing charges against deposits, and the balance of the total deposits remaining after such charges shall be returned by the Administration to the operator of the establishment after the completion of the fiscal year.

(3) Each application for an extension inspection period shall be accompanied by a deposit of $500, and at subsequent monthly intervals thereafter additional deposits of $500 shall be made; but if the final deposit is to cover a time of less than 30 days, then such deposit shall be at the rate of $16.67 for each day of such time.

(4) Advance deposits made under this paragraph shall be charged with the cost of the inspection service which has not been provided for by fees under paragraph (a) of this section and the $200 minimum case fee referred to in this paragraph. The deposits by each packer shall be so charged in the same ratio to the total deposits made under this paragraph and under § 155.42 (b) for the inspection of canned oysters as the number of months of inspection service (including number of months, if any, for inspecting canned oysters) rendered in such packer's establishment bears to the total number of months of inspection service for canned shrimp and canned oysters rendered in all establishments. The balance remaining after such charges have been made shall be returned by the Administration to the packers after the completion of the fiscal year. When inspection service is withdrawn from an establishment as authorized by § 155.13 (a), the Administration shall not return to the packer any of the advance deposits made for such establishments; such deposits shall be charged with the cost of the service made available for the establishment, without regard to the method as prescribed in this paragraph, and the balance which would have accrued to such packer shall remain to the credit of the Food and Drug Administration in the special account "Salaries and Expenses, Certification and Inspection Services."

(c) A separate fee shall be paid to cover all expenses, incurred in accordance with the regulations of the Government, for salary, travel, subsistence, and other purposes incident to inspection for the purpose of issuing a certificate of warehousing or export permit on canned shrimp stored or held at any place other than an establishment to which a seafood inspector is then assigned.

(d) When the cannery and the cannery warehouse of an establishment are located at different points of such distance apart that transportation between them is required for the inspector to perform his duties in the establishment, the packer shall furnish such transportation or shall pay an extra fee to cover all expenses therefor.

(e) All payments required by the regulations in this part shall be by bank draft or certified check, collectible at par, drawn to the order of the Treasurer, United States, and payable at Washington, D. C. All such drafts and checks, except those for the payment required by § 155.0, shall be delivered to the inspector and promptly scheduled to the Food and Drug Administration, Federal Security Agency, Washington, D. C., whereupon after making appropriate records thereof they will be endorsed and transmitted to the Chief Disbursing Officer, Division of Disbursement, Treasury Department, for deposit to the special account "Certification and Inspection Services, Food and Drug Administration."

(f) Refunds to the packers making advance deposits will be by check drawn on the Treasury of the United States pursuant to refund vouchers duly certified and approved by the designated administrative officers.

§ 155.13 Suspension, withdrawal, and termination of inspection service. (a) The Administration may suspend and the Administrator may withdraw inspection service in any establishment (1) upon failure of the packer to comply with any provision of §§ 155.0 to 155.13, or (2) upon the dissemination by the packer or any person in privity with him of any representation which is false or misleading in any particular regarding the application to any seafood of the inspection service provided by the regulations in this part.

(b) When inspection service is suspended in an establishment, as authorized by paragraph (a) of this section, the Administration shall not lengthen the inspection period in such establishment to compensate for any of the time of suspension.

(c) After inspection service for a fiscal year is closed in an establishment, but before the resumption of packing therein during the next fiscal year, the packer may terminate inspection service under the regulations in this part by giving written notice of such termination to the Administration.

INSPECTION OF CANNED OYSTERS

§ 155.30 Application for inspection service. (a) Applications for inspection service on canned oysters under the provisions of section 702A of the Federal Food, Drug, and Cosmetic Act shall be on forms supplied by the Food and Drug Administration. Except as provided in paragraph (b) of this section, no application for an initial inspection period filed with the Food and Drug Administration less than 60 days preceding the opening date of the canning season in any year shall be considered unless the applicant shows substantial cause. The opening date of the canning season in each State shall be the date set by the State agency responsible for controlling the opening date of the canning season in the State in which the plant for which the application is filed is located. A separate application shall be made for each inspection period in each establishment in which the service is applied for. Each application for an initial inspection period shall be accompanied by an advance deposit of $600, as prescribed by § 155.42 (b), except establishments receiving inspection service under the regulations for the inspection of canned shrimp (§§ 155.0 to 155.13), for which establishments no additional advance deposit will be charged. Such deposit shall be paid in the manner prescribed by § 155.42 (e).

(b) An application by two or more packers for inspection service in one establishment to be jointly or severally operated by them shall be accompanied by an agreement signed by such packers binding each to be jointly and severally liable for the payment of all fees and deposits required for such establishment by § 155.42.

§ 155.31 Granting or refusing inspection service; cancellation of application. (a) The Federal Security Administrator may grant the inspection service applied for when he determines that the establishment covered by such application complies with the requirements of § 155.35.

(b) The Administrator may refuse to grant the inspection service at any establishment for cause. In case of refusal he shall notify the applicant of the reason therefor and shall return to such applicant the payment which accompanied the application, less any expenses incurred by the Administration for preliminary inspection of the establishment, or for other purposes incident to such application.

(c) The applicant, by giving written notice to the Administrator, may withdraw his application for inspection service before an inspector is assigned to the establishment. In case of such withdrawal, the Administrator shall return to such applicant the payment which accompanied the application, less any salary and other expense incurred by the Administration incident to such application.

§ 155.32 Inspection periods. (a) The initial inspection period in each establishment in which inspection service under §§ 155.30 to 155.43 is granted shall be 4 months. Extension inspection periods, each of which shall begin at the close of the preceding inspection period, may be granted in such establishment if application therefor, accompanied by a deposit of $500 as prescribed by § 155.42, is made at least 2 weeks in advance of the close of such preceding inspection period: Provided, That upon request by the packer and with the approval of the Administration, such service during any inspection period may be transferred from one establishment to another to be operated by the same packer; but such transfer shall not serve to lengthen any inspection period or to take the place of an extension inspection period. In case of such transfer the packer shall furnish all necessary transportation of inspectors.

(b) Each initial inspection period shall begin on or after October 1 but not later than March 1 of each year. No initial or extension inspection period shall extend beyond June 30 of any year.

(c) The date of the beginning of each initial inspection period shall be regarded as the date specified for the beginning of the service in the application therefor, or such other date as may be specified by amendment to such application and approved by the Administration; but if the Administrator is not prepared to begin the service on the specified date, the date of the beginning of such period shall be regarded as the date on which the service is begun.

(d) Inspection service shall be continuous throughout the inspection periods.

§ 155.33 Assignment of inspectors. (a) An initial assignment of at least one inspector shall be made to each establishment in which inspection service under §§ 155.30 to 155.43 is granted. Thereafter the Administration shall adjust the number of inspectors assigned to each establishment to the number required for continuous and efficient inspection.

(b) Any inspector of the Administration shall have free access at all times to all parts of the establishment and to all fishing and freight boats and other conveyances for transporting oysters to such establishment.

§ 155.34 Uninspected oysters excluded from inspected establishments. (a) No establishment to which inspection service on canned oysters has been granted shall at any time thereafter can oysters which have not been inspected under §§ 155.30 to 155.43, or handle or store in such establishment any canned oysters which have not been so inspected; but this paragraph shall not apply to an establishment after termination of inspection service therein as authorized by § 155.43.

(b) All oysters delivered to or held in an establishment shall be subject to inspection, but certificates of inspection shall be issued under §§ 155.30 to 155.43 only on canned oysters.

§ 155.35 General requirements for plant and equipment. (a) All exterior openings of the cannery, including those of the shucking sheds, shall be adequately screened, and roofs and exterior walls shall be tight. When necessary, fly traps, fans, blowers, or other approved insect-control devices shall be installed.

(b) One or more suitable washing devices and one or more suitable inspection belts shall be installed for the washing and subsequent inspection of the oysters before delivery for steaming or other means of opening.

(c) Shucking sheds and packing rooms shall be separate, and fixtures and equipment thereof shall be so constructed and arranged as to permit thorough cleaning. Such sheds and rooms shall be adequately lighted and ventilated, and the floors thereof shall be tight and arranged for thorough cleaning and proper drainage. Open drains from shucking shed shall not enter packing room. If shucking shed and packing room are in separate buildings, such buildings shall not be more than 100 yards apart, unless, with the approval of the Food and Drug Administration, such conditions are maintained as will enable efficient inspection.

(d) All surfaces of washers, belts, tables, tanks, utensils, and other equipment with which unshucked or shucked oysters come in contact shall be of metal other than lead, or of other smooth, nonporous material that can be readily cleaned. Metal seams shall be smoothly soldered. Shucking tables shall be so constructed as to preclude contamination of working surfaces or products thereon from foot traffic or wheelbarrows or other containers used in delivering steamed oysters to such tables.

(e) Suitable means shall be provided for removal of shells and debris from shucking shed.

(f) Adequate supplies of steam and of clean, unpolluted running water shall be provided for washing, cleaning, and otherwise maintaining the establishment in a sanitary condition.

(g) Adequate toilet facilities of sanitary type shall be provided.

(h) An adequate number of sanitary wash basins, with liquid or powdered soap, shall be provided in both the shucking shed and packing room and shall be located immediately adjacent to entrances. Paper towels shall also be provided in the packing room.

(i) Signs requiring employees handling oysters to wash their hands after each absence from post of duty shall be conspicuously posted in the shucking shed and packing room and elsewhere about the cannery as conditions require.

(j) If steam boxes are used for opening the oysters, they shall be provided with adequate steam inlets, exhausts, drains, a safety valve, and a pressure gauge.

(k) Suitable devices shall be provided for washing the shucked oysters and for their subsequent drainage.

(l) One or more suitable devices shall be provided for the removal of shell and grit from the shucked oysters.

(m) One or more suitable inspection belts shall be installed for the inspection of shucked oysters.

(n) Equipment shall be provided for code marking cans.

(o) Each processing retort shall be fitted with at least the following equipment:

(1) An automatic control for regulating temperatures.

(2) An indicating mercury thermometer of a range from 170° F. to 270° F., with scale divisions not greater than 2°, installed either within a fitting attached to the shell of the retort or within the door or shell of the retort. If the thermometer is installed within a fitting, such fitting shall communicate with the chamber of the retort through an opening at least 1 inch in diameter. Such fitting shall be equipped with a bleeder at least ⅛ inch in diameter. If the thermometer is installed within the door or shell of the retort the bulb shall project at least two-thirds of its length into the principal chamber thereof.

(3) A recording thermometer of a range from 170° F. to 270° F. with scale divisions not greater than 2°. The bulb of such thermometer shall be installed as prescribed for the indicating mercury thermometer. The case which houses the charts and recording mechanism shall be provided with an approved lock, all keys to which shall be in the sole custody of the inspector.

(4) A pressure gauge of a range from 0 to 30 pounds with scale divisions not greater than 1 pound. Such gauge shall be connected to the chamber of the retort by a short gooseneck tube. The gauge shall be not more than 4 inches higher than the gooseneck.

(5) A blow-off vent of at least ¾-inch inside diameter in the top of the retort.

(6) A ⅛-inch bleeder in top of retort.

(p) Suitable space and facilities shall be provided for the inspector to prepare records and examine samples, and for the safekeeping of records and equipment.

§ 155.36 General operating conditions. (a) The decks and holds of boats tonging or dredging oysters for any inspected establishment shall be kept in a sanitary condition. Such boats shall be equipped with adequate means for protecting the oysters against contamination with bilge water.

(b) Canneries, cannery boats, and other cannery conveyances shall accept only live, clean, sound oysters taken from unpolluted areas. When necessary, ice or other suitable refrigerant shall be provided to prevent spoilage.

(c) The decks and holds of all boats and the bodies of other conveyances transporting oysters to the cannery shall be kept in sanitary condition.

(d) After delivery of each load of oysters to cannery, decks and holds of each boat and the body of each conveyance making such delivery shall be washed down with clean, unpolluted water and all debris shall be cleaned therefrom before leaving the cannery premises.

(e) All portions of the establishment shall be adequately lighted to enable the inspector to perform his duties properly.

(f) As often as is necessary to maintain sanitary conditions, unloading platforms and equipment shall be washed with clean, unpolluted water, and all debris shall be cleaned therefrom.

(g) After each delivery to the cannery oysters shall be handled expeditiously and under such conditions as to safeguard against contamination or spoilage.

(h) Before steaming or opening by other means the oysters shall be washed with clean, unpolluted water. After washing, the oysters shall be passed over the inspection belt and culled to remove dirty, muddy, or decomposed oysters and extraneous material. Muddy oysters may be returned to the washer for rewashing.

(i) Shucking knives may be maintained by the individual owner and shall be thoroughly washed with soap and water and chlorinated before use each day. Chlorine solution shall be maintained at a strength of 200 parts per million.

(j) The packer shall immediately destroy for food purposes any oysters in his possession condemned by the inspector as filthy, decomposed, putrid, or unfit for food. Oysters condemned on boat or unloading platform shall not be taken into the cannery but shall be either destroyed or returned to a bedding ground.

(k) The delivery of steamed oysters to shuckers by means of manually rolling, trundling or wheelbarrowing such oysters on or above shucking tables will not be permitted.

(l) When the oysters are opened by steaming, the time and temperature of steaming shall not exceed the minimum time and temperature necessary to open the oysters and slip one eye.

(m) Shells shall be removed from the shucking shed continuously and shall not be allowed to accumulate in or about the cannery or premises in such a manner as to create a nuisance.

(n) Offal, debris, or refuse from any source whatever shall not be allowed to accumulate in or about the cannery or premises.

(o) No shucked oysters shall be returned to the shucker after delivery to the weigher.

(p) The shucked oysters shall be washed by a suitable device and immediately drained. The time of washing shall not exceed the minimum time necessary for cleansing.

(q) When the oysters, at any time after shucking and until enclosed in the can, are transported from one building to another, they shall be protected by properly covered containers.

(r) All floors and other parts of the cannery and all cannery fixtures, equipment, and utensils shall be cleaned as often as is necessary to maintain them in sanitary condition.

(s) The packer shall require all employees handling oysters to wash their hands after each absence from post of duty.

(t) The packer shall require all employees to observe proper habits of cleanliness, and shall not knowingly employ in or about the cannery any person afflicted with infectious or contagious disease.

§ 155.37 Code marking. (a) Code marks shall be affixed to all cans and other immediate containers before they are placed in the processing retorts. Such marks shall show at least (1) the date of packing (2) the establishment where packed, and (3) the size of the oysters when such oysters were graded for size.

(b) Keys to all code marks shall be given to the inspector.

(c) Each lot shall be stored separately pending final inspection. For the purposes of the regulations in this part all cans or other immediate containers bearing the same code mark shall be regarded as comprising a lot.

§ 155.38 Processing. (a) The closure of the can or other immediate container and the time and temperature of processing the canned oysters shall be adequate to prevent bacterial spoilage.

(b) The following processes shall be the minimum employed for the containers indicated:

Size	Time at 240° F.	Time at 270° F.
211 x 400	23 minutes	13 minutes.
307 x 409	27 minutes	13 minutes.
401 x 411	25 minutes	13 minutes.

(c) The blow-off vent shall be open during the coming-up period until the mercury thermometer registers at least 215° F. Bleeders shall emit steam during the entire processing period.

(d) The inspector shall identify each record on the thermometer chart with the code mark of the lot to which such record relates and the date of such record. The Administration shall keep such charts for at least 5 years, and upon request shall make them available to the packer.

(e) The packer shall keep for at least one year all shipping records covering shipments from each lot, and upon request shall furnish such records to any inspector of the Administration.

§ 155.39 Examination after canning. (a) Adequate samples shall be drawn by the inspector from the lot of canned oysters identified by each code mark to determine whether or not such lot conforms to all requirements of the Federal Food, Drug, and Cosmetic Act, amendments thereto, and regulations thereunder.

(b) The packer shall destroy for food purposes, under the immediate supervision of the inspector, any lot of canned oysters condemned by the inspector as not complying with § 155.38, or as filthy, decomposed, putrid, or otherwise unfit for food.

(b) Two proofs, or one proof and one photostat thereof, or eight specimens of each label intended for use on inspected canned oysters or on or within the cases therefor, shall be submitted to the Food and Drug Administration for approval. If proofs or proof and photostat are submitted, eight specimens of the label shall be sent to the Administration after printing. The Food and Drug Administration is hereby authorized to approve labels for use on canned oysters inspected under §§ 155.30 to 155.43, if such labels when so used comply with the provisions of the Federal Food, Drug, and Cosmetic Act, amendments thereto, and regulations thereunder. The Food and Drug Administration may approve for temporary use labels which bear the mark required by paragraph (a) of this section, although such mark is not displayed in the manner prescribed by that paragraph. The Food and Drug Administration is also hereby authorized to revoke any such approval for cause. The Administration shall not approve labels for canned oysters intended for export under the provisions of § 155.41 (e).

(c) No commercial brand or brand name appearing on any label approved under paragraph (b) of this section, and no label simulating one so approved, shall be used thereafter on any canned oysters other than those which have been inspected under §§ 155.30 to 155.43: Provided, That this paragraph shall not apply to any packer's label after termination of inspection as provided in § 155.43, or to any distributor's label after 3 months' written notice by the owner thereof to the Food and Drug Administration that its use on inspected canned oysters has been discontinued and will not be resumed.

(d) Canned-oyster labeling authorized by or approved under paragraph (a) or (b) of this section shall be used only as authorized by §§ 155.30 to 155.43. Unauthorized use of such labeling renders the user liable to the penalties prescribed by the Federal Food, Drug, and Cosmetic Act, as amended.

§ 155.41 Certificates of inspection; warehousing and export permits. (a) After finding that the canned oysters comprising any parcel (1) have been handled, prepared, and packed in compliance with all provisions of §§ 155.30 to 155.43, (2) bear labeling approved as authorized under § 155.40 (b), and (3) comply with all the provisions of the Federal Food, Drug, and Cosmetic Act, amendments thereto, and regulations thereunder, the inspector shall issue a certificate showing that such canned oysters so comply. The certificate shall specify the code marks to which it applies, the quantity of the parcel so marked, the place where such parcel is stored, the size and kind of containers, the commercial brand name on the labels, and the condition of the oysters if they are broken. Such certificate shall become void if such labeling is removed, altered, obliterated, or replaced; but such canned oysters may be relabeled under the supervision of an inspector and recertified if the inspector finds that, after being relabeled, they comply with the requirements laid down by this paragraph for the issuance of a certificate.

(b) Unless covered by certificate, canned oysters shall be moved from an inspected establishment only for storage authorized under paragraph (c) of this section, or for export authorized under paragraph (e) of this section, or for destruction as provided by § 155.39 (b).

(c) Applications to move unlabeled canned oysters from storage in a warehouse elsewhere than in the establishment where such oysters were packed shall be on forms supplied by the Administration. The application shall give the name and location of the warehouse in which such canned oysters are to be stored, and shall be accompanied by an agreement signed by the operator of such warehouse that inspectors shall have free access at all times to all canned oysters so stored, and that conditions which will preserve the identity of each parcel of such canned oysters shall be continuously maintained pending issuance of a certificate thereon or removal as authorized by paragraph (d) of this section. If such application is approved and it appears to the inspector that the canned oysters comprising any parcel (1) have been packed in compliance with §§ 155.30 to 155.43, (2) are not slack-filled, and (3) conform, except for the absence of labeling, to all requirements of the Federal Food, Drug, and Cosmetic Act, amendments thereto, and regulations thereunder, the inspector shall issue to the applicant, on his request, a warehousing permit covering such canned oysters. Such permit shall specify the code marks to which it applies, the quantity of the parcel so marked, the places from and to which such parcel is to be moved, the size of the oysters, the size and kind of containers, and the condition of the oysters if they are broken. When any provision of the agreement is violated, the Administration may revoke any permit issued pursuant to such agreement, and may also revoke its approval of the application for warehousing which accompanied such agreement.

(d) Unless covered by certificate, canned oysters stored under the authority of paragraph (c) of this section shall be moved from the warehouse where stored only for restorage under such authority, or for return upon written permission of the inspector to the establishment where packed, or for export authorized under paragraph (e) of this section, or for destruction as provided by § 155.39 (b).

(e) Section 801 (d) of the Federal Food, Drug, and Cosmetic Act provides that a food intended for export shall not be deemed to be adulterated or misbranded under the act if it (1) accords to the specifications of the foreign purchaser, (2) is not in conflict with the laws of the country to which it is intended for export, and (3) is labeled on the outside of the shipping package to show that it is intended for export. An application to export canned oysters under the provisions of section 801 (d) of the act shall be accompanied by the original or a verified copy of the specifications of the foreign purchaser; if so required by the Administration, evidence showing that such canned oysters are not in conflict with the laws of the country to which they are intended for export; and, if shipment of labeled canned oysters is specified or directed, eight specimens of the labeling therefor. If canned oysters prepared or packed according to such specifications are not in conflict with the laws of such country, the Administration shall direct the inspector to issue to the applicant an export permit covering such canned oysters comprising any parcel ordered by such purchaser under such specifications, when the inspector finds that such canned oysters were packed in compliance with the requirements of §§ 155.30 to 155.43 regarding sanitary conditions and processing; are not filthy, decomposed, putrid, or otherwise unfit for food; accord to such specifications, and are labeled on the outside of the shipping package to show that they are intended for export. Such permit shall specify the code marks to which it applies and the quantity of the parcel so marked, and shall show that such canned oysters were packed under sanitary conditions, are wholesome, and accord to such specifications. The applicant shall furnish to the inspector documentary evidence showing the exportation of all such canned oysters. Canned oysters intended for export under this section shall not be stored in any warehouse in the United States elsewhere than in the establishment where such canned oysters were prepared or packed, except on written permission of the inspector, or of the chief of the Food and Drug Administration Station within whose territory such warehouse is located.

§ 155.42 Inspection fees. (a) Except as otherwise provided by the regulations in this part, the fee prescribed for inspection service shall be fifteen (15) cents for each case of canned oysters packed under such service in excess of the first 1,000 cases of oysters, or shrimp and oysters where the packer is also receiving inspection service under the regulations for the inspection of canned shrimp. For the purpose of this section, a case of canned oysters shall be 48 No. 1 cans (211 x 400) or the equivalent thereof. Advance deposits of not less than $300 shall be made whenever necessary to prevent arrears in the payment of fees, unless the Administration on an estimate of output authorizes payment in other amounts. Any excess advance deposits so made for the fiscal year shall be returned to the packer by the Administration after the inspection service is closed in the establishment.

(b) (1) In addition to the fee prescribed by paragraph (a) of this section, an initial advance deposit of $600 (which includes a minimum case fee of $200 for inspection service for the first 1,000 cases of canned oysters packed under the regulations in this part) shall accompany each application for an initial inspection period; thereafter, three advance monthly deposits of $600 each shall be made on or before the first day of each following consecutive month: Provided, That a packer who is concurrently receiving inspection service under the regulations for the inspection of canned shrimp shall not pay any advance deposits under this paragraph, except that the Commissioner of Food and Drugs may require the full amount of advance deposits prescribed for an initial inspection period by this paragraph to accompany the application of an applicant who has defaulted in payment of any advance deposit due in a prior packing season.

(2) Whenever it is determined, without hearing, by the Commissioner of Food and Drugs that an establishment having the inspection service has been damaged by wind, fire, flood, or other calamity, to such an extent that packing operations cannot be resumed before the end of the fiscal year then current, no advance monthly deposits falling due after such calamity will be required from the operator of such establishment for that fiscal year; but whenever it is determined without hearing, by the Commissioner of Food and Drugs that an establishment having the inspection service has been so damaged by any such calamity that packing operations must be suspended temporarily, and can be resumed before the end of the fiscal year then current, payment of the advance monthly deposits falling due after such calamity and before the month of resumption of operations shall be postponed until operations are resumed and thereupon shall be paid in equal monthly installments during the period between the time of resumption of operations and June 1 of the fiscal year then current: Provided, That in the event of a determination described in this subparagraph the total deposits made by the operator involved shall be charged with the cost of the service made available for the establishment, without regard to the method provided hereinafter for computing charges against deposits, and the balance of the total deposits remaining after such charges shall be returned by the Administration to the operator of the establishment after the completion of the fiscal year.

(3) Each application for an extension period shall be accompanied by a deposit of $500 and at subsequent monthly intervals thereafter additional deposits of $500 shall be made; but if the final deposit is to cover a time of less than 30 days, then such deposit shall be at the rate of $16.67 for each day of such time.

(4) Advance deposits made under this paragraph shall be charged with the cost of the inspection service which has not been provided for by fees under paragraph (a) of this section and the $200 minimum case fee referred to in this paragraph. The deposits by each packer shall be so charged in the same ratio to the total deposits made under this paragraph and under § 155.12 (b) for the inspection of canned shrimp as the number of months of inspection service (including number of months, if any, for inspecting canned shrimp) rendered in such packer's establishment bears to the total number of months of inspection service for canned oysters and canned shrimp rendered in all establishments. The balance remaining after such charges have been made shall be returned by the Administration to the packers after the completion of the fiscal year. When inspection service is withdrawn from an establishment as authorized by § 155.43 (a), the Administration shall not return to the packer any of the advance deposits made for such establishments; such deposits shall be charged with the cost of the service made available for the establishment, without regard to the method as prescribed in this paragraph, and the balance which would have accrued to such packer shall remain to the credit of the Food and Drug Administration in the special account "Salaries and Expenses, Certification and Inspection Services."

(c) A separate fee shall be paid to cover all expenses, incurred in accordance with the regulations of the Government, for salary, travel, subsistence, and other purposes incident to inspection for the purpose of issuing a certificate or warehousing or export permit on canned oysters stored or held at any place other than an establishment to which a seafood inspector is then assigned.

(d) When the cannery and the cannery warehouse of an establishment are located at different points of such distance apart that transportation between them is required for the inspector to perform his duties in the establishment, the packer shall furnish such transportation or shall pay an extra fee to cover all expenses therefor.

(e) All payments required by the regulations in this part shall be by bank draft or certified check, collectible at par, drawn to the order of the Treasurer, United States, and payable at Washington, D. C. All such drafts and checks, except those for the payment required by § 155.30 (a), shall be delivered to the inspector and promptly scheduled to the Food and Drug Administration, Federal Security Agency, Washington, D. C., whereupon after making appropriate records thereof they will be endorsed and transmitted to the Chief Disbursing Officer, Division of Disbursement, Treasury Department, for deposit to the special account "Certification and Inspection Services, Food and Drug Administration."

(f) Refunds to the packers making advance deposits will be by check drawn on the Treasury of the United States pursuant to refund vouchers duly certified and approved by the designated administrative officers.

§ 155.43 Suspension, withdrawal, and termination of inspection service. (a) The Administration may suspend and the Administrator may withdraw inspection service in any establishment (1) upon failure of the packer to comply with any provision of §§ 155.30 to 155.43, or (2) upon the dissemination by the packer or any person in privity with him of any representation which is false or misleading in any particular regarding the application to any seafood of the inspection service provided by the regulations in this part.

(b) When inspection service is suspended in an establishment, as authorized by paragraph (a) of this section, the Administration shall not lengthen the inspection period in such establishment to compensate for any of the time of suspension.

(c) After inspection service for a fiscal year is closed in an establishment, but before the resumption of packing therein during the next fiscal year, the packer may terminate inspection service under the regulations in this part by giving written notice of such termination to the Administration.

Dated: November 4, 1948.

TITLE 24—HOUSING CREDIT

Chapter VI—Public Housing Administration

PART 611—LOW-RENT HOUSING AND SLUM CLEARANCE PROGRAM; POLICY

ELIGIBILITY FOR LOW-RENT PROJECTS

§ 611.7. Exclusion of military disability and death benefits in determining eligibility for low-rent projects—(a) Statement of policy. (1) Pursuant to the authorization granted in section 502 (b) of Public Law 901, 80th Congress, the PHA has determined that it is equitable and in the public interest, in determining eligibility for admission to and continued occupancy of low-rent projects to exclude amounts paid by the United States Government for disability or death occurring in connection with military service when the total net income of the family, including such disability and death benefits, is insufficient for the family to obtain in the private market adequate housing which is available and suitable to the family's requirements.

(2) This policy is applicable to Public Law 412, Public Law 671 and PWA Projects. It shall apply immediately to all directly operated and leased low-rent projects. Although this policy is not mandatory for locally owned projects under contract before October 5, 1948, local authorities may, at their discretion, immediately adopt this policy with respect to determining eligibility for locally-owned low-rent projects if permitted by local law.

(3) Amounts paid by the United States Government for disability or death occurring in connection with military service may be excluded from net family income only in connection with the determination of eligibility; such amounts are to be included in net family income for determination of the rent to be paid.

(4) Military service as used herein is not confined to service in World War II; therefore this policy is applicable to the family of any person who at any time was or is in military service with one of the branches of the armed forces of the United States where the payment is made for disability or death occurring in connection with such service.

(b) Local responsibility. Administering authorities of low-rent projects subject to or operating under this policy will be required to:

(1) Determine periodically the minimum amount of income necessary for families of various sizes and composition to obtain adequate housing available in the private market.

(2) Revise existing management resolutions or programs to reflect this policy.

(3) Ascertain and verify whether the amounts received by the payee from the United States Government are payments made for disability or death occurring in connection with military service. (Sec. 502 (b), Pub. Law 901, 80th Cong.)

REVOCATION, TRANSFER AND REVISION OF REGULATIONS

The material contained in Part 204, Chapter II of Title 10 is hereby revoked.

The material contained in § 201.2, Chapter II of Title 10 is hereby revised, transferred and incorporated in Part 824 as follows:

Sec.
824.1 General.
824.2 Definition.
824.3 Requests by public officials.
824.4 Requests by nonprofit civic agencies on occasions of national interest.
824.5 Requests by organizations representing the public in local civic-sponsored events.
824.6 Participation requiring indemnity bond.
824.7 Participation not requiring indemnity bond.
824.8 Bond required.
824.9 Rules for participation.
824.10 Prohibitions.

AUTHORITY: §§ 824.1 to 824.10 issued under R. S. 161; 5 U. S. C. 22.

§ 824.1 General. The Chief of Staff United States Air Force and Commanding Officers of United States Air Force Bases may order or authorize participation in ceremonies, celebrations, and exhibitions on selected occasions when desirable for the promotion of interests in commercial aeronautics or the development of airports, landing fields, and airways. Participation may take the form of:

(a) Participation in air demonstrations on carefully selected occasions.

(b) Participation of Air Force troops in parades, public exhibitions, etc.

(c) Furnishing of Air Force aeronautical equipment for public ground exhibitions.

§ 824.2 Definition. Air demonstrations are defined as any flying by military aircraft for the purpose of assisting in publicity, fairs, exhibitions, demonstrations, ceremonies, and similar events sponsored by public officials, nonprofit civic agencies or organizations representing the public in local civic-sponsored events.

§ 824.3 Requests by public officials. (a) Favorable consideration will be given each request that is submitted by public officials for Air Force participation in such events as, air coverage for parades, celebrations held in honor of veterans organizations, and public events which are a vehicle for stimulation of interest in aviation in general.

(b) The degree of Air Force participation will be governed by availability of qualified personnel and equipment on hand in area of sponsoring community.

(c) Requests to local commanding officers must be forwarded through channels to higher headquarters. Those events complying with the provisions of § 824.5 may be approved or disapproved by the Commanding General of the Major Air Command. All other requests must be forwarded to Headquarters, United States Air Force for approval or disapproval by the Chief of Staff.

§ 824.4 Requests by nonprofit civic agencies in events of national interest. (a) Participation by Air Force units on requests originated and sponsored by nonprofit civic agencies for events of national aviation interest is limited to occasions of military significance, with particular reference to their importance from an aviation viewpoint, and to times and conditions which render participation propitious.

(b) Requests to local commanding officers must be forwarded through channels to Headquarters, United States Air Force for approval or disapproval by the Chief of Staff.

§ 824.5 Requests by organizations representing the public in local civic-sponsored events. (a) Participation of Air Force Units in cooperation with locally civic-sponsored events, as distinguished from those of distinct national interest, is confined to occasions of military significance with particular reference to their importance from an aviation viewpoint, to times and conditons which render participation propitious and with the following limitations:

(1) The degree of participation will be governed by availability of qualified personnel and equipment available in the area.

(2) There must be no interference with the normal missions of the units.

(3) There must be no additional expense to the government.

(b) No indemnity bond or liability insurance indorsement will be required in events for which no admission is charged and where it is agreed that all regulations of the Civil Aeronautics Administration and Department of the Air Force will be observed.

(c) Requests by organizations to local commanding officers must be forwarded to the Commanding General of the Major Air Command for approval or disapproval.

§ 824.6 Participation requiring indemnity bond. Except for those instances which satisfy the requirements of §824.5 demonstration flights from or over other than Government owned or leased fields will not be authorized unless a bond of indemnity as set forth in § 824.8 for damage to property or injury to persons be furnished the Government at least ten days before the exhibition flight.

§ 824.7 Participation not requiring indemnity bond. (a) Demonstration flights conducted at places owned or leased by United States Government.

(b) Public exhibition, not involving flight, of Air Force aircraft and equipment regardless of place of exhibition.

(c) Flights of aircraft to and from places of exhibition.

(d) Events within the provisions of § 824.5 (b).

§ 824.8 Bond required—(a) Type. A liability indorsement to a liability insurance policy will be considered as adequate indemnity bond coverage.

(b) Amount. An indemnity or liability insurance indorsement to the extent of $50,000 each person, $500,000 each accident, for personal injury or death and $250,000 for property damage in connection with flying demonstrations is considered adequate for normal Air Force participation.

(c) Scope of coverage. (1) The bond or liability policy must state clearly the intent to cover accidents caused by or resulting from the maintenance or use, of aircraft or equipment owned by the United States Government and must also extend to cover the United States Government, its officers or employees acting within the scope of their office or employment.

(2) Coverage need not include bodily injury accidents or death resulting therefrom to officers or employees of the United States and/or damages to or destruction of United States Government aircraft or equipment.

§ 824.9 Rules for participation. (a) Airport must be satisfactory.

(b) Organization charging admission and requesting participation must:

(1) When the aircraft require more than normal use of fuel, provide gas and oil of Air Force specifications during the participation and return of aircraft to the base to the extent of filling the tanks on departure.

(2) Defray the personal expenses of participating personnel during the elapsed time they are away from their base.

(3) Provide adequate transportation facilities for participating personnel.

(4) Furnish indemnity bond as set forth in § 824.8.

§ 824.10 Prohibitions. (a) Participating aircraft will not be flown in any race nor will they engage in formation acrobatics or other acrobatics except on express approval of the Chief of Staff, United States Air Force.

(b) The word "circus" will not be used in referring to aerial demonstrations and exhibitions, insofar as United States Air Force equipment and personnel are concerned.

Chapter I—Coast Guard: Inspection and Navigation

Appendix A—Waivers of Navigation and Vessel Inspection Laws and Regulations

[CGFR 48-57]

CERTAIN OFFICERS OF VESSELS TO BE MEMBERS OF UNITED STATES NAVAL RESERVE

CANCELLATION OF WAIVER

Pursuant to the authority vested in me as Commandant, United States Coast Guard, by the act of March 31, 1947, as amended (Pub. Laws 27, 293, 423, 80th Cong.), and upon the advice of the Chairman, United States Maritime Commission, I hereby find it no longer necessary in the interest of the orderly reconversion of the merchant marine from wartime to peacetime operations to continue in effect beyond December 15, 1948, the general waiver of navigation and vessel inspection laws and regulations which waived compliance of section 302 (g) of the Merchant Marine Act, 1936, as amended (46 U. S. C. 1132 (g)), requiring that all of the deck and engineer officers on the United States Maritime Commission's vessels, if eligible, be members of the United States Naval Reserve:

Therefore, it is ordered, That the waiver of navigation and vessel inspection laws and regulations entitled "Requirement For Certain Officers to be Members of United States Naval Reserve", dated February 27, 1942, and published in the FEDERAL REGISTER February 28, 1942 (7 F. R. 1601, 46 CFR 1943 Supp. 2078), shall be canceled effective December 15, 1948: Provided, That no penalty prescribed by law shall be imposed for failure to comply with any provision of law or regulation because of the employment prior to December 15, 1948, of persons allowed under the waiver.

(Pub. Laws 27, 293, 423, 80th Cong.)

Dated: November 3, 1948.

Chapter I—Interstate Commerce Commission

PART 10—UNIFORM SYSTEM OF ACCOUNTS FOR STEAM ROADS

ROAD AND EQUIPMENT ACCOUNTS AND EXPENSE ACCOUNTS

At a session of the Interstate Commerce Commission, Division 1, held at its office in Washington, D. C., on the 27th day of October A. D. 1948.

The matter of modifying the "Uniform System of Accounts for Steam Railroads, Issue of 1943," being under consideration pursuant to section 20 of the Interstate Commerce Act, as amended, and the modifications which are attached hereto and made a part hereof being deemed necessary for proper administration of the provisions of Part I of the act (24 Stat. 386, 54 Stat. 917, 49 U. S. C. 20(3)): It is ordered, That:

(1) Any interested party may on or before November 30, 1948, file with the Commission a written statement of reasons why the said modifications should not become effective as hereinafter ordered and may request oral argument if desired; and,

(2) Unless otherwise ordered, the said modifications shall become effective January 1, 1949; and,

(3) A copy of this order including the attached modifications shall be served upon every steam railroad subject to the act and upon every trustee, receiver, executor, administrator, or assignee of any such steam railroad, and notice of this order shall be given to the general public by depositing a copy thereof in the office of the Secretary of the Commission at Washington, D C., and by filing it with the Director of the Division of the Federal Register.

By the Commission, Division 1.

[SEAL] W. B. BARTEL,
Secretary.

Modifications of the Uniform System of Accounts for Steam Railroads, issue of 1943.

ROAD AND EQUIPMENT ACCOUNTS

1. In § 10.3 Grading, cancel the first sentence of the text and substitute for it the following sentence: "This account shall include the cost of clearing and grading the roadway, and of constructing protection for the roadway, tracks, embankments, and cuts."

Insert the following additional items under "Details of roadbed and items of expense":

Dikes (including those of earthen construction which are intended to function indefinitely).

New channels for streams.

EXPENSE ACCOUNTS

MAINTENANCE OF ROADWAY

2. In § 10.202 Roadway maintenance, cancel paragraph (d) Bank protection and substitute for it the following:

(d) Bank protection. The cost of repairs to riprap, piling, dikes, piers, breakwaters, revetments and retaining walls, which were placed or constructed for bank protection.

TITLE 50—WILDLIFE

Chapter I—Fish and Wildlife Service, Department of the Interior

Subchapter C—National Wildlife Refuges; Individual Regulations

PART 29—PLAINS REGION NATIONAL WILDLIFE REFUGES

HUNTING IN UPPER SOURIS NATIONAL WILDLIFE REFUGE, NORTH DAKOTA

Basis and purpose. On the basis of observations and reports of field representatives of the Fish and Wildlife Service and of Conservation Agents of the North Dakota Game and Fish Department, it has been determined there is a general surplus of deer in much of North Dakota and that the reduction of the population can be facilitated by opening certain National Wildlife Refuges in the State to the public hunting of deer.

Section 29.919a is amended to read:

§ 29.919a Upper Souris National Wildlife Refuge, North Dakota; hunting. Deer, coyotes, and fox may be taken during the open season prescribed by the Game and Fish Department of the State of North Dakota for the hunting of deer during the calendar year 1948 on certain lands, hereinafter specified, of the United States within the Upper Souris National Wildlife Refuge, North Dakota.

(a) Area open to hunting. All the lands of the United States except the area within one-half mile of the headquarters and subheadquarters of the Upper Souris Refuge shall be open to such hunting.

(b) Entry. Entry on and use of the Refuge are governed by Part 12 of this chapter, and strict compliance therewith is required. Hunters must follow such routes of travel within the Refuge as are designated by posting.

(c) State laws. Strict compliance with all State laws and regulations is required, and any person who hunts on the Refuge must have in his possession and exhibit at the request of any authorized Federal or State officer a valid State hunting license and permit for the taking of deer if such is required by the State laws and regulations. The license and permit will serve as a Federal permit for entry on the Refuge for the purpose of hunting deer. (Sec. 10, 45 Stat. 1222, 16 U. S. C. 715i; Reorg. Plan No. II of 1939, 3 CFR Cum. Supp., 4 F. R. 2731; Regulations, Fish and Wildlife Service, Dec. 19, 1940, 5 F. R. 5284, as amended.)

INTERSTATE NATURAL GAS CO., INC.

NOTICE OF APPLICATION

NOVEMBER 4, 1948.

Notice is hereby given that on October 25, 1948, an application was filed with the Federal Power Commission by Interstate Natural Gas Company, Inc. (Applicant), a Delaware corporation with its principal place of business at Monroe, Louisiana, for a certificate of public convenience and necessity pursuant to section 7 of the Natural Gas Act, as amended, authorizing the construction and operation of a tap, meter and regulator on Applicant's system, in Ward 4, Baton Rouge Parish, Louisiana, at or near the point where Applicant's pipeline crosses State Route 866.

Applicant proposes by means of the facilities, described above, to sell and deliver natural gas to the Plains-Port Hudson Gas Company, Inc. for the purpose of serving the area in and adjacent to Plains, Louisiana, which has a population of approximately 150 persons. The estimated annual natural gas consumption of this area is 1,440 M. c. f., with an estimated peak demand of 14 M. c. f. per day. The estimated total over-all capital cost of the proposed facilites is $635.

Any interested State commission is requested to notify the Federal Power Commission whether the Application should be considered under the cooperative provisons of § 1.37 of the Commission's rules of practice and procedure and, if so, to advise the Federal Power Commission as to the nature of its interest in the matter and whether it desires a conference, the creation of a board, or a joint or concurrent hearing, together with reasons for such request.

The application of the Interstate Natural Gas Company, Inc. is on file with the Commission and open to public inspection. Any person desiring to be heard or to make any protest with reference to the application shall file with the Federal Power Commission, Washington 25, D. C., not later than 15 days from the date of publication of this notice in the FEDERAL REGISTER, a petition to intervene or protest. Such petition or protest shall conform to the requirements of §§ 1.8 or 1.10, whichever is applicable, of the Commission's rules of practice and procedure.

DELAWARE COACH CO. AND SOUTHERN PENNSYLVANIA BUS CO.

ORDER PERMITTING DECLARATION TO BECOME EFFECTIVE

At a regular session of the Securities and Exchange Commission, held at its office in the city of Washington, D. C., on the 4th day of November 1948.

Delaware Coach Company ("Coach Company"), a wholly-owned subsidiary of The United Gas Improvement Company, a registered holding company, and Coach Company's wholly-owned subsidiary, Southern Pennsylvania Bus Company ("Bus Company"), having filed a joint declaration pursuant to section 12 of the Public Utility Holding Company Act of 1935 with respect to the following transaction:

Delaware Coach Company, on or before December 31, 1948, will advance to Bus Company on open book account without interest an aggregate of $400,000 in cash. The proceeds of the advance will be used by Bus Company, together with other cash, to defray, in part, the cost of rebuilding a garage recently destroyed by fire as well as for the purchase of twelve new buses.

Said joint declaration having been duly filed, and notice of said filing having been given in the form and manner prescribed by Rule U-23 promulgated pursuant to said act and the Commission not having received a request for hearing with respect to said joint declaration within the period specified in said notice, or otherwise, and not having ordered a hearing thereon; and

The Commission finding that the applicable requirements of the act are satisfied, and deeming it appropriate in the public interest and in the interest of investors and consumers that said joint declaration be permitted to become effective:

It is hereby ordered, Pursuant to Rule U-23 and the applicable provisions of the act, and subject to the terms and conditions prescribed in Rule U-24 that the joint declaration be, and the same hereby is, permitted to become effective.

GEORGIA POWER CO.

ORDER GRANTING APPLICATION

At a regular session of the Securities and Exchange Commission, held at its office in the city of Washington, D. C., on the 3d day of November 1948.

Georgia Power Company ("Georgia"), a public utility subsidiary of The Southern Company, a registered holding company and a wholly owned subsidiary of The Commonwealth & Southern Corporation, also a registered holding company, having filed an application and an amendment thereto pursuant to section 6 (b) of the Public Utility Holding Company Act of 1935 (the "act") and Rule U-50 promulgated thereunder, with respect to the following proposed transaction:

Georgia proposes to issue and sell, pursuant to the competitive bidding requirements of Rule U-50, $12,000,000 principal amount of its First Mortgage Bonds --% series, due 1978, to be issued under and secured by Georgia's present indenture dated as of March 1, 1941, as supplemented by indentures dated as of March 1, 1941, December 1, 1947 and to be dated as of December 1, 1948. The proceeds from the sale of the new bonds will be used to provide a portion of the funds required by Georgia for the construction or acquisition of property additions to its utility plant.

The application having been filed on October 15, 1948, and an amendment thereto having been filed on October 29, 1948, and notice of said filing having been given in the form and manner prescribed by Rule U-23 promulgated pursuant to said act, and the Commission not having received a request for hearing with respect to said application, as amended, within the period specified in said notice or otherwise and not having ordered a hearing thereon; and

The proposed issuance and sale of said bonds by Georgia having been expressly authorized by the Georgia Public Service Commission, the State commission of the State in which Georgia is organized and doing business; and

The Commission finding with respect to said application as amended, that the requirements of section 6 (b) are satisfied and that there is no basis for the imposition of terms and conditions other than those hereinafter stated and the Commission also deeming it appropriate to grant applicant's request that the order herein become effective forthwith upon issuance:

It is ordered, Pursuant to Rule U-23 and the applicable provisions of said act, that said application, as amended, be, and the same hereby is, granted, effective forthwith, subject to the terms and conditions contained in Rule U-24 and subject to the following additional conditions:

(1) That the proposed sale of bonds of Georgia shall not be consummated until the results of competitive bidding pursuant to Rule U-50 shall have been made a matter of record in this proceeding, and a further order shall have been entered by this Commission in the light of the record so completed, which order may contain such further terms and conditions as may then be deemed appropriate.

(2) That jurisdiction be reserved with respect to all fees and expenses of counsel to be paid in connection with the proposed transaction.

By the Commission.

ALLENTOWN-BETHLEHEM GAS CO.

NOTICE OF FILING AND ORDER FOR HEARING

At a regular session of the Securities and Exchange Commission, held at its office in the city of Washington, D. C., on the 4th day of November 1948.

Notice is hereby given that an application has been filed with this Commission pursuant to the Public Utility Holding Company Act of 1935 by Allentown-Bethlehem Gas Company ("Allentown"), a gas utility subsidiary of The United Gas Improvement Company, a registered holding company. Applicant has designated section 6 (b) of the act and Rule U-50 promulgated thereunder as applicable to the proposed transaction.

All interested persons are referred to said application which is on file in the offices of this Commission for a statement of the transaction therein proposed, which is summarized as follows:

Allentown proposes to issue and sell, at par, $1,500,000 principal amount of its 3¼% First Mortgage Bonds due 1968, to the Metropolitan Life Insurance Company and the Penn Mutual Life Insurance Company, in amounts of $750,000 cash. The latter institutions represent that they are purchasing the bonds for investment and not for resale.

The proceeds from the sale of said bonds, together with treasury cash, will be applied by Allentown for construction purposes and to repay short-term bank loans, presently totaling $300,000 incurred for the purpose of financing its construction program.

Allentown's presently outstanding bonded indebtedness consisting of $2,339,000 due 1965 is owned by two savings banks and five life insurance companies, including the above-named institutions. Allentown proposes, with the consent of the holders of at least 85% of its present bonds, to amend its existing mortgage indenture to bring the same into compliance with the standards which this Commission has deemed appropriate pursuant to the Public Utility Holding Company Act of 1935 and the Trust Indenture Act of 1939.

Allentown, for reasons set forth in the application, requests the Commission to except the proposed issuance and sale from the competitive bidding requirements of Rule U-50.

Allentown states that the proposed transaction is subject to the jurisdiction of the Public Utility Commission of the State of Pennsylvania, in which state the company is organized and doing business, and that a copy of such Commission's order approving the issuance and sale of $1,500,000 principal amount of its 3¼% First Mortgage Bonds, due 1968 will be supplied by amendment.

It appearing to the Commission that it is appropriate in the public interest and in the interest of investors and consumers that a hearing be held with respect to the matters set forth in said application and that said application should not be granted or permitted to become effective except pursuant to further order of this Commission:

It is ordered. That a hearing on said application pursuant to the applicable provisions of the act and the rules and regulations thereunder be held on November 18, 1948, at 10:00 a. m., e. s. t., at the office of this Commission, 425 Second Street NW., Washington 25, D. C. On such date the hearing room clerk in Room 101 will advise as to the room in which such hearing shall be held. Any person desiring to be heard or otherwise wishing to participate in these proceedings shall file with the Secretary of this Commission, on or before November 15, 1948, a written request relative thereto as provided by Rule XVII of the Commission's rules of practice.

It is further ordered, That Robert P. Reeder or any other officer or officers of this Commission designated by it for that purpose shall preside at such hearing. The officer so designated to preside at such hearing is hereby authorized to exercise all powers granted to the Commission under section 18 (c) of the act and to a hearing officer under the Commission's rules of practice.

The Division of Public Utilities of the Commission having advised the Commission that it has made a preliminary examination of the application and that, upon the basis thereof, the following matters and questions are presented for consideration without prejudice to its specifying additional matters or questions upon further examination:

1. Whether the proposed sale of bonds by Allentown shall be excepted from the competitive bidding requirements of Rule U-50.

2. Generally, whether terms and conditions, if any, with respect to the proposed transactions should be prescribed in the public interest or for the protection of investors or consumers, and, if so, what such terms and conditions should be.

It is further ordered, That the Secretary of the Commission shall serve a copy of this notice and order by registered mail on Allentown. The United Gas Improvement Company and the Public Utility Commission of the State of Pennsylvania, that notice be given to all other persons by publication of a copy of this notice and order in the FEDERAL REGISTER and by general release of the Commission distributed to the press and mailed to the mailing list for releases under the Public Utility Holding Company Act of 1935.

By the Commission.

KENTUCKY UTILITIES CO.

NOTICE OF FILING

At a regular session of the Securities and Exchange Commission held at its office in the city of Washington, D. C., on the 3d day of November A. D. 1948.

Notice is hereby given that Kentucky Utilities Company ("Kentucky"), a public utility subsidiary of The Middle West Corporation, a registered holding company, has filed a declaration pursuant to the Public Utility Holding Company Act of 1935 ("act"). The declarant has designated sections 11 (b) (1) and 12 (d) of the act and Rule U-44 thereunder as applicable to the proposed transactions.

Notice is further given that any person may, not later than November 15, 1948, at 5:30 p. m., e. s. t., request the Commission in writing that a hearing be held on such matter, stating the reasons for such request, the nature of his interest and the issues of fact or law raised by said declaration, which he desires to controvert, or may request that he be notified if the Commission should order a hearing thereon. Any such request should be addressed: Secretary, Securities and Exchange Commission, 425 Second Street NW., Washington 25, D. C. At any time after November 15, 1948, said declaration, as filed or as amended, may be permitted to become effective as provided in Rule U-23 of the rules and regulations promulgated under the act, or the Commission may exempt such transactions as provided in Rule U-20 (a) and Rule U-100 thereof.

All interested persons are referred to said declaration, which is on file in the offices of this Commission for a statement of the transactions therein proposed which are summarized as follows:

Kentucky proposes to sell to Western Kentucky Gas Company, a nonaffiliated company, all of Kentucky's gas utility properties located in and about the City of Danville, Kentucky, pursuant to a contract dated September 21, 1948. The properties are to be sold for a cash consideration of $155,500 subject to closing adjustments. It is estimated by the company, on the basis of Kentucky's balance sheet at August 31, 1948, that the cash consideration plus closing adjustments will result in net proceeds of approximately $169,000. The proceeds to be received by Kentucky from the proposed sale will be deposited with the Trustee under the company's mortgage dated May 1, 1947, and will be withdrawn, within one year, in accordance with the provisions of said mortgage and will be used for the purpose of making additions and extensions to its electric utility plant and system.

The properties to be sold by Kentucky are stated on the books of the company on the basis of original cost as determined and approved by the Public Service Commission of Kentucky, plus additions and less retirements at cost since date of such determination. At August 31, 1948, the book carrying value of these gas utility properties amounted to $157,644.

The filing indicates that on or about May 1, 1948, the company sent data with respect to the said gas properties to approximately 20 persons or corporations and invited offers. In response thereto three offers were received for the said gas properties and negotiations, conducted at arm's-length, with the interested persons eventuated in the contract with Western Kentucky Gas Company.

The filing states that the proposed sale and acquisition is subject to the jurisdiction of the Public Service Commission of Kentucky.

Kentucky requests that the Commission's order be issued as soon as practicable in order that the proposed sale may be consummated promptly, that said order become effective forthwith, and that it conform to the formal requirements of sections 371, 372, 373, and 1808 (f) of the Internal Revenue Code.

CONSOLIDATED NATURAL GAS CO. AND EAST OHIO GAS CO.

NOTICE REGARDING FILING

At a regular session of the Securities and Exchange Commission, held at its office in the city of Washington, D. C., on the 3d day of November 1948.

Notice is hereby given that a joint application-declaration has been filed with this Commission pursuant to the Public Utility Holding Company Act of 1935 by Consolidated Natural Gas Company ("Consolidated"), a registered holding company, and its subsidiary, The East Ohio Gas Company ("East Ohio"). Applicants-declarants have designated sections 7, 10, 12 (d) and 12 (f) of the act as applicable to the proposed transactions.

Notice is further given that any interested person may, not later than November 23, 1948, at 5:30 p. m., e. s. t., request the Commission in writing that a hearing be held on such matter, stating the nature of his interest, the reasons for such request and the issues, if any, of fact or law raised by said application-declaration proposed to be controverted, or may request that he be notified if the Commission should order a hearing thereon. Any such request should be addressed: Secretary, Securities and Exchange Commission, 425 Second Street NW., Washington 25, D. C. At any time after November 23, 1948, said application-declaration, as filed or as amended, may be granted and permitted to become effective as provided in Rule U-23 of the rules and regulations promulgated under the act, or the Commission may exempt such transactions as provided in Rules U-20 (a) and U-100 thereof.

All interested persons are referred to said application-declaration which is on file in the office of this Commission for a statement of the transactions therein proposed, which are summarized as follows:

East Ohio proposes to amend its Articles of Incorporation so as to substitute for all of its authorized and outstanding preferred stock, consisting of 100,000 shares of 7% preferred stock of a par value of $100 per share, 100,000 shares of common stock of a par value of $100 per share. Consolidated, as owner of all the outstanding capital stock of East Ohio, consisting of the above preferred stock and 415,000 shares of common stock of a par value of $100 per share, will surrender such preferred stock and acquire the common stock to be issued.

AMERICAN GAS AND ELECTRIC CO.

ORDER GRANTING EXEMPTION

At a regular session of the Securities and Exchange Commission, held at its office in the city of Washington, D. C., on the 3d day of November A. D. 1948.

American Gas and Electric Company ("American Gas"), a registered holding company, having filed an application pursuant to Rule U-100 of the general rules and regulations promulgated under the Public Utility Holding Company Act of 1935 for exemption from the requirements of Rule U-44 thereof with respect to the following transactions:

Pursuant to a plan under section 11 (e) of the act heretofore approved by the Commission, American Gas has disposed of 880,984 shares of common stock of Atlantic City Electric Company ("Atlantic City") and now owns 269,016 shares of such common stock. In order to comply with the provisions of such plan American Gas now intends to dispose of such remaining 269,016 shares of Atlantic City common stock by declaring the regular dividend of 25¢ and $^{7}/_{100}$ of a share of common stock of Atlantic City on each share of common stock of American Gas and in addition authorizing the distribution of $^{1}/_{100}$ of a share of the common stock of Atlantic City as an extra dividend, such dividend to be payable on December 15, 1948 to stockholders of record on November 10, 1948, and by paying a similar regular dividend and extra dividend on March 15, 1949 to stockholders of record on February 9, 1949. After payment of such dividend American Gas will hold less than 100 shares of common stock of Atlantic City which it proposes to sell on the "over the counter" market.

It appearing to the Commission that it is not necessary or appropriate in the public interest or for the protection of investors and consumers that such transactions be subject to the requirements of Rule U-44;

It is ordered, Pursuant to the provisions of said Rule U-100 (a) that said application for exemption be and hereby is granted, effective forthwith.

NOTICE REGARDING FILING

At a regular session of the Securities and Exchange Commission, held at its office in the city of Washington, D. C. on the 3d day of November 1948.

Notice is hereby given that a joining application-declaration has been filed with this Commission pursuant to the Public Utility Holding Company Act of 1935 by New England Gas and Electric Association ("New England"), a registered holding Company, and its subsidiary, Cambridge Electric Light Company ("Cambridge"). Applicants-declarants have designated sections 6 (b), and 10 and 12 (f) of the act as applicable to the proposed transactions.

Notice is further given that any interested person may, not later than November 17, 1948, at 5:30 p. m., e. s. t., request the Commission in writing that a hearing be held on such matter, stating the nature of his interest, the reasons for such request and the issues, if any, of fact or law raised by said application-declaration proposed to be controverted, or may request that he be notified if the Commission should order a hearing thereon. Any such request should be addressed: Secretary, Securities and Exchange Commission, 425 Second Street NW., Washington 25, D. C. At any time after November 17, 1948, said application-declaration, as filed or as amended, may be granted and permitted to become effective as provided in Rule U-23 of the rules and regulations promulgated under the act, or the Commission may exempt such transactions as provided in Rules U-20 (a) and U-100 thereof.

All interested persons are referred to said application-declaration which is on file in the office of this Commission for a statement of the transactions therein proposed, which are summarized as follows:

New England presently owns all of the outstanding common stock of Cambridge. Cambridge proposes to issue and sell to New England an additional 4,734 shares of common stock of the par value of $25 per share, at a price of $150 per share, or an aggregate of $710,100, the proceeds thereof to be applied to the reimbursement of the Plant Replacement Fund Assets account of Cambridge for expenditures made therefrom for additions and improvements to the company's plant and properties.

Cambridge is subject to the jurisdiction of the Department of Public Utilities of Massachusetts, which department approved the issue and sale of the additional common stock by order dated October 4, 1948.

IDA LEMKE

In re: Stock owned by Ida Lemke. F-28-8011-D-1.

Under the authority of the Trading With the Enemy Act, as amended, Executive Order 9193, as amended, and Executive Order 9788, and pursuant to law, after investigation, it is hereby found:

1. That Ida Lemke, whose last known address is New Kolin, Flughaven Str. 62, Germany, is a resident of Germany and a national of a designated enemy country (Germany);

2. That the property described as follows: Four (4) shares of 6% preferred capital stock of Northwestern Public Service Company, Huron, South Dakota, a corporation organized under the laws of the State of Delaware, evidenced by certificates numbered CBO-4823, CBO-4824, CBO-4825, and CBO-4826 for one share each, registered in the name of Ida Lemke, together with all declared and unpaid dividends thereon, and any and all rights of redemption thereof, is property within the United States owned or controlled by, payable or deliverable to, held on behalf of or on account of, or owing to, or which is evidence of ownership or control by, the aforesaid national of a designated enemy country (Germany);

and it is hereby determined:

3. That to the extent that the person named in subparagraph 1 hereof is not within a designated enemy country, the national interest of the United States requires that such person be treated as a national of a designated enemy country (Germany).

All determinations and all action required by law, including appropriate consultation and certification, having been made and taken, and, it being deemed necessary in the national interest,

There is hereby vested in the Attorney General of the United States the property described above, to be held, used, administered, liquidated, sold or otherwise dealt with in the interest of and for the benefit of the United States.

The terms "national" and "designated enemy country" as used herein shall have the meanings prescribed in section 10 of Executive Order 9193, as amended.

Executed at Washington, D. C., on October 27, 1948.

For the Attorney General.

TITLE 6—AGRICULTURAL CREDIT

Chapter I—Farm Credit Administration, Department of Agriculture

PART 5—SURPLUS PROPERTY DISPOSAL

MISCELLANEOUS AMENDMENTS

Part 5 is amended in the following respects:

1. Section 5.2 is amended to read as follows:

§ 5.2 Definitions: regulations of War Assets Administrator. The definitions contained in War Assets Administration Regulation 5 (32 CFR Supps., Part 8305) are adopted for the purposes of this part. [Sec. 103.02, FCA Surplus Property Disposal Manual]

2. Sections 5.4 and 5.21 are deleted.

3. Section 5.36 is amended to read as follows:

§ 5.36 Authority for payment of public voucher. Authority is furnished the vice president of the Federal Farm Mortgage Corporation to sign Standard Form No. 1143 in contracting for newspaper space under order of the Secretary of Agriculture dated September 7, 1945. Copies of this order may be used as required in furnishing the publisher with evidence of the authority of the officer in contracting for newspaper space. Ordinarily, the information to be furnished on the advertising order showing the date of authority to advertise should be sufficient evidence to the publisher of the authority of the officer contracting for newspaper space. Ordinarily, in purchasing advertising space from a particular newspaper, arrangements should be made for all publications of a particular notice at the time of submitting the advertising order. This would obviate the necessity of furnishing the same newspaper with additional advertising orders and provide for the payment of one voucher covering the total cost of publications required. [Sec. 307.06, FCA Surplus Property Disposal Manual]

4. Section 5.55 is amended to read as follows:

§ 5.55 Value to be used in disposals to veterans. Veterans, or the spouse and children of a deceased veteran or the spouse and children of a deceased serviceman, are given the right to purchase surplus real property at a price fixed by the disposal agency after taking into consideration the character of the property and, if income-producing, the estimated earning capacity thereof. This price is interpreted, for all practical purposes, as being equivalent to the "fair value" as defined by the War Assets Administration. (See § 5.56 for definition and determination of "fair value.") It should be clearly understood that the fair value as established in connection with appraisal report form 1181a is the applicable price for use in sales to veterans as well as other priority purchasers, including: Government agencies, States and local governments, owner-operators, and nonprofit institutions. [Sec. 402.03, FCA Surplus Property Disposal Manual]

5. Section 5.56, paragraph (a), is amended to read as follows:

§ 5.56 Fair value—(a) Definition. This value is defined as the maximum price a well-informed buyer, acting voluntarily and intelligently, would be warranted in paying if he were acquiring the property for investment or for use with the intention of devoting such property to the best or most productive type of use to which the property is suitable or capable of being adapted. [Sec. 402.04, FCA Surplus Property Disposal Manual]

6. Section 5.58 is amended to read as follows:

§ 5.58 Appraising the individual tracts. With respect to section 23 real property acquired by the Government after December 31, 1939, in making appraisals of the individual tracts arrangements should be made for the former owner to accompany the appraiser during his inspection of the property, if practicable. This will give him an opportunity to present to the appraiser any information he may have as to the changes in the property and the effect on the price for which he is entitled to repurchase his farm. The appraiser will assign the market price and the adjusted price for use in connection with disposals to the former owners or tenants. It will not be feasible, ordinarily, to establish the "fair value" until such time as the property becomes available for sale to veterans or lower priority purchasers, unless a Government agency or a State or local government indicates an interest in purchasing. In the latter event the fair value will be established and furnished on one appraisal report covering the specific acreage or property they wish to acquire, which may be all or any part of a project. Unless unusual circumstances prevail, only one appraisal report should be necessary even though the acreage covers several tracts or farms. In the appraisal of a large block including several farms it is necessary to consider the acreage as a whole rather than as several smaller tracts. In other words, the value of the acreage as a whole may not equal necessarily the sum of the values of the individual smaller tracts. [Sec. 404.02, FCA Surplus Property Disposal Manual]

7. Section 5.61, paragraph (a) (7), is amended to read as follows:

§ 5.61 Appraisal report (Form FCA 1181a SPD). (a) * * *

(7) Fair value. In reporting the "fair value" it will not be necessary to show the current market value on form FCA 1181a. [Sec. 404.05, FCA Surplus Property Disposal Manual.]

8. The first paragraph of § 5.62 is amended to read as follows:

§ 5.62 Buildings and improvements to be sold separate from land. When buildings or improvements are to be sold separate from the land the project manager should request the kind of value required for the particular disposal in accordance with the provisions of War Assets Administration Manual W4–2. The appraisal of buildings or improvements for off-site disposal will be in accordance with the instructions outlined in subsections 401 to 404 and 406 to 412 of War Assets Administration Real Property Letter No. 1, dated January 10, 1947, which read as follows: [Sec. 405.01, FCA Surplus Property Disposal Manual.]

9. Section 5.71 is amended to read as follows:

§ 5.71 Time and method of exercise of State and local government priorities. State and local governments shall have a period of ten (10) days in which to exercise their priority after the date notice of availability is first published, as provided in § 5.32. Within such period the priority holder shall indicate an intention to exercise the priority by submitting to the disposal agency a written offer to purchase. When, however, an offer cannot be made because a disposal agency lacks necessary information on price, units, or other matters, it shall be sufficient if the State or local government files a written statement of its desire to acquire the property on one or more appropriate units thereof. As soon as the necessary information becomes available (whether during or after the priority period or any extension thereof), those who have filed such statements shall be so advised in writing and given fifteen (15) days within which to make an offer. The offer of a State or local government shall be in the form of a written application in duplicate requesting that the property be held for disposal to it. Such application shall state the price applicant would be willing to pay for the property, and the length of time, if any, needed to acquire funds to purchase the property. The application shall show in detail the contemplated use of the property and set forth that the property is being acquired to fulfill, in the public interest, its legitimate needs. If the applicant shall require time to obtain funds, it shall within the priority period so state and indicate in its application the length of time needed for that purpose. Upon receipt of such application containing such a statement the disposal agency will review the application and determine what time, if any, shall be allowed applicant to obtain such funds and conclude the purchase and will advise the applicant of such determination. [Sec. 502.03, FCA Surplus Property Disposal Manual]

10. Section 5.74 is amended to read as follows:

§ 5.74 Deed to former owner. Where a former owner purchases surplus real property in the exercise of his priority, the deed of conveyance shall name only the former owner as grantee. No former owner may exercise his priority acting as agent of, or otherwise in a representative or fiduciary capacity for, another party. A former owner, however, is not prohibited from exercising his priority with the intention of reselling the property. [Sec. 503.06, FCA Surplus Property Disposal Manual]

11. Section 5.91, paragraph (b), is amended to read as follows:

§ 5.91 Offers to purchase. * * *

(b) Offers by Government agencies, and offers by State and local governments where funds are not available, shall be made as provided in § 5.70 and § 5.71. All other offers shall be made on the "Offer to Purchase" form accompanied by a reasonable earnest money deposit ordinarily not less than 10 percent of the purchase price, in the form of cash, certified check, or post office money order payable to the Treasurer of the United States. Submission of offers to purchase by anyone entitled to priority shall not preclude any other party from submitting an offer. Unless otherwise authorized by the Administrator and except upon a conveyance of airport property, or war housing or other structures and improvements sold for removal from the site, a State or local government or non-profit institution shall certify that it is acquiring the property for the uses and purposes set forth in its offer and that it is not acquiring the property for the purpose of resale and in no case will it resell the property within 2 years without first obtaining the written consent of the Administrator; or if a lessee, that it will not assign the lease or sublet all of the property, or a portion of the property without the prior written consent of the Administrator. Any deed, lease, or other instrument conveying property subject to reservations, restrictions, or conditions as to the future use, maintenance, or transfer of such property shall unless otherwise authorized by the Administrator recite all representations and agreements pertaining thereto. [Sec. 602.02, FCA Surplus Property Disposal Manual]

12. Section 5.121 is amended to read as follows:

§ 5.121 Obtaining offers and acceptance of offers. After all offers from priority holders have been processed, a list of remaining properties shall be prepared and sales negotiated by the project manager in the manner and upon the basis determined to be to the best interest of the Government. At the discretion of the district office additional notices may be published at this time in newspapers or such other publicity given to the availability of property as may be deemed advisable. Notice should be sent to individuals who have expressed a desire to purchase or who have submitted an offer at some period. Depending upon circumstances, sales may be made on the basis of sealed bids, auctions, or private negotiations. In any event offers must be accepted on the basis of the highest obtainable bid provided that no sale shall be made at a price which is less than 75 percent of the fair value as established by appraisal until such offer has been reviewed and approved by the War Assets Administration unless the price offered is the maximum price which may be charged the purchaser. At this time sales may be made to the general public, including any former priority holders. The offers to purchase will be processed and handled in the same manner as indicated in previous sections of the regulations in this part relating to offers from priority holders. Any information submitted, the disclosure of which might tend to subject the offerer to a competitive business disadvantage shall, upon request be held in strict confidence by the disposal agency and by any other Government agency to which it is made available. If equal acceptable offers are received from two or more non-priority offerers, the selection shall be determined by the disposal agency, unless otherwise directed by the Administration, by taking into consideration actual proposals received and the use of the property most desirable in the light of the applicable objectives of the act. [Sec. 607.01, FCA Surplus Property Disposal Manual]

The foregoing amendments have been approved by the Secretary of Agriculture.

TITLE 7—AGRICULTURE

Chapter I—Production and Marketing Administration (Standards, Inspections, Marketing Practices)

PART 29—TOBACCO INSPECTION

POLICY STATEMENT RELEVANT TO INSPECTION SERVICE FOR 1948-49 MARKETING SEASON FOR BURLEY TOBACCO AUCTION MARKETS

§ 29.052 Policy statement. Pursuant to the provisions of The Tobacco Inspection Act (7 U. S. C. 511 et seq.), and applicable delegations of authority and regulations issued thereunder by the Secretary of Agriculture (11 F. R. 177A-258, 281-283; 7 CFR 29.1 et seq.) the following policy statement is herewith promulgated:

(a) Tobacco inspection service for each designated Burley tobacco auction market is conditioned at any and all times upon a determination that such inspection service is reasonable. Whenever a determination is made that tobacco inspection service supplied to a designated Burley tobacco auction market is surplus to the requirements of reasonableness, the surplus portion of such inspection may be forthwith withdrawn therefrom. Conversely, whenever a determination is made that tobacco inspection service supplied to a designated Burley tobacco auction market is not sufficient to supply reasonable inspection service thereon, additional tobacco inspection service will be supplied, or in the absence of available qualified tobacco inspectors for such purposes, inspection on such market will be suspended, pursuant to section 5 of the act and the regulations duly issued thereunder. A determination relevant to the reasonableness of tobacco inspection service on any designated Burley tobacco auction market and each sale thereon will consider, among other pertinent factors, the volume of tobacco sold on said market, the number of growers selling tobacco on said market, a showing that producers, buyers and handlers of Burley tobacco participate in each sale on said market to an extent and in a manner comparable with customary participation of such groups in established auction sales of Burley tobacco, and a showing of the number of sets of tobacco inspectors needed to provide tobacco inspection service on that market comparable with the reasonable tobacco inspection service supplied to other designated auction markets.

(b) Burley tobacco available for auction on designated Burley auction markets for the 1948-49 marketing season is approximately the same as the volume sold on such markets during the 1947-48 marketing season, and substantially below the volume sold on such markets during the 1946-47 marketing season. The aggregate number of tobacco inspectors assigned to designated Burley tobacco auction markets for the 1947-48 marketing season supplied reasonable tobacco inspection service on such markets on the basis of consideration of all relevant factors applicable thereto, including the factors hereinbefore set forth, and, as the aggregate number of such inspectors assigned to such markets for the 1948-49 marketing season is equal to the aggregate number assigned to such markets for the 1947-48 marketing season, it is herewith determined that the assignment of additional tobacco inspectors to designated Burley tobacco auction markets for the 1948-49 marketing season is not necessary to supply reasonable tobacco inspection service on such markets for such season.

(c) For the purposes of this section "auction sale" shall be construed to mean the buying and selling of Burley tobacco, offered by farmers, by the auction process which customarily consists of a set of buyers, including at least five to twelve buyers who represent different companies which either will use the tobacco in the manufacture of tobacco products in this country or in foreign countries or will pack and sell the tobacco later for use by manufacturers in this country or foreign countries and who can be expected by reason of their normal purchases and use of tobacco to afford continuing competition for the duration of such sale for tobacco offered by producers thereon in a manner and degree similar to the competition on other designated auction markets; an auctioneer who takes each buyer's bid; a sale starter who makes the opening bid on each lot; and a ticket marker who records the applicable sales data on each lot. (49 Stat. 731; 7 U. S. C. 511 et seq.)

Acting Administrator, Production and Marketing Administration.

Chapter IX—Production and Marketing Administration (Marketing Agreements and Orders)

PART 987—IRISH POTATOES GROWN IN MAINE

LIMITATION OF SHIPMENTS

§ 987.301 Limitation of shipments—(a) Findings. (1) Pursuant to Marketing Agreement No. 108 and Order No. 87 (13 F. R. 5549) regulating the handling of Irish potatoes grown in the State of Maine, effective under the applicable provisions of the Agricultural Marketing Agreement Act of 1937, as amended (7 U. S. C. 601 et seq.), and upon the basis of the recommendation and information submitted by the State of Maine Potato Committee established under said marketing agreement and order, and other available information, it is hereby found that such limitation of shipments of potatoes as hereinafter provided will tend to effectuate the declared policy of the act.

(2) It is hereby found that it is impracticable and contrary to the public interest to give preliminary notice, engage in public rule-making procedure, and postpone the effective date of this order until 30 days after publication thereof in the FEDERAL REGISTER (5 U. S. C. 1001 et seq.) in that (i) volume shipments of Irish potatoes grown in the State of Maine have already begun, (ii) the limitation of shipments of such potatoes pursuant hereto must be made effective on the date hereinafter set forth to effectuate the declared policy of the act, (iii) the marketing agreement and order did not become effective until September 27, 1948, and the information with respect to the supply of and demand for Irish potatoes indicating the necessity for the limitation hereinafter set forth did not become available until October 28, 1948, and the recommendations of the State of Maine Potato Committee, based upon such information, pursuant to the aforesaid marketing agreement and order, could not, therefore, be made until October 29, 1948, (iv) information regarding the recommendations of the committee has been disseminated to producers and handlers of Irish potatoes grown in the State of Maine and the limitation hereinafter set forth is identical with the recommended limitation, (v) compliance with such limitation will not require any special preparation on the part of persons subject thereto which cannot be completed on or before the effective date hereof, and (vi) a reasonable time is permitted, under the circumstances, for such preparation.

(b) Order. (1) During the period beginning 12:01 a. m., e. s. t., November 15, 1948, and ending 11:59 p. m., e. s. t., June 30, 1949, no handler shall ship any table stock potatoes of the Bliss Triumph variety unless such potatoes meet the requirements of U. S. No. 1 or better grade, 1⅞ inches minimum diameter, as such grade and size are defined in the U. S. Standards for Potatoes, including the tolerances set forth therein; and no handler shall ship any table stock potatoes of a variety or varieties of potatoes, other than the Bliss Triumph variety, unless such potatoes meet the requirements of U. S. No. 1 or better grade and are not less than 2¼ inches nor more than 4 inches in diameter, as such grades and sizes are defined in the U. S. Standards for Potatoes including the tolerances set forth therein; Provided, That, the aforesaid limitation shall not be applicable to shipments of potatoes for export; shipments of potatoes purchased by the Commodity Credit Corporation under the price support program for distribution by the Federal Government; shipments of potatoes for distribution by relief agencies or for consumption by charitable institutions; shipments of potatoes for the purpose of having such potatoes manufactured or converted into nonfood products or for canning; shipments of potatoes for livestock feed; and shipments of seed potatoes, except that the State of Maine Potato Committee may prescribe adequate safeguards applicable to the aforesaid unlimited shipments as provided by § 987.6 (c) of Order No. 87.

(2) The terms used in this section shall have the same meaning as when used in Order No. 87. (48 Stat. 31, as amended; 7 U. S. C. 601 et seq.)

Done at Washington, D. C., this 10th day of November 1948.

APPOINTMENTS

§ 561.1 General. Whenever the term "Organized Reserve Corps" appears in this part, it includes the personnel and units of the Officers' Reserve Corps, the Enlisted Reserve Corps, and the Organized Reserves as provided for in the National Defense Act of 1916, as amended.

§ 561.2 Appointments. (a) All persons appointed officers in the Organized Reserve Corps will be commissioned in the Army of the United States under the authority contained in section 37 of the National Defense Act.

(b) At the time of issuance of orders for relief from active duty all officers in the Army of the United States except officers of the Regular Army, active or retired, will be offered appointments in the Officers' Reserve Corps for an initial period of 5 years in the highest grade held at the time of relief from active duty subject to the following provisions:

(1) All male commissioned officers of the Army of the United States except active or retired Regular Army officers, who have not attained their sixtieth birthday, found physically qualified for general service, limited service, or general service with waiver, who have served honorably, and who have not been separated for unsatisfactory service, are eligible for appointment with the following exceptions:

(i) Commissioned officers of the National Guard of the United States who do not hold a higher temporary grade in the Army of the United States.

(ii) Commissioned officers of the Officers' Reserve Corps who do not hold a higher temporary grade in the Army of the United States.

(2) Officers who are eligible for promotion to the next higher grade and who are promoted in the Army of the United States, are thereby removed from the above categories (subparagraph (1) (i) and (ii) of this paragraph) and are eligible for appointment in the higher grade.

(3) Officers eligible for appointment in the Officers' Reserve Corps under the provisions stated in this section, who have not accepted or who do not accept appointment at the time of relief from active duty may apply to The Adjutant General for appointment: Provided, Such applications are made prior to July 1, 1947, or within 6 months from date of relief from active duty, whichever is later.

(4) Officers listed in subparagraph (1) (i) and (ii) of this paragraph will be commissioned in the Officers' Reserve Corps at any time after completion of terminal leave and within the time limits specified in subparagraph (3) of this paragraph upon application to The Adjutant General for such appointment.

§ 561.3 Sections of the Officers' Reserve Corps. Sections of the Active Reserve to which officers shall be appointed by The Adjutant General, and the staff divisions allotted supervision of these sections at Department of the Army level are:

(s) Transportation Corps Reserve.	TC-Res.	Chief of Transportation.
(t) Women's Army Corps Reserve.	WAC-Res.	Director of Women's Army Corps.

§ 561.4 Physical examination. Approved Department of the Army policies relating to the postwar Organized Reserve Corps provide that the physical standards for officers and enlisted men of the Organized Reserve Corps will be those prescribed in current Army Regulations and Department of the Army directives. Waivers of physical defects will be authorized only to the extent prescribed for the Regular Army.

§ 561.5 Annual physical examination of officers—(a) Annual physical examination. An examination of a type and scope as prescribed in current Department of the Army letters of instruction will be made on all officers in the active Reserve.

(b) By whom made. The physical examination for officers of the Organized Reserve Corps will be made by a board composed of an equal number of medical officers of the Regular Army and reserve components designated by the major command having administrative jurisdiction.

§ 561.6 Length of appointment. Appointments in every case will be for a period of 5 years, but an appointment in force at the outbreak of war or made in war-time will continue in force until 6 months after the termination of the war, should the 5-year period covered by the appointment terminate prior to that time.

§ 561.7 Appointments or enlistments not made from certain classes. No person in any of the following categories will be appointed or enlisted in the Organized Reserve Corps, and any member thereof who accepts appointment in any of those categories will be separated from the Organized Reserve Corps:

(a) Commissioned officers of the Regular Army.

(b) Cadets, United States Military Academy.

(c) Midshipmen, United States Naval Academy, and cadets, United States Coast Guard Academy.

(d) Persons on either the active or the reserve list of the Navy, Marine Corps, National Guard, National Guard of the United States, Coast Guard, Public Health Service, and Coast and Geodetic Survey.

§ 561.8 Action by The Adjutant General. Upon receipt of the report of the examining board approved by the major command recommending appointment; assignment to the Inactive Reserve from the Active Reserve; reassignment to the Active Reserve; or separation from the Organized Reserve Corps, The Adjutant General will accomplish the appointment or take other appropriate action.

§ 561.9 Age-in-grade and service-in-grade—(a) General. A mandatory age-in-grade, and a length of service-in-grade provision, as prescribed by the Department of the Army, will be adopted, insuring appropriate age for the actual assignment of every officer. Exceptions to this policy in the case of officers with wartime service will be given due consideration.

(b) Interim policy, maximum, age-in-grade. (1) During such period as may be required to reorganize the reserve components, and in any event not to extend beyond 1 January 1951, the assignment of all officers of the Organized Reserve Corps will be limited by those ages set forth below. Assignment will be terminated upon reaching the following birthdays:

Air Force units and qualified Air Reserve Officers necessary for balanced Air Reserve Force	31	36	41	44	47	49
All other Air Reserve Officers	36	41	46	49	52	54
Army Ground Forces (including AGF service troops)	30	35	42	47	52	55
All others in the Organized Reserve Corps	40	43	46	51	55	60

(2) No candidate will be given an assignment, who is less than 21 or more than 60 years old; nor, except for the Air Force, unless his age is such that he can serve at least 1 year before assignment would be terminated by the age limitation for each grade as set forth above. For the Air Force no candidate for assignment to a unit as second lieutenant shall be more than 27; as first lieutenant, more than 32; as captain, more than 37; as major, more than 40; as lieutenant colonel, more than 43; as colonel, more than 45.

(c) Transfer upon retirement. All officers of the Active Reserve will, upon reaching the statutory retirement age, be transferred to the Honorary Reserve.

§ 561.10 Appointment of professional and technical experts or specialists in Officers' Reserve Corps—(a) Purpose. It is the policy of the Department of the Army to appoint in the Officers' Reserve Corps persons possessing either professional or technical qualifications which are critically essential and immediately adaptable to the needs of the Army and for whom suitable assignments exist. In order to provide a continuing source of officers possessing specialties in which it is not feasible or economical for the Army to give training, this section establishes the qualifications and outlines the procedures for the commissioning of such specialists in appropriate grades in the Officers' Reserve Corps. Individuals, without prior military service, appointed under the provisions of this section will be required to meet, within a reasonable length of time, the minimum military training requirements established to maintain a commission in the grade and section in which appointed, and in their mobilization assignment.

(b) Eligibility. Persons applying for appointment under the provisions of this section must meet the following requirements:

(1) Age. (i) Applicants must be at least 21 years of age for initial appointment in the Officers' Reserve Corps.

(ii) Applicants must not have reached the birthday anniversary indicated below, at the time of receipt of initial application by The Adjutant General in the case of applicants for a section of the Medical Department Reserve, other than the Medical Service Corps Reserve, and by the commander designated to receive applications in the case of applicants for other sections of the Officers' Reserve Corps:

	Years
Second lieutenant	30
First lieutenant	33
Captain	37
Major	45
Lieutenant Colonel	51
Colonel	55

(iii) Waivers of age-in-grade limitations will not be granted except in the case of individuals whose services are desired in an affiliated unit. In such cases, and where there is no other qualified individual available, The Adjutant General will consider the granting of a waiver for age up to the following maximum age-in-grade limitations on the date of receipt of initial application: second lieutenant, 38 years; first lieutenant, 41 years; captain, 44 years; major, 49 years; lieutenant colonel, 53 years; and colonel, 58 years.

(2) Sex. Only female applicants are eligible for appointment in the Army Nurse Corps Reserve and Women's Medical Specalists Corps Reserve, and only male applicants are eligible for appointment in the other sections of the Officers' Reserve Corps. Provisions for other female specialists may be provided for at a later date.

(3) Citizenship. Each applicant must be a citizen of the United States. Applicants who are not citizens of the United States by birth must provide evidence of citizenship. In the case of United States citizenship by naturalization, this will be in the form of a certificate by an officer in the active military service, or by a notary public, as follows:

I certify that I have this date seen the original certificate of citizenship, Number ---------- (or certified copy of the court order establishing citizenship) stating that ---------- was admitted to
United States citizenship by the Court of ---------- at ---------- on ----------.
(City and State) (Date)
The following was named in the certificate as a minor child: ----------
(Name)
Age -------

Under no circumstances will facsimilies or copies, photographic or otherwise, of naturalization certificates be made.

(4) Mental requirement. Each applicant, except those shown below, must have obtained a score of 110 or higher in the Army General Classification Test (AGCT). College graduates and applicants for appointment in the Medical Department Reserve, less Medical Service Corps Reserve, are exempt from this requirement. Applicants who fail to obtain a score of 110 or higher will not be permitted to continue with the processing.

(5) Minimum educational requirement. Each applicant who applies for a specialty, which does not specifically require a college degree, must be at least a graduate of high school or of an accredited preparatory school of equal educational level. Applicants who do not meet the foregoing educational requirements may qualify by passing or having passed the General Educational Development Test (high school level or higher) of the United States Armed Forces Institute. Information on this test may be obtained from the Commandant, United States Armed Forces Institute, Madison 3, Wisconsin, the troop information and education office of any installation, veterans' guidance centers, and in many areas from the State school authorities. It will not be necessary for an applicant to procure high school accreditation from the State in which he resides after passing the aforementioned test. (No waivers of this educational requirement will be granted.)

(6) Professional or technical and special educational requirements—(i) Minimum requirements. Determination of the grade in which an applicant is to be commissioned is the function of the examining board interviewing the applicant, subject to final approval of The Adjutant General. The grade will be based on the total number of years of qualifying college education and/or experience according to the following scale of minimum requirements for each grade:

Officer grade:	Qualifying college education and/or experience (years)
Second lieutenant	4
First lieutenant	7
Captain	11
Major	16
Lieutenant colonel	21
Colonel	26

(ii) Sections presently limiting grades. All concerned are advised that, until further notice, appointments in the grades of major through colonel in the Army Security Reserve and Military Intelligence Reserve sections will not be made, except under unusual circumstances, due to a lack of vacancies in these sections for field grade officers. Those considering applying for field grade appointments in these sections will be governed accordingly.

(iii) Qualifying education. Qualifying education means at least a bachelor's degree, awarded by an accredited college or university, and involving the specific degrees or subject matter for each specialty. Qualifying educational training for these specialties will be uniformly credited as follows, with the exceptions as noted. A qualifying bachelor's degree, or certification as a registered nurse, counts as 4 years of the educational-and-experience requirement, regardless of the length of time in which it was acquired. (The Bachelor of Laws Degree, however, will count as 7 years, since it is generally a 3-year course imposed upon a 4-year bachelor's degree prerequisite.) A qualifying master's degree, with its prerequisite undergraduate studies or degree, counts as 5 years of the education-and-experience requirement. A qualifying doctor's degree with its prerequisites counts as 7 years of the requirements. (The Doctor of Medicine Degree including internship counts as 8 years, and the Doctor of Veterinary Medicine Degree counts as 6 years of the total requirements.) At the discretion of the examining board and The Adjutant General, each year of approximately 30 semester credit hours of qualifying graduate study (either leading to an advanced degree, or study beyond the doctorate) may be counted as a year of the total requirement, even though a degree was not obtained.

(iv) Qualifying experience. Qualifying experience includes both military and civilian work with a workweek of at least 39 hours, or its time equivalent in part-time employment.

(v) Ecclesiastical indorsement for appointment into the Chaplain Reserve. Applicants for appointment into the Chaplain Reserve must present an ecclesiastical indorsement certifying that the applicant is accredited by and in good standing in a recognized religious denomination or organization.

(7) Moral requirement. Each applicant must be possessed of high moral character and personal qualifications.

(8) Physical qualifications. Each applicant must be physically qualified under the provisions of Army Regulations.

(i) A final type physical examination, less (except when otherwise indicated) chest X-ray, electrocardiogram, audiometer reading, blood serology, lens correction, and microscopic urinalysis, and less pelvic examination for female personnel, will be required. The Report of Physical Examination (W. D., A. G. O. Form 63) may be accomplished and signed by a medical officer of any component of the armed forces of the United States whether he is on active or inactive duty status. In the absence of such medical officer, W. D., A. G. O. Form 63 may be accomplished and signed by any reputable doctor of medicine, without expense to the Government. Only one copy of report of physical examination is required.

(ii) Where the applicant possesses physical defects which fall below the specific physical requirements for military service as outlined in Army Regulations for Reserve appointment, army and oversea commanders are authorized to grant waivers for those physical defects which, in their opinion:

(a) Are static in nature.

(b) Are not subject to complications or aggravation by reason of military duty.

(c) Will not interfere with the satisfactory performance of full military duty.

(d) Will not necessitate hospitalization or time-loss from duty.

(9) Security checks. Each applicant for appointment in the Military Intelligence Reserve must be screened appropriately for security by area commanders, and each applicant for appointment in the Army Security Reserve must be cleared by area commanders for cryptographic duties in accordance with Army Regulations. Such security checks of applicants for other sections, as may be required or deemed desirable, are within the purview of the area commanders.

(c) Ineligibles. The following persons are not eligible for appointment and their applications will not be accepted.

(1) Those who are presently conscientious objectors. If an individual has been a conscientious objector, he will be required to furnish an affidavit which will express his abandonment of such beliefs and principles so far as they pertain to his willingness to bear arms and to give full and unqualified military service to the United States; and, where appropriate, he must have demonstrated that he has changed his views by subsequent military service.

(2) Those who have a record of conviction by any type of military or civil court for other than a minor traffic violation. The Adjutant General (Attn: AGPR–A), may be requested to grant a waiver in the case of other minor violations which are nonrecurrent and which are not deemed prejudicial to performance of duty as an officer. No requests for waivers of convictions involving moral turpitude or conviction of a felony will be considered.

(3) Those who have been separated from the service:

(i) Under other than honorable conditions.

(ii) For unsatisfactory service.

(iii) By reason of resignation in lieu of court martial or reclassification.

(iv) As a result of court martial or reclassification.

(4) Officers of the Regular Army, United States Air Force, Navy, Marine Corps, or Coast Guard, active or retired.

(d) Physical examination. A completed W. D., A. G. O. Form 63 must accompany each application. All Army personnel and installations involved in conducting physical examinations will give any individual who requests a physical examination, for the purpose of applying for an Officers' Reserve Corps appointment, such an examination without requiring any written authorization, and will forward the completed report of physical examination direct to the individual concerned with the least practicable delay.

(e) Application and allied papers. The following documents, properly completed, constitute the application and allied papers. Interested individuals may obtain blank forms at any installation, recruiting office, National Guard or Reserve unit, military district headquarters, reserve instructor's office, or by writing to the army commander having jurisdiction over the area in which they reside. In assembling the application prior to forwarding, the applicable requirements listed below will be used as a check list to insure that all necessary information and papers have been included, thus precluding delays which will result from the return of incomplete applications.

(1) W. D., A. G. O. Form 170 (Application for Appointment and Statement of Preferences for Reserve Officers) in quadruplicate.

(i) The branch for which application is being made will be indicated in the block labeled "Section" on the second line of the application form.

(ii) Plain sheets of paper, attached to the application, may be used for inclusion of additional information for which there is insufficient room on the application form.

(iii) The remarks section, item 34, will contain the following statements by the applicant:

(a) "I am not a conscientious objector"; "I am not (am) now and have not (have) been a member of any foreign or domestic organization, association, movement, group, or combination of persons advocating a subversive policy or seeking to alter the form of Government of the United States by unconstitutional means"; and "This application is made under the provisions of Circular 210, Department of the Army, 1948, paragraph(s) _____ as a _____ specialist." (List all the paragraph numbers and titles of the specialties for which you believe yourself qualified and for which you wish to be considered.)

(b) In addition to the above statements, applicants, for any section of the Medical Department Reserve, will include a statement that "I do (do not) desire immediate extended active duty."

(iv) Instructions 2, 3, and 4 on the application form are not applicable.

(2) W. D., A. G. O. Form 643A, (Personal History Statement) in duplicate. In addition to the completion of this form, applicants will furnish on a plain sheet of paper, attached to the original copy, the following additional information pertaining to each position listed under question 34, employment:

(i) Name of employer.

(ii) Dates of employment (month, year).

(iii) Kind of business (e. g. construction, wholesale wool, mfg. of turbines, etc.).

(iv) Salary or earnings (starting, final, or present).

(v) Description of work performed.

(vi) Number and kind of employees supervised.

(3) W. D., A. G. O. Form 63 (Report of Physical Examination), one copy only.

(4) Documentary evidence of educational level and professional or technical background (photostatic or true copies acceptable). Applicants for appointment in the Judge Advocate General's Department Reserve, Medical Service Corps Reserve, and the Women's Medical Specialist Corps Reserve will furnish transcript of grades received in graduate and/or post-graduate schools or universities.

(5) Photostatic copies of all discharge certificates or certificates of service (where applicable).

(6) A recent photograph of the applicant, head and shoulders type, not less than 4 by 5 inches, if applying for a section of the Medical Department Reserve, less Army Medical Service Corps Reserve.

(7) Evidence of internship in the form of a certificate from a medical institution will be furnished by applicants for appointment in the dietitian subsection of the Women's Medical Specialist Corps Reserve.

(8) WD AGO Form R–5522 to be completed in triplicate by female applicants only.

(9) A certificate, signed by an official of the cognizant service authorized to accept resignations or approve discharges, that the applicant, if a member of the National Guard or the United States Air Force, Navy, Marine Corps, or Coast Guard Reserves, will be separated from his current status if tendered an appointment in the Officers' Reserve Corps.

(10) Ecclesiastical indorsement, if applying for the Chaplain Reserve.

(11) Certificate of admittance to practice law before a specific court and affidavit of legal experience, if applying for the Judge Advocate General's Department Reserve.

(f) Forwarding application. Applications and allied papers will be forwarded as follows:

(1) By applicants for appointment in the Medical Department Reserve, less Medical Service Corps Reserve, direct to The Adjutant General, Attention: AGPR–A, Washington 25, D. C.

(2) By applicants for appointment in all other sections of the Reserve, including the Medical Service Corps Reserve, to the commander, in the area in which they reside, designated to receive such applications. The address of such commander may be obtained by contacting the nearest Organized Reserve Corps Headquarters or by writing to the commander having jurisdiction over the area in which the applicant resides.

(g) Notification of appointment or rejection. Each applicant will be notified by The Adjutant General, through the area commander, of his appointment or rejection for appointment.

(h) Eligibility of nonselected applicants to reapply. Applicants who are not selected by The Adjutant General for appointment are not eligible to reapply until the expiration of a period of 1 year, and only then if the applicant has completed additional training or study in his field of specialization.

GENERAL OFFICERS

§ 561.15 Appointment—(a) Appointment of officers who served in Army of United States as general officers. Officers who have served on active duty in the Army of the United States for a period of at least 6 months subsequent to December 7, 1941 (including those now on active duty) and who, during that period, held the grade of general officer, may be recommended for appointment, as general officers in the active reserve in the highest grade held satisfactorily during that period, provided they meet the moral, physical, and age requirements. Applications for appointment may be submitted by letter to The Adjutant General (Attn.: AGPR–P), Washington 25, D. C. Those who are otherwise qualified as indicated above, but do not meet the physical or age requirements may apply for appointment in the Honorary Reserve only.

(b) Appointment of brigadier generals and major generals from among those officers who did not hold the grade of general officer during World War II. Officers who have served on active duty for at least 6 months subsequent to December 7, 1941 and who did not hold the grade of general officer during that period, and who meet the requirements in § 561.17 may, after appearance before a board of officers be recommended for appointment as brigadier general or major general in the active reserve to fill existing position vacancies in Reserve units or in staff positions.

§ 561.16 Promotion to Major General. Promotion to the grade of major general will be made from those who have served as brigadier generals of the Officers' Reserve Corps for at least 1 year.

§ 561.17 Qualifications. Officers must meet the following qualifications for appointment in the active reserve.

(a) Age. At the time of appointment a candidate for the grade of brigadier general or major general must have at least 1 year to serve before he reaches the statutory age prescribed for the retirement of Regular Army officers of that grade.

(b) Physical. Physical requirements for appointment or promotion of general officers will be those prescribed in AR 40–100 and AR 40–105 (Army Regulations relative to Physical Examinations).

(c) Professional. Satisfactory demonstration of qualifications by actual service on active duty in the Army of the United States for at least 6 months subsequent to December 7, 1941 in the grade and position contemplated, or by the satisfactory discharge of duties of corresponding and equal responsibility.

§ 561.18 Reappointment. Upon expiration of the 5-year period of his appointment, a general officer occupying an authorized position vacancy in a Reserve unit or in a staff position will, provided he meets the moral, age, and physical requirements be recommended for reappointment in the active reserve for an additional 5-year period. Recommendations by the commanding general of the appropriate major force concerning reappointment will be submitted in time to reach The Adjutant General not less than 90 days prior to expiration of appointment.

§ 561.19 Examining boards. Candidates for appointment as general officers for assignment in the active reserve, or for promotion to a higher grade will be examined by a board of officers appointed by the commanding general of the major force or major command to determine their general fitness.

§ 561.20 Examination—(a) Examination by the board. The board will thoroughly investigate into the candidates' professional (military knowledge), moral, and physical qualifications and careful'y weight the evidence as to his suitability for the appointment, promotion, and assignment for which he is being considered.

(b) Physical examination. A final type physical examination will be given.

(c) Inquiry into moral character. The board will inquire into the moral character of the candidate. He will be carefully questioned and may be required to submit in writing such information as the board may desire. The board is authorized to seek verification of the candidate's statements or additional information from reliable sources. The candidate will be informed of any unfavorable statements of fact relative to his moral character and will be given an opportunity to refute or explain such statements.

(d) Professional examination. The professional examination will be conducted as prescribed by the president of the board and will include such military knowledge and ability tests as the board may deem necessary.

(e) Reexamination. A candidate who has been found disqualified for other than moral reasons may apply for reexamination after a period of 1 year from the prior examination.

§ 561.21 Assignment. The assignment of all general officers in the active reserve will be made by The Adjutant General, upon recommendation of the commanding general of the major force or chief of administrative or technical service concerned.

§ 561.22 Transfer to Honorary Reserve. A general officer whose service has been honorable will be transferred to the Honorary Reserve when:

(a) He reaches the statutory retirement age prescribed for officers of the Regular Army.

(b) He is found physically disqualified, other than through his own misconduct, and applies for such transfer.

(c) He has completed a total of 20 years' service in any component of the Army of the United States, and applies for such transfer.

ADMINISTRATION AND TRAINING

AUTHORITY: §§ 562.1 to 562.36 issued under 39 Stat. 191, 192, 853; 41 Stat. 776–778; 10 U. S. C. 354, 381–388.

DERIVATION: AR 145–10, May 28, 1931.

§ 562.1 Objects. The general object of the courses of instruction of the Reserve Officers' Training Corps is to qualify students for positions of leadership in time of national emergency. The Reserve Officers' Training Corps is primarily an agency for the production of Reserve officers for those arms which are restricted as to their sources of production by the provisions of section 37, National Defense Act, as amended (48 Stat. 154, 939; 10 U. S. C. 351–353). In conjunction with the other agencies named in that section, the Reserve Officers' Training Corps should produce the number of Reserve officers required for those arms in the initial periods of a general mobilization. Students trained in the Reserve Officers' Training Corps who do not pursue to completion the courses required for qualification for a reserve commission are nevertheless entitled to advanced standing in the Citizens' Military Training Camp courses through which they may complete their qualification. Those who do not qualify for commission by any of the means available in time of peace have received military training which will be of value to the Nation in an emergency.

§ 562.2 Educational value. The Reserve Officers' Training Corps affords to institutions a means for practical training in organization leadership and discipline which will be of value to their graduated students in an industrial or professional career. The theoretical courses have a content of general educational value.

§ 562.3 Organization of the Reserve Officers' Training Corps. The Reserve Officers' Training Corps consists of the training units of the several arms and services established in civil educational institutions. Units are established in accordance with the provisions of the National Defense Act and as provided in the regulations in this part.

§ 562.4 Department of military science and tactics. Instruction given at an institution in accordance with programs prescribed by the Department of the Army will be conducted or supervised by a department of military science and tactics, which shall include all Reserve Officers' Training Corps units at the institution.

§ 562.5 Divisions. The Reserve Officers' Training Corps is organized into two divisions.

(a) Senior division. The senior division consists of such units of the several arms and services as may be organized at approved colleges and universities granting degrees, including State universities and those State institutions that are required to provide instruction in military tactics under the Act of Congress, approved July 2, 1862 (12 Stat. 503; 7 U. S. C. 301–308), and those essentially military schools, not conferring academic degrees, specially designated by the Secretary of the Army as qualified. Institutions at which senior division units are, or shall be, established are classified as follows:

(1) Class MC. Military colleges and universities which grant degrees, which graduate students at an average age of not less than 21 years, which require all students to pursue military training throughout the course and to be habitually in uniform, which constantly maintain military discipline, and which have as objectives the development of the student by means of military training and the regulation of his conduct in accordance with disciplinary principles.

(2) Class CC. Civil colleges and universities which are not essentially military, but which grant degrees and graduate students at an average age of not less than 21 years.

(3) Class MI. Essentially military schools, specially designated by the Secretary of the Army as in Class MI, which do not confer academic degrees and at which the average age of students at graduation is less than 21 years, but which otherwise meet the requirements of Class MC and accept and maintain the course of instruction prescribed in the Department of the Army program of instruction for senior division units.

(b) Junior division. The junior division consists of such units as may be organized at approved public or private educational institutions which do not meet the requirements of a senior division class. Institutions at which junior division units are, or shall be, established are classified as follows:

(1) Class MS. Essentially military schools, which are not specially designated by the Secretary of the Army as in Class MI, at which the curriculum is not sufficiently advanced to carry with it a degree and the average age of students at graduation is less than 21 years, but which otherwise meet the requirements of Class MC and accept and maintain the course of instruction prescribed in the Department of the Army program of instruction for junior division units at essentially military schools.

(2) Class CS. High schools and other educational institutions which do not meet the requirements of any of the classes mentioned above.

§ 562.6 Conditions for establishment of units. (a) Before an Infantry, Cavalry, Field Artillery, or Coast Artillery unit of the senior division of the Reserve Officers' Training Corps may be established at an institution, there must be insured to the unit an enrollment of at least 100 physically fit male students who are citizens of the United States and not less than 14 years of age. The minimum enrollment required for other senior units is 50 students.

(b) Before a unit of the junior division may be established at an institution, there must be insured to the unit an enrollment of at least 100 physically fit male students who are citizens of the United States and not less than 14 years of age.

(c) No unit of the Reserve Officers' Training Corps will be established at an institution until the institutional authorities agree to the requirements specified in the form for application, and no such unit will be maintained at any institution the authorities of which fail or neglect to comply with these requirements or to adopt into the institutional curriculum the courses of military training prescribed by the Secretary of the Army.

(d) No unit of the Reserve Officers' Training Corps will be established or maintained at an institution until and unless an officer of the Regular Army is detailed as professor of military science and tactics thereat.

§ 562.7 Senior and junior divisions at the same collegiate institution. When an institution of collegiate grade maintains a secondary or preparatory department, both divisions may be authorized. When both divisions have been authorized the prescribed minimum enrollment must be maintained in the units of each division. The enrollment of members of the preparatory department in units of the senior division is prohibited.

§ 562.8 Application for establishment. An educational institution desiring to have established thereat one or more units of the Reserve Officers' Training Corps will make application upon the prescribed form to the commanding general of the Army area in which the institution is situated. (See §§ 562.35, 562.36.)

The Army area commander will forward the application submitted by any institution for the establishment of a Reserve Officers' Training Corps unit to the Department of the Army by letter which shall set forth his recommendation for action on the application, or in case his information is insufficient to permit him to act on the application, his recommendation that he be authorized to designate an officer to visit and inspect the institution. Upon approval of this recommendation, and after the completion of such inspection, the inspecting officer will report to the Army area commander whether or not the institution fulfills the requirements of law and regulations governing the establishment of units and will recommend specifically whether the unit should or not be established. The report of inspection in each case will be forwarded to The Adjutant General by the Army area commander with his recommendations.

§ 562.9 Withdrawal of authority for establishment of a unit. (a) An institution desiring to withdraw from the Reserve Officers' Training Corps will so state in writing to the Army area commander at least three months prior to the date the withdrawal is to take effect. The Department of the Army may, upon the recommendation of the Army area commander, withdraw authority for the establishment of any unit should it be considered that its work as part of the Reserve Officers' Training Corps is not compatible with the objects for which the corps is established. At any time that the enrollment in a unit falls below the minimum enrollment required by law, or whenever the authorities of an institution request the withdrawal of a unit, or when in the opinion of the professor of military science and tactics a unit should be withdrawn for any other reason, the professor of military science and tactics will make report in writing to the Army area commander, through the head of the institution, including therein the following information: (1) Attitude of the authorities of the institution regarding the failure to meet the requirements of law and regulations respecting enrollment. (2) Attitude of the faculty of the institution toward the Reserve Officers' Training Corps. (3) Attitude of the student body toward the Reserve Officers' Training Corps. (4) A statement of the efforts made by the professor of military science and tactics to overcome difficulties and to maintain a successful unit. (5) His recommendation as to the continuance or withdrawal of the unit in question. (6) Any other facts necessary to arrive at a proper understanding of the situation at the institution. (7) If practicable, he will obtain and attach to the report the signed statement of the head of the institution, indorsing thereon his comments and recommendations.

(b) The Army area commander will make such investigation concerning requests or recommendations for withdrawal of units as he may deem necessary and will forward such requests or recommendations together with his recommendations thereon to The Adjutant General.

§ 562.10 Land-grant institutions. The obligations to provide military instruction imposed on land-grant institutions by the act of July 2, 1862 (12 Stat. 503; 7 U. S. C. 301–308), are not altered by the National Defense Act, as amended, nor by the regulations in this part.

§ 562.11 Supervision. The Department of the Army is the agency of the Federal Government charged by law with the preparation of regulations and instructions carrying into effect the provisions of the National Defense Act and other Federal statutes relating to the Reserve Officers' Training Corps, and the supervision of the execution of the provisions of pertinent law and regulations.

The supervisory powers of the Department of the Army over the Reserve Officers' Training Corps are delegated to Army area commanders in all matters except those which have been expressly reserved to the Department of the Army in these and other regulations of the Department of the Army. Army area commanders are the immediate representatives of the Department of the Army in all relations with educational institutions maintaining Reserve Officers' Training Corps units. They are charged with promoting the development of the Reserve Officers' Training Corps units of their Army areas within the limits of their powers and pursuant to the policies and instructions of the Department of the Army. They will confer with heads of institutions on matters relating to the conduct of units established thereat, and to measures for their increased efficiency. They are responsible that the requirements of law and regulations relating to the Reserve Officers' Training Corps are effectively carried out. They have exclusive control over the establishment and operation of Reserve Officers' Training Corps camps.

§ 562.12 Control. The control of the operation of Reserve Officers' Training Corps units at institutions is vested in the institutional authorities. Civilian heads of institutions exercise the same general control over the department of military science and tactics that they ordinarily exercise over other departments of the institution.

§ 562.13 Status of officers on Reserve Officers' Training Corps duty. In their strictly military capacity officers on Reserve Officers' Training Corps duty are subordinates of the army area commander and are subject to his orders. Such orders will not infringe upon the province of institutional regulations. In their academic capacity these officers are subject to institutional regulations. The professor of military science and tactics is responsible that the proper institutional authorities are advised as to the provisions of law and regulations in all matters affecting the conduct of the Reserve Officers' Training Corps units maintained by the institution.

§ 562.14 Channels of communication. Communications for the Department of the Army relative to the Reserve Officers' Training Corps should be addressed to The Adjutant General and should be forwarded through the Army area commander concerned. Communications from military authorities to institutions which in any way affect the general administration or educational policy of the institution will be addressed to the head of the institution. Direct communication between superior military authorities and professors of military science and tactics will be limited to subjects of a purely military nature. Communications originating in the Department of the Army will be forwarded through the Adjutant General and the Army area commander concerned.

§ 562.15 Eligibility to membership. (a) Eligibility to membership in the Reserve Officers' Training Corps is limited to students at institutions in which units of such corps may be established, who are citizens of the United States, who are not less than 14 years of age, and whose bodily condition is such as to meet the physical requirements specified herein.

Enrollments of students who have passed their twenty-sixth birthday will not be made in the Reserve Officers' Training Corps, except that in Medical Corps units students may be enrolled whose requirements for appointment in the Medical Reserve Corps can be fulfilled before attaining the age of thirty-five. No member of the active personnel of the Army, Navy or Marine Corps of the United States, nor any commissioned officer of the National Guard or Naval Militia, nor Reserve officer of the military forces of the United States is eligible for membership in the Reserve Officers' Training Corps, except that a Reserve officer who is also a medical student may be admitted to a Medical Corps unit. Members of the Naval or Marine Corps Reserve are not eligible for membership in the Reserve Officers' Training Corps. The fact that an applicant is a member of the Regular Army Reserve does not make him ineligible for enrollment providing he is otherwise qualified.

(b) A student holding a certification for appointment as a reserve officer or a student formerly commissioned in the Officers' Reserve Corps will not be enrolled in the Reserve Officers' Training Corps without the express authority of the Army area commander in each case, and then only in a unit of an arm other than that in which he is certified for appointment or was formerly commissioned, as the case may be.

(c) A student will not be enrolled in the Reserve Officers' Training Corps, nor will there be issued to him a Government uniform or commutation therefor, until and unless he meets all the prescribed requirements and has been selected by proper authority to pursue the Reserve Officers' Training Corps course. (See § 562.17.)

§ 562.12 Physical requirements. The law regarding physical fitness of applicants for membership in the Reserve Officers' Training Corps requires that students must be "physically fit to perform military duty, or will be so upon arrival at military age". In order that this law may be carried out, each applicant is required to undergo certain physical examinations and to meet certain physical standards, as a prerequisite for enrollment and continuance in the Reserve Officers' Training Corps. Furthermore, each member of a Reserve Officers' Training Corps unit should keep himself physically fit in order that he may meet the physical requirements for commission in the Officers' Reserve Corps upon completion of his training in the Reserve Officers' Training Corps.

§ 562.17 Training of students ineligible for enrollment. When desired by institutional authorities, students who are citizens of the United States and who for any reason cannot be enrolled in the Reserve Officers' Training Corps may be permitted to pursue the Reserve Officers' Training Corps course without expense to the Government. Such students will not be included in enrollment reports nor in the enrollment allotment, and cannot be issued Government uniforms or commutation therefor, but may use the arms and equipment issued to the institution.

§ 562.18 Membership in the National Guard. Students enrolled in the Reserve Officers' Training Corps are not eligible to continue as members thereof if commissioned in the National Guard. Such students may, however, pursue the course or parts thereof without being regularly enrolled in the Reserve Officers' Training Corps.

A student enrolled in the advanced course will not be discharged from the Reserve Officers' Training Corps prior to graduation therefrom to accept a commission in the National Guard nor be excused from his contracted attendance at a Reserve Officers' Training Corps camp to attend a National Guard camp in lieu thereof.

Members of the Reserve Officers' Training Corps may be enlisted in the National Guard, and while so enlisted may attend National Guard drill and assembly periods, but they will not be excused from any part of the Reserve Officers' Training Corps institutional course, nor from attendance at the required summer camp, to perform National Guard duty or attend National Guard training; there is nothing in this provision, however, to prevent members of the Reserve Officers' Training Corps from attending both Reserve Officers' Training Corps and National Guard camps during the same year, provided such camps come at different periods.

CROSS REFERENCE: For National Guard regulations, see 32 CFR Chapter II.

§ 562.19 Members of faculty. With the approval of the authorities of an institution, physically fit members of the faculty or the corps of instructors are authorized to take the courses of training prescribed herein for members of the Reserve Officers' Training Corps. However, it must be understood that participation in these courses does not entitle them to enrollment in the Reserve Officers' Training Corps nor to participation in any Government expenditures therefor. Members of the teaching staff with military experience may be appointed faculty military instructors on the recommendation of the professor of military science and tactics, with the consent of the head of the institution.

§ 562.20 Discharge and withdrawal of members. (a) Except in cases involving withdrawal from contract covering payment of commutation of subsistence, the authorities of an institution may, in an exceptional case for sufficient reason upon the recommendation of the professor of military science and tactics discharge a member of the Reserve Officers' Training Corps from such corps and from the necessity of completing the course of military training as a prerequisite for graduation. Cases involving withdrawal from advanced course contracts will be referred to the Army area commander for decision.

(b) Army area commanders are authorized to adjust cases involving the withdrawal of members of the Reserve Officers' Training Corps from, or return to, advanced course contracts upon the merits of the individual cases. Except in cases where withdrawal from the contract is for the convenience of the Government, the student should be required to refund to the Government any sums previously paid to him as commutation of subsistence.

(c) Students who by the end of the first year of the advanced course have not demonstrated proper and sufficient aptitude in the performance of their duties to indicate that their future instruction will qualify them for a commission in the Officers' Reserve Corps, or who fail to complete satisfactorily the camp course of instruction or the second year of the advanced course, or who in the interests of the Government should not be commissioned in the Officers' Reserve Corps, should, with the approval of the Army area commander, be promptly discharged from the Reserve Officers' Training Corps and be permitted, if they have faithfully complied with the provisions of their advanced course contracts, to withdraw from their contracts for the convenience of the Government. Students discharged under the provisions of this paragraph will not be eligible for reenrollment in the Reserve Officers' Training Corps.

(d) The withdrawal of an advanced course student from the institution terminates his obligation to continue the Reserve Officers' Training Corps training unless he later returns to the institution or voluntarily enrolls in the advanced course in another institution under the provisions of § 562.21, in which case he will be required to fulfill the provisions of the contract signed when he enrolled in the advanced course.

§ 562.21 Credit for Reserve Officers' Training Corps training. (a) A member of the Reserve Officers' Training Corps who withdraws from an institution and enters another in which a unit of the Reserve Officers' Training Corps of the same division is maintained and who is eligible to enroll therein under the regulations of the institution (and, in the case of an advanced-course student, is duly selected therefor) will be given credit, if he does enroll therein, for that part of the course successfully completed in the first institution.

(b) When a unit is withdrawn from an institution at which other units are maintained, members of the unit withdrawn may transfer to one of the remaining units of the institution and may be commissioned on graduation in the section of the Officers' Reserve Corps for which their entire training best qualifies them. Such transfers between medical units and units of other arms and services are not authorized

§ 562.22 Training, senior division— (a) Content and objectives of courses. The content and objectives of the several courses of instruction for units of the senior division are governed by the provisions of the Program of Instruction, Senior Division, Reserve Officers' Training Corps at Institutions, published by the Department of the Army.

(b) Military courtesy. The observance of military courtesy and customs is required on all occasions when students are under military instruction.

(c) Basic and advanced courses. The four years' Reserve Officers' Training Corps course of the senior division is divided into the basic course and the advanced course. The basic course consists of the first two years in the department of military science and tactics which correspond to the freshman and sophomore years of the academic departments. The advanced course consists of the last two years in the department of military science and tactics which correspond to the junior and senior years of the academic departments.

(d) Curtailment of courses. There is no authority under the law to compress the basic course into less than two academic years. The Army area commander is authorized to approve applications for curtailment of the advanced course when all of the following conditions exist: when the student will be eligible for graduation from the institution before sufficient time shall have elapsed to enable him to complete the regular advanced course; when the student has completed or agrees to complete all theoretical (classroom) subjects in the advanced course without reduction of the scope prescribed in the program of instruction, and subject to written examination in all subjects, under the supervision of the professor of military science and tactics; when the student agrees to attend the advanced course camp; and when the student, in the opinion of the professor of military science and tactics, possesses exceptional aptitude for leadership and capacity for completing the course in the time available.

Notwithstanding the granting of authority for a curtailment of the course, the student will not be recommended for appointment in the Officers' Reserve Corps unless he has on graduation from the institution fulfilled all the conditions prescribed and has in fact demonstrated his qualifications for commission. A curtailment of the course will not be authorized in the case of any student eligible for enrollment in the advanced course two or more years prior to the date of his graduation from the institution.

(e) Election of courses. Students electing the Reserve Officers' Training Corps courses do so for only two years at a time. The first election is for the two years' basic course, after which, if the student be recommended for further training, he may elect the advanced course. Completion of the basic course shall, when entered upon by a student, be a prerequisite for graduation as regards such student, unless he shall be discharged in accordance with the provisions of § 562.20. Completion of the advanced course is a requirement of the student's contract and should be made a requirement for academic graduation by virtue of the fact that the institution has, pursuant to section 40a, National Defense Act, as amended (41 Stat. 777; 10 U. S. C. 385), agreed to adopt into its curriculum the course of instruction (advanced course) prescribed by the Secretary of the Army, which, once entered upon by any student is, under the terms of his contract, a required subject of his institutional course.

(f) Camps. Reserve Officers' Training Corps camps will be established annually as prescribed by the Department of the Army. Attendance at one advanced-course camp is required of all students enrolled in the advanced course.

(g) Admission to advanced course. When any member of the senior division of the Reserve Officers' Training Corps has completed two academic years of service in that division, and has been selected by the head of the institution and the professor of military science and tactics for advanced training, he may be admitted to the advanced course of the senior division within the limits of the enrollment allotted to the institution.

(h) Written agreement for admission to advanced course. A member of the senior division, otherwise qualified, becomes enrolled in the advanced course upon signing a written agreement, upon the form prescribed for that purpose, to fulfill certain conditions as required by law and regulations.

Enrollment in the advanced course will normally take place at or before the beginning of the school year, semester, term, or quarter following the completion of the basic course, and the students enrolled will, under the terms of their contracts, normally pursue the course continuously to completion so long as they continue as students at the institution. Upon the recommendation of the professor of military science and tactics, heads of institutions are authorized to defer enrollment in the advanced course in the case of students who, at the time of becoming eligible for enrollment in the advanced course, will normally require more than two years to complete their academic courses. Similarly they may authorize deferments of unexecuted portions of advanced-course contracts in the case of students who would otherwise complete the advanced course at a period antedating their academic graduation. Such deferments will extend only until such period as will permit the student to complete the advanced course without curtailment. In no case will a deferment be granted which would result in a curtailment of the advanced course or a contraction of the course into a period of less than two years. No student in whose case a deferment has been granted and who fails to apply for enrollment in the advanced course in sufficient time to complete the course without curtailment will be accepted.

No deferment of any portion of the advanced course at institutions beyond the date of graduation from the academic course which the student is pursuing will be authorized. Students in postgraduate or professional courses who completed the basic course of a unit of any arm or service as undergraduates may be authorized to enroll in the advanced course of the same arm or service at any time prior to the commencement of the last two years of their course.

As an inducement to eligibles to enroll in advance for the advanced course, contracts may be prepared and signed prior to the completion of the basic course, but in such event the effective date of enrollment in accordance with the contract, namely, the first day of a subsequent academic year, semester, term or quarter, will be clearly specified. Students who fail to begin the work of the advanced course at the time specified will forfeit all rights under their contracts.

(i) Credit for previous training. Students who have received previous military training in a junior division unit or in a school or college conducting military training under an officer of the Army detailed as professor of military science and tactics, will receive such credit toward eligibility for the advanced course as the professor of military science and tactics and the head of the institution may jointly determine. The amount of credit and the manner of its application will thus be determined locally, consideration being given to the general educational policies and plans of the institution and to the military proficiency of the individual student, as evidenced by his record of previous training; but credit shall only be given for time during which the student has received a course of military training substantially equivalent to that prescribed for the corresponding period or periods of training of the senior division. Credit will not be given to a student for military training received prior to his fourteenth birthday. Credit may be given for training received at the United States Military Academy or at the United States Naval Academy, or at the United States Coast Guard Academy, or in the Naval Reserve Officers' Training Corps.

(l) Any student now or hereafter enrolled in the senior division of the Reserve Officers' Training Corps, who has been separated under honorable conditions from active duty in the armed forces of the United States (Army, Navy, Marine Corps, or Coast Guard), will receive credit toward completion of the two academic years of service in that division required for admission to the advanced course and for entitlement to commutation of subsistence, as provided for in section 47d, National Defense Act, as amended, for military training which he has received, while on active duty in the Army, Navy, Marine Corps, or Coast Guard, as follows:

Active duty in the armed forces of the United States:	Credit for basic course, senior division, ROTC
1 year or more	2 years.
6 months, but less than 1 year	1 year.
Less than 6 months	No credit.

(j) Hours of instruction. The minimum number hours of Reserve Officers' Training Corps instruction required to be given in the basic course is an average of 3 hours per week, and in the advanced course, 5 hours per week, with the exception that the minimum required number of hours for medical, dental, and veterinary units is 90 hours per annum in both the basic and the advanced courses; time spent in preparation for instruction will not be counted in satisfaction of this requirement.

(k) Meaning of instruction hours. An hour in the program of instruction represents the customary academic hour of 50 minutes.

(l) Distribution of instruction hours. With the approval of the Army area commander the required hours of instruction may be distributed throughout the year in accordance with the conditions existing at the particular institution.

(m) Courses of instruction. Courses of instruction will be furnished by The Adjutant General, and all instruction in the Reserve Officers' Training Corps will be conducted in accordance therewith.

(n) Credit for academic instruction. Credit on Reserve Officers' Training Corps courses for instruction received in the nonmilitary departments of the institution will be limited to that authorized in the Department of the Army programs of instruction.

(o) Credit toward a degree. The credit to be given for the successful completion of courses in the Reserve Officers' Training Corps toward a degree is a matter to be determined by the authorities of each institution. The successful conduct of Reserve Officers' Training Corps units depends in large measure upon the granting of credit on the same basis, hour for hour, for practical and theoretical instruction as is given for laboratory and classroom work in other departments.

(p) Athletics. Under such rules as may be adopted by the head of the institution and the professor of military science and tactics, a student engaged in college athletics may be excused from the regular classes in physical training held under the department of military science and tactics during the season in which he is actually engaged in such athletics.

(q) Band. Members of the Reserve Officers' Training Corps may be trained and employed as members of the band during a part of the hours allotted to close-order or other formal drills. Members of the band enrolled in the Reserve Officers' Training Corps qualifying for reserve commissions must so qualify by the same standards as are required of other members of the Reserve Officers' Training Corps.

(r) Absence from instruction. Absence from training or instruction will be excused only for sickness, injury, or other exceptional reasons. Any student who is absent from any part of the practical or theoretical instruction will be required, according to the practice at the particular institution, to make up the instruction missed thereby before being credited with completion of either the basic or advanced course.

(s) Military training certificate. Upon application, a military training certificate (W. D., A. G. O. Form No. 134) will be issued by the professor of military science and tactics to each student (except to those commissioned in the Officers' Reserve Corps or issued certifications for appointment) enrolled in a senior division of the Reserve Officers' Training Corps upon the termination of his instruction therein. This certificate will show the course pursued and the military qualification attained.

(b) High school units and junior units established in other institutions (Class CS). Military training at institutions maintaining junior units, other than essentially military schools, comprises a three years' course of theoretical and practical instruction substantially equivalent in scope to the basic course of infantry units, senior division. The program of instruction covering this three years' course is published by the Department of the Army. At high schools where the academic course includes the eleventh or twelfth grade, enrollment is limited to the three highest academic classes of the school. In communities where the public school system extends beyond the twelfth grade and the school authorities desire to include military training in the curriculum of the higher schools of the system, enrollment is limited to the four upper classes of the entire system. At all other Class CS institutions, enrollment is limited to the three upper classes of the institution.

(c) Credit for previous training. For regulations governing the crediting of training received in the junior division on the courses of senior division units, see § 562.22 (i). Students who have received previous military training in another junior division unit will receive such credit as the professor of military science and tactics and the head of the institution may jointly determine.

(d) Military training certificate. Upon application, a military training certificate (W. D., A. G. O. Form No. 134) will be issued by the professor of military science and tactics to each student enrolled in a junior division of the Reserve Officers' Training Corps upon the termination of his instruction therein (except to those commissioned in the Officers' Reserve Corps or issued certifications for appointment). The certificate will show the course pursued and the military qualification attained.

§ 562.24 Selection of honor military schools. (a) Based upon the results of the formal inspection, army commanders will forward annually to the Chief, Army Field Forces, as soon as practicable, lists of the essentially military schools within their army areas which are recommended for designation as honor military schools.

(b) The Chief, Army Field Forces, will designate a board of officers to examine and evaluate carefully the recommendations of the army commanders. Upon the completion of this evaluation, the board will recommend to the Secretary of the Army the award of the honor military school rating to those institutions which have maintained an exceptionally high standard of military training and discipline during that school year.

(c) Final approval for the awarding of the honor military school rating will be given by the Department of the Army and announced prior to the close of the school year, whenever possible.

§ 562.25 Selection of honor high schools. (a) Based on the results of the formal inspection, army commanders will designate annually as honor high schools such schools in their respective army areas as have attained an exceptionally high standard of training and discipline. In communities where two or more separate high schools are located, each school may be separately considered for the honor rating.

(b) The schools designated as honor high schools in each army area will not be announced by the army commander but will be reported to The Adjutant General annually as early as practicable after the conclusion of annual inspections. The Department of the Army will announce the awarding of the honor high-school rating prior to the close of the school year, whenever possible.

§ 562.26 Distinguished military student. (a) A "distinguished military student" is a person designated by the professor of military science and tactics who:

(1) Possesses outstanding qualities of military leadership, high moral character, and definite aptitude for the military service.

(2) Has distinguished himself either academically or by demonstrated leadership through his accomplishments while participating in recognized campus activities.

(3) Has completed or is scheduled to complete the advanced course, Senior Division, ROTC, within one school year, and

(4) Has a standing in military subjects among the upper third of his ROTC class.

(b) Qualified students who will complete the advanced course, Senior Division, ROTC, prior to graduation from a college or university which confers a baccalaureate degree will be notified by the professor of military science and tactics of designation as distinguished military students by letter on the day of successful completion of the advanced course, Senior Division, ROTC.

(c) Qualified students who are scheduled to complete the advanced course, Senior Division, ROTC, and simultaneously to be graduated from a college or university with a baccalaureate degree within one school year may be designated distinguished military students by the professor of military science and tactics at the beginning of the student's last full school year.

(d) The professor of military science and tactics or higher commander must obtain the written opinion of the president or other appropriate official of the institution prior to the announcement of specific students designated as distinguished military students.

(e) A copy of the letter designating each distinguished military student will be forwarded to The Adjutant General, Washington 25, D. C., attention: AGSO–R.

(f) The designation as a distinguished military student of a Senior Division, ROTC unit, other than medical, entitles the individual to be considered in selection of applicants for appointment in the Regular Army and Regular Air Force during his last year of attendance at a college or university which confers a baccalaureate degree on graduation therefrom, provided he is eligible for appointment under other pertinent laws and regulations.

§ 562.27 Distinguished military graduates. (a) A "distinguished military graduate" is a person designated by the professor of military science and tactics or by a higher commander who:

(1) Is a distinguished military student.

(2) Has completed the advanced course, Senior Division, ROTC.

(3) Has been graduated from a college or university with a baccalaureate degree, and

(4) Has maintained the standards required of a distinguished military student during the period between designation as a distinguished military student and the date of graduation with a degree from an accredited college or university.

(b) The professor of military science and tactics or higher commander must obtain the written opinion of the president or other appropriate official of the institution prior to the announcement of specific students designated as distinguished military graduates.

(c) Distinguished military students selected for appointment in the Regular Service who maintain these standards until graduation are assured of appointment, provided they are physically qualified. Such distinguished military students will be notified of their selection for a Regular appointment in January or November of each year. Professors of military science and tactics will officially designate as distinguished military graduates all distinguished military students who have maintained prescribed standards throughout the course. Such designation will be accomplished by letter on the day of graduation. This letter will be given each distinguished military graduate and one copy will be forwarded to The Adjutant General, Washington 25, D. C. attention: AGSO–R. The appropriate commander will take this action in the case of students who are attending institutions where there is no professor of military science and tactics.

(d) In order to be considered for designation as distinguished military graduates, distinguished military students in attendance at colleges and universities which do not have a professor of military science and tactics must inform the appropriate higher commander (numbered Air Force or army commander, or senior U. S. Army or U. S. Air Force commander of oversea commands) during the early part of their senior year of the school at which they are in attendance.

§ 562.28 Honor graduates of honor military schools. (a) For each year that an essentially military school is designated as an honor military school, the professor of military science and tactics assigned thereto may designate not to exceed three honor graduates.

(b) In this case the term "honor graduate" will apply to graduates of such institutions in the current academic year, who have been members of the Reserve Officers' Training Corps for at least 2 years while at the school, citizens of the United States, who have in their school work shown proficiency in subjects amounting to not less than 15 units prescribed by the regulations for admission to the United States Military Academy and have been selected by the president or other head of the institution for scholastic excellence, and who have been designated by the professor of military science and tactics as possessing outstanding qualities of leadership, character, and aptitude for the military service. The requirements for admission to the United States Military Academy are shown in detail in the Department of the Army pamphlet, Information Relative to the Appointment and Admission of Cadets to the United States Military Academy, which may be obtained from The Adjutant General.

(c) In case a class MI institution is designated as an honor military school, the honor graduates thereof will be listed in two groups, as follows:

(1) Honor graduates, honor military school.

(2) Class MI honor graduates.

(d) The names of the honor graduates of honor military schools (paragraph (c) (1) of this section), together with the academic standing attained by each and accompanied by a report prepared by the professor of military science and tactics, will be furnished The Adjutant General immediately following graduation. The report of the professor of military science and tactics will contain the military record of each graduate and a brief estimate of his qualifications as a potential officer.

CROSS REFERENCE: For regulations contained in the pamphlet "Information Relative to the Appointment and Admission of Cadets to the United States Military Academy," see Part 575 of this chapter.

§ 562.29 Honor graduates of class MI institutions. (a) The professor of military science and tactics at each class MI institution maintaining a Reserve Officers' Training Corps unit may designate annually the honor graduates of such units.

(b) In this case the term "honor graduate" will apply to graduates of such institutions who hold either a commission or a certificate of appointment in the Officers' Reserve Corps, citizens of the United States, who have been selected by the president or other head of the institution for scholastic excellence and who have been designated by the professor of military science and tactics as possessing outstanding qualities of leadership, character, and aptitude for the military service.

(c) The designation as honor graduate of a class MI institution entitles the individual to be considered in selection of applicants for appointment in the Regular Army, provided he will graduate in the current academic year from an institution which offers a college degree upon satisfactory completion of not less than a 4 years' college course, and has been selected by the president or other head of the institution as an honor graduate for scholastic excellence, and provided further that he is eligible for appointment under other pertinent laws and regulations.

§ 562.30 Uniforms and insignia. Graduates holding certificates of eligibility for appointment as second lieutenants in the Officers' Reserve Corps are authorized to wear the prescribed uniform of the organization from which they graduated until they attain the age when they become eligible for such appointment (21 years). The occasions on which the uniform may be worn are the same as those prescribed for Reserve officers not on active duty.

§ 562.31 Honor graduates of honor military schools as candidates for the United States Military Academy. In accordance with the provisions of the Act of July 9, 1918 (40 Stat. 894; 10 U. S. C. 1091), honor graduates of honor schools may be appointed as candidates for the United States Military Academy. The term "honor school" mentioned in that act will apply to honor military schools. Honor graduates of honor military schools will be selected for appointment as cadets of the United States Military Academy in the following manner:

(a) The Adjutant General will maintain a roster of honor military schools as determined by annual Department of the Army inspections. At an early date in each year, the Adjutant General will anticipate the vacancies in the Corps of Cadets which are open to honor graduates and will make an equitable distribution of those vacancies among the honor military schools and notify them accordingly. Each designated institution will notify The Adjutant General at a specified time of the names of the selected honor graduates designating them as principal, first alternate, and second alternate. In considering graduates for this designation the institution is not limited to those graduating during the current year.

(b) An honor graduate, designated as principal, of a selected institution will be appointed a cadet of the United Staes Military Academy upon the certificate of the head of the institution that the appointee is an honor graduate of that institution of a year for which the institution was designated an honor military school. All honor graduates are appointed subject to the same tests for mental and physical qualifications as are required of other candidates. In the event that the honor graduate designated as principal does not accept the appointment or fails to qualify for admission, the first alternate will, if qualified, be appointed, and in the event that neither the principal nor the first alternate qualifies, the second alternate will, if qualified, be appointed. The honor graduate must, at date of admission to the United States Military Academy, be between the ages of 17 and 22.

§ 562.32 Appointment from the senior division. (a) Graduates of the senior division of the Reserve Officers' Training Corps may be appointed as Reserve officers upon satisfactory completion of the course of training prescribed by law and regulations provided they meet the requirements of pertinent regulations governing appointment in the section of the Officers' Reserve Corps in which commission is sought. The recommendations of the professors of military science and tactics and the head of the institution, concurred in by the chief of the arm or service concerned, will be required in each case. Appointments are made only in the lowest authorized grade of the proper section.

(b) Students of Medical Department units of the Reserve Officers' Training Corps who complete the prescribed course for such units prior to qualifying for their professional degree will not be appointed in the Medical Department sections of the Officers' Reserve Corps until evidence is submitted that such students have actually obtained their professional degree.

(c) During the period of commencement the commissions or certifications for appointment will be formally presented to those entitled to receive them with such ceremony as the head of the institution may prescribe.

§ 562.34 Appointment in the Regular Army. The appointment of members or former members of the Reserve Officers' Training Corps as commissioned officers in the Regular Army will be governed by regulations for appointment of commissioned officers in the Regular Army which specify exemptions from educational tests granted to honor graduates of selected institutions maintaining units of the senior division of the Reserve Officers' Training Corps and partial exemptions granted to other graduates and members of the Reserve Officers' Training Corps. The Department of the Army will from time to time advise all concerned relative to the institutions and the number of honor graduates from each who may take advantage of these provisions.

THE ADJUTANT GENERAL,
Washington, D. C.
(Through the Commanding General, ---- Army.)

SIR: 1. By direction of the governing authorities of ---------- University (College or School), I hereby submit application for the establishment of a ---------- unit of the Reserve Officers' Training Corps at this institution.

2. Should this application be accepted by the President, the authorities of this university (college or school) hereby agree to establish and maintain a two-years' compulsory (or elective) course of military training as a minimum for its physically fit male students, which course when entered upon by any student shall, as regards such student, be a prerequisite for graduation, to allot a minimum of an average of three hours per week per academic year to military training and instruction during the first two academic years and to arrange for five hours per week during the balance of such students' course, and to use their endeavors to promote and further the objects for which the training corps is organized. It is understood that the law requires a minimum enrollment in the military course of 100 (or 50, as the case may be) physically fit male students, citizens of the United States and over 14 years of age, in order to maintain the Reserve Officers' Training Corps unit requested.

3. The authorities of this institution also agree to conform to the regulations of the Secretary of the Army relating to issue, care, use, safekeeping, and accounting for such Government property as may be issued to the institution. Further, the institutional authorities agree to appoint or designate by resolution or in bylaws, whichever may be countenanced by statutes or approved methods of procedure governing the institution, an officer of the institution, to be known as military property custodian, who will be empowered to requisition, receive, store, and account for this property and otherwise transact matters pertaining thereto, for and in behalf of the institution.

4. Attached herewith is a statement giving particulars with reference to the institution.

TRAINING CAMPS

AUTHORITY: §§ 562.58 to 562.69 issued under sec. 34, 41 Stat. 778, 10 U. S. C. 441.
DERIVATION: AR 145–30, Apr. 21, 1948.

§ 562.58 Supervision and command. These camps will be conducted by Army commanders and appropriate oversea commanders, and when located at class II installations, with the assistance of the heads of the administrative or technical services represented by the ROTC units, and in accordance with instructions issued by the Department of the Army. All matters pertaining to service-type ROTC summer camps, when conducted at the sites of technical service schools, will be coordinated with heads of administrative or technical services concerned.

§ 562.59 Number, type, and location of camps. The number, type, and location of camps will be determined by the Chief, Army Field Forces, and the appropriate commanding generals of the oversea commands concerned, with the approval of the Department of the Army at least 4 months prior to the opening date of such camps.

§ 562.60 Designation. Camps will be designated: "The Fort ---------- ROTC Camp," "The Camp ---------- ROTC Camp," etc.

§ 562.61 Time and duration. Camp will open ordinarily in June of each year (as soon as practicable after the closing date of educational institutions concerned) and will continue for a period of 6 weeks.

§ 562.62 Attendance. (a) The Department of the Army will prescribe the number of students in each Army area and oversea command to attend camps annually.

(b) Camp attendance is required of, and open to, students as indicated below:

(1) Attendance at one camp is required of students enrolled in the advanced course, normally upon completion of the first year of the advanced course.

(2) Students who are required or who elect to pursue technical training or engage in employment of furtherance of such training during the summer following their junior academic year under the general supervision of the authorities of the institution may be authorized by commanders referred to in § 562.58 to attend camp upon completion of the advanced course. Commanders referred to in § 562.58 are authorized to forward to the Department of the Army, for consideration, cases of exceptional merit not specifically covered by this subparagraph and subparagraph (3) of this paragraph.

(3) Students who, after completion of the basic course, have but one more year before graduation from collegiate institutions and for whom curtailment of the advanced course under the provisions of AR 145–10 and § 562.1 to § 562.36 is authorized, may be permitted by commanders referred to in § 562.58 to attend camp upon completion of the advanced course.

(4) Students who have completed the freshman academic year without participation in the Reserve Officers' Training Corps program during that academic year, but who have received credit for the basic course under the provisions of section 47c, National Defense Act, as amended, and the joint resolution of September 8, 1916 (10 U. S. C. 388), may become enrolled in the advanced course upon signing advanced course contracts, and, upon their agreeing in writing to attend Reserve Officers' Training Corps camp, may be permitted to attend such camp prior to their actual entrance into such advanced course.

(5) Attendance is required of students to whom permission to attend a deferred camp has been granted under the provisions of § 562.64.

(6) Students pursuing the ROTC course under the provisions of § 562.17 may be authorized by the commanders referred to in § 562.58 to attend an ROTC camp without expense to the Government other than payment for attendance as authorized by section 47c, National Defense Act. The conditions of attendance will be explained to each student and he will be required to sign a waiver of claim against the United States for any allowance whatsoever based on such attendance, except for payment under the provisions of section 47c, National Defense Act, as amended.

(7) Institutions desiring to send nonveteran students of Senior Division ROTC units to summer camp after completion of the basic course will be required to secure approval to do so from the army commander concerned, prior to the close of the school year.

(8) When the number of students that can be trained is such that all cannot be accommodated, selection for camp training will be made with priority in the following order:

(i) Advanced course students to whom deferred camp attendance was granted the previous year.

(ii) Students compelled to withdraw from a previous camp under the conditions cited in paragraph (d) of this section.

(iii) Advanced course students attending at the normal time, i. e., after satisfactory completion of the first year of the advanced course.

(iv) Students pursuing the ROTC course under provisions of § 562.17, authorized to attend.

(c) Training of the ROTC student is conducted in clearly defined stages according to a progressive scheme of instruction. The camp training supplements and follows in progression the first year of the advanced course at the institution.

(d) Students will not be authorized to attend more than one camp, except in the following cases:

(1) When the student was compelled to withdraw from a camp previously attended and was unable to complete the camp course of instruction because of sickness or cause other than misconduct, fault, or neglect on his part.

(2) When the student, after attending camp, has transferred to a unit of an arm or service other than that of the camp previously attended.

(3) When authorized by the Secretary of the Army, in exceptional cases. In these cases the student, if eligible, will be required to attend the next camp of his unit in accordance with the provisions of his advanced course contract.

(e) Exemption of members of the advanced course from the required camp attendance or the extension of credit toward such attendance for previous military training is not authorized by law.

(f) An opinion of The Judge Advocate General states that the attendance under contract at summer ROTC camp of ROTC students who have completed only their first year basic course is not legally authorized.

§ 562.63 Camps for units at MI, MS, and CS institutions. The only camps provided for by these regulations are advanced course camps. The Department of the Army does not maintain camps for the instruction of students in the junior division or for students at class MI institutions, as such. Nevertheless, where such camps are maintained by institutions, the personnel and equipment allotted to such institutions may be used for this purpose, without expense to the Government beyond such expense as would be involved in the maintenance of such personnel and equipment at the institution.

§ 562.64 Deferred attendance. (a) When it is not practicable for an advanced course student to attend camp until after the normal period, attendance may be deferred by commanders referred to in § 562.58 to whom application for such deferment, setting forth the reasons which require deferment, will be addressed.

(b) Commanders referred to in § 562.58 will not authorize a change of advanced camp attendance from the normal period to a period subsequent to graduation unless the reasons given are substantial.

(c) A student will not be permitted to defer camp attendance to a time subsequent to the camp which immediately follows his graduation unless he is physically unable to attend that camp, in which case, upon receipt of proper evidence of disability, including the certificate of a reputable physician, the commanders referred to in § 562.58 may authorize the student to defer attendance at camp for an additional year.

(d) The veteran-trainee may be authorized subsistence allowance in the amounts to which he is ordinarily entitled and subject to the $175–$200 limiting proviso of section 2, Public Law 679, 79th Congress, which amends paragraph 6 of part VIII, Veterans' Regulations Numbered 1 (a), as amended, while in approved leave status from his place of training. Such leave may be used to attend Reserve Officers' Training Camp or for any other purpose. It is considered that a trainee does not pursue his regular course of education or training for the period of summer Reserve officer training, and therefore he will not be paid subsistence for this period, unless he has sufficient accrued leave for which he has applied to cover this period of training.

§ 562.65 Attendance at camp of arm or service other than that in which enrolled. There will be students in scientific and technical courses whose services will be needed in, and who will wish to be commissioned in, branches not represented by units on their campuses. Commanders referred to in § 562.58 may authorize the attendance of such students at ROTC camps of the appropriate branches, provided such students are enrolled in academic courses prerequisite to enrollment in advanced ROTC as prescribed by Department of the Army publications.

§ 562.66 Absence from camp. (a) For unavoidable causes, such as sickness, commanders referred to in § 562.58 may, in each particular case, authorize a short delay in arrival, which in no event is to extend beyond the fifth day of camp. Students will not be admitted to camp later than the fifth day.

(b) In exceptional cases when hardship would otherwise ensue, camp commanders in each particular case may authorize students to be absent from camp for short periods, during which they should ordinarily be present for instruction.

(c) A student, who through absence from camp, fails to receive at least 85 percent of the total scheduled instruction, will not be credited with camp attendance nor will he be considered as fulfilling that part of his advanced course contract which requires camp attendance. Army commanders are authorized to act as final approving authorities on requests from institutions within their areas for waivers of the conditions set forth herein.

§ 562.67 Dismissal and withdrawal from camp. (a) Any student who because of demonstrated inaptitude, indifference to training, or who is guilty of misconduct, of whose habits or traits of character indicate that upon completion of the course of instruction prescribed for ROTC units he would not be qualified for a commission in the Officers Reserve Corps, will be dismissed from the camp by the camp commander. Such action by the camp commander will be based upon a thorough and impartial investigation by a board of officers. A full report concerning the dismissal of the student, setting forth the reasons therefor, will be prepared in duplicate. The first copy will be forwarded to the army commander of the appropriate area, or the commander of the oversea command in which the student's unit is located. The second copy will be forwarded to the authorities of the institution in which the student is enrolled. Any student who is compelled, by necessity, to leave the camp through no fault or misconduct of his own may be permitted to withdraw by the commanding officer. Students who are dismissed or who withdraw from camp are entitled to transportation and subsistence as provided hereinafter. Any student who desires to withdraw from the camp for his own convenience will be interviewed by the camp commander, who will endeavor to persuade the student that it is to his advantage to complete the camp training. If the student persists in his desire, he will be permitted to withdraw. The records of students who are dismissed, or who are compelled by necessity, not involving fault or misconduct, to withdraw, will carry the notation, "Dismissed or (Permitted to withdraw) from ---------- advanced ROTC camp on (date) for the convenience of the Government." The notation, "Permitted to withdraw from ---------- advanced ROTC camp on (date) for his own convenience" will be placed on the records of students who are permitted to withdraw for their own convenience.

(b) While dismissal from camp ordinarily will result in discharge from the ROTC, such discharge is not included in the dismissal. The professor of military science and tactics at the institution, after thorough investigation and examination of the report of dismissal, will recommend to the army or oversea commander, through the head of the institution, either that the student be discharged from the ROTC or that he, in an exceptional case, be retained therein, and upon action by the higher authority, designated above, will take steps accordingly. Students permitted to withdraw for their own convenience will be advised that they will be required to refund all commutation of subsistence so far received as a condition precedent to release from contract, and that in the discretion of the institutional authorities they may be required to refund to the institution the unearned portion of advanced course commutation of uniform allowance expended in their behalf.

§ 562.68 Transportation—(a) Transportation authority. (1) Students will normally be authorized to proceed to designated camps from their institutions, or from their legal residences where the distances from such residences to the camps do not exceed the distances from their institutions to the camps, and to return thereto, by the shortest usually traveled route.

(2) Under exceptional circumstances, army commanders may:

(i) Authorize a student to proceed to the camp designated for his unit from his legal residence when the distance from such residence to the camp is greater than from the institution to the camp. This authorization will be given only to students whose institutions close so early in the year as to make it impracticable for them to proceed directly from the institution to the camp.

(ii) In the interest of economy, authorize a student to attend a camp of an arm or service other than the camp prescribed for his unit. If the camp to be attended is beyond the territorial limits of the Army in which the institution of the student is located, the camp attendance will be arranged by the army commanders concerned, by direct correspondence.

(b) Travel allowances. (1) Members of the ROTC will be paid travel allowance at the rate of 5 cents per mile from the place from which the students are authorized to proceed to camp and for the return travel thereto. Payment of the travel allowance for the return journey may be made in advance of the actual performance thereof. W. D., F. D. Form 21 (Reimbursement Voucher, Pay Roll, CMTC, ROTC, will be used as a voucher for payment of travel allowances and copies of orders will be filed therewith.

(2) Return travel allowances is not due to a student until the close of camp. The commanding officer will pay travel allowances to a student upon dismissal or withdrawal if determined by him that such advanced payment is proper and desirable for the good of the service. However, the commanding officer is authorized to withhold travel allowances until the termination of the camp, if he determines such course advisable, and if the student is not present at the close of the camp to refuse payment thereof.

(3) The shortest usually traveled route will be the basis of calculation for travel allowances. Travel allowances for members of the ROTC will be paid from the appropriations for ROTC.

(i) Orders for travel to camp and return therefrom will be issued by army or oversea commanders, or such subordinate authority as they may designate.

(ii) In the case of a student authorized to attend a camp in an Army area other than that wherein the place from which he is directed to proceed is located, the travel order will be issued by the Army commander of the area from which the student is directed to travel, and 3 copies of the order will be sent at once to the Army commander of the appropriate area in which the camp to be attended is located for each student so ordered.

(c) Students without funds. Students unable to pay their own railroad fare may be authorized transportation in kind by Army commanders, in which case orders issued will specifically state that transportation requests and meal tickets will be furnished. Transportation request and meal tickets will be forwarded to the student with orders directing him to proceed to camp. Cost of this transportation and subsistence will be borne by ROTC funds allocated to Army commanders.

§ 562.69 Pay. Members of the ROTC or other persons authorized by the Secretary of the Army to attend advanced camps shall be paid for attendance at such camps at the rate prescribed for enlisted men of the seventh grade of the Regular Army with less than 3 years service.

PART 564—ENLISTED RESERVE CORPS

Sec.

564.1 Eligibility.
564.2 Grade.
564.3 Enlistment.
564.4 Transfers.
564.5 Qualification.
564.6 Physical examination.
564.7 Orders to active duty.
564.8 Voluntary requests for orders to active duty.
564.9 Separation from service.
564.10 Identification card.
564.11 Change of residence.

AUTHORITY: §§ 564.1 to 564.11 issued under 39 Stat. 195, 41 Stat. 780, 44 Stat. 705; 10 U. S. C. 421, 423–427.

DERIVATION: AR 150–5, FED 13, 1946.

§ 564.1 Eligibility. (a) Male warrant officers, flight officers, and enlisted personnel with active Federal service, since September 16, 1940, in the Army, United States Air Force, National Guard, Marine Corps, Marine Corps Reserve, Navy, Naval Reserve, Coast Guard, or Coast Guard Reserve may be enlisted in the Enlisted Reserve Corps; Provided, That:

(1) The applicant is a citizen of the United States or has filed legal declaration of intention to become a citizen of the United States.

(2) Relief from active duty or discharge last received was under honorable conditions.

(3) Applicant was not discharged under Army Regulations.

(4) Applicant is not ineligible for enlistment under Army Regulations.

(5) Requirements as to physical standards are met.

(6) Applicant reports a permanent home address within the continental limits of the United States or its possessions.

(7) The applicant has, at time of enlistment, passed his 17th birthday and not reached his 35th birthday; except that an applicant possessing technical skills needed by the Enlisted Reserve Corps who has passed his 35th birthday but has not reached his 45th birthday may, when specifically authorized by the Army commander concerned, be accepted for enlistment.

(b) Male personnel without prior active Federal service who meet the applicable requirements of paragraph (a) of this section may be enlisted in the Enlisted Reserve Corps: Provided, That the applicant is specifically enlisted for a unit undergoing training, and agrees in writing for such assignment and training.

§ 564.2 Grade. (a) Enlistments will be in the seventh grade except that:

(1) Warrant officers and flight officers may enlist in the first grade providing they enlist prior to the official termination of the war; or after the official termination of the war they enlist within 6 months after relief or discharge from active duty.

(2) Enlisted personnel of the Army, United States Air Force, National Guard, Marine Corps, Marine Corps Reserve, Navy, Naval Reserve, Coast Guard, or Coast Guard Reserve may be enlisted in the grade or equivalent grade (Navy, Naval Reserve, Coast Guard, or Coast Guard Reserve) held at the time of discharge or relief from active duty providing they enlist prior to the official termination of the present war; or after the official termination of the war they enlist within 6 months after relief or discharge from active duty.

(3) Applicants who have successfully completed the following number of years of ROTC instruction and the termination of such instruction was under honorable conditions and for reasons other than academic failure are authorized the following scale of grade eligibility:

(i) Years of Senior ROTC instruction successfully completed:

	Grade

(ii) Grade 6 is authorized where the applicant has graduated from a Junior ROTC unit.

(4) Applicants indicated in § 564.1 (b) may, based on their civilian technical skills, be enlisted in a higher grade upon approval of commanders authorized to make promotion or reductions in the Enlisted Reserve Corps.

(b) With the exception of those enlisted in the Air Force Enlisted Reserve, individuals enlisted in the Enlisted Reserve Corps will be permitted to retain Army ratings such as parachutist, combat infantryman, and similar technical designations authorized by current directives, and appropriate notations will be made on their records to reflect such actions. An individual enlisted in the Air Force Enlisted Reserve who formerly held such a rating may wear the badge of that rating, but the rating will not be valid unless the individual is rerated in United States Air Force orders subsequent to enlistment in the Enlisted Reserve Corps.

§ 564.3 Enlistment—(a) Section for which enlisted. Enlistments will normally be made in the section of the Enlisted Reserve Corps, elected by the applicant, in which he appears qualified. Enlistments are authorized in the following sections:

(1) Adjutant General's Department Reserve.
(2) Air Force Enlisted Reserve.
(3) Army Security Enlisted Reserve.
(4) Armor Enlisted Reserve (including tank destroyer personnel).
(5) Cavalry Enlisted Reserve.
(6) Chemical Corps Enlisted Reserve.
(7) Coast Artillery Corps Enlisted Reserve.
(8) Corps of Engineers Enlisted Reserve.
(9) Corps of Military Police Enlisted Reserve.
(10) Field Artillery Enlisted Reserve (including tank destroyer personnel).
(11) Finance Department Enlisted Reserve.
(12) Infantry Enlisted Reserve.
(13) Medical Department Enlisted Reserve.
(14) Military Intelligence Enlisted Reserve.
(15) Ordnance Department Enlisted Reserve.
(16) Quartermaster Corps Enlisted Reserve.
(17) Signal Corps Enlisted Reserve.
(18) Staff and Administrative Enlisted Reserve.
(19) Transportation Corps Enlisted Reserve.
(20) Women's Army Corps Enlisted Reserve.

(b) Period of enlistment. Enlistments in the Enlisted Reserve Corps will be for a period of 3 years. Any previous enlistments made for "3 years or for the duration of the war plus 6 months, whichever is the longer" are amended to expire 3 years from date of enlistment.

§ 564.4 Transfers. Applications for transfer to another section of the Enlisted Reserve Corps may be approved by the commanding general of the Army area: Provided, That each transfer is made in grade seven and the applicant is qualified for service in the section requested.

§ 564.5 Qualification. All men enlisted in the Enlisted Reserve Corps must be qualified physically and otherwise for military service in accordance with current standards for enlistment or induction.

§ 564.6 Physical examination. (a) The standards for physical examination will be those prescribed in AR 40–115, Physical Standards and Physical Profiling for Enlistment and Induction, except, however, the Department of the Army may prescribe special standards for physical examination for enlistments in certain branches of the service or for special types of duty.

(b) When necessary, applicants who are otherwise qualified for enlistment in the Enlisted Reserve Corps may be transported from the recruiting station or examining board to the nearest station where a physical examination may be given, retained thereat, furnished meals and lodging, and returned at Government expense.

§ 564.7 Orders to active duty—(a) Authority. Men under 18 years of age who were enlisted under the authority contained in regulations issued October 2, 1945 (10 CFR, 1945 Supp., Part 604 note) will not be ordered to active service until they have attained their eighteenth birthday but will be ordered to active service immediately thereafter, except that:

(1) Students in attendance at colleges or secondary schools may, upon their own application, be deferred from being ordered to active duty to complete the term or semester in which they reach their eighteenth birthday, but in no case beyond the age of 18 years and 6 months.

(2) Members of the Enlisted Reserve Corps who are enrolled in the Army Specialized Training Reserve Program will be ordered to active duty at the end of the term in which they reach their eighteenth birthday.

(3) Commanding generals of Army areas are authorized to defer orders to active duty for illness or other cogent reasons but in no case shall the deferment be extended beyond the age of 18 years and 6 months.

(b) Men enlisted under the provisions of § 564.2 (a) and (b) will not be ordered to active duty except as ordered by the Secretary of the Army.

§ 564.8 Voluntary requests for orders to active duty. (a) Members of the Enlisted Reserve Corps, unassigned, under 18 years of age, who enlisted under the provisions of regulations issued October 2, 1945 (10 CFR, 1945 Supp., Part 604 note), may, upon attaining their eighteenth birthday, if not ordered to active duty immediately, voluntarily request orders to active duty by submitting in each case a formal request in writing to the commanding general of the service command of residence. Such members of the Enlisted Reserve Corps will be ordered to active duty in the Army of the United States for the unexpired period of their enlistment in the Enlisted Reserve Corps.

(b) Members of the Enlisted Reserve Corps, other than those specified in paragraph (a) of this section, will not be ordered to active duty on their own request except for limited periods of training as may be ordered by the Secretary of the Army with the consent of each reservist concerned.

§ 564.9 Separation from service—(a) Discharge from active duty. When on active duty the discharge of members of the Enlisted Reserve Corps will be governed by the provisions of Army Regulations.

(b) Discharge from inactive status. (1) Except for enlisted men of the Regular Army transferred to the Enlisted Reserve Corps and retired under the provisions of AR 615–395 (Army regulations relative to retirement) and subsequently discharged upon completion of 30 years' service, members of the Enlisted Reserve Corps when on an inactive status may be discharged as follows:

(i) By direction of the President or order of the Secretary of the Army.

(ii) By direction of the Commanding General of an army (ZI), United States Army, Alaska, United States Army, Caribbean, or United States Army, Pacific, or such officer, or officers, as may be designated by them for that purpose.

(a) Upon expiration of term of enlistment.

(b) On account of physical disability. If an enlisted reservist on inactive status becomes physically disqualified for limited service, he will be discharged.

(c) Upon acceptance of a commission in the armed forces, appointment to the U. S. Military, Naval, or Coast Guard Academy, upon receipt of notice of enlistment in the Regular Army or National Guard, or upon receipt of notice of enlistment in the Navy, Marine Corps, or Coast Guard.

(d) Upon presentation of conclusive evidence in accordance with the provisions of AR 615–362 (Army regulations relative to discharge) that his membership in the Enlisted Reserve Corps in an inactive status has a material deterrent effect on his earning a livelihood.

(e) Because of inaptness or failure to possess the required degree of adaptability for military service.

(f) Because of evidence of habits or traits of character which render retention in the service undesirable.

(g) Upon conviction by a civil court.

(h) At any time within 90 days prior to expiration of enlistment, for the purpose of reenlistment as of day next following day of discharge.

(2) No enlisted reservist will be called to active duty for the purpose of effecting his discharge.

(3) Discharge certificates will be furnished enlisted reservists discharged from inactive status.

§ 564.10 Identification card. (a) W. D., A. G. O. Form 166 (Identification Card—Enlisted Reserve Corps) will be prepared and given to the enlisted man at the time of his enlistment or transfer to the Enlisted Reserve Corps to be retained in his possession until called to active duty or discharged.

(b) The reverse side of the identification card contains instructions to the reservist regarding report of change of address.

§ 564.11 Change of residence. (a) Immediately upon changing residence, a member of the Enlisted Reserve Corps will notify the commanding general of the Army area, using W. D., A. G. O. Form 167 (Individual Report of Enlisted Reservist), stating his new address.

(b) Enlistment in the Enlisted Reserve Corps does not restrict travel or residence abroad. An enlisted reservist before leaving the United States for a period of 30 days or more will notify the commanding general of the service command of any occupation he expects to follow while abroad, of his foreign address, and of the approximate duration of his absence. Upon his return he will report to the commanding general of the Army area the date of his return and his permanent address. Enlisted reservists who depart for an absence abroad for a period of 6 months or longer will be discharged, unless, for cogent reasons, an exception is made by The Adjutant General.

Subchapter G—Procurement

TRANSFER AND REVISION OF REGULATIONS

The regulations contained in Part 818 and Part 820, Chapter VIII, Title 10, are hereby transferred to Part 608 and Part 610, Subchapter G, Chapter V, Title 34, as follows:

PART 608—VETERINARY INSPECTION

Sec.
608.1 Inspection of establishments.
608.2 Correction of defects in establishments.
608.3 Milk plant and dairy farm inspection.

AUTHORITY: §§ 608.1 to 608.3 issued under R. S. 161; 5 U. S. C. 22.
DERIVATION: AR 40–2150, Oct. 9, 1942.

§ 608.1 Inspection of establishments—(a) Award of contracts. (1) The award of contracts for meat and meat-food products is limited to bidders whose plants operate directly under the supervision of the Bureau of Animal Industry, United States Department of Agriculture, or to bidders handling in establishments approved by the Army Veterinary Corps, meat and meat-food originating in plants under the supervision of the United States Bureau of Animal Industry. The award of contracts for milk, cream, or other fluid milk products (other than canned), and ice cream, will be limited to establishments which have passed an Army sanitary inspection within the calendar month preceding the opening date of the bid or which are certified to by Army Medical Department authorities as approved sources of supply.

(2) Establishments other than those mentioned in subparagraph (1) of this paragraph which supply or propose to supply foods of animal origin will be inspected by a veterinary officer as circumstances and conditions warrant.

(b) Inspection procedure. The inspection of establishments will be conducted by an officer of the Veterinary Corps whenever such officer is available. The inspection will be conducted so as to ascertain that the plant and the methods in use conform to recognized principles of sanitation and to such technical instructions and informative guides as may be issued by The Surgeon General.

§ 608.2 Correction of defects in establishments. When an establishment is not properly operated or does not maintain a satisfactory standard of sanitation, and correction of these defects cannot be obtained after the matter has been brought to the attention of the proprietor or manager, written recommendation should be made by the responsible veterinary officer, through the surgeon, to the commanding officer that the establishment not be approved as a source of supply for the command.

(2) It is not intended that veterinary officers will routinely inspect all dairy farms supplying milk to milk plants having Army contracts. Ordinarily, veterinary officers will determine the character and quality of the raw milk through frequent laboratory examinations of representative samples taken at milk plants and through close contact with local health or other civilian agencies exercising supervision over the raw milk supply. However, in exceptional circumstances where it would be in the interest of the Army to do so, and in cases where milk is procured by an Army post from an individual or firm operating a dairy farm in conjunction with a milk plant, the veterinary officer will make the necessary inspection of the farm.

(b) Scope. A sanitary inspection of a milk plant or a dairy farm will include a complete physical examination by a veterinarian of all dairy cows in each herd from which the milk is procured; the sanitary condition and suitability of all buildings, equipment, and utensils; the methods of operation; the apparent health of employees; an investigation of the water supply and of the various ingredients used; and an examination of the various products manufactured or produced in each establishment.

(c) Action. Deviation from accepted practices or incorrect procedures of such a nature as to have real bearing on the actual sanitary condition or on the quality of the product must be promptly rectified or the product should be excluded from use by the Army. Since it is impracticable to state exactly at what stage an improper practice or incorrect procedure may render a milk product dangerous to the consuming troops, the decision as to the acceptability or use of these products is left to the responsible Medical Department authority. Any product of such character, or which is handled under such conditions as probably to adversely affect the health of the command will not be used.

PART 610—PROCUREMENT OF HORSES AND MULES

Sec.
610.1 Inspection of animals.
610.2 Duties of seller.

§ 610.1 Inspection of animals. Each horse and mule presented for purchase will be minutely inspected on the halter to determine whether the animal complies with the specifications for horses and mules as prescribed by the Department of the Army, and particularly to determine soundness and suitability for the work required of the animal. If the inspection on the halter proves satisfactory, further inspection will be made of riding and pack horses under the saddle, and of draft horses and draft and pack mules in harness, to determine whether they are tractable, manageable, and sound in wind. (R. S. 161, 5 U. S. C. 22) [AR 30–435, May 29, 1942]

§ 610.2 Duties of seller. The seller will be required to provide a suitable place for inspection and to furnish such help as may be necessary properly to show the horses and mules presented. He will also be required to provide a suitable place for holding and feeding of the animals pending shipment, and the necessary assistance for the shipment of the animals purchased from him. (R. S. 161, 5 U. S. C. 22) [AR 30–435, May 29, 1942]

Major General,

TITLE 36—PARKS AND FORESTS

Chapter II—Forest Service, Department of Agriculture

PART 201—NATIONAL FORESTS

TONGASS NATIONAL FOREST, ALASKA

CROSS REFERENCE: For an addition to the tabulation contained in § 201.1, see Public Land Order 525 in the Appendix to Chapter I of Title 43, infra. This order excludes certain tracts of land from Tongass National Forest and restores them for purchase as homesites or business sites.

TITLE 43—PUBLIC LANDS: INTERIOR

Chapter I—Bureau of Land Management, Department of the Interior

[Circular 1705]

PART 160—GRAZING LEASES

This part is hereby completely revised to read as follows:

Sec.
160.1 Statutory authority.
160.2 Definitions.
160.3 Classes of applicants; preference rights.
160.4 Qualifications of applicants.
160.5 Filing of applications; copies necessary.
160.6 No right conferred by application, prior to lease.
160.7 Protests.
160.8 Leases of withdrawn or reserved lands.
160.9 Action on defective applications.
160.10 Offer and issuance of lease; disposition of protests and conflicting applications.
160.11 Reduction in leased area or number of stock to be grazed.
160.12 Leased lands subject to classification and disposition; compensation to lessee for improvements and damages.
160.13 Rental.
160.14 Term of lease.
160.15 Filing of petitions for renewals.
160.16 Construction and maintenance of improvements.
160.17 Removal of improvements.
160.18 Cancellation of lease.
160.19 Inspection of leased premises.
160.20 Assignment of lease; subleases of leased land not authorized.
160.21 Leases pledged as security for loans.
160.22 Appeals.

AUTHORITY: §§ 160.1 to 160.22 issued under sec. 15, 48 Stat. 1275, sec. 5, 49 Stat. 1976; 43 U. S. C. sec. 315m.

§ 160.1 Statutory Authority. Section 15 of the act of June 28, 1934 (48 Stat. 1275), as amended, authorizes the Secretary of the Interior, to lease for grazing purposes, vacant, unappropriated and unreserved public lands outside of established grazing districts in the continental United States only.

§ 160.2 Definitions. (a) "Secretary" means Secretary of the Interior.

(b) "Director" means Director, Bureau of Land Management.

(c) "Regional Administrator" means the Regional Administrator, Bureau of Land Management.

(d) "Manager" means Manager of the District Land Office. Where there is no District Land Office, it means the Director, Bureau of Land Management.

(e) "Signing Officer" means the Government official who has been duly authorized to issue a grazing lease.

(f) "Field Office" means any office of the Bureau of Land Management, including the District Land Office, near the lands applied for and in the State in which such lands are situated. If there is no District Land Office or other field office in the State, it means the office of the Director, Bureau of Land Management, Washington 25, D. C.

(g) "The act" means the act of June 28, 1934 (48 Stat. 1275), as amended.

§ 160.3 Classes of applicants; preference rights. The act, as amended, provides for the issuance of grazing leases to classes of applicants in the following order:

(a) Preference-right leases to applicants who are the owners, homesteaders, lessees, or other lawful occupants of lands contiguous to or cornering on an isolated or disconnected tract embracing 760 acres or less [1] for the whole of such tract, upon the terms and conditions prescribed by the Secretary, provided the preference-right is asserted during a period of 90 days after such tract is offered for leases.[2]

(b) Preference-right leases to applicants who are owners, homesteaders, lessees, or other lawful occupants of contiguous lands to the extent necessary to permit the proper use of such contiguous lands.

(c) Leases where no preference-right applicant is involved.

§ 160.4 Qualifications of applicants. An applicant for a grazing lease is qualified if the applicant

(a) Is a citizen of the United States, or

(b) Has filed a declaration of intention to become a citizen: Provided, That an applicant who has filed such declaration but has not filed a petition for naturalization before a court of competent jurisdiction within seven years from the date of filing the declaration or, having filed such petition, has failed to attain citizenship within a reasonable time thereafter and is unable to show any satisfactory reason for such failure, shall be disqualified to receive a grazing lease or any renewal of an existing lease until he has actually attained citizenship, or

(c) Is a group, association, or corporation which is authorized to conduct business under the laws of the State in which the lands applied for are located and the controlling interest in which is vested in a citizen or citizens or persons who would be qualified as individual applicants under paragraphs (a) and (b) of this section.

§ 160.5 Filing of applications; copies necessary. Any application for a lease should be submitted on Form 4–721 and filed in any field office of the Bureau of Land Management in the State in which such lands are situated. If there is no field office in the State, the application should be filed with the Director, Bureau of Land Management, Washington 25, D. C. The application must be filed in triplicate, except where it embraces lands within the jurisdiction of more than one district land office, in which event it must be furnished in quadruplicate. The application must be signed by the applicant, but need not be under oath.[3]

§ 160.6 No right conferred by application, prior to lease. The filing of an application will not segregate the land applied for from application by other persons for a grazing lease or from other disposition under the public land laws. As the issuance of a lease is discretionary, the filing of an application for a lease will not in any way create any right in the applicant to a lease, or to the use of the lands applied for pending the issuance of a lease. Any such unauthorized use constitutes a trespass.

§ 160.7 Protests. Protests against the approval of an application for a lease should be filed in the same manner and number of copies as applications for a grazing lease, contain a complete disclosure of all facts upon which the protest is based, and describe the lands involved in such protest, and should be accompanied by evidence of service of a copy of the protest on the applicant. If the protestant desires to lease all or part of the land embraced in the application against which the protest is filed, the protest should also be accompanied by an application for a grazing lease.

§ 160.8 Leases of withdrawn or reserved lands. Leases may be issued for public lands withdrawn for resurvey, or withdrawn and reserved in aid of legislation, or for power sites, classification or other public purposes,[4] if the use of the land for grazing is not inconsistent with the purposes of the withdrawal. Lands included in stock driveway and public water reserve withdrawals may be leased in accordance with the regulations, 43 CFR 295.7 (c). Any lease issued covering withdrawn lands must contain the stipulations which have been prescribed by the Director of the Bureau of Land Management for the protection and use of the land for the purpose for which it was withdrawn or reserved.

§ 160.9 Action on defective application or where the lands applied for are not subject to grazing leasing. Upon the filing of any application, the officer receiving it may require any defects in the application to be cured or additional information to be provided. The signing officer may reject any application if the applicant fails to cure defects in the application within the time allowed, which period shall not be less than thirty days from the date of receipt of notice of such defects by the applicant. If the application must be rejected because of the status of the land for which application is made as where land is in an allowed entry, otherwise appropriated or reserved and not subject to lease under the act, or not public land, a manager, if his office has land status, or a signing officer shall reject the application.

§ 160.10 Offer and issuance of lease; disposition of protests and conflicting applications. The signing officer, after making provision for the area, term, rental, and allowance of forage for wildlife, and within the discretion of the signing officer, the number of livestock to be grazed, proper grazing season, or reservations for authorized trailing across the land, in the proposed lease, shall forward it, in quadruplicate, on Form 4–722a, to the applicant for execution. After execution, and within a period not less than fifteen days from the receipt of the proposed lease, the applicant will return the proposed lease, together with payment of the first years rental, computed under § 160.13, to the signing officer. If all is found to be regular, a lease will be issued by the signing officer after final action has been taken on any protests or conflicting applications which may have been filed.

Where it is determined that more than one applicant should receive a lease and a division of the lands is necessary, the conflicting applicants will be afforded an opportunity to agree to the division of such lands. If an acceptable adjustment cannot be made by the parties in interest, the matter will be determined by the signing officer in the light of all available information.

After the proposed lease has been transmitted to an applicant, and if such lease is executed by him, any conflicting grazing lease application filed subsequent to such transmission will be rejected as to any lands included in the proposed lease.

§ 160.11 Reduction in leased area or number of stock to be grazed. The leased area may be reduced if it is unreasonably excessive for the number of stock owned by the lessee, or if it is determined that such area is required for the protection of sources of water supply to communities, or for camping places, stock driveways, roads and trails, or town sites, or for feeding grounds near communities for the use of domestic livestock or near the slaughtering or shipping points for use of stock to be marketed or for other public purposes. The number of stock authorized to be grazed may also be reduced if it is determined that the leased area lacks sufficient forage to carry such authorized number of stock. In the case of any such reduction, a proportionate decrease will be made in the annual rental charges.

No request of any agency of the Federal Government for the withdrawal of land embraced in a grazing lease for governmental use under this section will be approved unless such agency shall agree to compensate the lessee for the loss suffered by the cancellation, or reduction in the area of the lease by an amount which such agency shall determine to be reasonable and proper.

§ 160.12 Leased lands subject to classification and disposition; compensation to lessee for improvements and damages. Lands embraced in a grazing lease are subject to classification, regardless of whether an application for classification of any such lands has been filed, and disposition under the provisions of sections 7 and 14 of the act of June 28, 1934 (48 Stat. 1272), as amended June 26, 1936 (49 Stat. 1976, 43 U. S. C. sec. 315f), or other public land laws: Provided, That before any application for such classification and disposition is allowed, evidence is furnished that the applicant has agreed to compensate the lessee for any grazing improvements placed on the lands under the authority of the lease, and, in addition, for increased costs in the lessee's grazing operations during the unexpired term of the lease. In any event the amount allowed because of such increased operating costs shall not exceed an amount equal to three times the annual rental of the lands removed from his leasehold. If the interested parties are unable to reach such an agreement, the amount and time for payment shall be fixed by the signing officer. The failure of the applicant to pay the lessee in accordance with the agreement or the amount fixed by the signing officer, within the time allowed for payment, shall be just cause for cancellation of any rights or interests in the lands acquired by the applicant by reason of the allowance of his application.

Where part of the lands embraced in a grazing lease are disposed of as provided by this section, the subsequent annual rental charges will be reduced proportionately to reflect the loss of the lands from the leasehold.

§ 160.13 Rental. The lessee shall pay, in accordance with the terms of the lease, an annual rental computed in conformity with the following rate tabulations, unless for sufficient reasons a different rate is authorized by the Director:

One cow or one horse or five sheep or five goats constitute one animal unit. The rental charge will not in any case be fixed at less than $1 per annum. The rental may be adjusted to reflect differences in numbers of livestock authorized to be grazed, changes in carrying capacity, and changes in authorized rates of rental at the end of the third year of the lease and at the end of each three-year period thereafter.

§ 160.14 Term of lease. A lease may be issued for a period of not more than 10 years. Renewals may be for periods of not more than 10 years, upon such terms and conditions as may then be prescribed.

§ 160.15 Filing of petitions for renewals. A lessee who desires to renew a lease should file in triplicate approximately 90 days prior to the expiration of the lease a petition for its renewal on Form 4–725. The petition may include a request for the consolidation of other outstanding grazing leases held by the lessee. The filing of a petition for renewal does not confer on the lessee any preference right to a renewal. The timely filing of a petition will, however, authorize the exclusive grazing use of the lands by the lessee in accordance with the terms of the prior lease pending final action on the petition.

§ 160.16 Construction and maintenance of improvements—(a) Permit required. After the issuance of a lease, the lessee may fence the lands or any part thereof, develop water by wells, tanks, water holes, or otherwise, and make or construct other improvements for grazing or stock raising purposes, so long as such improvements do not impair the value of the lands or interfere with other uses, provided that a permit or cooperative agreement is obtained under the procedure set forth in this section. The lessee will be required to comply with the

[1] Where the lands applied for include the even-numbered sections within the limits of a railroad grant, even though in the aggregate such lands exceed 760 acres, each such section will be considered as an isolated or disconnected tract within the meaning of this provision. The difference between the higher preference right accorded under this paragraph and the preference accorded under succeeding paragraph (b) is that the applicant is not required to demonstrate that the public lands are necessary for the proper use of the contiguous or cornering lands, except where there are conflicting applications of the same class of applicants.

[2] By Departmental Notice of July 31, 1937, all vacant, unreserved and unappropriated public lands, exclusive of Alaska, not included in an established grazing district, were then offered for lease under section 15; all lands not then subject to lease under section 15 because of their appropriation or reservation, were offered for lease as of the date any such lands first became subject to lease.

[3] 18 U. S. C., sec. 80, makes it a crime for any person knowingly or willfully to submit or cause to be submitted to any agency of the United States any false or fraudulent statement as to any matter within its jurisdiction.

[4] Certain lands withdrawn for reclamation purposes are, pursuant to the cooperative agreement of February 28, 1945, between the Bureau of Reclamation and the Bureau of Land Management, leased in accordance with the principles of section 15 leases, under authority of subsection (1) of section 4, act of December 5, 1924 (43 Stat. 703, 43 U. S. C., sec 501).

provisions of the laws of the State in which the leased lands are located with respect to the cost and maintenance of fences.

(b) Applications for permits and cooperative agreements. Applications for permits, cooperative agreements, or arrangements to construct and maintain range improvements shall set forth the location of such improvements by legal subdivision of the public land survey, the necessity, use, cost, and description of such improvements, item by item, shall designate the time and manner of their construction, the period of use, the method of operation, protection, repair, removal, or other disposition, and shall include any other pertinent information. When necessary to explain properly the improvements and matters connected therewith, the application shall be accompanied by a sketch of the improvements with specifications and a map showing the location of the improvements. Applications for a permit shall be made on Form 4–1115 and shall be filed in triplicate with the signing officer. Application for a cooperative agreement shall be made on Form 4–1119.

(c) Action on the application. Action will be taken on the application by the signing officer. If the application is approved, the signing officer will issue a permit or enter into a cooperative agreement for the construction and maintenance of the improvements which have been approved.

§ 160.17 Removal of improvements. Upon the expiration of a lease or its earlier termination, the signing officer may, in his discretion and upon a written petition filed by the lessee within 30 days from date of such expiration or termination, require a proposed subsequent lessee, prior to the execution of a new lease, to agree to compensate the lessee for any grazing improvements of a permanent nature that may have been placed upon the leased lands under authority of a section 15 lease executed prior to the effective date of those regulations, and, thereafter, under a permit issued under the said section. The amount of such compensation shall be determined in accordance with the procedure set forth in § 160.12. The failure of the subsequent lessee to pay the lessee in accordance with such agreement shall be just cause for cancellation of the subsequent lessee's lease.

The lessee will be allowed three months from the date of expiration or termination of the lease within which to remove such improvements as are not disposed of in the manner set forth above; if not removed or otherwise disposed of within the said period, such improvements shall become the property of the United States. No improvements may be removed at any time the lessee is in default with respect to the lease.

§ 160.18 Cancellation of lease. If the lessee shall fail to comply with any of the provisions of these regulations or of the lease, and such default shall continue for 60 days after service of written notice thereof, or if the lease was issued improperly through error with respect to a material fact or facts, the lease may be terminated and canceled by the signing officer.

§ 160.19 Inspection of leased premises. The land described in the lease shall be subject to inspection at all reasonable times by duly authorized representatives of the Department of the Interior. Other Federal agents, as well as game wardens, shall be permitted access to the lands in connection with necessary official business.

§ 160.20 Assignment of lease; subleases of leased land not authorized. Proposed assignments of a lease must be filed within 90 days after execution in the office of the signing officer and may be approved by the signing officer. The assignments must contain all of the terms and conditions agreed upon by the parties thereto; must be accompanied by the same showing by the assignee as is required of applicants for a lease; and must be supported by a showing that the assignee agrees to be bound by the provisions of the lease. No assignment will be recognized unless and until approved. Subleases are not authorized.

§ 160.21 Leases pledged as security for lands. (a) A lease may be pledged as security for a loan of $500 or more from a lending agency when the loan is made for the purpose of furthering the lessee's livestock operations. Before a loan is made, the lending agency may ascertain from the signing officer the status of the grazing lease and other pertinent information concerning the lease.

(b) Upon request of the borrower-lessee, where such extension will be in accordance with applicable law and not contrary to the public interest, the lease may be extended for a period of ten years from the date of the loan subject to such terms and conditions as are then provided by the regulations in this part.

(c) In case the property of the lessee which was the basis for the granting of a preference right is acquired by the lending agency through foreclosure or otherwise, such agency or its tenants on the property, if qualified, or any person who purchases the property from such agency, if qualified, on application, shall be recognized in lieu of the lessee. If in making a sale the lending agency takes back a mortgage on the property, the agency shall be entitled to the same consideration as in the case of the original loan.

(d) Where a lending agency files in the office of the signing officer notice that it has made a loan and has accepted a grazing lease as security therefor, in conformity with the provisions of this section, such agency will be advised of any action taken affecting the lease.

§ 160.22 Appeals; filing. An appeal from any decision rendered pursuant to the regulations in this part may be taken to the Director and the Secretary, in accordance with the rules of practice (43 CFR, Part 221). The appeal should be filed with the officer who rendered the decision.

MARION CLAWSON,
Director.

TITLE 47—TELECOMMUNICATION

Chapter I—Federal Communications Commission

PART 1—ORGANIZATION, PRACTICE AND PROCEDURE

ORGANIZATIONAL AND EDITORIAL AMENDMENTS

At a session of the Federal Communications Commission, held at its offices in Washington, D. C., on the 3d day of November 1948:

The Commission, having under consideration the necessity for amending Part 1, rules relating to organization and practice and procedure, of its rules and regulations, to reflect changes in internal procedures of the Commission relating to the processing and disposition of applications filed under section 214 of the Communications Act; and

It appearing, that such amendments are designed to improve the internal administration of the Commission and will serve the public interest, convenience, and necessity; and

It further appearing, that the proposed amendments to the rules and regulations are organizational or editorial in nature, and that publication of the notice of proposed rule making pursuant to section 4 (a) of the Administrative Procedure Act is not required; and

It further appearing, that authority for the proposed amendments is contained in section 4 (i) and section 5 (e) of the Communications Act of 1934, as amended;

It is ordered, That, effective immediately, Part 1 of the Commission's rules and regulations, be, and it is hereby, amended, as set forth below.

(Secs. 4 (i), 5 (e), 48 Stat. 1066, 1068; 47 U. S. C. 154 (i) and 155 (e))

Adopted: November 3, 1948.

Released: November 5, 1948.

FEDERAL COMMUNICATIONS COMMISSION,
[SEAL] T. J. SLOWIE,
Secretary.

1. In § 1.28, amend paragraph (a) to read as follows:

§ 1.28 Aviation Division. * * *

(a) Wiretelegraph Branch processes applications for the extension and supplementation of facilities used in interstate service; is responsible for the engineering aspects presented by applications for authority to discontinue, reduce or impair telegraph service and to acquire or consolidate telegraph properties; performs work required in the investigation of complaints regarding telegraph service and equipment, and handles field investigations relative thereto. Initiates and makes studies and investigations regarding all aspects of quality of telegraph service. Keeps abreast of technical developments in the industry. Prepares memoranda to the Commission concerning the industry and initiates rules and regulations as required. Furnishes expert testimony at hearings.

2. In § 1.28, amend paragraph (b) to read as follows:

(b) Wiretelephone Branch processes applications for the extension, supplementation, and discontinuance of facilities used in interstate service and is responsible for the engineering aspects presented by applications for the acquisition or consolidation of telephone properties; keeps informed and reports on all technical developments relative to the telephone industry; investigates and prepares reports relating to the operation of telephone lines, systems and associated equipment, including the transmission of FM and TV over wire and cables; investigates and prepares reports relating to telephone traffic, including speed of service, routing, capacities and operating methods; and investigates complaints relating to the furnishing of telephone communication service. Furnishes expert testimony at hearings.

3. In § 1.56, paragraph (a), following the words, "participates in recommending disposition of applications," delete the words "for extension of telephone lines or discontinuance of telephone service under section 214 of the Communications Act," and following the words "and for radiotelephone licenses;" add the words "is responsible for the rate and economic aspects and for Bureau coordination of Accounting aspects presented by applications for the extension, supplementation and discontinuance, reduction, or impairment of telephone service and for acquisitions or consolidations of telephone properties;".

4. In § 1.56, paragraph (b), following the words "telegraph traffic surveys;" insert the words "processes applications for authority to discontinue, reduce, or impair telegraph service and is responsible for the rate and economic aspects and for Bureau coordination of accounting aspects presented by applications for extension and supplementation of telegraph lines and for the acquisition or consolidation of telegraph properties;"; following the words "participates in recommending disposition of applications", delete the words, "for extension of telegraph lines or discontinuance of telegraph service under section 214 of the Communications Act,".

5. In § 1.75, paragraph (c), following the words, "relating to such services," delete the words, "reviews and makes recommendations with respect to", and insert in lieu thereof the words "is responsible for the legal aspects presented by".

6. In § 1.107, paragraph (b), amend subparagraph (1) to read as follows:

§ 1.107 Delegation to Telegraph Committee. * * *

(b) * * *

(1) All applications or requests under section 214 of Communications Act of 1934, as amended, for certificates or authorizations for the construction, acquisition, operation or extension of telegraph lines, for temporary or emergency telegraph service, for supplementing existing telegraph facilities, or for discontinuance, reduction or impairment of telegraph service, except those covered by §§ 1.142 (i) and 1.147 (a).

7. Add a new § 1.108 to read as follows:

§ 1.108 Delegation to Telephone Committee. (a) A Telephone Committee, composed of three Commissioners, designated as such by the Commission, will hear and determine, order, certify, report or otherwise act upon the matters set forth in paragraph (b) of this section;

(b) Except as otherwise ordered by the Commission, the Telephone Committee, or a majority thereof, shall act upon the following matters:

(1) All applications or requests under section 214 of the Communications Act of 1934, as amended, for certificates or authorizations for the construction, acquisition, operation or extension of telephone lines, for temporary or emergency telephone service, for supplementing existing telephone facilities, or for discontinuance, reduction or impairment of telephone service, except those covered by § 1.142 (i).

8. In § 1.142, add new paragraph (i) to read as follows:

§ 1.142 Authority delegated to Secretary upon securing approval of Engineering Department. * * *

(i) Applications or requests under section 214 of the Communications Act for a certificate authorizing the construction, acquisition, operation or extension of lines, or for an authorization of temporary or emergency service, or the supplementing of existing facilities, where the total expenditure involved is less than $250,000; all applications or requests for modification of a certificate or authorization issued under section 214 of the Communications Act where such amendment or modification involves a total expenditure of less than $250,000; and applications and requests for authority to discontinue, reduce or impair telephone service filed pursuant to the provisions of §§ 63.63, 63.65, and 63.66 of this chapter.

9. In § 1.145, delete paragraphs (d) and (e).

10. Redesignate § 1.147 as § 1.148; change the number "1.146" appearing therein before the words, "shall be recorded", to read, "1.147"; and add a new § 1.147 to read as follows:

§ 1.147 Authority delegated to Secretary upon securing the approval of the Bureau of Accounting. The Secretary, or in his absence, the Acting Secretary, is designated to act upon the following matters upon securing the approval of the Chief Accountant, or his nominee:

(a) Applications under section 214 of the Communications Act for an authorization for temporary or emergency closures or reduction of hours of telegraph offices, and for any closure, or reduction of hours of a telegraph office at a military establishment, for closure of railroad-operated agency offices and for closure of company-operated main offices where substitute service is to be provided by a telephone or teleprinter operated agency office in the same community in those cases where applicable Commission policy has been established; and informal requests for authority to discontinue, reduce, or impair telegraph service filed pursuant to the provisions of §§ 63.63, 63.64, 63.66–63.68 of this chapter.

11. In § 1.525, amend the second and third sentences of paragraph (a) to read as follows: "In accordance with the delegation of authority provided for in §§ 1.107, 1.108 and 1.142, the Telegraph Committee, the Telephone Committee, and the Secretary, respectively, take final action on these matters. In other cases, final action is taken by the Commission. Recommendations on these applications are made by the Bureau of Engineering, or by the Bureaus of Engineering, Accounting and Law."

12. In § 1.525, paragraph (b), change "Secretary of War" to read "Secretary of the Army".

13. In § 1.526, amend the third and fourth sentences of paragraph (a) to read as follows: "In accordance with the delegation of authority provided for in §§ 1.107, 1.108, 1.142 and 1.147, the Telegraph Committee, the Telephone Committee, and the Secretary, respectively, take final action on these matters. In other cases, final action is taken by the Commission. Recommendations on these applications are made by the Bureau of Accounting where telegraph service is involved, by the Bureau of Engineering where telephone service is involved, or by the Bureaus of Accounting, Engineering and Law."

14. In § 1.526, paragraph (b), change "Secretary of War" to read "Secretary of the Army" in the first and third sentences of the paragraph.

CIVIL AERONAUTICS BOARD

[Dockets Nos. 2704, 2705]

CAPITAL AIRLINES, INC.

NOTICE OF HEARING

In the matter of the application of Capital Airlines, Inc., under section 401 (h) of the Civil Aeronautics Act of 1938, as amended, for an amendment of its certificate for route No. 14 so as to authorize scheduled transportation of mail to Flint, Mich.; to serve Saginaw-Bay City, Mich., as an intermediate point; and to reword the certificate to provide nonstop service between Chicago, Ill., and Lansing, Flint, and Saginaw-Bay City, Mich.; and to amend its certificate for route No. 41 so as to remove the restriction which limits operations between Traverse City and Grand Rapids, Mich., to the period from May 1 to October 31 of each year; and to reword and amend the certificate for route No. 41 to include other points presently served by applicant so as to provide a more flexible service on this route.

Notice is hereby given pursuant to the Civil Aeronautics Act of 1938, as amended, particularly sections 401 and 1001 of said act, that the above entitled proceeding is assigned for hearing on Monday, November 15, 1948, at 10:00 a. m. (eastern standard time), in Room 1011, Temporary Building No. 5, 16th Street and Constitution Ave., N. W., Washington, D. C., before Examiner Curtis C. Henderson.

Without limiting the scope of the issues presented by the parties to this proceeding, particular attention will be directed to the following matters and questions:

1. Whether the proposed service is required by the public convenience and necessity.

2. Whether the applicant is a citizen of the United States and is fit, willing, and able to perform the service for which it is applying and to conform to the provisions of the act and the rules, regulations, and requirements of the Board promulgated thereunder.

Notice is further given that any person desiring to be heard in opposition to the above application must file with the Board on or before November 15, 1948, a statement setting forth the issues of fact or law which he desires to controvert.

For further details of the service proposed and authorization requested, interested parties are referred to the application on file with the Civil Aeronautics Board.

Dated at Washington, D. C., November 8, 1948.

[Docket No. 9188]

MACKAY RADIO AND TELEGRAPH CO., INC.

ORDER DESIGNATING APPLICATION FOR CONSOLIDATED HEARING ON STATED ISSUES

In the matter of application of Mackay Radio and Telegraph Company, Inc. for construction permit for additional transmitters. Docket No. 9188, File No. 890-C4-P-D.

At a session of the Federal Communications Commission held at its offices in Washington, D. C. on the 3d day of November 1948;

The Commission, having under consideration a formal application filed by Mackay Radio and Telegraph Company, Inc., on July 19, 1948 (File No. 890-C4-P-D), as modified by a formal application filed July 27, 1948, and by letter dated October 18, 1948, for a construction permit to install four additional transmitters (Serial Nos. 4808, 4809, 4811, 4812) at its Brentwood, New York, fixed public point-to-point telegraph station; and having also under consideration the Commission's letter to Mackay Radio and Telegraph Company, Inc., dated August 18, 1948, requesting additional information as to the need for the above transmitters, and the reply thereto dated October 18, 1948; and a telegram from Mackay Radio and Telegraph Company, Inc., filed October 20, 1948, requesting telegraphic approval of the above transmitters for the stated reason that the transmitters were "urgently needed for present services";

It appearing, that the above application for a construction permit, as modified, was granted by the Secretary of the Commission on October 22, 1948, pursuant to authority delegated by § 1.145 (f) of the Commission's rules and regulations;

It further appearing, that, operation of the transmitter bearing Serial No. 4808 commenced on October 1, 1948, and that operation of the transmitter bearing Serial No. 4811 commenced on October 13, 1948, which dates were prior to the above grant of the construction permit therefor;

It further appearing, that operation of the transmitters bearing Serial Nos. 4808 and 4811, was conducted without a license therefor, in violation of Section 301 of the Communications Act of 1934, as amended, and in derogation of the public interest intended to be protected thereby;

It is ordered, On the Commission's own motion, on reconsideration, pursuant to §§ 1.102 (b) and 1.726 (c) of the Commission's rules and regulations, that so much of the above construction permit (File No. 890-C4-P-D) granted to Mackay Radio and Telegraph Company, Inc. on October 22, 1948, as pertains to the transmitters bearing Serial Nos. 4808 and 4811, is set aside;

It is further ordered, Pursuant to section 309 (a) of the Communications Act of 1934, as amended, that the subject application, as modified, insofar as it pertains to the transmitters bearing Serial Nos. 408 and 4811, is designated for hearing, for the following reasons:

1. To determine all the facts and circumstances in connection with the subject application, and the installation and operation of the above two transmitters without prior authorization therefor from the Commission.

2. To determine in the light of all the facts and circumstances, and in view of the provisions of section 319 of the Communications Act of 1934, as amended, whether public interest, convenience, or necessity would be served by a grant of the subject application.

It is further ordered, That the hearing herein shall be held at the offices of the Commission at Washington, D. C., beginning at 10:00 a. m. on the 29th day of November 1948.

It is further ordered, That J. Fred Johnson, Jr. is assigned to preside at the hearing herein.

Notice is hereby given that § 1.857 of the Commission's rules and regulations is not applicable to this proceeding.

FEDERAL POWER COMMISSION

[Docket No. E-6176]

COMMUNITY PUBLIC SERVICE CO.

NOTICE OF APPLICATION

NOVEMBER 4, 1948.

Notice is hereby given that on November 4, 1948, an application was filed with the Federal Power Commission, pursuant to section 204 of the Federal Power Act, by Community Public Service Company, a corporation organized under the laws of the State of Delaware and doing business in the States of Kentucky, Louisiana, New Mexico and Texas with its principal business office at Fort Worth, Texas, seeking an order authorizing the issuance of $1,500,000 principal amount of promissory notes to be dated during 1948 or during the first four months of 1949 representing short term loans obtained or to be obtained from banking institutions, bearing interest at the rate of 2½% per annum. Two promissory notes of $300,000 each will be issued to the Fort Worth National Bank of Fort Worth, Texas, and the First National Bank of Fort Worth, Texas, to renew outstanding notes which will mature on January 11, 1949, and February 4, 1949, respectively, and $900,000 of promissory notes will be issued and dated at such time or times as short term bank loans are made on or before April 30, 1949; all as more fully appears in the application on file with the Commission.

Any person desiring to be heard, or to make any protest with reference to said application should, on or before the 20th day of November 1948, file with the Federal Power Commission, Washington 25, D. C., a petition or protest in accordance with the Commission's rules of practice and procedure.

FOREIGN-TRADE ZONES BOARD

[Public Notice 7]

APPLICATION FOR GRANT TO ESTABLISH, OPERATE AND MAINTAIN FOREIGN-TRADE ZONE AT SEATTLE, WASH.

NOTICE OF HEARING

NOVEMBER 2, 1948.

Pursuant to the provisions of the act of June 18, 1934 (48 Stat. 998–1003; 19 USC 81a–81u), and the regulations governing the establishment, operation, maintenance and administration of foreign-trade zones in the United States, promulgated in pursuance of said act, a public hearing will be held by an Examiners' Committee, beginning at 10:00 a. m., Pacific Standard Time, on December 3, 1948, in the Customs Court, Room 117, Federal Office Building, 909 First Avenue, Seattle, Washington.

The subject of the hearing is an application by the Port of Seattle Commission for a grant to establish, operate and maintain a foreign-trade zone at Seattle, Washington. General plans showing the location of the project, may be examined at the office of the Examiners' Committee, 809 Federal Office Building, 909 First Avenue, Seattle, Washington, or at the office of the Executive Secretary of the Foreign-Trade Zones Board, Room 2036 Commerce Building, Washington, D. C. In brief, these plans contemplate the utilization of a portion of East Waterway Terminal of the Port of Seattle Commission, located on the west margin of East Waterway, an opening of Duwamish River into Elliott Bay, said portion being designated Unit No. 1, having a wharf frontage of 1,500 feet, the initial zone area comprising some 100,000 square feet, of which 68,000 will be covered by Shed #4, Warehouse #3 and an office building. The application states that an additional 126,700 square feet have been allotted for future expansion.

This public hearing is solely for the purpose of obtaining in the most direct manner the facts useful to the Foreign-Trade Zones Board. The immediate concern of the Examiners' Committee is to determine whether or not the facilities and appurtenances which it is proposed to provide are sufficient. Particular attention is called to the fact that the instant application is the only one to be considered at this time. The question of its suitability is up for discussion, not the suitability of some other zone site.

All interested parties are invited to be present or represented at the hearing; particularly those who may be affected by the proposed grant. An opportunity to be heard (either in person or by duly appointed representatives; either by appearance or by sending a written or telegraphic statement) will be given to persons or groups who have manifested their interest in this application by complying with the following simple requirements:

1. A written or telegraphic request for an opportunity to be heard shall be filed before noon on November 29, 1948, at the office of the Examiners' Committee, Room 809 Federal Office Building, 909 First Avenue, Seattle, Washington, or at the office of the Executive Secretary of the Foreign-Trade Zones Board, Room 2036, Commerce Building, Washington, D. C., and shall indicate the number of witnesses, the general character of evidence and the approximate amount of time required.

2. Such request shall include (a) the name of any persons seeking to speak at the hearing, and (b) the persons or groups he represents.

In the discretion of the Examiners' Committee, persons who have not complied with the foregoing may be permitted, at any time prior to the closing of the hearing, to file written statements in quadruplicate regarding the application under consideration. Such written statements should be condensed as much as possible.

Representation of interested parties by attorneys or others is permissible, but is not to be regarded as necessary. For accuracy of record, and for file with the report and recommendations of the Examiners' Committee, all important facts and arguments should be submitted in writing, as these, together with the record, will be forwarded for consideration by the Foreign-Trade Zones Board in Washington.

You are requested to communicate the foregoing to any persons known by you to be interested in the matter who, not being known to this committee, do not receive a copy of this notice.

GEORGE L. BELL,
Chairman Ex Officio, Associate Director, Office of International Trade, Department of Commerce.
THOMAS E. LYONS,
Examiner, Department of Commerce.
HOWARD MACGOWAN,
Collector of Customs, Seattle, Wash.

[File Nos. 31-523, 31-524, 54-106, 54-107, 59-52]

BUFFALO, NIAGARA AND EASTERN POWER CORP. ET AL.

ORDER GRANTING EXTENSION OF TIME

At a regular session of the Securities and Exchange Commission, held at its office in the city of Washington, D. C., on the 4th day of November 1948.

In the matters of Buffalo, Niagara and Eastern Power Corporation, File Nos. 54–106; 31–524; Niagara Hudson Power Corporation, File Nos. 54–107; 31–523; Niagara Hudson Power Corporation and its subsidiary companies; Respondents. File No. 59–52.

The Commission by order dated October 4, 1945, having approved a plan of reorganization and consolidation of Buffalo, Niagara and Eastern Power Corporation and certain of its subsidiaries, which plan provided, among other things, for the disposition by Niagara Hudson Power Corporation ("Niagara Hudson"), within one year from November 1, 1945, of all of its interest, direct or indirect, in Buffalo Niagara Electric Corporation, unless such time is extended or the disposition requirements of the order modified or altered; and

Niagara Hudson having filed an application requesting a six-months extension from November 1, 1948, to May 1, 1949, of the time within which Niagara Hudson must dispose of all of its interest, direct or indirect, in Buffalo Niagara Electric Corporation and the subsidiaries thereof as provided by the said plan (the time for compliance with the said order of October 4, 1945, having been subsequently extended by Commission orders dated October 28, 1946, April 22, 1947, October 24, 1947 and May 20, 1948); and

Notice of filing of said request having been duly given and the Commission not having received a request for a hearing with respect thereto within the period specified in said notice of filing, or otherwise, and the Commission not having ordered a hearing thereon; and

It appearing to the Commission, upon the basis of the reasons advanced and representations made by Niagara Hudson, that it is appropriate in the public interest and in the interest of investors and consumers to grant said request:

It is ordered, That Niagara Hudson Power Corporation's request for a six-months extension from November 1, 1948, to May 1, 1949, of the time within which it must dispose of all of its interest, direct or indirect, in Buffalo Niagara Electric Corporation and the subsidiaries thereof, be, and the same hereby is, granted.

By the Commission.

SOUTHWESTERN GAS AND ELECTRIC CO. ET AL.

ORDER GRANTING APPLICATION AND PERMITTING DECLARATION TO BECOME EFFECTIVE

At a regular session of the Securities and Exchange Commission, held at its office in the city of Washington, D. C., on the 4th day of November A. D. 1948.

In the matter of Southwestern Gas and Electric Company, Arkansas Power & Light Company, the Arklahoma Corporation. File No. 70–1924.

Southwestern Gas and Electric Company ("Southwestern"), a subsidiary of Central and South West Corporation, a registered holding company, and Arkansas Power and Light Company ("Arkansas"), a subsidiary of Electric Power and Light Corporation, a registered holding company, and The Arklahoma Corporation ("Arklahoma"), an affiliate of Southwestern and Arkansas, have jointly filed an application-declaration and amendments thereto pursuant to the Public Utility Holding Company Act of 1935 ("act") with respect to the following transactions:

Arklahoma proposes to sell certain utility equipment, designated as nine capacitors, for a cash consideration of $17,000 each or a total of $153,000; and Arkansas proposes to acquire six of the said capacitors at an aggregate purchase price of $102,000, and Southwestern proposes to acquire three of the said capacitors at a total price of $51,000. It is stated that the gross proceeds from the proposed sale, amounting to $153,000, will be applied toward the retirement of the outstanding First Mortgage Bonds or Arklahoma or for acquisition of the property in the nature of renewals, replacements or additions which may be required for the proper operation of Arklahoma's facilities.

The application-declaration represents that no State commission has jurisdiction over the proposed transactions.

The application-declaration having been filed on August 16, 1948, and an amendment thereto having been filed on October 26, 1948, and notice of such filing having been given in the form and manner prescribed by Rule U-23 promulgated under said act, and the Commission not having received a request for hearing with respect to the application-declaration, as amended, within the period specified in the said notice, or otherwise, and not having ordered a hearing thereon; and

The Commission finding with respect to the application-declaration that the requirements of the applicable provisions of the act and the Rules thereunder are satisfied and that it is not necessary to impose any terms or conditions, and the Commission deeming it appropriate in the public interest and in the interest of investors and consumers that said application-declaration be granted and permitted to become effective, without, however, affecting the jurisdiction of other appropriate regulatory authorities with respect to accounting entries in connection with the proposed transactions, and deeming it appropriate to grant the request of applicants-declarants that the order become effective forthwith upon issuance:

It is hereby ordered, Pursuant to Rule U-23 and the applicable provisions of the act, and subject to the terms and conditions prescribed by Rule U-24, that the application-declaration, as amended, be, and the same hereby is, granted and permitted to become effective forthwith.

By the Commission.

[File No. 70-1942]

BROCKTON EDISON CO. AND EASTERN UTILITIES ASSOCIATES

MEMORANDUM OPINION AND ORDER GRANTING APPLICATION-DECLARATION AND PERMITTING IT TO BECOME EFFECTIVE

At a regular session of the Securities and Exchange Commission, held at its office in the city of Washington, D. C., on the 1st day of November A. D. 1948.

Brockton Edison Company ("Brockton"), a public utility subsidiary of Eastern Utilities Associates ("EUA"), a registered holding company, and EUA, have filed an application-declaration pursuant to sections 6 (b) and 12 of the Public Utility Holding Company Act of 1935, with respect to the proposed issue and sale by Brockton of $4,000,000 principal amount of First Mortgage and Collateral Trust Bonds, --% Series due 1978. The sale is to be made pursuant to competitive bidding, and the interest rate and the price of the bonds will be determined by such bidding. The net proceeds from the sale are to be used to retire $2,625,000 principal amount of promissory notes of Brockton presently outstanding and to obtain funds for that company's construction requirements. The bonds are to be secured by an Indenture of First Mortgage and Deed of Trust to State Street Trust Company, as trustee, mortgaging and pledging all the assets of Brockton (with certain specified exceptions), including its investment in the stock of Montaup Electric Company ("Montaup"), a subsidiary company of Brockton and EUA.

The application-declaration also states that the proposed issue and sale of bonds are subject to the jurisdiction of the Department of Public Utilities of the Commonwealth of Massachusetts, the State in which Brockton is organized and doing business, and that that Department has expressly authorized such proposed issue and sale.

We issued a notice of filing of the application-declaration, which notice stated that any interested person might request a hearing on the matter. Such a request was made by counsel for Roger W. Babson, the owner of 32,850 shares of convertible stock of EUA, who contended, among other things, that the pledge of the Montaup stock would interfere with compliance with section 11 (b) of the act. We heard oral argument on Babson's request for a hearing. After consideration, we ordered that a public hearing be held solely with respect to the issue whether, in the light of the requirements of section 11 of the act, it is appropriate in the public interest and for the protection of investors and consumers that Brockton's holdings of Montaup should be pledged as partial security for the proposed bond issue.

After appropriate notice, a public hearing was held at which Brockton and EUA appeared in support of the application-declaration. No one appeared in opposition,[1] and no proposed findings or briefs have been filed, nor has oral argument been requested. Our findings are based on an independent review of the record.

Description of the companies. Brockton, a Massachusetts corporation, is a public utility operating company engaged in the electric light and power business in certain communities in southeastern Massachusetts. As indicated above, it is a part of the holding company system of EUA, which owns 97.4% of the outstanding capital stock of Brockton. EUA also owns 86.3% of the outstanding capital stock of Blackstone Valley Gas and Electric Company ("Blackstone"), and 36.9% of the common stock of Fall River Electric Light Company ("Fall River"), both of which companies are operating electric utility companies.[2]

Montaup was organized for the limited purpose of furnishing electric energy to its owner companies, Brockton, Fall River and Blackstone. Its agreement with those companies provides in general for a financing and pooling arrangement to supply additional generating capacity for the three owner companies, which serve neighboring areas in Massachusetts and Rhode Island, and to coordinate the operations of all generating facilities of the four companies as a single unified system.

[1] By letter dated October 18, 1948, counsel for Babson informed the Commission that his client had decided it was not advisable for him to participate in the hearing.

[2] Fall River is also a member of the holding company system of New England Electric system, a nonaffiliated holding company.

Montaup has outstanding 15,000 shares of preferred stock and 133,979 shares of common stock, all of which is owned by the three owner companies. Each owner company holds 5,000 shares of preferred stock; the common stock holdings vary with each company's investment, which is based upon the estimated maximum demand for power from Montaup. Brockton owns 25,897 shares of common stock of Montaup, which, together with its preferred stock, give it 33.23% of the stock entitled to vote and 23.42% of the investment in Montaup. Blackstone and Fall River hold 33.44% and 33.33%, respectively, of the stock entitled to vote. Since the by-laws of Montaup provide that no action may be taken by stockholders without the affirmative vote of 70% of the stock entitled to vote, for all practical purposes no action may be taken by Montaup's stockholders unless all three companies are in agreement.

The record shows that Brockton's generating capacity is only approximately half of its peak load demand. Brockton is therefore dependent upon Montaup as its principal source of power. Brockton's volume of business has been on the uptrend in recent years and it is expected to continue so in the near future. There is accordingly no prospect that Brockton's need for power from Montaup will decrease in the foreseeable future.

The Montaup electric system (the generating and transmission facilities of Montaup, Brockton, Blackstone and Fall River) is located in the adjoining states of Massachusetts and Rhode Island. The facilities of all four companies are interconnected by high tension transmission lines. All of the three owner companies are dependent on Montaup as a source of power.

In March 1947, the Commission initiated proceedings pursuant to sections 11 (b) (1) and 11 (b) (2) with respect to EUA, Brockton, Blackstone, Fall River and Montaup.[3] Hearings in connection with these proceedings have been closed but no order has, as yet, been issued.

Purpose of the bond issue. At present, Brockton's debt is in the form of bank notes in the principal amount of $2,625,000. These notes have maturity dates through 1955. Brockton has stated that it is possible that additional money could be borrowed from banks and that the existing bank loans could be renewed on favorable terms. Such financing would be only temporary, however, and would have to be replaced eventually by permanent financing through the issue and sale of bonds or stock. Further, Brockton feels that present interest rates on long term bonds are favorable and wishes by the proposed bond issue to eliminate the risk attendant upon deferring permanent financing to a later date when rates may be higher.

Brockton has made and proposes to make construction expenditures during the period January 1, 1948 to December 31, 1950 totalling approximately $2,873,000. Approximately $500,000 of this total had been spent by July 31, 1948. Brockton expects to obtain the funds for its construction program as follows:

(a) Funds already obtained from the bank notes to be retired	$525,000
(b) Net proceeds of the sale of new bonds after retiring outstanding bank notes	1,338,000
(c) Anticipated retirement reserve accruals and appropriations from net income from operations during 1948-1950	810,000
(d) Anticipated bank borrowings in 1950	200,000

At the hearing testimony was presented on behalf of the company that it was important and desirable that the Montaup stock be included in the security for the proposed issue of bonds. It was stated that it is customary in financing of the kind now proposed to pledge as security substantially all of the physical assets of the borrowing company. The Montaup stock was described as an investment in the principal generating facilities utilized by Brockton in its business, which in effect represents Brockton's principal generating plant. It was asserted that, because of this situation, the pledge of the Montaup stock is as essential to the security of the bonds as is the mortgage of Brockton's own physical property. It was testified that such pledge would improve the amount and quality of the security and would enable the company to sell the bonds at a rate of interest of from ¾% to 1% lower than would have to be paid were the Montaup stock not pledged as partial security.

Exemption under section 6 (b). The third sentence of section 6 (b) of the act provides in part as follows:

> • • • The Commission by rules and regulations or order, subject to such terms and conditions as it deems appropriate in the public interest or for the protection of investors or consumers, shall exempt from the provisions of subsection (a) the issue or sale of any security by any subsidiary company of a registered holding company, if the issue and sale of such security are solely for the purpose of financing the business of such subsidiary company and have been expressly authorized by the State commission of the State in which such subsidiary company is organized and doing business, • • •

The proposed issue and sale of bonds are solely for the purpose of financing the business of Brockton and have been authorized by the State Commission of the State in which Brockton is organized and doing business. The issue and sale of such bonds therefore should be granted exemption, pursuant to section 6 (b) of the act, from the provisions of sections 6 (a) and 7. The only question is whether it is necessary in granting the exemption to impose any terms and conditions.

We have held that we have power to impose terms and conditions, in connection with an exemption under section 6 (b), where they are necessary to avoid a material variance from the basic standards and policies of the act.[4] However, the record contains no showing that any such terms and conditions are necessary in this case. There is no evidence in support of the contention made in connection with the request for a hearing that the pledge of the Montaup stock would interfere with the achievement of the objectives of section 11 (b). On the other hand, the applicants-declarants submitted evidence in support of their proposal and justifying the pledge of the Montaup stock. Counsel for the Division of Public Utilities also took an active part in cross-examination of the witnesses for the applicants-declarants and a full record on the specified issue was made.

[3] Eastern Utilities Associates and Its Subsidiary Companies, — S. E. C. — (1947), Holding Company Act Release No. 7303.

[4] Public Service Company of Indiana, Inc., — S. E. C. — (1947), Holding Company Act Release No. 7554.

We find that the proposed bond issue, including the proposal to pledge the Montaup stock as partial security for the bonds, is not inconsistent with the basic standards and policies of the act. We do not believe that the pledge of the Montaup stock will create any substantial obstacle to compliance with any order or orders which might be issued under section 11 (b).[5] Furthermore, we note that the proposed Indenture of First Mortgage and Deed of Trust under which the bonds will be issued contains specific provisions permitting the release of the Montaup stock, upon compliance with certain conditions, in the event that it becomes necessary to release that stock from the pledge in furtherance of the section 11 (b) proceedings.

After due consideration, we find that it is not necessary or appropriate in the public interest or for the protection of investors or consumers to impose terms or conditions with respect to the proposed transactions, except to the extent indicated below.

Other matters. We deem it appropriate to grant the request of the applicants-declarants that the order herein be effective forthwith, and we shall so provide.

Brockton also requested that the ten-day notice period for inviting bids for the purchase of its bonds, as provided in Rule U-50 (b), be shortened so that the bids may be opened on November 9, 1948. Under the circumstances of this case, we conclude that we may appropriately grant the company's request by permitting the notice period for inviting bids to be shortened to not less than six days.

Since the record has not been completed with respect to the fees and expenses to be paid in connection with the proposed issuance and sale of these bonds, we reserve jurisdiction with respect to such fees and expenses.

The sale of the bonds may not be consummated by Brockton until the results of the competitive bidding pursuant to Rule U-50 have been made a part of the record herein and a further order shall have been issued by us, and we reserve jurisdiction to impose such conditions and terms as may then be deemed appropriate in the light of the record so made.

Accordingly, it is ordered, Pursuant to Rule U-23 and the applicable provisions of the act, that the application-declaration be and hereby is granted and permitted to become effective forthwith, subject to the terms and conditions prescribed in Rule U-24, and to the following additional conditions:

1. The proposed sale of bonds of Brockton shall not be consummated until the results of competitive bidding pursuant to Rule U-50 shall have been made a matter of record in this proceeding and a further order shall have been entered by this Commission on the basis of the record so completed, which order may contain such further terms and conditions as may then be deemed appropriate.

2. Jurisdiction is reserved with respect to all fees and expenses to be paid in connection with the proposed transactions.

It is further ordered, That the ten-day period for inviting bids on the proposed bonds as prescribed in Rule U-50 (b) be and hereby is shortened to a period of not less than six days.

By the Commission.

[5] Since the proceedings under section 11 (b) (1) and (2) are still pending, we do not in any way express any opinion as to what orders, if any, might be issued in connection with those proceedings, nor do we in any way limit the action which we may take on the basis of the record made in those proceedings.

FEDERAL REGISTER

VOLUME 13 NUMBER 222

Washington, Saturday, November 13, 1948

TITLE 7—AGRICULTURE

Chapter VIII—Production and Marketing Administration (Sugar Branch)

PART 801—GENERAL SUGAR REGULATIONS

ENTRY OF SUGAR INTO CONTINENTAL UNITED STATES

Basis and purpose. This determination is issued pursuant to the regulations in this part and deals with the entry of sugar into the continental United States. Section 801.52 of General Sugar Regulations, Series 3, No. 2, as amended, states that certification to the Collectors of Customs by the Secretary that the sugar or liquid sugar to be imported is within the applicable quota or allotment established by the Secretary for the area in which such sugar was produced, except as otherwise specified therein, shall not be required as to any quota or portion thereof until the Director of the Sugar Branch determines that such quota or portion thereof is filled to the extent that certification is required to maintain effective quota control. That section also provides that upon publication of such determination in the FEDERAL REGISTER certification by the Secretary shall be required for the remainder of the applicable calendar year.

The 1948 sugar quota for Cuba is 2,895,962 short tons of sugar, raw value. As of October 22, 1948, approximately 2,530,924 short tons, raw value, of sugar for further processing and direct-consumption purposes have been brought into the continental United States from Cuba. Thus, only approximately 365,038 short tons, raw value, or 12.6 percent, of Cuba's total quota remain to be imported during the remainder of the calendar year 1948. In order to assure an orderly and adequate flow of sugar, prevent disorderly marketing, and maintain an effective quota system, it is necessary that the certification prescribed by these regulations be required for raw sugar for further processing hereafter imported from Cuba.

Current stocks of sugar in Cuba are considerably in excess of the quantity required to fill the balance of their 1948 quota for the continental United States. Since only 12.6 percent of Cuba's 1948 quota remains unfilled, it is hereby determined and found that compliance with the 30-day effective date requirement of the Administrative Procedure Act is impracticable and contrary to the public interest and consequently this determination shall become effective when published in the FEDERAL REGISTER in accordance with § 801.52.

Pursuant to the authority contained in § 801.52 of General Sugar Regulations, Series 3, No. 2, as amended (13 F. R. 127, 1076, 2063, 4590), it is hereby determined that the 1948 sugar quota for Cuba, amounting to 2,895,962 short tons of sugar, raw value, has been filled to the extent that certification is required to maintain effective quota control. Accordingly, for the remainder of the calendar year 1948, Collectors of Customs shall not permit the entry into the continental United States from Cuba of any raw sugar for further processing, unless and until the certification described in § 801.52 (a) of such General Sugar Regulations is issued.

(Pub. Law 388, 80th Cong.)

Issued this 8th day of November 1948.

[SEAL] LAWRENCE MEYERS,
Director, Sugar Branch, Production and Marketing Administration.

S. No. 2 grade (as such grades are defined in the revised United States Standards for Grapefruit (California and Arizona), 12 F. R. 1975); or

(ii) From the State of California or the State of Arizona to any point outside thereof in the United States or in Canada, any grapefruit, grown as aforesaid, which are of a size smaller than $3\frac{11}{16}$ inches in diameter ("diameter" to be measured midway at a right angle to a straight line running from the stem to the blossom end of the fruit), except that a tolerance of 5 percent, by count, of grapefruit smaller than such minimum size shall be permitted which tolerance shall be applied in accordance with the provisions for the application of tolerances, specified in the said revised United States Standards for Grapefruit (California and Arizona): Provided, That in determining the percentage of grapefruit in any lot which are smaller than $3\frac{11}{16}$ inches in diameter, such percentage shall be based only on the grapefruit in such lot which are of a size $4\frac{9}{16}$ inches in diameter and smaller.

(2) As used in this section, "handler" and "ship" shall have the same meaning as is given to each such term in said marketing agreement and order; and the term "well colored" shall have the same meaning as is given to such term in the aforesaid revised United States Standards for Grapefruit (California and Arizona). (48 Stat. 31, as amended; 7 U. S. C. 601 et seq.; 7 CFR, Cum. Supp., 955.1)

[Orange Reg. 254]

PART 966—ORANGES GROWN IN CALIFORNIA AND ARIZONA

LIMITATION OF SHIPMENTS

§ 966.400 Orange Regulation 254—(a) Findings. (1) Pursuant to the provisions of Order No. 66 (7 CFR, Cum. Supp., 966.1 et seq.) regulating the handling of oranges grown in the State of California or in the State of Arizona, effective under the applicable provisions of the Agricultural Marketing Agreement Act of 1937, as amended, and upon the basis of the recommendation and information submitted by the Orange Administrative Committee, established under the said order, and upon other available information, it is hereby found that the limitation of the quantity of such oranges which may be handled, as hereinafter provided, will tend to effectuate the declared policy of the act.

(2) It is hereby further found that it is impracticable and contrary to the public interest to give preliminary notice, engage in public rule making procedure, and postpone the effective date of this section until 30 days after publication thereof in the FEDERAL REGISTER (60 Stat. 237; 5 U. S. C. 1001 et seq.) because the time intervening between the date when information upon which this section is based became available and the time when this section must become effective in order to effectuate the declared policy of the Agricultural Marketing Agreement Act of 1937, as amended, is insufficient, and a reasonable time is permitted under the circumstances, for preparation for such effective date.

(b) Order. (1) The quantity of oranges grown in the State of California or in the State of Arizona which may be handled during the period beginning at 12:01 a. m., P. s. t., November 14, 1948 and ending at 12:01 a. m., P. s. t., November 21, 1948 is hereby fixed as follows:

(i) Valencia organges. (a) Prorate District No. 1: no movement;

(b) Prorate District No. 2: unlimited movement;

(c) Prorate District No. 3: no movement.

(ii) Oranges other than Valencia oranges. (a) Prorate District No. 1: 200 carloads;

(b) Prorate District No. 2: no movement;

(c) Prorate District No. 3: Unlimited movement.

(2) The prorate base of each handler who has made application therefor, as provided in the said order, is hereby fixed in accordance with the prorate base schedule which is attached hereto and made a part hereof by this reference.

(3) As used in this section, "handled," "handler," "carloads," and "prorate base" shall have the same meaning as is given to each such term in the said order; and "Prorate District No. 1," "Prorate District No. 2", and "Prorate District No. 3" shall have the same meaning as is given to each such term in § 966.107 (11 F. R. 10258) of the rules and regulations contained in this part. (48 Stat. 31, as amended; 7 U. S. C. 601 et seq.)

Done at Washington, D. C., this 10th day of November 1948.

[SEAL] M. W. BAKER,
Acting Director, Fruit and Vegetable Branch, Production and Marketing Administration.

PART 373—LICENSING POLICIES AND RELATED SPECIAL PROVISIONS

MISCELLANEOUS AMENDMENTS

Part 373 "Licensing Policies and Related Special Provisions," is amended in the following particulars:

1. Section 373.2, Export licensing general policy, is amended as follows:

The list of processing code symbols in subparagraph (1) of paragraph (h) Commodities subject to this export licensing policy is amended by adding thereto the following: "BLDG".

This part of the amendment shall become effective as of the beginning of the fourth calendar quarter of 1948.

The list of commodities in subparagraph (2) of paragraph (h) is amended by adding thereto the following:

Commodity	Schedule B No.
Other nonmetallic minerals (precious included):
Diamond grinding wheels	540905
Diamond dust, or powder	540910
Resinoid diamond abrasive wheels	541200
Diamonds suitable only for industrial use	599005
Diamond bearings	599098
Diamonds, rough or uncut, other than industrial	599098
Iron and steel manufactures:
Diamond saws, except circular	615605
Tools incorporating industrial diamond, n. e. s	617891
Mining, well, and pumping machinery:
Rock drills (when containing diamonds)	731100
Diamond drill bits and other mining and quarrying machinery, and parts containing diamonds	733900
Metalworking machinery:

Other industrial machinery:
Diamond penetrators	774020
Diamond penetrator parts	775098
Scientific and professional instruments, apparatus and supplies:
Diamond disk points and other dental instruments containing diamonds	915000

This part of the amendment shall become effective as of September 29, 1948.

2. Section 373.3, Special provisions for iron and steel products, is amended as follows:

Paragraph (g) Validity period is amended by adding to the end of the last sentence the following: "; cast-iron pressure pipe, Schedule B No. 606705; and cast-iron pressure pipe fittings, Schedule B No. 606798."

This part of the amendment shall become effective as of September 7, 1948.

A new paragraph (i) is added to read as follows:

(i) Licensing against fourth calendar quarter, 1948, quotas. The foregoing provisions of this section (relating to the third calendar quarter, 1948, quotas) shall also apply to licensing of iron and steel products against the fourth calendar quarter, 1948, quotas, except that the submission time schedule for such commodities shall be as follows:

[1] The five items for which applications may be filed at any time during a calendar quarter fall in three categories, as follows: (1) Closed quota items (pig, scrap, and bale ties) for which the OIT has no export quota. Approvals are dependent upon the action of the Review Committee, to which only exceptional cases are referred; (2) surplus steel, on which there is an overall quantitative quota of 20,000 tons; and (3) reject steel, on which there is an open quota. The provisions of § 373.4, with respect to reject and surplus steel, remain in full effect.

This part of the amendment shall become effective as of August 18, 1948, except that as to Schedule B No. 609900 it shall become effective September 22, 1948.

3. A new § 373.10 is added to read as follows:

§ 373.10 Special provisions for rice exportations to Cuba. Rice will be licensed for export to Cuba against allocations for the period July to December, 1948, in accordance with the following provisions:

(a) Each applicant may apply for and receive a license, or licenses, in an amount equal to 10% (rounded to the nearest 1,000 cwt.) of the shipments of rice he made to Cuba during the period July 1, 1947–June 30, 1948, or 1,000 cwt., whichever is greater (but in no case will such licenses be issued for an amount in excess of 40,000 cwt.), Provided:

(1) The applicant submits a detailed signed statement of his shipments of rice to Cuba during the period July 1, 1947, to June 30, 1948, including the date of each shipment. Such statement need be submitted only once.

(2) Each license application is accompanied by a copy of an irrevocable letter of credit or a copy of a domestic bank's advice of an irrevocable letter of credit opened for the account of the purchaser or ultimate consignee. Such copy must be officially signed by the issuing or advising bank. A photostatic copy of the original irrevocable letter of credit or original advice of irrevocable letter of credit will be accepted in lieu of the official signed copy. In each case, the applicant must certify the amount of the unused balance of the letter of credit remaining after deducting the amount involved in transactions for which licenses have been issued.

(b) Additional licenses. (1) An applicant who has received a license, or licenses, authorizing shipment of 10,000 cwt., or more of rice to Cuba under the provisions set forth in paragraph (a) of this section, may apply for and receive additional licenses upon submission of certified copies of on board ocean bills of lading, bearing the export license number (or numbers) showing that he actually has shipped against the license (or licenses) previously granted under this procedure in an amount equivalent to that for which he is applying.

(2) An applicant who has received a license or licenses authorizing shipment of less than 10,000 cwt., of rice to Cuba under the provisions set forth in paragraph (a) of this section, may apply for an amount up to twice the amount he has shipped, as shown on the certified copies of on board ocean bills of lading to accompany such application, provided such amount does not exceed 10,000 cwt. When an applicant qualifies to receive a license, or licenses, covering an amount up to 10,000 cwt., subsequent license applications shall be submitted in accordance with subparagraph (1) of this paragraph.

(c) Consideration of applications. License applications will be considered for validation during August, September, and October, 1948, in the order they are received until 1,600,000 cwt. have been licensed, after which time applications will be held for consideration during November and December, 1948, in the order they were received. License applications accompanied by letters of credit which, by their terms, expire before shipment can be effected, will be returned without action to the applicant.

(d) Validity period. Licenses will be validated for a period of 60 days.

This part of the amendment shall become effective as of August 18, 1948.

4. A new § 373.11 is added to read as follows:

§ 373.11 Special provisions for lumber, Processing Code LUMB. Applications for licenses to export commodities included on the Positive List with the processing code symbol LUMB must be accompanied by evidence of accepted orders.

This part of the amendment shall become effective as of September 9, 1948.

5. A new § 373.12 is added to read as follows:

§ 373.12 Special provisions for building materials. All building materials included on the Positive List with the processing code symbol BLDG will be licensed for export against fourth calendar quarter, 1948, quotas and subsequent calendar quarter quotas in accordance with the following provisions:

(a) License applications will be approved on the basis of accepted order, end-use for which the exportation is intended, export price and country of destination involved, in accordance with the licensing policy set forth in § 373.2.

(b) Time for submission of applications. Applications must be submitted during the last ten (10) days of the month preceding the beginning of a new calendar quarter and not later than the first day of the new calendar quarter. Applications against fourth calendar quarter, 1948, quotas received on or after October 1, 1948, or which do not comply with the requirements of this section will not be considered but will be returned without action for resubmission not earlier than the 20th day of the month preceding the beginning of the next calendar quarter.

This part of the amendment shall become effective as of September 9, 1948.

6. A new section 373.13 is added to read as follows:

§ 373.13 Special provisions for diamonds. Loose diamonds (except cut gem diamonds) and tools and devices incorporating diamonds will be licensed for export in accordance with the following provisions:

(a) Definitions. The commodities covered by this section are more particularly described and defined as follows:

(1) "Loose diamonds (except cut gem diamonds)" are any diamonds not set in any other material.

(i) "Industrial diamonds" are industrial-purpose diamonds in any form, unmounted, including ballas, carbonados, crushing bort, other uncrushed diamonds and diamond fragments, and diamond dust or powder.

(ii) "Cuttable diamonds" are diamonds suitable for cutting into gems and not reserved for industrial use.

(2) "Tools incorporating diamonds" are any tools or industrial devices, including metal slugs, which contain diamonds.

(b) Basis of licensing. License applications will be approved in accordance with the general licensing policy set forth in § 373.2.

(c) Application requirements. (1) Separate license applications (Form IT-419) must be submitted for each schedule B classification of loose diamonds and tools and devices incorporating diamonds and must contain a complete description of each named commodity or commodities, including any customary trade subclassifications.

(2) Loose diamonds, industrial and cuttable must be listed on the application by one of the following methods:

(i) Separately, giving trade description and the respective carat weight and value of each diamond listed.

(ii) In groups by packets, giving the number of diamonds, the total carat weight, total value, and average value per carat for each group.

(iii) By quantity (as in the case of small sizes, sand, powder, etc.), giving total carat weight, total value, and average value per carat.

(3) Tools incorporating industrial diamonds: (i) Tools, tool parts or devices (including metal slugs) must be listed separately on the application, or by groups of identical tools, giving the name and type of tool and the approximate carat weight of diamonds and/or diamond powder or dust contained therein.

(ii) Diamond dies must be listed as unmounted or encased and the size of hole, carat weight and the unit value per die must be given.

(4) The application must also include a detailed statement regarding the end use of the commodity.

(d) Export clearance. Every shipment of loose diamonds in any form (except cut gem diamonds), not including tools incorporating diamonds, irrespective of the means of exportation must be inspected by the nearest Collector of Customs. The Collector of Customs will compare the contents of the shipment with the description on the export license. If the contents and description on the license agree, the shipment will be sealed and shipped under Customs supervision. If the contents of the shipment do not agree with the description set forth on the export license, the Collector of Customs will refuse clearance of shipment for export and will return the export license to the Office of International Trade with a statement of his findings.

This part of the amendment shall become effective as of September 29, 1948.

TITLE 17—COMMODITY AND SECURITIES EXCHANGES

Chapter II—Securities and Exchange Commission

PART 240—GENERAL RULES AND REGULATIONS, SECURITIES EXCHANGE ACT OF 1934

SOLICITATION OF PROXIES

On July 6, 1948, the Securities and Exchange Commission issued proposals with respect to certain amendments to § 240.14 (Regulation X-14) under the Securities Exchange Act of 1934 which proposals were published in the FEDERAL REGISTER on July 14, 1948. The Commission has now duly considered all comments and suggestions received in connection with the proposed amendments and is taking action in regard thereto as hereinafter set forth. The Commission finds that the action hereinafter specified is necessary or appropriate in the public interest and for the protection of investors and necessary to carry out the provisions of the act. Such action is taken pursuant to the Securities Exchange Act of 1934, particularly sections 14 (a) and 23 (a) thereof.

I. Section 240.14a-1 (Rule X-14A-1) is amended by adding thereto the following definition of the term "last fiscal year." The purpose of this amendment is to make it clear that where the term is used in § 240.14 (Regulation X-14) it refers to the latest fiscal year of the issuer prior to the date of the meeting.

§ 240.14a-1 Definitions. • • •

(f) Last fiscal year. The term "last fiscal year" of the issuer means the last fiscal year of the issuer ending prior to the date of the meeting for which proxies are to be solicited.

II. Section 240.14a-4 (Rule X-14A-4) which governs the form of proxies is amended to read as hereinbelow set forth. It has been found that proxies have been misleading in certain cases in that they did not indicate clearly whether or not the solicitation was made on behalf of the management or on behalf of other persons. In order to remedy this situation, the rule is amended to require that there be set forth in bold face type on the form of proxy an indication as to whether or not it is solicited on behalf of the management.

In certain cases § 240.14a-8 (Rule X-14A-8), as hereinbelow amended, will permit the omission of a stockholder's proposal in certain instances. Section 240.14a-4 (Rule X-14A-4) is amended to provide that proposals so omitted need not be referred to in the form of proxy and that the proxy may confer discretionary authority with respect to such proposals.

In order to prevent the premature solicitation of proxies at a time when material information has not yet become available, the amended rule provides that no proxy shall confer authority to vote at any annual meeting other than the next annual meeting (or any adjournment thereof) which is to be held after the date on which the solicitation is made.

The Commission has heretofore taken the position that the solicitation of proxies constitutes an implied representation by the persons making the solicitation that the shares represented by the proxy will be voted. In order to make this representation more explicit, the amended rule requires that the proxy statement shall provide that the shares represented by the proxy will be voted, subject to reasonable specified conditions.

This rule has also been amended and clarified in other minor respects.

The text of the amended rule is as follows:

§ 240.14a-4 Requirements as to form of proxy.[1] (a) The form of proxy (1) shall indicate in bold face type whether or not the proxy is solicited on behalf of the management and (2) shall identify clearly and impartially each matter or group of related matters intended to be acted upon, whether proposed by the management or by security holders. No reference need be made, however, to proposals omitted pursuant to paragraph (c) of § 240.14a-8.

[1] See 17 CFR 241.4185 infra for interpretative statement accompanying the November 5, 1948 revision of this rule.

(b) Means shall be provided in the form of proxy whereby the person solicited is afforded an opportunity to specify by ballot a choice between approval or disapproval of each matter or group of related matters referred to therein as intended to be acted upon, other than elections to office. A proxy may confer discretionary authority with respect to matters as to which a choice is not so specified provided the form of proxy states in bold face type how it is intended to vote the shares represented by the proxy in each such case.

(c) A proxy may confer discretionary authority with respect to other matters which may come before the meeting, provided the persons on whose behalf the solicitation is made are not aware at the time the solicitation is made that any such other matters are to be presented for action at the meeting and provided further that a specific statement to that effect is made in the proxy statement or in the form of proxy. A proxy may also confer discretionary authority with respect to any proposal omitted from the proxy statement and form of proxy pursuant to paragraph (c) of § 240.14a-8.

(d) No proxy shall confer authority (1) to vote for the election of any person to any office for which a bona fide nominee is not named in the proxy statement, or (2) to vote at any annual meeting other than the next annual meeting (or any adjournment thereof) to be held after the date on which the proxy statement and form of proxy are first sent or given to security holders.

(e) The proxy statement or form of proxy shall provide, subject to reasonable specified conditions, that the shares represented by the proxy will be voted and that where the person solicited specifies by means of a ballot provided pursuant to paragraph (b) of this section a choice with respect to any matter to be acted upon, the shares will be voted in accordance with the specifications so made.

III. Section 240.14a-8 (Rule X-14A-8) is amended by deleting paragraph (c) thereof and by inserting in lieu of such paragraph two new paragraphs (c) and (d) reading as hereinbelow set forth.

This rule requires the management to include in its proxy material proposals seasonably submitted by security holders which are proper subjects for action by security holders. The Commission has found that in a few cases security holders have abused this privilege by using the rule to achieve personal ends which are not necessarily in the common interest of the issuer's security holders generally. In order to prevent such abuse of the rule, but without unduly restricting the privilege which it grants to security holders, the amendment places reasonable limitations upon the submission of such proposals.

The text of the two new paragraphs is as follows:

§ 240.14a-8 Proposals of security holders. • • •

(c) Notwithstanding the foregoing, the management may omit a proposal and any statement in support thereof from its proxy statement and form of proxy under the following circumstances:

(1) If it clearly appears that the proposal is submitted by the security holder primarily for the purpose of enforcing a personal claim or of redressing a personal grievance against the issuer or its management, or

(2) If the management has at the security holder's request included a proposal in its proxy statement and form of proxy relating to either of the last two annual meetings of security holders or any special meeting held subsequent to the earlier of such two annual meetings and such security holder has failed without good cause to attend the meeting in person or by proxy or to present the proposal for action at the meeting, or

(3) If substantially the same proposal was submitted to the security holders for action at the last annual meeting of security holders or at any special meeting held subsequent thereto and received less than three percent of the total number of votes cast in regard to the proposal.

(d) Whenever the management asserts that a proposal and any statement in support thereof may properly be omitted from its proxy statement and form of proxy, it shall file with the Commission, not later than the date preliminary copies of the proxy statement and form of proxy are filed pursuant to § 240.14a-6 (a), (Rule X-14A-6 (a)), a copy of the proposal and any statement in support thereof, as received from the security holder, together with a statement of the reasons why the management deems such omission to be proper in the particular case. The management shall at the same time, if it has not already done so, notify the security holder submitting the proposal of its intention to omit the proposal from its proxy statement and form of proxy and shall advise the security holder as to the reasons for such omission. Compliance with this paragraph shall not be construed as relieving the management of its obligation to comply fully with the foregoing provisions of this section.

IV. Item 3 (b) of Schedule 14A Information Required in Proxy Statement has heretofore required that if the solicitation is made otherwise than on behalf of the management, the names of the persons on whose behalf it is made shall be stated. In order to make it clear in such cases that the solicitation is not made on behalf of the management, Item 3 (b) is amended to require a specific statement to that effect.

The text of the amended item is as follows:

Item 3. Persons making the solicitation. • • •

(b) If the solicitation is made otherwise than on behalf of the management, so state and give the names of the persons on whose behalf it is made.

V. Item 7 calls for information as to the remuneration of and other transactions with directors, nominees, officers and certain other persons. Paragraphs (a) and (b) of the item have been revised for the general purpose of making the language of the items more specific in certain respects. The amended paragraph (a) calls for the same breakdown of the various types of remuneration paid to individual directors, nominees and officers as has heretofore been required with respect to directors and officers as a group.

Paragraph (d) is amended to cal. for information as to the indebtedness of associates of directors, officers and nominees of the issuer as well as for the indebtedness of such directors, officers and nominees themselves.

The text of paragraphs (a), (b) and (d) as amended is as follows:

Item 7. Remuneration and other transactions with directors, nominees, officers and others. * * *

(a) Furnish the following information, in substantially the tabular form indicated, as to the aggregate remuneration directly or indirectly paid or set aside by the issuer and its subsidiaries to, or for the benefit of, the following persons for services in all capacities while acting as directors or officers of the issuer during its last fiscal year.

(1) Each person who was a director of the issuer at any time during such fiscal year and whose aggregate remuneration, exclusive of pension, retirement and similar payments, exceeded $25,000.

(2) Each person who was one of the three highest-paid officers of the issuer during such fiscal year and whose aggregate remuneration, exclusive of pension, retirement and similar payments, exceeded $25,000.

(3) All persons, as a group, who were directors or officers of the issuer at any time during such fiscal year.

(1) Name of individual or identity of group	(2) Capacities in which remuneration was received	(3) Fees, salaries, and commissions	(4) Bonuses and shares in profits	(5) Pension, retirement and similar payments

Instructions. 1. Include in column (5) any amounts paid, set aside or accrued pursuant to any pension, retirement, savings or other similar plan, including premiums paid for life insurance or retirement annuities.

2. The issuer may state, with respect to any person specified, the total remuneration paid to a partnership in which such person was a partner in lieu of an allocation of such person's share in the total remuneration so paid, if by note or otherwise, it is indicated that such has been done. The total amount of such remuneration shall be included in determining whether the aggregate remuneration of such person exceeded $25,000.

3. If the total remuneration shown in columns (3) and (4) for any individual director or officer, or for the directors and officers as a group, exceeds by more than ten percent the corresponding amounts of remuneration of such director, officer or group for the preceding fiscal year, state the amount of the excess of the remuneration shown over the corresponding amount for the preceding fiscal year.

(b) State the annual benefits estimated to be payable in the event of retirement at normal retirement date to each person named in answer to paragraph (a) pursuant to any pension or retirement plan.

Instruction. Except as to persons whose retirement benefits have already vested, the information called for by this paragraph may be given in a table showing the annual benefits payable to persons in specified salary classifications.

(d) State as to each of the following persons who were indebted to the issuer or its subsidiaries at any time since the beginning of the last fiscal year of the issuer, (1) the largest aggregate amount of indebtedness outstanding at any time during such period, (2) the nature of the indebtedness, (3) the amount thereof outstanding as of the latest practicable date, and (4) the rate of interest paid or charged thereon: (i) each person who has been a director or officer of the issuer at any time during such period, (ii) each nominee for election as a director, and (iii) each associate of any such director, officer or nominee.

Instruction. Paragraph (d) does not apply to indebtedness arising from transactions in the ordinary course of business, or to any person whose aggregate indebtedness did not exceed $1,000 at any time during the period specified.

VI. Paragraph (f) of Item 7 of Schedule 14A calls for information as to the aggregate remuneration from the issuer and its subsidiaries of certain persons whose remuneration for services during the last fiscal year exceeded $20,000. In view of the fact that paragraph (a) of the amended item only calls for information of persons whose aggregate remuneration exceeded $25,000 during the last fiscal year of the issuer, the Commission has determined that the amount specified in paragraph (f) should also be correspondingly raised. Accordingly, paragraph (f) is amended by substituting the figure "$25,000" in lieu of the figure "$20,000" heretofore contained therein.

VII. Item 12 of Schedule 14A calls for certain information where action is to be taken with respect to the authorization of issuance of securities otherwise than in exchange for outstanding securities of the issuer. The item is amended to make it clear that it applies to the authorization of securities even though such securities are not to be issued immediately. The amended item also provides that a description of the securities to be authorized or issued need not be given in cases involving only additional shares of common stock of a class already outstanding, although in such cases a statement as to any pre-emptive rights is required.

The text of Item 12 as amended reads as follows:

Item 12. Authorization or issuance of securities otherwise than for exchange. If action is to be taken with respect to the authorization or issuance of any securities otherwise than for exchange for outstanding securities of the issuer, furnish the following information:

(a) State the title and amount of securities to be authorized or issued.

(b) Furnish a desription o fthe securities such as would be required to be furnished in an application on the appropriate form for their registration on a national securities exchange. If the securities are additional shares of common stock of a class outstanding, the description may be omitted except for a statement of the pre-emptive rights, if any.

(c) Describe briefly the transaction in which the securities are to be issued, including a statement as to (1) the nature and approximate amount of consideration received or to be received by the issuer, and (2) the approximate amount devoted to each purpose so far as determinable, for which the net proceeds have been or are to be used.

(d) If the securities are to be issued otherwise than in a general public offering for cash, state the reasons for the proposed authorization or issuance, the general effect thereof upon the rights of existing security holders, and the vote needed for approval.

In view of the fact that certain persons may wish to comply with § 240.14 (Regulation X-14) as hereinabove amended, rather than with § 240.14 (Regulation X-14) as heretofore in existence, the foregoing action shall be effective November 5, 1948. However, any solicitation commenced prior to December 15, 1948, may at the option of the persons on whose behalf it is made be governed by § 240.14 (Regulation X-14) as heretofore in effect.

PART 241—INTERPRETATIVE RELEASES RELATING TO SECURITIES EXCHANGE ACT OF 1934 AND GENERAL RULES AND REGULATIONS THEREUNDER

REQUIREMENTS AS TO FORM OF PROXY

§ 241.4185 Statement of the Commission accompanying November 5, 1948, revision of § 240.14 of this chapter (Regulation X-14). The draft of § 240.14a-4 of this chapter (Rule X-14A-4) which was published in the FEDERAL REGISTER on July 14, 1948 and circulated for public comment contained a provision that the form of proxy should contain no recommendation with respect to any matter to be acted upon. Upon further consideration of the matter, after reviewing the comments received, the Commission believes that this proposed change in the text of the existing section would introduce ambiguities that would create administrative difficulties in construction and application of the section. For that reason this provision has been omitted from the amended section. The failure to adopt the change in text is not to be regarded, however, as permitting the use of the proxy form to electioneer for or against propositions to be voted upon by the stockholders. In administering the section in the future no objection will be raised to the inclusion in the form of proxy of a simple statement of the fact that the management favors or opposes any matter to be acted upon pursuant to the proxy. However, in view of the requirement of the section that matters to be acted upon are to be set forth clearly and impartially, the Commission will regard as contrary to the section any statement or device which advocates any proposal, obscures the presentation of any proposal, misleads or confuses the security holder, bring pressure to bear upon him in the exercise of his right of choice or makes it mechanically more difficult for him to vote one way rather than another. Among the devices which the Commission will regard as contrary to the section are arguments or recommendations as to the merits of proposals, emphasis upon the management's position beyond the mere statement of the fact that the management favors or opposes a proposal, the use of arrows or any other visual device designed to direct the stockholders attention to the place on the proxy for voting one way and away from the place for voting the contrary, and the switching of boxes in order to procure the result desired by the management. TITLE 18—CONSERVATION OF POWER

Chapter I—Federal Power Commission

[Docket No. R-108; Order 143]

PART 11—ANNUAL CHARGES

PART 131—FORMS

PAYMENT AND EXEMPTION FROM PAYMENT OF ANNUAL CHARGES FOR LICENSEES

OCTOBER 26, 1948.

In this proceeding the Commission has under consideration amendments to Part 11 of Subchapter B, "Annual Charges", §§ 11.20, 11.24, and 11.27, and to Part 131 of Subchapter D, "Forms", § 131.70 (Chapter I, Title 18, Code of Federal Regulations, as amended) pursuant to authority vested in the Commission of the Federal Power Act, particularly sections 10 (e) and 309 thereof (49 Stat. 843, 858; 16 U. S. C. 803 (e), 825 (h). The proposed amendments involve principally changes in the time for filing annual statement of gross amount of power generated by licensees, makes the period of annual charge coincide with the period of power generation, and provides for additional information to be submitted by State and municipal licensees for computing the exemption to which any such licensee may be entitled under the exemption provisions of section 10 (e) of the act.

General public notice of the proposed amendment of the existing regulations, which were adopted and promulgated by the Commission's Order No. 50, effective June 1, 1938 (Chapter I, Title 18, Code of Federal Regulations), governing the payment of annual charges and exemption from payment of annual charges for licensees, has been given by publication of notice in the FEDERAL REGISTER on June 10, 1948 (13 F. R. 3134-3135), and by mailing notices to all licensees and to State and Federal regulatory agencies.

In response to the general public notice of June 10, 1948 a number of comments were filed by licensees. In general the responses indicate approval of the proposed amendments to § 11.20 since by its terms the amendments will be controlling only where licenses do not specifically provide otherwise. The proposed amendments do not disturb the amount of annual charges which any licensee is now required to pay, except that State and municipal licensees will not be billed for power used by them for State or municipal purposes provided they submit the information required by § 11.20 (b) (2).

Comments and suggestions were filed by some municipal licensees to the proposed amendments to §§ 11.24 and 131.70. Such comments and suggestions are in reality directed to the provisions of Section 10 (e) of the act and would apply as well to our existing rules and regulations. We have considered such comments and suggestions and conclude that they are inconsistent with our interpretation of the act as approved by the courts.

There have been no comments or objections to the proposed amendment to § 11.27 which grants an additional 15 days within which licensees located outside the continental limits of the United States are required to pay annual charges without the penalty provided by section 17 (b) of the act.

Upon consideration of the proposed amendments, comments and suggestions, adoption and promulgation of the proposed amendments with an effective date of January 1, 1949, appear desirable and appropriate.

The Commission, acting pursuant to authority granted by the Federal Power Act, particularly sections 10 (e) and 309 thereof, and finding such action appropriate for carrying out the provisions of said act, orders that:

Section 11.20 entitled "Cost of administration", § 11.24 entitled "Exemption of States and municipalities", and § 11.27 entitled "Payment of charges" of Part 11, "Annual Charges", Subchapter B, Regulations under the Federal Power Act, and § 131.70 entitled "Form of application by municipalities for exemption from payment of annual charges" of Part 131, "Forms," Subchapter D, Approved Forms, Federal Power Act, are hereby amended to read as follows:

§ 11.20 Costs of administration. Reasonable annual charges will be assessed by the Commission against individual licensees for reimbursing the United States for the costs of administration of Part 1 of the Federal Power Act as follows unless otherwise specifically provided in the license:

(a) For projects of more than 100 horsepower of installed capacity:

(1) A charge of one cent per horsepower of the horsepower capacity authorized to be installed by the license; and

(2) A charge of two and one-half cents per thousand kilowatt-hours of power generated by each project during the calendar year for which the charge is made.

(b) (1) To enable the Commission to determine such charges annually each licensee (other than State or municipal) shall file with the Commission, on or before February 1 of each year, a statement under oath showing the gross amount of power generated (or produced by non-electrical equipment) by the project during the preceding calendar year, expressed in kilowatt-hours.

(2) To enable the Commission to determine such charges annually and to compute on the bill for annual charges the exemption to which a State or municipal licensee is entitled because of the use of power by the licensee for State or municipal purposes, each State or municipal licensee shall file with the Commission, on or before February 1 of each year, a statement under oath showing the following information with respect to the power generated by the project and the disposition thereof during the preceding calendar year, expressed in kilowatt-hours:

(i) Gross amount of power generated by the project.

(ii) Amount of power used for station purposes and lost in transmission, etc.

(iii) Net amount of power available for sale or use by licensee, classified as follows:

(a) Used by licensee,

(b) Sold by licensee.

(3) When the power from a licensed project owned by a State or municipality enters into its electric system, making it impracticable to meet the requirements of subparagraph (2) of this paragraph with respect to the disposition of project power, such licensee may, in lieu thereof, furnish similar information with respect to the disposition of the available power of the entire electric system of the licensee.

(c) For projects of 100 horsepower or less of installed capacity the charge shall be $5 per annum, subject to the provisions of § 11.23.

(d) For projects involving transmission lines only the administration charge shall be a minimum of $5 per annum.

(e) For projects not covered by the above paragraphs, reasonable annual charges will be fixed by the Commission after consideration of the facts in each case.

§ 11.24 Exemption of State and municipal licensees—(a) Bases for exemption. A State or municipal licensee may claim total or partial exemption upon one or more of the following grounds:

(1) The project was primarily designed to provide or improve navigation;

(2) To the extent that power generated, transmitted, or distributed by the project was sold directly or indirectly to the public (ultimate consumer) without profit;

(3) To the extent that power generated, transmitted, or distributed by the project was used by the licensee for State or municipal purposes.

(b) Projects primarily for navigation. No State or municipal licensee shall be entitled to exemption from the payment of annual charges on the ground that the project was primarily designed to provide or improve navigation unless the licensee establishes that fact from the actual conditions under which the project was constructed and was operated during the calendar year for which the charge is made.

(c) State or municipal use. A State or municipal licensee shall be entitled to exemption from the payment of annual charges for the project to the extent that power generated, transmitted, or distributed by the project is used by the licensee itself for State or municipal purposes, such as lighting streets, highways, parks, public buildings, etc., for operating licensee's water or sewerage system, or in performing other public functions of the licensee.

(d) Sales to public. No State or municipal licensee shall be entitled to exemption from the payment of annual charges on the ground that power generated, transmitted, or distributed by the project is sold to the public without profit, unless such licensee shall show:

(1) That it maintains an accounting system which segregates the operations of the licensed project and reflects with reasonable accuracy the revenues and expenses of the project;

(2) That an income statement, prepared in accordance with the Commission's Uniform System of Accounts, shows that the revenues from the sale of project power do not exceed the total amount of operating expenses, maintenance, depreciation, amortization, taxes, and interest on indebtedness, applicable to the project property. Periodic accruals or payments for redemption of the principal of bonds or other indebtedness may not be deducted in determining the net profit of the project.

(e) Sales for resale. Notwithstanding compliance by a State or municipal licensee with the requirements of paragraph (d) of this section, it shall be subject to the payment of annual charges to the extent that electric power generated, transmitted, or distributed by the project is sold to another State, municipality, person, or corporation for resale, unless the licensee shall show that the power was sold to the ultimate consumer without profit. The matter of whether or not a profit was made is a question of fact to be established by the licensee.

(f) Interchange of power. Notwithstanding compliance by a State or municipal licensee with the requirements of paragraph (d) of this section, it shall be subject to the payment of annual charges to the extent that power generated, transmitted, or distributed by by the project was supplied under an interchange agreement to a State, municipality, person, or corporation for sale at a profit (which power was not offset by an equivalent amount of power received under such interchange agreement) unless the licensee shall show that the power was sold to ultimate consumers without profit.

(g) Construction period. During the period when the licensed project is under construction and is not generating power, it will be considered as operating without profit within the meaning of this section, and licensee will be entitled to total exemption from the payment of annual charges, except as to those charges relating to the use of a Government dam or tribal lands within Indian reservations.

(h) Optional showing. When the power from the licensed project enters into the electric power system of the State or municipal licensee, making it impracticable to meet the requirements set forth in this section with respect to the operations of the project only, such licensee may, in lieu thereof, furnish the same information with respect to the operations of said electric power system as a whole.

(i) Application for exemption. Application for exemption from payment of annual charges shall be prepared on forms prescribed by the Commission and shall be signed by an authorized executive officer or chief accounting officer of the licensee and verified under oath. An original and three copies of such application shall be filed with the Commission within the time allowed (by § 11.27) for the payment of the annual charges; Provided, however, That if the licensee shall within the time allowed for the payment of the annual charges file notice that it intends to file application for exemption, an additional period of 30 days is allowed within which to complete and file the application for exemption.

§ 11.27 Payment of charges. Annual charges shall be paid within 30 days of rendition of a bill therefor by the Commission except that licensees located outside the continental limits of the United States shall be allowed a period of 45 days after rendition of the bill.

§ 131.70 Form of application by State and municipal licensees for exemption from payment of annual charges. (See § 11.24 of this chapter.) Application by State and municipal licensees for exemption from payment of annual charges must be prepared on this form. The form specifies that in filing application for exemption, the following data and schedules shall be submitted:

1. Name and address of correspondent;
2. Basis for claimed exemption;
3. Generating plants owned or operated by licensee;
4. Transmission lines and distribution lines;
5. KWH of power generated, purchased and interchanged;
6. Power sold or otherwise disposed of (kwh);
7. Power interchange (in detail);
8. Statement of unusual conditions attending the disposition of electric power;
9. Book cost of electric property;
10. Operating revenues;
11. Operating expenses and other deductions from revenues;
12. Affidavit.

Copies of this form are filed with the FEDERAL REGISTER and may be obtained upon request from the Federal Power Commission, Washington 25, D. C.

The said §§ 11.20, 11.24 and 11.27 of Part 11, and § 131.70 of Part 131, as amended herein, are hereby promulgated and prescribed to become effective January 1, 1949.

The Secretary of the Commission shall cause prompt publication of this order to be made in the FEDERAL REGISTER.

PART 6—PROVISIONS APPLICABLE TO THE SEVERAL CLASSES OF MAIL MATTER

PACKING OF LIGHTWEIGHT (PREMIUM) KNIVES

In § 6.13 Poisons, explosives, liquids, medicines, motion picture films (39 CFR 6.13, 39 CFR, 1946 Supp., 6.13), add a new paragraph (f) reading as follows:

(f) (1) Lightweight knives usually weighing between ½ and 4 ounces with blades not over 10 inches in length nor 1½ inches in width may be accepted for mailing if packed in the following manner:

(2) When blade is not over 3¼ inches in length and ¾ inch in width, a close fitting sheath of 0.018 chipboard or equivalent material longer than blade shall be used together with kraft envelope or equivalent testing not less than 60 points (Mullen or Cady Tester), and not more than ½ inch longer than the knife.

(3) When blade is over 3¼ inches in length but not over 6 inches and not over 1 inch in width, a close fitting sheath of 0.022 kraftboard or equivalent material longer than blade shall be used together with kraft envelope or equivalent testing not less than 60 points and not more than ½ inch longer than knife.

(4) When blade is over 6 inches in length but not over 10 inches and not over 1½ inches in width, a close fitting sheath of 0.028 kraftboard or equivalent material longer than blade shall be used together with kraft envelope or equivalent testing not less than 64 points and not more than ½ inch longer than knife.

(5) The sheaths previously mentioned must be of such a snug fit that they can be removed only with some effort. A sheath that slides off readily is not approved unless it is affixed to the knife blade by means of cement or glue or is securely taped to the knife handle. The envelopes must be securely sealed.

(6) Kitchen set with 2 knives with blades not over 6 inches in length securely fastened by good quality cellulose tape or equivalent to a die cut card or 0.036 chipboard or equivalent larger than the knives and enclosed in a close fitting fiber carton of 0.024 kraftboard or equivalent securely fastened.

(7) Carving set composed of knife and fork taped together with blade not over 9 inches in length with close fitting sheaths of 0.018 chipboard protecting both blade and tines and enclosed in a close fitting fiber carton of 0.034 kraftboard or equivalent securely fastened.

(8) More substantial packing is required for larger knives. They should be cushioned in a strong fiberboard, wooden or metal box with the blades properly encased so that they cannot cut through their covering.

PART 230—RECLAMATION OF ARID LANDS BY THE UNITED STATES

RECLAMATION AND CULTIVATION

Section 230.60 is amended to read as follows:

§ 230.60 What constitutes reclamation and cultivation. To comply with the provisions of the reclamation law as to reclamation and cultivation, the land must be cleared of brush, trees, and other encumbrances, provided with sufficient laterals for its effective irrigation, graded and otherwise put in proper condition for irrigation and crop growth, planted, watered, and cultivated, and during at least 2 years next preceding the date of approval by the official in charge of the project of proof of reclamation, except as prevented by hailstorm or flooding, satisfactory crops must be grown on at least one-half of the irrigable area thereof. A satisfactory crop during any year shall be any one of the following: (a) A crop of annuals producing a yield of at least one-half of the average yield on similar land under similar conditions on the project for the year in which it is grown; (b) a substantial stand of alfalfa, clover, or of other perennial grass substantially equal in value to alfalfa or clover; or (c) a season's growth of orchard trees or vines of which 75 percent shall be in a thrifty condition. The crop production requirements of this section affecting lands embraced in reclamation homestead entries made after January 1, 1949, must be performed and met by the entryman personally, by members of his immediate family residing with him, or by persons employed under his direction supervision and management. The crop production requirements of this section shall be applicable to entryman's successors in interest. (Sec. 4 subsec. C, 43 Stat. 702; 43 U. S. C. 433)

TITLE 50—WILDLIFE

Chapter I—Fish and Wildlife Service; Department of the Interior

Subchapter C—National Wildlife Refuges; Individual Regulations

PART 29—PLAINS REGION NATIONAL WILDLIFE REFUGES

HUNTING IN LOWER SOURIS NATIONAL WILDLIFE REFUGE, NORTH DAKOTA

Basis and purpose. On the basis of observations and reports of field representatives of the Fish and Wildlife Service and of Conservation Agents of the North Dakota Game and Fish Department, it has been determined there is a general surplus of deer in much of North Dakota and that the reduction of the population can be facilitated by opening certain National Wildlife Refuges in the State to to the public hunting of deer.

Section 29.573a is revised to read:

§ 29.573a Lower Souris National Wildlife Refuge, North Dakota; hunting. Deer, coyote, and fox may be taken with firearms and with bow and arrow during the State open season prescribed by the Game and Fish Department of the State of North Dakota for the hunting of deer during the calendar year 1948 on certain lands, hereinafter specified, of the United States within the Lower Souris National Wildlife Refuge, North Dakota.

(a) Area open to hunting. All the lands of the United States except the areas within one-half mile of occupied residences on the Lower Souris Refuge shall be open to hunting with firearms. All the lands of the United States south of the Upham-Willow City Road except the areas within one-half mile of occupied residences on the Refuge shall be open to bow and arrow hunting.

(b) Entry. Entry on and use of the Refuge are governed by Part 12 of this chapter and strict compliance therewith is required. Hunters must follow such routes of travel within the Refuge as are designated by posting.

(c) State laws. Strict compliance with all State laws and regulations is required, and any person who hunts on the Refuge must have in his possession and exhibit at the request of any authorized Federal or State officer a valid State hunting license and permit for the taking of deer if such is required by the State laws and regulations. The license and permit will serve as a Federal permit for entry on the Refuge for the purpose of hunting deer. (Sec. 10, 45 Stat. 1222; 16 U. S. C. 715i, Reorg. Plan No. II of 1939, 3 C. F. R. Cum. PART 29—PLAINS REGION NATIONAL WILDLIFE REFUGES

HUNTING IN SAND LAKE NATIONAL WILDLIFE REFUGE, SOUTH DAKOTA

Basis and purpose. On the basis of observations and reports of field representatives of the Fish and Wildlife Service and of Conservation Agents of the South Dakota Game, Fish, and Parks Department, it has been determined that there is a surplus of deer on and in the immediate vicinity of the Sand Lake National Wildlife Refuge, the removal of which can best be accomplished by public hunting.

Section 29.800a is amended to read:

§ 29.800a Sand Lake National Wildlife Refuge, South Dakota; hunting. Deer, coyote, and fox may be taken during the State open season prescribed by the South Dakota Game, Fish, and Parks Department for the hunting of deer during the calendar year 1948 on certain lands, hereinafter specified, of the United States within the Sand Lake National Wildlife Refuge, South Dakota.

(a) Area open to hunting. All the lands of the United States except the areas within one-half mile of the occupied residences on the Sand Lake Refuge shall be open to such hunting.

(b) Entry. Entry on and use of the Refuge are governed by Part 12 of this chapter, and strict compliance therewith is required. Hunters must follow such routes of travel within the Refuge as are designated by posting.

(c) State laws. Strict compliance with all State laws and regulations is required, and any person who hunts on the Refuge must have in his possession and exhibit at the request of any authorized Federal or State officer a valid State hunting license and permit for the taking of deer if such is required by the State laws and regulations. The license and permit will serve as a Federal permit for entry on the Refuge for the purpose of hunting deer. (Sec. 10, 45 Stat. 1222; 16 U. S. C. 715i; Reorg. Plan No. II of 1939, 3 CFR Cum. PART 29—PLAINS REGION NATIONAL WILDLIFE REFUGES

HUNTING IN SLADE NATIONAL WILDLIFE REFUGE, NORTH DAKOTA

Basis and purpose. On the basis of observations and reports of field representatives of the Fish and Wildlife Service and of Conservation Agents of the North Dakota Game and Fish Department, it has been determined there is a general surplus of deer in much of North Dakota and that the reduction of the population can be facilitated by opening certain National Wildlife Refuges in the State to the public hunting of deer.

A new section is added as follows:

§ 29.846 Slade National Wildlife Refuge, North Dakota; hunting. Deer, coyote, and fox may be taken during the State open season prescribed by the Game and Fish Department of the State of North Dakota for the hunting of deer during the calendar year 1948 on certain lands, hereinafter specified, of the United States within the Slade National Wildlife Refuge, North Dakota.

(a) Area open to hunting. All the lands of the United States except the areas within one-half mile of the occupied residences on the Slade Refuge shall be open to such hunting.

(b) Entry. Entry on and use of the Refuge are governed by Part 12 of this chapter, and strict compliance therewith is required. Hunters must follow such routes of travel within the Refuge as are designated by posting.

(c) State laws. Strict compliance with all State laws and regulations is required, and any person who hunts on the Refuge must have in his possession and exhibit at the request of any authorized Federal or State officer a valid State hunting license and permit for the taking of deer if such is required by the State laws and regulations. The license and permit will serve as a Federal permit for entry on the Refuge for the purpose of hunting deer. (Sec. 10, 45 Stat. 1222; 16 U. S. C. 715i; Reorg. Plan No. II of 1939, 3 CFR Cum. Consignments of 1 head and 1 head only	.50
Consignments of more than 1 head:
First 40 head in each consignment	.32
Each head over 40 in each consignment	.27
Sheep:
Consignments of 1 head and 1 head only	.40
Consignments of more than 1 head:
First 10 head in each 300	.30
Next 50 head in each 300	.17
Next 60 head in each 300	.12
Next 130 head in each 300	.06
Next 50 head in each 300	.05

ARTICLE III

EXTRA SERVICE CHARGES

The following extra service charges are applicable:

On all account sales and/or account purchases where more than three (3) drafts are necessary or requested, a charge of 25¢ per draft in excess of three (3) shall be made: $0.25.

For each additional check, each additional account sale, each proceeds deposit, or bank credit over one (1) per owner: $0.05.

ARTICLE IV

(a) Breeding animals, other than those commonly known as stockers: 5% of each gross sale price, not to exceed $5.00 per head:

(b) At exhibitions: Food animals, stockers, feeders, other than sorts on open market per head:

Cattle and/or calves	$1.00
Swine: Hogs-pigs	.60
Sheep and/or goats	.40

ARTICLE V

For clearing out of stockyards livestock not consigned to or sold by clearing agency to party for whom cleared, one-third the charge as if purchased.

For the resale of any livestock purchased on the market and remaining in the stockyards, rates provided in Article II, will be assessed.

On livestock sold or purchased in the country to be weighed on the Fort Worth Stock Yards through market agency, the same commission charges will apply as though sold or purchased by the market agency on the Fort Worth Stock Yards.

AUTHORIZED COLLECTIONS

Brand inspection (as per tariffs on file)

FIRE INSURANCE

There will be collected on all livestock on the Fort Worth Market, the following charges to cover Fire Insurance, unless otherwise directed by shipper or owner:

Carload receipts by rail: $0.10.

On less than carloads received by rail, drive-in or truck-in rates apply:

Driven-In or Trucked-In

	Per head
Cattle	1/2¢
Calves and hogs	1/5¢
Sheep and goats	1/6¢

The charge on any trucked-in or driven-in shipment shall not exceed 10¢ up to:

30 head of cattle one ownership.
75 head of calves and hogs one ownership.
300 head of sheep or goats one ownership.
Minimum charge one consignment, one cent.

LIVESTOCK TRAFFIC ASSOCIATION

For the purpose of providing funds with which to carry on the work of the Livestock Traffic Association in matters dealing with the railroad and motor truck rates before the Railroad Commission of Texas and Interstate Commerce Commission, the subscribing market agency will collect and pay to the Livestock Traffic Association, the following amounts on all livestock sold at the Fort Worth market:

Cattle (per head)	1¢
Calves, hogs, sheep, goats (per head)	1/2¢
Maximum charge on any one consignment	$1.00
Minimum charge on any one consignment	.01

Provided, That if any shipper objects to the foregoing deductions the charge will be refunded.

NATIONAL LIVESTOCK & MEAT BOARD

For the purpose of providing funds with which to carry on the work of the National Livestock & Meat Board, the market agencies may collect and pay to the National Livestock & Meat Board the following amounts on livestock sold on the Fort Worth market. This deduction is not made at the direction of the Government, and the reasonableness of the amount of the deduction has not been determined by the Government.

	Per head
Cattle	1¢
Calves	1/5¢
Hogs	1/5¢
Sheep	1/6¢

Provided, That if any shipper objects to the foregoing deductions, the charges will be refunded.

The rates petitioned for, if authorized, will provide additional revenue for the respondents so that it appears that public notice of the filing of the petition should be given in order that all interested persons may have an opportunity to be heard in the matter.

Now, therefore, notice is hereby given to the public and to all interested persons of the filing of the petition for increases in the temporary rates currently in effect.

All interested persons who desire to be heard in the matter shall notify the Hearing Clerk, United States Department of Agriculture, Washington 25, D. C., within 15 days from the date of publication of this notice.

Done at Washington, D. C., this 8th day of November 1948.

[7 CFR, Part 162]

ENFORCEMENT OF FEDERAL INSECTICIDE, FUNGICIDE, AND RODENTICIDE ACT SO AS TO EXEMPT SODIUM FLUORIDE UNDER CERTAIN CONDITIONS FROM COLORATION PROVISIONS OF SAID ACT

NOTICE OF INTENTION TO AMEND REGULATIONS

Notice is hereby given in accordance with section 4 (a) of the Administrative Procedure Act (5 U. S. C. 1003 (a)) as follows:

Representation has been made to the United States Department of Agriculture that sodium fluoride colored as required by section 3 (a) (4) of the Federal Insecticide, Fungicide, and Rodenticide Act (7 U. S. C. 1946 ed. Supp. I 135a (a) (4)) and § 162.12 (c) of the regulations issued under said act (7 CFR 1947 Supp. 162.12 (c)) when used as a fungicide in the manufacture or processing of rubber, glue, and leather goods, imparts undesirable color characteristics to the finished goods, and that coloration of sodium fluoride for such uses is impracticable, serves no useful purpose, and is not necessary for the protection of the public health.

The Secretary of Agriculture pursuant to section 3 (a) (4) of the Federal Insecticide, Fungicide, and Rodenticide Act is therefore considering exempting sodium fluoride from the coloration requirements of said section and § 162.12 (c) of the regulations issued under said act, under certain conditions when it is intended exclusively for such specified uses. It is proposed for this purpose to amend § 162.18 of said regulations (7 CFR 1947 Supp. 162.18) by designating as paragraph (a) of said section the provisions now appearing after the heading "Exemptions" in said section and by adding to said section the following as paragraph (b):

(b) The economic poison sodium fluoride shall be exempt from the coloration requirements of section 3 (a) (4) of the act and § 162.12 (c) when (1) it is intended for use as a fungicide solely in the manufacture or processing of rubber, glue, or leather goods; (2) coloration of said economic poison in accordance with said requirements will be likely to impart objectionable color characteristics to the finished goods; (3) said economic poison will not be present in such finished goods in sufficient quantities to cause injury to any person; and (4) said economic poison will not come into the hands of the public except after incorporation into such finished goods.

Any person who wishes to file written data, views, or arguments on the foregoing proposed amendment may do so by filing them with the Chief of the Insecticide Division, Production and Marketing Administration, U. S. Department of Agriculture, Washington 25, D. C., within 15 days after publication of this notice in the FEDERAL REGISTER.

Done at Washington, D. C., this 8th day of November 1948.

Director, Livestock Branch, Production and Marketing Administration.

HANDLING OF MILK IN ST. LOUIS, MO., MARKETING AREA

DECISION WITH RESPECT TO PROPOSED MARKETING AGREEMENT AND PROPOSED AMENDMENT TO ORDER, AS AMENDED

Pursuant to Public Act No. 10, 73d Congress (May 12, 1933) as amended and as reenacted and amended by the Agricultural Marketing Agreement Act of 1937, as amended (hereinafter referred to as the "act"), and the rules of practice and procedure, as amended, governing proceedings to formulate marketing agreements and orders (7 CFR, Supps., 900.1 et seq.), a public hearing was held at St. Louis, Missouri, on July 7–9, 1948, all dates inclusive, pursuant to a notice issued on June 18, 1948 (13 F. R. 3299, 3485), upon a proposed amendment to the tentative marketing agreement and to the order, as amended, regulating the handling of milk in the St. Louis, Missouri, marketing area.

Upon the basis of the evidence introduced at the hearing and the record thereof, the Assistant Administrator, Production and Marketing Administration, on September 9, 1948, filed with the Hearing Clerk, United States Department of Agriculture, his recommended decision in this proceeding. The notice of the filing of such recommended decision and opportunity to file written exceptions thereto was published in the FEDERAL REGISTER on September 14, 1948 (13 F. R. 5337).

The material issue presented on the record of the hearing was whether the Class I price differential over the basic formula price should be revised immediately.

Rulings on exceptions. Exceptions to the recommended decision were filed on behalf of Sanitary Milk Producers.

In arriving at the findings and conclusions decided upon in this decision each of the exceptions was carefully and fully considered in conjunction with the record evidence pertaining thereto. To the extent that the findings and conclusions decided upon herein are at variance with the exceptions pertaining thereto such exceptions are overruled.

Findings and conclusions. The pricing provisions of the order, as amended, should be immediately revised to provide for an increase in the Class I price differential of $0.46 per hundredweight for the period from the effective date hereof to and including December 1948 and $0.23 per hundredweight for the period of January through March 1949.

Milk supplied by producers has been insufficient to meet the needs of the market. During all 12 months of each year since 1940, handlers have purchased milk, skim milk, or cream from sources outside the regular St. Louis supply area. While the consumption of fluid milk in the St. Louis market is somewhat less than a year ago, production of producer milk has declined more rapidly than consumption, thus necessitating greater imports than during corresponding periods of the previous year. During the first five months of 1948 St. Louis handlers imported 16,133,948 pounds of approved milk, skim milk, and cream from sources outside the regular St. Louis supply area; whereas, during the corresponding period in 1947 such imports amounted to only 8,612,179 pounds.

The number of producers supplying the St. Louis market has declined from year to year. The average number of producers was 4,115 in 1940; 3,571 in 1945; 3,411 in 1946; and 3,323 in 1947. During the first 6 months of 1948 the number of producers has varied each month from 39 to 89 fewer producers than for the corresponding month of 1947. In addition, the production per farm for each month since July 1947 has shown a decrease as compared with the same month of the previous year.

There are markets with less rigid health requirements purchasing milk from the same supply area as the St. Louis market and paying prices comparable to prices obtained in the St. Louis market. Many producers leaving the St. Louis market have shifted to these markets.

Handlers contended that the basic formula price used in the determination of the Class I price had risen substantially during the past year. While this was true at the time of the hearing it must be recognized that the differential must be maintained at such level that farmers in the supply area will be encouraged to deliver their milk to the St. Louis market rather than manufacturing outlets. The fact that the quantity of producer milk delivered to St. Louis handlers has been insufficient to meet minimum needs for graded milk, and the number of producers and receipts per farm are continuing to decline indicates that the differential has not been sufficiently high. Unless an adequate differential over the basic formula price is maintained the supply of producer milk in the St. Louis market will be further impaired.

In the recommended decision issued by the Assistant Administrator, it was concluded that the producer proposal to effect an immediate amendment to the order, as amended, to provide for an increase of $0.46 in the Class I price differential for the delivery periods of July through December and $0.23 for the delivery periods of January through March,, if during the 12 months immediately preceding the delivery period the total volume of milk delivered by all producers was less than 130 percent of the total Class I sales by all handlers, should not be adopted at this time.

Producers in support of their proposal had stated that producer receipts of 130 percent of Class I sales were necessary to supply market requirements of fluid milk, fluid cream, skim milk, buttermilk, flavored milk, and flavored milk drinks.

The recommended decision indicated that any change in the Class I price differential should be adopted only in conjunction with a review of the related classification provisions of the order. It was, therefore, concluded that no action on the proposal for a revision in the Class I price differential would be appropriate at that time.

Producers object to this decision and contend that the denial of the proposed price was contrary to the facts presented on the record in that it did not give due recognition to the emergency now existing in the St. Louis marketing area.

The decision of the Assistant Administrator to the effect that a change in the Class I price differential in the St. Louis market should be adopted only in conjunction with a review of the related classification provisions of the order is herein concurred with. However, this does not preclude price action on a temporary basis. Notice was taken in the recommended decision of a hearing which has since been held in St. Louis on September 20–29, 1948. Prior to action on that record, it is concluded that conditions set out in the record of the emergency hearing justify an increase of $0.46 per hundredweight from the effective date hereof to and including the month of December 1948 and $0.23 per hundredweight for the months of January through March 1949.

General findings. (a) The proposed marketing agreement and the order, as amended, and as hereby proposed to be further amended, and all of the terms and conditions thereof, will tend to effectuate the declared policy of the act;

(b) The prices calculated to give milk produced for sale in the said marketing area a purchasing power equivalent to the purchasing power of such milk as determined pursuant to sections 2 and 8e of the act are not reasonable in view of the price of feeds, available supplies of feeds, and other economic conditions which affect the market supply of and demand for such milk, and the minimum prices specified in the proposed marketing agreement and the order, as amended, and as hereby proposed to be further amended are such prices as will reflect the aforesaid factors, insure a sufficient quantity of pure and wholesome milk, and be in the public interest; and

(c) The proposed marketing agreement and the order, as amended, and as hereby proposed to be further amended, will regulate the handling of milk in the same manner as, and will be applicable only to persons in the respective classes of industrial and commercial activity, specified in the marketing agreement upon which a hearing has been held.

Marketing agreement and order. Annexed hereto and made a part hereof are two documents entitled, respectively, "Marketing Agreement Regulating the Handling of Milk in the St. Louis, Mo., Marketing Area," and "Order Amending the Order, as Amended, Regulating the Handling of Milk in the St. Louis, Mo., Marketing Area," which have been decided upon as the appropriate and detailed means of effectuating the foregoing conclusions. These documents shall not become effective unless and until the requirements of § 900.14 of the rules of practice and procedure, as amended, governing proceedings to formulate marketing agreements and orders have been met.

It is hereby ordered, That all of this decision, except the attached marketing agreement, be published in the FEDERAL REGISTER. The regulatory provisions of said marketing agreement are identical with those contained in the order, as amended, and in the attached order amending the order, as amended, which will be published with this decision.

This decision filed at Washington, D. C., this 9th day of November 1948.

[SEAL] CHARLES F. BRANNAN,
Secretary of Agriculture.

Order[1] Amending the Order, as Amended, Regulating the Handling of Milk in the St. Louis, Missouri, Marketing Area

§ 903.0 Findings and determinations. The findings and determinations hereinafter set forth are supplementary to and in addition to the findings and determinations made in connection with the issuance of this order and of each of the previously issued amendments thereto; and all of said previous findings and determinations are hereby ratified and affirmed, except insofar as such findings and determinations may be in conflict with the findings and determinations set forth herein.

(a) Findings upon the basis of the hearing record. Pursuant to Public Act No. 10, 73d Congress (May 12, 1933), as amended and as reenacted and amended by the Agricultural Marketing Agreement Act of 1937, as amended (hereinafter referred to as the "act"), and the rules of practice and procedure, as amended, governing the formulation of marketing agreements and orders (7 CFR, Supps., 900.1 et seq.), a public hearing was held on July 7-9, 1948, all dates inclusive, upon a proposed amendment to the tentative marketing agreement and to the order, as amended, regulating the handling of milk in the St. Louis, Missouri, marketing area. The recommended decision (13 F. R. 5337) was made by the Assistant Administrator of the Production and Marketing Administration on September 9, 1948. Upon the basis of the evidence introduced at such hearing and the record thereof, it is found that:

(1) The said order, as amended and as hereby further amended, and all of the terms and conditions thereof, will tend to effectuate the declared policy of the act;

[1] This order shall not become effective unless and until the requirements of § 900.14 of the rules of practice and procedure, as amended, governing proceedings to formulate marketing agreements and marketing orders have been met.

(2) The prices calculated to give milk produced for sale in said marketing area a purchasing power equivalent to the purchasing power of such milk as determined pursuant to sections 2 and 8e of the act are not reasonable in view of the price of feeds, available supplies of feeds, and other economic conditions which affect market supplies of and demand for such milk, and the minimum prices specified in the order, as amended and as hereby further amended, are such prices as will reflect the aforesaid factors, insure a sufficient quantity of pure and wholesome milk, and be in the public interest; and

(3) The said order, as amended and as hereby further amended, regulates the handling of milk in the same manner as, and is applicable only to persons in the respective classes of industrial and commercial activity, specified in a marketing agreement upon which a hearing has been held.

Order relative to handling. It is therefore ordered, that on and after the effective date hereof, the handling of milk in the St. Louis, Missouri, marketing area shall be in conformity to and in compliance with the terms and conditions of the aforesaid order, as amended and as hereby further amended; and the aforesaid order, as amended, is hereby further amended as follows:

Delete the period (.) at the end of § 903.4(a)(1) and add the following: ": Provided, That from the effective date hereof to and including December 1948 the price of Class I milk shall be the price computed under subparagraph (3) of this paragraph, plus $1.81 per hundredweight; and for the delivery periods of January through March 1949 the price of Class I milk shall be the price computed under subparagraph (3) of this paragraph, plus $1.33 per hundredweight."

[7 CFR, Part 973]

HANDLING OF MILK IN MINNEAPOLIS-ST. PAUL, MINN., MARKETING AREA

DECISION WITH RESPECT TO PROPOSED MARKETING AGREEMENT AND TO PROPOSED AMENDMENT TO ORDER

Pursuant to Public Act No. 10, 73d Congress (May 12, 1933), as amended and as reenacted and amended by the Agricultural Marketing Agreement Act of 1937, as amended (hereinafter referred to as the "act"), and the rules of practice and procedure, as amended, governing proceedings to formulate marketing agreements and orders (7 CFR, Supps., 900.1 et seq.), a public hearing was held at St. Paul, Minnesota, on May 10, 1948, and at Minneapolis, Minnesota, on May 11 and 12, 1948, after the issuance of notice on April 26, 1948 (13 F. R. 2316).

Upon the basis of the evidence introduced at the hearing and the record thereof, the Assistant Administrator, Production and Marketing Administration, on August 2, 1948, filed with the Hearing Clerk, United States Department of Agriculture, his recommended decision in this proceeding. The notice of filing of such recommended decision and opportunity to file written exceptions thereto was published in the FEDERAL REGISTER on August 6, 1948 (13 F. R. 4545). Exceptions were filed on behalf of (1) Aerated Products Company of Minnesota, (2) Dutch Mill Dairy, (3) Minneapolis Milk Dealers Association, St. Paul Milk Company, Sanitary Farm Dairies, and Minnesota Milk Company, (4) Oak Grove Dairy, and (5) Twin City Milk Producers Association. These exceptions have been considered and to the extent to which the findings and conclusions of this decision are at variance with the exceptions pertaining thereto to such exceptions are hereby overruled.

The material issues and the findings and conclusions of the recommended decision set forth in the FEDERAL REGISTER (F. R. Doc. 48-7097; 13 F. R. 4545) are hereby approved and adopted as the material issues and the findings and conclusions of this decision as if set forth in full herein subject to the following amendment:

Delete the finding and conclusion with respect to issue 3 and substitute therefor the following:

3. Revision of the classes of utilization should be made. Skim milk and butterfat disposed of for consumption in the form of buttermilk, eggnog, aerated cream, ready whipped cream and mixes for toppings and for other uses similar to those of whipped cream, should be included in Class I.

Skim milk and butterfat in cultured buttermilk remain classified in Class I. Natural buttermilk is in general used for the same purposes as cultured buttermilk. Its most common use is as a milk beverage. For this and other uses it is competitive with milk, skim milk and cultured buttermilk. The skim milk and butterfat in natural buttermilk should be included with that in milk, skim milk and cultured buttermilk in Class I.

Skim milk and butterfat in fluid cream are appropriately included in Class I.

One of the well known and long established uses for fluid cream of a relatively high butterfat content is in whipped cream. Fluid cream is also used in eggnog, aerated cream, ready whipped cream and in mixes for toppings and for other uses similar to those of whipped cream.

Drug stores, soda fountains, restaurants and similar establishments in supplying their need for cream toppings may purchase fluid cream and whip it or they may purchase one or more of these products already prepared.

A market has been developed for these products reaching the user in a form which eliminates the necessity for whipping manually. The record indicates the replacement of whipping cream to some extent by these products.

Exceptions alleged that the use of these products has in fact increased the sale and consumption of cream. Such an increase, if established, would not warrant a different classification for butterfat and skim milk contained in such products than for butterfat and skim milk in fluid cream used for similar purposes.

The classification of shrinkage of skim milk and butterfat should be revised.

Under the present order no shrinkage is allowed on the skim milk and butterfat in other source milk. Shrinkage not in excess of 1 percent of the total receipts of skim milk and butterfat, respectively, from producers is classified as Class II milk and shrinkage in excess of these respective amounts is classified as Class I milk.

Total shrinkage of skim milk and butterfat, respectively, should be prorated between receipts of skim milk and butterfat directly from producers' farms and from non pool plants. With respect to shrinkage allocated to skim milk and butterfat received directly from producers' farms, that not in excess of 1 percent of receipts should be prorated over the Class I and Class II use of skim milk and butterfat received directly from producers' farms and that in excess of 1 percent of receipts should continue to be classified as Class I milk. Skim milk and butterfat received from non pool plants are first eliminated from Class II milk. Thus shrinkage allocated to such skim milk and butterfat should be classified as Class II milk.

There are at times surpluses of skim milk too small for economical manufacture. To prevent waste such skim milk is at times used for animal feed and when so used should be classified as Class II milk.

Marketing agreement and order. Annexed hereto and made a part hereof are two documents entitled, respectively, "Marketing Agreement Regulating the Handling of Milk in the Minneapolis-St. Paul, Minnesota, Marketing Area" and "Order Amending the Order Regulating the Handling of Milk in the Minneapolis-St. Paul, Minnesota, Marketing Area," which have been decided upon as the appropriate and detailed means of effectuating the foregoing conclusions. These documents shall not become effective unless and until the requirements of § 900.14 of the rules of practice and procedure, as amended, governing proceedings to formulate marketing agreements and orders have been met.

It is hereby ordered, That all of this decision, except the attached marketing agreement, be published in the FEDERAL REGISTER. The regulatory provisions of said marketing agreement are identical with those contained in the order as hereby amended by the attached order, which will be published with this decision.

This decision filed at Washington, D. C., this 9th day of November 1948.

[SEAL] CHARLES F. BRANNAN,
Secretary of Agriculture.

Order[1] Amending the Order Regulating the Handling of Milk in the Minneapolis-St. Paul, Minn., Marketing Area

§ 973.0 Findings and determinations. The findings and determinations hereinafter set forth are supplementary to and in addition to the findings and determinations made in connection with the issuance of this order; and all of said previous findings and determinations are hereby ratified and affirmed, except insofar as such findings and determinations may be in conflict with the findings and determinations set forth herein.

(a) Findings upon the basis of the hearing record. Pursuant to Public Act No. 10, 73d Congress (May 12, 1933), as amended and as reenacted and amended by the Agricultural Marketing Agreement Act of 1937, as amended (hereinafter referred to as the "act"), and the rules of practice and procedure governing the formulation of marketing agreements and orders (7 CFR, Supps., 900.1 et seq.), a public hearing was held at St. Paul, Minnesota, on May 10, 1948, and at Minneapolis, Minnesota, on May 11 and 12, 1948, upon a proposed amendment to the marketing agreement and to the order regulating the handling of milk in the Minneapolis-St. Paul, Minnesota, marketing area. Upon the basis of the evidence introduced at such hearing and the record thereof, it is found that:

(1) The said order, as hereby amended, and all of the terms and conditions of said order, as hereby amended, will tend to effectuate the declared policy of the act.

(2) The prices calculated to give milk produced for sale in said marketing area a purchasing power equivalent to the purchasing power of such milk as determined pursuant to sections 2 and 8e of the act are not reasonable in view of the price of feeds, available supplies of feeds, and other economic conditions which affect market supply of and demand for such milk and the minimum prices specified in the order, as hereby amended, are such prices as will reflect the aforesaid factors, insure a sufficient quantity of pure and wholesome milk and be in the public interest; and

(3) The said order, as hereby amended, regulates the handling of milk in the same manner as and is applicable only to persons in the respective classes of industrial and commercial activity specified in a marketing agreement upon which a hearing has been held.

Order relative to handling. It is therefore ordered that on and after the effective date hereof, the handling of milk in the Minneapolis-St. Paul, Minnesota, marketing area shall be in conformity to and in compliance with the terms and conditions of the aforesaid order, as hereby amended; and the aforesaid order is hereby amended to read as follows:

§ 973.1 Definitions. The following terms shall have the following meaning:

(a) "Act" means Public Act No. 10, 73d Congress, as amended, and as reenacted and amended by the Agricultural Marketing Agreement Act of 1937, as amended.

(b) "Secretary" means the Secretary of Agriculture or any officer or employee of the United States who is authorized to exercise the powers and to perform the duties of the Secretary of Agriculture.

(c) "Department of Agriculture" means the United States Department of

[1] This order shall not become effective unless and until the requirements of § 900.14 of the rules of practice and procedure governing proceedings to formulate marketing agreements and orders have been met.

Agriculture or such other Federal agency as may be authorized to perform the price reporting functions of the United States Department of Agriculture.

(d) "Minneapolis-St. Paul, Minnesota, marketing area" hereinafter called the "marketing area" means the territory within the corporate limits of the cities of Minneapolis, Robbinsdale, and Wayzata in Hennepin County; Columbia Heights in Anoka County; St. Paul and White Bear in Ramsey County; West St. Paul and South St. Paul in Dakota County; together with the following townships and all villages therein: Brooklyn, Crystal, St. Anthony, Golden Valley, St. Louis Park, Orono, Excelsior, Minnetonka, Edina, Bloomington, and Richfield in Hennepin County; Fridley in Anoka County; Mounds View, Rose, White Bear, and New Canada in Ramsey County; Grant, Oakdale, Woodbury, Cottage Grove, and Newport in Washington County; and Mendota, West St. Paul, and Inver Grove in Dakota County; all in the State of Minnesota.

(e) "Pool plant" means any milk processing plant during any delivery period within which skim milk or butterfat (1) is disposed of as Class I milk from such plant on wholesale or retail routes (including plant stores) within the marketing area, (2) is transferred as Class I milk from such plant to a plant described in subparagraph (1) of this paragraph unless such transfer is made only during the months of August to November, inclusive, or (3) is transferred as Class I milk from such plant to a plant described in subparagraph (2) of this paragraph unless such transfer is made only during the months of August to November, inclusive. Any such plant shall continue to be a "pool plant" during any delivery period in which skim milk or butterfat is transferred as Class I milk from such plant to another pool plant until August 1 of the year following that in which such transfer was last made.

(f) "Non pool plant" means any milk processing plant during any delivery period when such plant does not meet the requirements set forth in paragraph (e) of this section. Any such plant shall become a "pool plant" during any delivery period within which it meets the requirements set forth in paragraph (e) of this section.

(g) "Person" means any individual, partnership, corporation, association or any other business unit.

(h) "Producer" means any person, irrespective of whether such person is also a handler, who produces milk which is received directly from such person's farm at a pool plant.

(i) "Handler" means any person, irrespective of whether such person is also a producer, in his capacity as the operator of a pool plant.

(j) "Producer-handler" means any person who is both a producer and a handler and who receives no milk directly from the farms of other producers: Provided, That the maintenance, care, and management of the dairy animals and other resources necessary to produce the milk, and the processing, packaging, and distribution of the milk are the personal enterprise and the personal risk of such person.

(k) "Cooperative association" means any cooperative marketing association of producers which the Secretary determines to be qualified pursuant to the provisions of the act of Congress of February 18, 1922, as amended, known as the "Capper-Volstead Act," and to be engaged in making collective sales or marketing of milk or its products for the producers thereof.

(l) "Market administrator" means the person designated pursuant to § 973.2 as the agency for the administration hereof.

(m) "Delivery period" means a calendar month or the portion thereof during which this order is in effect.

§ 973.2 Market administrator—(a) Designation. The agency for the administration hereof shall be a market administrator who shall be a person selected by the Secretary. Such person shall be entitled to such compensation as may be determined by, and shall be subject to removal at the discretion of, the Secretary.

(b) Powers. The market administrator shall:

(1) Administer the terms and provisions hereof;

(2) Receive, investigate, and report to the Secretary complaints of violations of the terms and provisions hereof;

(3) Recommend to the Secretary amendments hereto;

(4) Make rules and regulations to effectuate the terms and provisions hereof.

(c) Duties. The market administrator shall perform all duties necessary to administer the terms and provisions hereof, including but not limited to, the following:

(1) Within 45 days following the date upon which he enters upon his duties, execute and deliver to the Secretary, a bond conditioned upon the faithful performance of his duties, in an amount and with surety thereon satisfactory to the Secretary;

(2) Pay, out of the funds provided by § 973.9, the cost of his bond, his own compensation, and all other expenses necessarily incurred in the maintenance and functioning of his office, except as provided by § 973.10;

(3) Keep such books and records as will clearly reflect the transactions provided for herein and surrender the same to his successor or to such other person as the Secretary may designate;

(4) Unless otherwise directed by the Secretary publicly disclose within 30 days after such nonperformance becomes known to the market administrator, the name of any person who, within 20 days after the date on which he is required to perform such acts, has not (i) made reports pursuant to § 973.3 or (ii) made payments pursuant to § 973.8; and may at any time thereafter so disclose any such name if authorized by the Secretary;

(5) Verify each handler's records and payments by inspection of such handler's records and the records of any other person upon whose utilization the classification of skim milk or butterfat for such handler depends; and

(6) Prepare and disseminate to the public such statistics and information concerning the operations hereunder as he deems advisable and as do not reveal confidential information.

§ 973.3 Reports, records, and facilities—(a) Delivery period reports of receipts and utilization. On or before the 8th day of each delivery period, each handler, except a producer-handler, shall report to the market administrator with respect to all skim milk and butterfat, except that in nonfluid milk products disposed of in the form in which received without further processing or packaging, received by him at each pool plant during the preceding delivery period in the detail and on forms prescribed by the market administrator:

(1) The quantities of skim milk and the quantities of butterfat contained in (or used in the production of) receipts from producers (including his own production), producer-handlers, pool plants and nonpool plants and the sources thereof;

(2) The utilization of all skim milk or butterfat disposed of;

(3) The quantities of skim milk and butterfat on hand at the beginning and end of each delivery period; and

(4) Such other information with respect to all such receipts and utilization as the market administrator may prescribe.

(b) Reports of producer-handlers. Each producer-handler shall report to the market administrator at such time and in such manner as the market administrator may prescribe.

(c) Reports as to producers. Each handler, upon the request of the market administrator, shall, on or before the 25th day of each delivery period submit to the market administrator such handler's producer pay roll for the preceding delivery period which shall show for each producer (1) the total pounds of milk delivered with the average butterfat test thereof, and (2) the net amount of such handler's payments to such producer or to a cooperative association together with the prices, deductions, and charges involved.

(d) Records and facilities. Each handler shall permit the market administrator to make such examinations of his operations, equipment, and facilities as the market administrator deems necessary and he shall maintain and make available to the market administrator during the usual hours of business, such accounts and records of his operations and such facilities as the market administrator deems necessary to verify or to establish the correct data with respect to (1) the receipts and utilization in whatever form of all skim milk and butterfat received, including nonfluid milk products disposed of in the form in which received without further processing or packaging; (2) the weights and tests for butterfat and for other content of all skim milk or butterfat handled, (3) payments to producers and cooperative associations, and (4) the pounds of skim milk and butterfat contained in or represented by all milk, skim milk, cream, and each milk product on hand at the beginning and at the end of each delivery period.

§ 973.4 Classification—(a) Skim milk and butterfat to be classified. All skim milk and butterfat, except that in nonfluid milk products disposed of in the form in which received without further processing or packaging, received by a handler during each delivery period shall be classified by the market administrator pursuant to the following provisions of this section.

(b) Classes of utilization. Subject to the conditions set forth in paragraphs (d) and (e) of this section, the classes of utilization shall be as follows:

(1) Class I milk shall be all skim milk and butterfat disposed of for consumption in the form of milk, skim milk, buttermilk, flavored milk, flavored milk drinks, cream (sweet or sour including a mixture of cream and milk or skim milk containing less butterfat than the legal standard for cream), eggnog, aerated cream, ready whipped cream, and mixes for toppings and uses similar to those of whipped cream, all skim milk and butterfat not specifically accounted for pursuant to subparagraph (2) of this paragraph and all shrinkage allocated to Class I milk pursuant to paragraph (c) (3) and (4) of this section.

(2) Class II milk shall be all skim milk disposed of as animal feed and all skim milk and butterfat: (i) Used to produce a milk product other than those specified in subparagraph (1) of this paragraph, (ii) in shrinkage of receipts from nonpool plants, and (iii) in shrinkage of receipts directly from producers' farms which has been allocated to Class II pursuant to paragraph (c) (3) of this section.

(c) Shrinkage. The market administrator shall allocate shrinkage over each handler's receipts as follows:

(1) Compute separately the total shrinkage of skim milk and butterfat.

(2) Prorate the resulting amounts respectively, between the receipts of skim milk and butterfat directly from producers' farms and from nonpool plants.

(3) Prorate the shrinkage of skim milk and butterfat, respectively, allocated to skim milk and butterfat received directly from producers' farms, up to 1 percent of such receipts, over the handler's Class I and Class II utilization of skim milk and butterfat received directly from producers' farms.

(4) Add to the handler's Class I utilization of skim milk and butterfat, respectively, any shrinkage allocated to skim milk and butterfat received directly from producers' farms in excess of 1 percent of such receipts.

(d) Responsibility of handlers and reclassification of milk. (1) All skim milk and butterfat purchased or received by a handler shall be Class I milk unless the handler who first received such skim milk and butterfat proves to the market administrator that it should be classified otherwise.

(2) Any skim milk and butterfat shall be reclassified if verification by the market administrator discloses that the original classification was incorrect.

(e) Transfers. Skim milk or butterfat disposed of by a handler by transfer shall be classified:

(1) As Class I milk if transferred in the form of milk, skim milk, or cream to another handler (other than a producer-handler), unless utilization in Class II is mutually indicated in writing to the market administrator by both handlers on or before the 8th day after the end of the delivery period within which such transfer occurred, but in no event shall the amount classified in either class exceed the total use in such class by the transferee handler: Provided, That, if either or both handlers have received skim milk or butterfat from a nonpool plant, the skim milk or butterfat transferred from a pool plant shall be classified at both plants so as to return the highest class utilization to milk of producers.

(2) As Class I milk if transferred in the form of milk, skim milk, or cream to a producer-handler.

(3) As Class I milk if transferred in the form of milk, skim milk, or cream to a nonpool plant located less than 100 miles from the marketing area unless (i) the handler claims other classification on the basis of utilization mutually indicated in writing to the market administrator by both the handler and the person who received such milk, on or before the 8th day after the end of the delivery period within which such transfer occurred, (ii) the nonpool plant maintains records showing the receipt and utilization of all skim milk and butterfat at such plant which are made available to the market administrator for the purpose of verification, and (iii) such nonpool plant had actually used not less than an equivalent amount of skim milk and butterfat in the use indicated in such statement: Provided, That if verification of such records discloses that an equivalent amount of skim milk and butterfat had not been used in such indicated utilization, the remaining pounds shall be classified in the remaining class.

(4) As Class I milk if transferred in the form of milk or skim milk and as Class II milk if transferred in the form of cream to a non pool plant located more than 100 miles from the marketing area.

(f) Computation of milk in each class. For each delivery period the market administrator shall correct mathematical and other obvious errors in the delivery period report submitted by each handler and shall compute the total pounds of skim milk and butterfat, respectively, in Class I milk and Class II milk for each handler.

(g) Allocation of skim milk and butterfat classified. After computing the classification of all skim milk and butterfat received by a handler, the market administrator shall determine the classification of milk received from producers as follows:

(1) Skim milk shall be allocated in the following manner:

(i) Subtract from the total pounds of skim milk in Class II the pounds of skim milk shrinkage allocated to Class II pursuant to paragraph (c) (3) of this section.

(ii) Subtract from the remaining pounds of skim milk in Class II the pounds of skim milk received from non pool plants: Provided, That if the receipts from non pool plants are greater than the pounds of skim milk remaining in Class II an amount equal to the difference shall be subtracted from the pounds of skim milk in Class I.

(iii) Subtract from the remaining pounds of skim milk in each class, respectively, the pounds of skim milk received from other pool plants in accordance with its classification as determined pursuant to paragraph (e) (1) of this section.

(iv) Add to the remaining pounds of skim milk in Class II the amount subtracted pursuant to subdivision (i) of this subparagraph.

(v) If the total pounds of skim milk remaining in both classes exceed the pounds of skim milk received from producers, an amount equal to the difference shall be subtracted from Class II: Provided, That if the remaining pounds of skim milk in Class II are less than the amount to be subtracted, an amount equal to the difference shall be subtracted from Class I.

(2) Butterfat shall be allocated in accordance with the same procedure outlined for skim milk in subparagraph (1) of this paragraph.

(3) Determine, respectively, the weighted average butterfat content of the milk received from producers and allocated to Class I milk and Class II milk pursuant to subparagraphs (1) and (2) of this paragraph.

§ 973.5 Minimum prices—(a) Class prices. Each handler shall, subject to the provisions of paragraphs (c) and (d) of this section, pay at the time and in the manner set forth in § 973.8 not less than the prices set forth in this paragraph per hundredweight of milk received during each delivery period at such handler's plant.

(1) For Class I milk. The price shall be the basic price determined pursuant to paragraph (b) of this section plus 50 cents during the delivery periods of January to June, inclusive; plus 70 cents during the delivery periods of July and December; and plus $1.00 during the delivery periods of August to November, inclusive.

(2) For Class II milk. The price shall be that determined by the market administrator as follows: (i) Multiply by 3.5 the average wholesale price per pound of 93-score butter at New York as reported by the Department of Agriculture for the delivery period in which such milk was received and add 20 percent thereof; (ii) multiply by 7.7 the average price of spray and roller process non fat dry milk solids for human consumption, in carlots f. o. b. manufacturing plants as reported for the Chicago area by the Department of Agriculture for the delivery period during which the milk was received; (iii) add into one sum the amounts obtained in subdivisions (i) and (ii) of this subparagraph; and (iv) subtract 42 cents therefrom.

(b) Basic prices. The basic price to be used in determining the price per hundredweight of Class I milk shall be the price for Class II milk computed pursuant to paragraph (a) (2) of this section or that derived from either of the formulas set forth in subparagraphs (1) and (2) of this paragraph, whichever is the highest.

(1) The average of the basic or field prices ascertained to have been paid for milk of 3.5 percent butterfat content received during the delivery period at the following plants or places for which prices are reported to the market administrator by the listed companies or by the Department of Agriculture:

Pet Milk Co., Belleville, Wis.
Borden Co., New London, Wis.
White House Milk Co., Manitowoc, Wis.
White House Milk Co., West Bend, Wis.

(2) (i) Multiply the average wholesale price per pound of 93-score butter at New York for said delivery period as reported by the Department of Agriculture by six (6); (ii) add 2.4 times the weekly prevailing price of "Twins" during said delivery period on the Wisconsin Cheese Exchange at Plymouth, Wisconsin, as reported by the Department of Agriculture: Provided, That if the price of "Twins" is not quoted on the Wisconsin Cheese Exchange, the weekly prevailing price of "Cheddars" shall be deemed to be the prevailing price for "Twins" and shall be used in determining the price pursuant to this subparagraph; (iii) divide the resulting sum by seven (7); (iv) add 30 percent thereof; and (v) multiply the resulting sum by 3.5.

(c) Location differential to handlers. With respect to milk purchased or received at a pool plant located more than 15 miles from the Minnesota Transfer Viaduct over University Avenue in St. Paul and which is classified as Class I milk, the price per hundredweight computed pursuant to paragraph (a) (1) of this section shall be reduced one cent for each full mile that such plant is more than 15 miles distant from such Viaduct. Such deduction shall be based on the shortest highway distance from such pool plant as determined by the market administrator.

For purposes of this paragraph the milk which is classified as Class I milk during each delivery period shall be considered to have been first that which was received from producers at such handler's pool plants located within the marketing area, and then that milk which was received from producers at such handler's other pool plants located nearest to the marketing area.

(d) Butterfat differentials to handlers. (1) If the average butterfat content of the milk disposed of by any handler as Class I milk is more or less than 3.5 percent, there shall be added to the Class I price per hundredweight computed pursuant to paragraph (a) (1) of this section for each one-tenth of 1 percent that the average butterfat content of such Class I milk is above 3.5 percent or shall be subtracted for each one-tenth of 1 percent that the average butterfat content of such Class I milk is below 3.5 percent an amount computed by the market administrator as follows: To the average wholesale price per pound of 93-score butter at New York as reported by the Department of Agriculture for the delivery period add 25 percent and divide the sum obtained by 10.

(2) If the average butterfat content of the milk disposed of by any handler as Class II milk is more or less than 3.5 percent, there shall be added to the Class II price per hundredweight computed pursuant to paragraph (a) (2) of this section for each one-tenth of 1 percent that the average butterfat content of such Class II milk is above 3.5 percent or shall be subtracted for each one-tenth of 1 percent that the average butterfat content of such Class II milk is below 3.5 percent an amount computed by the market administrator as follows: To the average wholesale price per pound of 93-score butter at New York as reported by the Department of Agriculture for the delivery period add 20 percent and divide the sum obtained by 10.

(e) Emergency price provision. Whenever the provisions hereof require the market administrator to use a specific price (or prices) for milk or for any milk product for the purpose of determining class prices or for any other purpose, the market administrator shall add to the specified price the amount of any subsidy or other similar payment being made by any Federal agency in connection with the milk or product associated with the price specified: Provided, That if for any reason the price specified is not reported or published as indicated the market administrator shall use the applicable maximum uniform price established by regulations of any Federal agency plus the amount of any such subsidy or other similar payment: And provided further, That if the specified price is not reported or published and there is no applicable maximum uniform price, or if the specified price is not reported or published and the Secretary determines that the market price is below the applicable maximum uniform price, the market administrator shall use a price determined by the Secretary to be equivalent to or comparable with the price specified.

§ 973.6 Application of provisions—(a) Application to producer-handlers. Sections 973.4, 973.5, 973.7, 973.8, 973.9 and 973.10 shall not apply to the handling of milk by producer-handlers.

(b) Producer-handlers. Handlers shall furnish to the market administrator for his verification, subject to review by the Secretary, evidence of their qualifications as producer-handlers pursuant to § 973.1 (j), as of the effective date hereof, and they shall furnish evidence of subsequent changes made in the manner of producing or distributing milk that affect their qualifications as producer-handlers; such verification by the market administrator shall be made within 15 days of the receipt of the evidence and shall be retroactive to the effective date hereof in cases verified within 45 days of such effective date and shall be effective retroactively to the first day of the delivery period during which verification is made in subsequent cases.

(c) Sales of milk by a producer-handler. A producer-handler who sells or disposes of skim milk or butterfat other than in packaged form to another handler or producer-handler shall be considered a producer with respect to such skim milk or butterfat.

(d) Handlers who receive milk from two groups of producers. In the case of a handler who is required by any health authority in the marketing area to separate his producers into two groups and to receive and handle separately the milk received from each group, the market administrator shall compute a uniform price for each group of producers in the manner provided in § 973.7, if the handler files separate reports for each group, and the milk is handled in such a manner and the records of the handler are so kept that the market administrator can verify the utilization of the milk received from each group.

§ 973.7 Determination of uniform prices to producers—(a) Computation of the value of milk received from producers. The value of the milk received directly from producers' farms during each delivery period by each handler shall be a sum of money computed by the market administrator by multiplying the pounds of milk in each class by the applicable class price and adding together the resulting amounts: Provided, That if any skim milk has been subtracted pursuant to § 973.4 (g) (1) (v), or if any butterfat has been similarly subtracted, there shall be added to the above value an amount computed by multiplying the pounds of skim milk and butterfat so subtracted by the applicable class prices.

(b) Computation of the uniform price for each handler. The market administrator shall compute the uniform price per hundredweight for milk purchased or received directly from producers' farms during the delivery period by each handler as follows:

(1) To the value computed pursuant to paragraph (a) of this section add an amount equal to the total value of the location differentials computed pursuant to § 973.8 (c).

(2) From the sum obtained in subparagraph (1) of this paragraph subtract, if the average butterfat content of all milk received by such handler directly from producers' farms is more than 3.5 percent, or add, if such average butterfat content is less than 3.5 percent, an amount computed as follows: Multiply the amount by which the average butterfat content of such milk varies from 3.5 percent by the butterfat differential computed pursuant to § 973.8 (b) and multiply the result by the total hundredweight of milk received directly from producers' farms.

(3) Adjust the resulting sum by an amount representing the fraction used in adjusting the uniform price for the previous delivery period to the nearest cent.

(4) Divide the result by the total hundredweight of milk received directly from producers' farms.

(5) Adjust the resulting figure to the nearest cent. This shall be known as the uniform price per hundredweight for each handler for milk of 3.5 percent butterfat content delivered to the marketing area.

(c) Announcement of class prices. On or before the 6th day after the end of the delivery period the market administrator shall mail to all handlers and make public announcement of the class prices computed pursuant to § 973.5 (a) and the butterfat differentials computed pursuant to § 973.5 (d) and § 973.8 (b).

(d) Announcement of uniform prices. On or before the 15th day after the end of each delivery period the market administrator shall notify each handler and make public announcement of the uniform prices computed pursuant to paragraph (b) of this section.

§ 973.8 Payments for milk—(a) Time and method of payment. Each handler shall make payment as follows:

(1) On or before the 20th day after the end of the delivery period in which the milk was received, to each producer for milk not caused to be delivered directly from such producers' farms to such handler by a cooperative association, at not less than the uniform price computed pursuant to § 973.7 (b), subject to the differentials set forth in paragraphs (b) and (c) of this section.

(2) On or before the 15th day after the end of the delivery period in which the milk was received, to a cooperative association for milk which it caused to be delivered directly from producers' farms to such handler and for which such cooperative association collects payment, a total amount equal to not less than the sum of the individual payments otherwise payable to such producers pursuant to subparagraph (1) of this paragraph, and less the amount of the payment made pursuant to subparagraph (4) of this paragraph.

(3) On or before the 10th day after the end of the delivery period in which the skim milk or butterfat was received, to a cooperative association for skim milk or butterfat purchased or received from such cooperative association at not less than the class prices computed pursuant to § 973.5 (a), subject to the differentials set forth in § 973.5 (c) and (d), and less the amount of the payment made pursuant to subparagraph (4) of this paragraph.

(4) On or before the 20th day of the delivery period in which such skim milk and butterfat was received, to a cooperative association, if it so requests, for skim milk and butterfat which was purchased or received from such cooperative association and for skim milk and butterfat which such cooperative association caused to be delivered directly from producers' farms to the plant of such handler during the first 15 days of such delivery period at the approximate value of such skim milk or butterfat.

(b) Butterfat differential to producers. If during the delivery period, any handler has purchased or received from any producer, milk having an average butterfat content other than 3.5 percent, such handler in making the payment prescribed in paragraph (a) (1) and (2) of this section shall add to the uniform price per hundredweight payable to such producer for each one-tenth of 1 percent that the butterfat content in milk is above 3.5 percent not less than, or shall deduct from the uniform price per hundredweight for each one-tenth of 1 percent that the butterfat content in milk is below 3.5 percent not more than an amount computed by the market administrator as follows: To the average wholesale price per pound of 93-score butter at New York as reported by the Department of Agriculture for the delivery period, add 20 percent and divide the resulting sum by ten (10).

(c) Location differential to producers. In making payment pursuant to paragraph (a) (1) and (2) of this section for milk received from producers at a pool plant located more than 15 miles from the Minnesota Transfer Viaduct over University Avenue in St. Paul, each handler shall deduct from the uniform price payable to such producers an amount equal to one cent per hundredweight for each full mile that the plant where such milk was received is more than 15 miles distant from such Viaduct.

(d) Correction of errors in payments to producers. Errors in making any of the payments prescribed in this section shall be corrected not later than the date for making payments next following the determination of such errors. Any correction affecting all producers delivering to any handler during the period in which such error occurred shall be corrected in such manner as the market administrator shall determine to be equitable, either by (1) adjustment of the account of each individual producer who delivered during such period on the basis of a recomputation of the price of such handler, or (2) by addition or subtraction of the amount of such correction to or from the value of all milk received by such handler in the delivery period during which such error was determined, computed as set forth in § 973.7 (a).

(e) Statement to producers. In making the payments required by this section, each handler shall furnish each producer with a supporting statement in such form that it may be retained by the producer, which shall show:

(1) The delivery period and the identity of the handler and of the producer;

(2) The total pounds and the average butterfat content of the milk delivered by the producer;

(3) The minimum rate or rates at which payment to the producer is required under the provisions of paragraphs (a) and (d) of this section;

(4) The rate which is used in making the payment if such rate is other than the applicable minimum;

(5) The amount or the rate per hundredweight of each deduction claimed by the handler, including any deduction claimed under § 973.10, together with a description of the respective deductions; and

(6) The net amount of payment to the producer.

§ 973.9 Expense of administration. As his pro rata share of the expense of administration hereof each handler, with respect to all milk purchased or received directly from producers' farms (including such handler's own production) and which is disposed of as Class I milk during the delivery period, shall pay to the market administrator, on or before the 18th day after the end of such delivery period, 2 cents per hundredweight or such lesser amount as the Secretary from time to time may prescribe.

§ 973.10 Marketing services—(a) Deductions for marketing services. Except as set forth in paragraph (b) of this section, each handler in making payments to producers (other than himself) pursuant to § 973.8 shall make a deduction of 2 cents per hundredweight or such lesser deduction as the Secretary from time to time may prescribe, with respect to all milk purchased or received directly from producers' farms during the delivery period and shall pay such deductions to the market administrator on or before the 18th day after the end of such delivery period. Such money shall be expended by the market administrator for market information to, and for the verification of weights, sampling, and testing of milk purchased or received from said producers.

(b) Producers' cooperative associations. In the case of producers for whom a cooperative association which the Secretary determines to be qualified under the provisions of the act of Congress of February 18, 1922, as amended, known as the "Capper-Volstead Act" is actually performing, as determined by the Secretary, the services set forth in paragraph (a) of this section, no such deduction shall be made.

§ 973.11 Agents. The Secretary may, by designation in writing, name any officer or employee of the United States to act as his agent or representative in connection with any of the provisions hereof.

§ 973.12 Effective time, suspension, and termination—(a) Effective time. The provisions hereof or any amendments hereto shall become effective at such time as the Secretary may declare and shall continue in force until suspended or terminated pursuant to paragraph (b) of this section.

(b) Suspension or termination. The Secretary shall suspend or terminate any or all of the provisions hereof, whenever he finds that it obstructs or does not tend to effectuate the declared policy of the act. This order shall, in any event, terminate whenever the provisions of the act authorizing it cease to be in effect.

(c) Continuing power and duty of the market administrator. If, upon the suspension or termination of any or all of the provisions hereof, there are any obligations arising hereunder, the final accrual or ascertainment of which requires acts by any handler, by the market administrator, or by any other person, the power and duty to perform such further acts shall continue notwithstanding such suspension or termination: Provided, That any such acts required to be performed by the market administrator shall, if the Secretary so directs, be performed by such other person, persons, or agency as the Secretary may designate.

The market administrator, or such other person as the Secretary may designate shall (1) continue in such capacity until discharged by the Secretary; (2) from time to time account for all receipts and disbursements and deliver all funds or property on hand, together with the books and records of the market administrator, or such person, to such person as the Secretary shall direct; and (3) if so directed by the Secretary execute such assignments or other instruments necessary or appropriate to vest in such person full title to all funds, property, and claims vested in the market administrator or such person pursuant thereto.

(d) Liquidation after suspension or termination. Upon the suspension or termination of any or all provisions hereof, the market administrator, or such person as the Secretary may designate shall, if so directed by the Secretary, liquidate the business of the market administrator's office, and dispose of all funds and property then in his possession or under his control, together with claims for any funds which are unpaid at the time of such suspension or termination. Any funds collected pursuant to the provisions hereof, over and above the amounts necessary to meet outstanding obligations and the expenses necessarily incurred by the market administrator or such person in liquidating and distributing such funds, shall be distributed to the contributing handlers and producers in an equitable manner.

POST OFFICE DEPARTMENT

MERCHANDISE FOR YUKON TERRITORY RESTRICTED DURING WINTER SEASON

The Canadian Postal Administration advises that the transmission of merchandise to the Yukon Territory over the White Horse-Dawson route during the winter season (from October 1, 1948 to May 31, 1949) will, as in former years, be restricted to merchandise for post offices at Carcross, White Horse, and Champagne.

Postmasters will, therefore, decline to accept for mailing until June 1, 1949, merchandise to be transmitted over the White Horse-Dawson route to either Uniter States or Canadian points, except as stated above.

It is added, however, that during the winter season there is a weekly air stage service in operation between White Horse and Dawson via Mayo Landing, White Horse and Port Selkirk via Carmacks, and between Dawson and Stewart River. Parcel post is conveyed over this air stage service to and from these post offices at the air parcel rate of 30 cents for the first pound plus 25 cents for each additional pound or fraction thereof, up to 15 pounds. Parcels originating in the United States addressed for delivery at Dawson, Mayo Landing, Port Selkirk, Carmacks, and Stewart River will be given air transmission to those points in the Yukon, provided postage is paid at the above-mentioned rate. Such parcels will be sent by ordinary means to White Horse for onward air connection.

In addition, Teslin is served semiweekly the year round by motor vehicle service via the Alaska Highway. Parcels for delivery at Teslin are subject to a special rate of 25 cents per pound or fraction.

Parcel post addressed for delivery at Watson Lake, Yukon, will also be accepted for mailing when prepaid at the rate of 30 cents for the first pound and 25 cents for each additional pound or fraction thereof.

Acting Postmaster General.

MAILING OF AIR PARCEL POST TO OVERSEAS ARMY AND NAVY POST OFFICES DURING PERIOD, NOVEMBER 15 TO DECEMBER 31, 1948

Although the public has been informed that Christmas parcels for members of the armed forces overseas should be mailed prior to November 15, 1948, there are indications that many persons contemplate mailing such gifts at a later date via air parcel post with the idea of securing prompt delivery.

The Departments of the Army and Navy have advised that present air lift capacities to the various overseas areas are being taxed to the utmost and it will not be possible to augment such facilities at this time. Hence, any appreciable increase in mailings of air parcel post to service personnel overseas would result in such matter being transported via surface means with much later date of delivery than intended by the mailer.

Therefore, in order to prevent the mailing of quantities of air parcel post during the Christmas season which cannot be transported with existing air facilities, effective during the period November 15, 1948, to and including December 31, 1948, postal patrons tendering air parcel post matter (air parcels exceeding 8 ounces in weight) addressed to Army Post Offices in care of the postmasters at New York, New York, San Francisco, California, and New Orleans, Louisiana, as well as Navy Post Offices in care of the Fleet Post Offices at New York, New York, and San Francisco, California, shall be informed that no assurance can be given that overseas air transportation can be provided by the armed services, and that if surface transportation must be employed delivery will be delayed accordingly. During the period stated air parcel post addressed as indicated shall be accepted only upon the understanding by the mailer that such matter will be transported overseas by surface means unless air facilities are available at the time.

[SEAL] V. C. BURKE,
Acting Postmaster General.

Notice for filing objections. Notice is hereby given that for a period of 30 days from the date of publication of this notice, persons having cause to object to the terms of the above order, withdrawing certain public lands in the State of California for use in connection with the Central Valley Project, California, may present their objections to the Secretary of the Interior. Such objections should be in writing, should be addressed to the Secretary of the Interior, and should be filed in duplicate in the Department of the Interior, Washington 25, D. C.

In case any objection is filed and the nature of the opposition is such as to warrant it, a public hearing will be held at a convenient time and place, which will be announced, where opponents to the order may state their views and where the proponents of the order can explain its purpose, intent and extent. Should any objection be filed, notice of the determination by the Secretary as to whether the order should be rescinded, modified or let stand will be given to all interested parties of record and the general public.

[SEAL] G. E. TOMLINSON,
Acting Commissioner.

I concur. The records of the Bureau of Land Management and of the District Land Office will be noted accordingly.

Fish and Wildlife Service

WISCONSIN

EMERGENCY EXTENSION OF WATERFOWL AND COOT SEASON

Pursuant to authority conferred by § 1.4 of the regulations under the Migratory Bird Treaty Act (50 CFR 1.4), I have determined that by emergency action of the proper State authority in Wisconsin due to forest fire hazards, hunting was prohibited in an extensive area of that State for five and one-half days, which prohibition has resulted in a shortening of the season for hunting wild ducks, geese, and coot in said area. I have determined further that a compensatory extension of the said season for five days will not result in a diminution of the abundance of birds to any greater extent than that contemplated for the original hunting season.

Accordingly, subject to all other provisions of the existing Migratory Bird Treaty Act regulations, the season for hunting wild ducks, geese, and coot is extended from November 14 to November 18, 1948, both dates inclusive, in that portion of the State of Wisconsin described as follows:

All lands and waters within the boundaries of Wisconsin forest protection districts as heretofore established by the State Conservation Commission and, in addition, all lands and waters within the boundaries of Lincoln and Marathon counties.

Dated: November 10, 1948.

WRQN

PUBLIC NOTICE CONCERNING PROPOSED ASSIGNMENT OF LICENSE [1]

The Commission hereby gives notice that on July 1, 1948 there was filed with it an application (BAL-791) for its consent under section 310 (b) of the Communications Act to the proposed assignment of license of station WRQN from M. F. Brice, W. O. Davis, R. E. Ledford and R. W. Sockwell, d/b as Vidalia Broadcasting Company, to M. F. Brice and R. E. Ledford, d/b as Vidalia Broadcasting Company. The proposal to assign the license arises out of contracts of June 21, 1948 pursuant to which the one-quarter partnership interest of W. O. Davis will be transferred to M. F. Brice for $5,871 in cash and the one-quarter partnership interest of R. W. Sockwell will be transferred to R. E. Ledford upon the same terms. Further information as to the arrangements may be found with the application and associated papers which are on file at the offices of the Commission in Washington, D. C.

Pursuant to § 1.321 which sets out the procedure to be followed in such cases including the requirement for public notice concerning the filing of the application, the Commission was advised by applicant on October 8, 1948 that starting on October 7, 1948 notice of the filing of the application would be inserted in the Vidalia Advance a newspaper at Vidalia, Georgia in conformity with the above section.

In accordance with the procedure set out in said section, no action will be had upon the application for a period of 60 days from October 7, 1948 within which time other persons desiring to apply for the facilities involved may do so upon the same terms and conditions as set forth in the above described contract.

KORN

PUBLIC NOTICE CONCERNING PROPOSED ASSIGNMENT OF LICENSE [1]

The Commission hereby gives notice that on October 29, 1948 there was filed with it an application (BAL-790) for its consent under section 310 (b) of the Communications Act to the proposed assignment of license of station KORN, Fremont, Nebraska, from Inland Broadcasting Company to Walker Newspapers, Inc. The proposal to assign the license arises out of a contract of September 30, 1948 pursuant to which Inland Broadcasting Company will assign to Walker Newspapers, Inc. the license for station KORN and certain contracts and equipment in connection with the station for a total consideration of $22,000, of which $2,500 has been paid, $7,500 is due on the closing date, and the balance due 120 days thereafter. Further information as to the arrangements may be found with the application and associated papers which are on file at the offices of the Commissioner in Washington, D. C.

Pursuant to § 1.321 which sets out the procedure to be followed in such cases including the requirement for public notice concerning the filing of the application, the Commission was advised by applicant on October 29, 1948 that starting on October 29, 1948 notice of the filing of the application would be inserted in the Fremont Guide and Tribune a newspaper of general circulation at Fremont, Nebraska in conformity with the above section.

In accordance with the procedure set out in said section, no action will be had upon the application for a period of 60 days from October 29, 1948 within which time other persons desiring to apply for the facilities involved may do so upon the same terms and conditions as set forth in the above described contract.

At a session of the Federal Communications Commission held at its offices in Washington, D. C., on the 20th day of October, 1948;

The Commission having under consideration the above-entitled application for renewal of license of Radio Station WINC-FM, Winchester, Virginia; and

It appearing, that the Commission on February 20, 1948, designated for hearing the application of Winchester Broadcasting Corporation (File No. BP-6187), requesting construction permit for a new standard broadcast station to operate on 1270 kc, 1 kw, daytime only, at Winchester, Virginia, said designation being predicated in part on charges made against Winchester Broadcasting Corporation by Richard Field Lewis, Jr.; and

It further appearing, that on March 18, 1948, the Commission designated for hearing the application of Richard Field Lewis, Jr. (File No. BP-6242) for construction permit to change frequency and power of Station WINC, Winchester, Virginia, from 1400 kc, 250 w, unlimited time, to 950 kc, 500 w, 1 kw-LS, using a directional antenna at night, unlimited time, to be heard in a consolidated proceeding with the aforesaid application of Winchester Broadcasting Corporation, said designation being predicated in part on countercharges made against the said Lewis by the Winchester Broadcasting Corporation, which is scheduled to be heard on April 18, 1949, at Washington, D. C.;

It is ordered, That, pursuant to section 309 (a) of the Communications Act of 1934, as amended, the said application of Richard Field Lewis, Jr., for renewal of license of Radio Station WINC-FM, be and it is hereby, designated for hearing in a consolidated proceeding, with the said application of Winchester Broadcasting Corporation for construction permit, and the said application of Richard Field Lewis, Jr., for construction permit, upon the following issue:

(1) To determine the qualifications of the applicant, Richard Field Lewis, Jr., to continue the operation of Station WINC-FM, particularly with reference to the truth or falsity of the above charges made against Winchester Broadcasting Corporation by the said Lewis and of the counter-charges against Lewis by the said Winchester Broadcasting Corporation.

[Docket No. G-1150]

TEXAS EASTERN TRANSMISSION CORP.

ORDER SUSPENDING RATE SCHEDULE

NOVEMBER 5, 1948.

It appearing to the Commission that:

(a) Texas Eastern Transmission Corporation (Texas Eastern) submitted for filing on October 19, 1948, a proposed supplement designated as Supplement No. 2 to its Rate Schedule FPC No. 5, providing for a change in service by increasing the daily contract quantity of natural gas deliverable to the East Ohio Gas Company, New York State Natural Gas Corporation and the Peoples Natural Gas Company (Consolidated companies) from 125,000 M c. f. per day to 200,000 M c. f. per day, with such increased deliveries to be accomplished as rapidly as Texas Eastern can install the necessary facilities to transport such additional quantities.

(b) The proposed supplement referred to in paragraph (a) hereof consists of an agreement dated February 13, 1948, between Texas Eastern and Consolidated companies which purports to effectuate the exercise by Consolidated companies of the options contained in the agreement dated March 26, 1947, between the same parties.

(c) On October 11, 1947, the Commission issued its Opinion No. 157 and order at Docket No. G-880, authorizing the construction and operation by Texas Eastern of certain natural-gas facilities and authorizing the sale and delivery by Texas Eastern of all of the natural gas to be made available therefrom.

(d) On February 15, 1948, Texas Eastern at Docket No. G-1003 filed an application[1] for a certificate of public convenience and necessity authorizing the construction and operation of certain natural-gas facilities additional to those authorized at Docket No. G-880, in which application and the amendment and supplement thereto reference is made to the agreement of February 13, 1948, between Texas Eastern and Consolidated companies and request is made for authorization to sell and deliver to Consolidated companies all of the natural gas to be made available through construction and operation of the proposed additional facilities.

(e) The Commission, by a telegram dated May 28, 1948, granted to Texas Eastern temporary authorization to construct and operate the facilities described in its application of February 15, 1948, as amended on May 7, 1948, and supplemented on May 25, 1948, to increase its pipe-line capacity from 433 million cubic feet per day to 508 million cubic feet per day, provided that the issuance of such temporary authorization is without prejudice to any action that the Commission may take after full hearing upon the application in Docket No. G-1003.

(f) Pursuant to order of the Commission and after notice first having been given, hearings in Docket No. G-1003 and matters consolidated therewith for hearing, commenced on July 12, 1948, and concluded on August 6, 1948. On October 29, 1948, the Presiding Examiner entered his initial decision in Docket No. G-1003 and related dockets, and the matters in issue therein are now pending before the Commission.

(g) One of the principal issues to be determined at Docket No. G-1003 and dockets consolidated therewith for hearing, is the disposition to be made of the natural gas to be made available through the construction and operation of the facilities described in the application of Texas Eastern therein.

(h) On November 2, 1948, Texas Eastern filed with the Commission an application for temporary authorization to sell and deliver natural gas to Consolidated companies, stating that prior to final decision upon its application at Docket No. G-1003, Texas Eastern will have completed construction of at least a part of the facilities described in said application, and requesting authorization to sell and deliver such additional quantities of natural gas entirely to Consolidated companies under Texas Eastern's Rate Schedule FPC No. 5 and the supplement thereto described in paragraph (a) hereof.

(i) Texas Eastern has been and now is a natural-gas company subject to the jurisdiction of the Commission under the Natural Gas Act, engaged in the transportation of natural gas in interstate commerce and in the sale in interstate commerce of natural gas so transported to various purchasers for resale for ultimate public consumption for domestic, commercial, industrial and other uses.

(j) The rates, charges, classifications, services, rules, regulations, practices and contract requirements to be made, demanded, collected and imposed, as set forth in the aforesaid Supplement No. 2, may be unjust, unreasonable, unduly discriminatory and prejudicial.

(k) The sale and delivery of natural gas by Texas Eastern pursuant to the terms and provisions of the aforesaid Supplement No. 2 is one of the principal issues now pending before the Commission for determination at Docket No. G–1003.

The Commission finds that: It is necessary and proper in the public interest and to aid in the enforcement of the provisions of the Natural Gas Act that the Commission enter upon a hearing concerning the lawfulness of the said proposed rates, charges, classifications and services, as set forth in the aforesaid Supplement No. 2, referred to in paragraph (a) hereof, and that said Supplement should be suspended as hereinafter provided and use deferred pending hearing and decision thereon.

The Commission orders that:

(A) A public hearing be held at a date and place hereafter to be fixed by the Commission concerning the lawfulness of the rates, charges, classifications and services, subject to the jurisdiction of the Commission, as set forth in the aforesaid designated Supplement No. 2, referred to in paragraph (a) hereof and tendered for filing by Texas Eastern Transmission Corporation.

(B) Pending such hearing and decision thereon, Supplement No. 2, referred to in paragraph (a) hereof, and submitted by Texas Eastern Transmission Corporation, be and it hereby is suspended and use deferred of such rates, charges, classifications and services until such time as said supplement may be made effective in the manner prescribed by the Natural Gas Act.

(C) Interested State commissions may participate as provided by §§ 1.8 and 1.37 (f) of the Commission's rules of practice and procedure.

Date of issuance: November 8, 1948.

By the Commission.

SECURITIES AND EXCHANGE COMMISSION

[File No. 70–1940]

CENTRAL NEW YORK POWER CORP.

ORDER GRANTING APPLICATION

At a regular session of the Securities and Exchange Commission, held at its office in the city of Washington, D. C., on the 5th day of November 1948.

Central New York Power Corporation ("Central New York"), a subsidiary of Niagara Hudson Power Corporation, a registered holding company, which in turn is a subsidiary of the United Corporation, also a registered holding company, having filed an application, pursuant to section 6 (b) of the Public Utility Holding Company Act of 1935, with respect to the following proposed transaction:

Central New York proposes to issue its promissory notes prior to December 31, 1948 in the principal amount of not to exceed $5,000,000, pursuant to the provisions of an amendment dated August 17, 1948, to a loan agreement dated December 19, 1947, between Central New York and certain banks. The proposed promissory notes are to bear interest at the rate of 2½% per annum and are to be due December 31, 1950, subject to the right of Central New York to prepay at any time any part or all of such indebtedness. Pursuant to the provisions of the original loan agreement dated December 19, 1947, Central New York issued its notes in an aggregate principal amount of $10,000,000, bearing interest at the rate of 2¼% per annum.

The $5,000,000 of proceeds to be derived by Central New York from the proposed issuance and sale of the notes are to be used to apply to the cost of construction, extension and improvement of its plant, property and facilities. An amendment to the application states that the issue and sale of the $5,000,000 principal amount of promissory notes was approved by the Public Service Commission of the State of New York by order dated October 27, 1948.

Appropriate notice of said filing having been given in the form and manner prescribed by Rule U-23 promulgated pursuant to said act, and the Commission not having received a request for hearing with respect to said application within the period specified, or otherwise, and not having ordered a hearing thereon; and

The Commission finding with respect to said application that the requirements of the applicable provisions of the act and rules thereunder are satisfied, that no adverse findings are necessary thereunder, and deeming it appropriate in the public interest and in the interests of investors and consumers that the said application be granted, and deeming it appropriate to grant the request of applicant that the order become effective as soon as possible:

It is hereby ordered, Pursuant to Rule U-23 and the applicable provisions of said act, that said application be, and the same hereby is, granted forthwith, subject to the terms and conditions prescribed in Rule U-24.

By the Commission.

PACIFIC POWER & LIGHT CO.

ORDER PERMITTING DECLARATION TO BECOME EFFECTIVE

At a regular session of the Securities and Exchange Commission, held at its office in the city of Washington, D. C., on the 5th day of November A. D. 1948.

Pacific Power & Light Company ("Pacific"), an electric utility subsidiary of American Power & Light Company, a registered holding company subsidiary of Electric Bond and Share Company, also a registered holding company, having filed a declaration pursuant to sections 6 (a) and 7 of the Public Utility Holding Company Act of 1935 regarding the following proposed transactions:

Pacific proposes to borrow $3,500,000 from Mellon National Bank & Trust Company of Pittsburgh, Pennsylvania and to use the proceeds to finance the construction of new facilities and for the expansion and improvement of its present facilities. It is stated in the declaration that the loans, which mature on August 15, 1949, will be repaid from cash to be derived from permanent financing.

Under the proposed loan agreement Pacific would borrow $1,000,000 on November 15, 1948, $1,500,000 on January 15, 1949, and $1,000,000 on April 15, 1949. The loans would be evidenced by Pacific's unsecured promissory notes bearing interest at the rate of 2⅜% per annum. The loan agreement provides for prepayment in amounts of $500,000 or a multiple thereof without premium or penalty. Provision is made for the payment of a commitment fee computed at the rate of ⅜ of 1% per annum on the unused amount of the commitment from the date when the loan agreement is permitted to become effective until the loans are made. The loan agreement further provides that the company may at any time surrender its right to borrow all or any part of the amounts to be loaned, the amount represented by such surrender to be $500,000 or any multiple thereof.

Said declaration having been filed on October 18, 1948 and notice thereof having been given in the manner and form prescribed by Rule U–23 promulgated under the Public Utility Holding Company Act of 1935, and the Commission not having received a request for hearing within the time specified in said notice, or otherwise, and not having ordered a hearing with respect to said declaration; and

Pacific having requested that the Commission's order with respect to said declaration issue at the earliest date possible and become effective upon issuance; and

The Commission finding with respect to said declaration that the requirements of the applicable provisions of the Public Utility Holding Company Act of 1935 and the rules and regulations thereunder are satisfied and that no adverse findings are necessary thereunder, and deeming it appropriate in the public interest that said declaration be permitted to become effective forthwith;

It is ordered, Pursuant to Rule U-23 and the applicable provisions of the Public Utility Holding Company Act of 1935 that said declaration be and the same hereby is permitted to become effective forthwith, subject to the terms and conditions prescribed in Rule U-24.

By the Commission.

UPPER PENINSULA POWER CO.

NOTICE OF FILING

At a regular session of the Securities and Exchange Commission held at its office in the city of Washington, D. C., on the 5th day of November A. D. 1948.

Notice is hereby given that Upper Peninsula Power Company ("Upper Peninsula"), a subsidiary of both Consolidated Electric and Gas Company and the Middle West Corporation, both registered holding companies, has filed an application with this Commission pursuant to section 6 (b) of the Public Utility Holding Company Act of 1935 ("act") for exemption from the provisions of sections 6 (a) and 7 thereof in respect of the issue and sale of securities.

Notice is further given that any interested person may, not later than November 29, 1948 at 5:30 p. m., e. s. t., request the Commission in writing that a hearing be held on such matter, stating the nature of his interest, the reasons for such request and the issues, if any, of fact or law raised by said application which he proposes to controvert, or may request that he be notified if the Commission should order a hearing thereon. Any such request should be addressed: Secretary, Securities and Exchange Commission, 425 Second Street NW., Washington 25, D. C. At any time after November 29, 1948, said application, as filed or as amended, may be granted as provided in Rule U-23 of the rules and regulations promulgated under the act, or the Commission may exempt such transactions as provided in Rules U-20 (a) and U-100 thereof.

All interested persons are referred to said application, which is on file in the offices of this Commission, for a statement of the transactions therein proposed, which are summarized as follows:

Upper Peninsula proposes to issue and sell to the Travelers Insurance Company at face amount, $400,000 principal amount of its First Mortgage Bonds, 4% Series due 1978, dated December 1, 1948. Such bonds will be issued under and secured by the Indenture of Mortgage dated May 1, 1947 of Upper Peninsula to the City National Bank and Trust Company of Chicago as amended by a Supplemental Indenture to be dated December 1, 1948.

The net proceeds of such sale will be used by Upper Peninsula to retire its presently outstanding $200,000 2½% bank note and any additional notes which may be issued prior to the sale of such bonds, for property additions and betterments, and to provide working capital.

Upper Peninsula states that the issue and sale of such bonds will be expressly authorized by the Michigan Public Service Commission, the state commission of the state in which Upper Peninsula is organized and doing business. Upper Peninsula further states that such issue and sale is exempt from the provisions of Rule U-50 by virtue of the provisions of paragraph (a) (4) thereof and that the proposed retirement of its note is permitted by Rule U-42 (b) (2).

Upper Peninsula estimates total expenses in connection with such issue and sale at $7,500 which includes legal expenses of approximately $6,000 and a finders fee of $500.

Applicant requests that the Commission's order granting said application be issued as expeditiously as possible and become effective forthwith upon issuance.

By the Commission.

In re: Stock owned by the personal representatives, heirs, next of kin, legatees and distributees of Arthur von Holwede, deceased. D-28-1470-D-1.

Under the authority of the Trading With the Enemy Act, as amended, Executive Order 9193, as amended, and Executive Order 9788, and pursuant to law, after investigation, it is hereby found:

1. That the personal representatives, heirs, next of kin, legatees and distributees of Arthur von Holwede, deceased, who there is reasonable cause to believe are residents of Germany, are nationals of a designated enemy country (Germany);

2. That the property described as follows: One hundred eighteen (118) shares of no par value common capital stock of Steinway and Sons, 109 West 57th Street, New York 19, New York, a corporation organized under the laws of the State of New York, evidenced by certificates numbered A668 for one hundred (100) shares and A699 for eighteen (18) shares, registered in the name of Estate of Arthur von Holwede, together with all declared and unpaid dividends thereon, is property within the United States owned or controlled by, payable or deliverable to, held on behalf of or on account of, or owing to, or which is evidence of ownership or control by, the personal representatives, heirs, next of kin, legatees and distributees of Arthur von Holwede, deceased, the aforesaid nationals of a designated enemy country (Germany);

and it is hereby determined:

3. That to the extent that the personal representatives, heirs, next of kin, legatees and distributees of Arthur von Holwede, deceased, are not within a designated enemy country, the national interest of the United States requires that such persons be treated as nationals of a designated enemy country (Germany).

All determinations and all action required by law, including appropriate consultation and certification, having been made and taken, and it being deemed necessary in the national interest,

There is hereby vested in the Attorney General of the United States the property described above, to be held, used, administered, liquidated, sold or otherwise dealt with in the interest of and for the benefit of the United States.

The terms "national" and "designated enemy country" as used herein shall have the meanings prescribed in section 10 of Executive Order 9193, as amended.

Executed at Washington, D. C., on October 27, 1948.

For the Attorney General.

TITLE 3—THE PRESIDENT

PROCLAMATION 2823

THANKSGIVING DAY, 1948

BY THE PRESIDENT OF THE UNITED STATES OF AMERICA

A PROCLAMATION

As the traditional day of thanksgiving approaches, our thoughts incline, as in previous years, to the richness of our blessings. The spiritual endowments of our country are undiminished; we may, as always, walk as free men unafraid. Our harvests have been bountiful, our production of goods abundant. Our resources have permitted us to aid the needy and helpless of other lands.

We are privileged to participate in international efforts to advance human welfare. We are profoundly grateful for the existence of an international forum where differences among nations may be submitted to world opinion with a view to harmonious adjustment.

We pray this year not only in the spirit of thanksgiving but also as suppliants for wisdom in our approach to the problems confronting this Nation. Believing in the dignity of man and his right to live in freedom and peace, we ask divine guidance in helping to safeguard these gifts for ourselves and other peoples of the earth.

NOW, THEREFORE, I, HARRY S. TRUMAN, President of the United States of America, in consonance with the joint resolution of Congress approved December 26, 1941, designating the fourth Thursday of November in each year as Thanksgiving Day, do hereby proclaim Thursday, November 25, 1948, as a day of national thanksgiving; and I call upon our citizens to observe that day by giving thanks to Almighty God for the bounties which have been bestowed upon our Nation and by resolving to render generous assistance to the hungry and homeless in other lands, thus renewing our devotion to the cause of good-will among men.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, I have hereunto set my hand and caused the Seal of the United States of America to be affixed.

DONE at the City of Washington this 12th day of November in the year of our Lord nineteen hundred and [SEAL] forty-eight, and of the Independence of the United States of America the one hundred and seventy-third.

HARRY S. TRUMAN

ROBERT A. LOVETT,
Acting Secretary of State.

EXECUTIVE ORDER 10016

COAT OF ARMS, SEAL, AND FLAG OF THE VICE PRESIDENT OF THE UNITED STATES

By virtue of the authority vested in me as President of the United States, it is hereby ordered as follows:

The Coat of Arms of the Vice President of the United States shall be of the following design:

SHIELD: Paleways of thirteen pieces argent and gules, a chief azure; upon the breast of an American eagle with wings displayed and inverted holding in his dexter talon an olive branch all proper and in his sinister an arrow or, in his beak a yellow scroll inscribed "E PLURIBUS UNUM" sable.

The whole surrounded by thirteen blue stars in the form of an annulet with one point of each star outward on the imaginary radiating center lines.

The Seal of the Vice President of the United States shall consist of the Coat of Arms encircled by the words "Vice President of the United States."

The Color and Flag of the Vice President of the United States shall consist of a white rectangular background of sizes and proportions to conform to military and naval custom, on which shall appear the Coat of Arms of the Vice President in proper colors. The proportion of the elements of the Coat of Arms shall be in direct relation to the hoist, and the fly shall vary according to the customs of the military and naval services.

The Coat of Arms, Seal, and Color and Flag shall be as described herein and as set forth in the illustrations and specifications which accompany this order and which are hereby made a part thereof.

These designs shall be used to represent the Vice President of the United States exclusively.

EXECUTIVE ORDER 10017

AMENDMENT OF THE REGULATIONS GOVERNING THE APPOINTMENT OF POSTMASTERS OF THE FOURTH CLASS

WHEREAS under the regulations now in force the appointment of postmasters of the fourth class may be made upon the basis of investigation and report of a post office inspector in any case in which the compensation of the office is not in excess of $1000 per annum; and

WHEREAS it is deemed desirable and in the public interest that the said limitation of $1000 be raised to $1300:

NOW, THEREFORE, by virtue of the authority vested in me by section 2 of the Civil Service Act (22 Stat. 403) and section 1753 of the Revised Statutes (5 U. S. C. 631), and for the purpose of carrying out the objective aforesaid, the regulations prescribed or approved by the President governing the appointment of postmasters of the fourth class are hereby amended by substituting "$1300" for "$1000" wherever the latter sum appears in the regulations.

This order supersedes Executive Order No. 9769 of August 14, 1946, entitled "Amendment of the Regulations Governing the Appointment of Postmasters of the Fourth Class."

PART 726—FIRE-CURED AND DARK AIR-CURED TOBACCO

PROCLAMATION OF NATIONAL MARKETING QUOTAS FOR 1949–50 MARKETING YEAR AND APPORTIONMENTS OF NATIONAL MARKETING QUOTAS AMONG SEVERAL STATES

Sec.
726.1 Basis and purpose.
726.2 Findings and determinations with respect to the national marketing quota for fire-cured tobacco for the marketing year beginning October 1, 1949.
726.3 Apportionment of the national marketing quota for fire-cured tobacco for the 1949–50 marketing year among the several States.
726.4 Findings and determinations with respect to the national marketing quota for dark air-cured tobacco for the marketing year beginning October 1, 1949.
726.5 Apportionment of the national marketing quota for dark air-cured tobacco for the 1949–50 marketing year among the several States.

AUTHORITY: §§ 726.1 to 726.5 issued under 5 Stat. 40, 41, 42, 43, 46, 47, 202; 53 Stat. 1281; 54 Stat. 392; 56 Stat. 121; 7 U. S. C. 1301 (b), 1301 (c), 1312; 1313 (a), 1313 (c); 1313 (g).

§ 726.1 Basis and purpose. Sections 726.1 to 726.5 are issued (1) to announce the reserve supply and the total supply of fire-cured and dark air-cured tobacco for the marketing year beginning October 1, 1948; (2) to establish the national marketing quotas for fire-cured and dark air-cured tobacco for the marketing year beginning October 1, 1949; and (3) to apportion the national marketing quotas among the several States. The Agricultural Adjustment Act of 1938, as amended, provides that whenever the Secretary finds that the total supply of tobacco as of the beginning of the marketing year then current exceeds the reserve supply level therefor, the Secretary shall proclaim not later than December 1, the amount of such total supply and also determine and specify in such proclamation the amount of the national marketing quota in terms of the total quantity of tobacco which may be marketed which will make available during the marketing year a supply of tobacco equal to the reserve supply level. The findings and determinations contained in §§ 726.2 to 726.5 have been made on the basis of the latest available statistics of the Federal Government and after due consideration of the views, data, and recommendations received from fire-cured and dark air-cured tobacco producers and others, including views, data, and recommendations presented at a public hearing held in Hopkinsville, Kentucky, on October 14, 1948 (13 F. R. 5681) in accordance with the Administrative Procedure Act (60 Stat. 237).

§ 726.2 Findings and determinations with respect to the national marketing quota for fire-cured tobacco for the marketing year beginning October 1, 1949 [1]—(a) Reserve supply level. The reserve supply level for fire-cured tobacco is 209,500,000 pounds calculated as provided in the act from a normal year's domestic consumption of 47,100,000 pounds and a normal year's exports of 42,400,000 pounds.

(b) Total supply. The total supply of fire-cured tobacco as of the beginning of the marketing year for such tobacco beginning October 1, 1948, is 231,600,000 pounds consisting of carry-over of 162,500,000 pounds and estimated 1948 production of 69,100,000 pounds.

(c) National marketing quota. The amount of fire-cured tobacco which will make available during the marketing year beginning October 1, 1949, a supply of fire-cured tobacco equal to the reserve supply level of such tobacco is 56,900,000 pounds and a national marketing quota of such amount is hereby proclaimed. It is determined, however, that a national marketing quota in the amount of 56,900,000 pounds would result in undue restriction of marketings during the 1949–50 marketing year and such amount is hereby increased by 20 percent. Therefore, the amount of the national marketing quota for fire-cured tobacco in terms of the total quantity of such tobacco which may be marketed during the marketing year beginning October 1, 1949, is 68,300,000 pounds.

§ 726.3 Apportionment of the national marketing quota for fire-cured tobacco for the 1949–50 marketing year among the several States. The national marketing quota proclaimed in § 726.2 is hereby apportioned among the several States pursuant to section 313 (a) of the Agricultural Adjustment Act of 1938, as amended, and converted into State acreage allotments in accordance with section 313 (g) of the act as follows:

State:	Acreage allotment
Kentucky	25,790
Tennessee	3,875
Indiana	244
Missouri	7
Reserve [1]	150
Total	30,066

[1] Acreage reserved for establishing allotments for farms upon which no dark air-cured tobacco has been grown during the past five years.

[1] Rounded to the nearest one-tenth of a million pounds.

State:	Acreage allotment
Kentucky	25,965
Tennessee	26,736

Reserve [1]	327
Total	65,330

[1] Acreage reserve for establishing allotments for farms upon which no fire-cured tobacco has been grown during the past five years.

§ 726.4 Findings and determinations with respect to the national marketing quota for dark air-cured tobacco for the marketing year beginning October 1, 1949 [1]—(a) Reserve supply level. The reserve supply level for dark air-cured tobacco is 95,200,000 pounds calculated as provided in the Act from a normal year's domestic consumption of 28,100,000 pounds and a normal year's exports of 8,100,000 pounds.

(b) Total supply. The total supply of dark air-cured tobacco as of the beginning of the marketing year for such tobacco beginning October 1, 1948, is 104,500,000 pounds consisting of carry-over of 73,900,000 pounds and estimated 1948 production of 30,600,000 pounds.

(c) National marketing quota. The amount of dark air-cured tobacco which will make available during the marketing year beginning October 1, 1949, a supply of dark air-cured tobacco equal to the reserve supply level of such tobacco is 27,700,000 pounds and a national marketing quota of such amount is hereby proclaimed. It is determined, however, that a national marketing quota in the amount of 27,700,000 pounds would result in undue restriction of marketings during the 1949–50 marketing year and such amount is hereby increased by twenty percent. Therefore, the amount of the national marketing quota for dark air-cured tobacco in terms of the total quantity of such tobacco which may be marketed during the marketing year beginning October 1, 1949, is 33,200,000 pounds.

§ 726.5 Apportionment of the national marketing quota for dark air-cured tobacco for the 1949–50 marketing year among the several States. The national marketing quota proclaimed in § 726.4 is hereby apportioned among the several States pursuant to section 313 (a) of the Agricultural Adjustment Act of 1938, as amended, and converted to State acreage allotments in accordance with section 313 (g) of the act as follows:

State:	Acreage allotment
Kentucky	25,790
Tennessee	3,875
Indiana	244
Missouri	7
Reserve [1]	150
Total	30,066

[1] Acreage reserved for establishing allotments for farms upon which no dark air-cured tobacco has been grown during the past five years.

Done at Washington, D. C., this 9th day of November 1948.

TITLE 17—COMMODITY AND SECURITIES EXCHANGES

Chapter II—Securities and Exchange Commission

PART 230—GENERAL RULES AND REGULATIONS, SECURITIES ACT OF 1933

PROSPECTUS FOR SALES BY ISSUER TO STOCKHOLDER

On July 19, 1948, the Securities and Exchange Commission published a proposed rule which would permit the use of a special form of prospectus in offerings of securities by an issuer to its existing stockholders. The Commission has now duly considered all comments and suggestions received in connection with the proposed rule and has determined that the rule should be adopted. The Commission finds that the rule is appropriate in the public interest and for the protection of investors and is necessary to carry out the provisions of the act. The rule is adopted pursuant to the provisions of the Securities Act of 1933, particularly sections 10 and 19 (a) thereof.

The new rule provides that, in sales of securities by an issuer to its existing stockholders, a prospectus may consist of copy of the proposed prospectus meeting the requirements of § 230.131 (Rule 131), and a document containing such additional information that both together contain all the information required to be included in a prospectus for registered securities: Provided, That both are sent to the stockholders of the issuer, and that the document is sent or given within 20 days after the copy of the proposed form of prospectus was sent or given. The rule is not applicable to sales by an underwriter or dealer.

Under § 230.131 sending or giving to any person, before a registration statement becomes effective, a copy of the proposed form of prospectus filed as a part of such registration statement would not in itself constitute an offer to sell if the proposed form of prospectus contains substantially the information required to be included in a prospectus for registered securities, or substantially that information except for the omission of information with respect to the offering price, underwriting discounts or commission, discounts or commissions to dealers, amount of proceeds, commission rates, call prices, or other matters dependent upon the offering price. This section also requires that the copy contain a prescribed legend and that the registration statement should not be the subject of a proceeding or an order under section 8 (b), 8 (d) or 8 (e) of the act.

The text of the new section (Rule 431) is as follows:

§ 230.431 Prospectus for sales by issuer to stockholders. In sales of securities by an issuer to its existing stockholders, a prospectus may consist of a copy of the proposed form of prospectus meeting the requirements of § 230.131 and a document containing such additional information that both together contain all the information required to be included in a prospectus for registered securities: Provided, That, (a) the proposed form of prospectus is incorporated by reference into and made a part of the document, (b) a copy of the proposed form of prospectus was sent or given, in compliance with § 230.131, by the issuer to the stockholder to whom the document is subsequently sent or given, and (c) the document is sent or given by the issuer to the stockholder within twenty days after the date on which such stockholder was sent or given a copy of the proposed form of prospectus. However, this section shall not apply to sales by an underwriter or dealer.

The foregoing section shall become effective December 10, 1948.

(Secs. 10 and 19 (a), 48 Stat. 81, 85, 15 U. S. C. 77j, 77s)

By the Commission.

Secretary.

2. The word "act" should be capitalized wherever it appears.

TITLE 47—TELECOMMUNICATION

Chapter I—Federal Communications Commission

PART 8—SHIP RADIO SERVICE

PART 13—COMMERCIAL RADIO OPERATORS

SHIP SERVICE AND COMMERCIAL RADIO OPERATORS

In the matter of amendment of Parts 8 and 13 of the Commission's rules and regulations, Ship Service, and Commercial Radio Operators, respectively.

At a session of the Federal Communications Commission held at its offices in Washington, D. C. on the 10th day of November 1948;

The Commission having under consideration its previous actions of December 15, 1947, March 15, 1948 and June 15, 1948 whereby, under the provisions of section 318 of the Communications Act of 1934, as amended, the requirement of licensed radio operators for ship radar stations licensed in the Ship Service was waived, subject to certain provisions for a continuous over-all period from December 15, 1947, to November 15, 1948, and whereby temporary rules in line with and of the same duration as the aforesaid temporary waiver were promulgated; and having before it a proposal to extend the duration of the aforesaid waiver and temporary rules to April 15, 1949, or the effective date of permanent rules governing operator license requirements for such stations, whichever date is earlier;

It appearing, that on April 5, 1948, the Commission released a notice of proposed rule making setting forth certain proposed permanent rules to govern operator license requirements for ship radar stations licensed in the Ship Service and that on October 22, 1948 the Commission released a further notice of proposed rule making in this matter which also designated the matter for general public hearing and oral argument to be held on November 22, 1948; and

It further appearing, that pending the final adoption of permanent rules governing operator license requirements as aforesaid, it is necessary to continue beyond November 15, 1948 the temporary rules governing operator license requirements for ship radar stations licensed in the Ship Service; and

It further appearing, that because of the temporary nature of the proposed extension, and because of the opportunity which heretofore has been afforded and will be afforded to all interested persons to submit comments on the subject of operator requirements for ship radar stations licensed in the Ship Service, as well as the opportunity which will be afforded to all such persons to participate in the above-mentioned general public hearing and oral argument, and because the need for the continuance of the temporary rules is urgent, the public notice and procedure provided for in section 4 of the Administrative Procedure Act are found to be impracticable and unnecessary herein, and for the same reasons, and because the extension of the temporary rules in question will continue to relieve a restriction such extension should be made effective immediately; and

It further appearing, that, unless the waiver hereinabove referred to of the requirements of section 318 of the act is extended, the provisions of that section will, after November 15, 1948, require ship radar stations licensed in the Ship Service to be operated by licensed radio operators; and

It further appearing, that under the provisions of section 318 aforesaid, the Commission may waive the requirement of licensed radio operators for ship radar stations licensed in the Ship Service if the Commission first shall find that such a waiver will serve the public interest, convenience, or necessity; and

It further appearing, that under Commission Order 133, dated May 10, 1946, the Commission waived to a limited extent the licensed radio operator requirements of section 318 aforesaid with regard to shipboard radar stations licensed in the Experimental Service; and

It further appearing, that during the interim period preceding the final adoption and effectiveness of permanent rules governing operator license requirements for ship radar stations licensed in the Ship Service, radar stations so licensed can be as well operated by unlicensed personnel as can radar stations licensed in the Experimental Service; and

It further appearing, that under the foregoing circumstances it will serve the public interest and convenience temporarily to waive, to the same extent as now provided in the Experimental Service by Order 133, the licensed radio operator requirements with regard to ship radar stations licensed in the Ship Service; and

It further appearing, that authority to accomplish the aforesaid objective is contained in sections 303 (f), (g), (l), and 318 of the Communications Act of 1934, as amended;

It is ordered, That, effective November 15, 1948 the provisions of section 318, aforementioned, are hereby waived insofar as such provisions require any person to hold a radio operator license issued by this Commission in order to operate ship radar stations licensed by this Commission in the Ship Service, Provided, That this waiver shall extend only to the normal operation of such radar stations on board ship and shall not be construed to permit unlicensed personnel to make any adjustments or to do any servicing or maintenance that may affect the proper operation of the station: Provided further, That this waiver shall not be construed to affect in any way the responsibility of the station licensee for the proper operation of the station: And provided further, That the waiver herein ordered may, in the discretion of the Commission and without advance notice or hearing, be changed or cancelled by order of the Commission, and shall in no event extend beyond the effective date of permanent rules adopted by the Commission governing operator license requirements for ship radar stations licensed in the Ship Service, or beyond April 15, 1949, whichever is earlier;

It is further ordered, That effective November 15, 1948, Parts 8 and 13 of the Commission's rules governing ship service and commercial radio operators respectively, are amended as follows:

1. Footnote 71 to § 8.195 is amended as follows:

a. By deleting in the first sentence the phrase "March 15, 1948, and June 15, 1948" and substituting therefor, the phrase "March 15, 1948, June 15, 1948, and November 15, 1948."

b. By deleting in the last sentence thereof the phrase "November 15, 1948" and substituting therefor the phrase "April 15, 1948."

2. The fourth footnote appended to § 13.1 which footnote commences "By order dated and effective December 15, 1947 * * *", is amended as follows:

By deleting the phrase "March 15, 1948 and June 15, 1948" and substituting therefor the phrase "March 15, 1948, June 15, 1948 and November 15, 1948."

(Sec. 303 (f), (g), (l), 318, 48 Stat. 1082, 1089, 47 U. S. C., 303 (f), (g), (l), 318)

Released: November 10, 1948.

TITLE 50—WILDLIFE

Chapter I—Fish and Wildlife Service; Department of the Interior

Subchapter C—National Wildlife Refuges; Individual Regulations

PART 29—PLAINS REGION NATIONAL WILDLIFE REFUGES

HUNTING IN ARROWWOOD NATIONAL WILDLIFE REFUGE, NORTH DAKOTA

Basis and purpose. On the basis of observations and reports of field representatives of the Fish and Wildlife Service and of Conservation Agents of the North Dakota Game and Fish Department, it has been determined there is a general surplus of deer in much of North Dakota and that the reduction of the population can be facilitated by opening certain National Wildlife Refuges in the State to the public hunting of deer.

Section 29.28a is revised to read:

§ 29.28a Arrowwood National Wildlife Refuge, North Dakota; hunting. Deer, coyote, and fox may be taken with firearms and with bow and arrow during the 1948 State open season on certain lands, hereinafter specified, of the United States within the Arrowwood National Wildlife Refuge, North Dakota.

(a) Area open to hunting. All the lands of the United States except the areas within one-half mile of the occupied residences on the Arrowwood Refuge shall be open to such hunting.

(b) Entry. Entry on and use of the Refuge are governed by Part 12 of this chapter and strict compliance therewith is required. Hunters must follow such routes of travel within the Refuge as are designated by posting.

(c) State laws. Strict compliance with all State laws and regulations is required, and any person who hunts on the Refuge must have in his possession and exhibit at the request of any authorized Federal or State officer a valid State hunting license and permit for the taking of deer if such is required by the State laws and regulations. The license and permit will serve as a Federal permit for entry on the Refuge for the purpose of hunting deer. (Sec. 10, 45 Stat. 1222, 16 U. S. C. 715i; Reorg. Plan No. II of 1939, 3 CFR Cum. PART 29—PLAINS REGION NATIONAL WILDLIFE REFUGES

HUNTING IN DES LACS NATIONAL WILDLIFE REFUGE, NORTH DAKOTA

Basis and purpose. On the basis of observations and reports of field representatives of the Fish and Wildlife Service and of Conservation Agents of the North Dakota Game and Fish Department, it has been determined there is a general surplus of deer in much of North Dakota and that the reduction of the population can be facilitated by opening certain National Wildlife Refuges in the State to the public hunting of deer.

The following is added:

§ 29.227a Des Lacs National Wildlife Refuge, North Dakota; hunting. Deer, coyote, and fox may be taken during the State open season prescribed by the Game and Fish Department of the State of North Dakota for the hunting of deer during the calendar year 1948 on certain lands, hereinafter specified, of the United States within the Des Lacs National Wildlife Refuge, North Dakota.

(a) Area open to hunting. All the lands of the United States except the areas within one-half mile of the occupied residences on the Des Lacs Refuge shall be open to such hunting.

(b) Entry. Entry on and use of the Refuge are governed by Part 12 of this chapter and strict compliance therewith is required. Hunters must follow such routes of travel within the Refuge as are designated by posting.

(c) State laws. Strict compliance with all State laws and regulations is required, and any person who hunts on the Refuge must have in his possession and exhibit at the request of any authorized Federal or State officer a valid State hunting license and permit for the taking of deer if such is required by the State laws and regulations. The license and permit will serve as a Federal permit for entry on the Refuge for the purpose of hunting deer.

PLUMS IN CALIFORNIA

NOTICE OF PROPOSED RULE MAKING

Consideration is being given to the following proposal, which was submitted by the Control Committee and the Plum Commodity Committee, established under the marketing agreement, as amended, and Order No. 36, as amended (7 CFR, Cum. Supp., 936.1 et seq.), regulating the handling of fresh Bartlett pears, plums, and Elberta peaches grown in the State of California, as the agencies to administer the terms and provisions thereof with respect to plums: "Commencing with the marketing season beginning April 1, 1949, the determination of May 6, 1947 (12 F. R. 3059), shall not be applicable to shipments of plums into, in, or through the San Francisco-Sacramento region and the Los Angeles region."

All persons who desire to submit data, views, or arguments with respect to such proposal shall file the same with the Director, Fruit and Vegetable Branch, Production and Marketing Administration, United States Department of Agriculture, Room 2077, South Building, Washington 25, D. NOTICES

Secretary of Defense

[Transfer Order 27]

ORDER TRANSFERRING CERTAIN NONAPPROPRIATED FUNDS FROM DEPARTMENT OF THE ARMY TO THE DEPARTMENT OF THE AIR FORCE

Pursuant to the authority vested in me by the National Security Act of 1947 (act of July 1947; Public Law 253, 80th Congress) and in order to effect certain transfers authorized or directed therein, it is hereby ordered as follows:

1. It having been mutually determined by the Secretary of the Army and the Secretary of the Air Force that the share of the nonappropriated Fund known and accounted for as the "Civilian Welfare Fund—Department of the Army" which is available for use by or on behalf of the Air Force is 30.13 percent of the adjusted net worth of that Fund as of September 30, 1947, that Fund is to that extent transferred to the Department of the Air Force for the purposes for which those funds were originally made available in the War Department.

2. If at a later time there is any allowance of a claim or credit which existed on September 30, 1947 which would have the effect in law of establishing any different net worth than that determined on September 30, 1947 that difference will be adjusted as a correction according to the same percentage as stated in paragraph 1 above.

3. The funds transferred to the Department of the Air Force and the corresponding funds retained by the Department of the Army will be administered under joint policies to be established by the Secretary of the Army and the Secretary of the Air Force. The Secretary of the Army and the Secretary of the Air Force are authorized to appoint a joint board to assist them in the administration of the funds.

4. The Secretary of the Army, the Secretary of the Air Force or their authorized representatives are hereby authorized to issue such orders as may be necessary to effectuate the purposes of this order. In this respect, the transfer of such related personnel, property, and records, as the Secretaries of the Army and the Air Force shall from time to time jointly determine to be necessary, is authorized.

5. It is expressly determined that the transfers herein specified are necessary and desirable for the operation of the Department of the Air Force and the United States Air Force.

6. This order shall be effective as of 12:00 noon on November 1, 1948.

FIRE-CURED AND DARK AIR-CURED TOBACCO MARKETING QUOTA REFERENDUM

The Secretary of Agriculture has duly proclaimed, pursuant to the provisions of the Agricultural Adjustment Act of 1938, as amended, a national marketing quota for fire-cured tobacco and a national marketing quota for dark air-cured tobacco for the marketing year beginning October 1, 1949. A referendum of farmers who were engaged in the production of the 1948 crop of fire-cured tobacco and a referendum of farmers who were engaged in the production of the 1948 crop of dark air-cured tobacco will be held pursuant to the provisions of the Agricultural Adjustment Act of 1938, as amended, and applicable regulations, to determine whether such farmers are in favor of or opposed to such quotas and to determine whether such farmers are in favor of or opposed to fire-cured and dark air-cured tobacco marketing quotas for the three-year period beginning October 1, 1949.

Registration. The operator on each farm on which fire-cured or dark air-cured tobacco was produced in 1948 should inform a county or community committeeman of the names and addresses of all persons sharing in the proceeds of such crop in order that their names may be listed on the register of eligible voters. The eligibility to vote of any person may be challenged if his name is not recorded on the registration list.

Eligibility to vote. 1. All persons engaged in the production of the 1948 crop of fire-cured tobacco are eligible to vote in the fire-cured tobacco marketing quota referendum and farmers who were engaged in the production of the 1948 crop of dark air-cured tobacco are eligible to vote in the dark air-cured tobacco marketing quota referendum. Any person who shares in the proceeds of the 1948 crop of fire-cured or dark air-cured tobacco as owner (other than a landlord of a standing-rent or fixed-rent tenant), tenant, or share cropper, is considered as engaged in the production of such crop of tobacco in 1948.

2. If several members of the same family participate in the production of the 1948 crop of fire-cured or dark air-cured tobacco on a farm, the only member or members of such family who shall be eligible to vote shall be the member or members of the family who have an independent bona fide status as operator, share tenant, or share cropper, and are entitled as such to share in the proceeds of the 1948 crop.

3. No person shall be eligible to vote in any community other than the community in which he resides except as follows:

(a) Any person who resides in a community in which there is no polling place shall be eligible to vote at the polling place designated for the community nearest to the community in which he was engaged in the production of fire-cured or dark air-cured tobacco in 1948.

(b) Any person who does not reside in or who will not be present in the county in which he engaged in the production of fire-cured or dark air-cured tobacco in 1948 may obtain a ballot at the most conveniently located polling place and may cast his ballot by signing his name thereto and mailing it to the office of the county committee in which he engaged in the production of tobacco in 1948 not later than the date of the referendum.

4. There shall be no voting by mail (except as provided in paragraph 3 above), by proxy, or by agent, but a duly authorized officer of a corporation, association, or other legal entity, or a duly authorized member of a partnership, may cast its vote.

5. Persons who planted tobacco in the field in 1948 but did not harvest any tobacco on such acreage for any reason except neglect to farm the planted acreage shall be regarded as engaged in the production of tobacco in 1948 and therefore eligible to vote in the referendum. Any farmer who did not plant tobacco in the field shall not be eligible to vote.

6. No person (whether an individual, partnership, corporation, association or other legal entity) shall be entitled to more than one vote in the referendum even though he may have been engaged in the production of tobacco on several farms in the same or in two or more communities, counties, or States in 1948.

7. In the event two or more persons were engaged in producing tobacco in 1948 not as members of a partnership but as tenants in common or joint tenants or as owners of community property, each such person shall be eligible to vote.

FEDERAL POWER COMMISSION

[Docket No. E-6177]

NEW ENGLAND POWER CO. AND EASTERN MASSACHUSETTS ELECTRIC CO.

NOTICE OF APPLICATION

NOVEMBER 9, 1948.

Notice is hereby given that on November 8, 1948, a joint application was filed with the Federal Power Commission, pursuant to section 203 of the Federal Power Act, by New England Power Company (New England) and Eastern Massachusetts Electric Company (Eastern), corporations organized under the laws of the State of Massachusetts, with their principal business offices at Boston, Massachusetts, seeking an order authorizing the merger of Eastern into and with New England. New England proposes to issue 83,242 additional shares of its Common Stock of an aggregate par value of $1,664,840 in exchange for the outstanding shares of Eastern. All of the operating facilities of Eastern are to be included in the proposed merger; all as more fully appears in the application on file with the Commission.

Any person desiring to be heard, or to make any protest with reference to said application should, on or before the 26th day of November, 1948, file with the Federal Power Commission, Washington 25, D. C., a petition or protest in accordance with the Commission's rules of practice and procedure.

ORDER SUPPLEMENTING ORDER OF OCTOBER 26, 1948, FIXING DATE OF HEARING, REQUIRING PARTIES TO SHOW CAUSE, AND REQUIRING MAINTENANCE OF STATUS QUO PENDING COMMISSION DETERMINATION

NOVEMBER 10, 1948.

It appears to the Commission from the investigation thus far conducted in the above-entitled proceeding and from the record in its Docket Nos. G-706 and G-876 which is incorporated herein by reference, that:

(a) Panhandle Eastern Pipe Line Company (Panhandle) owns and operates, and at all times herein mentioned, owned and operated, an integrated natural-gas pipe-line system originating in the Hugoton natural-gas field of Kansas, Oklahoma and Texas and the Panhandle natural-gas field of Texas, and extending across the States of Oklahoma, Kansas, Missouri, Illinois, Indiana and Ohio and into the State of Michigan.

(b) At all times herein mentioned prior to October 1948, Panhandle owned certain oil and gas leases and gas leases on 96,164.21 acres of land located in Grant and Stevens Counties, Kansas, in the Hugoton natural-gas field, having estimated gas reserves of 700 billion cubic feet or in excess thereof.

(c) On September 23, 1942, the Commission issued its opinion and order in rate proceedings, Docket Nos. G-200 and G-207, establishing, among other things, Panhandle's proper rate base and proper operating revenue deductions for the purposes of such rate proceedings (3 F. P. C. 273, et seq.). Most of the leases described in paragraph (b) hereof were represented by Panhandle in the said rate proceedings to be used and useful in the operation of Panhandle's then existing natural-gas pipe-line facilities in the public service. Based upon said representations and the apparent dedication by Panhandle of such reserves to the service of the public to be supplied from such pipe-line system, the Commission permitted said leases to be included in Panhandle's rate base, and permitted the delay rentals, renewal bonus payments and all other exploration and development costs relating to said leases to be included in Panhandle's operating revenue deductions.

(d) On March 21, 1946, In the Matter of Panhandle Eastern Pipe Line Company, Docket No. G-706, Panhandle filed an application with the Commission for a certificate of public convenience and necessity pursuant to section 7 of the Natural Gas Act, as amended, to authorize it to construct and operate certain facilities referred to as its "Group A" facilities and "Group B" facilities.

(e) On March 5, 1947, In the Matter of Panhandle Eastern Pipe Line Company, Docket No. G-876, Panhandle filed an application with the Commission for a certificate of public convenience and necessity pursuant to said section 7, as amended, to authorize it to construct and operate certain facilities referred to as its "Group C" facilities.

(f) All of such proposed facilities consisted of compressor units, pipe lines, loop pipe lines and appurtenant facilities at points along the route of Panhandle's aforementioned integrated system, and were sought for the purpose of enlarging such system so as to enable Panhandle to deliver additional natural gas for distribution in communities then served by the system.

(g) In support of its application in Docket No. G-706 respecting the "Group A" and "Group B" facilities, Panhandle represented to the Commission that gas reserves held or controlled by it were adequate to justify the issuance of certificates of public convenience and necessity covering such facilities, and that it was able and willing properly to do the acts and to perform the service proposed. Panhandle represented and specified certain acreage in the Hugoton and Panhandle fields as containing such reserves, and included among such acreage the 96,164.21 acres referred to in paragraph (b) hereof, except for 25,065.88 acres, 73.9% of such 96,164.21 acres being thereby included as part of the acreage making up such reserves.

(h) Upon the strength of such representations, and the apparent dedication by Panhandle of such reserves to the service of the public to be supplied from such pipe-line system, the Commission, on June 4, 1946, entered an order whereby it found that Panhandle's gas supply was adequate to meet such deliveries as might result from the proposed operation of the "Group A" facilities, and that Panhandle was able and willing properly to do the acts and perform the service proposed, and whereby it issued a certificate of public convenience and necessity to Panhandle authorizing the construction and operation of said "Group A" facilities.

(i) Upon the further strength of such representations and apparent dedication, the Commission, on November 30, 1946, entered an order whereby it found that Panhandle's gas supply was adequate to meet the requirements of the service to be rendered by means of the proposed "Group B" facilities and that Panhandle was able and willing properly to do the acts and to perform the service proposed, and whereby it issued a certificate of public convenience and necessity to Panhandle authorizing the construction and operation of said "Group B" facilities.

(j) In support of its application in Docket No. G-876 respecting the "Group C" facilities, Panhandle represented to the Commission that gas reserves held or controlled by it were adequate to justify the issuance of the certificate sought, and that it was able and willing properly to do the acts and to perform the service proposed. Panhandle represented and specified certain acreage in the Hugoton and Panhandle fields as containing such reserves, and included among such acreage, all of the 96,164.21 acres referred to in paragraph (b) hereof except for 1,640 acres, 98.3% of such 96,164.21 acres being thereby included as part of the acreage making up such reserves.

(k) Upon the strength of such representations, and the apparent dedication by Panhandle of such reserves to the service of the public to be supplied from such pipe-line system, the Commission, on June 10, 1948, entered an order whereby it found that Panhandle's gas supply was adequate to meet the requirements of the service to be rendered by means of the proposed facilities and that Panhandle was able and willing properly to do the acts and to perform the service proposed, and whereby it issued a certificate of public convenience and necessity to Panhandle authorizing the construction and operation of the "Group C" facilities.

(l) By its representations as described in paragraph (c) hereof Panhandle may have pledged the aforementioned reserves to service of the public by means of its then existing pipe line facilities, and by its representations as described in paragraphs (g), (h), (i), (j) and (k) hereof, Panhandle may have pledged the aforementioned reserves to the aforesaid services and facilities proposed by it and authorized by the Commission, and thereby may have incurred an obligation under the Natural Gas Act to continue to devote them exclusively to said services until determination by the Commission that they are not needed for the services so certificated.

(m) On September 22, 1948, Panhandle organized Hugoton Production Company (Hugoton), a Delaware corporation, which has an authorized capital stock consisting of 1,500,000 shares of $1.00 par value.

(n) On or shortly before October 11, 1948, Panhandle and Hugoton entered, or attempted to enter, into a contract, whereby Hugoton agreed to issue 810,000 shares of its stock to Panhandle, and Panhandle agreed, in consideration thereof, to pay to Hugoton the sum of $675,000 in cash and to transfer, assign and convey to Hugoton the oil and gas leases and gas leases covering the 96,164.21 acres referred to in paragraph (b) hereof, together with certain oil leases covering 640 additional acres. It was further understood and agreed between Panhandle and Hugoton that Hugoton would promptly proceed to develop the acreage to be transferred to it and attempt to negotiate sales of gas therefrom to purchasers other than Panhandle; however, that beginning on January 1, 1965, Panhandle would have the option to purchase all gas produced from these leases at such price as Hugoton could then obtain from others. The parties contemplated that under expected rates of withdrawal of gas from the leases transferred to Hugoton during the period of 1965, Hugoton would produce and sell approximately 300 billion cubic feet of gas.

(o) On October 11, 1948, pursuant to such agreement or purported agreement, Hugoton issued the 810,000 shares of its stock to Panhandle; and the sum of $675,000 in cash was paid by Panhandle to Hugoton, and the aforementioned leases were transferred, assigned and conveyed, or attempted to be transferred, assigned and conveyed, by Panhandle to Hugoton.

(p) Such 810,000 shares of stock comprise all of the outstanding stock of Hugoton, and Hugoton is the wholly-owned subsidiary of Panhandle. All of the officers and directors of Hugoton are officers and directors of Panhandle. The sole office of Hugoton, other than its statutory office in the State of its incorporation, is the executive office of Panhandle in New York, New York. Hugoton has no executive officers or employees other than those employed by and paid by Panhandle. Its present assets consist only of the $675,000 cash and the aforementioned leases.

(q) On October 11, 1948, the Board of Directors of Panhadle declared a dividend in kind at the rate of one-half share of the capital stock of Hugoton for each of 1,620,000 outstanding shares of common stock of Panhandle. Panhandle proposes, on or before November 17, 1948, to pay this dividend to its common stockholders.

(r) The loss of the gas reserves represented by the leases on the 96,164.21 acres referred to in paragraph (b) hereof, may tend to decrease the service life of the aforementioned "Group A," "Group B" and "Group C" facilities.

(s) In the aforementioned orders of the Commission of June 4, 1946, November 30, 1946 and June 10, 1948, issuing certificates of convenience and necessity, the authorization thereby granted, in the instance of each of such orders, was upon the express condition that the certificate should be effective only so long as Panhandle continued the operations thereby authorized in accordance with the provisions of the Natural Gas Act, as amended, and any pertinent rules, regulations or orders theretofore or thereafter issued by the Commission.

(t) By reason of the facts and circumstances hereinbefore set out, it may be that Panhandle could not lawfully transfer to Hugoton said natural gas leases without prior authorization by this Commission based on a finding that the public convenience and necessity permitted such transfer.

The Commission finds that:

Good cause exists for supplementing its order of October 26, 1948, in this proceeding as hereinafter provided, for holding a public hearing upon the matters and issues involved herein, for requiring Panhandle and Hugoton to show cause as hereinafter specified, and for maintaining the status quo pending the Commission's decision upon the question presented.

The Commission orders that:

(A) The order instituting investigation, dated October 26, 1948, In the Matter of Panhandle Eastern Pipe Line Company, Docket No. G–1147, be and the same is hereby supplemented by adding Hugoton Production Company as a party respondent thereto.

(B) A public hearing be held commencing on January 24, 1949, at 10:00 a. m. (e. s. t.) in the Hearing Room of the Federal Power Commission, 1800 Pennsylvania Avenue NW., Washington, D. C., respecting the matters involved and the issues presented in these proceedings.

(C) At such hearing, Panhandle and Hugoton show cause, under oath, if any there be, why the Commission should not by order, find, determine and direct:

(i) That Panhandle and Hugoton cancel the contract, or purported contract, referred to in paragraph (n) hereof, and that Panhandle return to Hugoton the aforesaid 810,000 shares of capital stock of Hugoton, and cause Hugoton to return to Panhandle, and that Hugoton return to Panhandle, the leases on the 96,164.21 acres referred to in paragraph (b) hereof, together with the $675,000 in cash received by Hugoton as aforesaid from Panhandle.

(ii) That Panhandle be prohibited from again transferring, assigning or conveying such leases without the consent of the Commission being first had and obtained.

(iii) That Panhandle refrain from paying to its stockholders, as a dividend or otherwise, such 810,000 shares of the capital stock of Hugoton, and refrain from transferring the title to such shares of stock to such stockholders or to any person other than Hugoton.

(D) Pending final determination by the Commission of the questions presented at the hearing, Panhandle refrain from the acts described in paragraph (C) (iii) hereof, and cause Hugoton to refrain from transferring, assigning or conveying the leases, described in paragraph (b) hereof, or any of them, to any person, and from issuing or transferring any of its capital stock to any person.

(E) Pending final determination by the Commission of the question presented at the hearing, Hugoton refrain from transferring, assigning or conveying the leases, described in paragraph (b) hereof, or any of them, to any person, and from issuing or transferring any of its capital stock to any person.

(F) Interested State commissions may participate as provided by §§ 1.8 and 1.37 (f) of the Commission's rules of practice and procedure.

Date of issuance: November 10, 1948.

By the Commission.

SECURITIES AND EXCHANGE COMMISSION

[File No. 70–1983]

ROCHESTER GAS AND ELECTRIC CORP. AND GENERAL PUBLIC UTILITIES CORP.

NOTICE OF FILING

At a regular session of the Securities and Exchange Commission, held at its office in the city of Washington, D. C., on the 8th day of November 1948.

Notice is hereby given that General Public Utilities Corporation ("GPU"), a registered holding company, and its subsidiary, Rochester Gas and Electric Corporation ("Rochester"), have filed a joint application-declaration with this Commission pursuant to the Public Utility Holding Company Act of 1935 ("act"). Applicants-declarants have designated sections 6 (b) and 12 (b) of the act and Rule U-45 promulgated thereunder as applicable to the proposed transactions.

All interested persons are referred to said joint application-declaration which is on file in the office of this Commission for a statement of the transactions therein proposed which are summarized as follows:

On April 2, 1948, the Commission, subject to certain conditions, granted an application of Rochester which permitted it to issue and sell, and renew for a period of two years from the date of that order, promissory notes each of which was to have a maturity of nine months or less, in an aggregate principal amount which might not exceed $16,000,000. On the same date the Commission permitted a declaration of GPU to become effective so as to permit it to make, from time to time up to January 31, 1951, cash capital contributions to Rochester, the amount of such contributions to be not in excess of (a) $300,000 plus (b) an amount not in excess of the aggregate amount of dividends on Rochester's common stock theretofore declared and paid by Rochester to GPU from and after June 30, 1947. On April 19, 1948, Rochester obtained the authorization of its preferred shareholders to permit it to issue or renew unsecured notes, debentures, or other securities representing unsecured indebtedness which may not mature later than December 31, 1953, in an aggregate principal amount outstanding at ony one time not more than $12,500,000 in addition to the amount which the company might issue under its articles of incorporation without the prior consent of the holders of its outstanding preferred stock, which amount is defined as being ten per centum of the aggregate of the principal amount of its outstanding secured debt and its capital and surplus as stated on the books.

Rochester now requests authorization from this Commission, pursuant to the first sentence of section 6 (b) of the act, to permit it to issue and sell, from time to time, its unsecured notes, each of which will bear interest in an amount not to exceed 3% per annum, will mature not more than nine months after the date of issue thereof, and which (together with all other then outstanding unsecured notes of a maturity of nine months or less) will aggregate in principal amount outstanding at any one time not more than $12,500,000 in addition to the amount of unsecured notes, debentures, or other securities representing unsecured indebetedness which it might issue under its articles of incorporation without the prior consent of the holders of its outstanding preferred stock, and that such exemption with respect to the issuance or renewal of such notes be for a period of two years from the date upon which such authorizations may be granted. As at September 30, 1948, the amount of unsecured notes, debentures, or other securities representing unsecured indebetedness which Rochester might issue under its articles of incorporation without the prior consent of its preferred shareholders was $7,769,978. The proceeds from the issuance of such notes are to be used for new construction or to liquidate notes, the proceeds of which were used for new construction.

GPU as the holder of all the common stock of Rochester requests authority to make, from time to time during the period July 29, 1947 to August 29, 1951, cash capital contributions to Rochester, the amount of such contributions to be not in excess of the sum of (a) $300,000, plus (b) an amount equal to the aggregate amount of dividends on Rochester's common stock theretofore declared and paid by Rochester to GPU from and after June 30, 1947.

Applicants-declarants state that the transactions are not subject to the jurisdiction of any Commission other than this Commission.

Notice is further given that any interested person may, not later than November 18, 1948, at 5:30 p. m., e. s. t., request the Commission in writing that a hearing be held on such matter, stating the reasons for such request, the nature of his interest and the issues of fact or law raised by said joint application-declaration, as amended, which he desires to controvert, or may request that he be notified if the Commission should order a hearing thereon. Any such request should be addressed: Secretary, Securities and Exchange Commission, 425 Second Street NW., Washington 25, D. C. At any time after November 18, 1948, said joint application-declaration, as filed or as further amended, may be permitted to become effective as provided in Rule U-23 of the rules and regulations promulgated under the act, or the Commission may exempt such transaction as provided in Rules U-20 (a) and U-100 thereof.

By the Commission.

In the matter of North American Light & Power Company, the Kansas Power and Light Company, and Missouri Power & Light Company.

North American Light & Power Company ("Light & Power"), a registered holding company and a subsidiary of the North American Company, also a registered holding company, and the Kansas Power and Light Company ("Kansas"), and Missouri Power & Light Company ("Missouri"), public utility subsidiaries of Light & Power, having filed a joint application and declaration pursuant to the provisions of sections 6, 7, 9 (a), 10 and 12 (f) of the Public Utility Holding Company Act of 1935 ("act") and the rules and regulations promulgated thereunder regarding the following transactions:

(1) Kansas will amend its Articles of Incorporation so as to reduce the par value of its common stock from $10 per share to $5 per share, and to change the total authorized amount of its common stock from 2,000,000 shares of a par value of $10 per share to 4,000,000 shares of a par value of $5 per share.

(2) Kansas will issue 3,100,000 shares of new common stock in exchange for 1,550,000 shares of common stock presently outstanding.

(3) Light & Power will acquire the 3,100,000 shares of new common stock of Kansas in exchange for the 1,550,000 shares of common stock which it holds.

(4) Missouri will amend its Articles of Incorporation so as to reduce the par value of its common stock from $20 per share to $5 per share, and to change the total authorized amount of its common stock from 375,000 shares of a par value of $20 per share to 1,500,000 shares of a par value of $5 per share.

(5) Missouri will issue 1,060,000 shares of new common stock in exchange for 265,000 shares of common stock presently outstanding.

(6) Light & Power will acquire the 1,060,000 shares of new common stock to be issued by Missouri in exchange for 265,000 shares of common stock which it holds.

A public hearing having been held after appropriate notice, and the Commission having considered the record in this matter and having made and filed its findings and opinion herein:

It is ordered, Pursuant to the applicable provisions of the act and the rules and regulations promulgated thereunder, that the aforesaid applicant-declaration, be, and hereby is, granted, and permitted to become effective, forthwith, subject to the terms and conditions prescribed in Rule U-24.

By the Commission.

KITTERY ELECTRIC LIGHT CO.

ORDER GRANTING APPLICATION

At a regular session of the Securities and Exchange Commission, held at its office in the city of Washington, D. C., on the 9th day of November 1948.

Kittery Electric Light Company ("Kittery"), a subsidiary of New England Gas and Electric Association, a registered holding company, having filed an application pursuant to section 6 (b) of the Public Utility Holding Company Act of 1935 for exemption from the provisions of section 6 (a) of the act of the issue and sale to the Maine Savings Bank of Portland, Maine, of $50,000 principal amount of unsecured 3½% serial notes maturing September 1, 1973, the proceeds therefrom to be used to pay existing notes maturing February 21, 1949 in the principal amount of $10,500 and to provide cash for construction and other corporate purposes; and the issue and sale of such notes having been expressly authorized by the Public Utilities Commission of the State of Maine by order dated September 10, 1948; and

Said application having been duly filed, and notice of said filing having been given in the form and manner prescribed by Rule U-23 promulgated pursuant to said act and the Commission not having received a request for hearing with respect to said application within the period specified in said notice, or otherwise, and not having ordered a hearing thereon; and

The Commission finding that the applicable requirements of the act are satisfied, and deeming it appropriate in the public interest and in the interest of investors and consumers that said application be granted;

It is hereby ordered, Pursuant to Rule U-23 and the applicable provisions of the act and subject to the terms and conditions prescribed in Rule U-24, that the application be, and the same hereby is, granted forthwith.

By the Commission.

NORTH AMERICAN CO. ET AL.

ORDER GRANTING MOTION, DISMISSING APPLICATION-DECLARATION, DENYING PETITION AND PERMITTING WITHDRAWAL OF PLAN

At a regular session of the Securities and Exchange Commission, held at its office in the city of Washington, D. C., on the 4th day of November A. D. 1948.

In the matter of the North American Company et al., File Nos. 59–10 and 54–82; North American Light & Power Company et al., File Nos. 59–39 and 54–50; the North American Company, Union Electric Company of Missouri, File No. 70–1833.

The North American Company ("North American"), a registered holding company, and its subsidiary, Union Electric Company of Missouri ("Union"), having filed an application-declaration covering the proposed transfer as a capital contribution by North American of its holdings of all of the oustanding capital stock of West Kentucky Coal Company to Union and said application-declaration having been treated as constituting a request that the Commission modify its outstanding order dated April 14, 1942, which directed North American to sever its relationship with West Kentucky Coal Company; and

The Trustees of Central States Electric Corporation et al., stockholders of North American, having filed a motion for the dismissal of the said application-declaration; and

The said Trustees also having filed a petition seeking to restrain the contemplated acquisition by North American of certain securities to be received by it in connection with the pending liquidation of North American's subsidiary registered holding company, North American Light & Power Company; and

North American having filed on May 12, 1948, a notification of withdrawal of its Plan III previously filed as a part of its over-all program for compliance with said order dated April 14, 1942; and

Oral argument having been held on the said motion and petition, and North American and Union having filed, pursuant to the direction of the Commission, an offer of proof summarizing the evidence which they proposed to present in support of their contention that there has been a material change of circumstances sufficient to warrant modification of the Commission's order of April 14, 1942;

The Commission having considered the said offer of proof and having this day issued its findings and opinion, on the basis of the said findings and opinion

It is ordered, That the said motion of the Trustees of Central States Electric Corporation be and it hereby is granted, and that the said application-declaration be and it is hereby dismissed;

It is further ordered, That the said petition of the Trustees of Central States Electric Corporation be and it hereby is, in all respects, denied.

It appearing appropriate that permission be given to North American to withdraw Plan III pursuant to the aforesaid notice of withdrawal;

It is further ordered, That the said Plan III be and hereby is permitted to be withdrawn.

ENGINEERS PUBLIC SERVICE CO. (INC.)

ORDER GRANTING APPLICATION

At a regular session of the Securities and Exchange Commission held at its office in the city of Washington, D. C., on the 9th day of November A. D. 1948.

Engineers Public Service Company (Incorporated), a registered holding company now in process of liquidation pursuant to a plan approved under section 11 (e) of the Public Utility Holding Company act of 1935, having filed an application pursuant to sections 9 (a) (1) and 10 of said act with respect to the following transaction:

Applicant owns 162,612 shares (approximately 5.5%) of the common stock of Virginia Electric and Power Company. The latter company has proposed to issue to the holders of record of its common stock on November 12, 1948 rights to subscribe to additional common stock on the basis of one additional share for each four shares then held, at a price to be determined on or about said date. Such rights must be exercised on or before 3:30 p. m. on December 1, 1948.

The instant application relates to the acquisition by applicant of its ratable share of such rights on or about November 15, 1948. Thereafter, applicant proposes to sell said rights during the subscription period through or to various members of the New York Stock Exchange at the best market prices obtainable.

The only expense other than regular brokerage commissions will be legal fees, estimated at $500.

Such application having been duly filed, and notice of its filing having been duly given in the form and manner prescribed by Rule U-23 promulgated pursuant to said act, and the Commission not having received a request for a hearing with respect thereto within the period specified in said notice or otherwise, and not having ordered a hearing thereon; and

It appearing to the Commission that there is no State Commission having jurisdiction over the proposed transaction; that the sale of said rights is exempt from section 12 (d) of the act by virtue of Rule U-44 (b); and that it is appropriate in the public interest and in the interests of investors and consumers to grant applicant's request to consummate without delay the proposed transaction:

It is therefore ordered, Pursuant to Rule U-23 and the applicable provisions of the act, and subject to the terms and conditions prescribed by Rule U-24, that the application be and the same is hereby granted, and that the proposed transaction may be consummated forthwith.

By the Commission.

TITLE 5—ADMINISTRATIVE PERSONNEL

Chapter I—Civil Service Commission

PART 6—EXCEPTIONS FROM THE COMPETITIVE SERVICE

MISCELLANEOUS AMENDMENTS

Under authority of § 6.1 (a) of Executive Order No. 9830, and at the request of the agencies concerned, paragraphs (a) and (b) of § 6.4 are amended as set out below, effective upon publication in the FEDERAL REGISTER.

1. Section 6.4 (a) (1) (vi) is amended by substituting "$800" for "$720". As amended, the subdivision reads as follows:

§ 6.4 Lists of positions excepted from the competitive service—(a) Schedule A. • • •

(1) Entire Executive Civil Service. • • •

(vi) NC/PD: Any position in which the appointee will receive compensation aggregating not more than $800 per annum, the duties of which are part-time or intermittent, but such appointments shall not be for job employment. In Washington, D. C., such appointments shall be subject to the prior approval of the Commission. All such employment shall be reported on the regular reports of personnel action; and in addition, unless payment is at a per annum rate of $800 or less, the total service rendered and its distribution shall be shown on reports submitted at the end of each calendar year; if separation occurs prior to the close of a calendar year, report should be submitted at the time of separation. Additional employment of the appointee by another agency, under similar conditions, shall be subject to the prior approval of the Commission.

2. The various exceptions of student assistants contained in § 6.4 are amended by substituting "$925" for "$832" wherever the latter sum appears. The paragraphs and subdivisions so amended will read as follows:

§ 6.4 Lists of positions excepted from the competitive service—(a) Schedule A. • • •

(2) State Department. • • •

(x) NC/PD: Student assistants whose salaries shall not aggregate more than $925 a year. APPROVAL OF INVESTORS

§ 590.1 Classification of investors. Such of the following may become an approved investor as the Commissioner shall find to be qualified by business experience and facilities to afford assurance of the necessary continuity of long-term investment and to have available the necessary capital required for long-term investment in the project and shall approve as eligible for insurance under Title VII of the National Housing Act:

(a) Any natural person;

(b) Any group of not more than ten natural persons;

(c) Any corporation, company, association, trust or other legal entity; or

(d) Any combination of two or more corporations, companies, associations, trusts or other legal entities having all the powers necessary to comply with the requirements of such title.

§ 590.2 Withdrawal of approval. Approval of an investor may be withdrawn by notice from the Commissioner at any time for cause deemed sufficient by the Commissioner, but no withdrawal will affect any commitment or contract of insurance theretofore entered into with such investors.

APPLICATION AND COMMITMENT

§ 590.3 Submission of application. Any approved investor may submit an application for insurance in connection with an investment which it proposes to make pursuant to the provisions of Title VII of the National Housing Act.

§ 590.4 Form of application. The application must be made upon a standard form prescribed by the Commissioner and filed at the local Federal Housing Administration office serving the area in which the property is located.

§ 590.5 Application and commitment fee. The application must be accompanied by the investor's check to cover an application fee computed at the rate of one dollar and fifty cents ($1.50) per thousand dollars ($1,000) of the estimated investment stated in the application, to cover the cost of analysis by the Commissioner, and at the time of delivery of the commitment a further sum (referred to as "commitment fee") shall be paid, which, when added to the application fee, will aggregate three dollars ($3.00) per thousand dollars ($1,000) of the estimated investment as specified in the commitment. If the application is refused as a result of preliminary examination by the Commissioner, the fee paid will be returned to the applicant, but no portion of the fee will be returned after further work has been performed following preliminary examination. If the amount of established investment is increased after insurance, the fees herein provided for shall be based upon the amount of such increase.

§ 590.6 Inspection fee. An inspection fee computed at the rate of two dollars ($2.00) per thousand dollars ($1,000) of the face amount of the commitment shall be paid as provided for in the commitment.

§ 590.7 Approval of application. Upon approval of an application a commitment will be issued upon a form approved by the Commissioner setting forth the terms and conditions upon which the insurance will be granted.

ELIGIBLE PROJECTS

§ 590.8 Project eligibility requirements. To be eligible for insurance, a project shall meet the following conditions:

(a) The Commissioner shall be satisfied that there is in the locality or metropolitan area of such project a need for new rental dwellings at rents comparable to the rents proposed to be charged for the dwellings in such project.

(b) The project shall be economically sound and shall contain at least twenty-five (25) dwelling units.

(c) The dwellings in such project shall be acceptable to the Commissioner as to quality, design, size and type.

(d) The investor shall establish in a manner satisfactory to the Commissioner that good and merchantable title in fee simple or under long-term leasehold (under a lease having a term of not less than ninty-nine (99) years which is renewable or under a lease having not less than sixty (60) years to run from the date of commitment to insure under Title VII of the act is executed) satisfactory to the Commissioner to the real estate to be included in the project is vested in the investor free and clear of liens and will so remain as long as the contract of insurance remains in force, and after completion of the project, the investor must establish that there are no outstanding unpaid obligations contracted in connection with the construction or completion of the project.

(e) The project may include, in addition to the dwellings, such stores, commercial or community facilities as the Commissioner shall determine to be necessary or desirable appurtenances to the project.

(f) The investor shall establish in a manner satisfactory to the Commissioner that it has and will make available sufficient funds to complete the project in accordance with the plans and specifications approved by the Commissioner.

RENTS

§ 590.9 Rental schedule. No charge shall be made by the investor for the dwelling accommodations offered by the project in excess of that provided in a rental schedule to be filed with the Commissioner and approved by him or his duly constituted representative prior to the opening of the project for rental: Provided, That in no event shall the rent proposed to be charged or collected for any dwelling in the project, including charges for heat and other customary services as determined by the Commissioner, exceed one hundred and twenty dollars ($120) per month, nor shall the average rental for all dwellings in the project exceed one hundred dollars ($100) per month.

§ 590.10 Charges in addition to maximum rental. The established maximum rental shall be the maximum authorized charge against any tenant for the dwelling accommodations offered exclusive of telephone, gas, electric, and refrigeration services. Charges in addition to such maximum rental may be made against a tenant for telephone, gas, electric, refrigeration, and other facilities and privileges furnished by the investor, but only with the approval of the Commissioner. No additional amounts may be required from a tenant in the nature of security deposits as a condition to occupancy of such units without the prior approval of the Commissioner.

TITLE

§ 590.11 Title. At the time the contract of insurance is executed the investor shall furnish to the Commissioner a survey satisfactory to him and a policy of title insurance as provided in paragraph (a) of this section: Provided, however, That in the event the investor is unable to furnish such policy for reasons satisfactory to the Commissioner the investor, without expense to the Commissioner, shall furnish evidence of title as prescribed in paragraphs (b), (c) or (d) of this section as the Commissioner may require.

(a) An owner's policy of title insurance issued by a company satisfactory to the Commissioner in such form and amount as may be approved by the Commissioner. Such policy shall run to the investor and the Commissioner as their respective interests may appear and may contain such exceptions, restrictions and limitations as are approved by the Commissioner.

(b) An abstract of title satisfactory to the Commissioner prepared by an abstract company or individual engaged in the business of preparing abstracts of title, accompanied by a legal opinion satisfactory to the Commissioner as to the quality of such title signed by an attorney experienced in the examination of titles.

(c) A Torrens or similar title certificate.

(d) Evidence of title conforming to the standards of a supervising branch of the Government of the United States of America or of any State or Territory thereof.

EFFECTIVE DATE

§ 590.12 Effective date. The Administrative rules in this part are effective as to all projects on which a commitment to insure under Title VII is issued on or after November 12, 1948.

AUTHORITY: §§ 591.1 to 591.11 issued under sec. 401, Pub. Law 901, 80th Cong.

§ 591.1 Citation. The regulations in this part may be cited and referred to as "Regulations of the Federal Housing Commissioner under Title VII of the National Housing Act, issued November 12, 1948".

§ 591.2 Definitions. As used in this part, the following terms shall have the meanings respectively ascribed to them below, and unless the context clearly indicates otherwise, shall include the plural as well as the singular number.

(a) The term "Commissioner" shall mean the Federal Housing Commissioner.

(b) The term "act" shall mean the National Housing Act, as amended.

(c) The term "contract of insurance" shall mean the written instrument duly executed by the Commissioner and the investor, setting forth the terms, conditions and provisions of insurance.

(d) The term "investor" shall mean the insured named in the contract of insurance.

(e) The term "project" shall mean a project (including all property, real and personal, contracts, rights and choses in action acquired, owned or held by the investor in connection therewith) of an investor designed and used primarily for the purpose of providing dwellings, the occupancy of which is permitted by the investor in consideration of agreed charges, and may include such stores, offices, commercial, community or other facilities as the Commissioner may approve.

(f) The term "estimated investment" shall mean the estimated cost of the development of the project as stated in the application submitted to the Commissioner for insurance under Title VII of the act and the regulations in this part.

(g) The term "establishment investment" shall mean the amount of the reasonable costs as approved by the Commissioner, incurred by the investor in, and necessary for, carrying out all works and undertakings for the development of the project, and shall include the premium charge for the first operating year and the cost of all necessary surveys, plans and specifications, architectural, engineering, or other special services, land acquisition, site preparation, construction and equipment; a reasonable return on the funds of the investor paid out in the course of the development of the project up to, and including, the initial occupancy date; necessary expenses in connection with the initial occupancy of the project; and the cost of such items as the Commissioner shall determine to be necessary for the development of the project:

(1) Less the amount by which the rents and revenues derived from the project up to, and including, the initial occupancy date exceeded the reasonable and proper expenses as approved by the Commissioner, incurred by the investor in, and necessary for, operating and maintaining said project up to, and including, the initial occupancy date, or

(2) Plus the amount by which such expenses exceeded such rents and revenues as the case may be: Provided, That the amount of the established investment so determined and approved by the Commissioner as of the date of initial occupancy of the project shall be subject to adjustment from time to time pursuant to the authority contained in section 712 of the act, and in accordance with the regulations in this part, to provide for increases, in such amounts as the Commissioner determines, if the investor makes capital improvements or additions to the project, or to provide for decreases, in such amounts as the Commissioner determines, if any part of the project is sold or transferred.

(h) The term "physical completion date" shall mean the last day of the calendar month in which the Commissioner determines that the construction of the project is substantially completed and substantially all of the dwellings therein are available for occupancy.

(i) The term "initial occupancy date" shall mean the last day of the calendar month in which ninety per centum (90%) in number of the dwellings in the project on the physical completion date shall have been occupied, but shall in no event be later than the last day of the sixth calendar month next following the physical completion date.

(j) The term "operating year" shall mean the period of twelve (12) consecutive calendar months next following the initial occupancy date and each succeeding period of twelve (12) consecutive calendar months, and the period of the first twelve (12) consecutive calendar months next following the initial occupancy date shall be the first operating year.

(k) The term "gross income" for any operating year shall mean the total rents and revenues and other income derived from, or in connection with, the project during such operating year.

(l) The term "operating expenses" for any operating year shall mean the amounts, as approved by the Commissioner, necessary to meet the reasonable and proper costs of, and to provide for, operating and maintaining the project, and to establish and maintain reasonable and proper reserves for repairs, maintenance, and replacements, and other necessary reserves during such operating year, and shall include necessary expenses for real estate taxes, special assessments, premium charges made pursuant to Title VII of the act and the regulations in this part, administrative expenses, the annual rental under any lease pursuant to which the real property comprising the site of the project is held by the investor, and insurance charges, together with such other expenses as the Commissioner shall determine to be necessary for the proper operation and maintenance of the project, but shall not include income taxes.

(m) The term "net income" for any operating year shall mean gross income remaining after the payment of the operating expenses.

(n) The term "minimum annual amortization charge" shall mean an amount equal to two per centum (2%) of the established investment, except that in the case of a project where the real property comprising the site thereof is held by the investor under a lease, if (notwithstanding the proviso of § 591.3) the gross income for any operating year shall be less than the amount required to pay the operating expenses (including the annual rental under such lease), the minimum annual amortization charge for such operating year shall mean an amount equal to two per centum (2%) of the established investment plus the amount of the annual rental under such lease to the extent that the same is not paid from the gross income.

(o) The term "annual return" for any operating year shall mean the net income remaining after the payment of the minimum annual amortization charge.

(p) The term "insured annual return" shall mean an amount not to exceed two and three-quarters per centum (2¾%) per annum on the outstanding investment and shall be fixed in the commitment to insure or in the contract of insurance.

(q) The term "minimum annual return" for any operating year shall mean an amount equal to three and one-half per centum (3½%) of the outstanding investment for such operating year.

(r) The term "excess earnings" for any operating year shall mean the net income derived from the project in excess of the minimum annual amortization charge and the minimum annual return.

(s) The term "outstanding investment" for any operating year shall mean the established investment less an amount equal to:

(1) The aggregate of the minimum annual amortization charge for each preceding operating year plus

(2) The aggregate of the excess earnings, if any, during each preceding operating year applied, in addition to the minimum annual amortization charge, to amortization in accordance with the provisions of § 591.5,

Provided, That the outstanding investment for any operating year shall be subject to adjustment in such amounts as the Commissioner determines, pursuant to the authority contained in section 712 of the act and the regulations in this part, to provide for a reduction in such outstanding investment for any operating year pending the restoration of damage to the project caused by fire, flood, earthquake, tornado or other casualty.

§ 591.3 Premiums. The investor shall pay to the Commissioner an annual insurance premium in an amount equal to one-half of one per centum (½ of 1%) of the outstanding investment for the operating year for which such premium charge is payable without taking into account the excess earnings, if any, applied, in addition to the minimum amortization charge, to amortization of the outstanding investment. Such premium charge shall be payable annually in advance by the investor either in cash or debentures issued by the Commissoner under Title VII of the act at par plus accrued interest: Provided, That if in any operating year the gross income shall be less than the operating expenses, the premium charge payable during such operating year shall be waived, but only to the extent of the amount of the difference between such expenses and such income and subject to subsequent payment out of any excess earnings as hereinafter provided in § 591.5.

The first premium covering the first operating year shall be payable on the date the contract of insurance is executed and subsequent annual premiums shall be paid on or before the first day of each succeeding operating year until the project is acquired by the Commissioner or until the contract of insurance is otherwise terminated as hereinafter set forth. At the close of each operating year the premium payable in advance for such operating year may be adjusted to take into account any increase or decrease in the outstanding investment for such operating year pursuant to the authority contained in section 712 of the act and the regulations in this part, and any excess premiums collected shall be refunded to the investor and any deficiencies in the amount of the premium already collected and the amount found to be due for such operating year shall be paid by the investor.

§ 591.4 Contract of insurance. Upon compliance satisfactory to the Commissioner with the terms of the commitment to insure, the Commissioner and the investor shall execute the contract of insurance. The Commissioner and the investor shall thereafter be bound by the contract of insurance, subject to the provisions of the regulations in this part which shall form part of each such contract.

§ 591.5 Excess earnings. For all of the purposes of any insurance contract, fifty per centum (50%) of the excess earnings, if any, for any operating year may be applied, in addition to the minimum annual return, to return on the outstanding investment but only to the extent that such application thereof does not result in an annual return of more than five per centum (5%) of the outstanding investment for such operating year, and the balance of any such excess earnings shall be applied, in addition to the minimum annual amortization charge, to amortization of the outstanding investment: Provided, That if in any preceding operating years the gross income shall have been less than the operating expenses, such excess earnings shall be applied to the extent necessary in whole or in part, first, to the reimbursement of the amount of the difference between such expenses (exclusive of any premium charges previously waived under § 591.3) and such income, and second, to the payment of any premium charges previously waived hereunder.

§ 591.6 Supervision of investor—(a) Maintenance of books and records. The investor shall establish and maintain such books, records and accounts with respect to the insured project as may be prescribed by the Commissioner and will, in the judgment of the Commissioner, adequately and accurately reflect the condition and operations of the project. The investor shall agree to permit the Commissioner or his agent at all reasonable times upon request to examine any and all books, records, contracts, documents, and accounts of the investor which reflect in any way the condition or operations of the project.

(b) Financial and operating statements. With respect to each project, the contract of insurance shall provide that after the close of each operating year the investor shall submit to the Commissioner for approval a financial and operating statement covering such operating year in such form as the Commissioner may prescribe. If any such financial and operating statement shall not have been submitted or, for proper cause, shall not have been approved by the Commissioner, payment of any claim submitted by the investor may, at the option of the Commissioner, be withheld, in whole or in part, until such statement shall have been submitted and approved.

(c) Special information and reports. The investor shall furnish, at the request of the Commissioner or his agent, specific answers to questions upon which information is desired from time to time relating to the income, assets, liabilities, contracts, operation, rents, or condition of the property and any other information with respect to the investor or the project which may reasonably be required.

(d) Rents to conform with rental schedule. The investor shall charge and collect rents for the dwelling units in the project only in accordance with a rent schedule approved by the Commissioner. No change therein nor additional requirements in the nature of security deposits as a condition to occupancy of such units shall be made by the investor without the prior approval of the Commissioner.

(e) Increases and decreases in established investment. No capital expenditure for additions or improvements which would have the effect of increasing the established investment or no sale of any portion of the project which would have the effect of reducing the established investment shall be made without the prior written approval of the Commissioner. In no event shall the investor mortgage or pledge all or any part of the project as security for any debt so long as the contract of insurance remains in force.

§ 591.7 Payment of claims. If in any operating year the net income of a project is less than the aggregate of the minimum annual amortization charge and the insured annual return, the Commissioner, upon submission by the investor of a claim for the payment of the amount of the difference between such net income and the aggregate of the minimum annual amortization charge and the insured annual return, and after proof of the validity of such claim, shall pay to the investor in cash from the Housing Investment Insurance Fund the amount of such difference as determined by the Commissioner, but not exceeding in any event an amount equal to the aggregate of the minimum annual amortization charge and the insured annual return.

§ 591.8 Debentures—(a) Commissioner's right to acquire project. If the aggregate of the amounts paid to the investor pursuant to § 591.7 shall at any time equal or exceed fifteen per centum (15%) of the established investment, the Commissioner thereafter shall have the right, after written notice to the investor of his intention so to do, to acquire, as of the close of any operating year in which such notice is given, such project in consideration of the issuance and delivery to the investor of debentures having a total face value equal to ninety per centum (90%) of the outstanding investment for such operating year. In any such case, the investor shall be obligated to transfer and convey to the Commissioner good and merchantable title to the project undamaged by fire, earthquake, flood, tornado, or waste, and free and clear of all liens, encumbrances, and defects, except such as were approved by the Commissioner at the time the project was insured or may be approved by him at the time of such transfer, and shall furnish to the Commissioner satisfactory continuation of the title evidence approved at the time of insurance to, and including, the transfer to the Commissioner without cost to him. In the event the investor fails to meet the obligation described in the preceding sentence, the Commissioner may, at his option, terminate the insurance contract.

(b) Investor's right to convey project to Commissioner. If in any operating year the aggregate of the differences between the operating expenses (exclusive of any premium charges previously waived under § 591.3) and the gross income for the preceding operating years, less the aggregate of any deficits in such operating expenses reimbursed from excess earnings as hereinbefore provided in § 591.5, shall at any time equal or exceed five per centum (5%) of the established investment, the investor shall thereafter have the right, after written notice to the Commissioner of his intention so to do, to convey the project to the Commissioner, as of the close of any operating year in which such notice is given, and to receive from the Commissioner debentures having a total face value equal to ninety per centum (90%) of the outstanding investment for such operating year. In any such case, the investor shall be obligated to transfer and convey to the Commissioner good and merchantable title to the project, undamaged by fire, earthquake, flood, tornado, or waste, and free and clear of all liens, encumbrances and defects, except such as were approved by the Commissioner at the time the project was insured or may be approved by him at the time of such transfer, and shall furnish the Commissioner satisfactory continuation of the title evidence approved at the time of insurance to, and including, the transfer to the Commissioner without cost to him.

(c) Waste. The term "waste" as used in paragraphs (a) and (b) of this section means permanent or substantial injury caused by unreasonable use or abuse, and is not intended to include damage caused by ordinary wear and tear.

(d) Effect of Commissioner's acquisition of project. Upon the acquisition of a project by the Commissioner pursuant to this section, the insurance contract shall terminate.

(e) Date and terms of debentures. The debentures issued under Title VII of the act to any investor shall be issued in accordance with the provisions of section 708 of the act, shall be dated as of the first day of the operating year in which the project for which such debentures were issued was acquired by the Commissioner, shall bear interest at the rate of two and three-quarters per centum (2¾%) per annum, payable semi-annually on the first day of January and the first day of July of each year, and shall mature forty (40) years following the date of issuance thereof.

Such debentures shall be registered as to principal and interest and all or any such debentures may be redeemed at the option of the Commissioner with the approval of the Secretary of the Treasury at par and accrued interest on any interest payment date on three months' notice of redemption given in such manner as the Commissioner shall prescribe.

Such debentures shall be issued in multiples of fifty dollars ($50) and any difference not in excess of fifty dollars ($50) between the amount of debentures to which the investor is otherwise entitled hereunder and the aggregate face value of the debentures issued shall be paid in cash by the Commissioner to the investor.

§ 591.9 Termination and reinstatement of contract of insurance—(a) Termination of insurance contract at investor's option. The investor, after written notice to the Commissioner of his intention to do so, may terminate, as of the close of any operating year in which such notice is given, any contract of insurance, upon payment to the Commissioner of an adjusted premium charge of one per centum (1%) of the established investment but not in excess of the aggregate amount of the premium charges which the investor otherwise would have been required to pay if such contract of insurance had not been so terminated.

(b) Termination of insurance contract at Commissioner's option. The Commissioner may, at his option, terminate any insurance contract in the event that:

(1) The investor fails or refuses for a period of thirty (30) days after receipt of a demand by the Commissioner to pay insurance premiums in accordance with the provisions of § 591.3.

(2) The investor sells or transfers all or any part of the project without the approval of the Commissioner.

(3) The investor fails or refuses to comply with the requirements and submit to the supervision of the Commissioner in the manner and to the extent prescribed in § 591.6.

(c) Reinstatement of insurance contract. Upon application by the investor and compliance with such terms and conditions as may be required by the Commissioner in connection with the particular transaction any contract of insurance terminated pursuant to paragraph (b) of this section may be reinstated, subject to the investor making payment to the Commissioner of an amount equal to the insurance premiums which would have been due and payable if the contract of insurance had not been terminated.

(d) Expiration of insurance contract. Any insurance contract shall expire as of the first day of the operating year for which the outstanding investment amounts to not more than ten per centum (10%) of the established investment.

§ 591.10 Amendments. The regulations in this part may be amended by the Commissioner at any time and from time to time in whole or in part but such amendments shall not affect any contract of insurance or any commitment to insure issued prior thereto.

§ 591.11 Effective date. The regulations in this part shall be effective as to all contracts of insurance or commitments to insure issued subsequent to the date hereof.

Issued at Washington, D. C., November 12, 1948.

FRANKLIN D. RICHARDS,
Federal Housing Commissioner.

TITLE 34—NATIONAL MILITARY ESTABLISHMENT

Chapter V—Department of the Army

Subchapter A—Aid of Civil Authorities and Public Relations

PART 502—RELIEF ASSISTANCE

COMMERCIAL FREIGHT SHIPMENTS OF SUPPLIES BY VOLUNTARY NON-PROFIT RELIEF AGENCIES

Section 502.11 is added to Part 502, as follows:

§ 502.11 Commercial freight shipments of supplies by voluntary non-profit relief agencies—(a) Scope of section. Provided herein are the rules under which the Department of the Army, in order to further the efficient use of United States voluntary contributions for relief in the foreign countries hereinafter named, will pay ocean freight charges from United States ports to designated foreign ports of entry on supplies donated to or purchased by United States voluntary non-profit relief agencies registered with and recommended by the Advisory Committee on Voluntary Foreign Aid (hereinafter called "the Committee"), for distribution in Japan, Korea, and the Ryukyus Islands.

(b) Agencies within scope of this section. Any United States voluntary non-profit relief agency may make application to the Chief, Fiscal and Statistical Group, Office of the Food Administrator for Occupied Areas, Department of the Army, Washington 25, D. C., for reimbursement of ocean freight charges on shipments of supplies donated to or purchased by it for distribution within the foreign countries listed in paragraph (a) of this section, Provided:

(1) The agency is registered with and recommended by the Committee to the Department of the Army;

(2) The supplies are within the general program and projects of the agency as previously submitted to and approved by the Committee and are essential in support of such programs and projects;

(3) The agency's representatives to whom the supplies are consigned for distribution abroad are acceptable to the Committee;

(4) The Committee has notified the Department of the Army that:

(i) The agency is not engaged in commercial or political activities;

(ii) Contributions to the agency are eligible for tax exemption under income tax laws;

(iii) The agency is directed by an active and responsible board of American citizens who serve without compensation;

(iv) The accounts of the agency are regularly audited by a certified public accountant;

(v) The agency currently reports its activities and operations to the Committee including its budget and reports of income and expenditures, its transfer of funds, and its exports of commodities and such other information as the Committee may deem necessary, and such reports are open for public inspection;

(vi) The general program and projects by countries of operation of the agency have been approved by the Committee to permit the coordination of private agency programs with each other and with the programs of the Department of the Army in Japan, Korea, and the Ryukus Islands;

(vii) The Government of the country in which the supplies are distributed affords appropriate facilities for the necessary and economic operation of the agency's general program and projects;

(viii) The supplies are free of customs duties, other duties, tolls, and taxes;

(ix) The agency has assumed responsibility for noncommercial distribution of the supplies free of cost to the person or persons ultimately receiving them and distribution of the supplies is supervised by United States citizens, and such operations are appropriately identified as to their American character.

(c) Manner of payment of ocean freight charges. The Department of the Army will reimburse agencies qualified hereunder, to the extent of ocean freight charges paid by them for shipments made in conformity with this section: Provided, That application for such reimbursement on shipments made during the period July 1, 1948 through November 10, 1948, must be submitted to the Department by December 15, 1948; and on shipments made after the effective date of this section within thirty days of date of shipment, together with receipted invoices for such charges, supported by ocean bills of lading, showing that such charges are limited to the actual cost of transportation of the supplies from end of ship's tackle at the United States port of loading to end of ship's tackle at port of discharge, correctly assessed at the time of loading by the carrier for freight on a weight, measurement or unit basis, and free of any other charges.

(d) Refund by agencies. Any agency reimbursed hereunder will refund promptly to the Department of the Army upon demand the entire amount reimbursed (or such lesser amount as the Department may demand) whenever it is determined that the reimbursement was improper as being in violation of any of the provisions of the Foreign Assistance Act of 1948, any acts amendatory thereof, or supplemental thereto, any relevant appropriation acts, or any rules, regulations or procedures of the Department of the Army.

(e) Saving clause. The Secretary of the Army may waive, withdraw, or amend at any time or from time to time any or all of the provisions of this section.

(f) Effective date. This section is effective as of November 15, 1948. [Regs. 10 Nov. 1948, SAOSA] (Pub. Law 793, 80th Cong.)

Subchapter I—Transport

TRANSFER AND REVISION OF REGULATIONS

The material contained in Chapter IX of Title 10 is hereby revised and transferred to Chapter V, Title 34, and is redesignated Subchapter I, Parts 631 through 633, as follows:

Part
631 General transport regulations.
632 Charter and redelivery of vessels.
633 Transportation of individuals.

PART 631—GENERAL TRANSPORT REGULATIONS

TRANSPORTATION OF SUPPLIES

Sec.
631.1 Shipment of intoxicating liquors.

OVERSEA MOVEMENT OF INDIVIDUALS ON ARMY TRANSPORTS

631.2 Commercial passengers.
631.3 Transportation of individuals.
631.4 Stowaways and workaways.
631.5 Articles of an explosive or highly combustible nature excluded from baggage.
631.6 Transport messes.

AUTHORITY: §§ 631.1 to 631.6 issued under R. S. 161; 5 U. S. C. 22.

DERIVATION: AR 55-155, Nov. 27, 1942; AR 55-390, Dec. 16, 1942; AR 55-410, Oct. 6, 1942; AR 55-420, June 2, 1948.

TRANSPORTATION OF SUPPLIES

§ 631.1 Shipment of intoxicating liquors—(a) Laws covering. The transportation or importation into any State, Territory, or possession of the United States for delivery or use therein of intoxicating liquors, in violation of the laws thereof, is hereby prohibited. (Const., 21st amendment, sec. 2.) The laws of any State, Territory, or possession of the United States relative to intoxicating liquors are not applicable to the transportation of intoxicating liquors that are the property of the United States and intended as medical supplies for the treatment of the troops or of the animals pertaining to the Army.

(b) If carrier hesitates to accept or deliver. If a carrier should hesitate to accept at point of origin and/or deliver at destination a shipment containing intoxicating liquors that are the property of the United States and intended as medical supplies for the treatment of the troops or of the animals pertaining to the Army, the transportation officer at the point of origin and/or at destination, as the case may be, will obtain an appropriate certificate from the proper medical officer setting forth such ownership and intended use of the liquors. The transportation officer will deliver the certificate to the carrier and make record thereof.

OVERSEA MOVEMENT OF INDIVIDUALS ON ARMY TRANSPORTS

§ 631.2 Commercial passengers. Army transports will not normally be used for carrying commercial passengers. In an unusual public emergency and where military necessity demands, Army transports may be used for this purpose provided commercial space is not reasonably available. A reasonable charge for such transportation will be made as mutually arranged between the Chief of Transportation and the Maritime Commission.

§ 631.3 Transportation of individuals—(a) General. Requests for transportation of persons from the continental United States to oversea ports, except for officers and enlisted men of the Army, Navy, and Marine Corps, must contain a statement whether the respective oversea commander has either requested the personnel or approves their entrance into the military area under his jurisdiction.

(b) Officials and civilians. Requests for passage of all officials and civilians not provided for in Army Regulations will be directed to the Chief of Transportation for approval and forwarding to the proper port of embarkation for action.

(c) Female passengers. No female personnel except Army nurses and authorized Red Cross workers may be taken on outward voyages from the continental United States except when specific authorization has been given by the Chief of Transportation.

(d) Dependents. Transportation of dependents of military personnel and civilian employees to oversea departments and bases, including Alaska, by Army transport or otherwise, is prohibited.

(e) Civilian employees of Government stationed overseas. Requests for transportation from an oversea post will be submitted by the local representative of the bureau with which the employee is connected, inclosing true copy of orders.

(f) Secretaries of Young Men's Christian Association. Secretaries of the Army and Navy Department of the Young Men's Christian Association may be furnished transportation on Army transports upon request of the headquarters of that organization when accommodations are available.

(g) Panama Canal employees. Transportation may be furnished on Army transports, when accommodations are available, for male employees of the Panama Canal on outward voyages from the continental United States and for the employees and their immediate families on inward voyages from the Canal Zone upon payment of the same rates as are applicable upon vessels of the Panama Line. Orders for transportation must be obtained through the Governor of the Canal Zone or the Chief of Office, The Panama Canal, Washington, D. C.

(h) American Red Cross personnel. Requests will be submitted by Headquarters, American National Red Cross, or the headquarters representative at a port of embarkation.

(i) Officers and employees of territorial governments. Requests for transportation from officers and employees of the Hawaiian Government must bear the certificate of the Governor, Territory of Hawaii, that the applicant is an actual officer or employee. Transportation for officers and employees of the Pureto Rican Government from Puerto Rico is arranged through the Governor of Puerto Rico, and from the United States through the Director of Territories and Island Possessions, Department of the Interior. Children and female passengers may not be taken on outward voyages from the continental United States.

§ 631.4 Stowaways and workaways. (a) The transport commander, agent, the master, and ship officers will use every precaution to prevent persons boarding Army transports as stowaways.

(b) In order to prevent unauthorized persons from boarding transports in the uniform of enlisted men, the commanding officers of units to embark immediately prior to embarkation will conduct a roll call inspection to see that only members of their organization are present in ranks. Before anchor is weighed if there is any reason to suspect that stowaways or other unauthorized persons are aboard, the transport will be searched by the ship's officers under the direction of the master. The transport commander will form the troops in ranks or otherwise dispose them so as to facilitate a thorough search of every part of the ship.

(c) The transport commander will see that all stowaways, whether alien or claiming American citizenship, and all workaways are reported to the port debarkation officer immediately upon arrival. The port debarkation officer will make necessary arrangements with immigration authorities, and the stowaways or workaways will not be permitted to leave the ship until they have been properly cleared.

(d) In the Philippines, they will be given the option of remaining aboard and returning on the transport or being turned over to the civil authorities for prosecution as vagrants. In other oversea ports they will be confined in a military guardhouse until disposed of in accordance with instructions from the immigration officials.

(e) In addition to the record in the office of the ship transportation officer or transportation agent, the master will cause to be entered in the ship log a record of all stowaways and workaways.

§ 631.5 Articles of an explosive or highly combustible nature excluded from baggage. Articles of an explosive or highly combustible nature will be excluded from all property and baggage loaded on transports, and no one will be permitted to have inflammable oils or explosives in his possession.

§ 631.6 Transport messes—(a) Classification. Each Army transport will, when practicable, have separately established thereon a main galley and a troop galley. The following messrooms will be established, when practicable, on each Army transport and serviced from galleys as indicated:

(1) Saloon mess	Main galley.
(2) Chief petty officers' mess
(3) Crew mess
(4) Patient mess (hospital ships only)
(5) Troop mess	Troop galley.

(b) Saloon mess. (1) The persons who may be subsisted in the saloon mess are the transport commander and commissioned staff, all commissioned military passenger personnel, including warrant officers, chief and junior grades and cadets of the United States Army, Air Force, Navy, Coast Guard, and Marine Corps, all civilian ship's officers, cadets and cadet officers of the Maritime Commission, Red Cross workers, and all cabin class passengers.

(2) Where special detached messrooms are provided on transports for use of cabin class passengers in order to relieve crowded conditions of the regular saloon mess, such messrooms will be operated as a part of the regular saloon mess and governed accordingly.

(c) Troop mess; civilian passengers with "troop" transportation. All civilian passengers travelling troop class will ordinarily be assigned to the troop mess, but the transport commander or ship administrative officer may, at his discretion, assign any such passenger to any other mess, provided the passenger agrees to pay the increased charge for meals.

(d) Meals in staterooms or quarters. No meals or luncheons will be served to passengers, military personnel, ship's officers, or crews of transports in their staterooms or quarters, unless under written authority of the transport surgeon.

(e) Complaints. All complaints regarding service, quantity, quality, or palatability of food will be made to the transport commander and reported by him to the Superintendent, Water Division, at the home port with complete report of action taken.

(f) Payment for subsistence required—(1) General. All persons chargeable for subsistence (except those listed in subparagraph (2) of this paragraph) will pay the ship administrative officer before embarkation at rates prescribed in paragraph (g) of this section. WD AGO Form 14–23 (old FD Form 16) (Schedule of Deposits for Meals Furnished to Officers of the Army and other Passengers and Persons Transported on United States Army Transports) will be prepared in quintuplicate; one completed copy will be filed as an inclosure to the subsistence account.

(2) Commissioned Army personnel and Red Cross workers. Commissioned Army personnel and Red Cross workers assigned to duty aboard ship will pay the ship administrative officer at the end of each voyage or immediately upon release from duty aboard the transport. WD AGO Form 14–23, will be prepared in three copies and one completed copy will be filed as an inclosure to the subsistence account. Personnel in this category when absent from the transport while in port, will not be required to pay for meals not taken, provided 1 day advance notice of absenteeism is furnished the ship administrative officer.

(3) Dependents. Dependents (including war spouses and children) when transported aboard Army transports, will be required to pay for subsistence, at time of embarkation, at the current prescribed rates.

(4) Meals not taken. Deductions will not be allowed for meals not taken during a voyage, or while the transport is in a foreign port, except as provided in subparagraph (2) of this paragraph.

(5) Entertainment of guests. When in port, guests may be entertained aboard transports by permission of the transport commander or ship administrative officer, but payment for subsistence so furnished will be made to the ship administrative officer at the current prescribed rate.

(6) Through passengers remaining on transports. Passengers traveling aboard Army transports may be accorded the usual accommodations on board, including subsistence.

(g) Charges for subsistence; general rates. The following charges will be made for meals furnished aboard Army transports to persons who are not entitled to be subsisted at Government expense:

(1) Commissioned Army personnel and Red Cross workers. The daily subsistance charge for commissioned Army personnel and Red Cross workers assigned to duty aboard ship will be the value of the current garrison ration at home port plus 65 percent per person.

(2) Cabin class passengers. (i) The daily subsistence charge for adults and children 6 years of age and over will be the value of the current garrison ration at home port plus 65 percent per person.

(ii) The daily subsistence charge for children under 6 years of age will be one-half of the adult rate in subdivision (i) of this subparagraph.

(3) Troop class passengers. The daily subsistence charge for troop class passengers will be the value of the current garrison ration at home port plus 20 percent per person.

(4) Computation. Five mills (0.005) and over will be considered 1 cent in computing the above subsistence charges.

AUTHORITY: §§ 632.1 to 632.19 issued under R. S. 161; 5 U. S. C. 22.

DERIVATION: AR 55–515, 1 Sept. 1942; AR 55–520, 1 Sept. 1942.

CHARTER OF VESSELS

§ 632.1 Commercial vessels. Commercial vessels as necessary and available will be chartered by an agency of the Government created for that purpose and will be refitted for troop and cargo service in accordance with standard specifications, under the direction of the Chief of Transportation, and assigned to the several ports to supplement the owned service.

§ 632.2 Charters. Privately owned vessels when requisitioned or chartered in the usual way by the Government for and on account of the Transportation Corps of the Department of the Army will be taken over under the charter party on the prescribed form.

§ 632.3 Time charter. Under this form of charter the owner or other Government agency maintains in seaworthy condition and operates the vessel for the Department of the Army, furnishing at owner's or other Government agency's expense all tools, equipment, supplies, and services, and also employs, pays, and discharges the master, officers, and crew, and is charged with the upkeep of the vessel.

§ 632.4 Bare-boat charter. Under this form of charter the United States takes over and operates the vessel, furnishing all provisions, fuel, and water; pays, hires, and discharges the master, officers, and crew, and is charged with the upkeep of the vessel.

§ 632.5 Rental of vessels by the Government. Where the Government is in possession of a private vessel under rental agreement with the owners or other Government agency thereof during the time negotiations for its purchase by the Government are in progress, rent for the vessel is properly payable under the rental agreement until approval of purchase agreement by the proper Government official, but in absence of any specific agreement the Government is not required or obligated to pay rent for the vessel subsequent to approval of purchase agreement up to and including date of payment of purchase money. (See 26 Comp. Dec. 738)

§ 632.6 Owners' obligation as to condition. Under either form of charter the vessel when accepted by the United States will be, or will forthwith be, made by and at the expense of the owner or other Government agency, tight, strong, and well and sufficiently tackled, appareled, furnished, and equipped, and in every respect seaworthy and in good running order and condition; fit for the service in which she has usually been employed. The following instructions must be carefully and thoroughly followed, as neglect in preparing and preserving a complete detailed record of the condition of the vessel at the time she is taken over, together with a complete detailed inventory, may cause great trouble and loss to the Government at the time of redelivery of the vessel to the owner, or other Government agency.

§ 632.7 Survey. (a) Upon receiving orders to take over a vessel from a private owner, or other Government agency, the officer charged with this duty, hereinafter called chartering officer, will call upon the owner or other Government agency delivering to him a copy of the requisition order, and arrange with the owner or other Government agency to make a survey of the physical condition of the ship and its machinery. The chartering officer will require the superintending engineer of the Army Transport Service at the nearest port to detail one or more marine experts experienced in the hull and deck departments of ocean-going steam vessels and one or more marine experts, holding license as chief engineer of ocean-going steam vessels and experienced in the operation, repair, and maintenance of the steam-engine department of ocean-going steam vessels, who in conjunction with the chartering officer and the owner or his representative will make a full, complete and detailed survey of the physical condition of the ship, its equipment, and machinery. This survey will specify the condition of each element and unit in the ship, whether excellent, good, fair, or poor, and if any element or unit be found other than excellent will specify in detail in what respect the condition is other than excellent, for example, if the bearing of crank shaft of main engine were found to have been burned out and the metal run, it would not be sufficient to show the main crank shaft as being "poor" but it would be required to have survey show in what respect it was "poor" by specifying the exact condition in detail. Such survey involves the opening up for inspection of all engines, machinery, and auxiliaries for examination, and the testing by operation of all machinery and appliances. The vessel must also be drydocked for survey, and report made on underwater parts including measurement of extent to which tail shaft is down, condition of paint on bottom, and any plates set up or indented, any seams or rivets leaking, and any bilge keels broken, bent, or loose.

(b) This survey will be certified as correct as to the date taken, both by the chartering officer, the superintending engineer or his assistant, and the owner or his representative or other Government agency. In the event the owner or other Government agency does not agree as to any item or items of the survey, or refuses to sign such survey, a detailed statement as to disputed items, signed by the owner or his representative, should be obtained. If the owner or other Government agency refuses or neglects to make such statement, a detailed report as to items not agreed upon will be appended to the report of survey.

(c) Embodied in the report of survey will be a brief statement of the history of the vessel including its name, type, dead-weight tonnage, gross tonnage, passenger capacity; speed in knots per hour; consumption of coal or oil per 24 hours; the service in which the vessel has been engaged; a statement of accidents, groundings, collisions, etc., within the past year; when last drydocked; when last painted from truck to water line; when bottom last scaled and painted; when water tanks last scaled, cleaned, cement washed, and tested for tightness; when tail shafts last drawn; and a copy of United States inspection certificate, copy of hull board report on last drydocking, and copy of classification certificate and when classification expires appended. If the ship has no classification, that fact will be certified by owners.

(d) The report of survey will be accomplished in accordance with a model form to be furnished by the Chief of Transportation.

§ 632.8 Inventories. The port steward and transportation purveyor will, in company with the chartering officer, make a complete inventory of the consumable stores, provisions, coal, oil, and water, as well as all furnishings, spares, tools, and supplies on the vessel. This inventory will be checked with the inventory furnished by the owner or other Government agency under terms of the charter and, in case it does not agree in all respects with the owner's or other Government agency's inventory, the owner's or other Government agency's attention will be called to any discrepancies, and if not corrected a full and detailed report of the items of difference should be made.

§ 632.9 Repairs. As it is the duty of the owner or other Government agency, as hereinbefore stated, to deliver the vessel to the Government in every respect seaworthy and in good running order and condition, immediately upon the completion of the survey the owner or other Government agency will be notified in writing to accomplish forthwith such repairs as may be necessary to make the vessel seaworthy and place her in good and efficient running order. This notice will contain a detailed statement of the work demanded by the Government and be prepared by the superintending engineer and signed by him as well as by the chartering officer. In the event that the owner or other Government agency does not at once comply with the notice to make the vessel seaworthy and place her in good and efficient running order, or in the event the Government deems it expedient to itself accomplish the repairs necessary to put the vessel in good running order and condition or to make her seaworthy, such work will be directed by the chartering officer to be done under the supervision of the superintending engineer, and charged to the owner or other Government agency, the charges being deducted from the charter hire. An accurate account of the cost of such repairs will be kept.

§ 632.10 Removal of equipment, etc. In the event the Government removes from the vessel any of its furnishings, equipment, appliances, furniture, machinery, or installations, the superintending engineer will cause all such articles to be carefully boxed or crated and properly labeled with name of ship and list of contents; and same to be stored in a safe place for preservation against the time of redelivery of vessel to owner, or other Government agency. The superintending engineer will cause lists to be made in quadruplicate, showing all removals and giving the contents of each box or crate with place where stored; one copy of which will be delivered to the Chief of Transportation, one copy to owner of vessel, or other Government agency, one copy placed with the ship's papers, and one copy filed with the officer in command at the port where the removals are made.

§ 632.11 Execution of charter. (a) The chartering officer will have the charter executed by the owner or other Government agency and by himself for the United States in triplicate, one copy for the General Accounting Office, Military Division, one copy for the Chief of Transportation, and one copy for the contractor on the ship.

(b) In determining the amount to be inserted in paragraph 14, time form, and paragraph 9, bare-boat form, the owner or other Government agency will be warned and cautioned against stating a false or fictitious value for his vessel; but will state true value of the vessel considering its age, history, and present condition.

§ 632.12 Disposition of survey, inventory, etc. The original and three copies of the survey, inventory, and reports connected therewith will be retained by or forwarded to the officer in charge of the designated home port, who will send one copy of each to the Chief of Transportation, one copy to the owner or other Government agency or the vessel, and one copy will be placed with the ship's papers.

§ 632.13 Change of form of charter. In the event a boat has been under time charter and she is to be taken over on bare-boat form, all the steps heretofore outlined by way of survey, inventory, etc., will be performed as if the boat were coming into Government service for the first time with no previous Government service.

REDELIVERY OF VESSELS

§ 632.14 General. When a vessel under charter is to be redelivered to the owner or other Government agency the Chief of Transportation will advise the officer in charge of the port where redelivery will be made of the fact, designating the date set for redelivery and directing such officer to accomplish the redelivery. Upon receipt of this advice, the officer in charge of the port will advise the owner of the vessel and any other parties interested and will appoint a board of survey and an inventory board in accordance with §§ 632.18 and 632.19. In case the vessel has not yet arrived at the port, he will radio advice to the master of the intention to redeliver the vessel and instruct him to make such preparations for it as can be made before arrival, including inventory and statement of consumable stores.

§ 632.15 Letter of notification. (a) The letter to the owner or other Government agency will inform him of the intention to redeliver the vessel as soon as practicable after completion of the present voyage. He will be advised of the probable date of arrival of the vessel at the port, and of the actual date of arrival as soon as it is known.

(b) He should also be advised, in case he should allege damages to the vessel for which the Department of the Army is responsible, to submit in writing, without unnecessary delay, a verified claim giving in detail the items of such damage, with the cost and proof thereof; and that the claim should be complete, represent the entire claim of the owners and should so state; also that it is desirable that the owner or his representative be present during the survey of the vessel by a board convened for the purpose, for free consultation with members of the board in regard to any damages to the vessel while in the service of the Department of the Army and for conference to determine just settlement or the just lump sum to be paid by the Government in lieu of reconditioning the ship.

(c) Form of letter of notification of intention to redeliver:

SIR: You are hereby notified that the Department of the Army will turn over and deliver to you the S. S. ---------- as soon as practicable after completion of the present voyage.

The present voyage will be completed upon the arrival of the vessel at this port, which it is expected will be on ----------. You will be advised of the actual date of arrival as soon as it is known.

Should you deem that in accordance with the terms of the charter, you have any claim against the Department of the Army on account of this vessel while in the service of the Department of the Army, for alleged damages or otherwise, it is requested that you submit, without unnecessary delay, a verified statement giving in detail the items and the amounts involved to recondition the vessel according to the terms of the charter.

The claim should be complete, represent your entire claim, and should so state.

It is requested that either yourself or your representative be present during the survey of the vessel, before redelivery, for free consultation with members of the board in surveying the vessel and for conference in determining a just settlement or a just lump sum to be paid you by the Government in lieu of reconditioning the ship.

(Signature of officer in charge of redelivery.)

§ 632.16 Prompt redelivery. In accordance with the terms of the charters of ships in the service of the Department of the Army, upon giving five days' written notice to the owner, or other Government agency, the United States may at any time, when the vessel is at a United States port, cancel the requisition charter without prejudice to the accrued rights of either party. In order that the owners may regain use of the vessel for commercial service as soon as practicable, it is desirable that this notice be served with a view of prompt redelivery of the vessel after the needs of the United States for the actual use of the vessel have been concluded, and when the vessel has been retained in the possession of the United States sufficient time to enable a thorough survey of the vessel to be made with a view of collecting all available evidence from the ship to determine the repairs necessary to recondition the ship, in accordance with the terms of the charter, or lump-sum settlement to be paid in lieu of repairs.

§ 632.17 Notification of redelivery. Therefore, when it is seen that the board of survey will complete its survey, findings, and recommendations, and that the vessel will be ready for redelivery on a certain date, the officer in charge of the port will cause a proper notice to be served upon the owner or other Government agency in accordance with the terms of the charter, stating in substance that on and after the date fixed the ship in question will be considered as redelivered to the owner, and that all responsibility therefor on and after such date will be with the owner, or other Government agency, and that the Department of the Army from such date will assume no obligations or liability concerning the vessel. In case of Army vessels manned by the Navy, the Navy Department will be advised of such action and will be requested to effect the actual delivery of the ship at the time designated. The following form of letter will be used for notification of redelivery:

SIR: You are hereby notified that the Department of the Army will turn over and deliver to you the S. S. ---------- at ---------- city of ---------- State of ---------- on the ---- day of ---------- at ---- o'clock, this notice being sufficient in accordance with the terms of the charter.

You are further notified that from and after the above date and hour the said steamship will be at your expense for caretakers, wharfage and all other respects, no liability therefor remaining thereafter against the United States, the vessel being held thereafter subject to the owner's risk without prejudice to accrued rights.

(Signature of the officer in charge or redelivery.)

§ 632.18 Inventory board. The inventory board will consist of at least two officers. The duties of the board will be to prepare an inventory and a statement of consumable stores. The itemized inventory and the statement will be delivered to the board of survey for their consideration as prescribed in § 632.19 (a). All articles of equipment on the ship supplied by the Department of the Army to which the Department retains title will be removed. All equipment belonging to the vessel will be inventoried by the inventory board accompanied by a representative of the owner, if practicable.

§ 632.19 Board of survey—(a) Composition and general functions. The board of survey will consist of three officers. The board will be provided with the services of any necessary technical advisors. Its duties will be to survey the vessel to determine the actual damages, if any, sustained by it while in the service of the Department of the Army; to estimate the cost of repairs necessary to recondition the vessel in accordance with the terms of the charter, and to determine the lump-sum settlement regarded as just compensation to be paid the owner in lieu of repairs. In preparing their report the board of survey will consider the inventories and statements of consumable stores.

(b) General procedure. The board of survey will survey and will come to a finding on each vessel as soon as possible after its arrival at the port, after consideration of any itemized claims for damages submitted by the owner or other Government agency and of all possible evidence obtained relating to the history of the ship and its services prior to allocation to the Department of the Army. It will make a recommendation of the necessary repairs that should be made to place the ship in the same or as good order and condition as that in which she was when delivered to the United States, ordinary wear and tear and damage due to the operation of risks assumed by the owners excepted, and the lump sum regarded as just compensation for the damage occasioned to the vessel that it recommends to be paid in lieu of repairs. When, in the judgment of the board, minor repairs can be made without interference with the survey of the vessel, the matter should be brought promptly to the attention of the officer in charge of the port for necessary action. The board at its discretion may solicit bids for the accomplishment of repairs and consider such bids in arriving at the award determined upon. In case any member of the board disagrees with the majority, he will submit a minority report to be forwarded with the report of the board.

(c) Testimony. Testimony should be brief, to the point, provide facts, and not opinions. Interrogation as to a number of items of similar character can oftentimes be grouped together and considered in one question. If the witness says he does not know about the facts he should be interrogated as to who might know. The testimony of officers, crew, or persons who have personal knowledge of the facts will be taken to establish (1) the condition of the ship prior to and during service with the Department of the Army. Testimony as to ship's age and its prior use, such as for carrying sulphur, etc., has an important bearing, as does history as to collisions, etc., (2) how the damage was occasioned and when, i. e., if prior to use by the Department of the Army or by third parties or through collision or accident or what other manner. For example: Testimony has shown that refrigeration repairs were due not to stevedore damage as claimed, but to original defective construction.

(d) Owners not to participate in board's discussions. The owners will not be allowed to participate in any discussion between representatives of the Government as to the proper amount to be paid the owners, nor will owners, their lawyers or representatives, be given access to the facts, figures, testimony, and information gathered by the Government officials in the preparation of its case.

(e) Basis of dealings with owners. All dealings with the owners should be on the basis of claims submitted by them and should consist of approving or disapproving each item in the light of the facts obtained from the Department of the Army's investigations.

(f) Lump-sum agreement with owners. The owner of the vessel or his authorized representative should be consulted by the board of survey with the view of recommending, if practicable, a just lump-sum payment in lieu of repairs that would be accepted by the owner. The owner or his authorized representative should sign a statement on the report as to his willingness to accept the lump-sum payment recommended in final settlement and should give full release of all claims and liabilities covering the use of the vessel while in the service of the Department of the Army, or furnish the board of survey with a statement of his objections, to be forwarded with the report of the board. The release should be on the form prescribed for the purpose.

(g) Time allowance. A rule for estimating time allowance or demurrage is to determine the period required to accomplish the repairs on Government account and deduct from this the length of time required to complete repairs to be made on owner's or other Government agency's account. For example: If the Government repairs require 20 days, owner's 10 days, the time allowance should not exceed 10 days. The owner or other Government agency can not object to this deduction on the theory that he does not intend to make these repairs following redelivery. Further, for example: If the Government repairs will require 10 days and the owner's or other Government agency's repairs 20 days, there should be no time allowance granted whatever. The basis for computing demurrage is not charter hire but the prevailing rate of hire that such vessel could earn when released for service. It may be less than charter hire. In case it should be greater that fact should be considered in advance in determining whether the charter should be canceled.

(h) Form of charter to be considered. The form of charter should be considered especially with reference to the obligations of the Department of the Army for reconditioning. Under a time charter when a vessel is manned by the owner he is responsible for maintaining the vessel in efficient state and operating it. Repairs which become necessary in that connection are for his account, the Department of the Army being chargeable for such damage as results directly from the carrying of its cargo or troops, and which is not chargeable to wear and tear. The Department of the Army is also chargeable with the reconditioning of alterations made for its convenience. Under bare-boat charter the Department of the Army mans the vessel, and has the use of all equipment and stores and full charge of the operation. In this case the owner is chargeable with the wear and tear incident to the service contemplated under the charter, but the repairs necessary for maintenance and operation, accounts for articles of inventory and stores, and the reconditioning of alterations are chargeable to the Department of the Army. The board of survey should consult the judge advocate, maritime affairs, concerning the determination of the extent of the Government's obligations under the charter.

(i) Drydocking. When an inspection of the hull is deemed necessary to enable the board of survey to arrive at a decision as to the repairs necessary for damage claimed by the owners or other Government agency, the officer in charge of the port will arrange for the necessary drydocking, and in the case of Navy manned vessels the Navy Department will be requested to make arrangements for prompt drydockings so that the work of surveying both the inside and the outside of the vessel may proceed simultaneously. If it is found impossible to obtain necessary drydocking facilities, the matter will be reported to the Chief of Transportation for his decision as to whether the board of survey shall delay its findings until drydocking is had or whether the board shall submit a partial recommendation. In every case, however, unless specific instructions to the contrary are given, the report of the board of survey should cover fully in its recommendation the disposition of all claims for damages incurred on the vessel.

(j) Alterations and additions. Inquiry should be made as to whether or not any repairs or additions have been made to the vessel by which its condition has been bettered, and if so the value of these betterments so that the proper credit may be taken by the Government in the settlement. For example: Winches may have been installed by the Government and not taken off at redelivery. The mere fact that the removal of such installations might cost more than would be their value after removel is no reason for not crediting the Government with their value if they are left on board and are an improvement to the vessel. In case a money allowance is made to the owners or other Government agency, for their removal, the Government should receive credit for the value they will have after removal, or provision should be made that they be turned over to the proper Government department. In the case of gun mounts, gun crew's quarters, etc., it is particularly necessary to establish by testimony, as nearly as possible, the date of installation in order that the responsibility for removal may be properly placed.

(k) Seaworthiness. Inquiry should be made as to whether or not at the time of delivery to the Army repairs were made to render the vessel seaworthy, and for which a reduction should be made by the Department of the Army in any settlement made by the owners. The facts in connection with this should be ascertained and reported together with such information as is obtainable as to whether notice for the necessity of these repairs was brought to the attention of the owners at the time. In some cases the Government has possibly waived its right to collect for these seaworthy repairs but the facts in connection should be shown in the report, and the charter will be followed as to charging them to owner's or other Government agency's account in the absence of other facts.

(l) Consumable stores and inventory. The board should examine carefully the survey, the statement of consumable stores and inventory made at the time the vessel was originally taken over. Awards made by the inventory board should be closely scrutinized to avoid duplication of any items by allowing them as restoration on the report of survey.

(m) Fair wear and tear. In determining lump sum for damages or in considering just and reasonable repairs to place the vessel in same condition as when received, no payment or repairs will be made where damages result from fair wear and tear.

(n) Dock trial. In redelivery the dock trial should be in the presence of old and new engine departments.

(o) Points to be included in report of board of survey. The report of the board of survey will include the following:

(1) A brief statement of the time, place, and character of the inspection made by the board of survey in arriving at the conclusions reached in their report.

(2) A brief history of the vessel, showing when and where it was received into the service of the Department of the Army, under what circumstances, and charter arrangements; the use of the vessel in the Army service; the general condition of the vessel at the time of its delivery to the Army compared with condition of redelivery; a statement showing what property and equipment have been installed by the Department of the Army during its use of the vessel.

(3) An itemized statement of the repairs necessary to put the vessel in condition required by charter and the lump sum regarded as just compensation for the damage thus occasioned to the vessel and recommended to be paid in lieu of repairs, giving such detail as will clearly indicate the reason for the action of the survey board.

(4) In case repairs are to be made a statement that these repairs cover only damage done to the vessel while in the service of the Department of the Army and required to place the vessel in the same or as good condition as that in which she was taken over for operation for the Department of the Army, ordinary wear and tear excepted.

(5) In the event that a money payment is recommended by the board covering the time the vessel is undergoing repairs, a statement that such payment covers the loss of services of the vessel during such time repairs are being accomplished. This figure should be arrived at independently of charter hire and in no case should exceed the sum equal to the charter hire for the period which the board estimates necessary to accomplish such repairs.

(p) Forwarding report of board. The report of the board of survey will be forwarded to the Chief of Transportation through the officer in charge of the port. The latter will forward with the report any recommendation he may wish to make thereon. If the report is considered complete by the Chief of Transportation it may be referred to the Judge Advocate General for review and legal opinion, in case there are any unusual features or any legal points involved which the latter has not already passed upon. In the event that the report is not complete or in proper shape, the Chief of Transportation will take such action as he may deem necessary to have the report completed. Final action will be taken on all reports by the Chief of Transportation acting for the Secretary of the Army. The Chief of Transportation will also take the necessary steps to cause any payments to be made to the owners which he may approve on these reports.

AUTHORITY: §§ 633.1 to 633.15 issued under R. S. 161, 41 Stat. 604, 49 Stat. 421, 56 Stat. 364, 60 Stat. 126; 5 U. S. C. 22, 10 U. S. C. 756, 756b, 37 U. S. C. 112, 112d.

DERIVATION: AR 55–120, Apr. 26, 1943; AR 55–160, Apr. 26, 1943; TM 55–525, June 1945.

§ 633.1 Dependents—(a) To whom transportation furnished—(1) Military personnel, permanent change of station—(i) When authorized. Subject to subdivision (ii) of this subparagraph, and also subparagraph (3) of this paragraph, effective June 1, 1942, when any officer, warrant officer, or enlisted man above the fourth grade is ordered to make a permanent change of station, the United States will furnish transportation in kind from funds appropriated for the transportation of the Army to his new station for his dependents: Provided, That if the costs of such transportation exceed that for transportation from the old to the new station, the excess costs will be paid to the United States by the officer, warrant officer, or enlisted man concerned.

(ii) Restriction. For military reasons, for the duration of the present war, only one such movement of dependents is authorized on and after September 1, 1942. Present regulations governing the movement of dependents of military personnel returned to civil life through retirement, discharge, or relief from active duty remain in effect and are not modified by the foregoing limitations.

(iii) Permanent change of station defined. The words "permanent change of station" as used in subdivision (i) of this subparagraph include the change from home to first station when an officer, warrant officer, or enlisted man, including retired personnel and members of the reserve components of the Army, is ordered to active duty other than training duty and the change from the last station to home in connection with retirement, relief from active duty, or transfer to a reserve component. An enlisted man discharged in order to enable him to accept an appointment as an officer and ordered as such to proceed to another station for duty is an officer ordered to make a permanent change of station within the meaning of this paragraph.

(iv) Officer candidate—(a) Commissioned graduates. A commissioned graduate of an officers' candidate school, having dependents as defined in paragraph (b) of this section, may be furnished transportation for such dependents as follows:

(1) Transferred to school as warrant officer or noncommissioned officer of first three grades. From last permanent duty station (from which transferred to the school) to first permanent duty station as a commissioned officer.

(2) Transferred to school as an enlisted man below the first three grades. From the home of record indicated at time of acceptance of commission to the first permanent duty station as a commissioned officer.

(b) Nongraduates. A nongraduating warrant officer or enlisted person of the first three grades, having dependents as defined in paragraph (b) of this section, may be furnished transportation for such dependents from the last permanent duty station (from which transferred to the school) to the new permanent duty station (to which transferred from the school) or as otherwise authorized by this part. Transportation at Government expense for dependents of nongraduate enlisted men below the first three grades is not authorized.

(2) Officers of graduating classes of United States Military Academy. Effective January 19, 1943, for the duration of the war, officers of the graduating classes of the United States Military Academy will be entitled to transportation for their authorized dependents, at Government expense, from the home of the officer concerned or from West Point, New York, as actually performed, to the first permanent station, including a station at a service school of respective arms or services at which they may be assigned for first permanent station. Transportation of dependents is also authorized from the first permanent station to the next permanent station. The transportation herein authorized is not subject to the wartime restriction stated in subparagraph (1) (ii) of this paragraph, except that upon completion of travel of dependents to the second permanent duty station all travel of dependents at Government expense thereafter, will be subject to such restriction.

(3) Military personnel; evacuation, restricted assignments, temporary duty outside the United States, quarters not available, or indeterminate temporary stations within the United States—(i) When authorized. Except as provided in subdivision (iv) of this subparagraph, for the period beginning December 8, 1941, and ending 6 months after the termination of the war, or such earlier time as the Congress by concurrent resolution or the President by proclamation may designate, dependents of military personnel may be furnished transportation at Government expense when officers, warrant officers, or enlisted men above the fourth grade are:

(a) Evacuation. On duty at places designated by the Secretary of the Army as within zones from which their dependents should be evacuated, for military reasons, or

(b) Restricted area. Transferred or assigned to permanent duty at places where their dependents are not, for military reasons, permitted to accompany them, or

(c) Outside the United States. Assigned to temporary duty outside the continental United States or in Alaska, away from their permanent stations on orders which do not provide for return to the permanent station, or which do not specify any limit to the period of absence from the permanent station, or

(d) No quarters available. Ordered to a permanent station where the commanding officer has determined that Government quarters for their dependents are not available. In case no Government quarters are available at the post, camp or station to which the military personnel is assigned, the individual concerned will furnish the transportation officer, at the time request is made for transportation of dependents, a certificate, in duplicate, to that effect, from the commanding officer having jurisdiction thereof.

(e) Indeterminate temporary station within the United States. Assigned to temporary duty within the continental United States exclusive of Alaska away from their permanent stations within the continental United States exclusive of Alaska on orders which provide that the individual, or the organization to which the individual is assigned, will not return to the former permanent station but will be ordered to a new station to be determined at a later date.

(ii) Places between which transportation is authorized—(a) Restricted area; outside United States; quarters not available; indeterminate temporary station within United States. Under provisions of subdivision (i) (b), (c) and (d) of this subparagraph, from the last permanent station (or home under subparagraph (1) (iii) of this paragraph to any place in the continental United States exclusive of Alaska that such military personnel may designate, except a place within an area declared by the Department of the Army to be restricted so far as travel of dependents thereto is concerned. Transportation may be furnished from a place other than the last permanent station upon payment of the excess cost, if any.

(b) Evacuation. Under provisions of subdivision (i) (a) of this subparagraph transportation may be furnished from the place within the area ordered to be evacuated where the dependents are when the evacuation order becomes effective regardless of whether such dependents were entitled to transportation at Government expense to the point where located within the evacuation area. Dependents will not be entitled to transportation incidental to evacuation unless they are actually within an area at the time it is ordered to be evacuated. Transportation is authorized to places as prescribed in (a) of this subdivision.

(iii) Subsequent transfer. If transportation is furnished as prescribed in subdivision (ii) of this subparagraph and such military personnel is later transferred to a permanent duty station not within a restricted zone, dependents may, subject to subdivision (iv) of this subparagraph, be furnished transportation at Government expense from the place to which they were sent under subdivision (ii) of this subparagraph, to the new permanent duty station, or from any point to the new permanent duty station upon payment of the excess cost, if any.

(iv) Restriction. For military reasons, for the duration of the present war, the provisions of this subparagraph are subject to the restriction that only one such movement of dependents is authorized at Government expense on and after September 1, 1942, except that this restriction will not apply to movements which may be authorized by reason of mass evacuation from designated areas as directed by the Secretary of the Army. Mass evacuation in all instances is to be interpreted as an exodus from an area occasioned by a probable invasion, bombing, or other pressing necessity as determined by the Secretary of the Army.

(4) Civilian employees—(i) When authorized. Except as provided in subdivision (v) of this subparagraph for the period beginning December 8, 1941, and ending 6 months after the termination of the war, or such earlier time as the Congress by concurrent resolution or the President by proclamation may designate, dependents of a civilian employee may be furnished transportation at Government expense when such employee is:

(a) Restricted area. Transferred to a permanent duty station where dependents are not for military reasons permitted to accompany him, or

(b) Evacuation. On duty at a place designated by the Secretary of the Army as within a zone from which his dependents should be evacuated for military reasons, or

(c) Outside the United States. Transferred to temporary duty outside the continental United States or in Alaska, away from his permanent station on orders which do not provide for return to such station or do not specify any limit to the period of absence therefrom.

(ii) Places between which transportation is authorized—(a) From last permanent station except when evacuated. From the last permanent station to any place in the continental United States exclusive of Alaska, that the employee may designate, except a place within an area declared by the Department of the Army to be restricted so far as travel of dependents thereto is concerned, and except further that transportation may be furnished, in the case of evacuation, from the place within the area to be evacuated where the dependents are when the evacuation order becomes effective, regardless of whether such dependents were entitled to transportation at Government expense to the point where located within the evacuation area. Dependents will not be entitled to transportation incidental to evacuation unless they are actually within the area at the time it is ordered to be evacuated.

(b) From other than last permanent station. If furnished under provisions of subdivision (i) (a) and (c) of this subparagraph, transportation may be furnished from a place other than the last permanent station upon payment of the excess cost, if any.

(iii) Subsequent transfer. If transportation is furnished as prescribed in subdivision (ii) of this subparagraph and the employee is later permanently transferred to a duty station not within a restricted zone, dependents may, subject to subdivision (v) of this subparagraph, be furnished transportation at Government expense from the place to which they were sent under subdivision (ii) of this subparagraph, to the new permanent duty station, or from any point to the new permanent duty station upon payment of the excess cost, if any.

(iv) Regulations applicable. Regulations applicable to transportation of dependents of military personnel of the Regular Army upon permanent change of station are hereby made applicable to transportation of dependents of civilian employees authorized under this subparagraph except as otherwise provided herein. Transportation of dependents is not authorized upon normal changes of station of civilian employees where the conditions in subdivision (i) of this subparagraph do not exist.

(5) Dependents of civilian employees dying during assignment outside the United States—(i) When authorized. Effective as of September 6, 1940, when a civilian employee of the Department of the Army dies during a period of assignment to a post outside the continental limits of the United States, or while in transit to or from such post, or while temporarily absent from duty thereat, the Department of the Army will pay the cost of transportation of the dependents of the decedent to his former home or to such other place in the United States not more distant than the former home as the Chief of Transportation may designate.

(ii) Conditions. The costs of transportation of dependents allowable under the foregoing will include the actual costs of transporting such of the dependents of the decedent as are outside the continental limits of the United States to the designated destination, provided that the costs will not exceed the cost of transportation by the most direct route from the official oversea station of the deceased employee to said destination, and provided that travel is undertaken during the period of 1 year from the date of the decease of the employee.

(iii) Terms defined. Terms defined as used in this subparagraph:

(a) The word "home" means a fixed or permanent dwelling place synonymous with place of fixed abode as distinguished from a mere temporary residence.

(b) "Dependents" includes a lawful widow, children, stepchildren, and adopted children, if unmarried, under 21 years of age, and in fact dependent upon the decedent for support, or if physically or mentally incapable of self-support regardless of age; and dependent parents who were a part of the decedent's household.

(c) "Continental United States" means the 48 States and the District of Columbia.

(iv) Reimbursement. Reimbursement for allowances herein specified is authorized. Otherwise, such transportation or reimbursement will be furnished under the same regulations as are applicable to the transportation of dependents of personnel of the Regular Army on permanent change of station.

(6) Transportation otherwise authorized for dependents of deceased military personnel. Where an officer or enlisted man dies while on duty outside the continental limits of the United States his authorized dependents are entitled to transportation from the duty station overseas at which he dies either to his home or place of burial in the United States. If not authorized by the foregoing statement, transportation is not otherwise authorized for dependents in the case of decease of officers and enlisted men, except in the status of attendant to remains. (See MS Comp. Gen. A 24108, September 19, 1928.) See also § 633.6 reference dependent acting in the capacity of an attendant. Dependents entitled to transportation under this subparagraph are those entitled to transportation in connection with permanent change of station. Transportation must be used within 1 year from date of decease of the officer or enlisted man.

(b) Dependents defined. Except as otherwise indicated in paragraph (a) (5) of this section, the term "dependent" as used in these regulations includes: lawful wife, unmarried children under 21 years of age (including stepchildren and adopted children who are in fact dependent), and the father and mother of the person concerned, provided he or she is in fact dependent upon such person for his or her chief support.

(c) Station of warrant officer, Army Mine Planter Service, defined. For warrant officers, Army Mine Planter Service, the term "station" as used herein will, in addition to the definition in paragraph (a) (1) (iii) of this section, be interpreted to mean a shore station or the home port of the vessel to which the warrant officer is ordered. A duly authorized change in home port of such vessel will be considered to be a change of station.

§ 633.2 Applicants for enlistment, and recruits—(a) Applicants for enlistment. (1) Transportation will be furnished to accepted applicants for enlistment from the place of acceptance for enlistment, whether a recruiting station or other place where tentatively accepted by a member of a canvassing party or other authorized representative of the recruiting service, to a recruit depot or other designated place of enlistment.

(2) Return transportation; when furnished. Return transportation to the place of acceptance for enlistment will be furnished to applicants for enlistment who are rejected upon final examination, except those who:

(i) Are rejected because of disqualifications for enlistment concealed by them, or

(ii) Refuse to enlist.

(b) Recruits. Recruits forwarded from place of enlistment will be furnished the same transportation as enlisted men on change of station.

§ 633.3 Civilian witnesses before military courts; not in Government employ. Civilians not in Government employ are paid mileage and will not be furnished with Government transportation; except that, when in the opinion of local commanding officers commercial transportation is inadequate, such civilian witnesses may be transported in Government-owned motor vehicles. When such transportation is furnished, a deduction of 3 cents per mile will be deducted from any payment for mileage otherwise due.

§ 633.4 Enlisted persons, upon retirement—(a) Transportation. There is no authority of law for issuing a transportation request to an enlisted person upon retirement for any distance for which the law provides that such person receive travel pay at the rate of 5 cents per mile. For sea travel involved in travel between place of retirement and place to which travel is authorized, only transportation in kind shall be allowed for such sea travel, subject to paragraph (b) of this section; Provided, That where such person is permitted by the Department of the Army to select as a residence a foreign country under the conditions set forth in current Army regulations, transportation in kind involving sea travel thereto may be furnished only when the action required by said regulations has been taken and it is so stated in competent travel orders.
